

Prologue Advisor Resigns

President Rejects Prologue

Eugene Nolen, English instructor, resigned as advisor to the Prologue as the result of a disagreement over the "good taste" of the introduction to the yet to be published edition.

Frederick Rusch, English instructor, wrote the introduction and the editors accepted it unanimously. His topic was obscenity and he used words of what Nolen termed the "four letter category" as examples in explaining his ideas. Nolen said that the words were not used in a pornographic or obscene manner; they were used in a clinical way.

Acting Pres. Richard Delorit, however, said that he felt the use of the words was in bad taste no matter how they were used. Pres. Delorit refused to accept the manuscript. He explained his action by saying that the Prologue was a University publication, and as publisher the University could accept or reject manuscripts as it chose. In cases such as these, he said, the final decisions on the University policy were left with the President.

Nolen has referred to this action as censorship. Delorit commented that since the University is the publisher, it would be hard to censor itself.

Nolen said that to his knowledge no new advisor has been considered and the Prologue can not be published without one. Delorit said he intends to try to find a replacement for Nolen. He said the loss of the Prologue would be a loss of something that was intended to be a valuable contribution to the University. As Delorit saw it, the Prologue was a place where "budding literary people" could express themselves.

Delorit said that it was unfortunate that a "matter of good or bad taste" had to come as high as the President of the University for a decision.

Nolen said he resigned because he was caught in an awkward position between two extreme factions. The first faction demanded complete freedom with no restraint at all and the second took what he termed a "high school-like position in protecting the public.

Nolen said there were no arguments with the logic in the introduction, just the examples used. He said that if four letter words were necessary to bring out an idea, they should not be covered up. Nolen cited "Catch 22," novel used in the freshman English courses, as an example.

Nolen said that since the controversial issue last year, the Prologue staff had been working under "ridiculous restrictions." We said they had become obsessed with guarding against obscenity. He said he does not believe in censorship or obscenity; therefore, if the Prologue couldn't be run with "common sense" he wasn't going to be involved.

$500 Donated For Wall Amphitheater

The Junior Class donated $500 to the Student Foundation Committee "toward the completion of the amphitheatre" at a recent class meeting according to Jim Dubrow, class treasurer, who initiated the motion.

The motion was passed unanimously by those attending the meeting. "It is hoped that this action will provide incentive as well as funds to complete the long awaited amphitheatre," said Dubrow.

A letter of thanks from the Student Foundation Committee stated, "The Student Foundation Committee would like to thank the Junior Class for their generous contribution of $500. This money will be incorporated with other funds to finish the amphitheatre located in the South Fork area. This project will be finished in the foreseeable future. Again, we wish to say thank you to the Class of 1969 for their gift."

The donation will be presented during Foundation Week, March 25-29.

Forum Hosts Presidential Candidate

Fred Halstead, the Socialist Workers Party candidate for President, said at a Free Spirit Forum Wednesday that the "war in Vietnam has created more Socialists, more Communists, and more revolutionaries than I could create in 30 years of agitation."

Halstead contends that Vietnam is the principle issue in the presidential campaign, flowing out of the internal situation in this country. He stated that "The armed forces are being used as a protection agency for U.S. big business."

He went on to say that it is now crystal clear that the U.S. ruling class is not fighting in Vietnam for "freedom" or "democracy." Their war aim, said Halstead, is to prevent the workers and peasants of Vietnam from taking control of their own country. "The Democrats and Republicans are sending out young men to die in Vietnam as part of a reckless global strategy of preserving and extending the capitalist system and capitalist profits."

The Socialist candidate maintains that racism is also part of American capitalist society. "Racism," said Halstead, "serves to keep white workers from realizing that their interests lie with the black masses, and not with the white capitalist rulers."

Racism, he continued, is a source of profit for the ruling class, providing a ready-made pool of cheap and available labor. "Racism is utilized in the U.S. imperialist drive to subjugate and enslave the colored peoples around the world, as in Vietnam."

Both Republicans and Democrats, according to Halstead, accept the fact that this country cannot operate without big businesses being able to invest profitably. The Socialist Party, on the other hand, stands for a complete break with every form of Capitalist politics. It purports that when black people, and workers as a whole, cease supporting the capitalist Democratic and Republican parties and organize parties of their own, a gigantic step forward will have been taken in the struggle against the "system."

Paul Boutelle, a prominent black power advocate, is Halstead's running mate. The two men will be campaigning in three major areas.

First, they work under the slogan "Stop the war in Vietnam--bring our men home now!" They wish to abolish the draft and organize a national referendum to give the people the right to vote to withdraw all U.S. troops from Vietnam. They are also in favor of a hands off Cuba and China policy and support the struggles of the Asian, Latin American, African and Arab peoples for national independence and social liberation.

Second, Boutelle and Halstead support the black people's fight for freedom justice, and equality through black power. They contend that black people have the unconditional right to control their own communities and advocate the spending of state and federal funds in whatever amounts needed to overcome years of deprivation in education.

The two Socialists favor appropriating whatever funds are necessary to provide jobs for every unemployed Afro-American, with preferential hiring and upgrading to equalize opportunities in apprenticeship programs, skilled trades, and higher paying technical and supervisory occupations.

They also maintain that it is the right of Afro-Americans to keep arms and organize themselves for self-defense from attacks from any quarter. "Keep the troops and racist cops out of the black community, and replace them with deputized, elected representatives of the community."

Boutelle and Halstead would like to see an independent black political party organized to lead the struggle for black power on all fronts and by any means necessary.

The two men support labor's fight against inflation and government control. They feel that the trade unions

Fellow students:

Do you recall this statement, "Local draft boards may reclassify and make ready for induction those registrants with the selective service system whose speech, conduct and other protest activities the board finds to be in violation of the selective service rules and regulations." This was a memo left to all college students throughout the United States by the honorable Gen. Lewis Hersey.

According to this, any student who in any way interferes, speaks out or writes something that does not please his home town city fathers, in other words, the local draft board, about U. S. policies in Vietnam may be pulled from the ranks of a college student and be put into the ranks of the U.S. army.

I believe that this policy has put a burden on the shoulders of many college students. The other members of society which include the teachers association, bus company officials, NFO, and other labor unions can protest their rights without having to worry about being pulled out of the ranks.

Now, why should we as students have such a penalty as the loss of our life be placed over us because of our beliefs and the expression of them on U.S. policies in Vietnam? I believe that the Student Senate at WSU-RF should take a stand as being opposed to this type of punishment, that can be applied to us because of our beliefs. The United States of America is a free country and according to the Constitution we are guaranteed the right of free speech and press. Why can't we use it?

We can and should use these rights therefore, I believe that the University of River Falls should be opposed to this issue and not just the Student Senate. The reason for this is that we stand much stronger as a complete student body. Do you think that the University should become involved in all major issues, whether national or international in scope, or should we be concerned only when the welfare of the students at WSU-RF is at stake?

If you would like to discuss this issue further contact me at 235A Stratton Hall.

Clay Halverson Elected Vice-President

Senate Replaces Officer

Clay Halverson will replace John Harter as Vice-president of the Student Senate. Halverson won by a secret ballot vote at the Senate meeting last Wednesday night. Harter resigned because of grades.

Halverson is a new Senator this year, but the Senate generally felt that he has shown himself capable of handling the job. John Chudy was the other nominee.

In other action, the Senate voted to restudy its policy on grade points of Senators. The proposed change would read that a senator would be removed if his grade point falls below 2.0 for more than one quarter during any three quarter period, beginning when the member is elected to office.

This differs from present policy in that grade point requirements begin with the first quarter the senator is in office. Action on the move was tabled for a week.

At its Dec. 20 meeting, co-chairmen for the 1968 Homecoming Committee were interviewed and elected. Glenn Denk, a junior from Auburnsdale and Jim Thompson, a junior from Osseo will serve on the committee.

At the same time, the Senate elected two students, Barry Brecke and Jim Thompson, to serve on the Superior Student Committee. They will work with the Faculty Senate's committee to work on ways of improving the Honors program. Both students qualify for the Honors program.

The Senate discussed holding a National College Presidential primary on this campus on Apr. 24. The poll is standardized poll titled "Choice '68." President Rasmussen pointed out that the Wisconsin primary may influence the results but that it should still be "interesting" to see the results of such a poll.

Two more proposals faced the Senate before Christmas vacation.

The first was the budget of the Rodeo Club. The Senate voted to allow the Rodeo Club $2660 (minus a loan of $210 given to the club this fall) for traveling expenses.

The passing of this motion created some opposition. Shortly after, Senator Wayne Weiss requested $364 for two students for food costs and room costs. The money would be used for "educational improvement." At that time, the motion was sent to budget committee.

At last week's meeting, the proposal was reintroduced. At this time, Senator Haines proposed tabling the motion indefinitely. Haines termed it a "far-cial adventure."

Weiss pointed out that the proposal was not farcical since it deals with the education of students. Feltes pointed out that the Senate may disburse its funds for any purpose which it desires and that the precedent was set in the Senate allotting funds for the Rodeo Club.

The motion was defeated as a nonsense motion.

Elections to fill the two vacancies on Senate will be held on Jan. 30, the same time as Winter Carnival elections. Big name entertainment and a referendum will also be on the ballot.

At its Dec. 20 meeting, the Senate voted to purchase one copy of "Robert's Rules of Order, a change from a previous motion to buy three copies. The purchase had not been made at last week's meeting.

Alan Tronrud, of LAC, reported that a student affairs forum will be held on Jan. 30 at which the Board of Regents Conduct Code will be discussed.

Two constitutions were approved at the past two Senate meetings. Before Christmas, the Senate passed the Johnson Hall constitution. Last week, the constitution of the Campus Committee to End the War in Vietnam was passed. Both needed minor changes before going into effect.

Senator Chudy reported on the Dorm Rules Committee. He said the meeting was "stimulating" and that a great deal had been accomplished, Chudy said that Dr. Munns had promised that there will be no more room checks at "unruly" hours. No promise about confiscation of unperishable goods could be made.

Students For McCarthy Hold Meeting

Vance Opperman, sixth ward chairman of the Minneapolis Democratic-Farm-Labor Party (DFL) and a member of the State Steering Committee of Concerned Democrats will speak at the Jan. 24 meeting of the newly formed Students for McCarthy group on campus at 8 p.m. in room 201 Student Center.

The Students for McCarthy held their initial meeting Jan. 10. The group has formed to support Eugene McCarthy for president for 1968.

Temporary Chairman Peter Merry presided over the meeting which was attended by several students.

According to Merry, a newsletter from the local group will be sent out.

Winter Carnival Committee Releases Schedule

Anyone who has any questions concerning Winter carnival should contact one of these people.

The Winter Carnival Committee has announced that Winter Carnival Week will begin Jan. 29 and end on Feb. 3. The schedule of events is as follows:

Monday, Jan. 29--Voting for Carnival King; Ice and snow sculpture judging; the FFA talent show at 7 p.m.; the Frigid Frolics (games) at 9 p.m.

Tuesday, Jan. 30--The Coffee House Circuit at 7:30 p.m.; the King's crowning.

Wednesday, Jan. 31 -- The Coffee House Circuit at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Thursday, Feb. 1--A dance at the Spielhaus.

Friday, Feb. 2--Ski Day.

Saturday, Feb. 3 -- Winter Olympics; Winter Carnival Dance.

There will be a sheet up in the union for organizations to sign up for events from Jan. 15-17.

Campaigning for King candidates will begin Jan. 21 at 12:01 a.m.

Snow and ice sculptures may be started Tuesday, Jan. 23, at 8 a.m. and must be completed by Monday, Jan. 29, at 11 a.m. This early start and completion of the sculptures is due to the feeling of the committee that it would allow students in organizations to participate in events during the week.

Faculty Senate Plans An All-University Council

The Faculty Senate has appointed two of its members to an organizational committee to plan for an All-University Council and has proposed some changes in University policy for establishment and disestablishment of student organizations.

The establishment of an All-University Council, an idea in the new Faculty Senate constitution By-laws, is pending because of a suggestion by President Delorit. Members of the council would include students, faculty and administrators.

Appointed to the organizational committee were Richard Gray and Edward Peterson.

The most important change in establishment and disestablishment of student organizations concerns the disestablishment procedures. Suggested reasons for disestablishment are:

- *Failure to file the proper materials required to maintain recognition with the Vice-President for Student Affairs and the Student Senate;
  - *When there is a written request for such from the organization to the Vice-President for Student Affairs;
  - *When a constitutional provision of the organization deactivates the group as of a specified date;
  - *By decision of the Vice-President for Student Affairs, or the Student Senate.
- Another important change is that if an organization is involuntarily disestablished under the new provisions and appeals to the Student Affairs Committee it may con-

Four Letter Words

Editors note: Due to circumstances, this editorial is the opinion of one person. It does not purport to reflect the views of the entire editorial board.

I feel, although with some regrets, that acting Pres. Richard Delorit was justified in rejecting the manuscript of this year's PROLOGUE. I feel that the use of words in the "four letter" category within the introduction of the PROLOGUE was in poor taste.

Eugene Nolen, English instructor and former advisor to the PROLOGUE, contends that the words were used in neither a pornographic nor obscene manner. He says that they were used in a clinical way only as examples to advance an idea. In spite of this, I feel that the words used in an introduction to work intended for public consumption were out of place.

I regret that our society is not able to examine everything "clinically" or objectively. But religious beliefs, personal ideals, social standards, word connotations and plain ignorance all distort a person's "objective viewpoint." Certain phrases, words and practices have earned an almost universal taboo within our society. The words in the PROLOGUE introduction were in this category.

One may argue that these words should not be covered up and that the public should be educated. I feel, however, that simply exposing the public to "dirty words" is not going to make it more tolerant nor educate it.

I feel that Dr. Delorit correctly assessed what the public reaction to the words would have been. Having decided that the possible harm of using them outweighed the benefits, he made the right and practical decision.

Rich Marshall

New Year's Resolutions

Every new year some people go around making resolutions. Resolutions which they think might change some of the attitudes or habits that they have had previously. The new year has been around for a few days and campus life is returning to the normal "rut" and no one seems to be making any resolutions.

In the interest of some changes we might all like to see the Student Voice is going to make some resolutions. We do not think that these resolutions will be heeded but we'll all try harder.

Student Senate Resolutions they should have made:

(a) Having at all times in their office a copy of Robert's Rules or Order.

(b) Promising at all times to avoid non-sense motions.

(c) Pledging faithfully their efforts for the good of the Student Body.

(d) Working hard to influence the Faculty and students to unite and gain more power for the "real university."

(e) Demanding more work from their sub-committee's.

Student Voice Resolutions they should have made:

(a) A pledge to cover all aspects of the campus not just the ones that interest the groups on the newspaper staff.

(b) A pledge to print everything that faculty members give them no matter how silly or un-newsworthy.

(c) A pledge to Mr. Brock to keep their office clean.

Faculty Senate resolutions they should have made:

(a) A promise to faithfully support students in whatever rational action they may take.

(b) A promise to break the tie on the Hershey resolution of pre-vacation fame.

(c) A promise not to go "conservative" after such a "liberal" beginning.

(d) A pledge to faithfully become involved in the next student protest.

Student body resolutions they should have made:

(a) A pledge to remain forever indifferent.

Administrative resolutions they should have made:

(a) To always listen to both sides of every story.

(b) To count to ten before they call the police etc., at the next student protest.

(c) To listen to the students "as advisers" and once out of every ten heed that advice.

(d) To pledge a faithful effort to get out and mix with students at least twice a month.

The Ferret

By Michael Brecke

"Filthy speech movements" has been a cry raised on this campus twice in the last two years. Each time an edition of the Prologue has or has not come out the charge of censorship and / or filthy speech has been raised. Why?

First let's look at the concept of "dirty" words. There are all kinds of "dirty" words; many people use many of them daily. In fact, believe it or not, there are some departments on this campus who actually use material containing "dirty" words. This material contains the very words that the people contributing to the Prologue are forbidden to use. Why?

This raises some interesting points such as: If these words are contained in assigned material then the students may assume that these words are acceptable for literary usage. If these words are to be used by professional writers and not students why use them at all?

Go down to your local newsstand or library and look at copies of such assigned material as the magazines, "Harpers," "New Yorker," "New Republic," "Saturday Review," and "Atlantic." All of these publications use the "forbidden word."

It seems to me that this double standard raises a peculiar dilemma: we can say it, write it on bathroom walls, read it in class, but if we are to write it ourselves then we can not use this word.

I find that there are two obvious solutions to the problem. The first solution is that the administration should compile a list of words which can and can not be used. They should carefully list the words which in their opinion are "clean" and which ones in their opinion are "dirty." Every poet, and / or creative person on this campus should then be advised of this list and furnished with such a document. If this list is violated then the violator should be punished with expulsion.

The second solution is to remove these words from the material which is used in class, or more simply remove the material from the library and the newsstand. The second portion of this solution is to instruct the professors in these areas to "teach" their "classroom children," that these words are not to be used under any circumstances (except on bathroom walls).

It is my profound wish that the administration would instruct the writers on this campus and the faculty members who teach this "filth," to follow the above procedures.

Perhaps we can read the next Prologue by the light from the burning magazines taken from our library.

Question of the Week:

If we were really a university would the Prologue have been rejected on this "one word" basis?

Are we really a university, a normal school, or a babysitting service for a group of men who sit in Madison.

Hoppe Speaks

by Arthur Hoppe
Chronicle Features
San Francisco

The President flew around the world and then announced he was going to appeal to our patriotism to stay home this summer -- perhaps, say the experts, by imposing a $5-a-day tax on Americans traveling abroad.

The tourist industry is wringing its leis. But the announcement has proved a boon to the guide book business. Already in preparation, for example, is a new work entitled: "Europe on $5 Less a Day." Excerpts follow.

Planning a trip to Europe this summer? Remember, getting there is half the fun. Particularly, if you don't get caught.

Several interesting routes will be offered to the tourist this year. The one that will undoubtedly prove the most popular is the C.E.C., or Canadian Escape Corridor.

This tour, which departs regularly on moonless nights, includes an exciting crossing on the Canadian border on snow shoes and thence, by Underground Railways, Ltd., to Free Quebec with overnight stops along the way in quaint old barns and haystacks.

There we board a luxurious Mongolian Airways Fokker bi-plane, which lands regularly on coded flashlight signal, for the thrilling hop across the Atlantic.

For the crossing, travel-wise tourists will want to go light. A wash-and-wear wet suit and a stay-Pressed parachute should prove adequate.

Once abroad, do avoid the tourist traps -- these being any well-known hotel or restaurant where U.S. Treasury Agents will be waiting to trap unwary tourists.

Do try to make your trip more pleasant by memorizing a few phrases in a foreign tongue. For instance, you are bound to enjoy your trip more if, when being questioned by a T-Man, you can respond, "What makes you think I'm an American, Mac?" in Hindi or Urdu.

Do take photographs of the sights you see as evidence for your scrapbook of where you've been. Don't for heaven's sake, though, get in the picture. Remember, that's evidence, too.

To make a Great Circle tour of your trip you should consider taking a Czechoslovakian Airliner to Havana and thence by small fishing boat to Key West. Should you be stopped by the Coast Guard en route be prepared to say in Spanish: "Madre de Dios! How glorious it is to escape at last from Fidel's slave state to make a new home in the land of the free."

So have an exciting, adventure-filled trip abroad this summer. And don't, above all, miss the great monuments of Europe that have so influenced our own culture. Be sure to see, for example, the Berlin Wall.

Your heart will go out to those poor victims imprisoned behind it whose inalienable right to travel has been abridged by their totalitarian government.

ATTENTION SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

There will be a Senior Class meeting, Tuesday, Jan. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in Room 201-2 of the Student Center.

The primary order of business will be the presentation of a proposed sculpture being considered as a gift of the Senior Class.

Any questions will be answered by the artist doing the work, who will also be present at the meeting. The final decision will be made on the gift at this meeting, so BE THERE.

Additional business will include a complete treasurer's report, a discussion of the spring banquet and/or disposal of the senior class treasury.

Seniors are urged to pay their cap and gown fee to the Student Center Director, have the necessary measurements taken and also order their announcements.

1968: ITS CAUSE AND CURE

Are you still writing "1967" on your papers and letters? I'll bet you are, you scamp! But I am not one to be harsh with those who forgot we are in a new year, for I myself have long been guilty of the same lapse. In fact, in my senior year at college, I wrote 1873 on my papers until nearly November of 1874! (It turned out, incidentally, not to be such a serious error because, as we all know, 1874 was later repealed by President Chester A. Arthur in a fit of pique over the Black Tom Explosion. And, as we all know, Mr. Arthur later came to regret his hasty action. Who does not recall that famous meeting between Mr. Arthur and Louis Napoleon when Mr. Arthur said, "Lou, I wish I hadn't of repealed 1874." Whereupon the French emperor made his immortal rejoinder, "Tipi que nous et tyler tu". Well sir, they had many a good laugh about that, as you can imagine.)

But I digress. How can we remember to write 1968 on our papers and letters? Well sir, the best way is to find something memorable about 1968, something unique to fix it firmly in your mind. Happily, this is very simple because, as we all know, 1968 is the first year in history that is divisible by 2, by 5, and by 7. Take a pencil and try it: 1968 divided by 2 is 984; 1968 divided by 5 is 393.6; 1968 divided by 7 is 281.14. This mathematical curiosity will not occur again until the year 2079, but we will all be so busy then celebrating the Chester A. Arthur bi-centenary that we will scarcely have time to be writing papers and letters and like that.

Another clever little trick to fix the year 1968 in your mind is to remember that 1968 spelled backwards is 8691. "Year" spelled backwards is "raey." "Personna" spelled backwards is "Annosrep." I mention Personna because I am paid to write this column by the makers of Personna Super Stainless Steel Blades, and they are inclined to withhold my check if I omit to mention their product.

Not, mind you, that it is any chore for me to sing the praises of Personna, for it is a seemly blade that shaves you cleanly, a gleaming blade that leaves you beaming, a trouble-free blade that leaves you stubble-free, a matchless blade that leaves you scratchless. If you are tired of facial slump, if you are fed up with jowl blight, try Personna today... available both in double-edge style and Injector style. And if I seem a bit excessive in my admiration for Personna, I ask you to remember that to me Personna is more than a razor blade; it is also an employer.

But I digress. We were speaking of the memorable aspects of 1968 and high among them, of course, is the fact that in 1968 the entire House of Representatives stands for election. There will, no doubt, be many lively and interesting contests, but none, I'll wager, quite so lively and interesting as the one in my own district where the leading candidate is none other than Chester A. Arthur!

Mr. Arthur, incidentally, is not the first ex-president to come out of retirement and run for the House of Representatives. John Quincy Adams was the first. Mr. Adams also holds another distinction: he was the first son of a president ever to serve as president. It is true that Martin Van Buren's son, Walter "Blinky" Van Buren, was at one time offered the nomination for the presidency, but he, alas, had already accepted a bid to become Mad Ludwig of Bavaria. James K. Polk's son, on the other hand, became Salmon P. Chase. Millard Fillmore's son went into aluminum siding. This later became known as the Missouri Compromise.

Art Professor Awarded $2000 Grant

Terrence Schubert, a new member of the art faculty at Wisconsin State University-River Falls, finds that being in agreement with famous people pays off--to the tune of a $2000 scholarship grant.

With the late Louis Comfort Tiffany, who established the Tiffany Foundation, Schubert believes that the handworking processes of creative metal design should not be lost. His belief and his work earned him the grant from the Foundation.

The son of Charles Tiffany of Jewelry fame established the Tiffany Foundation in 1918 for the encouragement and practical assistance to talented young American artists and craftsmen.

Schubert's grant was one of four awarded in creative metal design, the Founda-erican Indian Arts in Sante Fe, N.M., where he taught silversmithing to Indians of all tribes and all grades.

"It was not a one-way experience," Schubert says. "From my students I sensed the real essence of what Indian design is about and slowly developed a new approach to contemporary jewelry based on a true understanding of the good qualities of Indian design and the use of Indian materials, such as turquoise, coral and shell."

He came to respect another material peculiar to the region, a porous rock called tuff that easily lends itself to casting. He dreams of creating a silver punch bowl cast in tuff, with a raised linear design on the inside and a relief design on the outside, with perhaps a band of turquoise stones set around the rim in Zuni fashion.

He envisions also the creation of contemporary flatware based on Northwest or Cherokee Indian wooden tools and implements.

A native of St. Paul, Schubert earned his bachelor's degree at Cranbrook Academy of Art and holds the M.F.A. degree from the Rochester Institute of Technology.

Mrs. Schubert, the former June Kahl, designs jewelry also. She is a graduate of Skidmore College and holds the M.F.A. from the School for American Craftsmen.

Her wedding ring is an original design by Schubert. The gold band is inlaid with a linear design in a black alloy incorporating the symbols for life, death, infinity, marriage, man and woman.

With his grant, Schubert plans to travel and acquire materials for the creation of more cast holloware.

During spring vacation he will visit the Smithsonian Institute and the Museum of the American Indian, to see at first hand some of the older pieces. Next summer he wants to visit museums in Oklahoma and Arizona and acquire a new supply of tuff in Arizona.

Some of Schubert's jewelry is currently on exhibit. A pin was accepted by the Wisconsin Crafts Exhibit and the American Jewelry Today Exhibit displays his chased gold hair comb and gold earrings.

An example of Schubert's work was shown in the last faculty art show.

National Press To Accept Poetry

Spring competition of the National Poetry Press will be open for submission of manuscripts until April 10.

Any student attending either junior or senior college is eligible to submit his verse. There is no limitation as to form of theme. Shorter works are preferred by the Board of Judges, because of space limitations.

Each poem must be typed or printed on a separate sheet, and must include the name and home address of the student, and the college address as well.

Manuscripts should be sent to the Office of the Press, National Poetry Press, 3210 Selby Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif., 90034.

1967 Saw Record Growth, Improved Programs

The nine Wisconsin State Universities are beginning 1968 after a year of record growth, improved programs and some new problems, the system office in Madison reports.

Eugene R. McPhee, Director of State Universities, since 1948, listed the following events as most significant for the system in 1967:

1. Enrollment growth making the system the sixth largest higher education system in the nation in full-time enrollment, exceeded only by four New York and California systems and the University of Minnesota.

2. Approval by the legislature of broadened graduate programs and other program improvements.

3. Completion of the system's first new freshman-sophomore campus at Richland Center, and progress in building two other branch campuses at Rice Lake and Fond du Lac.

4. Student protests and demonstrations resulting in injuries, property damage and defiance of university and civil authorities.

This school year some 51,000 students are attending the nine State Universities at Eau Claire, La Crosse, Menomonie (Stout), Oshkosh, Platteville, River Falls, Stevens Point, Superior and Whitewater and the two-year branch campuses at Rice Lake and Richland Center. This is an increase of 7,000 or 16% over the 1966-67 year. The students include about 14,000 freshmen who graduated from Wisconsin high schools in 1967 and decided to attend State Universities.

To serve the increased student bodies the system hired new faculty members from many states to bring the total faculty from 3,160 in the fall of 1966 to 3,570 in the fall of 1967.

Students arriving at the campuses last September found 17 new residence halls ready for them, bringing the total to 101 residence halls with enough double rooms and living areas to house half of the WSU students.

During the year good progress was made on a $100 million construction program to provide new and enlarged libraries, science buildings, fine arts buildings, classroom buildings and stadiums. A new branch campus is nearing completion at Rice Lake, where classes are being held in the former vocational school building. Construction started last fall at Fond du Lac for the WSU branch campus which will open in September 1968.

Before adjourning in December, the legislature authorized the State Universities to grant master of arts and master of science degrees and professional and specialized degrees in education. Previously only master's degrees in education could be awarded at the graduate level. If approved by the governor, the change will enable WSU students receiving bachelor's degrees to remain at the same campus to work for master's degrees in several fields other than education. No new programs may be offered, however, without approval of the board of regents and the Coordinating Committee for Higher Education.

Demonstrations which got out of hand at four campuses in May resulted in a systemwide effort directed by the board's education committee and the adoption in December of uniform student conduct rules to serve as guidelines for all the universities.

New men moved into the presidents' chairs in 1967 at three of the universities. At Stevens Point, Lee Sherman Dreyfus succeeded James H. Albertson, who died in a plane crash in Vietnam with a group of educators on a special mission. At Whitewater, William L. Carter succeeded Walker D. Wyman, who resigned to become distinguished professor of history at River Falls. And at River Falls, Richard H. Delorit was named acting president when E. H. Kleinpell retired.

All-University Council

continue functioning during the appeal period.

The requirement that a campus organization have at least eight members has been reduced to five.

Until this time disestablishment of a student organization was only the business of the Vice-President for Student Affairs.

A report of the Academic Standards Committee brought about a change in the mid-term deficiency system and the adoption of a sixth week evaluation and seventh week student-teacher conference if a student is deficient. The new system is subject to the President's approval.

An academic calendar for the next two years, based on this year's successful calendar, and taking into consideration recommendations of the Student Senate, was also proposed.

A resolution, submitted by Walter Bunge, that the faculty of Wisconsin State University-River Falls censure Lt. Gen. Lewis Hershey for recommending that local draft boards reclassify and conscript students who obstruct military recruiting or engage in illegal protest on campus was defeated by a five to five vote. Three abstained.

A motion that it be recommended to the President that classes be dismissed on February 2, at 2 p.m. to allow students to participate in Winter Carnival activities was approved.

Resident Key Privileges Discussed By AWS Board

A motion which would give a woman dormitory resident key privileges immediately upon her 21 birthday was passed by the Associated Women's Students (AWS) Executive Board Tuesday night.

The issue was originally introduced at the Dec. 19 AWS meeting by Phyllis Tousey, a McMillan Hall resident. The issue was turned over to the Legislative Committee for study and the motion was presented by the committee.

The present rule, as found in the Handbook for Resident Women, states that key privileges will be extended to the student "during the quarter following the 21st birthday when it occurs during the term."

Under the present rule, it is possible for a woman to be required to observe hours for almost an entire quarter if her 21st birthday happened to fall soon after the beginning of the quarter.

The motion now awaits action by Dr. Nancy Knaak, associate dean of students. Dr. Knaak's only foreseeable problem would be informing the girls of their rights and restrictions upon receiving a key. Dean Knaak will do research into the issue and report her findings and decision to the AWS Board.

The question was raised of maintaining a certain academic level to retain a vote on the AWS Board.

Hal's Lowdown

by Robert Halverson
Sports Editor

Welcome back to the sports scene. Also a special welcome back to earth for all the Packer backers celebrating the drubbing the Pack gave the Raiders Sunday. Raiders?

To kick off the 1968 sport year the Lowdown should like to briefly reminisce the past year. These observations are personal reflections and sports memories of the year gone by:

Watching the Minnesota Twins come apart and give away the penant in the American League race due to poor attitude and personality conflicts.

Reading the 1967 National League draft lists and seeing neither Jim Baier or Ted Ragatz being drafted for the big leagues. These two did more for the 1966-67 football squad than Bonnie did or Clyde.

Watching Bob Swander lead the Falcon cagers to a season log of 4 wins and 17 losses. Which ties a record for the worst season at River Falls. Ever! Also seeing the subsequent resignation of Swander and the arrival of new basketball coach Newman Benson, former RF great.

Talking to All American Jim Baier before he left for combat duty in Vietnam. The Green Bay Packers crushing victory over the Chiefs of Kansas City in the first Super bowl.

Watching Glenwood City's tournament victory over the Old Abes of Eau Claire Memorial to keep the Abes out of State Tourney action for the first time in recent years.

The Falcon swimming team finishing fifth in the Wisconsin State University Conference meet with a total of five swimmers on the tank team.

Watching dazed and unbelieving as the Bluedevils of Stout State beat the Falcon football squad on the local grid. The Falcons finished the season with a flourish as they were demolished by last place and winless Stout.

The Falcon grapplers winning the WSUC conference wrestling title and placing fourth in the N.A.I.A. tournament. Ed Houghdahl and Tom Madison placed fourth in the nation and Steve Schmidt placed third.

Talking to all pro Willie Davis at Lambeau Field in August. The Packers great defensive captain signed autographs for members of River Falls Johnnies softball team at Green Bay for the State Softball Tournament.

River Falls Johnnies best season ever as they won 40 games and lost 20. Wins included a 2-1 victory over Whitaker Buick and their perennial all-world hurler, Al DeWall.

A truly great thrill in sports was the fantastic two-goal victory over Notre Dame. The Falcon hockey squad began the 67-68 year with a 8-6 victory over the previously unbeaten Irish. The Falcon-Irish clash has to rank as one of the big moments in sports for many.

The year just passed proved many thrills and great moments in sports. The passion and pain of athletic contest provides both sorrow and joy, and the coming year will no doubt come through with great, and not-so-great, moments; some of these moments will be:

The Falcon wrestling team repeating as WSUC champions and placing in the top ten school in the national tourney. The present edition of the cage crew will finish fifth in the conference as they prepare for a really big year in 1969.

The Green Bay Packers will go to training camp in July minus some wise old veterans but the wonderful tradition of winning that is instilled in the very life blood of Green Bay will send the Packers into NFL combat once again the team to beat again next fall.

The local hockey team will fight on for a 12 and 2 record good enough to earn them a berth in a post season tourney to be held in St. Paul.

Next year's edition of Falcon football will finally jell and come through with a 6-2 season record good enough for second place in the WSUC, provided Trooien can fire the offense and Barrington can stir the defensive unit.

Harry Hangnail will repeat as local horseshoe pitching champion with a sudden death victory over Elmer "Ringer" Roundjaw at Snouse Gardens in good old River City.

For the first time in many years a Middle Border team will travel to Madison for the State Basketball Tourney, that being the unbeaten Glenwood City Hill-toppers.

And always remember it is better to be a fan than to be a supporter.

Wrestlers Lose to Winona

The Falcon wrestling squad ran into tough Winona State Saturday night and suffered a 19-11 defeat.

Coach Byron James' grapplers fought gamely but were out muscled by the Warriors. After Tom Madison's draw in the 152 pound weight class the score of the spirited contest was 11-5 in favor of the Falcons. However they failed to record another team point.

The Winona wrestlers finished sixth in the nation in the 1967 National Intercollegiate Athletic Association competition.

Next competition for the Falcons will also be at home Friday, Jan. 19, at 7:30 p.m. against Upper Iowa.

Results of the Winona defeat are:

Ken Flouro (RF) decisioned John Arnold (W) 10-1; 123.

Jim Bogniewski (W) dec Craig Swenson (RF) 6-3; 130.

Dave Johnson (RF) dec. Larry Pomerly (W) 9-5; 137.

Ed Houghdahl (RF) dec. Roger Jehlicka (W) 4-1; 145.

Pete Sandberg (W) and Tom Madison (RF) draw; 152.

Mike Alexander (W) dec. Jesse Zwolena (RF) 3-2; 160.

Ray Wicks (W) pinned Rich Sobien (RF); 167.

Steve Drone (W) dec. Doug Williams (RF) 14-3; 177.

Ron Moen dec. Steve Fabion (RF) 14-3; hwt.

IM Basketball

As Intramural basketball season enters another night of competition, nine teams are still unbeaten.

In the Northern League, the Swifties, and Fat Eddies (1967 champs) hold a one-half game lead over the Innocents who are 3-0. New Colony Five is all alone in the Southern League at 5-0 and Trobe Glotters and Sig Rho #2 also support 5-0 records in the Western League, Newman Club (5-0), T.C.'s (4-0), and Inabilities (3-0) lead the Eastern League.

Bert Peterson of Pete's Pride, led all scorers with 24 points in a 63-12 romp over the Record Breakers, Not far behind was Jim Seifert of Sig Rho #2 who scored 23 in defeating the Turtles 62-39. Gary Checkalski dropped in 20 as Rayzschen Bayzsha won 39-18 over the Cardinals. Other high scorers were Rosga of Jute-Jolly-Jams with 18 and Buck of the Chargers with 17.

Falcon Five Nip Bethel, Ripped By Point

by Harley O'brion

Friday night River Falls nipped Bethel 88-85 in a non-conference overtime battle.

The score was tied 78 all after regulation play and baskets by Van Dyke, Burich, and Glomski and two free throws apiece iced the victory.

The game was marred by 58 fouls; 33 against River Falls and 25 against Bethel. Pederson, Robertson, Malyon, and Feldman fouled out for Bethel and Kulig, Wolf, and Van Dyke went out for the Falcons.

Steve Gustafson, 6'3" junior from Osceola, again set out the game with an ankle injury. Gustafson played the last 15 seconds of the game and it is evident that he is a sparkplug on the young RF team.

Coach Benson, assured me that Gustafson will play against Northland Wednesday night.

"We looked better than we did against Point, said Benson, but we still looked ragged at times. Our free throws shooting in the second half was bad and we missed many one-and-one situations."

George Voss, a junior from Middleton, took game scoring honors with 22 points. Each team had five men in double figures.

The Stevens Point Pointers, led by 6'8" Mike Hughes, outshot and outplayed River Falls to gain a 113-73 victory here Tuesday night.

The Falcons, back from a two week lay-off, couldn't muster a rally throughout the game. During the second half, the closest River Falls came to the taller Stevens Point squad was 83-61, a 23 point deficit.

Point started off fast with eight points before Bill Van Dyke put River Falls on the scoreboard with a three point play. RF then fell behind 26-8 and 34-11 midway through the first half.

River Falls shot a mere 24% and was guilty of many mistakes during the first half. Stevens Point shot a fantastic 67% during the half with Hughes scoring 23. Point shot 57.5% for the game and RF managed 32%.

The Falcons looked as though they have pulled out of their slump after the intermission by narrowing the gap to 66-43 with 11:00 remaining in the game. However; the accurate shooting by Stevens Point, aided by Falcon turnovers kept the Point out of reach.

With 7:50 left in the game, the Pointers had ball control trouble and baskets by Burich, Kulig, Voss and Wolf sparked a short-lived rally. Point ended the game with an 18-4 point rally.

Hughes took scoring honors with 39 markers. Kulig, a senior from Independence was second with 18 and he also led all rebounders with 15.

Selander Gets Hat Trick

Pucksters Lose, Play Oles Tuesday

Despite Duane Selander's hat trick, the Huskies of St. Cloud defeated the Falcon hockey squad 6-4 on Tuesday.

The come-from-behind victory marks the Falcons first loss and the Huskies first victory. The Falcons had a 4-1 advantage but the hustling Huskies fought to tie and go ahead in the final period on their home rink.

Former Harding star John Humphrey opened scoring in the game at 14:30 of the first period with an assist from Jerry Trooien, another Harding graduate.

Selander's hat trick came in the second period when he ripped the St. Cloud goalie for three goals. The first came at 3:20 of the second stanza on assists from Cretin star Joe Broneak and Humphrey.

Selander scored again at 5:35 to give the Falcons a 3-0 lead. The assist was again from John Humphrey.

The hectic second period produced six goals, three each by the Falcons and the Huskies. St. Cloud's first marker came at 6:14 off the stick of John Etner. Selander's third goal of the period, a beautiful unassisted drive came at 7:30 to give the Falcons a 4-1 margin.

The lead was short lived however as the Huskies John Etner came back at 11:40 to score his second goal and Tony Alm beat Falcon goalie Dick Darmody at 13:25 to make the score 4-3 at the end of the period.

One minute into the final stanza the Huskies Empey tied the score at 4 a piece. The go ahead goal was scored at 5:50 by Helgert and the final score of the contest was registered by Tony Alm at 13:20.

In the nets for the visiting Falcons Dick Darmody, St. Paul Harding grad, made 28 stops compared to 30 saves for the Huskie net minder, Jurrans.

The Huskies had been winless with two defeats pinned on them by the powerful Bemidji sextet. The Falcons leveled their record at 1 win and 1 defeat. The win being the 8-6 game with the Irish of Notre Dame.

The Falcons lack of practice time became evident as the game wore on and the Huskies continued to battle the tired Falcons who fought gamely but were out hustled. For a period and one half the Huskies did not belong on the same ice with the Falcons while in the remainder of the game the situation was reversed. The Falcons will try to get back on the winning track this week as they travel to Northfield, Minnesota to tangle with the St. Olaf sextet on Tuesday. The Oles are sporting a 1-2 record, losing to the Mankato Indians Saturday. The Oles are members of the Midwest Conference.

Recitals, Baroque, Music Features

Two recitals will be presented by the University music department this week. On Friday, Jan. 19, at 4 p.m. a student recital will be given in the North Hall Auditorium. Faculty members will present a Baroque concert in North Hall on Sunday, Jan. 21, at 8 p.m.

The second concert will consist chiefly of Baroque music for harpsichord, instruments, and voices.

Dr. Donald Nitz will perform several harpsichord solos, including Handel's Suite IX in Bb, J.S. Bach's Prelude, Fugue and Allergo in Eb, and Vivaldi's Concerto in D, arranged for harpsichord by J. S. Bach. Two contemporary harpsichord pieces by Russell Woollen and Daniel Pinkham will also be performed.

Ruthanna Alexander, soprano, will sing Handel's solo cantata, "Figlio d'Alte Speranze", accompanied by Dr. Nitz, harpsichord and John Kolpitke, violin. She will also perform a sacred cantata by Dietrich Buxtehude, accompanied by Lori Brooks, harpsichord; Mr. Kolpitke, violin; and Mary Jane Lang, flute.

Tenor Robert Beldler, accompanied by Dr. Nitz, will sing five songs from the Spanish Renaissance and Baroque periods. Dr. William Abbott and Carolyn DeJong, duo-pianists, will perform W.F. Bach's Sonata for Two Pianos.

There is no admission charge, and the public is invited to attend.

Student Affairs Approves Kappa Theta's Request

The Student Affairs Committee voted unanimously to approve Kappa Theta fraternity's request to go national under Phi Sigma Epsilon on their Dec. 18 meeting.

However, the committee made it clear to the fraternity representative that they felt a section of the national constitution, which makes it unlawful for fraternity members to join subversive groups, needs clarification. They felt "this phrase antagonizes people."

Herb Cederberg, committee chairman, then reported on a meeting held with acting Pres. Richard J. Delorit in regard to the demonstration policy on this campus. It was discovered through communication with the Board of Regents that they approved almost the same recommendations on this issue that the Student Affairs Committee extended to the Faculty Senate.

Discussion of grievances stemming from the "search and seizure" policy for the dormitories was tabled until the next meeting when the committee hoped to have Dr. Nancy Knaak present to explain the administration's position in this matter.

Enrollment Total Drops Little Between Quarters

Enrollment for the winter quarter at Wisconsin State University-River Falls increased 11 per cent over last year to a total of 3,554.

Included in the total are 1,168 freshmen, 860 sophomores, 753 juniors, 585 seniors and 188 graduate students. Among those registered are 48 transfer students, 54 new freshmen and 156 students who are re-entering the University.

Although a drop of eight to ten per cent in enrollment usually is expected from the first to the second period in an academic school year, the winter quarter total at River Falls is only three per cent less than the fall quarter registration of 3,696.

World Famous Pianists To Appear Here Jan. 23

Alfons and Aloys Kontarsky, world famous pianists, will be appearing in concert at 8 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 23 in North Hall Auditorium.

The Kontarsky brothers established their reputation in Europe through two areas of artistic accomplishments. First, they play brilliantly on two pianos and second, their interpretation of contemporary music.

The German brothers have traveled many times through all the European countries and concertized in the Near East, Japan, North, South and Central America. Today they are recognized as the foremost duo-pianists of our time.

Excerpts from the International Press say:

"These two artists are absolutely extraordinary in their interpretation of music of all periods." Madrid, 1963.

"No praise can be too high for their astonishingly controlled freedom of rhythm and their mastery of every detail of balance." London, 1962.

Bits and Pieces of RF

For every single college woman enrolled at Wisconsin State University-River Falls there are 1.83 single college men.

According to the Wisconsin State Universities Enrollment Report for September, 1967, college men enrolled at River Falls outnumber the women 2052-1121. The men outnumber the women in each class: Frosh, 630-396; Soph., 501-246; Junior, 441-242; and Seniors, 397-172. Every man for himself.

Other useless bits of information included in the Enrollment Report include:

** Eau Claire is the only State University in which the women outnumber the men. The totals are 2,956 women to 2,586 men.

** WSU-RF leads all of the other State Universities in graduate enrollment in Agriculture and Math and Science.

** WSU-RF has no students from Adams, Florence or Iowa Counties.

** WSU-RF leads all other state universities in drawing students from Burnett, 54; Pierce, 578; Polk, 289; and St. Croix, 471, Counties.

** There are more Minnesota students attending WSU-RF than all of the other State Universities combined.

** WSU-RF has students from Minnesota, 797; Illinois, 63; New York, 10; Iowa and New Jersey, 7; Hawaii, 6; California and Indiana, 5; Pennsylvania and South Dakota, 4; Michigan, 3; Connecticut and Ohio, 2; and one each from Alaska, Colorado, Florida, Massachusetts, North Dakota, Texas, Washington D.C. and Wyoming.

** There are fewer foreign students at WSU-RF than at any of the other State Universities.

** WSU-RF has more foreign students from South Korea, Nigeria and Togo than do any of its sister universities.

WSU-RF has students from South Korea, 6; Nigeria, 4; Iran 3; Brazil and Hong Kong, 2; and one each from China/Taiwan, Egypt, East Germany, Japan, Kenya, Lebanon, Liberia, Norway, Sierra Leone, and Togo.

Forensic Union

The Forensics Union of Wisconsin State University-River Falls was approved and established as a new organization on campus during the past quarter. The purpose of this organization is to promote forensics activity on campus while uniting students interested in these activities.

Elected officers of this union are as follows: Mike Tillmann, president; Pete Seguin, vice-president; Kathy Graham, secretary-treasurer. Dr. Marion Hawkins was presented with Honorary Membership in recognition of services as former director of forensics. Jerald Carstens received the vote as advisor.

President Tillmann appointed three committees; membership, program, and entertainment at the first of the bi-monthly meetings.

On January 20 this group will sponsor an Invitational High School Debate Tournament.

Dorm Rules Committee May Produce Regulations

The committee to review and re-evaluate existing rules and regulations in men's residence halls may be on the verge of producing meaningful regulations.

John Chudy, a Student Senate representative to the committee believes two rules will soon be changed. One of the rules states a student can keep only one suitcase in his dorm room. The other rule sets 10:30 as the time a guest must leave the dorm the night before classes.

The committee was formed in October after student demonstrations over dormitory rules. In the intervening time, the committee has had six meetings.

The committee has written a paper combining the yellow sheet that is in every dorm room and the handbook that is handed out every spring. There are other rules also included in the new paper that weren't widely known.

Gary Sackmann is a committee member representing the Interdorm Council. He sees the committee's work as a paper that "might even be readable."

Housing Director Dan Parker said the original purpose of the committee was to review the present handbook. He said there has been a misunderstanding among some people about the purpose of the committee. These people, he said, want to concentrate on certain rules.

Habeck said he thought the reason the committee was established was to discuss the controversial issues. He believes the committee has accomplished something because it has gotten rid of old rules that hurt the students.

Guy Habeck said the next meeting is Tuesday night in room 200 of the student center. He said the preliminary is out of the way and the committee is meeting regularly now so "we can't help but make accomplishment."

Socialist

should take the lead in setting up general committees of consumers to regulate prices.

The Socialist candidates favor repealing all anti-labor laws. They are in defense of the unconditional right to strike, with complete union independence from government control and interference.

The two men support a reduced work week with no cut in pay, and unemployment compensation at the union wage scale for all jobless persons 18 and over, whether or not they have been previously employed.

Halstead and Boutelle are for a crash program of public housing and other public works. They would like to take the billions spent on war and use them to build decent, low-rent homes for the working millions who need them, and to build schools and hospitals instead of bombs.

The Presidential candidate and his colored running mate support the right to vote at 18 and free public education through the university level, with adequate pay for all students who need it.

The third area in the Socialists' program calls for a planned, democratic socialist America. They seek to nationalize the major corporations and banks under the control of democratically elected workers committees.

"A socialist America," according to Halstead and Boutelle, "will be an America of peace and prosperity, without poverty or slums or unemployment, and without wars like that in Vietnam. It will put an end to racism and, for the first time after over 400 years of oppression, guarantee unconditionally, the right of self-determination for the black Americans. It will signal an unparalleled growth in culture, freedom and in the development of the individual."

Phi Alpha Theta

Initiates Eleven

Lambda-Nu Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, international honor society in history, initiated 11 new members Tuesday, Dec. 12.

The new members are Bruce Edward Brickner, Judy Collins, Charles Gander, Gerald Gust, Donald Johnson, Jacqueline Kresal, Harry Nelson, Donald Regelman, Carolyn Thompson, Robert Welle-meyer, and Robert Wittstock.

Phi Alpha Theta, organized in 1921, has grown to the point where it now has over 300 chapters. It is the largest, in number of chapters, of the accredited honor societies holding membership in the Association of College Honor Societies. The total number of its initiates, since organization, is more than 50,000.

The membership of Phi Alpha Theta is composed of students and professors who have been elected to membership upon the basis of excellence in the study or the writing of history.

At the same time, Phi Alpha Theta is a professional society, the objective of which is the promotion of the study of history by the encouragement of research, good teaching, publication, and the exchange of learning and thought among historians.

It seeks to bring students, teachers, and writers of history together both intellectually and socially, and it encourages and assists, in a variety of ways, historical research and publication by its members.
