Student Opinion Survey Makes Rapid Count of College Voters

Roosevelt Leads Dewey As College Vote Favors Democrats

Five months before the national elections, the American college voter is found leaning toward the Democratic party, it is shown in a national poll completed Monday by the Student Opinion Surveys of America.

Franklin D. Roosevelt and Thomas E. Dewey are the leading college choices for the U. S. presidency in November, the Surveys finds in this study conducted with the cooperation of The Student Voice and scores of other undergraduate papers. The President and his party, however, have succeeded in gaining the favor of the greatest group of collegians.

At Westminster College in Missouri May 1, 2, and 3 student delegates from all corners of the country will gather for political conventions that will give a glimpse of what the undergraduate world thinks of candidates and parties. Herewith is presented a preview of the news that may come out of these conventions, in the form of statistics that represent the entire U. S. student enrollment.

"Which party would you favor in the national elections next November?" interviewers asked last week.

Democratic, said 47 per cent
Republican, said 39 per cent
When the ballots from qualified student voters only were tabulated, an even greater number, 51 per cent, favored the Democrats, 34 going to the Republicans.

"Whom would you like to see nominated for president in that party (named in preceding question)?"

1. Roosevelt	34.3%	38.2%
2. Dewey	26.6	25.0
3. Hull	7.3	8.2
4. Vandenberg	6.0	3.8
5. Taft	4.2	4.0
6. Garner	3.6	3.2
7. Thomas	2.6	4.4
8. Farley	1.9	1.8
9. McNutt	1.9	1.4
10. Wheeler	0.3	0.3

Republican Students—
1. Dewey	62.7%
2. Vandenberg	14.0
3. Taft	7.5
4. Others	8.7
Don't know	7.1
Democrat Students—
1. Roosevelt	67.8%
2. Hull	12.3
3. Garner	6.7
4. Others	9.8
Don't know	3.4

Cross-tabulating the ballots geographically, it is found that New England, East Central, South, and Far West place Roosevelt on top. Middle Atlantic and West Central states select Dewey. Students who say they have no party choice name Dewey first, F.D.R. second.

A significant fact revealed by this poll is the small support that John N. Garner has among students, while he is one of the leaders among rank and file voters, other surveys show. Paul V. McNutt, who led in a Survey last May, is now ninth, below even socialist Norman Thomas.

SCS Girls Perform at Tea

On Wednesday afternoon the Sigma Chi Sigma entertained the women faculty members at a tea in the social room. The program, prepared by a committee headed by Marion Kirkpatrick, consisted of: A reading by Lenore Anderson, a soprano solo by Frona Nelson, and two piano solos by Gladys Bleisner and Marion Kirkpatrick. A girls' trio consisting of Adelaide Christenson, Virginia Griffith, and Bette Campbell sang a college favorite, Chloe.

The luncheon table, decorated with red carnations, displayed platters of pinwheel sandwiches, prepared by Mildred Birkmose, Irene Raawe, and Delores Kramscuster.

RF Representatives Place at Speech Meet

Raawe Takes First Place In Extempore Contest

River Falls representatives placed in several events in the third annual forensic contest held at Eau Claire, April 27.

Irene Raawe won the extempore speaking contest. Virginia Griffith placed second in interpretation of dramatic prose and James Grunke third in interpretation of poetry. In memorized oratory Jack Osborne was second and Edward Onchuck fourth in the original oratory decisions.

The extemporaneous speakers talked on such topics relating to American isolation. They were given an hour to prepare a speech of eight to 12 minutes in length. Material could be used only during the preparation of the speech. Virginia Griffith and James Grunke also entered the extemporaneous contest in prose and poetry. They were given an hour to prepare their selection before reading it.

Thirty-five students from seven colleges participated. The colleges represented were Superior, Eau Claire, River Falls, St. Mary's, St. Cloud, Macalester, and Hamline.

Spriggs Urges Students Attend Safety Dept. Movie May 7

On Tuesday, May 7, a member of the State Highway Safety Department will present a talking picture on safety in the college auditorium at 4:00 p. m. He will give a brief lecture along with the movie.

As the state law requires teachers in Wisconsin to teach safety, Mr. Spriggs, advisor of the Science club, advises students to attend this meeting. The Science Club is sponsoring the show, and hopes the student body will take advantage of this opportunity.

T. Z. Koo Gets Big Hand From Students

Chinese Lecturer Gives Two Speeches on Campus To Explain Far East Question

China's youth leader, Dr. T. Z. addressed a packed auditorium both Monday afternoon and evening of this week. The Undeclared War in the Orient was the subject of his afternoon lecture; he spoke on China's Cultural Heritage in the evening.

When discussing China's undeclared war, Doctor Koo outlined for the students the primary reasons for Japan's penetration into Chinese territory and the causes for China's belligerency. He then pointed out the three different stages of thought that the Chinese people have felt concerning the war. As a better description of China's conception of the war he likened China to a feather pillow, "If you smash it here," he said, "It comes out here."

After speaking of the war in the Orient from a military viewpoint, youthful appearing Mr. Koo told how China has begun to rebuild her universities with the cheapest building materials, mud and straw.

In the evening Mr. Koo explained China's Cultural Heritage from three angles, relation to God, to material world, and fellow men.

Mr. Koo also has a hobby, flute-playing, at which he is very adept. After eating in America, the flute-player has learned to dislike two dishes with a surprising intensity. One of them is an all-american dish—pie, the other of German descent—potato-salad.

LaCrosse Will Entertain Today

Band and Orchestra Plus Soloists to Furnish Musicales

This week might be called LaCrosse-River Falls week; for the musical organizations of the two institutions exchange programs for respective assemblies.

Today's assembly will feature the LaCrosse musical organizations in a varied program of representative music. The program which will include the LaCrosse band and orchestra and several soloists, is directed by Mr. Thomas Annett, head of the music department at LaCrosse.

The orchestra will play the Brahms' Hungarian Dance, No. 6, two selections from the pen of Edward Grieg, and present a violin soloist, Miss Daley, playing a concerto for violin.

The band will play Percy Grainger's Country Gardens, Billy Blowhard, a tuba solo by John Philips Sousa and selections from the works of Victor Herbert.

The RFSTC college orchestra played a concert for the LaCrosse student body last Tuesday morning.

Last spring LaCrosse sent its orchestra and a trio here for an assembly program, which was well received by RFSTC students.

Placement Situation Shows Improvement

Tenure Law and Referendum Cause Unusual Situation

The placement situation so far this spring has not been as encouraging as in previous years, but there is a feeling that as the season advances more vacancies will be opening up.

From the placement angle, last week showed an improvement over other weeks because more vacancies were turned in to the placement office than in preceding weeks. Up to this time about as many agricultural students have been placed as compared to last year. However, the placement for elementary and secondary students has been somewhat slower than last year.

Because of the Tenure law and Referendum, many school boards are hiring teachers later than usual. Also as a result of this law, a few teachers have lost their positions.

The revision of the state aid law has caused many rural schools whose enrollment was less than ten pupils to close. Because of the revision of this law, many rural schools have consolidated, making fewer vacancies for rural teachers.

A Cappella Choir Presents Program of Nevin Numbers

The A Capella choir, directed by Prof. Marvin D. Geere and accompanied by Marian Kirkpatrick and Lois Webb, presented a program of musical selections composed by Ethelbert Nevin, famous American musician, at the assembly hour last Thursday afternoon.

The program opened with the singing of The Rosary. Lois Webb gave a sketch of composer Nevin's life. Two piano solos, Narcissus and Venetian Nights were played by Marian Kirkpatrick. Bette Campbell sang a soprano solo, My Desire.

A duet, Oh That We Two Were Maying was presented by Frona Nelson and Ross Jesse. A girl's quartette, composed of Bette Campbell, Marie Trömm, Margaret Monteith, Audrey Doolittle sang, with Virginia Griffith as interpretive reader. Gene Egan was the baritone soloist.

The chorus sang a set of three songs to conclude the program. They were Evening Song, Little Boy Blue, and Jubilate Deo.

16th Annual Music Festival Is Great All-Round Success

First Mother's Day Plans Progress

Mothers To Be Acquainted With Children's Environment

Plans are progressing for the Mother's Day to be held May 10th. The "Know the Campus" tour will include visits to the swimming pool, gymnasiums, tennis courts, library, Health Cottage, and other points of interest on our campus.

Luncheon will be served at the cafeteria at 12:00. The students may eat through the regular cafeteria line in with their mothers, who will go order to see just how the cafeteria operates. The students who eat at boarding clubs are urged to entertain their mothers at luncheon. Students eat at the following clubs: Jersey's, Seldom Inn, Foxes, Trye's, College Hall, and Webster's.

The program to be presented in the auditorium at 2:00 will include a one-act play, selection by the Women's Chorus, a style show, and a vocal solo by Frona Nelson.

The invitations have been issued, and it is hoped that every mother will come.

Election of officers for 1940-41 of the Photography Club will be held at the May meeting scheduled for the first week of this month.

Chapman Chosen As Steward For '40-41 Fox Boarding Club

Everett Chapman, a junior in the history department, has been selected to be head steward at the Fox Boarding Club next year. "Swede" Nelson, who will graduate this spring, formerly held this position.

Tommy Kliszcz, a sophomore, was elected Monday evening by the club members to be the assistant steward next year.

The Fox Boarding club is a cooperative club started by Prof. Jacobson and the YMCA as a boarding place for those boys who were doing light housekeeping at the time. For the past five years this club has been an eating place for about fifty men students.

Hudson, River Falls, and New Richmond Rate High

With Hudson, River Falls, and New Richmond high schools earning the largest number of high ratings, the sixteenth annual Music Festival came to a successful close on Saturday night.

Hudson took top honors with 16 "A" ratings and 11 "B" ratings. River Falls had 15 "A" ratings, 12 "B" ratings and 3 "C" ratings.

Seventeen neighboring schools were represented by 1265 contestants during the two day festival. According to Professor M. D. Geere, the quality of this year's vocal selections was superior to that of past contests. Outstanding soloists were, in the judgement of Mr. Geere, Helen Olson, soprano, and Charles Nelson, tenor, both from New Richmond, Lewis Flynn, baritone, from Ellsworth, and the River Falls girl's trio.

Excellent weather conditions which prevailed throughout the two day affair contributed to the success of the contest. Several hundred people from neighboring towns lined main street to witness the parade and also remained for the program Saturday evening.

The band marching contest, the most colorful and spectacular event, showed a decided improvement in size and training of the bands. Hudson's widely known aggregation took first place in Class B, New Richmond in Class C, and Milltown in Class D.

A new angle of this year's contest was the recording of every number which was presented. Many of the contestants took advantage of the opportunity and purchased their recorded selections after the contest. The college recording machine and a recorder from the Paul H. Schmidt Music Company of Minneapolis did the work.

The grand finals on Saturday night presented some of the outstanding numbers of Friday and Saturday. These selections were the winning solos and ensembles of the regular contest. As a conclusion to the program, director Dave Dahl of Hudson led the audience in singing God Bless America.

Many local people were glad to meet Mr. William Schliep, one of the judges, and a former member of the River Falls faculty. Mr. Schliep was music director prior to 1932. Other judges were J. M. Meulke of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, and H. J. Cooke, director of the Stout Symphonic Choir of Menominee.

Mr. Lyle Shedd Adds Name To List of Hired Ag Teachers

Mr. Lyle Shedd of Arkansas has accepted the position of teacher of agriculture and science in the Wabasha, Minnesota, high school. Lyle has been taking the Smith-Hughes course at River Falls. At the present time Wabasha doesn't have a Smith-Hughes agriculture department, but they hope to have one in the near future.

Mr. Shedd graduated from the Arkansas high school with the class of 1936 and entered River Falls the following fall. Lyle has been an active member of the collegiate chapter of the FFA.

For a year and a half Lyle worked for his room and board on a farm near River Falls and at the same time maintained a very good scholastic record.

Mr. Shedd will graduate with a bachelor of science degree this June.

College Is Life At Its Fullest

College is a place for doing things. While we are here, we should be preparing, of course, for the life that we will live after graduation. But it is important for us to remember that this preparation is not the whole story. We are living NOW. College IS life. It is just as truly life as any situation outside of school, for here in college are found just those same conditions which hamper or help us any place we may go.

We have here in school just the same types of people which we shall meet all through our lives. Some are here who by nature are able to see through a problem, decide upon a plan of action, and make other people go along with them to effect a successful solution. They are leaders. Some there are who, when given stimulus by those who can lead, can help to lift and pull and make things go. Their shining quality is the ability to follow; without them, the leaders are helpless. Then, even in college, we have with us the ever-present dead wood, the person who is a drag on the efforts and accomplishments of the rest. Into whatever class we may fall, here in school we can begin to DO things, realizing as we do them that what we do is real.

Our school democracy serves as one example. We have in school and out of school an uninformed electorate. We have people trying to prescribe remedies for ills about whose causes they are ignorant. Here is a task for the leaders—to educate the followers to know what they are doing. The leaders must recognize their responsibility in this, else they will become the leaders of blind supporters.

Reforms which we may make may be merely cumbersome attempts, just as most reforms are. But in forming or in reforming, the important thing is this: we are doing, not merely preparing to do.

Cast Your Vote Intelligently

Once every year we students have a chance to take part in one of the processes of democracy, an election from our fellows of a body to represent us. The Student Senate, the organization which serves as a focal point for student in-the ones who will determine who will comprise its new membership.

It is true, of course, that when we vote in assembly we are presented with a ballot with a list of names already on it. But the nominating is not an arbitrary, closed affair. It is done by a committee composed of representatives from each of the four classes, and in addition the student body as a whole has the right to nominate members by petition.

If the Student Senate election, however, is to mean anything, an active part must be taken by everyone. We must become acquainted with students who have been nominated, consider them in the light of the work the Senate must do, and then vote for the seven we think will do the work best. Voters who are indifferent to their responsibility are a menace to representative government. In this small way let us not fall into that classification.

Departments on Parade

Industrial Arts Department Has Expanded Since 1903

The Industrial Arts Department, founded in 1903, has been one of the most rapidly expanding departments of the college. When it was first begun under the direction of Mr. Hoagh, woodworking, drawing, and printing were the only subjects taught.

The department has been housed successively in a room in South hall, in the present cafeteria room, and in the domestic science room. In 1933, a new building was constructed. Due to the limited size, some classes are still held in the old army barracks. Classes in architectural drawing, mechanical drawing, woodworking, black-smithing, gasoline engines, wood-turning, wood-finishing, surveying, and farm electrification are now given. A minor may be received. Mr. R. E. Spriggs and Mr. William Segerstrom are the present instructors.

All students enrolled in the agriculture department are required to take these courses. In addition to these, students in the rural department, pre-engineers, and some N.Y.A. students are enrolled. These N.Y.A. students are from different parts of the state. They attend classes in the morning, taught by student teachers, and work on improvements around River Falls the rest of the time. The high school also sends students over. Mr. Swanson is the high school instructor. Mr. Orlan Soli is the college assistant.

The Industrial Art departments aims to prepare students to teach in the schools. Every term about fifteen students practice teach here.

Girls! Please Remove Hats!

Anyone listening to Dr T. Z. Koo's description of a Chinaman's relation to his fellow-men must have been impressed at the ideal of benevolence to which they adhere. A benevolence involving dignity, reverence, obedience and courtesy. Perhaps a few people wondered if these principles are, or could be, applied in our democracy. This problem became pre-eminent in the mind of one person (at least) as he futilely attempted to manipulate his head behind one of those creations designed for the heads of the fairer sex. Ah, yes, you've guessed it, a hat!

Custom has so disciplined women that they are accustomed to wear their headdresses in most public places. It is our contention that women sitting in theatres and lecture halls, under those monstrosities that fill the air with feathers, ribbons, brims, ruffles, and cubist crowns, should have them removed. We are not opposed to hats conforming to the natural contours of the wearer's head. We refer only to those achievements which you can't look around.

or, if you are able to for a moment, the wearer suddenly manuevers into a new position. Girls, if you wear such a hat, please remove it for the frustrated spectator behind you. You have asked for some equality. Here is an excellent chance to express it. You would sacrifice little of your prestige and dignity on the altar of commonness; while the men and many other women should suffer no loss of reverence and courtesy by this request. Its fulfillment will signify a new era in democratic benevolence.

Toms Swamp Falcons 12 - 1

Nineteen Hit Attack Features Strong St. Thomas Offensive

While the bands were marching on Main Street last Saturday, the St. Thomas nine was busy trouncing the Falcon baseball team 12-1 in the second game of the season for the Falcons. The Tommies pounded the Falls pitchers hard, rapping out nineteen hits from the offerings of Gray, Pelouquin, Newell Olsen, and Drehmel. Gray started the game and was battered for seven runs and ten hits in four innings, to make him the losing pitcher of the game. Gray struck out three Tommy batsmen.

Gray was followed by Pelouquin in the fifth inning, and "Red" got off to a bad start, allowing the Tommies three runs and six hits in his two innings stay on the mound. Olsen then pitched an inning, giving up two hits and no runs and was followed by Drehmel, who hurled the last two innings for River Falls. Drehmel allowed two walks and a hit, good for two runs for St. Thomas.

The Falcons got their lone run in the last inning when four consecutive singles brought in a solitary counter. Paulson drove in the only tally with a sharp single which plated the singling Noyes. Batting ace for the Falcons was the initial sacker, Kelly, who drove out two hits in four trips, one of them a long triple into right field in the first inning.

For the Tommies, top hitting honors went to Horwath with five for six closely followed by Kindler, Kaess, and pitcher Makousky. River Falls got to pitcher Makousky for only four hits in the seven innings he worked.

SPORTSPEAKS

R. D. P.

With both baseball and tennis rained out for this week we have to step outside of the local picture for news of the sport world.

The high officials of the boxing world are not taking any chances with this Chilean heavyweight Arturo Godoy, when he meets Joe Louis in June. In the Feb. 9 bout Godoy was good enough to get a split decision from the officials and some papers even gave him the fight, claiming that the Chilean scored more aggressive points according to their score sheets. Jacobs has forced the Chilean to sign a contract stating that if he, Godoy, won the title, he would give Louis a return fight within sixty days. So afraid is promoter Jacobs that Godoy won't stick to his contract that he has tacked a clincher paragraph onto the deal. Godoy must put up a $25,000 bond which he will forfeit if he doesn't carry out the contract to the fullest extent; providing of course, he wins the title in June. In other words, it's hard to win tails you lose for Jacobs anyway you look at it, with the Chilean on the short end of the deal.

While we are in the boxing field, here is one on that much discussed Galento-Baer bout scheduled for May 28. Galento has been grieving so much that he has found little time for roadwork (very necessary in his case) and has decided to call the whole thing off. His case now rests before Mike Jacobs, who must decide whether the fight date will be extended or carried out as scheduled.

Coach Lambeau of the Green Bay Packers reports the successful signing of Larry Buehler, Minnesota half-back, and Lou Brock, former Purdue star right half back. Lambeau plans on using Brock with Cecil Isbell, former Purdue star and team mate of Brock as right half back and quarter back respectively with Buehler shifted to full back and blocking back spots for double duty. The addition of Vince Gavre to this trio, gives the Packers the big send off towards another World's Championship.

Golfers Drop Season's First Match 8.5-3.5

Our Falcon golf team dropped their first start of the season Saturday when they were defeated by St. Thomas College, 8½ to 3½. Swede Nelson picked up a point and a half when he fired a 79 to tie Brom, St. Thomas number one man. Schmidt, River Fall's number two man, picked up half a point by shooting an 82 while his opponent, Collins, shot a 78. Thompson, playing number three for River Falls, was defeated by Hughes of St. Thomas, 2½ to ½. Jacobson, Falcon number four man, was defeated by Becker 2 to 1.

The golfers will meet Eau Claire Friday in their first conference match of the season.

Junkman Scores Lone Tally for Netmen Against Tommy Squad

River Falls netmen dropped its first match of the season last Saturday when they dropped a 5-1 decision to a strong racket team from St. Thomas College of St. Paul. The invaders featured Giblin, who is the Minnesota State College Singles champion, and Struble, St. Paul city champion.

Giblin outstayed Nickerson to defeat the Falcon number one man, 6-2, 6-3. Struble, playing number two, defeated King in straight sets 6-4, 6-3. King started fast and jumped into a lead in the first set, but Struble displayed his championship form and soon had the situation under control. Junkman of River Falls defeated Warnloff of St. Thomas, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4. In the feature match of the day, After dropping the first set, Junkman steadied his ground strokes and outstroked his opponent in a very close match. Anderson, Falcon number four man, was defeated by Thienes of St. Thomas, 6-4, 6-1.

In the doubles, Nickerson and King were defeated by Giblin and Struble 6-1, 9-7 in a hotly contested battle. Anderson and Platte were defeated by Warnloff and Thienes, 6-4, 6-1.

The tennis team will travel to Eau Claire Friday to meet their first conference opponent of the season.

The Game of Golf

By Charles Evans Jr.

The College Golfer with the huge letter on his sweater made an unforgettable impression on me. I watched him with a great deal of interest from various parts of the course at Wakonda last year. It was my opportunity, to see many distinguishing features and it was revealed to me more than ever that golf has attained a hold on colleges that will never be lessened and which will be intensified as the sport grows in college favor. College golf has come to stay, not only for the few, but for the many.

I think that every sort of a boy was entered. There were very delicate students in that crowd, medium, strong, and very strong. There was a little hunchback who played well, and that fact brought out my contention that golf is for every sort of physique, and the college boy who would probably be cut off from every other outdoor game might make a good golfer—at least a fairly good one. Collegians must either play golf themselves or take long hikes to see the other fellow do it. There is no grand stand seat for the spectator. I found the quality of college golf great, and there are as many good players. I was amazed to see the good shots, not a few but almost all remarkably good.

Most of the college golfers have a very sound style, thanks to their coaches, but there are many of them who played in bad form. A very unsound style frequently works well when the player is youthful supple and resourceful.

The college golfer takes the best care of himself; there is no drinking, no swearing. He trains for his tournament and he is willing to make many sacrifices for his game.

Collegians religiously keep score. The score card is a tell-tale, keeping the player edged up to seek constantly to improve.

In the analysis of a composite game of the college golfer, I would say that he is a tremendous driver, good out of long grass, poor out of bunkers, and a wonderful putter.

One of the greatest incentives to the college golfer is encouragement. A boy needs a nudge now and then - or a near-one, to cheer him on a difficult way. The NCAA can and will prove a continual incentive to him to keep up all the best traditions of the game.

The Cubs, led by Brookes, and the Rascals, captained by Wesenberg, are the two undefeated teams in the softball tourney. These two teams have advanced to the semi-finals; it is almost a certainty that these two teams will battle for the championship. In this unique type of tournament, the one way a team is eliminated is by losing two games. A loser in the first round may come back to win the championship. The big game will be played on Thursday at 6:10 p. m. Good pitching has been a feature of this tournament and Brooks and Joe Ott, through exceptional hurling, have kept the Cubs on the top, while Wesenberg has chucked for his Rascals.

The school has new Ping Pong champs in the persons of Orville Thompson and Duane Paulson. The Thompson, Paulson duet defeated the Junkman, Enloe combined 22 to 20 and 21 to 19 in two straight games. This is the finale for the men's Ping Pong activities and these new men shall reign as champs until next year.

The next contest coming up for the softball players is an interclass tournament. The leader of each class is as follows: Rasmussen, freshmen; Cheyney, sophomore; Dubbe, Junior; and Platte of the Seniors. Anyone wishing to uphold his class' prestige is asked to report to these men. A it will be near the middle of next week.

There is onue sport that is being played continuously from fall to summer and that is Ping Pong. A person may enter the room at any time of the day and find the tables in use. Tennis comes to life in the spring but it does not affect the "ping-pongers." They seemingly go on forever.

Benny Elected College Favorite

Information Please, Hit Parade, Bob Hope, Give Benny Run

Jack Benny, long a favorite of all radio listeners, is first choice among college and university students of the nation, a poll taken by the Student Opinion Surveys of America reveals. Bob Hope and Information Please follow closely as the second and third favorite programs of collegians. Interviewers in colleges of all sizes asked this question of a carefully-selected sampling, "Which is your favorite radio program?" The national tabulations follow:

1. Jack Benny, 2. Bob Hope, 3. Information Please, 4. Glenn Miller, 5. Kay Kyser, 6. Charlie McCarthy, 7. Hit Parade, 8. One Man's Family, 9. Ford Hour, 10. Kraft Music Hall, 11. Philharmonic, 12. Lux Radio Theater, 13. Fred Waring, 14. Metropolitan Opera, 15. Fred Allen, 16. NBC Symphony.

The leaders nationally are not on top of the list in each section of the country, geographical segregation of the ballots shows. Jack Benny leads in only the East Central, West Central and the Far Western states. In New England Information Please and the Hit Parade are tied, and in the Middle Atlantic Information Please leads.

Fear Keeps Teachers From Voicing Known Truths

"When opinions get confused - living opinion - the colleges can always fall back on the opinion of the dead. If living men can't think, let's have a catalogue of all that dead men ever thought, and the students can learn that. In fact, economics can be all dosed up with history, as doctors dose a patient with iron. And statistics. If we don't understand the industrial world, at least let us have statistics. The continental area of the United States is 3,026,780 square miles and the number of spindles in Lowell, Mass., is 201,608 (or is it?) That's the stuff. Make a four-year course and give a degree in it - a D. F." Teacher, humorist Stephen Leacock thinks that facts, like food, need to be digested before they can give any nourishment.

"Fear keeps many teachers, none too bold at best, from voicing what they know to be true about the society that surrounds them, or the history they are supposed to interpret. Most of them are not fighters. They are experts on information, with a desire to be let alone in their work. So when their opinions are disapproved, their position and experience are not such as can resist intimidation. The young scholar learns early he can succeed best by silence. There is little academic freedom in the sense of the right to teach without institutional coercion or censorship of personal faiths." Author Leon Whipple, in his "Story of Civil Liberties in the U.S.", takes a good, long look at the barricades to academic freedom. —ACP

Lucente, Osborne, Meacham To Broadcast from WJMC

On Tuesday, May 7, from 4:15 to 4:30 p. m., a Pi Kappa Delta discussion group will discuss American foreign policy over station WJMC at Rice Lake, Wisconsin. Members of the group will be Martin Lucente, Jack Osborne and Chauncey Meacham.

This is the first in a series of planned radio discussions to be held by this group. The procedure followed will be similar to that of the Chicago Round-Table discussions.

Students Put Professors Into Ten Definite Groups

The Emory Wheel, newspaper of Emory University, declaring that "since the professors divide students into classes it is safe to assume that all professors can also be divided into classes," offers these groupings:

1. The Killer type. He wants to kill off the lower third and thinks the best way is by overwork.
 2. The Card type. He is a card, but not an ace. He's a 3x5 card. Outstanding is his index appeal.
 3. The Spicy type. He has a lot of cheek and plenty of tongue to put in it. His lectures kick up intellectual sparks out of the academic flint.
 4. The Skimmer type. The surfacing in his courses is fine. But the foundation is weak.
 5. The Fatherly type. He is the unexpectant father, always giving pop quizzes.
 6. The Hard Rock type. You have to be more than a good musician to hit a high C under this joker. If he were a movie critic he wouldn't even give the United States flag 48 stars.
 7. The U-Man type. He doesn't know any punctuation except "uhs." For variety he throws in a "but uh" now and then.
 8. The Cocktail type. He whets your intellectual appetite. He knows a great deal but doesn't try to make everybody realize it.
 9. The Candy-Between-Meals type. A course under him destroys your intellectual appetite.
 10. The Axe-Grinder type. He can't sharpen his wits, so he has to grind an axe. Sometimes it's propaganda he grinds out.
- Optional—The Nomad type. Like the Nomad of the desert he loves to wander, and what he wanders over is as dry as the desert.—ACP.

Norwegian Episode Brings War To Full Significance

As it grew increasingly apparent that Norway is to become the first major battlefield of the European war, undergraduate writers in U. S. colleges agreed this week the preliminary conflict stages are over and repeated once more their fervent warning that Americans refrain from actions leading toward involvement.

"England is rocked and frightened to its very foundations," says the Daily Cardinal at the University of Wisconsin. Chamberlain, continues the Cardinal, "is finally forced to prove himself and the British forces. Power politics has given way to the military and naval action that spells the final score."

"America's problem of keeping out of the European war grows increasingly difficult," warns the University of Texas Daily Texan. "Allied propaganda that at the beginning of the conflict had little influence on public opinion in America rapidly grows in potency."

Pannings

With the coming of prom time, a young man's fancy not-so-lightly turns to thoughts of a "date" for the spring formal. Although, it is comparatively early, enough couple combinations have been whispered about to enable us to present our own Grand March.

To the strains of imaginary music (a man named Keats said that unheard music is sweeter and who are we to argue with him) comes the promenade.

First in line are King Bob Thoreson and Madame X (whose identity is no secret.) Harold Diermeier and Joyce Chubb are in the front ranks. And, there, too are Dana Rasmus and Beverly White.

Following in quick confusion are many others. Surprise couples (discovered by dint of many searchings): Allen Hanna and Virginia Griffith, Gordon Jackman and Lois Webb, Joe Lucente and Gerry R., "Bud" Wilcox and "Christy", Don Schwartz and Ester Jensen.

"Swede" Nelson is present in the company of Adele Olson, Mose Hendrickson with Joyce Beardsley, Jewell Olson with Leona Rhodey, Royce Hope (Imp.●) with Audrey Doolittle, Fred Dubbe with Helen Brunner, "Spatz" (Imp.●) with Jane Jewson, and Bob Dodge with Margaret Johnson.

As the finalists we give you: Martin Lucente and Verle Straub, James Green and Iris Larson, Dean Wessels and Alma Column, and Bill Bartz and Betty Campbell.

A few of these couples are B.R.O. (by Rumor only).

Sorry, we have no "What Would You Do," but we must go out and learn who else is going to the Prom with whom!

Sincerely,
Kram and Kane
