River Falls' Placement Office Sets Procedures for Liberal Arts Grads

All liberal arts seniors are required to attend the monthly Placement meeting Tuesday, Oct. 27 in the Little Theatre at 11 a.m. The purpose of the monthly meetings are to acquaint the liberal arts seniors of the facilities of the Placement Bureau, job interviews and the types of employment available.

At the first meeting Placement registration forms are to be distributed. Dr. Stone will explain the procedures. Without the forms, is impossible to tell the interested firms the number of graduates in the liberal arts field who are available.

The Placement Office will compile the number of graduates, their field and desired occupations, and notify the firms of the results.

The Placement Committee coordinating unit of the monthly meetings also meets with Dr. Stone periodically and is composed of members from various campus clubs. Chairman of the committee is Jim Durning; recording secretary is Dick Patin. Other members of the committee and their major fields are Ron Skone, economics; Bob Nelson, chemistry; Dave Skoug and Vic Langer, mathematics; Don Dusek, Agrifallions; Robert Prusek, physics and Chet Holst, psychology. Dr. Stone is the advisor.

Socialist Leader To Visit Campus

Norman Thomas, an active member of the Socialist Party, will appear on campus Thursday, Nov. 5. Mr. Thomas has campaigned for the Presidency of the United States six times on the Socialist ticket, in addition to running for mayor of New York City and governor of New York State.

While attending Marion High School in Marion, Ohio, Mr. Thomas had a paper route delivering the Marion Star newspaper published by Warren G. Harding. He attended Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pa. in 1910 and entered Princeton University the following year. He graduated in 1905 as valedictorian of his class.

1907 Mr. Thomas became assistant pastor of Christ Church in a New York City tenement district. He was given the American Parish of Christ Church in East Harlem after attending Union Theological Seminary. Because of his socialist activities, his parish withdrew from supporting him and he resigned from his position.

DR. DAVIS ON PANEL AT THEATRE MEETING

Dr. Blanche Davis of the speech department will participate in the program of the North Central Theatre Association at its annual convention Oct. 30 and 31. The convention will be on the campus of Macalester College in St. Paul.

Dr. Davis will be a member of a panel discussing "Should We Make Our Judges Officials?" The panel is scheduled for Friday afternoon from 1:30 to 2:20 p.m.

'Trim the Gym' Slogan for 1959 Foundation Week

by Kristin Engebret

"Trim the Gym" is the Foundation Week slogan for 1959, which starts Monday, Nov. 2, and ends Saturday, Nov. 7.

Foundation Week is held annually, and its purpose is twofold: to raise money for something of need to the college, and to remind people now enrolled that they will someday be alumni. It is the school's hope that the student will assume certain obligations for the college as so many present alumni do.

The money raised this year will go toward buying bleachers for the new gym.

Entertainment ranging from an auction and a Sadie Hawkins' Day dance is being planned. Because this will be of direct benefit to all the students of River Falls, everyone is urged to give your support to the program.

The committee planning Foundation Week, consists of Nancy Ingwell and Rae Buchholz, seniors; Marge Wallen and Bob Nelson, juniors; Jean McMillan and Jim Schwenk, sophomores; and Becky Heiting and Chuck Brietson, freshmen.

Columnist to Address Publications Group

Gary Heibarth, more commonly read as Oliver Towne in the St. Paul newspapers, will appear as the luncheon speaker for the annual High School Journalism conference Saturday, Nov. 14.

High school journalists from the area high schools are being invited to attend the one day conference to attain a better perspective of the newspaper and year book field.

POLIO SHOTS

Polio shots will again be given on Monday, Nov. 2 from 11:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. in the Social Room. Students who received the first shot in their series of three on Oct. 12 should be sure to receive their second shot at this time. Cost per shot is $1.25.

Art Exhibition Opens Rural Life Conference

The second annual Rural Life Conference opened today when regional artists began displaying their works in the Student Center. Education day is set for Wednesday, Oct. 28, and the Division of Agriculture will open its phase of the conference Saturday, Oct. 31.

James Crane, chairman of the art department, said "This should be an interesting exhibition of work done by people you know who live in our area. None of the paintings shown are by professional artists. While the quality varies greatly, you might be surprised at how much painting is being done around here and how good some of it is."

Ten paintings, selected by a member of the St. Paul Gallery and School of Art staff, will be awarded certification of merit. The art department will select one painting to receive the Purchase Award, which was donated by Jeff Smith of the First National Bank of River Falls.

The exhibition is open to all amateur artists who are over 18 years of age and live in the surrounding counties.

"Can We Strengthen Our Rural and Small Town School program" is the theme to be discussed on education day, Wednesday.

The program will begin at 4:30 p.m. in the Little Theatre with a discussion of "What Might Be Done". Speaking on the national points of view will be Dr. Edward Peterson, "The Conant Proposal"; Dr. Philip Anderson, "The Three R's Plus Plan", and Dr. Allen Siemers, "The Council of Basic Education Proposals." Chairman for the discussion is Dr. Richard Darr. All are members of the River Falls faculty.

At 5:15 p.m. Dr. Jay Gossner of the French department will be chairman for a discussion of "What Can Be Done." Members of the panel include Robert Seibel, principal, Somerset High School; Darwin Fogerty, teacher, Prescott High School; Dr. John Anderson, River Falls School Board; William Dawson, representing the River Falls PTA; James DeMarce, junior from Spring Valley; Dr. Clarence Strola, college sociology department, and Robert C. STUDENT IN DARKNESS

Makes Light of Handicap

by Dayle Maloney

Gene Miller, Stratton Hall student counselor, active campus promoter and cross-country hitchhiker, knows more than 300 River Falls students but has never seen them. The 20-year-old sophomore from Clinton recognizes them only by voice for he has been blind for almost seven years.

In 1952, Miller, a fast-stepping right halfback for the Clinton Junior High football team, was kicked in the head as he powered into the line. Three operations and six months of hospitalization followed as doctors made a futile attempt to save his sight.

But Gene holds no grudge against football. "I would do the same thing all over again if I had the chance," he says. "I don't feel handicapped and it doesn't bother me to talk about my injury."

Gene spent three years at the State School for the Blind in Janesville and then returned to Clinton for his senior year of high school. Following graduation, he worked in the Milwaukee Workshop for the Blind before enrolling at River Falls in the fall of 1958.

"My rehabilitation counselor was an RF graduate and kept telling me good things about the school. This was the only college I liked where I could get a double major in sociology and (Continued on page 2)

The Editor Speaks . .

We can be proud that the influx of partisan politicians to the campus is making River Falls one of the most political colleges in the state. Their visits promote political interest and keep us informed of the problems confronting America today.

But if our future political visitors are to perform like their predecessors, their impact and value will be lessened. Although the politicians who have already appeared on the campus have presented themselves as politicians, which is essentially why they came, nonetheless, our future visitors will have to offer a more intellectual and higher-level performance. Better messages and more politicians-to-student contact will answer these criticisms.

As regards their messages, the politicians should bring us new ideas and solutions on solving America's domestic and foreign problems. The perpetual "rehashing" of old, run-down issues becomes stale and arouses very little intellectual curiosity. We do not need to be told what our problems are. If they propose more constructive solutions rather than devoting their messages to criticisms, they will be of greater value.

Secondly, the speeches do not have the impact accredited to person-to-person contacts. More time spent with the students and less time on the podium would permit students to question the politicians on "what they want to know" rather than having to hear what is already known. More questions and answer sessions of the students with the politicians would prove to be mutually beneficial.

Activities and clubs which plan to sponsor such programs in the future should inform their speakers that it is desirable to have more informal periods of discussion.

Critics Corner —

By Dorothy Binkowski

The contrast between the heavy drama of "The Gallows Man" by Runar Schildt, and the comedy "The Boor" by Anton Chekov, proved interesting and entertaining to a scattered audience Tuesday evening. The two student productions, under the direction of Taloa Starr and Dave Blank respectively, exhibited adequate direction and an intelligent interpretation on the part of the actors.

The role of Colonel Toll gave David Madis the opportunity to run the gamut of emotions from A to Z. Mr. Madis hit A and Z but seemed to miss M, N, O, and P. Miss Beverly Ramacier, in the portrayal of Madis, was convincing and sympathetic. However, she did not par the emotional characterization of the role. Despite this, the actors managed to bring out the intensity of the drama, and both exhibited a good deal of potential ability.

The two leading roles in "The Boor" were played by fall-term freshmen. Mrs. Popov, played by Barbara Webb, was pretty and delightful, but too farcial to give the slightest hint of grief over her late husband, Smirnov, characterized by Nolan Smith. Mr. Smith gave a fine and entertaining performance which left the audience in happy state of mind. His performance was perhaps the most polished of all the other characterizations.

Despite the fact that there was room for improvement in both productions, they should whet the appetite of the student body for future productions.

RURAL LIFE—

Following a banquet starting at 6:30 the discussion will turn to "Where Do We Go From Here?" Speakers will be Dr. Willard R. Lane, professor of educational administration, College of Education, University of Minnesota, and Robert C. Van Raalte. The Division of Agriculture will hold their 11th annual Conference for Professional Agricultural Workers Saturday as part of the Rural Life Conference. Speakers include Dr. J. B. Student Senate Minutes

The meeting was called to order by President Curtiss Larson. The secretary's minutes were read and approved. Profits of $307.50 on the Chris Barber concert and $780 derived from the sale of Homecoming Dance tickets bring funds in the Student Senate account to $1254.75.

Carolyn Brown, representing the Women's Recreational Association, requested the sum of $165 to be distributed in this manner: $25, WRA awards; $40, equipment; and $100 to pay costs of the recent convention. A motion made by Arnie Kaluzny, seconded by Carol Hanson, that the room be cleared for discussion was defeated 8-2. The WRA was granted $100 to cover convention costs.

The following requests were granted: $4.00 per week to serve as salary for a lifeguard at the pool; $3.00 to Marvin Killen, janitor for the Barber concert; $12.92 to YM-YW for the queen's float.

The Senate chose Jim Schlough and Anne Adams to join Patty Ross and Chuck Norelius as the four student representatives on the Personnel Committee.

Becky Heiting, freshman from Hudson, was chosen unanimously by the Senate to fill the remaining position on the Social Committee.

The Senate extends its congratulations to tri-chairmen Bob Vermillion, Ken Zahorski, and Jerry Marlett for a job well done on a successful Homecoming.

Pat O'Connell will be responsible for changing the various calendars on campus.

The meeting was adjourned. Present: Hanson, Larson, Kaluzny, Keefer, Ross, Norelius, Smith, Schmid, Skone, Schlumpf. Excused: Duch.

psychology so I came up here."

Gene amazes the students with the many feats he performs on campus. He knows South Hall, North Hall and Stratton Hall like a book and can walk through the buildings with ease. His biggest problem is getting from Stratton Hall to South Hall as there is no sidewalk to follow. He is also unfamiliar with Student Center layout but is fast becoming acquainted with the doors, stairs and tables.

But his hitchhiking achievements are even more amazing. Last summer, Gene and a blind friend, Roy Libby, hitchhiked from Madison to San Francisco and back without any assistance.

"We were trying to catch a ride to Madison when we decided to go to the West Coast," says Gene. "In 17 days of traveling, we spent $8.70. We stood 14 hours on one corner waiting for a lift."

Gene tells of one driver who stopped because he wanted some help with the driving. He handed me the road map and asked a few questions before I told him we couldn't see too well. I don't think he ever did realize we were completely blind."

The same pair plan on "thumbing" their way to Florida for the Christmas holidays. Gene has hitchhiked the 300 miles from River Falls to Clinton four times. "I don't like it anymore for there is no challenge," he says.

Along with maintaining a B-average, Gene is active in the Young Democrats, YM-YW and the Social Committee and is always busy with some promotion.

Falcon Fanfare

Ed Olund

by John Doyle
Another of Coach Fran Polsfoot's veteran tackles is Ed Olund, a senior from Rice Lake. Ed is another player who will excite the Falcon fans with his great blocking and line play. During the Superior game he picked up a fumble and ran fifty yards before being caught from behind, a feat which would make any lineman's dream come true.

"Winning the championship last year was a great thrill, but coming back to win again this year will be another," says Olund. He also says, "We are the team to beat if we play the kind of ball we are capable of."

Ed is an "R" Club member and enjoys hunting and fishing during the off-season.

Basketball, Wrestling Will Begin This Week

Basketball
All students interested in going out for the college basketball team should report to the athletic office Monday, Nov. 2 at 3 p.m.

It is not known at what time the team will practice because they will be using St. Bridget's gym. It is required that all students must furnish their own equipment for the first few weeks of practice.

by Ed E. Schlumpf
The rampagant LaCrosse State Indians showed the stuff that champions are made of Saturday night as they stormed from behind twice to knock down an upset-minded River Falls team 21-14.

Fran Polsfoot's fired-up Falcons gave the Indians their biggest scare of the year before bowing in an heroic effort. Thus LaCrosse held on to their lofty perch as undefeated leaders in the Wisconsin State College Conference.

It was obvious from the start that this game was not going to resemble other LaCrosse games of this year. The Indians were riding high after drubbing Stout 50-0 last week and had a record of 156 points scored and only 7 allowed going into Saturday's tilt.

On the opening kickoff, the Falcons employed their old huddle-type return with Tom Everson stepping out of the huddle and passing to Mick Lauber standing near the sideline. The all-conference speedster raced to the 35 but the last man between him and the goal made the tackle.

Jarring Jim Carew got the Falcons off on the right foot by crashing through to block a LaCrosse punt as Duane Tollefson fell on it on the 45.

Three successive first downs and the Red and White were knocking on the door. But a determined Indian line tightened near the goal and the Falcons were faced with a 4th and three situation on the four yard line. Hallen chose to pass and lofted a flat pass to Lauber who made a sensational one-handed grab for the touchdown. Hallen's PAT was perfect and River Falls had a 7-0 headstart.

The Falcons then missed a golden opportunity when Frank Sprenger recovered a LAX bobble on the 16. But the attack stalled and the Indians took over. Moments later Wes Mooeny picked off a Falcon aerial and raced 35 yards into the end zone. Pongrantz's equalizer made it 7-7.

Racing against the clock, Falcon quarterback Bob Dawson started firing. Two completions moved the ball to the 14 where it was first down with 37 seconds left in the half.

Hallen then faked a field goal attempt and found J. C. Neurer all alone in the end zone for a clutch TD and a 14-7 halftime lead.

The Indians struck quickly following the intermission. Cliff Moldenhauer recovered a fumble on the 25 setting up Gene Conger's six-yard plunge three plays later. Pongrantz kicked another perfectly and it was knotted again at 14-14.

Still the Falcons weren't finished. But they blew a wonderful chance. Larry Julien fell on a muffed Indian kick on the 17 but the Falcons couldn't score.

LaCrosse then got a drive going but all-conference guard Dick Shimel halted it with a pass interception on the eight.

The fourth period had hardly started when unheralded Bill Abraham took an RF punt on his 17 and sprinted 83 yards to pay dirt.

Wrestling

Coach Byron James reports that 29 men showed up for the college wrestling team at their first meeting held Wednesday, Oct. 21.

There are nine lettermen returning from last year's squad. They are Sophomores, Larry Julien from Fairchild, Jim Drummy from Waupun, Pat Mrotek from Loyal, Bob Brett from Spencer, Tommy Braun from Loyal, Lloyd Danke from Fremont, and Dale Deidrich from Athens, Junior Ron LaGrandier from Chile and Senior Ed Schlumpf from Durand.

In his Freshman year Larry Julien captured the Wisconsin State College Heavyweight Championship. Throughout the year Julien acquired an impressive 16-3 record to lead the Falcons.

Coeds Participate Last Conference Tilt In WEA Meeting With Platteville Pioneers

Judy Daft, junior from River Falls, and Marlene Morse, junior from Siren, participated in the first Leadership Conference of the Student Wisconsin Education Association at the Hotel Retlaw, Fond du Lac, Wis., Oct. 17. Miss Daft served as discussion leader for the committee concerned with membership.

The conference drew a total of 50 participants from 13 colleges preparing teachers in Wisconsin. The students set three conference goals which they treated in discussion groups: the development of informed, effective, responsible leadership; the establishment of standing committees at the state level to promote business pertaining to program policies, membership and public relations; the clarification of the role of the individual student in the national organization.

Carol O'Loughlin, President of Student WEA, presided at this first Leadership conference which involved 1500 members in Wisconsin colleges. Aquin Charter of Student WEA at Marian College in Fond du Lac, served as host to the conference.

by Ken Wolter

This coming Saturday, Fran Polsfoot's faltering Falcons take on the rugged Platteville Pioneers for the Pioneer's homecoming. Since this is the Pioneer's homecoming tilt and their last conference game of the season a hard fought game can be guaranteed.

Head Coach "Butch" Leitl has sixteen lettermen returning from last year. Among these are Don Swiekatowski, all-conference end, and Bob Geyer, a senior quarterback who set several passing records last year.

In fact, the present Platteville team is made up of almost the same team that gave the Falcons a hard fought game last year. River Falls, 1958 WSC conference champs, just squeezed by the Pioneers 28-26. Platteville then went on to fight Stevens point, who finished second in the conference, to a 14-14 deadlock.

SWIMMING HOURS

The North Hall swimming pool hours this year will be from 7 until 9 p.m. Thursday and from 2 until 4 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

This year Platteville and River Falls have a fairly even record, so the game Saturday should prove to be a fan pleaser. Game time is 2 p.m.

Anyone not on a team, but who wants to bowl in the tournaments should contact the bowling sportshead. The cost is 30c a line and 10c for shoes if you do not have your own.

The top five bowlers for last Wednesday night were: Mary Viitanen 141, Kay Bennay 132, Kay Holmes 127, Sue Dorgan 122, and Jean Lindquist 122.

Sports for the Winter and Spring terms were discussed and voted upon. Basketball was voted the winter team sport, swimming and fencing for individual sports. For the spring term, the team sport will be volleyball, and archery, tennis and golf will be run as individual tournaments.

A short meeting will be held after badminton practices tonight to decide if WRA should sponsor a booth for Foundation Week.
