Class Elections Are Wednesday And Next Week

Campaigning for 1962-63 class officer elections began officially on Wednesday, April 4. The primary class elections will be in the Student Center on Wednesday, April 11 with the final contest taking place on Tuesday, April 17.

Each class will elect a president, president, secretary and vice treasurer. The three newly elected class presidents will be seated automatically on the 1962-63 Student Senate.

Persons seeking class officer positions have been required to turn in petitions containing signatures from at least 50 people. Petitions were required to be returned to the dean's office by 5 p.m. today.

Senate Election Winners Include Three Newcomers, Four Incumbants

Three new faces will be found on the Student Senate next year as a result of the Senate elections last Wednesday.

XLVIII NO. 26

The three new members of the Senate are: Larry Feltes, Dennis Haller and James Lukasiewicz. They will be joining Wayne Hendrickson, Linda Kirk, Don Koepnick and Bob Richardson, the four re-elected incumbants of last year's Student Senate.

The polls opened at 8 a.m. and saw a moderately steady group of students coming to fulfill their civic duty. When the polls closed at 5 p.m. a total of 794 students had cast their ballots. This number represents about 50 per cent of the total student body. It didn't quite come up to the total of last year's election which was about 56 per cent of the students.

The votes were counted after the polls closed in the Student Senate room. This tally session was open to the student body.

The total votes for the winning candidates were: Larry Feltes, 383; Dennis Haller, 381; James Lukasiewicz, 359; Wayne Hendrickson, 570; Linda Kirk, 432; Don Koepnick, 422; Bob Richardson, 431.

The other totals included: Ed Churchill, 272; Frank Haas, 178; John Hanson, 339; Paul Kozak, 120; Don Marsolek, 145; Evangeline Scott, 129; Gene Smith, 342.

There were a total of 62 writein votes. These included: Karen Jensen, Richard Starkey, Waity Anderson, Karen Wears, Rodney Nelson, Don O'Handley, and Ken Meidlinger, who received a significant number of votes.

There are still four other positions to be filled on the Senate. These will be filled by the newly elected presidents of the four respective classes in the coming elections of class officers.

College Faculties Elect Dr. Anderson President

Dr. Philip Anderson of River Falls was elected president of the Association of Wisconsin State College Faculties at the delegate assembly Saturday morning in Stevens Point. The assembly was part of a two-day AWSCF biennial conference.

Other officers named were: Vice president, G. S. Wall of Stout; secretary, Harold Classen of La Crosse; and treasurer, Robert S. Lewis of Stevens Point. Dr. Catherine Lieneman of River Falls, outgoing vice president, was not a candidate for re-election.

Justice William O. Douglas of the United States Supreme Court

ism Versus Freedom in Asia." Members of the River Falls faculty who took part in the program were: Dr. Edward N. Peterson and Dr. Catherine Lieneman, members of a panel discussion at the general session.

Other River Falls faculty members took part in sectional meetings at the conference.

Tickets Available for 'No Exit'

by Doris Pechacek

Tickets are now available in the College Bookstore for the production of "No Exit," which will be presented in the Little Theater at 8 p.m., Thursday and Friday, April 12 and 13.

Due to illness in the cast, the play will run for two days only, rather than three as originally planned, and will be produced as Peader theater.

"No Exit," which was written by Jean-Paul Sartre, a French existenialist playwright, is being directed by James Rankin, a senior majoring in speech and drama.

Sartre, in "No Exit," displays an unusual view of hell. The three main characters are damned to spend eternity together in one hideous room. Throughout the play their sins are discovered. It also becomes evident what their torture is and who is to be their torturer.

Student Councils Will Meet Here

Student government representatives from each of the nine Wisconsin State Colleges will converge on the River Falls campus this Friday and Saturday for the spring meeting of the United Council of Wisconsin State Colleges.

Delegates will arrive on Friday evening for a series of planning committee meetings, and will hold a full day of general sessions on Saturday.

One of the main items on the Council's agenda will be the election of officers for next year. Present head of the Council is John Sommerville of Platteville.

The United Council was originated last year to promote the interests of the Wisconsin State Colleges in the state legislature and throughout the state of Wisconsin.

Kapia City In

The Wisconsin State College forensic group will attend the Bi-Province Convention of Phi Kappa Delta, April 12-14, at the South Dakota School of Mines, Rapid City, S. D.

Those attending will be Kae Walker, Judy Runkle, Judy Harmon, Sharon Collamore, John L. Rice, Arlo Miller and Tom Knutson. Accompanying the group will be Miss Amita Munson, faculty assistant in speech and English.

The convention will include discussion, oratory, debate and extemporaneous speaking events. The following will participate "in these events. Kae Walker - extemporaneous speaking, Judy Runkle --- extemporaneous speaking and debate, Judy Harmonoratory and discussion, Sharon Collamore-oratory and debate, John L. Rice-oratory and debate, Arlo Miller -- extemporaneous speaking and discussion.

The Bi-Province business meeting will be held during this convention. A tour of the Black Hills is also on the itinerary.

The Editor Speaks

The results of the Student Senate election held last Wednesday gave a shocking picture of the concern of River Falls students for what goes on on campus. The Senate is one body which has the power to effect each individual as much as, or more than, any other organization on campus, and yet, only half of the student body bothered to cast a ballot.

Of the 1,543 persons registered for spring quarter, only 794 voted. This is barely more than 51 per cent. Where were the other 749? Last year, 772 of the 1,365 students voted, giving a total of over 56 per cent, which was considered a record. This still isn't much to brag about, but at any rate is better than this year's result.

Is it that difficult to cast a ballot? I'm sure it doesn't take more than five minutes at the most to have your activity card punched or your name checked off on a list, and to make your choices among the candidates listed on the ballot.

For those of you who always have complaints about everything, here was your chance to voice your opinion, to vote for someone you thought could voice it for you in an official manner as a member of the Senate. Did you take advantage of this opportunity to exercise your rights? Next week you will have another opportunity to voice your opinion, in the form of election of class officers. (Primaries are April 11 and finals April 17.) Why not get out this time and vote? As was stated before, it isn't really so difficult. Five minutes isn't such a long time, and this election might just possibly effect you, if you happen to be a member of one of the classes. Furthermore, your ballot may be the one that decides which candidate comes out on top!

College Hires New French Teacher To Replace Dr. Gossner Next Year

The foreign language department has recently announced that Dr. James W. Glennen has been hired as an associate professor of French for next year.

Dr. Glennen is currently a member of the department of modern and classical languages at the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks. He received his doctor's degree at the University of Pennsylvania and has taught at the University of Akron in Ohio (where he became acquainted with Wayne Tyler of our English department). He has also studied and traveled widely in France and other countries of Europe.

Dr. Glennen claims distinction as chairman of the National Council of Teachers of French. One of the duties of this office is organizing the National Contest of Students of French in High School. About 73,000 students take part in this contest annually. The first prize is a trip to Europe. Dr. Glennen will continue in his capacity as national chairman for at least one year after coming here to teach.

Dr. Glennen will be replacing Dr. Jay Gossner, who has accept-

With the coming of spring the sports picture changes from basketball, wrestling and bowling to the outdoor sports of baseball and track. Even with this in mind, I still have some bowling news to report.

The Alley Cats, after three years of building, finally came through with a winner and the Regular *League Championship for the first time. In 1960 the Alley Cats, then known as the 509 Boys lost a championship berth by being beaten by the Tequila Kids. In 1961 the Alley Cats, who were the "A' division champions lost out in the first round to a mighty Sleepers team. The Sleepers went on to win the championship against the Elmer's Boys.

In the first annual singles handicap tournament only 13 men found time to roll, with Wayne Hanson coming out on top by a margin of two pins over Ron Braun. Wayne had games of 219-158-214 for a 591 series with 45 pin handicap for a total of 636. Ron had games of 173-233 and 156 for a 562 series with a 72 pin. handicap for a total of 634. John Cook, rolling in the tournament without handicap, finished with a 627 actual with games of 245, 201 and 181.

Yanks Picked for A.L. Flag; ligers, Orioles Runnerup

by Bob Weed

Now that the baseball season is coming into full swing with the major league teams moving north to their summer homes it seems like a good time to make some predictions for the outcome of these leagues. This week we will make the predictions on the American league which in the opinion of many is the weaker league. After the predictions we will give a short summary of each team so you can see how your predictions compare. These predictions are putting us out on the limb but here they are. 1. New York Yankees

- Detroit Tigers
- Baltimore Orioles Chicago White Sox Cleveland Indians
- Boston Red Sox
- 6 Minnesota Twins 7
- 8.
- Los Angeles Angels Kansas City Athletics 9.

10. Washington Senators YANKEES—The Yankees as usual will be in the World Series with Maris and Mantle's bat driving in runs and Ford and Turley holding opponents to a minimum of runs. The Yankees in general have a very strong team both offensively and defensively. The only spot that may be weak is at short stop which was left vacant by Tony Kubek when he joined the Armed Forces for a short hitch. Although Manager Ralph Houk should be able to pull something out of the bag to re-place him until he returns.

TIGERS-Youth and experience should be the major factors in carrying the Tigers to a strong second place finish behind the Yankees. The Tigers have one of the best outfields in the league in Al Kaline, Bill Bruton, and Rocky Colavito, each of them can hit the long ball and are defensively adequate. Last year Detroit came up with a couple of outstanding rookie infielders who could make the Tigers look the best they have in many seasons. With a topnotch short stop to go with Jake Wood and Steve Boros the Bengals could go all the way, but that isn't too likely at the present time

ORIOLES-This team may be somewhat over rated but with a little luck they should be able to finish ahead of the Sox in a close race for third. Manager Richards will find it hard with only the part time services of All-Star short stop Ron Hansen and pitcher Steve Baber who are in the service, but with Paul Richard's ability to deal with other clubs he should be able to pull something out of the bag. He still has his star studded pitching staff headed by Milt Pappas, which should be as tough as last year if not tougher.

WHITE SOX-It is our opinion that the Sox gave-up too much power and experience by trading Minnie Minoso and Roy Sievers for youth and speed. Youth and speed may be good but they don't get runs when they aren't on base. The Sox have some big names on their pitching staff but, they are getting old with the exception of Juan Pizzaro who made it good in the American League last year. The older pitchers (Gerry Staley and Billy Pierce) may still be effective but wouldn't be able to get as many men out as usual.

Indians-It isn't too likely the Indians will make too good of a showing in the pennant race again this year with a still weaker team than they had last year. They have lost pitcher Mudcat Grant to the service for part of the season so that will leave most of the pitching chores with Barry Latman and Jimmp Perry. The Indians really weakened themselves by trading Vic Power, Johnny Temple, and Jim Pearsall for unproven and inexperienced ball players.

Red Sox-Boston is going to pray for luck this year with only two pitchers that have shown any record at all. Bill Monbouquette and Gene Conley will be their most effective pitchers and that will only be true if Conley shows response to treatment for his recent injury. The Bosox have one thing in their favor and that is youth.

Twins-It looks like the Twins may be making their move for the future with the number of bright looking rookies they are bringing up to the parent club this year. Bernie Allen and Rich Rollins are two of the finest looking young infielders that have come into the majors in several years. Allen can hit the long ball and is adequate at his short stop position. Rollins has been doing a tremendous job at third and also at the plate. Although Manager Sam Mele may have the makings of a terrific team at the present time with all his prospective youth it is our opinion that they will have a struggle because of their inexperience. Angels, Athletics, Senators — Each of these teams are in a state of rebuilding as both the Angels and Senators are only two years old. Kansas City has had some good talent but they have been nice guys and gave them to the Yankees. It should be a good fight to see who will come out eighth. If the top of the league was balanced as well as the bottom it may turn out to be a very interesting season for the baseball fan. There is one thing that may be said about these teams and that is all three of them have a good number of veterans on the squad so that inexperience should be no problem for them.

Dr. Paterek, Dr. Chisholm At Meetings

While the students of River Falls were enjoying a short recess this past weekend, Dr. Chisholm and Dr. Paterek were occupied attending conferences in Chicago.

Dr. Chisholm attended a conference on communication and composition as part of the National Council of Teachers of English in the Hotel Morrison. This meeting was for people who deal with freshman English courses. Dr. Chisholm spoke on "Concepts of Meaning in Language."

Dr. Paterek attended the Central State Speech Association conference in the Sherman Hotel. A member of an entire panel dealing with the subject of staging classic drama, Dr. Paterek presented the costuming viewpoint. Her speech was mostly concerned with the "bottlenecks" that the costumer faces, the problems of construction in draping of Greek and Roman dress, what to do about
