CULLING, FEEDING AND EGG PRODUCTION AMONG THE TALKS GIVEN

Recommends Practical Methods

"SELL YEAR OLD BIRDS—HOUSE PULLETS NOW," SAYS LEADER

Professor Hayes, poultry specialist of the University of Wisconsin, and H. G. Seyforth, Pierce County Agricultural Agent, conducted a poultry school for all interested poultry fanciers and students, here Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Hayes discussed culling, feeding for egg production and numerous other poultry management problems in a very definite and pleasing manner. Some of his recommendations were as follows:

Sell the year old birds, put pullets in laying house now, have them as fat as possible and feed small amount of scratch feed but large quantities of mash feed. He presented some new feeding information that is the use of cod liver oil in the mash ration. The cod liver oil has many of the same properties that sunlight has and experiments show that its use gives a decided increase in egg production.

Wisconsin Poultry House

Mr. Seyforth explained the construction of the Wisconsin type poultry house, giving the essential features of it and their advantages. This house is recommended very highly by the experiment station and is giving highly satisfactory results on many Pierce county farms.

Fifty Students Attend

This meeting was an interesting and educational one and was attended by about fifty students and poultry fanciers of the community.

Men's Glee Club Faces Big Program For Year

PROFESSOR GEERE PLANS ON MINSTREL SHOW SOON WITH MALE VOICES

The Men's Glee Club has a huge program to accomplish this year. In a very few weeks a minstrel show will be put on by Mr. Geere and his new glee club.

The personnel of the club is: first tenors, Messrs. Gardiner, Nelson, Canney, Tzubay; second tenors, Messrs. Fenton, Swenson, A. Mueller, Blomgren, M. Hanson; baritones, Messrs. R. Smith, Bristol, Sombke, Norseng, Luberg, Johnson; bass, Messrs. Taylor, Gallup, Ford and Chapman.

This lineup is subject to several additions and changes, however.

At the next meeting Mr. Geere will organize the club, elect officers and formulate a definite year's program.

During the latter part of the year a light opera will be staged by the boys' and girls' glee clubs under the direction of Mr. Geere and Miss Wharton.

This part of the music department is now waiting the arrival of new music before they start their regular work.

THE SKY RAIDER

Captain Charles Nungesser, the world's greatest living ace, has a leading role in this movie. He performs daring exploits in the air, one of which is his battle with air mail robbers. The Sky Raider is an air mail drama, based on ack Lait's story, "The Great Air Mail Robbery." Beautiful Jacqueline Logan and Gladys Walton, a vivacious French girl, also take important parts. As an extra, a sport reel will be shown, Good music. Normal auditorium, Monday night, Oct. 25, at 8 o'clock.

MISS HADDOW RELATES EXCITING AS WELL AS INTERESTING EXPERIENCES OF YELLOWSTONE TRIP; CLIMBING MOUNTAINS, MAKING A HIT WITH BELLHOPS, BUYING NEW SHOES, PART OF TRAVELERS ROUTINE, SAYS ENGLISH TEACHER.

"She stoops to conquer."

Conquered by thirst she stooped to drink a few drops of stagnant water from the impressions left by cattle's hoofs in the moist soil. One would never think it of Miss Haddow.

When Miss Haddow lived for three years at the foot-hills of the Rockies she experienced many discomforts of body, which might be contracted with the extreme service and hospitality which she and Miss Weberg received while they were at Yellowstone National Park this summer.

No Sign of Water

On one particular occasion she and her companion tramped for miles over a hot, dusty beaten path with no signs of water or moisture of any sort. They were almost famished from thirst. When they had almost reached the point of exhaustion, they discovered the imprints of cattle's hoofs in the soil. They were miles from any settlement.

They struggled on, and soon discovered that a few drops of rain and dew had settled in the hoof impressions in the ground. Imagine, Miss Haddow stooped, drank this water from the cup-like indentations, and declared, "That is the best water I have ever tasted."

Miss Weberg Buys Shoes

On her way back from visiting her sister-in-law in California, after spending two weeks in Pasadena and San Francisco, Miss Weberg met Miss Haddow at Salt Lake City. Here Miss Weberg was forced to get down off her dignity too, as she rushed madly in quest of shoes. Finally she found a pair of number 2's which fit her.

She began to wish that her parents had allowed her to go barefooted when she was a youngster, if that has any effect on the size of one's feet. Salt Lake City shoes are quite a novelty.

When asked what impressed her the most on her trip, Miss Haddow remarked in her usual appreciative manner, "The remarkably variety of scenery within so small a place, from beautiful blue fringed gentians to

Faculty Members Contribute To School's Prestige In Art

Miss Greene, head of our art department, who, during the past week, has had charge of our observation of national good-picture week, is responsible for the choice collection of pictures on exhibit in the art room of South Hall yesterday and today.

Miss Latta, acting as adviser to the class of 1926 has supervised the work on both the 1925 and 1926 Meletean, the latter volume of which was rated by the Art Crafts Guild of Chicago, as one of the outstanding college annuals published last year.

23 Candidates Respond To Call For Debators Meletean Places High In National Contest

NINE MEN BACK FROM LAST YEAR'S SQUAD; COACH IS PLEASED

Twenty-three candidates, twelve of whom are frosh, and nine of whom are girls, reported to Coach Mitchell last Thursday in answer to his call for candidates for the debate teams this year.

"I have nine of last year's debate squad back this year; so with twenty-three new candidates to pick from, I find the prospects for a most successful season better than they have ever been before," declared Coach Mitchell.

The candidates who have responded to the call are:

- Evelyn Barrett, New Richmond

- Esther Bailey, River Falls.
- Walter Dunbar, Esmerald.
- Arno Gluheisen, Webster.
- Elmer Nelson, Boyceville.

1926 YEARBOOK IS AWARDED HONORABLE MENTION IN NATIONAL CONTEST

The 1926 Meletean, which was edited under the advisement of Miss Latta, is given special mention by the Art Crafts Guild of Chicago, as being "One of the outstanding year books published in the United States in the college class."

Last Tuesday Miss Latta received from the Art Crafts Guild a certificate, 12 by 16 inches, which is to the effect that the Meletean has been awarded honorable mention in the college class in the national contest for year books in the United States last year.

In the contest for year books in the college class, no special class was made for normal schools of only two and three year courses, hence, the Meletean was classed in with the four year class year books. "This makes the 'honorable mention' awarded the Meletean, all the more outstanding, for it was judged with the year books of colleges having four year classes," said Miss Latta.

The Artcrafts Guild magazine for September, 1926, devoted two full pages to the 1926 Meletean. The entire introductory section and typical pages from the "classes" and "athletics" departments of the Meletean appear in miniature on the two pages of the Guild magazine, and are accompanied by a very complimentary write-up.

Demonstration Team Go To Madison Next Wednesday

Marshall Norseng and Jack Davison leave for Madison next Wednesday at midnight where they are being sent by Mr. T. L. Buick, state club leader, to show county agents gathered in a convention at the University of Wisconsin, how to use a demonstration team in putting across ideas to farmers.

Norseng and Davison, with Harold Walton as leader, carried their egg-marketing demonstration first to the Wisconsin state fair at Milwaukee, and later to the inter-state fair at Sioux City, Iowa. Their trip next week, however, is more of a business nature, their mission this time being simply to show the practical uses of a demonstration team.

been on exhibition in the art room Thursday and Friday and that were more than worth while visiting.

Thursday Night Banquet Attended By 126 Grads Declared Big Success

BANQUET AND TOASTS FOLLOW EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM OF BIG INTEREST

Prexy Ames Toastmaster At Event

SONGS, YELLS AND PEPPY TALKS ECHO OLD R. F. N. SPIRIT

When you ask anyone who attended the Eau Claire meeting Thursday and Friday of last week if he had a good time, he at once replies that he had one of the best River Falls get-together banquets on Thursday night that has ever been held. This does not mean that the speeches of Florence Hale, Glen Frank and Superintendent Callahan were not appreciated, but that the family reunion of 126 former students and faculty members of the River Falls Normal school was such an enjoyable affair that one naturally recalls this event to mind first.

Old Friends Gather

At six o'clock old acquaintances began to gather at the Grace Lutheran church where a few minutes later the one-hundred and twenty-six sat down together to enjoy food and talk.

Oliver Younggren was there with his usual pep as yell master, and the U-Rah, Rah! and Sky Rocket rang out as lustily as any group of students at a football game have ever given them. After a well served banquet, short speeches were made with President Ames as toastmaster. Mr. Ames expressed his gratitude at the large turn out and splendid spirit among the alumni; then called upon Senator Hunt to tell them about the football team and the prospects of another championship team.

Old Timers Speak

Mr. Anderson, Principal of the school at Barron, was asked to tell how it looked to an old timer. Mr. Anderson graduated in the class with Mr. Junkman. Miss Viola White of Cumberland was then called upon to speak from the standpoint of a recent graduate. Myron Heebink, who confessed to having recently sold himself into perpetual bondage, was also called upon for a few words.

Mr. Karges spoke on the subject of the River Falls State Teachers college. All too soon the meeting had to come to an end to enable those who wished, to attend the evening meeting of the association.

Much credit for the success of the meeting is due Mr. Prueha and Mr. Ledvin Mjaanes who were in charge of arrangements.

The following attended the River Falls dinner at Eau Claire, Thursday evening, October 14th:

- Edna Gunderson, Ellsworth.
- Thelma Segerstrom, Chippewa Falls.
- Huldah Swedberg, Colfax.
- Adeline Patton, River Falls.
- Mabel Parker, River Falls.
- Irma Armstrong, River Falls.
- Lucile Fobes, River Falls.
- Mabel Bridges, River Falls.
- Victor Goss, Blair.
- Dollie Rundell, Ellsworth.
- Helen O'Brien, Hammond.
- Ellen Lewis, Bruce.
- Donna Brown, Bruce.
- Eveyn Nelson, Bruce.
- Grace Graham, Bruce.
- Doris Brown, Elk Mound.
- Regine Kabarle, Menomonie.
- Margaret Hanley, Elmwood.
- Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Wentz, Holcombe.
- Mr. and Mrs. Neil Martin, Eleva.
- Doris L. Fredrickson, Eleva.

Jack Performs Swan Dive With Ease, But Collects Black Eye

A black eye, an alibi, and a dozen disconcerting rumors gave Jack Davison "A place in the sun" during the past two days. The actual source of his injuries, however, is as yet unsettled.

Jack appeared on the campus Wednesday morning with a beautiful "shiner" and a shaken up appearance that bespoke a train wreck, an auto accident, a fornado, or an argument. Upon being accosted with regard to his appearance, Jack imparted the following information: According to his statement, he was riding in the front seat of Mr. Weidenfeller's car when the latter, who was driving attempted to make a sharp turn at full speed, and in so doing struck the concrete abutment of a culvert with such force that Jack was plunged through the windshield of the car.

The broken windshield and Davison's mutilated features are mute testimonials of his story, but early Wednesday a new factor in the story came to light. Marshall Norseng, Davison's side-partner in half a hundred scandles of the past, claimed that he alone knew the actual cause of Jack's injuries and furthermore, that he himself was the cause of them.

According to Marshall, both he and Davison were riding in the car with Mr. Weidenfeller when a personal issue arose between them which Norseng settled to his own satisfaction, though his hard logic somewhat discomfited Jack. The broken windshield, "Mish" says, is a common condition on Weidenfeller's car, and not to be considered as having any bearing on Jack Davison's facial makeup.

Good Picture Week Program Given By Girls In Assembly

An interesting feature concerning good picture week was the program presented Thursday morning by members of the Art appreciation class, on the various phases relating to good pictures. Bessy Ellen Moe acted as chairman, introducing the four girls who spoke: Eleanor Barnes, on "General Characteristics of Good Pictures," Lois Hunt on "Symbolic Pictures," Anna Hawkins on "Portraits" and Sara McIntyre on "Landscapes." Pictures from various rooms of the Normal school and from the Dayton Art department of Minneapolis were used to demonstrate the use of the three important elements in good pictures: color, value and line.

Some of the interesting pictures they discussed were "Baby Stewart," by Van Dyck, "The Golden Helmet" by Rembrandt, "A Girl Reading" by de Hooch, "Spring" by Corat, and several others of equal note. An excellent group of pictures have

CONTRIBUTIONS

To the student body again is extended an invitation to contribute to the columns of the Student Voice.

Judging from the amount of contributions turned in thus far, there is probably reason to suspect that the students do not clearly understand what is meant by the term contributions, as it is used here.

A contribution is anything in the line of news that is written up, or that can be written up into a news story. It does not necessarily have to be written up by the person who turns it in. If the material or "dope" is turned in, a staff member will do the rest.

(A news story may be defined in a general way as being a write-up of whatever people want to know about.) Secondly, a contribution may be a personal opinion (written up and signed) on something that concerns the students. It may be a criticism of some prevailing custom or habit of the students, or it may be comments on something that has taken place, or that will take place. It is a means by which students may air their views.

Third, a contribution may be some good joke that is not overworked here, or it may be what is known as locals, or society news.

Fourth, original verses, or cleverly written-up article on any subject whatsoever, are contributions when submitted to the Student Voice.

Perhaps the above explanation will help would-be contributors in determining what they will write about to help make the Student Voice a student's paper and a better paper. If not, any member of the staff or the adviser will be glad to help as much as possible.

There is a box in the lower corridor of South Hall in which contributions may be dropped. The Student Voice office at the rear of the east wing of South Hall, is open all day; place your contributions on the desk there, or turn them in at Mr. Eide's room on the second floor.

SCHOOL DANCES

The social committee reports that a school dance will be held on the Saturday night of the Stevens Point football game here on October 30. It had been planned to have the dance tomorrow night after the Winona Teachers game here, but since that game was cancelled, it was decided to postpone the dance for a week.

The social committee has done good work in providing for dances so far this year. Let us hope they will find it possible to continue this good work. These school dances provide what is about the only opportunity for all the students to get together for an informal and enjoyable good time.

WHY STAG IT?

There seems to have grown up a custom of "staging it" to these dances. Staging should be discouraged, for it is hardly fair to the fellow who brought a girl if the one who "stags it" horns in on a number of dances, nor is it fair to the girls who have to stay away from the dance because they do not want to "stag it." Every student who can dance or cares to learn should attend the school dances. But if every fellow who goes to the dance would take a girl with him, perhaps there would not be such a jam of fellows wasting a lot of good floor space in front of the doorway, nor blocking the way in and out. Get your date early, fellows; don't let Jack do it.

MORE SCORE CARDS COMING

A second issue of the souvenir folder containing the football schedule score sheet, and a complete line-up of River Falls' players which was published homecoming week through the courtesy of Bjerstedt and Benson, prominent downtown clothiers, is being printed for distribution at the Stevens Point game here October 30.

A thousand copies of this folder were given out at the homecoming game with Eau Claire, and another thousand copies are being printed for the game next Saturday.

DIOGENES SPEAKS

Dearest Editor,

I betcha your feelings was hurt when you saw that piece in the paper last week about the green edition. Some people sure is ungrateful. Well, anyways, cheer up, because this here "Billie" will soon get you educated even if you ain't already. I heard one of the psychology teachers say he was going to give "Billie" an "A". Well, that is the only way that he'd ever get it, as one can't afford to lose sleep by studying in assembly. Them frosh apparently don't appreciate the honor they was done in the green paper. Why I hear that one frosh seen that paper and closed his eyes and saw red (it might have been Billie) and they was so much "bull" to him that he played hookey for a week.

Honestly,

Diogenes.

FORMER R. F. AGGIE ON U. W. STOCK JUDGING TEAM THAT WINS FIRST IN NAT. MEET

Lyle Owens, former student in our agricultural department, and at present a senior student at the University of Wisconsin, is a member of the stock judging team which represented the University at the national dairy show in Detroit and was placed first in judging of erseys.

Lyle did his first stock judging work as a member of Mr. ohnson's animal husbandry class.

When we see former students of the school out making good as students in other larger schools we cannot help but feel that our "Ag" department is doing some real work.

Safer at Bottom

Miss Weberg visited Mount Washburn, one of the steepest mountain peaks in the west. She remarked, "I was glad to get to the top, but happy to reach the bottom again.

Friendliness, zest and carefulness seemed to characterize all the travelers at the park. Everyone seemed to forget every care or worry and become a complete victim of the awe and magnificence of the natural scenery and surroundings.

"There is an immense variety of scenery. It is not all beautiful, as is the mistaken idea of so many readers, but it is grand, impressive, thrilling and awe-inspiring," they reported.

There was absolute safety of personal property with unlocked doors. At first they carefully guarded purses, cameras and all valuable possessions but they soon learned that everyone was absolutely honest and responsible.

River Falls Battlers Spoil Stout Homecoming On The Gridiron

MANY LOYAL RED AND WHITE ROOTERS CHEER SQUAD ON TO VICTORY

Superior And Stevens Point Next

WEBER AND WENNERBERG TO BE BACK IN LINE SOON IT IS HOPED

Last Saturday River Falls wrecked Stout's homecoming by beating them 21 to 6. The game started with Stout kicking to River Falls. After a fumble by the Red and White and an exchange of punts, the River Falls Gridders settled down to play football. The ball was on our 40 yard line.

Lawrence and Lowell Dawson led a slashing attack which netted 58 yards and brought the ball within two yards of Stout's goal line. At this vital point the locals fumbled once and recovered the ball; then they fumbled again and lost the ball to Stout. In the meantime Meyer had been put in for King who was injured, and Luberger went in for Weber, who hurt his knee.

Against a strong wind Stout kicked the ball out to its own 20 yard line. Again River Falls marched toward a touchdown only to lose the ball on downs by inches. On the next play Menomonie fumbled the ball behind its goal. Feske recovered the ball for a touchdown. Lowell kicked goal.

After Captain Paulson had made a beautiful kick from placement, Stout started a spirited drive down the field. They made four first downs in a row which netted them a touchdown—twenty yards were made by rushing, and fifty were gained by a weird passing game. The kick went wild.

River Falls chose to kick and the Stout player was downed on the 12 yard line. They failed to gain and were forced to kick. River Falls got the ball on the 35 yard line, and Lowell Dawson started off for another touchdown with a 13 yard run. After two first downs were made Lawrence Dawson plunged over for a touchdown. During the rest of the half Stout tried four passes but they failed. The score at the end of the half was 14 to 6 in favor of River Falls.

Early in the third quarter Stout opened up with a great many passes, but one of them got into the hands of Lawrence Dawson who made a great 45 yard run for a touchdown. Meyer made a nice 22 yard run in this quarter. Stout made several first downs but failed to score.

In the last quarter Stout tried desperately to score. Altho a series of seven passes netted her 55 yards, she failed to put the ball over. The River Falls defense stiffened and the Red and White had the ball in mid-field at the close of the contest.

Stout tried seventeen passes which netted her 146 yards; seven were incomplete, and one cost her a touchdown. River Falls outclassed their opponents in field running, kicking and line smashing.

The lineup was as follows: King, McDonald, Dawson, L. Dawson, Claffin, Collins, Feske, Wigen, N. Manion, Weber, Paulson.

Substitutions—1st quarter: Luberger for Collins, Meyer for King, Hagestad for Weber.

2nd quarter: Standish for McDonald, Rodenwald for Claffin, Segerstrom for N. Manion.

3rd, quarter: Grove for Meyer, Standish for Meyer.

4th quarter: Segerstrom for Manion, McDonald for L. Dawson, Rodenwald for Claffin, Luberger for Collins, Helwig for Wigen, Glass for Grove, Bud Manion for Standish.

With the victories over Eau Claire and Stout behind them, the outlook for the River Falls football team this season is brighter than ever. Stout was supposed to be their hardest opponents and although they afforded plenty of competition at first they were finally defeated without difficulty.

Two Conference Games Yet However, the championship is not on ice for the Falls yet. They have yet to meet the strong Superior and Stevens Point teams.

The standings of the normal schools are as follows:

River Falls	1000
Milwaukee	1000
Superior	1000
La Crosse	1000
Oshkosh	1000
Stevens Point	500
Eau Claire	600
Stout	000
Platteville	000
Whitewater	000

Oshkosh and La Crosse Tied Oshkosh and La Crosse however have tied one game. This will give any other team the preference in case they have 1000 per cent at the end of the season.

Stevens Point is the next conference team to meet the Falls. However, this game is two weeks away. This will give the boys ample time to recover from all injuries sustained in the Stout game. By that time, Weber Wennerberg, and King should be back in shape and the team will be in the best of condition. So with the hardest game behind them and the next game a long ways ahead the prospects for another state championship are good.

Many Loyal Rooters Go To Stout. Highways Are Lined With Cars, Fords

BACKERS ARE TRANSPORTED IN STRANGE VEHICLES OF ALL KINDS

A great variety of vehicles were seen enroute to Stout from River Falls last Saturday morning. Everything which had four wheels from the huge enclosed cars of the faculty and townspeople to the "ark" which is owned by Walter Paulson and which was piloted, pushed and coaxed by the four Musketeers, was Stout bound with no stops between. When the game called there were over 100 River Falls backers lined up on the fence.

Among the vehicles present was a car which Roy Cooke and Hank Donatell bought in pieces for $12.50 and put together the night before. The finishing touches were put on this car in Menomonie with two cans of paint, one red and one white at the hands of Cooke and Donatell. The other automobile worthy of mention was the so called "Ark." This relic in which Baker, Canny, Smith and Norseng were transported, with the aid of repairs accumulated from ditches and fence corners, made the trip in great shape with a record time of three hours each way.

The important thing was that every one was there in time for the game, everyone yelled himself hoarse, and everyone got back in time for classes Monday morning. In the next two weeks, the boys should fully recover from the trip and be ready for another to Superior, according to Cooke and Donatell.

High School Stars Upset Dope By Beating Menomonie

The River Falls High school team upset the dope and likewise the Menomonie high school eleven, by defeating them to the tune of 13 to 7 Friday. The game was a close one all the way through. The Menomonie team outweighed the River Falls eleven by a great deal. For a while they had a slight edge one the Falls but the Falls kept fighting and finally won the game in the last few minutes of play with the score 7 to 6 in Menomonie's favor, the Falls put over a touchdown in the last few minutes by a pass from Dawson to Krueger.

The River Falls high school team consists of mostly new and inexperienced men. They are nearly all light but they have the spirit and have been coached into pretty good shape. Since New Richmond defeated them it appears as if they have turned the tables.

CIVIC CLUB

To Discuss Honor System.

The Civic Club will hold its regular meeting in Mr. Hill's room in South Hall, Thursday evening, Oct. 28, at 7 o'clock.

The question for discussion will be "Student Government and the Honor System." It will be argued pro and con by prepared speakers, and then thrown open for discussion.

Lunch was served at our last meeting, which serves as a good precedent for a usual social hour.

Everyone interested in this popular question, come out.

G. A. A.

Lunch In Park.

Several G. A. A. girls with Miss Smith hiked down river past the old line kilns Wednesday evening at 4:30 for their supper.

The girls who went were: Anna Jensen, Aileen Fitzgerald, Mabel Fidler, Naida Kayle, Hazel Peck, and Evelyn Jensen.

The girls built a fire over which they cooked coffee and roasted weiners. After eating their meal around the fire, they told stories, chatted and sang until it was dark enough for the girls to begin to get scared. All report a snappy good trip.

MISS SCHLOSSER

Entertains.

Miss Schlosser entertained at dinner Tuesday evening, twenty-four people. The dining room at Mrs. Sunby's was beautifully decorated and the dinner tastefully and daintily prepared.

After dinner, two hours of cards were indulged in.

Last week, Wednesday evening, Miss Schlosser was hostess at a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Ensign, an old alumnus.

At both occasions the guests were entertained elaborately amid settings of beautiful autumnal decorations.

AURELIA

Give Hallowe'en Party

The girl of Aurelia met last night for an interesting and thrilling Hallowe'en program which was given after the business meeting.

The program consisted of a Hallowe'en reading, a pianologue about the ghost of the goblin man, and a pantomime in which the doubtful boy is thoroughly convinced of the reality of ghosts and witches.

The room was decorated in a very appropriate manner with jack-o-lanterns and candles.

Plans for the next several programs have been made. The plan of the study of the Little Theater movement has been used. The material about this is very interesting and helpful. This season of the year brings playwork to the front ranks. Hence, the work of the club in this is appropriate as well as interesting.

Y. M. C. A.

Professor Hill Spoke on Topic, "Can War Be Justified."

"Philosophers have made many attempts to justify war," said Mr. Hill in his talk to the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night on the subject, "Can War Be Justified."

"One philosopher tells us that our food supply does not increase proportionately to the increase of population; hence we must have a war about every twenty-five years to prevent the population from becoming too great for the food supply." Mr. Hill goes on to say "Jefferson stated that war was necessary to foster patriotism."

He continues, "We know that war is not necessary. While probably no parliament of men will ever definitely prevent war, the time for us to act is not at the last minute by condemning war and by refusing to fight, but by the use of our electoral influence in seeing that we have conservative men directing our government."

In view of the fact that the Y. M. C. A.'s expenses are financed almost wholly by donations, we wish to extend a word of gratitude to those who have helped make our financial drive a success.

LINKS

Initiate New Members.

The Lincolnians held an initiatory meeting last night in Mr. Mitchell's room for the benefit of the new members of the society. Two extemporaneous speeches and a no-decision debate featured the program.

The debate question was: Resolved that leap year should be enforced.

The general topic given to the extemporaneous speakers was, "Who Shall Guard the Life Guard who Guards the Sea Shore?"

Some really original ideas were presented on these topics by the members undergoing the initiation.

GLEN HANSON

Feted at Webstonia.

In the ruddy glow of candles, amid his formerly black and white clad pals, Glenn Hansen was royally feted at a dinner at Webstonia Wednesday evening in honor of his twentieth birthday.

Hostesses Webster and Thorpe provided an elaborate menu headlined by roast chicken and supported by such viands as mashed potatoes, creamed peas, celery, nut broads, and fruit salad. A candle studded birthday cake and pumpkin pie a la mode completed the epicurian vision.

Clarence Wesslen presided as toastmaster, and after evoking appropriate remarks from every person present, he gave Mr. Hansen the ten dollar set of gold cuff links which the "gang" extended as their tribute.

Prominent among those present Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, Miss Mable Thorpe, Harold Walton, Don Bannister, George Simon, Ralph Harding, Sid Scoville, Clifford Erickson, Lloyd Clemmons, Victor Peterson, David Olson, Leo Schnur and Meric Overman.

G. O. P.

Study Henry James.

The G. O. P. held their regular meeting on Thursday evening of this week. Our real meetings have just begun. Up until now our meetings have been taken up with homecoming preparations and initiations of new members. New members attended their first meeting Thursday night.

The first part of the meeting was devoted to business. Our program consisted of a study of Henry James and his works. Reports were given by several members of the class. Ethyl Morgan gave us several piano selections.

Plans have been made to continue a study of literature by having reports, life sketches and book reports, on some of the well-known authors.

At our next meeting Pearl Marquardt will give a life sketch of Edith Wharton. Her books, "The Age of Innocence" and "The House of Mirth" will be reported on by Alice Swenson and Esther Bailey. Mildred Thomson will furnish the music.

Our organization has yet to complete the payment of the band suits that were purchased last year. To pay this debt is the main purpose of our money making efforts this year. We hope that this may be accomplished soon so that the way will be open to do something else for the school.

MOZART

Enjoy Good Program.

A paper bringing out the aims and purpose of the Mozart club was prepared by Miss Ida Johnson and read at the last meeting of the club.

Other important numbers on the program were: a trombone solo by Charles Counselman, an accordion solo by Mary Catone, a vocal solo by Margaret O'Brien, and a group of current events by Irwin Taylor.

The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday afternoon, Oct. 28, at 3:45 o'clock.

Officers will be elected, and a splendid program will be given. It is not too late to join, so come out.

G. A. A.

Hold Business Meeting.

The old members of the G. A. A. met on Thursday, Oct. 14, for a business meeting.

The matter of absences was discussed. It was decided that active members must pay a fine of five cents for every unexcused absence. When one is absent she is to write out her excuse and hand it to Esther Long, who is the chairman of the committee which consider the excuses. When a member has three unexcused absences, she must drop out from the active membership list.

All associate members are invited to attend the semi-monthly meetings although they are not permitted to take any part in the voting.

The program committees for the rest of the term were appointed at this time.

Volly ball practice has been started but as yet about twenty-five girls have come out. It is expected that more girls will come out when the game gets in full swing. You may make the team, girls; you get points toward active membership and also towards your sweater.

Y. W. C. A.

Candle Light Service.

The annual Y. W. C. A. Candle Lighting services were held in the girls' gymnasium in South Hall Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

The girls, old and new, the cabinet and the Glee club, all dressed in white and carrying lighted candles marched slowly in single file into the gym to "Onward Christian Soldiers."

The Glee club sang three songs and Miss Theresa Macheir spoke to the girls. She had a very impressive message.

The new girls were deeply impressed by the services as was shown by the response given by Marie Strevey.

In a little more than a week, joint discussions will be held by the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. No one should miss these group meetings because they are a very direct help in personal solutions of problems.

The discussion groups will meet for four or five weeks, after which our old program will be reverted to.

Y. W. C. A. is attended very regularly by a larger membership than ever before.

AG. NOTES

Prof. Hayes Speaks.

Prof. Hayes from the Wisconsin University gave a talk last Wednesday on the various phases of poultry raising. During the afternoon, County Agent Seyforth also spoke on the subject. The poultry problems discussed were: Poultry feeding, poultry housing, poultry culling, the profitable age of a producing hen, and poultry parasites.

The normal Ag. Profs., second and third year Ag. students and several farmers took advantage of the educational talk.

Miracle Family Moves Into Normal School Farm House.

Last Saturday the house left vacant when Mr. Courtice moved to North Dakota, became reoccupied. Mr. Miracle and his family are now settled and seem pretty content in their new home. Mr. Miracle is to fill the vacancy left by his brother-in-law and our old friend, "Mr. Courtice."

Agri-fallian members pay your dues.

Normal Farm Painted.

The barn is receiving a few new and classical touches to make it even more sanitary. The walls are being painted white, the pens and stalls blue, and some of the concrete is to be painted with a color that will make it attractive.

R. F. Man Develops "Big" Fair

The Waterloo high school fair is to be held next week. This fair is the largest of its nature held anywhere in Wisconsin. We are proud to know that Norman Eckley, a River Falls Ag. graduate, has developed and supervised this fair in so remarkable a manner. The exhibits must be products raised by workers of Smith Hughes Agriculture. This year 150 district classes of exhibits, with three premiums for each class, will be shown. His work is an example of what River Falls Ag. men are doing in Wisconsin.

Valuable Heifer Dies

Last Wednesday afternoon when the fellows came to work at the Normal farm a heifer was found dead in the barnyard. The heifer was a promising young Holstein expected to make a very creditable A. R. Record this year. Mr. Johnson took his feeds class to the post-mortem Thursday morning. The death seemed rather mysterious until an abscess was found on the heart.

At the post-mortem Thursday morning the feeds class learned how minerals are supplied to the dairy ration at the normal farm. Two large iron nails were found located in the stomach.

This and That.

Vivian Goldsmith was in Cumberland over the week-end.

Crystal Thomas was home in Clear Lake over the week-end.

Rose Golden of Spring Valley spent the week-end with Eleanor Wing.

Luella Haney and Beryl Atwood spent a few days at their home in Amery.
