Senate Names Candidates For Homecoming Chairman

Dale Crisler, Mike Dodge, and Marlin Huppert have been picked by the Student Senate as candidates for next fall's Homecoming Chairman. This is the first time candidates have been picked in the spring.

Dick Kinney, president of the Student Senate says the purpose of choosing candidates at this time, is to give them a better chance to organize Homecoming activities. Not only will the candidates have a better chance to start and plan their campaigns, but the rush in the fall will be avoided.

DALE CRISLER

Dale Crisler, junior from Hillside, is majoring in Math and Physics and plans to teach on the secondary level. He is active in baseball and is a member of the French Club, Math Club, and "R" Club.

MIKE DODGE

Mike Dodge, working toward a degree in liberal arts, is majoring in history with minors in speech and political science. Mr. Dodge, sophomore from Hudson, is very active in speech and debate, and is a member of Pi Kappa Delta.

MARLIN HUPPERT

Marlin Huppert, also in the liberal arts field, is majoring in economics and minoring in psychology and history. Mr. Huppert, a junior, from Ellsworth, is a member of the Newman Club.

The election for Homecoming chairman will be held next fall as usual.

Annual Festival Brings 65 Groups Here Saturday

The 33rd Annual District Music Festival held on campus Saturday was "... the largest parade and contest held here to date," reported Nicholas Jadinak, who was in charge of the 33 choral and 32 instrumental groups taking part.

The addition of four schools formerly in the Rice Lake District Festival and one from the Eau Claire Contest brought this year's total number of schools participating to 24. The choruses, boys' and girls' glee clubs, bands, and orchestras taking part were judged by four twin cities music instructors.

Regular events began at 8:00 a.m., and criticisms were given instead of ratings. Besides the high school entries, six schools brought junior bands to take part also.

The parade, which officially started at 3:30 p.m. began on 3rd street in front of North Hall, wound down Locust Street to Main Street, continued along Main to Pine Street, and then returned to the college over the same route. Judges were located on a platform in the city square.

Instrumental and Choral groups taking part represented high schools in Amery, Arkansaw, Baldwin, Clayton, Clear Lake, Elmwood, Ellsworth, Glenwood City, Grantsburg, Hammond, Hudson, Luck, Milltown, New Richmond, Osceola, Plum City, Prescott, River Falls, Roberts, Siren, Spring Valley, St. Croix Falls, Somerset, and Woodville.

RF TIES FOR SECOND IN WEEKEND DEBATES

Teams from River Falls tied for second place on a won-loss basis in both the "A" and "B" divisions of the Upper Midwestern Debate Tournament at the University of Minnesota Friday and Saturday.

In the "A" division, debating negative, the team of Jerry Anderson and Dick Waak tied for second with a record of four wins and one loss. Also tying for second on the affirmative side of the question, the team of Judy Simonson and Mary Lou Jensen won two debates and lost three.

The team of Julia Kaminski and Mike Dodge had the best won-lost record of any entered from River Falls. Debating "B" division negative, they won second place with five wins and no losses. The team of Bill Hagestad and Arlin Albrecht, winning two and losing three, tied for second in the "B" division on the affirmative side.

Other teams participating from River Falls included Honey Berg and Louie Schoenwetter with a record of one win and four losses and Bruce Foster and Dick Kruger with the same record.

Walter Simonson, debate coach, announced that a meeting is scheduled tonight for all participants in this year's forensic program. The meeting will be in room 212S at 7 p.m. Announcements on the New York trip and a discussion on the opening of next year's activities are planned.

George Grim to Discuss 'One Man's Russia' May 1

GEORGE GRIMM

George Grim, well known mid-west newscaster and world affairs commentator, will speak on "One Man's Russia" at the last of the regular concert and lecture series, in North Hall Auditorium, Wednesday May 1, at 10 a.m.

Mr. Grim, whose home is in Minneapolis, is famous for his "on the spot analysis of the news", wherever it takes place throughout the world.

During World War II, he spent a great deal of time in Europe and Asia, making numerous broadcasts to the troops there, and to the people at home. In 1955 Mr. Grim went to East Berlin, unknown to the Red regime, where he risked Communist reprisal, writing about life in that city for the people of the free world.

After trying for two years, Mr. Grim in 1956, was able to obtain a visa to enter the Soviet Union. This he could do only if he went alone. By using his own car, and the thirty days allotted him, he was able to view first hand the farms, factories, visit the homes, and shop in Soviet markets. Through these experiences, Mr. Grim has a unique report of how the Russians live, work, and play.

At the present time, George Grim is doing twenty-one TV programs weekly, over KSTP-TV, five radio news programs, his Minneapolis Tribune column, "I Like It Here", besides numerous speaking engagements in and around the upper midwest.

O'Neal Mason to Teach In Illinois for Summer

O'Neal Mason, of the chemistry department, has accepted a summer position to teach organic chemistry at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. The session will begin on June 17 and last for eight weeks.

EXERTING HER wiles on businessman William Marshall (Griff Howell) is Regina Gibbens (Carol Naiberg) in this scene from "The Little Foxes" to be presented tomorrow evening.

'Little Foxes' Performance Set for Tomorrow Night

Curtain time for the presentation of Lillian Hellman's "The Little Foxes" is 8:00 p.m. tomorrow night in the Little Theatre. It is directed by Laura Gardner, a senior from Fall River.

The play is the story of a poor middle-class Southern family, the Hubbards. It is composed of Ben Hubbard (Gregory Griffin), Oscar Hubbard (Alex Romanowski), and their sister Regina Giddens (Carol Naiberg). They have taken upon their shoulders the task of rebuilding the dignity of the South. They are trying to restore the prosperity and elegance which was the South, in the days of the "Southern Aristocrats." Dignity and prosperity mean money which their father acquired by cheating Negroes.

Birdie (Laura Gardner) is one of the few remaining southern aristocrats and has married into this mad money-seeking family. Unhappiness has caused her to become a helpless alcoholic.

Regina and her brother have a contract with a Northern cotton-goods manufacturer William Marshall (Griff Howell) to build a mill for the production of material in the South, instead of shipping the raw materials to the North.

The brothers use Leo Hubbard (Jim Potten), the weakling son, as a tool for doing the "jobs" necessary to their interests and also want him to marry Alexandra Giddens (Sonja Rasmussen), Regina's daughter, and thus make the family more closely knit.

A conflict arises when Morace Giddens, Regina's husband, (Paul Strief) refuses to invest in the company.

The Editor Speaks

With Easter past the feeling that spring has sprung, seems to have filled the air about school. The outside world is turning green and lush, and the campus is gaily colored with spring fashions. The school also received its spring face lifting during vacation.

Upon returning to school last Wednesday, we found shiny floors, and scrubbed windows and woodwork. But how long will our campus retain its fresh, neat appearance?

If it follows true to form, it won't be long before the halls and lawn will be strewn with bits of paper, and the walls smeared with finger prints. Shouldn't we have more pride in our school? School is where we spend most of our time and, like a home, it shows the type of people that live there.

We really don't like to be considered untidy, and we really do care about our school. It's just that we often forget and become careless.

College students are no longer children. They should want to take responsibility in keeping the school they attend a place they can be proud of, a place that will help shape their personality and prepare them for their future occupation. If a student can't take the trouble to walk across the room to a waste basket to deposit his paper, he certainly isn't prepared to go out teaching, into business, or other chosen fields.

The waste paper baskets in the rooms and trash cans by the doors are there for a purpose, not decoration. Let's try to be more neat and lessen the janitor's burden in the few remaining weeks of the school year.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

—WELL, HOW'S IT HAPPEN WE FIND YOU TESTING UNDER WATER EQUIPMENT ON TH' GIRLS' DAY FOR TH' POOL?—

Letters to the Editor...

As students of a growing college, we should be vitally concerned about the social development as well as the physical development of this institution.

Cafeteria discussion concerning the establishment of fraternities and sororities has brought out mixed opinions of the subject. The lack of adequate information and contact with these social organizations has resulted in many misconceptions as to the purpose and function of them.

ONE OF THE BIGGEST objections to these organizations by students has been the "cost of membership." Our experiences and investigation have shown that the costs can be kept at a minimum by various projects which can be undertaken by a group of this type.

Our project program has convinced us that a member's dues need not exceed $5 per quarter which, when broken down, amounts to 40 cents a week. With dues set at this amount, the group could participate actively in all school projects such as Homecoming, Winter Carnival, and Foundation Week, plus additional social functions sponsored by the fraternity or sorority. Is this out of your reach?

ON A CAMPUS that has only one such organization, that organization, through limited membership, may tend to create hard feelings and an air of snobbishness. However, if several such organizations are established, they will tend to create friendly competition which would be a benefit to the entire student body.

The competitive spirit would encourage and improve the activities on campus. A more active interest and participation in college activities would be the end result of active fraternities and sororities.

POINT OF VIEW

by Wm. Hagestad
—Egypt Must Mature—

Secret talks are taking place now between Egypt and certain countries whose interests are intimately tied to the Suez Canal. These countries wish to initiate a plan by which chief users of the Canal will have a voice in how it is managed. Undeniably, Egypt herself is now in full control of the waterway and hence, is in a position to turn down any of the requests these Canal user countries make if she doesn't like them.

About three general factors contributed to Egypt's now firmly established success in the Suez situation. The promise of leadership of the Arab world and the prospect of receiving the Canal's full revenue initially prompted Egypt to nationalize Suez. The armed retaliation of the French and British, in its timidity, detracted little from Egypt's position in the Arab world. And the United States' then official position of desiring peace at any price happened to work in Egypt's favor.

Hidden beneath the three general factors listed above are several lesser, particular ones which also contributed to Egypt's Suez success:—1) She argued well the charge of imperialism against Britain and France and, 2) the somewhat obscure laws and agreements governing ownership of the Canal worked in her favor.

However, there is a situation arising now involving Egypt in which these same, "lesser" factors, in essence, will be working against her.

Three British territories in East Africa — Uganda, Kenya and Tanganyika — border on and have territorial rights over Lake Victoria: magnificent, 26,000 square mile expanse of water in the heart of the continent, and the source of the White Nile, Egypt's chief source of water.

Egypt, wishing to make Lake Victoria a safe and sure seasonal supply of fresh water, is seeking to have the lake-level raised by 1.1 meters (3.6 feet). In accomplishing this, water would necessarily flood some of the land owned by the three British East African territories. Naturally, they do not want this to happen without some sort of compensation.

At Owens Falls (the head of the White Nile), a dam already exists which is high enough to accomplish what Egypt wants to do, i.e., raise the level of Lake Victoria. But the Owens Falls Dam is not in Egyptian territory, so she cannot "nationalize" it for the use to which she wants to put it.

SO EGYPT must bargain in good faith not only because a definite, long standing agreement commits her to, but also because the device for carrying out her will — the Owens Falls Dam — doesn't lie in her territory, and hence, she cannot "nationalize" it as she did with Suez.

Therefore, if Egypt attempts to force her will on the African territories, they might, with good justification, level against Egypt her own pet charge of imperialism. This would most likely bring Anthony Runte, from New York City, was initiated by proxy. He was chosen an honorary member because of the interest he has shown in River Falls debate.

The new officers are: Jerry Anderson, president; Dick Waak, vice-president; Mary Lou Jensen, secretary - treasurer, and Lewis Schoenwetter, reporter.

Nancy Murry, River Falls attorney and former member of Pi Kappa Delta, was the speaker.

College Qualification Test Scheduled May 16

The Selective Service System has scheduled an administration of the Selective Service College Qualification Test for May 16. The purpose of this examination is to help those students who were unable to take the November 1956, or April 1957 test. Inasmuch as the deadline date for admission or registrations for the examination is May 6, the element of time is very important. Students who are desirous of taking the examination are encouraged to submit their registrations as soon as possible.

Either write to Selective Service System Testing Section, Science Research Associates, 104 Pearl Street, McHenry, Ill., or get application blanks from the Deans' office.

Eastern Debate To Close Season

The River Falls debate team will journey to Oswego, New York, May 4, for the final competitive tournament of the current season. They will be competing with New York State University.

According to Walter Simonson, debate coach, the team has not yet been completely selected, Dick Waak being the only definite selection. Remaining members will be considered on the basis of their showing at the Minnesota tournament. In an effort to "share the spoils," those students attending the National convention at Brookings, S. D., will not be selected for the eastern trip.

The debate at New York will be one of cross examination, a comparatively new style.

There are possibilities of debating with other schools enroute. Some of these are Ohio State University, Colgate University, and Carleton University, both of New York. These would be of the audience type debate.

The trip will be made by auto with most of the cost being covered by the debaters themselves.

This tournament will close the season with the exception of some possible audience debates at local high schools.

Group Gets 'Excellent' At Brookings Tourney

River Falls debaters received an excellent rating in the Men's Sweepstakes at the recent tournament in Brookings, S. D. The men's team also placed in the upper 30 per cent in the various divisions.

The team consisting of Jerry Anderson and Arlin Christenson won five and lost three of their debates, while the women's team of Judy Simonson and Mary Lou Jensen won three and lost five. Other participants ranked in the upper 50 per cent in extemporaneous speaking, discussion, and debate.

Approximately 900 students from various colleges attended the meeting. In addition to the debate tournament it was also the biennial National Convention of Pi Kappa Delta.

AFTER BEING absent from the scene since the close of the football season, the River Falls Falconettes were reactivated for Saturday's Music Festival and led the parade through the business section during the afternoon.

New Points of View Seen In College 'Honors Course'

Twelve students have enrolled this quarter in the experimental Honors Course. The purpose of the honor course is to acquaint students with books and points of view which they probably would not receive in other courses, but are still of value. The students read certain books in the plan of study, raise questions, and discuss the problems and ideas presented.

All those who do work of 'A' quality for three terms will receive three hours credit in the spring quarter of 1958. As this is a divisional course, it cannot be credited to any field of study, but can be used as an elective.

Meetings for this quarter are scheduled at 7 p.m. on Tuesdays, room 220 in the Library. Presently being read and discussed are two books by Erick From, Forgotten Language and Escape from Freedom. As this is still a new project, a complete list of books to discuss has not yet been outlined.

The students taking the course are Alma Bents, Robert DeGregory, H. Gaylon Greenhill, William Hagestad, Wayne J. Haushalter, Gerald G. Johnson, Miles Johnson, Thomas C. Johnson, Gordon H. Lee, Dennis Nordstrand, Keith Thompson, and Elizabeth Ann Webert.

The faculty committee in charge of the course are Dr. Edward Peterson of the social science department, Dr. Lillian Gough of the math department, Dr. Francis Chisholm of the English department, Richard Cooklock, librarian, and Wayne Wolfe of the journalism department.

ALBERT TO SPEND SUMMER AT BOEING

Earl G. Albert, head of the physics department, will be with the Boeing Airplane Company for the summer and will be located at Wichita, Kansas.

The classification for this summer appointment is "College Faculty Associate" and the assignment will consist of an analysis and study of mathematical formulas as applied to forecast, estimating, and scheduling.

Mr. Albert plans to begin work with the company June 17 at Wichita.

TIRED BLOOD? STUDENTS' HEALTH GUARDED BY COFFEE

There's no need for a health service on the River Falls campus. At least, this should be true as long as students continue to consume the amount of coffee they now do and if a notice appearing in the Boston Publick Adviser of May, 1657, is reliable. The item, as published, said:

"In Bartholomew Lane on the back side of the Old Exchange, the drink called coffee, which is a very wholesome and Physical drink, having many excellent vertues, closes the Orifice of the Stomach, fortifies the heat within, helpeth the Digestion, quickeneth the Spirits, maketh the heart lightsom, is good against Eye-sores, Coughs, or Colds, Rhumes, Consumptions, headache, Dropsie, Gout, Scurvy, King's Evil, and many others, is to be sold both in the mornings and at three in the afternoon."

Campus News From Other Colleges

by Donna Williams

Although it only spring, plans for next year's homecoming are already in the making. Suggestions at Stout for changes in homecoming include the discontinuing of the annual bonfire and possibly the burning of a large letter of the opponent college. It might then be possible to put the money towards the hiring of a big name band for the dance.

Oshkosh has contracted Jimmy Dorsey's orchestra for a May concert. The cost to the students will be $1.00 in addition to his activity ticket for a two-hour concert.

Plans for the spring proms in the state colleges are well underway. In fact, Platteville has already selected its royal couple. The prom theme is "Sunset Serenade."

Oshkosh has set up a new requirement for future band directors enrolled in the conducting class. The student directors must participate in a "Students' Concert." This gives an opportunity for the student to have actual experience in conducting under concert conditions.

As a result of Brotherhood Week at Whitewater, a campus International group is being organized. In their organizational meeting, eight countries or nationalities were represented. The organization's purpose is to promote good will among nations and to create a better understanding of international problems and affairs.

Students' Science Knowledge Rates Highest in 'Cultural Level Quiz'

If the average River Falls student were to participate in a quiz show he'd do best to choose "science" as his category. In a "Cultural Quiz" designed by the cultural level committee, students made their best scores in the science area. The quiz was a test in which names were matched with various works or theories.

Best known of the scientists was Dr. Jonas Salk, recognized by 98 percent of the students. The only name recognized by all was Elvis Presley. Only one student in a hundred could identify the author of "Wilhelm Tell." Other persons recognized by a high percentage of students were Louis Pasteur, Lawrence Welk, Marlon Brando, Liberace, Benny Goodman, Albert Einstein, and Isaac Newton.

Decidedly low scores were made in identifying the painter of "The Luncheon at the Boating Party," the author of "Ulysses," and the author of "Folkways." Only four in a hundred could correctly identify Vladimir Horowitz.

Answers to questions on the test revealed that the average student spends two hours a week watching plays on TV, seven hours listening to jazz, one hour listening to classical music and reads an average of six books a year not required for school.

Although the cultural committee noted a direct correlation between class standing and test scores with freshmen at the bottom and seniors at the top of the scale, the difference was only 8.1 points.

Dr. Wyman Discusses Folklore of Frontier

Dr. Walker D. Wyman, head of the social science department, was the featured speaker at the Illinois Folklore Society's bi-annual meeting, held Friday, April 19, in the lounge of Woody Hall on the campus of Southern Illinois University.

Dr. Wyman's talk, "The Folklore of the Mid-Western Frontier", dealt with the different sources behind folk tales, and the varying types. Examples of the different kinds were given.

The Wymans made the trip to the University, located in Carbondale, Ill., over the Easter vacation.

CHISHOLM, JOHNSON TO GO TO NCTE MEET

Dr. Francis Chisholm, head of the English department, and Miles Johnson, junior from Fredric, will attend a meeting May 9 at the Hotel Leamington in St. Paul, to work on plans for the 1957 National Convention of the National Council of Teachers of English. The Convention is scheduled for November 28, 29 and 30 in Minneapolis.

The River Falls Junior Affiliate, local under graduate chapter of the NCTE has been designated as host organization for the junior under graduate members who will attend the convention.

Mr. Johnson will be chairman of the Convention Hospitality Committee for under graduates, which will include students from the University of Minnesota and other leading twin city colleges.

The River Falls affiliate has just finished mailing out invitations for the convention to 2504 junior members of the NCTE.

Kappa Delta Pi Sets May 14 Initiation Day

The Kappa Delta Pi initiation for all prospective members will be in conjunction with the organization's annual spring banquet. The banquet will be held the evening of May 14, at the Glen Park Lodge.

At this time, Miss Marion Hawkins of the English department will be awarded an honorary membership in the society.

Girls From 11 Schools At Annual Play Day

Eleven area high schools participated in the High School Girls Play Day here, April 13. High Schools attending were Spring Valley, Red Wing, Barron, Durand, Hudson, River Falls, Ellsworth, Amery, Elmwood, Prescott, and Stanley.

Spring Valley defeated Red Wing in the volleyball finals entitling them to the traveling trophy. First and second place individual awards were also given in bowling and table tennis tournaments.

In the afternoon the girls saw tumbling and trampoline exhibitions, followed by an archery demonstration by Martin Laakso of the biology department. This annual event is sponsored by the WRA.

'HISTORY OF MUSIC' PROGRAM THURSDAY

The MENC will present "The History of Music" in the Little Theatre Thursday, May 2, at 8 p.m. The program will be presented through the use of music for chamber groups and solo performances.

POINT OF VIEW—

down upon Egypt all types of Arab, neutralist and small nation wrath, with very detrimental consequences to her. Furthermore, the laws and agreements about Lake Victoria are not secure like those relating to Suez. Again, if Egypt were to force her will on these territories and fail to bargain in good faith as required by the Nile Waters Agreement, she would be transgressing in a way obvious for the world to see.

What all this means is simply this: if Egypt wants to deal with other countries — countries over whom she has no advantage (as in the Suez situation)—she must become a bit more diplomatic, a bit more mature. She must repeal her Suez-inspired interpretation of international law which said that "possession is nine points of the law". In the Lake Victoria situation, someone else is in "possession".

CINEMA COMMENTARY

by Jack Woodbury

A few nights ago I had the "opportunity" to wander through "TEN THOUSAND BEDROOM" in the company of Dean Martin and Eva Bartok. It was a long trip.

As you know, this movie is the much touted first solo effort of Dean Martin since his split with Jerry Lewis some time ago.

The movie runs true to form. This one isn't much different from other Martin-Lewis productions.

Dean croons and romances his way through an over-long film in the usual manner. It takes him nearly two hours to get lined up with the obviously "right" gal. But this film lacks one ingredient that made "Sailor Beware," "Jumping Jacks" and the others successful. That of course is Jerry Lewis.

The action, and I use the term loosely, takes place in Rome. Dean is a wealthy owner of a chain of hotels, and is in Rome to take over the newest addition.

The leading lady, Eva Bartok, and her three lovely sisters should make a hit with all the men.

Unfortunately that just about covers the movie. Rome, beautiful gals, and mediocre ballads by Dean Martin.

There is a short rock and roll number that at least is different.

When the movie arrives locally, and you are bored but the girl friend insists she wants to see it, go ahead. The film will fit your mood.
