Northwest Sinfonietta, First of Four-Program Community Concert Series, to Play Here

A four-program Community Concert Series will get under way Tuesday with a musical program by the Northwest Sinfonietta under the direction of Henry Deneche.

The program is especially arranged for this group of twenty key musicians from the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra which is touring the upper midwest prior to the opening of the symphony season.

Mr. Deneche and the Sinfonietta have carried symphonic music into communities which could not sponsor symphonies.

Much of their work has been experimentation in new methods of music expression, such as exploring the relationship between music and painting.

The remainder of the Series is made up of a theatrical production and two more musical presentations.

"The Hasty Heart", a comedy drama which ran for more than 200 performances on Broadway, will play on Dec. 14, Margalo Gilmore, a well-known figure in New York theatre, will direct a cast chosen by the New York Theatre Guild.

Third in the series is a presentation of light opera by the Gainey-Rondahl-Poleri Trio. The concert of solo, duet, and trio compositions is scheduled for Feb. 1.

Henry L. Scott, "the Will Rogers of the Piano", will conclude the series with an evening of piano sense and nonsense. The type of recital which Mr. Scott will present April 11 has been the subject of articles in Colliers and Life magazines.

These programs are arranged primarily for the student body and all students are admitted on their budget tickets. Season tickets are necessary only for those not having budget tickets. No single admissions will be sold.

Routine Business Occupies Senate In First Sessions of Quarter

In the first three meetings of the Student Senate this year steps were taken to organize student activities for the coming year.

On September 8 it was agreed that each member of the Senate would submit names of students for the social committee. It was further agreed that the Senate would nominate three members of the student body for Homecoming chairman.

At the second meeting on September 14 an open letter from E. H. Kleinpell, President of the College, was read. The letter was a plea for more student cooperation in the improvement of the appearance of school buildings. Particular note was given to cigarette butts in halls and failure to remove dirty dishes from cafeteria tables. The subject of magazines for the North Hall Union was discussed but deferred for later action.

On September 20 the Senate granted students permission to bring outsiders to social functions provided they obtained a guest card from one of the deans. A request was sent to the administration asking that portable bulletin boards be placed at the first floor landing in South hall, and in front of gymnasium balcony doors in North hall. These boards would replace those now at the entrance of both halls.

Four Advisors Named To Meletean Staff

This year's Meletean will have a four member faculty advisory staff to replace the position previously held by Maud Latta, history department, now retired.

Carleton Ames, sociology department, will act as chairman and coordinator of the staff. Al Boeck, journalism department, will assume the responsibilities as editing adviser, and Louis A. Kollmeyer, of the art department, will be illustrations adviser. One new member is yet to be appointed.

Art Waters, senior, will head the Meletean student staff, and will appoint his own staff assistants.

C. B. King Married Miss Mordieck

Miss Rose Marie Mordieck, former speech instructor, was married to music instructor Chauncey B. King, at St. Paul March 1, 1949. Mr. and Mrs. King did not announce the wedding until the close of the spring term.

The faculty presented them with an electric mixer at a dinner given by President and Mrs. E. H. Kleinpell, September 3rd.

Staff Moves Paper To New Room

Clattering typewriters and the hustle of the Voice staff will be framed in a new setting this year. Having moved out of room 18, South hall, bag and baggage, The Voice has found sanctuary in the old Meletean room, room 26 South hall.

Back in 1889 the Student Voice was entered at the River Falls post office as second class mail. Since then it has had offices in various places. Last year The Voice office was in room 18 S, a room which it shared with the Art Club. This was not an ideal setup for either of the parties concerned.

Among several new projects in the planning stage by the Voice staff and Mr. Boeck, the faculty adviser of the publication, is a type-setting lab. The typesetting lab will be used by the Voice staff to learn the fundamentals of hand typesetting, to set banners, headlines and to plot pages. Plans on the typesetting lab are beginning to materialize.

Both business office and the editorial office will be found in room 26 S. The Voice this year has as its Editor, Wallace Smetana, who has spent two years on the staff. Smetana will be assisted by Robert Wickstrom. Business Manager is Don Mattson and Business Assistant, Don Trewartha. Lloyd Wolfe is in charge of circulation as manager of that department and has as his assistants, Mary Wood, Ann Smith, and Marian Aebly.

Palette Club Open For New Members

LeRoy Stern, president of the Palette Club, announced after the conclusion of the last meeting, September 21, that the club will accept for membership anyone interested in its functions.

Louis Kollmeyer, the club's adviser, reports that the next meeting will be held October 5.

Silent Salesmanship Proves Beneficial

Ronnie Blagen, 13-year-old campus school 8th grader, says that college folk just didn't buy papers from him when he sold them by hand in the entrance of South hall, but they do buy them out of a box.

"College people just didn't buy their papers from me," says Ronnie. "I could stand there all morning and only sell two or three. I had to give up the job. But now since the box with a slot for the nickel has been put up by Mr. Cole, the janitor, about a dozen papers are sold there every morning."

Teachers Crowd Extension Courses

River Falls State Teachers College is offering extension courses in five counties this year: Barron, Pepin, Pierce, Polk, and St. Croix.

Within the five counties are eleven extension centers with a total enrollment exceeding two hundred students. The students are taking the work to renew teaching permits and to apply toward a college degree.

Instructors from the college meet the classes one evening a week for a two and one-half hour session. The present courses will continue until December.

The schedule is:
Amery: Miss Arlene Smelser, instructor in reading; Barron: Nicholas Jadinak, music; Clear Lake: Miss Blanche Davis, speech; Cumberland: Louis Kollmeyer, art; Durand: C. B. King, music; Ellsworth: Philip S. Anderson, educational psychology.

Also: Glenwood City: L. G. Stone, mental hygiene; Hammond: Miss Carrie Dorsey, reading; Milltown, Robert Fidler, teaching of elementary science; New Richmond: Charles G. Stratton, principles of geography, and Spring Valley: Miss Ann Dubbe, reading.

Carleton Ames Returns

Carleton C. Ames has returned to the college faculty after a year's study at the University of Wisconsin.

After final approval of his thesis and the required oral examination, he will have completed his doctorate in European history, emphasis: England and the British Empire. Mr. Ames expects these finalities to be effected about January 1950.

Practice Teaching Classes Expands To Five Nearby High Schools

Seniors majoring in a secondary education teaching field have been assigned to do practice teaching in high schools of five nearby towns.

Dr. L. G. Stone, Chairman of the Professional Education Division, states that although this arrangement is not new to River Falls, it has never been necessary to organize off-campus practice teaching on such a large scale.

During the fall term, the off-campus program involves only the students whose major fields are science, mathematics, English, history, and agriculture. Other seniors will be scheduled in these schools during the winter and spring terms.

These students are assigned for a full half day, either forenoon or afternoon, and will continue throughout the entire term. This practice teaching involves half of the student program for the entire term.

The schools involved and the number of students practice teaching are: Hudson, eleven; Ellsworth, nine; Prescott, six; New Richmond, two, and River Falls, eleven.

The students commute from the campus to their schools in automobiles which enables them to be on the campus a half day for the other part of their program.

Students in the elementary curriculum do their practice teaching in the campus school.

Arthur Waters, editor of the Meletean, announced that the Student Directory, published annually by the Meletean staff, will go on sale next week.

At a recent meeting of the staff a board of advisers was picked consisting of Al Boeck, instructor of journalism; Carleton Ames, instructor of history, and Louis A. Kollmeyer, instructor of art.

The Student Directory contains a mine of facts valuable to every student. A brief outline of what is included is the following:

the names of all students, their year in school, home, local address and phone number, student yells and songs, names of organizations and their officers, faculty names, address and phone number, general regulations, plus other vital information.

WATERS

The publication is supported by advertising and the fee the students pay, which is around thirty-five cents.

Mr. Waters needs more help on the Meletean to fill staff positions. Anyone interested in working on the Meletean is urged to get in touch with Mr. Waters.

Enrollment Record Set With 896 Students

A record enrollment of 896 students at River Falls State Teachers College has been announced by the office.

This total surpasses last year's enrollment of 823 by 73 more students. Freshmen number 287 this year compared with last year's 296.

Approximately 250 veterans and 43 transfer students are enrolled this year.

Male enrollment still has quite an edge on the female enrollment on a 2 to 1 basis.

Our total enrollment of 896 exceeds that of Eau Claire State Teachers College by 26, their enrollment being 870.

Martin Hall, Noted Correspondent, To Speak at College Convocation

Martin Hall, foreign correspondent and lecturer, will draw upon his experiences abroad when he analyzes the European situation at the College Auditorium Oct. 3.

An anti-Hitler German and veteran of the German underground, Mr. Hall escaped the Nazis in 1936 and came to the United States where he became an American citizen. After a tour of Europe in 1947 he brought back an eye-witness report on the effects on Europe of our current American foreign policy.

His lecture, "Democratic Goals for Europe" is considered a scholarly appraisal of the confusing trends apparent on the continent.

Mr. Hall, like all speakers in this series, will spend the day on the campus and will be available for informal discussion in various classes. All students may attend these discussion groups and become acquainted with the lecturer and his subject.

St. Olaf Drops Falcons In Season Opener

St. Olaf made a grand opening of their football schedule September 17 by overwhelming the visiting Falcons 34-0. The Oles had a large and heavy line that played havoc with the Falcon line all afternoon. A speedy backfield and a fine passing attack proved too much for the Falcons to overcome as they faltered early in the game.

St. Olaf scored in the first period on a 10-yard pass from quarterback Don Larsen to halfback Jim Kallas. The try for the extra point was blocked by the Falcon line.

Gene Cardinal and Jerry Jorgenson led a Falcon march downfield after the kickoff to the Ole 11-yard line before losing the ball via the fumble route. St. Olaf was soon forced to punt.

Again the Falcons came roaring back downfield with Linehan and Feiler supplying the needed yardage. This time their drive was stopped on the Ole 22-yard line when a Harkness-to-Cardinal pass was incomplete near the goal line.

Oles Score Again

St. Olaf retaliated by scoring again on a 4-yard pass from Larsen to Hansen. This pass culminated an 84-yard drive that featured six consecutive first downs. The half ended soon after with St. Olaf leading 13-0.

The third period was all St. Olaf as they pushed over three touchdowns, the first coming a few minutes after the half was resumed. A costly Falcon fumble again gave the Oles possession of the ball in Falcon territory where Jim Kallas soon scored on a 30-yard double reverse. Holland converted for the extra point.

Soon after Swenson intercepted Cardinal's intended pass to Nate DeLong on the Ole 34-yard line and raced 66 yards down the sidelines for the fourth St. Olaf tally. Holland converted the extra point.

The last St. Olaf touchdown came just before the end of the third quarter on a Hanson to Reinertson pass play. Holland converted the extra point for the fourth consecutive time.

Cardinal Breaks Away

The fourth quarter went scoreless, but it had its moment of excitement when Gene Cardinal broke into the open and headed for what looked like a sure touchdown only to fumble the ball on the Falcon 45-yard line after gaining 22 yards.

Lack of a passing attack and some costly fumbles were the main reasons for the poor showing of the Falcons.

Introduced at the meeting were Gene Cardinal, captain of the college team, and assistant coaches Joe Hoy and Berger Kolberg.

The Quarterback Club was organized to give the football fans of the community a chance to get together with the coaches of both the college and the high school and talk over the games of the previous week and of those coming in the future.

Anyone interested in the football program of either the high school or the college is urged to attend these meetings which are held every Tuesday at 12:15 p.m. in the Visual Aids Room.

The members of the A Cappella choir chose their officers and C. B. King, director, announced a tentative activities schedule at a meeting last week.

Falcons Journey To Whitewater Next

The Falcons will get their first taste of conference football this season October 1 when they move to Whitewater to meet the Quakers.

Last year the Falcons met the Quakers here for their first conference game and came out on the long end of a 28-19 score.

Unofficial reports have it that Whitewater has a bigger and tougher squad this year. It is known that Don Erickson, a brilliant back, is with the Whitewater squad again.

The River Falls Drum and Bugle Corps, including fifteen RFS TC students, put on a marching program during the half-time of the Kansas State game last Saturday.

Gorillas Whip Falcons

Injuries Ruin First String

Kansas State Teachers of Pittsburgh, Kansas handed the Falcons their second straight drubbing here by the lopsided score of 34-0.

The Falcons were really in the game only in the first half as they drove deep into the Gorilla's territory twice but failed to score on either opportunity. Kansas State had their own way in the second half as two men in the Falcon lineup were helped off the field due to injuries. They were Arnie Feiler, fullback, and Pat Christie, halfback, both doing a whale of a job during their stay in the game.

Falcons Drive

The game got under way with Kansas State kicking off to the Falcons. Hoffman kicked off to the 10 where Gene Cardinal took the ball and returned it 26 yards to the Falcon 36. River Falls gained a first down to their own 49. After failing to gain, Linehan dropped back to punt. It was a poor kick, going out on the Kansas State 34 yd-line. The Gorillas failed to gain, and punted to the Falcon 45. A Harkness to Durst pass and an end run by Gene Cardinal gave the Falcons a first down on the Kansas State 35. On the next play Harkness passed to Cardinal on the 10 from where he carried the ball to the 4, only to be tackled from behind. Arnie Feiler gained two yards to the one, but at this point the Gorilla line stiffened and held the Falcons to no gain on the next three plays. Kansas State took over possession at this point and immediately kicked out of danger. Just before the quarter ended the Falcons marched to the Gorilla 4, only to be denied their second bid for a touchdown.

Kansas Scores

Kansas State got under way in the second period and scored two touchdowns, the first came when Ball passed 40 yards to Beaman who ran the remaining 26 yards, for the touchdown. Berman converted the first of his four extra points, to make the score read 7-0. It wasn't long after this when Hutsey plunged 2 yards through the middle of the line for the Gorilla's second touchdown. Berman converted. The half ended with River Falls in possession of the ball on their own 36.

The second half was all Kansas State as the Falcons managed to get into Gorilla territory only once and that was on the 37 yd-line. Hoffman plunged through the middle of the line for one yard to tally the Gorillas third touchdown midway of the third quarter.

Add To Lead

Kansas State scored their remaining two touchdowns in the final period, the first coming when Vann passed 20 yards to Wilson for the touchdown, the second came when Wilson scored again on a one yard line plunge. Berman finally missed his last try for point after touchdown when a bad pass from center messed up the play and forced him to try and run with the ball.

Looking over the conference Saturday, September 17, football challenged baseball for national supremacy in sports. This day was a very dismal day for RFSTC. The big questions on campus are, "What happened?" "Are we that bad?"

After viewing the game from a vantage point on the top row of the St. Olaf section and replaying the game six or seven times with different members of the team here are a couple of reasons behind the drubbing:

We were definitely outclassed. Twice the amount of pre-game practice put St. Olaf in mid-season form. St. Olaf had the so-called "good day." In other words all the breaks went their way. This fact made St. Olaf appear much stronger than I believe they are. Lack of experienced manpower on the Falcon squad. Lack of a pass defense. Lack of desire.

We are definitely not that bad and before this goes to press Kansas State Teachers will have felt the results of a lesson learned.

Pi Kappa Delta Plans Active Debate Year

Pi Kappa Delta planned an active debate year Tuesday, September 23, at Hathorn Cottage. All members and guests were received by co-hostesses Miss Marion Hawkins, instructor of debate, and her mother, Mrs. Hawkins.

Main events of this term's work are: recruiting of new members in mid-October, the Iowa debate tournament in December and the Homecoming luncheon for past and present Pi Kappa Delta members.

Charles Schillberg, president, explained the officers' duties for the forthcoming year. Other officers are: Ambrose Murphy, vice-president; Phyllis Hathaway, secretary-treasurer, and Jack Hanson, reporter.

A discussion of the possibility of an audience exchange debate with the English (Oxford) debaters that are touring the United States followed. This group appeared on the River Falls campus previously.

Increase in Enrollment Causes New Courses

Because of the increase in enrollment several new courses have been added to the curriculum.

In the science department Dr. R. A. Karges is giving a four credit course in Physical Chemistry. Man and Physical Universe, three credits, is taught by Dr. C. J. Stratton. Dr. Katherine Lieman is offering Plant Anatomy.

In the English department Dr. Chisholm has Classical Literature for four credits. Miss Vera Moss is teaching Modern Thought in Literature for two credits.

Added to the art courses is Applied Design for two credits.

Shmoo Party Welcomes Freshmen To UYF

The United Youth Fellowship of the Congregational Church held a Shmoo Party on Sept. 8.

Entertainment highlight was a Name-The-Shmoo contest. The Hay Shakers and Jean Collins furnished music. Refreshments were served to the 75 members. President Jean Dawson extended a welcome to new students.

The group held its first supper meeting Sunday, Sept. 11, when plans were made for the annual Fall Retreat at the YMCA Camp on the St. Croix River.

A Chance to Swim

All men students who wish to swim will be provided with the chance on Tuesdays from 4 to 5 p.m. If there are enough men interested in this program it might be extended to two days a week, or splash parties might be organized.

A mixed doubles tournament is being started for those interested in tennis. Pick your lady partner, men, and sign at the athletic office.

Touch football will take place on the intramural field until the football squad takes over the field while repairs are being made at Ramer Field.

Work Nears Completion On Annex Building

Completion work is now being done on the new annex building adjoining the Industrial Arts shop.

This is a one story building of 40x100 feet. It is divided into two main sections, a lecture room and a metal room. The lecture room has three semi-circular, elevated rows of seats. It can be easily transformed for the showing of movies.

The metal room is still in the process of being completed. All materials are now being set up. There will be new equipment, such as welding machines, for ten men.

Classes will not meet there until all necessary work is finished.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Neal Fellrath on September 23, at 12:41 a. m.

McCarthy Speaks To YMCA Group

"Y" activities for 1949-50 commenced with a Cabinet Retreat held at J.P. Jacobson's the weekend of September 4th.

The first regular meeting, September 20, was devoted to the signing of new members and indications of interests. Bernard McCarthy, of the social science department, gave a brief talk about his recent bicycle tour of Europe.

The group planned the term's activities with emphasis on the Freshman Mixer. This traditional event was held for Freshmen on September 5 under joint sponsorship by the YMCA, YWCA and the Newman Club. A professional folk dance caller from the Cities led the dancers in folk games.
