AMERICAN LEGION STAGING COMEDY 'AUNT LUCIA'

The jolly three act collegiate Comedy "Aunt Lucia" will be staged here April, 4 and 5 under the Auspices of the American Legion.

The setting of the show is a Fraternity House drawing room. The whole school is enjoying the Homecoming of Bula Bula College and anxiously awaiting the arrival of Lucia Wakefield, widow of the late Roderick Wakefield of Florida worth fifty million dollars. They are expecting her to give a large sum of money for the building of a football stadium at Bula Bula College. Jerry Watson one of the college boys with the help of his two roommates dresses up as an old lady to entertain the rest of the fellows, and while in this disguise is mistaken for the real Lucia Wakefield. Once in all it is a collegiate plot, with a great many comical situations. Aunt Lucia is the funniest show ever staged in River Falls.—Don't Miss It.

To Play Brutus in "Julius Caesar"

James Hendricson who will star as "Brutus" in Julius Ceasar to be presented by an all-star cast at the State Teachers College Auditorium Wednesday, April 3.

"Beaucaire" Given By J. S. Garns in Special Assembly

Varsity of Readings at Thursday Assembly

John Seaman Garns of McPhail, a group of interpretations at a entertained the student body with Special assembly Thursday at 3:10.

Mr. Garns interpreted Beaucaire by Booth Tarkington and gave some shorter dialectic poems.

Mr. Garn's interpretations were enthusiastically recieved, and his presentations were of the best that have been given here.

The Social Committee is to be congratulated on having secured Mr. Garn's; entertainments of that type would be appreciated oftener.

WANDREY WINS SECOND PLACE IN EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING CONTEST

At the oratorical contest held last week in LaCrosse Fred Wandrey won second place in extemporaneous speaking. He missed first place by the narrow margin of one point Jack Davison did not place with his oration.

The official judges were unable to get there so the contests were judged by the coaches of the different schools.

The boys report a good time at La Crosse.

COLLEGE BAND TO GIVE SPRING CAMPUS CONCERTS

The college band will give a series of concerts again this year. Each concert will consist of an overture, popular numbers, and marches.

The concerts will be given on the South campus above the tennis courts, a popular place with the students on spring afternoons and evenings.

Darkies Pull Wise Cracks, Sing Songs at Jr. High Minstrel

The Junior High pupils presented a Minstrel Show in the college auditorium last Wednesday night. A fair sized crowd attended and enjoyed the presentation.

Kenneth Ames was the Interlocutor, and Danny O'Brien, Newell Younggren, Bob Knowles, Jimmy May, were end men. The cast sang a number of songs, and several members sang solos.

A two act comedy was shown on the screen, and lastly a one act play was given. This was the revelation of modern slang and proved that the members of the older generation are no "back numbers" when they choose to show up the young folks in using slang.

This minstrel Show uncovered much young talent, and perhaps will start some of the actors on a stage career. Miss Schlosser directed the play and Mr. Geere directed the Minstrels.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS G. A. A. MASQUERADE

The W. A. A. Masquerade held March 16 was a huge success. Many bizarre costumes were the order of the day. A good sized crowd attended and almost everyone came in some kind of costume. Prizes were given for the best costume and were awarded as follows—Gordon Grimm, funniest costume

There were many other good costumes but all could not receive prizes.

The music for the dancing was furnished by the King Midas Band, Miss Curran and Miss Arnold chaperoned the party.

Stratford Players To Present "Julius Caesar" Here Soon

Famous Shakespearean Actors Perform in River Falls Wednesday

Shakespeare Production to be First of Its Kind Held In This Town

The Stratford Players' production of "Julius Caesar" which the River Falls State Teachers College is bringing to River Falls Wednesday night, April 3, will be the only Shakespeare that has been in this city.

Here will be a challenge to the people of River Falls to demonstrate their taste for the finer things in the theater.

The principal members of the present production were formerly with the late Robert D. Mantell's Company and bring a seasoned experience to the handling of classical roles. John C. Hickey who will be seen as Cassius has a record of theatrical accomplishment commencing in the companies of Clifford Revereux and John E. Kellard.

Stars Coming

Miss Claire Bruce, also a member of Mr. Mantell's company for two seasons, has played in numerous New York productions including a season with the New York Theater Guild in their much discussed revival of Ibsen's "Peer Gynt."

Mr. Ernest Hansen is a graduate of the Antioch Players and has received much commendation for his work with the Barker Stock Company in Huntington, and with the Kensington Players of Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Bruning, Mr. Richard Irving, Mr. Niles Bennett, and Mr. Martin Wells comprise the other members of an unusually strong company.

Staged 38 Years

John C. Hickey, who does the part of Cassius in the Stratford Players' production of Shakespeare's "Julius Ceasar" to be seen at the State Teachers College Auditorium, Wednesday, April 3, has been on the stage thirty eight years and he can tell many interesting stories not only of the theater but of the motion pictures. He tells somewhat humorously how he gave Noah Beery his first job singing in the quartet in "Way Down East." When he was playing with Dustin and William Farnum in "The Littlest Rebel" due to a new age ruling of the child welfare department the very young lady who had been playing the part of the littlest rebel was obliged to retire from the cast. Mr. Hickey suggested to the broken-hearted little artist that she go over to the Edison motion picture studio for work. This young person's name was Viola Dana and the slightly older young lady who then took over the role of the littlest rebel is now known as Mary Miles Minter.

Seats on sale at Deweys Drug Store; all seats for students 50c, outsiders, 75c. All seats are reserved, no extra charge. Don't forget this date.

Menomonie Cops First in Fast "Hi" Tournament

Clayton Wins 2nd; River Falls Places Third; Games Good

Clayton Proves Dark Horse by Taking Second

The tournament was a huge success from every point of view. The games were all close and exciting with the probable exception of two games, great crowds of fans attended from various parts of the district, and last but not least a good many of the high school athletes were favorably impressed by River Falls and its student body.

Spring Valley, rated as the weakest team in the tournament, came through with two victories and fourth place. The crowd liked the manner in which the little team played. Better basketball has frequently been seen than that displayed by Spring Valley but seldom such hard conscientious playing.

River Falls was probably a stronger team than its final standing in the tournament would indicate. Out side of its game with Menomonie it won all its victories in a very decisive fashion. Captain Dawson and Hagestad were the best pair of guards playing in the tournament while the front line was dangerous in scoring, especially Kuss.

Clayton failed to impress many of the fans even though they got to the finals and were vanquished by only three points by Menomonie still due justice must be given to the fellows from the north. They had sufficient power to win up to the finals and even then they threatened for a while to upset Menomonie. They were a crude team, its true, but few teams as much power and drive.

Menomonie was undoubtedly the best team in the tournament and justly deserved the title of district champions. The common impression was far from the case. Supplementing the good work of Stori, one should not forget the great basket shooting by Stabacker and Braker who scored quite a many of their teams points. Braker and Decker were a good pair of guards on defense while the whole team played an air tight defense.

Of the remaining teams New Richmond and Baldwin were the victors of close games. New Richmond losing both of its games by one point. Their best work was done in the Menomonie game when after leaving secured an 8-point lead in the last quarter they were nosed out by Stori's long shots.

Colfax played its best game the first day against Hudson. After that they seemed to fall into a slump, losing their last game to River Falls by a lop-sided score.

The poor roads did not hinder the fans much at least two hundred fans from Menomonie and Clayton were present at the finals to root for their teams. Every available space was occupied for the evening games while even the consolation games attracted good crowds.

All in all, the 1929 River Falls tournament was a great success and all credit must be extended to the efforts of Mr. Karges the tournament manager, and the work of the athletic council. The student body in general behaved in such a way that could not but impress the visiting athletes. Such courtesy goes not unrewarded as will be seen next year when a good many of these lads will be part of us.

The Junior High

The new reporters for this term are as follows:

- Grade 10—Leona Hawkins
Hampton Wilmot
- Grade 9—Helen Jackman
Fren Siebold
- Grade 8—Ida Jane Dawson
Thelma Gregg
- Grade 7 Mazie Dunn
Elso Lou Hanna

Last Tuesday the Junior High Orchestra went to the auditorium in St. Paul to listen to a young people's popular concert, Miss Arnold, Miss Curran, and Marshall Norseng took their cars. They all enjoyed the concert, and especially enjoyed a cellist who played two or three numbers which held every one's interest. The boys went home immediately after the concert because of Minstrel Practice. The girls remained in the city and enjoyed a warm lunch.

Tuesday during the Girl Scout meeting the girls went on a walk to look for signs of spring. They saw several birds among which were robins, bluebirds, purple grackles, and vesper sparrows. They are all glad to have the song birds back for the summer.

"The Lowdown"

We've had about a weeks vacation since last issue and still we're tired. Judging by the Monday morning yawns we aren't the only ones either.

Over at Eau Claire according to late scandal they couldn't rig up a student debate team that could beat River Falls, so their faculty took a hand, made up some brand new laws, and won the debate at the forensic business meeting.

It seems this year's laws framed with the express purpose of sponsoring four years of debating, and interpreted by the author to have that intent, are not the governing rules for this year. At any rate the state forensic association at the business meeting went on record as saying so. Monkey-business meeting we call it.

Oh, well, there's a bright side to everything. They finally cleaned up the debate room.

The coaches must have thought a change of scenery would be interesting. For a novel effect they decided to run off the final triangle once without River Falls in it.

Jack Davison and Fred Wandrey two of the outcasts, made fine showings in the contests. Wandrey got more firsts than the winner did, but things like that don't count.

Now as to these awful debaters who have brought so much shame to River Falls we suggest they be brought up before assembly and have President Ames administer them one swift slap on the wrist.

The Thursday assembly was very good. Monsieur Beaucaire was quite a character. We'll let it go at that because we are not literary artists.

The Junior High Minstrels last Wednesday brought out our young actors. Those who missed the show lost a good two hours amusement.

While we are on the subject of entertainment there is going to be some more one way or another when these four one act plays by the Masquers go on. If you want to get a good laugh come out and see for some of them their first thrust into the public eye.

Notice to Managers: Please see us about a private matter concerning good writeups and comp. tickets.

THIRD GRADE TRAINING SCHOOL ON HEALTH CRUSADE

The children of the third grade in the Training School are having a health campaign. They are using the outlines and directions for a modern Health Crusade put out by the National Tuberculosis Association whose headquarters is in New York City.

Many stories have been told of the knights of old and the dragons they slew, so the modern crusaders have started out to kill the gaint Error and Carelessness. Not only are these modern crusaders stressing health rules, but are also seeking to do away with carelessness in reaching school on time and in misspelling words in spelling class.

They have eleven health rules to follow during the next term. They are learning these rules, and theories connected with them by means of real experiences. They must check themselves every day on a chart concerning: washing hand, brushing teeth, cleaning finger nails, carrying clean handkerchiefs, drinking at least two glasses of milk slowly every day, playing out of doors, taking a complete bath, and getting eleven hours or more sleep each night. The teachers say that when Primary children have eleven hours of sleep each night, they are able to accomplish much more work than when allowed to sit up until late hours with the adult members of the family.

These young crusaders are anxious to make a score as nearly perfect as possible in all these points, in order that they may earn a series of badges as they proceed form one stage to another in the advance to Knighthood.

This method of health study is one that is very effective, and most excellent results can be secured.

All material for carrying on this work is furnished by the Tuberculosis Association and can be secured free from the state office in Milwaukee.

Local Items

Rudolph Prucha has been teaching Mr. Junkman's 8:55 Arithmetic class.

Mr. Hanna is going to Eau Claire Friday to judge a debate.

Mr. and Mrs. Eide attended "The Beggar's Opera" in St. Paul last Saturday.

Miss Druley has quite an array of animals on display in her room. These animals were carved from soap by the Art Method class who found the work very interesting and the results quite surprising.

A number of the faculty member are planning to attend the Golf Club Banquet at the Gladstone Hotel, Friday evening.

The city library has received a number of new fiction books; among these are to be found books suggested by the "Book of the Month Club". It would be a great help to students taking literature classes if they would step in and get acquainted with these new books.

The Y. M. C. A.

"The faults and needs of modern youth" were discussed last Tuesday night at the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Better knowledge of the value of money, an increased ability to put things across, and an increased respect for their elders were some of the topics of discussion. "Slip" Laud led the discussion.

New officers were also elected, the following people being chosen: President—Lenoard Madison, Vice President—Clarence Nyght, Secretary—Zenas Beers, Treasurer—William Turner.

Clarence Nyght, who is returning to school next year, was chosen for vice president because of his work in the Milwaukee Y. M. C. A. which fits him for the work.

There will be no regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. next Tuesday assembly next Thursday instead.

EVERETT SMITH WORKS ON COUNTRY CORRESPONDENTS

Everett Smith, former editor of the Student Voice, present editor of the River Falls Journal, has been making a study of country correspondents work, and has been putting on a contest for the the purpose of increasing copy and better stories. The results of his work recently appeared in the National Printers Journalist, national newspaper magazine.
