Students, Faculty Plan Program for H.S. Pupils

A large number of college students will participate in activities scheduled for the seventh annual "Go To College Day" on the River Falls campus Feb. 22 and 23. Plans for the event are being made by a student-faculty committee, the Student Senate and the ACEI which is sponsoring the style show.

Organizations have been invited to set up a table or booth in the Social room or 121S at 11:45 on Wednesday and Thursday so that high school seniors may become acquainted with the different types of student groups on campus. This will afford high schoolers an opportunity to meet and talk with college students in an informal atmosphere.

Student Panel

Faculty Discusses Opportunities

Several members of the faculty will participate in a panel discussion on the subject "Education Opportunities at River Falls". Serving as moderator is B. H. Kettelkamp of the Biology department. Other members of the group are Virginia Akins, Biology, representing pre-professional; Charles Graham, Social Science, representing Liberal Arts; Wilfred Harris of the Education department and Melvin Wall representing the agricultural program.

Style Show

The style show will feature the typical college clothes to be worn during the four seasons of the year. The clothes will be modeled by college students. Cathy Hooey, junior from Hudson and Bob Dykstra have been co-chairmen of the event. Models include: Freshmen: Danny Corcoran, Sara Garnett, Sonja Haroldson, Bob Lange, Buster LaTuff, Patti Phillips, Beverly Ramacier, Don Swanson.

Sophomores: Phyllis Benjamin, Jerry Carter, Jim Sorenson, Don Sundt, Don Wallesverd, Dick Zamjahn, Dorothy Fredrickson, Ken Ellingson.

CORRECT FOR THE JUNIOR PROM is this formal which will be modeled by Mary Louise Olson in the ACEI style show Wednesday and Thursday.

Perfect Weather, Snow Fun Mark Carnival Weekend

With the weather cooperating to lay a light blanket of snow on campus, the 1956 Winter Carnival got off to an enthusiastic start under sunny skies Friday morning. Participation in the variety of activities was generally good with high spots of the weekend being the FFA talent show, the basketball game with La Crosse and outdoor sports at Swenson hill.

Royalty from the St. Paul Winter Carnival were among the record attendance of 300 at the FFA Talent show Friday evening. The climax of the show was the crowning of Bob and Blake Hubert as Winter Carnival King and Queen.

The week-end of snow fun started with an all-school assembly in North Hall auditorium at 10 a.m. when Carnival Chairwoman Beulah Falkofske outlined the activity schedule and prizes were awarded in the beard growing contest.

College Places Three In Speech Meet Finals

River Falls had finalists in three events at the 12th annual speech meet in Eau Claire last week-end, a feat equalled only by the host college.

Larry Henneman accounted for two of the places, winning second place in after dinner speaking and third place in oratory. It was the first time he had participated in after dinner speaking. After four preliminary sections in oratory, Larry tied with second place winner Henry Ruff of Macalester. The tie was broken by re-ranking and the River Falls orator received third place. Larry also spoke at the banquet as an after dinner speaker.

Domaika in Finals

Beverly Domaika placed fourth in the finals after four preliminary sections in folk tale telling. In debate, the best team record for River Falls was made by Reu- (Continued on Page Four)

LEAR GRIEVES OVER THE BODY OF CORDELIA during this scene from "King Lear". Orlan Larson plays Lear and Sara Garnett is seen as Cordelia. Marilyn Murphy is also cast as Cordelia.

Area Schools Sending 'First Nighters' to 'Lear'

The Masquers' production of "King Lear" opens tonight in the Little Theatre at 8:00 p.m. to a high school audience. The show will run a week with performances for college students and the general public scheduled for Tuesday and Friday. The remainder of the week is reserved for area high school pupils.

"King Lear" has been termed one of Shakespeare's greatest tragedies. It is now being produced on Broadway with Orson Wells playing the lead. The college production, under the direction of Dr. Blanche Davis, is a streamlined version featuring Celtic period costumes, a modified Elizabethan-type setting and area lighting. By eliminating portions of dialogue not essential to the plot, the play has been made shorter and easier to comprehend.

The current production is unique in several respects. It is the first Shakespearean play to be produced in the Little Theatre where its variety of moods and large number of scenes will more fully utilize the facilities for complete and flexible area lighting than previous productions.

The setting for the drama is composed of three areas: an elevated back stage, an inner middle stage and the apron or front of the stage with a low railing resembling those used in the original Elizabethan Theatre.

In Elizabethan staging, the scenes with large crowds are played in the front areas while the more intimate scenes are played in the middle or back stage.

Members of the cast are: King Lear - Orlan Larson Duke of Albany, Duanne Johnson Duke of Cornwall, Richard Larson

- Earl of Kent - Henry Elzinga

OPEN LETTER TO HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

Dear High School Senior:

The accent in this issue has been somewhat directed toward you, the high school senior. We have been fortunate in that the past week had several interesting events (Winter Carnival, "King Lear", "Campus Cover Girl" contest, etc.) so that we can picture for you rather than tell you, about our extra-curricular activities and organizations. We feel that you will probably hear all you want about classes at various meetings throughout the day and, if not, our college catalogue will answer any question you may have.

This editorial is devoted to a subject dear to our hearts—the college paper at River Falls—The Student Voice. The paper is published every week, coming out late Monday afternoon and distributed in the cafeteria. The Voice is usually four pages with perhaps three or four six-page issues during the year. Special editions are published for Homecoming, Winter Carnival and at Christmas.

Putting out a newspaper like the Student Voice has been a rather large job this year as we have an unusually small staff. It has meant that staff members have worked late nights, Sunday afternoons, broken dates and given up quite a few things in order to get the paper out on time.

Why do we do it? Perhaps because we feel a student newspaper is an important part of college life. It certainly is the most important means of getting news of college events. It is one of the best places to become acquainted with a large number of the student body through feature stories and news articles about them. The Voice keeps students informed on faculty and alumni news and what goes on behind the scenes at WSC. And it provides an excellent medium for public expression of student opinion.

But the students who elect to work on the Voice staff do it because they enjoy it. It certainly offers experience in reporting, editing, copyreading, advertising and running your legs off! And sometimes it provides that special thrill of satisfaction that comes from watching people avidly reading YOUR story.

We hope that if you decide to come to River Falls next fall you will stop in and see us in our office on the first floor of South hall. (If you have time, stop in today—we'll be busy on next week's issue.) We feel that if you decide to work on the paper staff, you will find your efforts on the Voice one of the most rewarding experiences you can have here at River Falls.

Kandy Kitchen Played Role In Student Senate Origin

by Jim Gardner

The Student Senate, one of the most important organizations on campus, got its start at the Kandy Kitchen and in the shop where The Student Voice was printed.

Before 1937 there was no student government group on campus. Five students who believed there should be, organized and started campaigning.

They were Miss Marion Hawkins, Daniel Dykstra, Robert Knowles, Joe Hyde and Louis Zahradka. Today Miss Hawkins is a member of the college English department, Mr. Dykstra is head of the department of jurisprudence at the University of Utah and Mr. Knowles is State Senator from Wisconsin's Tenth District.

Held Meetings In Kandy Kitchen
Remembering 1937 Miss Hawkins said, "We five sometimes held meetings downtown in what was known as the Kandy Kitchen and at the printers, where The Student Voice was printed. Some of the students opposed the idea of organizing a senate and a mass meeting in North Hall auditorium was the scene of heated debate. "The president, J. H. Ames, and the faculty were very cooperative and never interfered with the movement in any way."

The question was placed before the student body, voted upon and accepted. Mr. Dystra was elected president and Miss Hawkins named treasurer.

Constitution Drawn
A constitution was drawn up by 11 members elected as student representatives. Each year seven of these are elected by the student body at large, the other four being class presidents.

The purpose then, just as today, was to promote the best interests of the college and to act as an agency through which students might express their wishes.

One of the Senate's first accomplishments was the printing of a booklet to be given all freshmen on their first day of school. It was the forerunner of "Wise Words by Freddie Falcon" which all new students receive as a part of the orientation program.

In its 17 years, the Student Senate has been responsible for the school social program. All candidates for chairman of social events are first approved by the Senate. They approve the selection of the editor of the college paper, The Student Voice, and the editor of the annual, The Meletean.

Constitution Amended In 1950

In 1950, 79 percent of the student body voted to amend the constitution. Major changes approved were the formation of a new Student Advisory Council to advise the Senate, provision for a Spring quarter Rec Day and a section which said the constitution might be amended by two-thirds of those who cast votes rather than by two-thirds of the entire student body.

Other sections called for the removal of any senator who is absent from three consecutive meetings of the Senate and that the president of the Senate should be ineligible to hold an office in another organization.

It was in 1950 that a United Nations flag was purchased by the Senate and "U.N. Day" was observed on campus. Glen Wallace, president of the Senate in 1950, is now working for a hospital supply house in St. Paul.

Job Same Today

DeWayne Meyer, now president of the Student Senate said, "The job of the Senate is the same today as it was in the beginning—to promote the best interests of the college and develop school spirit."

Mr. Meyer counts the setting up of the activity center as the greatest accomplishment of last year's Senate.

RICHARD ALDINGTON'S "D. H. LAWRENCE"—AN ATTEMPT AT UNDERSTANDING LORENZO by Wm. Hagestad

Someone has calculated the number of books written about several people; among them are Lincoln, Christ, Napoleon, and D. H. Lawrence—rather an odd group of people to be found together under any circumstances. They all have the single distinction of having a great number of books written about them. The most remarkable of these people from the standpoint of the impression created by the group itself is D. H. Lawrence—he died "recently": 1930. There exist over six hundred complete books of biography and personal reminiscence on D. H. Lawrence in addition to countless articles and short bits on the man. It is equally remarkable that this has occurred when one considers the irascibility of Lawrence and his single apparent vice: his alienation of his friends.

Any biography of Lawrence must needs, I think, first set itself to the task of understanding him. This can become such a monumental undertaking, that the biographer may find himself exceeding the number of pages the publisher wants and still have not put down his subject's personal facts.

Richard Aldington's biography of Lawrence is somewhat vague about the conclusions it wants to reach—it has, however, that quality of wonder and perplexity that must have been produced by Lawrence. I think that if Mr. Aldington had simply left out judgement and speculation, the biography might have come off better. The way Aldington went about his book is admirable if it were to be a tribute. It is rather a void if one seeks interpretation of Lawrence's life and personality.

Aldington writes as if he were a creditor standing at the elbow of a widower as they lower her husband into the grave. He reports Lawrence vehemently protesting his like for John Middleton Murry, then will say something like this: "Yes, but only in the summer of 19—had Lawrence sent the same Murry from Cornwall in a rage." As if to suffix this by saying, in addition: Ha ha ha for you, D. H. Lawrence." One following the biography closely might come to believe that Aldington had been somewhat eclipsed by Lawrence at a cocktail party or something.

Though a biography of Lawrence must first come to an understanding of the man, perhaps this is something of a bluff—great in the tradition of Lawrence who dearly loved to conceal himself from others, or rather that was the result of association with him. Lawrence in a biography creates a vicious circle, I think—an interpretation of him must be strictly Freudian (any other lapses terribly—attest later chapters in Aldington). And, grotesquely, any Freudian interpretation of Lawrence is inadequate, for he is delusively non-Freudian. A biography of Lawrence which did not attempt to understand Lawrence, which thing L., throughout his life commanded, would be, indeed, an experiment in biography. I unequivocally admire Lawrence and his work.

RF Host to Bethel, St. Cloud In Final Home Contests

The Falcons round out their home schedule of eight games this week when they face Bethel tonight (Monday) then St. Cloud on Saturday, Jan. 25 in non-conference games.

Last year River Falls beat Bethel 93-85 in a game played in Minneapolis. In most recent outings Bethel defeated Northwestern College of Minneapolis 78-66 as guard Bill Conrad hit 28 points, then downed Itasca J. C., 84-74.

Saturday's game is a return match of an earlier thriller that found the Falcons bowing 84-81 at St. Cloud. In 1954-55 the Belfiori-men split a pair with the Huskies. The Falls won the first clash 104-81, while the Minnesotans took the second meeting 83-69.

St. Cloud is paced by high scoring Dave Westlund, a 6-2 forward who's averaging over 20 points per game. He's a really smooth ball-player who hit his peak two weeks ago with a 33-point scoring outburst in Minnesota Teachers College Conference play. Westlund is backed by 6-2 center Jack Kelly and sharp-shooting guard Eddie Miller.

Falcon coach Phil Belfiori is still shifting the line-up of his young squad in an attempt to find a winning combination. Belfiori's 3-2 and double post offenses have been built around center Dave Herum, who's 21.4 scoring average is one of the best marks in the league. Others who may see considerable action this week are forwards Rock Hanson, Bubs Youngberg and Earl Zimmerman, center Tom Shield, and guards Jerry Carter, Johnny Steffen, Dan Corcoran and Phil Kuss.

Falcon Fanfare

President of the Sitzmarkers Ski Club and one of the most active participants in winter sports at River Falls State is Dick Zamjahn. Dick is a 5-10, 170 pound sophomore from Waukesha who has lettered in football and track at RFSC.

The ski club has made rapid strides under Zam's leadership this year with the moving of the ski hill location and construction of a ski tow and miniature ski jump. Nearly every Sunday Dick and a group of other avid skiers can be found at Swenson's Hill west of town on Highway M using the top-notch ski facilities.

Zammie won seven letters at Waukesha High School—three each in football and track and one in volleyball. He set records in both high and low hurdles while in high school.

Dick has understudied all-conference halfback Johnny Steffen for two years. He's a rugged competitor who most fans feel would hold down the first string job at many other WSCC schools. Dick participates in the pole vault, broad jump and hurdles during the track season. His 11 foot leap holds the pole vault record at RFSC.

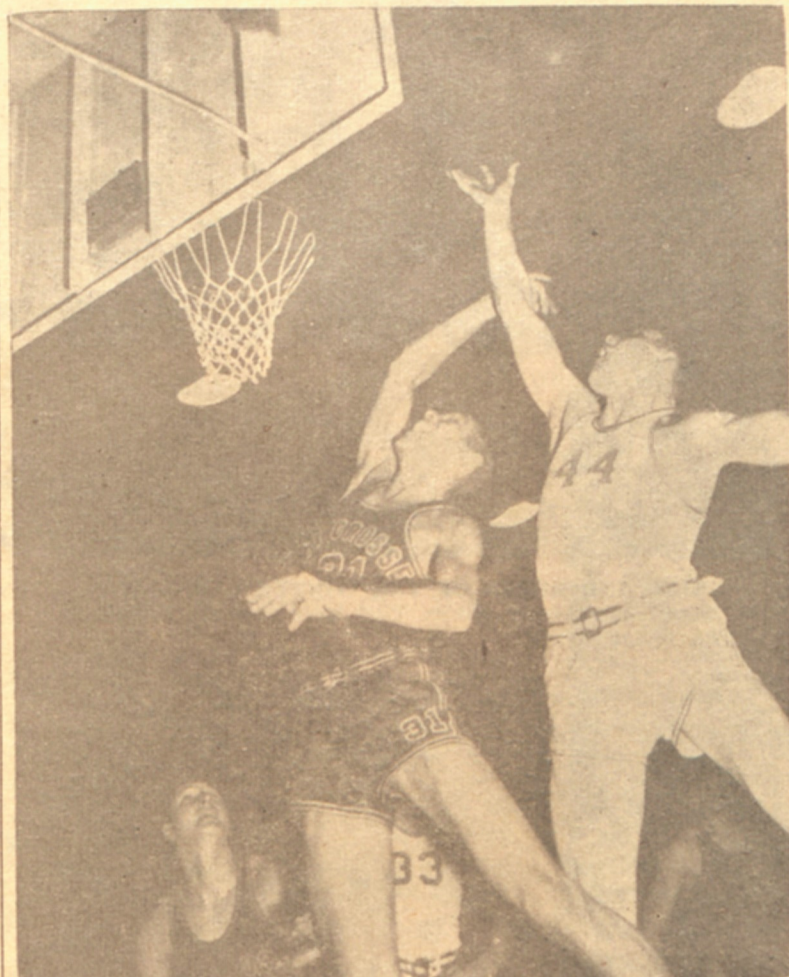

A highlight for Dick and the ski club came during last Christmas vacation when a group of members took a two-week ski tour to Colorado. This week-end the Sitzmarkers are spending a three day ski holiday at Mt. Telemark ski slide near Cable.

ZAMJAHN

Dick is majoring in elementary education with a minor in physics. On campus he belongs to the R Club and the Young Republicans. He also holds the distinction of owning more ski sweaters than anyone else on campus—eight!

La Crosse Downs Falcons, 84-70; Zimmerman, Herum Pace River Falls

by Jim Laue

The second half slump took its toll again as Coach Phil Belfiori's Falcons outplayed the second place La Crosse Indians for 20 minutes Saturday night, then fell 84-70 to a last half onslaught. With Dave Herum and Earl Zimmerman leading the way River Falls fought back from an eight point deficit early in the game to take a six point lead with 2:20 left in the first half. La Crosse took the lead just before halftime, and the Falcons never caught up again.

La Crosse remains in second place in the WSCC by way of the victory with an 8-2 league record. It was the ninth conference loss for the Falls against two triumphs.

Indians Use Zone

Cliff De Voll kept his Indians in a zone for most of the game, and it worked fairly well. River Falls was unable to get many good shots against the tight defense, and hit a poor percentage on the long ones. Although the Falcons moved the ball well against the zone, they failed to hit the hoop with much consistency.

River Falls led 8-4 early in the game, but the lead didn't last long. Sharp-shooting La Crosse guard Bob Olson, who led the game's scorers with 26 points, hit five straight baskets in three minutes to give the Indians an 18-12 lead with 10 minutes gone.

With Herum hitting from underneath and Zimmerman sniping from out, Belfiori's five forged into the lead at 23-22 with six minutes to go before halftime. They stretched it to six points on three occasions and led 38-32 with just 1:20 left in the half. From that point on Ed Winiarski hit two field goals and Tom Giombetti four straight free throws to break the Falcons' hopes and give La Crosse a 40-38 intermission margin.

Olson, Winiarski and Gene Sodersten hit eight straight points right after halftime to give the Indians a 48-38 lead before River Falls started to move. Zimmerman and Dan Corcoran, both freshmen, narrowed it to 52-46 two minutes later, but Olson and Jerry Swan chipped in three long shots apiece to boost the margin to 10 points again and keep it there.

La Crosse Pulls Away

La Crosse pulled into an 11-point lead with 10 minutes to go then stretched it to 19 with four left. Olson continued his uncanny shooting as the Indians led 83-64 at that point. Zimmerman, Griff Howell and Tom Shield each dropped in a basket in the last four minutes to boost River Falls to 70 points as the game ended.

Zim led Falcon scoring with 18 points, while Dave Herum hit 17. The other three starters (Corcoran, John Steffen and Bubs Youngberg) collected eight, six and five respectively. Following Olson in Indian scoring were Winiarski with 16, Giombetti with 14, and Swan with 11 and center Lee Kempf with 10.

Many people think the ski season is over, but actually it is just hitting its peak.

The Sitzmarker Ski Club of the college is planning a Winter weekend at the Telemark Ski Area in Cable. The trip will be this weekend, Feb. 24, 25 and 26. The group will leave on Friday night and return on Sunday afternoon.

This trip will be the highlight of the ski season for the Sitzmarkers. Anyone wishing to go may get information and sign up on the south hall board.

People of today think that skiing is a dangerous sport, yet figures show that only one in two thousand suffers a serious accident. This sport is even safer than golf!

One of the most important things about going on a ski trip is the atmosphere that is attained. After a day on the slopes there is fun for all. You can don your after-ski clothes and prepare to relax for the evening. Find your-

SPORTS IN A NUTSHELL

by Rog

Spring is coming fast and everyone interested in baseball is speculating on the coming season's prospects. This is the only time in the year when all team managers win a pennant.

The Red Sox opened their rookie school Feb. 1, followed shortly by the Yankees and Cardinals. A few of the regulars have already reported and begun to shed the extra pounds gained over the winter months.

For the first time since 1948, players are allowed to report before March 1, but they are refrained from holding any exhibitions before March 10.

The Sporting News has finally seen one of its wishes realized. For several years the baseball paper has campaigned for separate Most Valuable Player awards to be given to pitchers as well as regular players.

I-M Cagers, Bowlers in Action; Ping Pong Meet Slated

by Harley Larson

An intramural ping pong tournament will be held on either Monday of Tuesday, Feb. 27 or 28, it was announced last week by coach Fran Polsfoot. He added that a tournament entrance sheet will be posted on the North Hall bulletin board for those who wish to sign up for the contests. The deadline for signing will be Friday, February 24. There has been so much enthusiasm for ping pong that Coach Polsfoot has decided to run a tournament each quarter.

Intramural basketball saw heavy action last week, as a full slate of games was played for the second straight week.

Swoboda Tops Cagers

In a D league contest Tuesday night Gary Swoboda of team 29 threw in everything but the stop watch as he poured in 30 points to lead team 29 to a 69-49 victory over team 25. DeWayne Mork netted 14 for the losers. Swoboda's 30 points tied the season's game high registered by Neil Christenson of team A-1 against team A-6 on January 9.

In other D league games, team 27 remained in first place with a 5-0 mark by trouncing team 23, 65-40. Nick Cordes and George Holland netted 20 and 14 points respectively to lead the winners, while Wayne Stoflet took game scoring honors with 22 points for the losers.

Ivan Mumm scored 15 and Burt Devine 13 to boost team 26 to a 50-42 win over team 28. Ardell Linnerud scored 14 for the losers. Team 30 applied a well balanced attack to down team 24, 38-22.

Team 1 leads "A" Loop

In an A league contest, team 1 broke a tie for first place by handing previously undefeated team 4 a 60-47 setback. Neil Christenson's 20 points and Roger Knutson's 14 were high for the winners while Ken Thomas netted 13 for the losers. Team 2 won a forfeit game when team 6 failed to show up.

Bob Hubert scored 25 points on 11 field goals and three free throws as team 3 downed team 5, 55-40. Roger Bonngard's 14 points paced the losers.

Team 9 Tops "B" League

Team 9 remained in first place in the B league by edging team 13, 55-50. Howard Edlin with 17 points and Glen Hartman and Jerome Benson with 13 each, led the winners, while Dick Harrison scored 19 for the losers.

In other games Bob Rutherford scored 17 points as team 12 walloped team 10, 55-16. Wayne Haushalter's 12 points led a well-balanced attack that gave team 8 a 40-25 victory over team 14. Team 11 won on a forfeit over team 7 when only four players from team 7 show up.

Team 19 Moves Up

Team 19 jumped into a three-way tie for first place in the C league as they edged previously undefeated team 15, 41-40. The loss dropped team 15 into a tie with teams 19 and 21, with four wins and one loss apiece.

Bob Schlamp scored 19 points in a losing cause as team 18 lost to team 20, 37-33. Team 16 downed team 22, 29-22. Trailing 20-19 at the half, team 16 held team 22 to two points in the second half to take the win. Wayne Fleming scored 14 points as team 21 downed team 17, 46-28.

Bowling Action

In intramural bowling, team 1 of the B league moved back into undisputed possession of first place by defeating team 9 in two games. Team 1 has a 10-2 mark while team 9 is in second place with an 8-4 record.

Dick Allen of team 4 rolled the top B league single game score with a 177. The second high score was rolled by Dick Goodrich of team 2 with 172.

Ed Latuff of team 9 has the best average with a 154 in 12 games. Second is Bob Ames of team 2 with a 150 average in 10 games and Bill LaRue of team 7 with a 150 in only two games.

Team 1 remained in first place in the A league with a 12-0 record. Tied for second are teams 3 and 4 with marks of 9-3. Bob Dykstra rolled a 186 to top this week's bowling scores. Second was Pee Wee Meyer's 180. Meyer, who plays for team 1, also has the leading average with a 181 in 12 games. Don Swanson of team 4 is second high with a 157 in 10 games.

Seven Schools To Take Part in Vocal Workshop

Choruses and individual soloists from seven area high schools are participating in the Vocal Music Workshop on campus Feb. 27, 28 and 29, it was announced today by C. B. King of the department of music.

Represented will be choruses from Ellsworth, New Richmond, Spring Valley and River Falls. Individual soloists from Eau Claire, Chippewa Falls and Rice Lake will also take part.

The workshop is being conducted by Roy Wall, well-known vocal teacher and baritone from Wichita, Kansas.

Mr. King said, "We are extremely fortunate in having a director for this workshop who is considered a real authority as a teacher of voice. Mr. Wall will show each vocal student specific vocal difficulties that confront him and how he can cope with them."

College voice students will audition with Mr. Wall on Monday morning. In the afternoon there will be a round table discussion with regional choral directors.

Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock Mr. Wall will appear in a concert of folk and traditional songs. As an added feature, the Wisconsin State College choir will be heard in one group of selections.

WINTER CARNIVAL—

went to Kaye-Don Tibbetts, junior from Frederic, while the prize for the most unusual beard went to Duanne Johnson, junior from River Falls. Judges were Mrs. Sara Anderson, Gerald Bisbey, Robert Polk and DeWayne Meyer.

Disqualified because of the "unnatural quality" of his beard was Hamid Kharrazi, sophomore from Tehran, Iran. When awarded the prize for the heaviest brush, he waved his pipe and removed the facial adornment.

A carnival midway in South Hall gym opened at 1 p.m. Friday featuring numerous games and contests. A card and chess tournament was held in the cafeteria at 2 p.m. Attendance at these two affairs was notably lower than at other events.

Persons preferring outdoor activities went skating or worked on snow sculptures on campus. The afternoon was completed to the recorded strains of "We Will Have These Moments to Remember" as Carnival goers ate a can-

Talent Show

At the talent show the V-Tones, a girls trio composed of Mary Louise Olson, Shirley Olson and Elaine Solum won first prize with their singing of "Memories Are Made of This."

Second prize went to baritone, Dick Schwenk who sang "Old Man River". Joe Alms' "When I Have Sung My Song" was awarded third prize. Taking the prize for the most entertaining act was a "Jomer and Hethro" pantomime by Merton Hanson and Gary Jensen.

Bowling

Top score of 190 in the bowling tournament at the C & S Saturday morning was rolled by DeWayne Meyer. Close behind to take second place was Tom Evenson with a total of 186. The "booby prize" went to Neil McClellan for the low score of 57.

Aleda Peth was top bowler in the women's division with her 140 total. Jan Olufson was second high with 135. The "booby prize" was awarded to Colleen Ryan for the low score in the tournament, 51.

Snow Fun

Swenson Hill was the site for Carnival activities Saturday afternoon as students turned out for winter sports in large numbers. The Ramaciers captured top spot in the girls toboggan race. First position in the toboggan race for boys was won by Jensen's team.

Doug Kelly won the ski jumping championship. Dick Zamjahn was awarded first prize in the slalom and downhill ski races. First in the beginners ski race was Larry Fletcher. The novelty race ended in a tie for first place between Dick Schwenk and Everett Grilley.

The winter sports enthusiasts warmed up in Hathorn Hall to complete the afternoon with bean soup and barbecues.

The Blackhawks orchestra played for the Winter Carnival dance in North Hall gym Saturday night after the game with La Crosse.

the sing-fest over in the corner. Dancing, cards, movies, or a trip to the local ski-inn will round out your night, then you'll arise the next morn for more fun and frolic on the slopes.

Let's everyone try this recipe for a good time:

Take a vacation: The 24, 25 and 26 of February.

Add: Sunlight, snow and blue skies.

Blend: Telemark with its six tows, open slopes, trails and Alpine meadows.

Place: In warm sun and soft winds during the day.

Result: Terrific skiing garnished with pleasant companionship and friendly fireside hours.

NUTSHELL—

In a meeting of the club owners Feb. 4 in New York, it was agreed to vote recipients of separate trophies each season. While the MVP plaque for regulars is officially called the Kenesaw Landis Memorial award after the former commissioner, the new award for outstanding pitching will be known as the Denton "Cy" Young Memorial award in honor of the winningest pitcher in baseball history, who died last year.

Under the present system, the players are selected by 24 sports-writers, three from each big league city. The club owners have not definitely decided whether to accept this practice for both awards or set up a new system.

ben Kaiser and Ronnie Losness in division two with four victories and one loss. Roger Hanson and Dick Waak, in the same division, had two victories and three losses, the same as the two teams in division one, Mary Lou Jensen and Shirley Engleman Luebker, and Arlen Christenson and Beverly Domaika. The team of Jensen and Luebker had a total of 197 points as compared with 220 points scored by the tournament winner, Augustana College at Rock Island, Ill. Shirley was the top individual scorer with 100 points.

Accompanying the group were Dr. Ed Peterson and Miss Marion Hawkins. Dr. Peterson judged discussion and debate and Miss Hawkins judged after dinner speaking, discussion and debate. Dr. Harold Hodges attended the meet Friday and judged five rounds of debate.
