

RIVER FALLS BIG WINNER OF INTER-NORMAL CONTEST

The State Championship Slogan For Dual Debate With Stevens Pt. Mar. 30

Platteville Normal Withdraws From State Triangle

The final test for River Falls' supremacy in the forensics of the state will come Tuesday evening, March 30, when our debate teams meet the Stevens Point teams in a dual debate. Platteville, the winner of the Southern triangle has declined to enter the final contest.

Of Stevens Point's strength we know little. However, Stevens Point has succeeded in giving us some great surprises in the past, and what she has in store for us this year we do not venture to predict. But, however great they may be, we knew that our able bunch will put up a strong, water tight case that will give the opposing team some trouble.

Platteville won from Milwaukee in a dual meet for Whitewater has not debated in the Normal Conference this year. With the change of question, it became necessary to cancel either her college or normal debates, the latter course being taken. She has been by no means idle in this field, however, for she has held six debates with various colleges, making a total of twelve debates in which her teams have participated.

Next Tuesday will be your only

Although it is almost too early in the season to make any statement in regard to the prospects for teachers this coming year, there is a general feeling that there will be a greater demand and more openings for the teachers than there was last year.

No doubt there will be more calls for teachers and more gradu-

Inter-Normal Mass Meeting

The morning program last Friday was the informal opening of the day's festivities. Mr. Karges presided, and thus was forced to curb his own desire to tell everyone how glad he was to see them, and let Mr. Ames give the address of welcome for the school. Fitting and pleasing responses were given by the various schools, the talks being interspersed with varied stunts and musical numbers. The novel saxophone trio from Stevens Point, Felix, the cat, from Milwaukee, the Oshkosh Girls' Quartette, our home Glee Club and dancers, all provided their part of the entertainment. Although some of the schools were not represented in the responses, due to the length of the business meeting, everyone felt, at the end of the morning's program, that everything was all set for a gala day.

'Polly With A Past' Given Friday Night

Cast of Best Local Talent

The Agrifallian play will be given a week from Friday night, March 26, in the normal auditorium. The play, "Polly with a Past," is a three-act play that promises to be the best given this year, outside of the Senior Class play. The exceptionally good cast has been working for better than two weeks. The proceeds of the play will be used for financing the Poultry and Grain Show that is put on by the Agriculture Department each fall.

The Spring Training In Baseball Underway In North Hall Gym

The calendar officially announces Spring as beginning March 21, but sounds from North Hall gym the past week indicate that spring baseball has been well underway for over a week. Some of the prospective hurlers and receivers have been going to the gym and under the masterful tutelage of Coach Hershberger have been giving those rusty wings a gradual working out. Judging from the fact that there have been no windows broken, we must say that the boys are learning to groove the apple with considerable skill.

Besides a normal baseball team, there will be a twilight league composed of the various organization teams—so bring back the old glove and ball after spring vacation, and become an active member of the national pastime.

Mr. Carey Talks At Assembly

Mr. C. P. Carey, who was State Superintendent of Schools in Wisconsin for eighteen consecutive years, and who did much toward the organization of our present state school system, gave a very interesting talk in assembly yesterday morning. The humorous quips, bits of personal experiences, mixed with the more serious aspects of the topic, "Personality," made the hour an unusually short one. The quiet, unassuming manner in which he passed on the homely knowledge that he had gained from a life time's contact with people, "took" greatly with the student body, and we all hope that he will come again soon.

Throughout his tenure of office he worked for the development of a capable, efficient state department. The fact that the department is now among America's best is ample proof of his success.

See Douglas Fairbanks Monday Night In "Thief Of Bagdad"

Everybody will be glad to know that this great picture is coming. It needs no extensive advertising. Douglas Fairbanks is at his best in the "Thief of Bagdad." He fairly outdoes himself in wonderful performances. "Thief of Bagdad" is a fantasy of the Arabian Night. The Flying Horse, the Cavern of Fire, The Flight of the Thousand Stairs, The Cloak of Invisibility, The Crystal Realm and The Magic Carpet are some of the marvels that will excite universal admiration. The audience will be spellbound. "Thief of Bagdad" is the biggest and costliest movie of the year at the Normal. It will need a packed house to go across. Normal Auditorium, Monday night, March 29. Admission 35 and 20 cents. Don't miss it.

Extempore Contest Honors Won By Norseng; Burke Wins Second In Oratory

Elvin Churchill of Superior Takes First in Oratory

At the State Oratorical Contest of the Inter-Normal Forensic League held here last week on March 19, River Falls won high honors in both extemporaneous speaking and oratory. Marshall Norseng was unanimously awarded first place in extemporaneous speaking, and John Burke was ranked second in oratory. Elvin Churchill of Superior placed first in oratory. Churchill, Burke, and Gavin were each given first place by one of the judges. Churchill and Burke were each ranked as fifth by one judge, the former being ranked second by the third judge, while Burke was placed third. Hence, it can be seen by what a close margin River Falls missed getting a first place in both extemporaneous speaking and oratory.

The decision of the judges in awarding the first four places in both events is as follows:

Extemporaneous Speaking
First—Marshall Norseng, River Falls
Second—Donald Vetter, Stevens Point
Third—Donald Gleason, Oshkosh

THEODORE JENSON SELECTED FOR CHICAGO Y.M.C.A. WORK

Theodore Jensen, President of our Y. M. C. A., was among the twelve young men selected from a group of thirty-four, representing almost as many colleges and universities in the central region, to work part time for various Chicago Y. M. C. A. associations, and continue their education at either the Association College or at the University of Chicago. The men were finally chosen because of their special fitness for work along this line.

The conference at which the selection was made was held on Friday and Saturday, March 19 and 20, in Chicago. The sessions were conducted mainly in Hyde Park branch of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. and at the Association College. Entertainment included several banquets and sight seeing tours throughout the city. Ted reports an exceedingly interesting trip and we might add—a profitable one.

We wish to congratulate Ted upon the splendid opportunity that will be his. To be connected with an organization like the Chicago Y. M. C. A., one item of whose program for next year is a

FRIDAY AFTERNOON ENJOYED

Aside from the general trend of the Extemporaneous contest, many events tended toward the success of the afternoon, but particularly the music given by the various schools.

Promptly at two o'clock the afternoon events began to take place. The opening number of the program was given by the River Falls orchestra of which we were very proud. The snappy pieces sort of put us in the right attitude for the remainder of the afternoon.

After three of the speeches had been delivered the Oshkosh Girls' Quartette rendered several very nice numbers.

More speeches followed, and then the Whitewater Man's Quartette performed. They certainly pleased the audience with their selections, and the Whitewater Normal may have reason to be proud of their representatives in music.

The next school represented was Eau Claire. It was certainly impressive to see the forty-five members of the Girl's Glee Club from Eau Claire take their places on the rostrum. Perhaps the song which made the biggest "hit" with River Falls was the banjo song, decidedly a taking one, and we wish that the girls might be with us again.

While the judges were discussing the contest, Milwaukee held our attention by having their Men's Glee Club sing. It must have been these words—"a big wife—a short wife—I'll have no wife at all" that made the audience forget for awhile the final decision which was coming. The Milwaukee Men's Glee Club is one of the finest organizations to ever appear on our rostrum. Mr. Thorne is their director.

We certainly will have to again acknowledge the fine spirit of this delegation which was so well shown by their willingness to help furnish music for the dance Friday afternoon.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS

In spite of the fact that River Falls is a relatively small Normal school town, yet the attendance at the State Oratorical Contest here last week ranks third in size to the attendance at that of any other Normal in the state in the last seven years. Whitewater is first in highest attendance, but her numbers were swelled by a delegation of two-hundred and fifty from Milwaukee the year the contest was held at Whitewater. Milwaukee is next in rank, but when you consider that she has an enrollment of eleven hundred students as compared to approximately five hundred for River Falls, you can appreciate the River Falls spirit a little more. The door receipts at both places show that the attendance here this year was within fifty of the attendance at Milwaukee the year the contest was held there.

MILWAUKEE GLEE CLUB BORROW MONEY FOR TRIP

The Milwaukee Men's Glee Club wanted to come to the oratorical contest, and despite the fact that they were obliged to borrow three hundred dollars for the trip, they came. The club will make a concert tour this spring to raise the funds necessary to square the debt. The Club is an independent organization of unusual excellence, and we envy the people of Southern Wisconsin their opportunity of enjoying the concerts given by Mr. Thorne's singers.

ORGANIZATION NOTES

Y. M. C. A. ELECTION

At the last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. ballots were cast to determine who the members of the cabinet would be for the coming year.

The following officers were elected:

President—Clarence Nyht
Vice-President—Sigurd Overby
Secretary—Walter Paulson
Treasurer—Orville Tostrud
Membership—Fritz Feske
Religious Education—Clifford Myers
Community Service—Irwin Taylor
Campus Service—Earl Sagen

AURELIA MEETING

The Aurelia held their regular meeting last Thursday evening, at which time they furthered their plans for attending the contest in a body, the only organization to do so. At the evening program, the Aurelia girls sang the Pledge song, while a balloon, bearing red and white streamers, ascended to the ceiling of the auditorium, a characterization of the spirit of River Falls.

The Aurelia cooperated with the Lincolnians and faculty in acting as a reception committee and official guides for the visiting delegations.

ALL GRADUATING SENIORS PLEASE TAKE NOTICE

The samples of this year's graduation announcements have arrived, and immediate action must be taken in order to determine the exact number to order. Orders for the announcements will be taken in South Hall after school and during the noon hour the rest of the week, beginning March 24. It is not necessary to pay for the announcements until they are delivered at which time they will cost six cents for each one ordered. However, the number that each student wants must be determined at once.

If you need cards, be sure and take care of that at the time you order announcements. Details in regard to both cards and announcements can be obtained at the table.

Please take care of this important matter before spring vacation as the order must be sent to the engravers by that time. No time is like the present—act now and avoid disappointment.

STOUT CHAMPS WILL WEAR GOLD BASKETBALLS

In the near future the conference champs will be wearing gold basketballs on their watch chains. The balls will be emblematic of the success of the Trainers during the past season.

A collection was started by the students, but the funds were rather slow in coming. The Athletic Association then decided to take the matter over and will see that the boys get a medal that they can be proud of.—Stoutonia.

NEW Y. W. C. A. CABINET

The Y. W. C. A. held their annual election of officers last Tuesday evening. Ruth Johnson takes the helm as president, with Lucile Malott as Vice-President, Beatrice Roe, treasurer, and Marion Miller, Secretary. The other members of the cabinet will be appointed by the new president, being aided in her selection by Alice Hagen, who has been president the past year. The date on which the installation will take place has not been definitely fixed.

FACULTY ENTERTAIN

When faculty meets faculty, a good time ensues. Such was the case last Friday evening when the visiting faculty members were entertained by our home pedagogues and their wives, at a banquet which was held in the Congregational church parlors.

The tables were beautifully decorated with yellow jonquils, pussy-willows, and yellow candles; the place cards, too, were in yellow.

Music was furnished between courses by Ruth Bailey, pianist, and by the String Trio, Miss Hatch, Miss Wharton, and Miss Smith.

Mr. Davison was a very capable toastmaster. Toasts were given by President Ames, President Smith of La Crosse, Miss McQuilken of Superior, Mr. Cotton of White-water, and President Simms of Stevens Point.

HOME-LIKE ROOMS FOR DELEGATES

Several of the class rooms on the first and second floors of North Hall were transformed into comfortable and homelike rooms during the oratorical contest.

Each organization of the school was responsible for the decorating of one room and the providing of hostesses for the delegation who should make that room their headquarters while here. There was considerable competition among the various organizations, for a five dollar prize was given as a reward for greatest excellence. High honors, and the prize, went to the "Y's", the N. C. A. ranking second. Our visitors were greatly pleased with having such pleasant headquarters placed at their disposal, and assured the hostesses that the rooms were enjoyed. The spirit of friendliness of our visitors was one of the important factors contributing to the success of the day, for everyone entered into the good time and the spirit of the contest.

The La Crosse delegation was in charge of the "Y's", while Eau Claire was made comfortable by the G. O. P. Whitewater and Milwaukee were taken care of by the Aurelia and the Civic Club, respectively. The G. A. A. was hostess for the Oshkosh delegates. The Rural Life helped the Stevens Point delegation to feel at home. Platteville was efficiently cared for by Frances Lethlean, a former student of that school, Miss Hathorne, and Miss Chapman.

This and that

Helen Sutherland spent the week-end with home folks.

May Fuller is recovering from a severe attack of bronchitis.

Flossie Bower spent the week-end with home folks in Spring Valley.

Don't miss "Thief of Bagdad," the "Movie of Movies," next Monday night.

Loretta Basil visited at her home in New Richmond over the week-end.

Several of the visiting delegates spent the remainder of the week-end with friends here.

After a night of royal initiation Esther Johnson—a sincere lover of "hilarity"—became an active member of the "Mooney Gang."

There are no locals of the usual character this week, for no one went home—at least we haven't heard of anyone having done so.

Madlyn Bandoli and Kathryn Ausman entertained at a fudge and pop-corn party Saturday evening. Everyone present reports a good time.

The faculty members have been given cards on which they have their names and their classes. These cards are really quite attractive and sort of let us know when Profs are busy.

The sympathy of the student body and faculty is extended to Elmer Beran in the death of his brother. The serious condition of the brother called Elmer home the fore part of last week.

The Young People's meeting of the Congo church was held by Marion Simonsin Sunday evening. Mr. Davison spoke on the book written by Bruce Barton, entitled, "The Man Nobody Knows." True to his usual lectures, Mr. Davison retold an old story from a new viewpoint for which the Congo people are thankful.

Although many of the students have taken John Burke as a matter of fact person, they never really visualized the other inmates of his home town until Thursday's assembly. The leader of the Casco orchestra displayed exceptional talent and will no doubt join the R. F. Men's Glee Club when they tour. As for Demosthenes—well, we guess he's related to Jack. Either first cousin or half-brother—because once he gets started he can't quit, and, second, because he proved that the moon was made of green cheese, and we swallowed it.

Let's give the "Thief of Bagdad" a full house next Monday night.

Mary Mittermeyer of Boyd visited with Alice Wanisch last week-end.

Tell your friends about the "Thief of Bagdad" next Monday night.

The conservation class is wising up on the real need for a synthetic type of resources.

Lillian Norris strolled down river Sunday afternoon. It's rather early for nature study, Lillian.

Those students that entered into the real spirit of last Friday find it very difficult to settle down to every-day affairs again.

The old students are glad to know that Mr. Hayward is again in River Falls. We do not know exactly how long he will remain in town, but we are glad to see him back—"Hello Pinky."

Mr. Mitchell is confined to his home with a severe cold this week. The whole school wishes him a speedy recovery, for his absence at this time will prove a severe blow to the success of the debate squad in the coming debates.

Pearl Olson and Esther Johnson were entertained by Felix—the cat—and his accompanist—both of the Milwaukee Glee Club, at the K. K. K. meeting on Thursday evening. Lillian and Dick accompanied them as chaperones.

STUDENTS ENJOYED DANCES

The fact that the Normal dances of late have been so well attended shows that the students are decidedly in favor of them.

Friday's big program really started with a dance in the Girls' Gym on Thursday afternoon. Although there were not quite enough members of the fairer sex to "go around," everyone that attended reported a fine time.

The dance Friday afternoon went over the top. Because it was so informal, everyone had a good time. Many of our guests reported the dance as the biggest event of the day.

The students feel that these informal dances should be held often.

First—Elvin Churchill, Superior
Second—John Burke, River Falls
Third—William Gavin, Eau Claire
Fourth—Marjorie Westcott, Oshkosh.

After the decision of the judges in the evening oratorical contest, Elvin Churchill, winning orator from Superior, and Marshall Norseng, our local extempore speaker, were called to the stage, and were each presented with the silver loving cup which goes to the winning school in each event every year. Superior and River Falls will retain possession of these cups until next year's contest, when they will again be presented to the winning schools. These cups were first presented to the winning schools by the student organizations of the Superior Normal in 1925. At the end of nine years, the school having the lowest number of points in either of these events will retain permanent possession of that cup awarded in that event. River Falls has this year taken a long step toward winning permanent possession of both these cups.
