Both Men And Women Have A Special Treat Coming Sat. Evening

It's Bean Soup For The Boys Mock Wedding For The Girls

Whoever does not have a good time Saturday night has only himself or herself to blame.

The Y. M. C. A. are sponsoring their annual stag party to which every man student and faculty member is invited. It is rumored that everyone except Mr. Whittack will wear his old clothes. Wonder why he has to dress up. A list of the things that may happen would take too long to tell, in fact the things that will happen are too numerous to mention. But after the tug-of-war, comes the feast that made the stag parties of the past famous. It is the bean soup special, developed and made by the artist, Mr. Jacobson. You

RIVER FALLS HIGH DEFEATS LA CROSSE QUINT 18-16

When victor meets victor in a game of basketball, the game is sure to be interesting. Thus, when La Crosse, winners of the state tournament last year, met River Falls high, winners of the consolation tournament, Saturday evening, the resulting game was the fastest, cleanest, more exciting contest that has been staged in the gym for some time. The teams were evenly matched in size, team-

JOHN BURKE TO REPRESENT US AT STATE CONTEST

At the oratorical contest held Thursday before the assembly, John Burke was chosen to represent the River Falls Normal in the State Oratorical contest. His oration is "The Rising Tide of Lawlessness." Four of the seven judges, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Karges, Mr. Goble, Mr. Junkman, Mr. Hunt, Miss Schlosser, and Mr. Davison, gave Mr. Burke first place. Of the other two contestants, Donald Olson and John Davison, the former was given second place with his oration, "The Inequalities of War."

In the new feature of the contest, the popular vote, the order of ranking was just reversed.

Plans are being made for the state oratorical contest which will

Death Calls Miss Taggart

For the fourth time within a year death has called to the alumni of River Falls Normal. January 24, last summons came to Betty Taggart.

Miss Taggart was a graduate of River Falls Normal in 1914. She was one of the outstanding characters which the school may well be proud to have owned. Her many admirable qualities of understanding, sincerity, and love of the beautiful, made her an ideal personality. Individuals such as she was are rare. Always true, by generous, loving, comprehending, sympathetic and joyous. Such an individual can never die. Her spirit will live on—her influence will still impress those with whom she associated. To die is beautiful after having lived such a sweet, pure and helpful life as did Betty Taggart.

Evenly Fought Games In Society League

Last night's games ended in these surprising results:

Y. M. C. A., 13; Links 16.
Ags, 9; N. C. A., 21.

Thursday saw two interesting games in the league. The Y won from the Ags, by 21 to 18, after the score was tied many times. The Links won from the N. C. A. in the last few minutes of play to the tune of 18 to 15. Both games were filled with thrills which come when apparently weak teams threaten to defeat sure winners. The Y, up to this time, have won all games by big scores, and the Links came on the floor with a team of stars.

The game between the Ags and the Y opened rather slow. The first thing the Y knew was that their opponents were ahead. Try as they could, the Y could not score enough to gain on the Ags. The first half ended with the Y in the lead. At the beginning of the

"Orphans Of The Storm" Declared The Best Yet; Next Monday Griffith's "Love Flower" Here

Practically a full house turned out Monday evening to see "Orphans of the Storm." Although the film was long, everyone seemed to enjoy it. The liberal use of the guillotine, even though it was just a movie, made the audience rather uneasy. There is no doubt that Lillian and Dorothy Gish were at their best in this picture.

Next Monday's picture promises to be just as good as "Orphans of the Storm." No one wants to miss it! Lets all turn out!

Sometimes a name is misleading. Such is the case with Griffith's picture "The Love Flower," which is coming to the Normal auditorium next Monday night.

Normal Debates March 5

The triangular Inter-Normal debates between Superior, Eau Claire, and River Falls, will be held on March 5. Our negative team, consisting of John Burke, Fred Wandrey, and John Davison, will debate Superior at Superior, on that date. Walton and Barry will act as alternates. Our affirmative team will debate Eau Claire on the same date, the tilt taking place here. The team has not been definitely chosen as yet, but the team and alternates will be picked from Norseng, Lethlean, Olson, Morton, and Smith.

Musical To Satisfy Every Loyal Booster

One of the big musical events of the year is to take place tomorrow evening. Our band, one of the most important musical organizations in the school, is to give its first concert in uniform. The new uniforms have already been described in detail in a previous issue of the paper, but the school is looking forward with the keenest interest to actually seeing them.

We all know how hard the band has worked and what a great addition it has been to every school function. We have heard how well the organization performs and of course everyone is coming out to hear it.

In addition to the numbers which the band will play, other numbers including the girls' trio, a string trio, a reader, and a vocal solo by Mr. Geere.

There is no question but what it will be one of the most enjoyable programs put on here this year. This fact alone should be enough to bring every student and faculty member out on Thursday night. However, there is still another reason. These uniforms have to be paid for and the proceeds of this concert will go towards this fund. This makes it doubly important that every loyal member of the school turns out to hear our band.

No Definite Action Regarding Four Year Courses Taken; Next Meeting May See Action

The Normal Board of regents, which met last week at Madison, did not take any definite action on the question of degree courses, due to the great amount of business they had to transact. This board meets only three or four times a year; since each meeting must first take care of the routine business before attempting any action on the numerous projects submitted to it. Then, too, there are so many conflicting opinions, since there are eleven members, each of whom represent certain interests and localities, that a great deal of discussion and consideration is necessary before any definite solution can be arrived at.

Team Displays Good Basketball But Meet Defeat At Eau Claire

Stout Aggregation Clashes With Falls Here Friday Eve

Friday night our team went down to Eau Claire, bent on upsetting Eau Claire's perfect record, but the Blue and Gold outfit stormed the basket for thirty-four points with the Falls ten points behind.

Zamjohn was high point man for the Falls, and unlike previous games, the Red and White scored at will via the free throw route. Field baskets, however, were not plentiful, and the Eau Claire aggregation slipped in enough ringers to give them a good lead throughout the game.

This victory leaves Eau Claire with four conference victories so far, and it looks as though our old

THE ANNUAL G.O.P. FORMAL EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS

The G. O. P. Formal, held Saturday evening in the South Hall Gym, fulfilled the anticipation of the last month in every respect. A large part of the success is due to the co-operation among the members and the organized work.

A true Indian atmosphere was created in a decoration scheme using tepees for cosy nooks; canoes, evergreen trees, rugs, and Indian

MR. POWERS DESERVES CREDIT FOR MUSIC GROWTH

Through an unintentional oversight, Mr. Powers was omitted from the account of the growth of the music department. During the three years in which he was head of the music department, he carried on a constructive program, leaving the department in such thriving condition that Mr. Geere has been able to build it up to its present size and efficiency.

According to Mr. Geere there are three hundred normal and training school students taking music at the present time. Several junior high students have taken up the study of band instruments, thus looking forward to the days when they will be playing in the normal band.

NO DEFINITE ACTION REGARDING FOUR YR. COURSE; ACTION AT NEXT MEETING

However, the board will meet again in April, and we hope to hear a more favorable report then.

Meanwhile, our interest in this meeting lies in the question of whether we shall be granted a four year degree course here at River Falls. Mr. Ames explains that many of the Normal schools in the state specialize in certain lines of work. For instance, River Falls specializes in Agriculture; Stevens Point in Domestic Science, etc. Hence, it can readily be seen that if the board grants the privilege of giving certain degrees, perhaps only one school will profit by it. There seems to be a decided attitude against granting a general four year degree course to all the schools in the state. However, as Mr. Ames intimated in Tuesday's assembly, River Falls could undoubtedly secure the four year degree course in Agriculture by waiving the right to demand a four year degree course covering old subjects. This, of course, River Falls refuses to do, as some other schools in the same position have refused to do, for none of them care to waive their right to demand a general four year degree course. This is how the matter rests until the next meeting of the board, when it is hoped that some definite action will be taken.

"ORPHANS OF THE STORM" DECLARED BEST YET; GRIFFITH'S "LOVE FLOWER"

The name is mediocre, but the picture is a jewel. The committee that inspected it makes a very enthusiastic report. Richard Barthelmess plays the star role. The story is full of action and one of the most dramatic ever produced by Mr. Griffith. "The Love Flower" will be presented in the Normal auditorium Monday, Feb. 8, at 8 p. m. Admission will be 25 cents.

MOZART CLUB

The Mozart Club met last Thursday evening with fifteen members attending. Although it is a busy time of the year and when many demands are made on our school talent, the program was a very good and enjoyable one. Louise Elster gave a piano solo, Adele Williamson rendered a vocal solo, and Markam Morton whistled some of his talent. The program was "short and sweet" making it more than attractive. The business part, of course, was also attended to.

The Triple "E" ticket
Efficiency, Economy, Eternally.
Several members of the Lincolnian society are getting some excellent practice in politics judging by the campaign that Norseng and Scoville are putting on about the campus. They have neglected all class work, all their studies, and have violated at least six of the seven underlying fundamentals of health and hygiene; they forget to eat and sleep except at rare intervals; they absolutely refuse to look at a woman; consequently they neglect their Listerine bottle, and their tooth brush; they seem to have forgotten what the contact with soap and water feels like; in fact, politics is getting the best of them, much to their own detriment and also to that of the society into which they force themselves. But they are learning what the life of a politician is. In spite of their present condition, they insist that they shall place every single one of their candidates in the coming Lincolnian election.

G. A. A. HAVE WONDERFUL PARTY

Both the active and social members of the G. A. A. enjoyed the party last Thursday evening.

The weather was so extremely cold that the committee could not carry out their first plans; so they arranged for an impromptu party in the gym. They played games, and danced the Virginia Reel, Square Dance, Barn Dance, Rye Waltz, and all the old time dances—even the Charleston.

At 8 o'clock, lunch, consisting of hot chocolate and two kinds of sandwiches, was served. Nine rafs were given for the dandy cooks. The next thing on the program was a business meeting. A group of four were appointed to make and sell candy at the show Monday evening.

Everyone had a wonderful and glorious time and we want another party.

The success of the party was due to the competent committee consisting of Cecil Kelly, Laura Schiefelbein, Pearl Olson, and Lettie Nelson.

Jack: "Jean, you've no idea how much I love you."
Jean: "Give me an idea!"

He: "Did Ethel say I was distant?"

may not see him at work in the kitchen that night, so just look up and behold! It would be the proper thing for everyone to find, if he can, a cup and spoon. There may not be enough to go around—cups and spoons we mean.

Now the Y. W. C. A. are not to be out-done this year. They are preparing a mock wedding and that wonderful wedding feast. The plans are nearly completed.

The last trunk of the bride's trousseau arrived at the Wadaneska home today. Miss Wadaneska will carry a large bouquet which will be sent from the Pederson Gardens of Sunflower, Austria. This will be the only bouquet of its kind that has even been seen. One large orchid (the only one of its kind) will cost several hundred dollars. This flower is a present from the bride's rejected suitor.

Little remains to be said concerning further arrangements of the wedding. Guests will be received Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The ceremony will take place at 8:30.

After the wedding supper the bride and groom will take the "River Falls Special" and thus avoid a shower of rice and old shoes which might ruin their costly traveling costumes.

"I knew an artist once who painted a cobweb on the ceiling so realistically that the maid spent hours trying to get it down."

"Aw—"
"Sure, why not? Artists have been known to do such things."

Second She: "But I am the object of his intentions."

"RIP WRINKLES OF 1926"

WHO'S GOING?---Everybody! WHY?---Because It Can't Be Beat!

This and that

Thursday's Assembly. — Mr. Gleiter, who spent two years there, will give an illustrated talk on the Philippines.

Alise Jensen spent Saturday in St. Paul.

Frances Squires spent Saturday and Sunday in Ellsworth.

Lillian Otterson was a week-end visitor in the cities.

Doris Frederickson and Margaret Jackson were in St. Paul last week.

Pearl Heckel and Eileen Stolt spent the week-end at their homes in Prescott.

Elsie Erickson and Evelyn Nelson spent their weekly vacation in the cities.

Mona Cartwright of New Richmond was a week-end guest of Thelma Best.

Miss Carol Johnson of St. Paul, was a guest of Litha Gregor, over the week-end.

Bessie Klein had a birthday last week. She had to spend the week-end at home recuperating.

A few industrious Gops demonstrated their scrubbing ability on the gym floor Sunday morning.

Evelyn Barrett, Loretta Basil, James Casey, and Donald Olson were in New Richmond last week-end.

May Fuller froze her foot while skating last week. She was too interested in her skating lesson, it is rumored.

All of the 800 extras in the motion picture, "The Freshman," were students of the University of Southern California.

Helen Mooney, '23, judged a high school debate at Black River Falls Friday night. Helen is teaching at Alma Center.

There were about seventy young people at the joint session of the Methodist and Congregation Young People's meeting last Sunday evening.

The members of the Student Voice Staff would like an inside passageway to the S. V. office. Perhaps we will have to shovel snow to get funds enough for such an undertaking.

The girls in the Victorian Class have become intensely interested in the subject just recently. They are studying Browning and Elizabeth Barrett Browning which includes studying their love letters.

Members of the D. O. D. class enjoyed another party at Mr. Malott's home Saturday evening, in spite of the fact that one of the members was addicted to snoring. The "eats" were evidently "just right," if a person may judge by the way they disappeared.

Mr. Brakken has taken a sudden interest in the beautiful sunsets which abound in this vicinity of late. We believe that we have some of the most picturesque scenery in Wisconsin here and perhaps it is well to see it now before the rush starts in the spring. Such an intense study of are will be of unestimable value to you if you become an instructor in nature study, Earl.

Joe Seeley was at his home in Maiden Rock last week-end.

Marion Miller and Evelyn Moen hiked to Ellsworth Saturday.

Helen Sutherland, '25, spent the week-end at home, in River Falls.

Lois Recker of Rhinelander visited "Babe" Jewell this week-end.

Evelyn Moes spent Sunday visiting Ryda Morgan in Minneapolis.

Grace Cotts was in River Falls for the G. O. P. dance Saturday evening.

Glenn Gallup, who is attending Carleton college this year, visited school Monday.

Thelma Best, Ella Mae Jones, and Lila Embertson spent last Wednesday in the city.

Alice Schiltey and Claudia Vassau were guests of Vivian Vassau Saturday and Sunday.

Doris Frederickson and Margaret Jackson spent the week-end at their homes in St. Paul.

Archie Paulson is still "keeping company" with the Scarlet Fever, however, he hopes to have a "fall out" with it in a few weeks.

Misses Mildred Randall and Ida Johnson demonstrated their ability to arrange "blind" conversations. It proved very successful.

Ida Holmback, who has only been attending school for the last few weeks, is obliged to retire to her home for a three weeks' rest.

Optimal class attendance will be granted to fifty upperclassmen at the University of North Carolina who made an average of "B" during the Autumn quarter.

The following alumni were here for the GOP dance Saturday night: Katherine Chapman, Florance Chapman, Helen Sutherland, Marion Wasson, Oliver Younggren, Mary Carrol.

All women students and faculty members are cordially invited to attend the wedding Saturday evening in South Hall. Wear old fashioned clothes. Send your 10c presents this week. Leave them in Miss Hathorne's office.

AG. NEWS

The following officers were elected at Thursday night's meeting, for the second semester:

Caps

Time now for that new Spring Cap. Careful workmanship and good fabrics.

L. M. NAUTH'S CLOTHES SHOP

President—George Wilson
Vice-Pres.—Arthur Begley
Sec.—Delwood Hendrickson
Treas.—Floyd Helwig.

We believe that with this combination of officers, the society will enjoy a semester of good snappy programs, and that they will establish a reputation for our organization that will be upstanding. However, the second semester officers have a more difficult task, as during this period, members of the society do not attend as regularly. Lets not do this this year, but cooperate with our new officers and all be out for every meeting.

Dave and Jack Burke had a scrap the first thing Sunday morning. We have heard that the cause for the scrap was that Dave dreamed during the night that he was at the G. O. P. dance, doing the Charleston. Jack consequently was kicked out of bed.

Harold Walton spends most of his time in Economics class trying to find a new way to print or write: Viola Ahren, 142 Mongolia Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

The Ags., in cooperation with the G. O. P. have made their final arrangement for the Grand Musical to be given Thursday night.

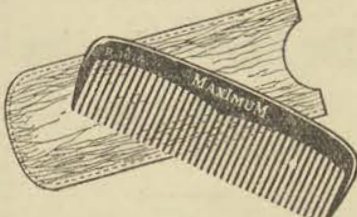

The Ags have a program arranged which promise to be the most enjoyable musical event of the year.

They will also deliver bills, and sell tickets around the city, while the G. O. P. will sell tickets to the students of the school. Everyone is urged to buy, whether you plan to attend or not.

Arnold Falkoske visited school last Friday. He says he will soon be back to school again.

Our new President has already begun active duty by appointing a committee of three to formulate plans for some kind of a dance. It may be a masquerade according to some reports. No date has been set, but we all will surely look forward for this date.

Mr. May spent last Wednesday and Thursday in Madison. The purpose of his trip was to secure the right for this Normal school to offer a four year course in Agriculture and grant degrees to graduates of that department. Mr. May reports that no definite action was taken in regard to any school. In other words, the trip was practically fruitless. However, the board did arrange for a special meeting to be called in April. Mr. May has expressed a very optimistic point of view, in regard to the action that the board will take on degree granting at this meeting.

ALLARD'S

TEAM DISPLAYS GOOD BASKETBALL, BUT MEET DEFEAT AT EAU CLAIRE

(Continued from page one) rivals may walk away with the championship. They have got a nice working combination and play a high brand of basketball. Losing Friday night gives us two conference defeats, but that does not mean that we have not got a chance to make a good percentage. When Stout comes here Friday night they will come with plenty of enthusiasm, and no doubt expect an easy encounter. But Stout has never been too stout for us, so lets pep up and root our team to victory. The Menomonie team has won from Superior and Stevens Point so far this year, and has dropped one game to Eau Claire. Let's make her percentage .500.

ORGANIZATION BASKETBALL

(Continued from page one) second half the Ags tied the score, but the Y overcame this after many tries and remained ahead by three points until the end of the game.

The second game started out with clever work on the part of the N. C. A. Before the Links could find the hoop, the N. C. A. was five points ahead. Luck however, soon deserted them, and the Link stars edged ahead so that the score was 8-11 at the end of the half. The N. C. A. came back in the second half determined to win. The determination resulted in two ties before they gained a margin of three points. The failure of the referee to call fouls on the Links, together with hard luck on close shots (five tries were made in succession and the ball refused to go in) took the heart out of them as soon as the Links gained the upper hand. The end of the game was slow.

Last night the Y clashed with the Links, and the N. C. A. with the Ags. Thursday the Links meet the Ags in the first game, and the Y plays the N. C. A. in the second.

RIVER FALLS HIGH DEFEATS LA CROSSE QUINT 18-16

(Continued from page one) work, and shooting ability, and throughout the entire game the score was close—now one team, now the other, in the lead. La Crosse appeared to be picked for the winner, when they succeeded in running up their lead to six points during the latter part of the game, but the local team proved its worth, and made the winning basket just a few seconds before the whistle announced the end of the game.

A team which is able to down the state champs bids well to be a winner in the tournament this year.

JOHN BURKE TO REPRESENT US AT STATE CONTEST

tives from the different school will be our guests. Each school is bringing some music with is, such as its band, orchestra, quartette or glee club. Then, too, each school will put on some kind of a stunt.

At the time of the oratorical contest the extemporaneous speaking contest will also be held. Marshall Norseng will represent us in that contest.

Further announcements in regard to the contest will be made later.

During an intermission Verone Schilte, of St. Paul, presented three dance skits: a dutch interpretation, and Irish Clog dance, and the Charleston.

The G. O. P. formal showed our school at its best to the many out-of-town guests.

GROUND HOG DAY

Yesterday was Ground Hog's Day, but this "hog" only disturbs us on one day of the three hundred and sixty-five. The "road hogs" cause more notice than they deserve every day. They park themselves in the halls or on the stairs, and when it is necessary for them to move to some other resting-place, they do not forget to proceed slowly and get in the way of as many people as possible. Undoubtedly they have a better right to use (?) this space than ordinary individuals, since they manifest such superior intelligence and regard for the welfare of others by their actions. It is true that

"book hogs" deserve honorable mention with many other varieties of this family. What a relief it would be if they would retire to some hole in the ground with their more desirable relative, the ground hog.

We apologize to the ground hog for classifying such animals as though they were in his family and trust that he will attempt to forget this insult.
