Make Plans For Events in Early Calendar of School Year

Ralph White, Minong, was chosen president of the freshmen class for the first term in the election held after Thursday's assembly. The other officers selected were: Victor Jehn, vice president; Carol Isaacson, secretary, and David Johnston, treasurer.

Freshmen members selected for the student social committee were: Bernice Smith, chairman; Elena Peabody, and Jerry O'Connor.

Ags Will Hold Initiation Thursday

More than forty members will be initiated in the Agrifallian society Thursday night according to an announcement made by a committee in charge of the program.

The "Ag" initiation has become a traditional event in the Agrifallian program at the college, and upper classmen look forward to it as one of the biggest events of the year.

"We have a fine array of clean stunts to have the frosh perform," says Irwin Lotz, chairman of the committee.

Other members of the committee are Arno Dittbrenner, Jim Hocking, Wallace Gotham and Edward O'Connell.

Iverson Wins in District Contest

Oral Iverson, a Freshman registered in the Rural Course, won first place in the public speaking contest held at Menomonie Tuesday evening. The winning speech was entitled "The Machine Age and Its Effect on American Agriculture." The contest was sponsored by the Association of the Future Farmers of America, a high school organization.

Mr. Iverson's victory last Tuesday entitles him to compete in the State Contest at Madison on Friday. This is a preliminary to the national contest which is to be held at St. Louis.

River Falls Gets New Enlarged Bus Service

During the next three or four weeks, while the bridge at Hudson is being repaired, busses will be routed via Prescott, River Falls, to Hudson on the following schedule:

Hudson, EauClaire bus leaves River Falls at 9:30 a. m.; 11:30 a. m.; 1:00 p. m.; 2:30 p. m.; 4:30 p. m.; 7:00 p. m.; and at 9:15 p. m. on Saturday and Sunday.

Hudson, Rice Lake bus leaves River Falls daily at 6:15 p. m.

St. Paul busses leave River Falls at 6:45 a. m.; 10:40 a. m.; 11:05 a. m.; 2:05 p. m.; 4:05 p. m.; 7:05 p. m.; 9:05 p. m.; and 10:05 p. m. on Saturday and Sundays only.

Ellsworth busses leave River Falls at 11:30 a. m.; 7:05 p. m. and 9:15 p. m. on Saturday and Sunday only.

This schedule should make transportation facilities almost perfect for students who wish to go home week ends.

Veteran Debator is Returning to School

William G. Hawkins, member of the college debate team for two years and on the state championship team last year, plans to return to school at the beginning of the second term. Hawkins and Merrill have been colleagues in the public speaking field in college and at the local high school. The return of Hawkins will be a great asset to the local squad this year.

Last Year's Football Captain Named 1930 Homecoming Leader

Clarence Alfonse, last year's football captain and prominent student leader for the past three years, has been selected to be chairman of the Homecoming committee which will plan the ninth annual Homecoming of the college.

Other members of the committee are: Margaret Fox, Carvel Morton, Betty Dodge and Allen Hocking.

Darrel Metcalf To Lead Rural Life Club Work

Other Officers Chosen For Society at Meeting Last Week

The organization meeting of the Rural Life Club was a real success according to those present. The evening was spent in the dramatization of games, the telling of jokes and singing. A talk was given by Darrell Metcalf upon the rules and regulations of a good business meeting.

Following the program a Who's Who of the candidates nominated for the various offices of the club was given by Van Cartwright. The election of officers followed. Darrell Metcalf was elected president, James Mulheron was chosen vice-president, Isabell Mills, secretary and Van Cartwright, treasurer. Hazel Barber was selected chairman of the program committee and Blanche Stockwell was elected chairman of the social committee.

The meeting was adjourned with the same rule standing for non-attendance as before. The next meeting will be held October 10th.

Some News of Interest!

The cuts used by the Voice are made from pictures taken by the Shepard Studio. The words "Photo by Shepard" do not appear beneath the cuts, but the work is that of a silent friend who cooperates to make school publications more attractive.

Student Directory Will Be Out Next Week; It's an Aid to Bashful Swains and Coeds

***

(By One Who Knows)

Don't be surprised if you should be approached by our petite soprano, Miss Kelly, or the "Kollege Sheik", Mr. Kreuger, with their notebooks in hand and with determined expressions upon their faces. And further, prepare to divulge such secrets as your telephone number, the color of your favorite tie or necklace (as the case may be), the size of your shoes, or your favorite indoor sports. Don't be afraid to volunteer information about bashful friends or roomies—the cause must be promoted!

But really, to be serious, you've no idea what a joy to the hearts of the loyal Scotsmen this Student Directory will be—and I speak from personal realization. You will find between small leatherette (paper-with-a-college-education) covers, printed neatly and concisely on very high grade paper, such extremely interesting information as your girl's telephone number, local abode, class year, home town, first name, and middle initial, if any. And, girls, you can

"Homecoming Preparations To Start Buzzing," Leaders Say

Appointment of School, Class Committee Heads Start Activity; October 25 To Be Date of Big Events

Preparations for the annual homecoming started this week when committees appointed by faculty members began the first task of organizing the workers.

October 25 is expected to be a gala day.

Heading the list of features will be the football game with the strong Milwaukee team. This battle undoubtedly will have its bearing on the championship race, dopesters say.

Big Features Added

In addition to this feature, old grads and former students will find many new things of interest at the college this year.

E. A. Whitenack and other members will have an array of new stunts and a full program of entertainment in readiness for the returning guests.

Old Timers will, however, find Senator Hunt presiding, the band playing, captains and players marching up to the platform, the streets swarmed with old grads watching the parades at night and during the day and music and cheers in the air.

Announcements Coming

New announcements will be made next week, leaders say, as to the details of many of the new stunts this year.

Those who return will find other things than fun to merit their attention. New improvements, the new building, the new decorations at the field, and the spirit of a campus crowded with new students will be especially noticeable this year.

More than 500 students will participate in the event. Faculty members will add their skill and suggestions. No effort will be spared to make the 1930 homecoming festivity the greatest in the history of the school.

Rollie Donovan, '25, Will Be Louisville "U" Frosh Coach

Rollie Donovan, class of '25, was recently appointed freshmen coach at the University of Louisville.

He will sponsor a system of intramural sports at the university according to news stories in daily papers.

Old timers and businessmen will remember Rollie as a student here.

He was a well known basketball man at the local college.

The Truth About Lies

A lie has been defined by a school boy as a very present help in time of trouble.

Leonard Warner To Be Managing Editor of The Student Voice

Heads Publication

Leonard Warner, a senior, will act as managing head of The Student Voice this year. He will be assisted by four other students who will edit copy and write heads at it is turned in on Thursday. Warner has had three years of experience on the Voice. He earned his Matrix Key last spring. The names of other members of the news staff appear on the second page this week. Others will be added later.

School Cafeteria Gives Students Employment

Squad of Dozen Students Serve 200 Hungry Peds Daily

Crash! What was that? A couple of more bangs and crashes. No, it isn't freshman initiation. The cafeteria dishwashers are merely doing their daily dozen.

The college eat shop is as busy as ever this year, and it is a popular place with the two hundred students who eat there regularly. Mrs. Hogue, the new manager, is looking forward to a banner year.

A dozen students are employed regularly in the cafeteria. Arnie Larson and Orvis Olson have begun their third year as employees. "Ole" Clafin and Cecil LaDusire have served one year; and Leland Standeford, Morris Buske, Clarence Holstrom, Gladys Ruf, Isabell Mills, Joe Brown, and Marion Olson are new members of the kitchen squad.

Prof. Hill to Speak at Assembly Thursday

Prof. J. D. Hill of the history department will be the speaker at the Thursday assembly. He will talk on his travels and experience in Mexico. Mr. Hill spent the greater part of the summer traveling and observing in Mexico.

Debators Start Work on Speeches

Squads Prepare Schedule For Round Robin Debate Battles

The college debate squad began preliminary preparations last Thursday night for the coming arguments. The squad will be divided into teams of three each and for the beginning of the year will carry on an intramural contest on the high school question which is: "Resolved that Chain Stores are Detrimental to the Best Interests of the American Public."

Thirty students turned out to the first meeting most of which are inexperienced. Horace "Speed" Merrill being the only man back who received a forensic "R" on last year's state championship team. Many of these have had experience as alternates, and on the second team.

The meeting was adjourned until this Thursday when more definite arrangements in regard to the contest schedule will be announced.

Mr. Harrington promises to give the team plenty of practice by scheduling many of the nearby colleges to prepare for the conference tilts.

Those reporting the first night were: Merrill, Madison, Garley, Dittbrenner, Helwig, Miller, Hanneman, Chicker, Berseng, Wolfe, Vruink, Keeler, McAndrew, Fry, O'Connell, Penn, Christianson, Laue, Lloyd, Casey, Bristol, Voskuil, Derranger, Dopkins, Sumner, Neitzke, Buske, and Leibakken.

Ags. Observe Part Time Night Class

The seniors in the agricultural department are observing Mr. Campbell's part time school at the River Falls high school every Tuesday evening. The class is composed of about twenty farm boys, and some fine discussions are expected during the twelve night sessions which are to be held throughout the coming season.

A senior is in charge each time of the athletic program which is held after the regular meeting. James Hocking will direct the first program.

Large Crowd, Fine Spirit Prevail at Opening Dance

Almost two hundred students put aside their books and cares Saturday evening and "tripped the light fantastic" to the tune of Kuss and his Melody Boys at the opening school dance held in South Hall gymnasium.

Upper classmen and frosh joined to pronounce it a very successful dance. Formality was thrown to the winds, and many reported that they enjoyed the fine spirit that prevailed over the student body.

President and Mrs. Ames, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hill, Miss Hathorn, and Dean Stratton acted as chaperones.

"Y" to Hold Installation Tonight

Reception of members will feature the evening program of the Y. M. C. A. at their weekly meeting which will be held in the Men's Union this evening at 7:00 o'clock. A social hour will precede the devotional service.

The installation ceremony will be followed by remarks by Prof. J. P. Jacobson who for the past fifteen years has been advisor to the organization.

More than a hundred men are expected to receive their membership cards.

Hunt Wins Appointment

Senator Walter H. Hunt of our principals department was elected permanent chairman of the state Republican platform convention at their meeting in Madison last week.

Hunt has been active in Wisconsin politics for a number of years. Since 1924 he has been a member of the state senate where he has been a progressive leader. Faculty members and students were pleased to learn of Mr. Hunt's selection.

Whitnack Revisits Old Haunts in Europe

Finds Places He Visited as Student Still Full of Romance and Charm

E. A. Whitnack

E. A. Whitnack, teacher of foreign languages and chief of the college athletic exchequer, took a breathing spell last week and told a Voice reporter about the good time he had Mrs. Witenack had this summer on their trip abroad.

But let the profesor speak!
"I made my headquarters in Paris while I was spending my vacation in Europe this summer I was doing re- search work in Paris. You know Paris is a wonderful city. One could spend a year in Paris and see something new every day.

"Paris dominates France. Paris is France. In France, all roads lead to Paris. No other city in the world se completely dominates its country as Paris does. The ideal of every French- man is to live in Paris. Frenchmen don't want to leave Paris."

When asked his opinion of the lat- in quarter, Whitnack said, "Oh, say! That is where all the colleges and universities are located. Everyone you meet there carries a book under his arm. This is the cultural section of Paris."

"What were some of the most out- standing places of interest in Paris?" questioned the interested reporter.

"Oh my! Everything was interest- ing. Paris has everything; but, you know, the Place de la Concorde was the center of interest. It is the most magnificent and finest city square in the world. In the center of this square is where the guillotine stood. So many French people were behead- ed here.

"The great Notre Dame Cathedral attracted much attention. The Paris Opera House has the most beautiful stairway to be found any place.

"We were fortunate enough to visit the marvelous Hall of Mirrors at Versailles, where the treaty was signed that ended the World War, on the Sunday that the grand fountains play and fill the whole courtyard with enchanting music."

"Where did you go on week-end excursions from Paris, Mr. White- nack?" continued the reporter.

"We spent a week in Switzerland. That is one of the most wonderful countries in the World. It is beauti- ful. The snow capped mountains over- looking the fertile valleys. Oh, yes, we climbed one of the small moun- tains; went up about 13,000 feet. It's all snow and ice. They have cut out great caverns in the ice and light these with electric lights. The ice looks green on the inside. By far the finest mountain is Mt. Elanc. Gene- va, home of the League of Nations. is the leading city in Switzerland. They are building a new League of Nations Palace on the hill overlook- ing Geneva and in the shadow of that mighty summit, Mt. Blanc. Yes, Yes! This will be the finest in the world. The library alone will cost $2,000,000. John D. Rochefellow is donating it."

The reporter wondered if the pro- fessor used the stein presented him by the French class.

"That is a closed book. It is sealed. Nothing will be said about that. We did take a trip down the Rhine to Munich one week end. It is noted for its fine art. They also say that it has the most wonderful beer in the World."

"Did you see many of the royal families?" asked the reporter.

"There aren't very many kings and queens left in Europe; but I did find time to journey to Holland to visit the queen. I was very much put out because she hadn't been told of my coming and had gone out to tea. I consoled myself by going over to see the Kaiser and his wood pile. You know, he's in France now. While I was in Holland, I saw the most beau- tiful flower beds in the World. They consisted mostly of tulips."

One of the pleasant visits abroad was that at his Alma Mater.

"I went back to Heidelberg to re- new old acquaintances. While in Germany we went to see the Passion Play at Oberammergau. It was mar- velous. Noted people from all over the world came to see it. It was a magnificent spectacle."

The Whitnacks took time for a trip to England also.

"London is a very wonderful city. More commercial, of course, but I liked London."

The travelers were not bothered with seasickness. They had a good passage both ways. Only a school of spouting whales furnished excite- ment.

It is reported that the Bolshiviki will participate in Homecoming ac- tivities. If so, local barbers will have a rest.

Carl Amundson, '29, principal of schools at Maiden Rock, was a week- end visitor at the Krueger house. He is teaching for the second year at the lakeside village.

College is Place for Preparation, Says Harrington

Preparations for a future profes- sion, for a future life, and for future happiness should be made while a student is at college is the belief of E. W. Harrington, new head of the speech department.

In his speech before the Y. M. C. A. Harrington made the following points in answer to the question "Why Are We Here?" We are here, he said:

1. To prepare for a job,
2. to get a wife,
3. to get knowledge,
4. to make friends,
5. to learn to live a contented life.

This was Harrington's first appear- ance as a speaker at college club meetings.

Pilot: Yes, that's Chicago down there.

Two Kinds of Students

There are two outstanding types of students.

One is morose, discouraged with a first failure. He complains that he has been discriminated against and blames others for his troubles. He carries a grudge. He thinks of quitting.

The other type benefits by his mistakes and they never happen again. He laughs at discouragement, mocks at worry. He has hosts of friends and admirers. And, best of all, he succeeds despite every ob- stacle.

There are many of this last type at River Falls. That's why it's a good college.

Dean Christian Gauss of Prince- ton suggests that parents be sub- mitted to the tests given to stu- dents entering college. Everyone agrees this is a grand idea except the parents.

Now Do the Work

Many students have found their names on homecoming committees. Others are urged to standby ready to help in emergencies.

The successful homecoming that is planned depends on every student. Unless he fulfills his function, the occasion will lack something.

All have been picked to serve!
Now do the work!

Students, Fans To See First Game Wednesday

Soldiers To Furnish Big Practise Tilt

Game Last Non-Conference Preliminary Before Race Begins

CRACK SQUAD COMING

When the River Falls team meets Fort Snelling tomorrow, students and football fans will see the local team in its first home appearance.

It will be lined up against its old rival from the Minnesota fort, this year a formidable crew in new outfits but still lacking in experience.

The Falls eleven is given the advantage on bets because of their victories in the past and the showing of the fort team in its first game Saturday.

New Players Out

Coach Carl Klandrud will use a lot of men in the game, it is expected; and city fans and old students will find new men wearing the red and white colors in Wednesday's game.

Dick Hemp, tackle, will probably be out of the first game because of his bandaged left eye. He will undoubtedly be the only letterman out of the fray Wednesday.

The game is expected to be a good practise tilt as a preparation for the opening conference game with Stout at Menomonie October 18. So far Coach Klandrud has been lucky not to lose any of the players because of injuries.

Soldiers Are Husky

The Falls eleven will have plenty of chance to meet a husky outfit of Soldiers Wednesday. In line play, the two teams should be fairly evenly matched. In pep and smartness, the Falls should have the advantage. A new football spirit has hit the Fort, and it will be no easy job to subdue it, some say.

One feature of the game is to be the appearance of a crack squad from the Fort, it is reported. They will entertain visitors between halves and execute formations without commands, those who have seen them say. This should add attractiveness to the afternoon which already offers a first peek at a good football outfit in Red and White colors and new and clever frosh who have entered the Falls college this fall.

Local Athletes Officiate at Roberts

Clarence Alfonse and Dean Greaon went to Roberts Friday and officiated in the Roberts-Ellsworth game. Roberts won 12-0. Both teams are being coached by former River Falls stars. K. C. Wenneberg is at the head of the Ellsworth team; Harold Heggen is coach at Roberts.

Harold Segerstrom's Cumberland giants continued their string of victories by downing the strong Bloomer H. S. by a 6-0 score. Segs team has not been defeated this season.

Injury Keeps Tackle Out of Opener Here Tomorrow Afternoon

Sport Dope

By Bosco

Firing the first gun of the Wisconsin conference, the Stevens Point teachers defeated Stout 6 to 0.

As usual, the Mechanics are taking an early start for the cellar.

Oshkosh, LaCrosse, and River Falls all won their opening games, but it's pretty early in the day to draw conclusions.

Milwaukee does not feel discouraged because they dropped their initial tilt to St. Mary's. St. Mary's usually has a good team.

Incidentally, Milwaukee will turn out to be one of the toughest steaks on the Falls menu.

One should always be careful not to break his arm patting his own back, but the Homecoming game at River Falls October 25 will have a plenty to do with the state title.

Let's not forget November first at LaCrosse.

Eau Claire ate Carleton's dust at the speed of 33-0 in their opening fray.

Seems odd that Carleton will go so far just to play a Wisconsin teachers college. They could get their practise sixty miles nearer home.

But there is that old story of everything to lose and nothing to win.

Due to few early season games, good condition, and old man luck, the injury list at River Falls is small.

Morrow, promising freshman tackle, dislocated his shoulder in the Macalaster scrimmage.

Bucky Bartosh has a bad ankle.

Tuff Helixson was somewhat injured in Friday's practice. Doctors are not certain of his condition for the Wednesday game.

Teacher: Which is the most delicate of senses?

Tommy: The sense of feeling.

Teacher: Explain.

Tommy: When you sit on a pin you can't see it, you can't hear it, you can't taste it, and you can't smell it, but you know it's there.

Reynold Jenson Heads Agricultural "Y" at Minnesota

Reynold Jenson, '25, has recently been appointed Y. M. C. A. secretary at the University of Minnesota Agricultural campus. According to Mr. Jacobson, local "Y" leader, the "Y" on the Gopher campus is one of the strongest in the Northwest.

Lumbusta: My wife has more lives than a cat.

Pistola: How do you know?

Gunbusta: Curiosity has killed cats.

Oratorical Candidates Start Work

Eleven Answer Initial Call for Candidates by Harrington

The largest group of candidates in the history of forensics at the school answered Coach E. W. Harrington's call for oratory Friday night. Plans were made to begin work immediately.

Each student must write his own oration of 1500 words. Some time before Christmas there will be an elimination contest qualifying three to speak before the school in the final trial before the state contest at LaCrosse in March. One of these three will be chosen to represent this school in this contest at LaCrosse.

Besides Horace Merrill and Carl Wolfe who have had two years experience in college oratory, there are ten more orators eager to master the art of public speaking.

The students who reported were: Horace Merrill, Carl Wolfe, Lucille Garley, Leonard Madison, Albert Hanneman, Vernon Peroutsky, Bernard Belisle, Irving Houg, William Juedes, Gilbert Rohde, and Emmett Frazier.

John Burke, '28, is taking a course in law at Notre Dame this year. Jack won a scholarship while at Algoma.

Girl Scout Unit Plans Program

Offers All Opportunity For Service, Recreation and Pleasure

River Falls Troop No. 1 of Girl Scouts Incorporated held their first meeting of the school year Wednesday afternoon around a fire on the reservoir mound. A group of thirteen keenly interested girls attended.

"The Girl Scout organization exists to give girls over ten the opportunity of joining a group of girls known as a Girl Scout troop, which meets once a week and follows a program of outdoor activities, household activities, and simple handicrafts, with the help of an adult leader, known as the Captain and one or more adult assistants, known as Lieutenants.

Girl Scout troops have the assistance of a group of adult sponsors and backers, known either as Troop Committee, a Community Committee or a Local Council according to the number of troops and the size of the community."

There are two local troops. The high school sponsors one, and the college the other. These two troops and their committees are planning to cooperate through the year in a program which leaders hope will interest the entire community.

Little Brother: If I wasn't here, your boy friend would kiss you.

Big Sister: You impertinent boy! Go away this instant.

Hal Itosis: Has your husband a good ear for music?

Sal Hepatica: I'm afraid not. He seems to think that everything he hears in church is a lullaby.

Less Levity There! Get Down! Bow Low! Say Old W. A. A.'s

Annual W. A. A. Fun and Initiation Give All A Big Laugh

Less levity there! Get down! Bow low!

Such commands were heard in old South Hall Friday as freshman girls dropped books and pens in vain effort to make graceful and humble obeisance before old members of W. A. A.

This was the aftermath of the initiation which reached its peak last Thursday evening in the women's gymnasium. Candidates were submitted to the rigorous exercise which only husky W. A. A.'s could endure. A barefoot parade on a path of grapevines, an icy message, and a mercurochrome seal impressed on new members the importance of athletic fun and work.

After a varied program of stunts demanded by leaders, the candidates were welcomed by Cornie Amundson, president. Frappe and wafers completely atoned for the hardships of the evening.

Have You Heard These Before?

"Barkus is willing," Malott.

"That lousy outfit," Geere.

"Are you following me?" Bowden.

"If you don't intend to work, this library is no place for you." Miss Gibson.

"That line is simply charming," Miss Greene.

"There's a chair nearer the desk I wish you would take," Miss Bradley.

"This is a digression, but while we're at it ----," Voegel.

"-----you get the idea," Eide.

"Girls should not sit on tables or railings in halls," Miss Hathorn.

"The 4:45 books are due, and will you please make your over-night charges now?" Miss Fuller.

If all the students who sleep in class were stretched end to end ---- they'd be more comfortable .

There is quite an orchard on the campus. One often finds pairs under some trees, peaches under others ---- and nuts under still others!

Cop: That frail we pulled in last night wants to confess.

Police Chief: Who does she think I am --- Bernarr MacFadden?

Training School Notes

Mrs. Patten is now in charge of the fourth grade. She replaces Miss Hilder who has been transferred to the fifth grade room.

Dicky Hayward, formerly of this place and now of the University High School of Chicago, gave a talk before the fourth and fifth grades recently. Dicky's father formerly held Mr. Voegel's position on the college faculty.

The aquarium in the first grade room is to have an addition. The children are to care for Miss Grace Hanson's goldfish during the winter.

A miniature presentation of Roosevelt field has been constructed in the fifth grade room. All interested students are invited to come and examine the different kinds of planes and view the field.

The Junior Red Cross has been organized in the grades. They hope for a 100 per cent enrollment.
