Band to Present Benefit Concert November 20

Appearing in a benefit performance for the River Falls Foundation, the College Band will present its annual Fall Concert in the Auditorium November 20.

Special features of the program are "Angels of Mercy," by Irving Berlin, presented by the band and a male quartet; "Little Old Lady," from "The Show Is On"; "The Wedding of Heinie and Kathrina," who went to Jellostone Park on their honeymoon; and "March of the Steel Men," featuring four trumpets and four trombones.

Nicholas Jadinak, director of the band, in announcing the benefit concert said, "Remember the date, November 20, and give what you can to the Fieldhouse Fund."

The complete program follows: Die Fledermaus, overture — Johann Strauss
Selections from "The Firefly" — Rudolf Friml
Clarinet Polka, folk tune arrangement—David Bennett
Angels of Mercy—Irving Berlin
Emblem of Unity, march—J. J. Richards
Dancing in the Dark — Arthur

Debate Groups Prepare For St. Olaf, Bradley

Members of the River Falls debate squad are in the midst of preparation for two tournaments this month. The first is the St. Olaf Women's Tournament to be held at St. Olaf College, Northfield, November 14-15. Heather Dopkins and Margaret Helmer will represent River Falls.

Although not eligible to receive awards or trophies, the two River Falls women will participate in order to gain information on this year's debate question and aid the squad in the second meet of the month — the Bradley Speech Tournament at Peoria, Ill.

Other events this year include: River Falls "B" tournament, for all beginning debaters and students who have participated in less than five college debates.

In March a combined varsity and "B" tournament at Northwestern College in Minneapolis and St. Thomas College in St. Paul.

The invitational Delta Sigma Rho debate tournament in Madison. The season will conclude with the Pi Kappa Delta national convention and tournament at Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Coffe-Miller Marionette Team To Present 'The Rivals' Thursday

Coffe-Miller, with their pedal marionettes, will present Richard Brinsley Sheridan's play, "The Rivals," at the River Falls State College Auditorium, Thursday, November 13, at 8 p.m.

GIRLS ORGANIZE DANCE THEATRE CLUB

New to the campus at River Falls this year is the Dance Theatre Club, under the direction of Dr. Dorothy Lipp.

On the present agenda is a Christmas ballet and a spring concert. Every Tuesday and Thursday evenings the girls have practice from 5-6:30 in the Hathorn Club room.

Twenty-two members now are in the group. They are Jean Allie, Janis Benson, Eleanor Davis, Helen Davis, Joy Seyforth, Mary Shannon, Doris Schaffer, Janis Olufson, Audrey Windal, Betty Wiskerchen, Mae Wiskerchen, Louise Thompson, Marilyn Peterson, Mary Jane Haessley, Arlene Schoepper, Pat Tobin, Jenny Sue Garnett, Ruth Osits, Marilyn Murphy, Joan Hanson, Lois Tilly, and Peggy Weiss.

Miss Weiss is president of the organization.

Masquers Schedule Moliere Play, 'Imaginary Invalid', for December 11

By Marilyn Murphy

"The Imaginary Invalid," a comedy by Moliere, has been scheduled as the second Masquers production of the year. It is to be presented Thursday, December 11, in the college auditorium.

Harlan Siebrecht, as the imaginary invalid, is a hypochondriac who tries to force his daughter's marriage with a young medical student so there would always be a "doctor" in the house.

The plot centers around the clever maid's exposure of those who are profiting from the imaginary illnesses, so that the invalid finally consents to his daughter marrying her lover, Cleante.

The final touch is the decision of the imaginary invalid to become a doctor and cure his own ills.

Harlan Siebrecht plays the title role as Argan, the imaginary invalid. The secondary lead is played by Muriel Clark as Toinette, the interfering maid.

Others in the cast include: Beline, wife of Argan—C. Dorsey Angelique, his daughter—Betty Kostka
Louison, his younger daughter—Marjorie Hanson
Beralde, his brother—Bob Anderson
Cleante, suitor to Angelique—Bob Strain
Monsieur Diafoirus, physician — Dick Reusch
Thomas Diafoirus, his son—Halbert Belt
Monsieur Pugon, physician—Don Richards
Monsieur Fleurant, apothecary—Orlan Larson
Monsieur Bonnefoi, notary — Kaye-Don Tibbets.

Ten Seniors Get Listing In College Who's Who

Names of ten seniors from Wisconsin State College at River Falls will appear in the 1952-53 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

COLLEGE OFFERS NEW FILM COUNCIL SERVICE

River Falls State College and Indiana University have been chosen as the two colleges to take part, along with a group of public libraries, in a new program being implemented by the Film Council of America.

This new film service will afford group leaders the opportunity of seeing good films on topics important to the community.

A package of 10 films in one subject area or category will be sent to the college each month from the headquarters of the Film Council at Evanston, Illinois. The films will be kept for about two weeks, during which time group leaders will be invited to preview the films for future local use. Although the films, during those two weeks, cannot be used for programs, they can be booked for use sometime in the future.

A list of those films available for preview at the college each month will be posted and sent out to the nearby communities. The categories in which films will be available for preview include: Political Education, International Relations, Economic Education, Humanities, Children's films, Religion and Ethics, Health and Safety, Marriage and the Family, Child Development, Biography, History, Travel, and Contemporary National Scene.

Meletean Sets Schedule On Group Photos

Several organization pictures will be taken for the 1953 Meletean on Tuesday, November 11, in 121S, editors Rita Ruemmele and John Reque have announced. The following schedule has been set up:

- 4:00 Debate
- 4:10 Masquers
- 4:20 Vets Club
- 4:30 German Club
- 4:40 French Club
- 6:00 Student Senate
- 6:10 Social Committee
- 6:20 Student Voice
- 6:30 Meletean
- 6:40 Fieldhouse Foundation Committee
- 6:50 Pep Club

The editors and advisors of the 1953 Meletean are meeting today to release the printing bid and set up layouts for the Homecoming section and class and organization divisions in the yearbook.

Registration Starts Nov. 19

Registration for the Winter Quarter begins Wednesday, November 19. Students may confer with their advisors to work out their schedule for next quarter on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday of next week. Fees may be paid December 1, 2 or 3. Late registration fee will be charged December 4.

Nominated for the honor this year are Jean Allie, Charles Braun, Gerald Easton, Roger Knieff, Richard Laramy, Kenneth Nehmer, Genevieve Olson, Donald Schoedal, James Vandenberg and Duane Westerberg.

Candidates are rated on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and participation in and contribution to student activities. The quota for each school is set up on the basis of enrollment.

The applicants must be accepted by the organization in addition to recommendation by the College. "Who's Who Among Students" is a national collegiate publication.

Miss Allie, from Ellsworth, is treasurer of the Student Senate. She served as secretary of that organization last year and was also secretary of the Women's Athletic Association and vice-president of the College Women's Association. An English major with a minor in phy ed, she is also a member of Sigma Chi Sigma and the debate team. She served on last year's Meletean staff.

Football Letterman

Charles Braun, a football letterman, is from Sarona. He is president of the "R" club this year. A major in agriculture, he is assistant advisor to the Future Farmers of America.

Gerald Easton, last year's "R" club president, comes from Footville. A football letterman, he was last year's Winter Carnival King. He is a major in agriculture and associate member of the Future Farmers of America.

Roger Knieff, vice-president of last year's Student Senate, is from Frederic. A major in upper elementary with minors in music and social science, he was freshman class president in 1949-50. He has been a member of the Student Senate for the past three years.

Richard Laramy, also from River Falls, is vice-president of Kappa Delta Pi, and a member of

College Plans Guidance Day

Dr. S. A. Hamrin of Northwestern university will be the principal speaker here at a college guidance conference on Saturday, November 15. Designed to help high school teachers "initiate and carry on an effective guidance program" the conference will start at 10 a. m. and last until 3 p. m. on Saturday. Luncheon will be served in the college dining room at a cost of $1.00 per plate.

Dr. Hamrin is noted for his work in elementary and secondary school guidance, and various other guidance leaders in the state have been asked to participate.

Winning Homecoming Skit

Critic's Corner

By Marguerite Gotz

"Gun toting" is discouraged in London. Or so said Richard Harrison, noted authority on British police work, when he addressed an all-school assembly here October 30.

More than one Sherlock Holmes fan was disillusioned when Mr. Harrison disclosed that only rarely does the London criminal carry a gun or act in the manner usually depicted by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

Mr. Harrison traced the history of crime and police work in London from the pre-Scotland Yard era when the "pirates" and "Mudlarks" stole millions yearly from the merchants to today when London's 1951 records show only 24 murders reported.

He also compared our police force with London's and found it wanting. London Bobbies prevent crime whereas our policemen catch, or try to catch, criminals.

Not only are London's criminals overrated, but also the quality of English humor, if Mr. Harrison is an authority on either.

Senate Minutes

Tuesday, October 28, 1952

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Ken Nehmer. The secretary's minutes were read and approved.

The activities of Homecoming were reviewed and discussed by the Senate members. Suggestions for next year are as follows: activities at the bonfire must be stepped up and better coordinated with the pepfest; high school students will not be allowed to attend the pepfest because they occupy space needed for the college students and alumni; the "R" Club will take care of this suggestion next year. It was also suggested that a Faculty Homecoming Committee be appointed in coming years to work with the student committees in an effort to plan more activities for the Alumni who return for Homecoming.

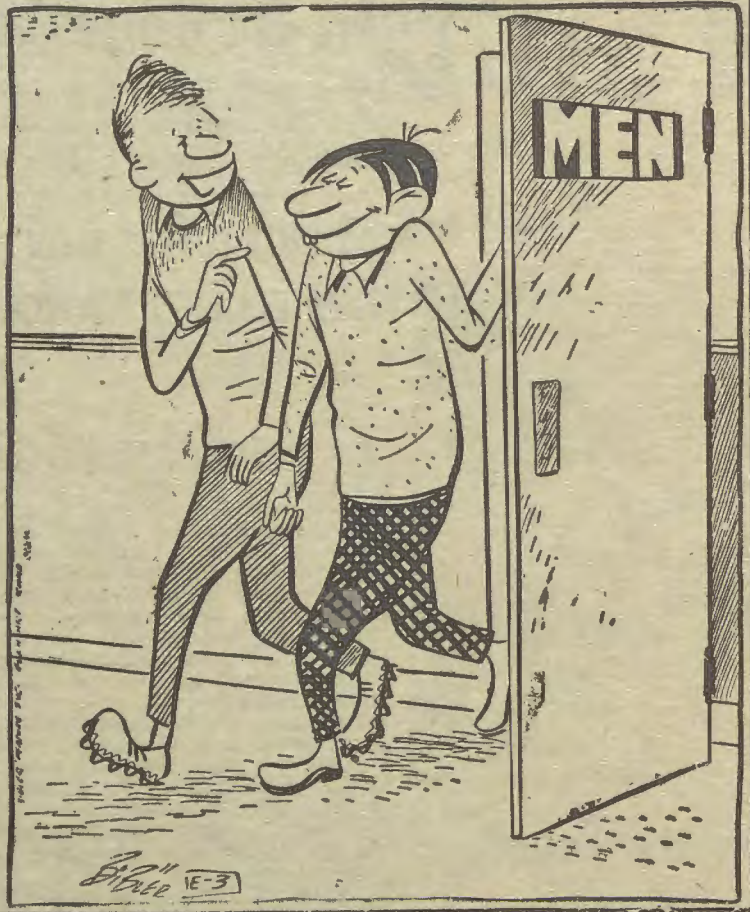

The Student Senate had been approached for a donation to U.S.O. It was decided that one dance be set aside for this purpose. A charge of 25c per person would constitute the donation. However, this dance would be scheduled in the next term.

The meeting was adjourned. (Signed) Margery Deans Secretary

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

"I didn't realize you could draw so well, Worthal --- Ever thought of taking some courses in fine arts?"

River Falls College to Observe American Education Week Nov. 9-15

A varied program of activities will mark the observance of American Education Week, November 9-15, at River Falls State College. Through the program the College plans to interpret to prospective teachers and to the community the goals and achievements of the Campus School. American Education Week, sponsored by the N. E. A., the American Legion, the U. S. Office of Education, and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, has as its general theme "Children in Today's World."

The committee in charge of planning is Opal Knox, chairman, Mrs. Barbara Cooklock, and Wilfred Harris. They are being assisted by all members of the Department of Education.

The Campus School will hold Open House from Monday through Friday. All parents and interested friends are invited to visit the various rooms, where they may see classes in session.

Throughout the week there will be an exchange of speakers between college classes and the Campus School. Students from Miss Blanche Davis's speech class and Mr. Harris's Child Development class will speak to Campus School classes, and members of the Education Department will speak to college classes. All speeches will emphasize education.

The Elementary Design classes taught by Ted Clymer and Miss Phyllis Simon are cooperating with Campus School teachers of the first six grades and the committee to arrange a display of children's work and posters in the windows of Tousley's furniture store. Mrs. Cooklock and Mr. Naeseth, college art teacher, are coordinating this activity. The display will be shown from Tuesday through Saturday. A bulletin board display, changed daily, will appear in the first-floor corridor of South Hall.

Special evening classes will be held in grades six, seven, and eight on Wednesday, November 12, on the third floor of North Hall from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.

Robert Fisler has arranged to show films daily. The schedule follows:

Monday, Nov. 10—1:00 p.m.—Aud., "Act Your Age" (18 min.—Grades 5 through 8 and visitors)

Tuesday, Nov. 11—9:30 a.m.—Aud., "Heidi" (46 min.—All children and visitors)

Wednesday, Nov. 12—7:30-8:00 p.m.—Room 304 North, "Fight for Better Schools" (18 min.—Grades 7 and 8 and visitors)

Thursday, Nov. 13—3:00 p.m.—Vis. Aids Room, South—"Field Trip" (16 min.—Visitors, student teachers and prospective teachers)

Friday, Nov. 14—9:30 a.m.—Aud., "Mexican Children at School" (15 min.—Visitors, Kindergarten)

Arrangements, not yet completed, are being made for a State Department of Public Instruction member to speak at an assembly and to senior students in the teaching program some day during the week. All city men's and women's organizations and churches have been asked to point up the week in any way possible.

In addition to teaching basic skills, the nation's schools help to prepare your children for responsible citizenship. America depends on her schools; the schools depend on you. Visit your school during American Education Week.

Local Culture Seekers Find Expression In Footsy Monomuscular Movements

By Bo Peep

To all those interested in culture, not agriculture, at River Falls: a class in related rhythms and monomuscular movements will begin soon on our campus.

Tentative meeting schedule has been set for Mondays through Sundays from three to five a.m. in front of the girls' asylum, providing the automobile tracks on the lawn have been filled. Since the parties involved have not yet admitted their guilt the college may have to purchase several ounces of hybrid grass seed to fill the holes. This added landscape expense will raise havoc with 1952's fiscal budget, the administration has announced. (To those interested in admitting to this vandalism, there is a written confession awaiting your signature in room 115S.)

Training will be offered in body expression, particularly finger exercises, toe gymnastics, and abdominal control. Various cotillion procedures will be perused and practiced, especially the Bulgarian ballet, Algonquin war dances, mazurka, and the Black-Bottom.

The new River Falls rhythm band will rehearse with the Terpsichorean group featuring ex-kindergartners in their second childhood playing the triangle, tambourine, and castanets. This group will provide background music so the dancers can perform in unison.

Due to his high fee Arthur Murray was not hired to instruct the graceful belladonnas. But a former five year graduate from Hudson, who now teaches dancing classes there, has been contracted to be in charge. Everyone is happy that another River Falls graduate has been added to the happy faculty family.

U.S. Awaits Curtain Call On Presidential Show

The big show is over. Thanks to a co-axial cable, the American public rested on their opinions last week and watched the first presidential election ever televised become a part of history textbooks. An estimated audience of over eighty million held front-row seats to America's performance of what may well be the future of the world.

No matter how sweet or sour, last week's parley is guaranteed a four-year run in the little theatre on the Potomac. The critics, as you know, liked Ike. And so, while historians await to criticize the final act, editors in times like these have only to anticipate their criticisms.

During this moment, political laymen in the strategic position of the press, become authoritarian. With clairvoyant degrees of understanding they harpoon monopolistic union practices, the foreign policy and business systems, deliberate a nation's tax problem, and usually end with a justifiable sob for the instability of the almighty dollar.

Through a couple wars and one depression, no wonder those of the fourth estate with a degree of tenure can feel themselves a significant part of these inquiries. But as of today, with only a part of a war as personal experience, this writer feels a trifle unqualified to expound his national criticisms from a vantage point of longevity. It is easier to be critical than correct. You may call it setting up excuses in advance, if you like.

So it seems fitting, that one so young in matters of this nature, might reflect his impression of the total show rather than pass judgment on any of its parts.

We, in America, have had a few bad actors who have changed the meaning of the word "politics." Let us hope then that this performance by a new cast will once more bring that word to mean the symbol of fine government. Once again, may we listen, and believe, and trust.

The election past, the show is over. A bigger one now begins.

RFSC Goes for Ike, Fairchild in Mock Vote

River Falls students were in agreement with the rest of the nation last week when they chose Dwight Eisenhower over Adlai Stevenson for president of the United States in a mock election held on campus October 29.

But Joe McCarthy lost out in the campus election to Thomas Fairchild, a vote that was more than reversed in the balloting last Tuesday. Fairchild received 262 RFSC votes to McCarthy's 240, while Eisenhower defeated Stevenson on campus 312 to 178.

Approximately 78 per cent of the student body and one-third of the faculty cast ballots in the mock election. Eisenhower's majority over Stevenson on campus was about 10 per cent more than his majority in the national vote.

The mock balloting was under joint sponsorship of the Young Democrats and Young Republicans, who wound up the major part of their year's activities last week with parties on election night. The Young Republicans celebrated at the Legion Club and the Young Democrats mourned at the home of Mrs. Lois Foss.

Last minute activities of both groups included floats in the Homecoming parade. The Young Democrats also sponsored the address given by Thomas Fairchild at the college October 28.

Action in the River Falls-La Crosse Homecoming game provided plenty of thrills but not enough touchdowns for the Falcons, as La Crosse captured the Northern Division championship, 20-7.

Falls Finish Second For Crown

By Carl Sharp

The La Crosse Indians were too much for the River Falls Falcons whom they beat for the Northern Division title, 20-7, before an October 25 Homecoming crowd. The game was played under ideal football weather.

The Indians scored in the first minute of play as a La Crosse boy stole the ball from Murphy and raced 21 yards for a touchdown. The try for extra point was no good. La Crosse wasn't threatened at all the first quarter as more misplays and intercepted passes dominated plays.

play Burman bulled over for the score. Big Tom Linehan kicked the extra point and the game took on a much better appearance. The second period ended with the score 13-7 in favor of the Indians from La Crosse.

The third quarter saw River Falls stage a tremendous goal line stand. La Crosse had first down on the eight. A line play netted three yards and another gained two more. On third down, the Falcons stopped them again on the 1 1/2-yard line. Then on fourth down, Margotto smashed the ball carrier down and River Falls took over. Margotto was injured and didn't play anymore that day. The third quarter ended with the score still 13-7.

In the last quarter River Falls made another bid to score. Passing and running, they secured a first-down on the Indian 14-yard line. Two line plays moved the ball down to the nine. With fourth and five yards to go for a first down, a pass fell incomplete in the endzone. Had the Falcons been able to score and make the extra point they maybe could have beaten off the La Crosse attack for the remainder of the game and won 14-13.

With seconds to go, the Indians drove to the Falcon 14. Then Tuska skirted his own left end for another TD. The extra point was good and the Indians had ruined River Falls' Homecoming, 20-7.

Here are the statistics of the game.

|----------------------------|-----|-------------|--|
| First down | 11 | 13 | |
| Yds. gained from scrimmage | 213 | 158 | |

Falcons Dump Mankato In Final Game

Coach Phil Belfiori's River Falls State college Falcons wound up the season last Saturday evening by playing the best ball of the year in defeating Mankato Teachers there, 20-0. Plagued by injuries to left halfbacks, Coach Belfiori solved the problem, and very effectively too, by converting Tom Linehan from a first rate end to a sensational left half.

Weighing 210 pounds, with plenty of speed and drive, Tom took to the left halfback duties like a duck to water, and ripped the Mankato line to shreds. He scored two touchdowns, and Burgoyne scored one. Playing at end in place of Linehan was a transfer student (ineligible for conference play), Frank of New Richmond, who scored two touchdowns but had both called back. Frank surprised Falcon supporters with his speed and all-around end play.

River Falls wound up the season with a record of five wins, two losses and one tie.

Phil Belfiori

In the second quarter, the Indians started to roll. They found weak spots in the Falcon line and moved down to the home team's 37-yard line. Then Indian halfback Berzinski found a big hole and went all the way for their second touchdown. The kick was good and La Crosse led, 13-0.

River Falls smashed back at the Indians in furious fashion. A La Crosse defensive back was called for pass interference and the Falcons took over on the Indian one-yard line. The next

Basketball Drills Start Monday; Seven Lettermen Returning

By Tom Benson

Only seven lettermen answered Coach Belfiori's first call for basketball candidates last week. Included in this group are: Rog Kuss, Bob Williams, "Zeke" Wells, Jim Saxton, Don Fick, and Jim Belisle from last year, along with Jack Peterson, a letter winner from a few years back.

Monday, all freshmen interested in basketball are asked to report at the gym. This year, with so few returning lettermen, there is a good chance for freshmen to make the varsity.

A nineteen game schedule is on tap for this year. Included in this schedule is a week's trip into southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois. First comes Lake Forest on January 10, then Wheaton on the 12th, Whitewater the 16th, and finally Milwaukee on the 17th. There is a possibility of two more games being added to the schedule since league law provides for a 21 game season, plus post season contests.

The schedule is as follows:

- Dec. 6—Bethel—here.
- Dec. 13—Winona—here.
- Dec. 16—Superior—there.
- Dec. 20—La Crosse—here.
- Jan. 10—Lake Forest—there.

Former River Falls Men Winners in Judging

Winners of the State Judging contest who represented Wisconsin at the Waterloo Dairy Congress are F. J. Haugh of Menomonie, in the Dairy Products Division, and Walter E. Joyce of Colby, in the Dairy Cattle Division.

Haugh, River Falls State College graduate of 1937, is an agriculture instructor. Joyce, also an ag instructor, graduated from River Falls State College in 1950.

Other winners of the State Contest, who represented Wisconsin at Kansas City October 13-16, were former River Falls State College ag students, Leo Grosskreutz of Black River Falls in the meat teams division, and R. J. Delorit and H. R. Otterson in the poultry division.

Jenny Sue Garnett Tells of Summer's Work

The November 4 meeting of the joint YMCA-YWCA organizations was highlighted by a most interesting resume of summer social work done by Miss Jenny Sue Garnett in the slums of St. Louis, Missouri. This nine-week summer project is a part of the nationwide Youth Caravan work carried on by young people from all parts of the United States, under the auspices of the Congregational and United Federated churches.

Jenny's summer work began with a three-day training period and from there she worked with different groups, supervising playground activities, morning devotions, and going on day-camp trips.

Four A.C.E. Members At Milwaukee Meeting

The Campus Association for Childhood Education was represented at the annual W. A. C. E. convention in Milwaukee by Miss Ann Dubbe, instructor in the Campus school, Robert Anderson, Harland Siebrecht and Melton Martinson. They attended the meetings on November 6 and 7. Miss May Roach, assistant director of rural education at Stevens Point State College, was the speaker at the dinner in the Schroeder Hotel. She spoke on the topic, "This is Our Challenge."

The purpose of the convention is to better coordinate the activities of the college A.C.E. groups. Ideas were projected to enable the A.C.E. to attain their objectives as a unified organization.

Oak Knoll School Takes Prize at Fair

The recent F.F.A. Rural Fair represented interests and activities of 18 schools in the surrounding territory. The wide interests of the students were evidenced by the variety of displays and the planning necessary to build them.

The morning program included the judging of materials displayed by the students. The booths receiving prizes were: first prize, Oak Knoll School, $5.00; second prize, Glover Station, $3.00; third prize, Mann Valley, $2.00, and consolation prizes of $1.00 each were given to Willow Hill and Randall Schools.

In the afternoon the students attended a program in the auditorium. The 7th and 8th grade string orchestra began the program under the direction of James Jacobson. The remainder of the program consisted of a talk by Mr. Seyforth, Pierce County Agricultural Agent; a children's play, "The Jack-O-Lantern Hero"; a folk dance called by Mrs. McBride, and a movie entitled "The Zoo." The program closed with the presentation of the awards for the outstanding exhibits.

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
