

Classrooms Emptied as Students Join in Winter Carnival Fun

Kappa Delta Pi Will Honor Campus School Teacher February 5

Mrs. Adeline C. Patton will be honored by the local chapter of Kappa Delta Pi at a banquet to be held on February 5.

Kappa Delta Pi, as an Honorary Society in Education, endeavors to recognize achievement in educational work. Mrs. Patton has been chosen for Honorary Membership in the Society in recognition of her achievement in education.

At the present time, Mrs. Patton is a member of the college Education Department, where she is third grade critic in the campus school. Also, she has had other experience as a teacher in the elementary grades. After many years of service to education, Mrs. Patton plans to retire at the completion of the spring term.

The banquet honoring Mrs. Patton will be held in the college cafeteria on the evening of February 5. Kappa Delta Pi members and all members of the faculty have been invited to attend. On the program, besides initiation of the honorary member, will be an address by Dr. E. H. Kleinpell. Conrad Olson will serve as master of ceremonies, and Earl Johnson will introduce Mrs. Patton.

Cafeteria Gets New Setup

A long planned change in the management of the cafeteria will go into effect here on Sunday, February 1.

John Gage, who in August will be completing six years as cafeteria head, announced that up to the first of the month he has received his wages from the college. The school in turn takes care of all bills.

After the first of the month, however, Mr. Gage will be working on a percentage basis with the state financing the replacement of all equipment plus cafeteria bills including heat and electricity.

He reported that in the past six years more than 1200 dollars worth of new equipment has been installed in the college cafeteria. He went on to add that the change over will not affect current eating prices.

RF Debaters to Enter Moorhead Tournament

For the first time in several years debaters from River Falls State College will participate in the Red River Valley debate tournament, to be held at Moorhead, Minnesota, on February 6 and 7.

The Moorhead tournament will be divided into men's and women's divisions, with the men debating at Concordia College and the women at Moorhead State Teachers College. This is the twentieth year the tournament has been held.

Representing River Falls in the women's division will be Heather Dopkins and Margaret Helmer. The men's team will be Royal Fraedrich and Russ Thompson on the affirmative case and Mr. Fraedrich and Dick Granum on the negative case. Each team will debate six times.

Individual speaking events will also be featured at the Red River Valley tournament. Heather Dopkins has entered the impromptu speaking contest, and Dick Granum will compete in oratory.

Dr. George Gilkey of the social science department will accompany the River Falls debaters to the Moorhead tournament.

WINTER ENROLLMENT SHOWS DROP OF 13

The total enrollment figure for the winter term has been set at 587, according to the Registrar's Office. This is 13 less than last term's total of 600.

The division among the classes is in about the same proportions as last term, with 253 freshmen, 144 sophomores, 77 juniors, and 112 seniors. In addition, there are two post-graduate students, and one part-time junior.

The ratio of men to women also took a drop this quarter. There are 403 men and 184 women this term, as compared to last term's 425 men and 175 women. This puts the ratio at about two and two-tenths to one, whereas it was formerly two and four-tenths to one.

King Jim Belisle and Queen Margery Deans, both juniors, will reign over River Falls' annual Winter Carnival this week-end, Jan. 30-31.

Festivities To Continue Tomorrow

River Falls' annual Winter Carnival got underway at top speed at ten o'clock when classes were dismissed, and the festivities will last until Sunday. King Jim Belisle, Queen Margie Deans, Chairman June Clark, and the special Winter Carnival guest, "Alice in Dairyland" will direct the events which include a talent show, winter sports, two dances, a basketball game, and a huge carnival midway.

Classes Out at 10

Today's Winter Carnival activities began with a general cafeteria get-together after classes were broken up this morning and will continue this afternoon with the carnival midway, card tournaments and bowling.

About fifteen organizations have set up booths for the midway in the South Hall gymnasium, and they will be in operation from 1:00 to 3:30. Included on the midway will be a roulette wheel, ring toss, bingo, throwing baseballs at bowling pins, shooting baskets, throwing darts at balloons, and many other concessions.

A "500" tournament gets underway in the cafeteria at 1:30 this afternoon, and other card games will be featured too. Janet Thode is in charge of the tournament and prizes will be given. Carolyn Styer has charge of the bowling tournament at the C and S, which begins at 3:00 this afternoon and also features prizes.

Talent Show Tonight

Tonight's Winter Carnival festivities will center around the F.F.A.'s annual Talent Show, which gets underway at 8:00 in the auditorium. About fifteen acts will be presented and there will be several cash prizes.

"Alice in Dairyland," special guest at the Winter Carnival this year, will be introduced at the Talent Show. "Alice," Miss Beverly Ann Steffen of Appleton, represented Wisconsin at the Tournament of Roses in California on New Year's Day. She's a 23 year-old brown eyed blonde. "Alice" will arrive on the campus this afternoon and remain until tomorrow afternoon. She will be a guest at Hathorn Hall.

Immediately following the F.F.A. talent show tonight there will be a record dance at Hathorn Hall. The F.T.A. will be in charge of the lunch concession at the dance.

Saturday's Winter Carnival activities will begin at 10:00 a.m. with a snow sculpturing contest. (Continued on page four)

High Schools to Attend Special 'Macbeth' Performance

Shakespeare's "Macbeth" will be presented by the college Masquers in the auditorium on February 17, 19, and 20. Dr. Blanche Davis, director has announced.

In rehearsal since early January, "Macbeth" stars Lee Parker in the title role and Dorothy Binkowski and Betty Wiskerchen in the role of Lady Macbeth. The Lady Macbeth role was double-cast due to the illness of Miss Binkowski, who has been in the hospital this week but plans to return to school soon. Miss Wiskerchen played the role of Juliet in the Masquers' production of "Romeo and Juliet" last year.

Tuesday, February 17, has been set aside for "high school night." Students from high schools in the surrounding area have been invited to attend the play at a cost of 25 cents each. The February 19 and 20 performances of "Macbeth" are reserved for college students and townspeople.

Former President Holding Open House Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ames will celebrate their Golden wedding anniversary on Jan. 31. Their sons and daughters will be hosts at an open house in the couple's home in honor of the occasion, between the hours of two and six.

Mr. Ames was president of the college until his retirement in 1946. He joined the college faculty in 1909 and became president in 1917.

"Is this a dagger I see before me?" . . . Lee Parker, freshman, has the title role in "Macbeth" to be presented by the Masquers Feb. 17, 19, 20.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bibler

"First let me say that I appreciate the fact that most of you manage to make this eight o'clock class."

Justa Minute

With the Republican administration just assuming power, we notice a member of the college faculty has fulfilled its slogan of twenty years ago, "Two cars in every garage." He is now looking for a second chicken for his pressure cooker.

A columnist at Alabama Polytechnic Institute has started an "I Hate Professors" club, and the rules he has set up for admittance are quite simple. Be late to classes at least half the time. When entering a classroom late, glare at the instructor and insinuate that he started the class 10 minutes early. Fifteen minutes before the end of the class hour, begin to stack your books neatly, put on your coat and look expectantly toward the door. Keep an eye on your watch throughout the entire period and the other eye looking out the window. Laugh at everything even remotely amusing, except your instructor's witticisms.

The River Falls version of "I Am a Camera," which was almost banned from St. Paul last week, will be presented in the darkroom, second floor North Hall this week. Cliff Harmann will take the title role.

The orange newsprint on which this issue of the Student Voice is printed was originally ordered for the St. Patrick's Day edition, but veiled threats by the Hibernian society on campus have forced us to order green for the Irish issue.

The Editor Speaks

Wish You Were Here Or Are You Going to Be?

Quite a large percentage of River Falls students aren't going to see this issue of the Student Voice until Monday, for the simple reason that they will have gone home for the week-end by the time this edition is published.

These are the proverbial "suitcase students," criticized, laughed at and ridiculed because as soon as classes let out on Friday they head for home. They have their reasons. Many of them work week-ends. Others have romantic interests, or simply find that it's cheaper to live at home on Saturday and Sunday than pay twice as much for food because the cafeteria's closed.

Most critics of students who go home every week-end are willing to grant that they are sometimes justified. But they argue that everyone should stay for the really big week-ends on campus, such as Homcoming and this week-end, Winter Carnival time. And they say that if everyone did stay, these big week-ends would be a lot more successful; that is, if all people who stayed took part.

But after all, why should the fact that it's Winter Carnival time keep more students here? Aside from the financial angle, a lot of them don't care for winter sports or don't have the equipment necessary to participate. Some students don't like basketball games, and aren't particularly interested in talent shows. And many of them don't have dates for the dance—because of the sex ratio or lack of interest.

Therefore, we might conclude that a general lack of interest in Winter Carnival activities is responsible for the presence of a less-than-could-be number of River Falls students on the campus. There is a very neat argument for this point, however. Isn't a week-end such as this more successful when a smaller, really enthusiastic group of students are participating than when a large number of apathetic students are wandering around the campus complaining that they've nothing to do?

We think so. Students can be pushed, and shoved, and urged to take part in more activities, and they can even be forced to do so. But until they really want to, and until they get some actual enjoyment out of the participation they aren't adding anything to the occasion, whatever it may be.

So, dear students, whether you be here or at home, enjoying Winter Carnival activities or that home town dance, may we wish you a very pleasant Carnival week-end, no matter where you're spending it.

Letters to the Editor: The First This Year

To the author of the honor roll article:

Sour Grapes! "You're right, it doesn't take too much hard study and intelligence to make the honor roll at River Falls, but you sound to me like one who apparently has neither the ambition or the sufficient gray matter. I believe that if you were to wipe the moisture from behind your immature ears, you would realize that you probably deserved the grades you have received here. And I also believe the managers and editor of the Student Voice should perhaps be a little more critical of the type of "junk" that is submitted for publication in the school paper. A Student

Dear Editor:

Were you at the student assembly Wednesday when campaigning was going on for winter carnival king? If you were you must have noticed that the place was quite lonesome except for the one-hundred or so loyal supporters of the school spirit! I'm not saying that some people didn't have a "legit" reason for not being there. However, I am saying that those who could have been there and weren't are not to be complimented about it.

Sure, the hour of nine o'clock is early; sure that coffee tastes good over at the "caf"; sure it's nice to sleep in, but the people who took part in the program weren't reaping any rewards for their work in making the assembly interesting and valuable to us.

I guess we really wouldn't have had to have that meeting though. The Student Senate could have appointed a person to be king and that would have been that! Wouldn't that have been nice! No work, no bother for anyone! Then everything else could be done in the same way. We could just stand back and let everything come to us. It sure would make life easier. Pretty soon we wouldn't have to think about anything.

I like River Falls State College! I'm not going here because I have to. I don't believe in staying someplace that I don't like. Doesn't it seem to you that we, the student body, can only expect out of our school what we put into it? I know that a lot of people don't go to the meetings because they see those that might think themselves to be big wheels are not going. We can't depend on big wheels all our lives. We must start thinking for ourselves some time so it might as well be now. See you at the next assembly. M.G.M.

(Editor's note: The Student Voice welcomes all letters concerning campus matters. We will not print anonymous letters, but we will omit the writer's name upon request. We must have it for our files, however. All letters will be printed exactly as received.)

EDUCATION COMMITTEE FAVORS DRAFT LAW

Of interest to college men students is a report of the Committee on Relationships of Higher Education to the Federal Government concerning a meeting recently of this committee with National Selective Service Representatives.

In this meeting, serious contraction of the manpower pool was reported by Selective Service. Induction of 19-year olds has now become necessary, and Selective Service is considering various means of securing additional inductees from groups now deferred, including students.

The committee voted unanimously that the present policy of student deferment be retained at both the undergraduate and graduate levels; and that if a decrease in the number of deferred students becomes necessary, it should be achieved by modifying the cut-off test scores and the proportions of classes deferred, rather than by giving priority to students enrolled in specified courses.

Wyman Attending State History Meeting

Dr. Walker D. Wyman of the social science department is attending a meeting of the curators of the State Historical Society at Madison this week-end. Dr. Wyman is a member of the State Board of the Historical Society.

From our Files

One Year Ago
Forty-two students formed the Crabtree chapter of the "Future Teachers of America." The group chose the name in honor of a former RFSC president, James W. Crabtree.

The "Sitzmarker Ski Club" was established by student ski enthusiasts. The Norwegian word means the "mark a fallen skier makes in the snow."
Ken Nehmer was elected by an all school vote to the student senate to replace Harley Harkness, who was drafted.

Fifteen Years Ago
In a survey of periodicals read by students, "Readers Digest" was the most widely read. "Life" was a close second.

Twenty Years Ago
Of the 520 students enrolled at River Falls, 45 per cent were doing outside work, either to earn board or room. Eleven men students were cooking their own meals.

The second annual Masquers' formal was held. Eleven girls answered the call to form an all-girl band. Mr. Rozehnal was the conductor.

Senate Minutes

Tuesday January 27, 1953

The meeting was called to order by acting Pres. Margery Deans. The secretary's minutes were read and approved.

Bry Wyman gave a report on the meeting with the Public Relations Committee attended by Bry and Ken Nehmer on January 23. The Student Senate is expected to hold an assembly on recruiting during the month of February. The part that students can play in the recruiting program will be presented to the Student Body at this time.

The charter of the Chemistry Club was presented by Margery Deans. It was duly read and approved by the Senate members.

Final report on the Winter Carnival showed all plans proceeding as scheduled.

The meeting was adjourned.

Critic's Corner

by Marguerite Gotz

The more serious side of the news was under discussion January 19 when Dr. Eric Mann, director of the Institute for International Studies and a professor at New York University spoke to the student body at River Falls. Dr. Mann enlightened many students who find reading a newspaper too strenuous, as to the financial status of the nations in NATO, their attitudes toward the United States, and the Korean situation.

Although Dr. Mann is well known for his predictions he refused to commit himself when members of the audience asked several controversial questions. No one will dispute the fact that Dr. Mann is not the wittiest man to visit the campus, but his pronounced accent added a rather cosmopolitan touch.

Plants and People in Peeplight

Apologies to Hiawatha

A gambling den has been discovered within the confines of our campus. Stealthy figures have been spotted lurking 'round the South Hall bushes. Armed with ladders, chisels, hammers, led by infamous instructors, Sigma secretly entered the campus sacred social chamber. There they set up chairs and tables, many chairs and many tables. They pulled the shades and draped the piano, locked the doors and plugged the keyholes.

They sat themselves four at a table, lit their cigarettes and chattered. Chattered much of nothing special, just of men and sex and men. Suddenly with graceful gestures their leader drew forth from her bosom several decks of playing cards — ugly tainted playing cards.

Then she set about instructing her cohorts in the game of poker. On and on into the evening sat they there, engrossed in pleasures. Pleasures wicked, sinful, loathsome. They brought out beer and also pretzels, told dirty jokes in gay profusion. Such a way to spend an evening!

At midnight they adjourned their meeting, left the wicked den in uproar. Those who lost demanded vengeance, those who won refused it to them. Thus ensued a mighty battle, ending in complete destruction of Sigma Chi and its advisors, who dared to be so sacrilegious, dared play poker in the Social Room.

Local Talent Prostituted

The F.F.A.'s perennial show this evening will start the week-end's festivities off with a slap in the mouth. From last night's peep-preview the extravaganza promises to be sensationally entertaining. Among the more brilliant performances will be these:

An ocharina and banjo duet by the occupants of Room 206, Hathorn Hall, whose selections will include "London Derriere," "Heather and Tulips," and "Theme" from Tschalkovsky's Fifth.

Three of the more erudite members from the senior class will read in unison (with gestures) seated on high stools choice censored passages from Webster's Collegiate Dictionary.

The chairwoman of the local Civil Rights Committee will lead her group in "Old Black Joe" played on Jews-harps.

Representing the faculty in the competition will be a female instructor who will dance "The Raven" with castanet accompaniment. Her hair has been newly coiffured for the occasion.

First prize in the Talent Show this year will be a copy of "Feeds, Seeds, Weeds, and Breeds," written by a faculty member now in cosmopolitan Brooklyn. This new book is lucidly written on the second grade level and thirty-two copies have been ordered for the library. Booby prize will be one dozen udder cups, in assorted colors and sizes.

Botanical Gardens

Few people realize that amidst the below-zero winter whiteness on campus there blooms an abundance of rare and fragrant flowers in a lovely flowerage in North Hall, fifth floor. Students and friends of the faculty are invited to view the botanical wonders between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. each day. Only special visitors will be permitted to attend the midnight waterings, however.

Prize plant of the biology department, which was shipped from Upper Afghanistan, is the rare man-eating African violet. Rumor persists that failing students in biology are thrown to the plant each day, and it has also been said that the janitor whose retirement was announced recently actually fell into the clutches of this meat-eating organism.

The flower lover will also find the native lithocarpus macrocarpas on display. The garden produces such an abundance of nicotiana solanaceae that the entire faculty and student body can be supplied with the harvest of this glorious bush for a year. The new winter crop is on sale in the cafeteria, at two reefer per dollar. Call 2674 for reservations for parties of ten or more, pure and simply because space is limited. Admission will be by unpunched lab fee card only.

Falcons Down Hapless Stout In Third Conference Win; ECSC Next

River Falls rolled to its third conference victory as it downed hapless Stout Saturday, January 24, in a game played in Menomonie, by the score of 86 to 71. Roger Kuss, the conference scoring leader tossed 39 points.

Williams sent the Falcons ahead as he connected on a rebound shot. Stout came right back and scored a set shot. Both teams kept exchanging buckets until the score was 8-8. Then, River to 15, with the Falcons leading. River Falls kept pouring it on Stout with Williams hitting from out and Kuss on lay-ups and rebound shots. Only the shooting of Stout's forward, Tom Stewart kept the game from being a complete run-away. The reserves came in for the Falcons and played for the remainder of the first half. The score at half-time was 46-26, with River Falls out ahead.

The second half still saw the Falcons keep up their high shooting percentage. Williams hit on long set shots and so did Burgoyne. Belisle scored on a couple of lay-ups. With Stout unable to stop Kuss, at one time the Falcons led by 26 points. Zeke Wells also meshed a few to aid the cause. As the visitors from River Falls lengthened their lead, the reserves came in again. They played most of the third quarter and managed to keep Stout from gaining on them. The third period ended with River Falls leading 71-48.

In the final period, Stout began to pick up and cut down the Falcon lead. Bill Kieffer scored a couple of buckets along with Stewart. Coach Belfiori, confident of victory left the reserves in and also substituted some freshmen to help gain experience for the boys. Donohue scored two lay-ups and Werbeckas hit from the pivot post. Stout whittled off some of the Falcon lead, but not enough as River Falls went on to win 86 to 71.

Roger Kuss led all scorers with 39 points. Williams was next for the Falcons with 15. High man for Stout was Stewart with 25, followed by Kieffer who had 16.

Eau Claire Here Saturday

Eau Claire's Bluegolds will be here Saturday, January 31 riding on a three game winning streak. They are currently in a four-way tie for third place with River Falls, Superior, and Oskosh.

Eau Claire is paced by two high scorers in forward Stan Dufrene, and center Bob Hanson. They like a fast type of game and use the fast break a great deal.

Last year River Falls and Eau Claire split, with the Falcons winning at home and losing in Eau Claire. The Bluegolds have always had all kinds of trouble stopping Rog Kuss and it is expected they will have more trouble this year, as their center has not had too much past experience. It looks to be a high scoring game, with Kuss leading the way.

Falls began to pull away and were never overtaken. The score at the end of the first quarter was 23

RF Beats Whitewater, Bows To Milwaukee in Road Trip

In the final two games of their Southern road trip the Falcons split even. On January 16 they whipped Whitewater 85-67 only to lose to Milwaukee by 92-79.

As far as the Quakers from Whitewater were concerned it was just too much Kuss. Rog had his scoring eye back as he counted 42 points, 24 coming in the last half.

The Falls built up a 40-25 half-time lead as Kuss and Williams combined for 32 of the teams 40 points. In this half Bobby collected 14 of his point total. During the second half the whole squad saw action. In this time every man dented the scoring column for at least one point.

January 17 the Falcons found the host Milwaukee Green Gulls just too tough. The Gulls proved to have an even scoring machine that was too much for the Falls.

The first half was very even as the Falls led 46-45 at intermission. Big Rog was held to only 16 but Joe Burgoyne and "Zeke" Wells had 11 and 9 respectively.

The second half was equally as even until seven minutes were left in the game. Then the even, scoring Gull attack finally came to life. They grabbed the lead were never again headed. As the final gun went off Milwaukee led 92-79.

40 DEBATE TEAMS IN TOURNAMENT HERE

Forty debate teams representing 11 colleges took part Saturday in the annual Invitational "B" Debate Tournament at Wisconsin State college here.

The best team record for River Falls was made by Annette Peterson and Russ Thompson who won three out of four losses only to the St. Olaf team which won the tournament. Jules Schorn and Audrey Aussen won two and lost two, losing to the Minnesota team that placed second in the tournament. The other two teams, Bill Schoenwetter and Halbert Belt and Louise Thompson and Dick Granum, won one debate each.

Louise Thompson went to the finals in after-dinner speaking and spoke at the noon luncheon.

Debate teams from St. Olaf college Northfield, Minn., won first and third places, a University of Minnesota team placed second and Concordia junior college, St. Paul, was fourth.

Robert Hilton, Bethel college, St. Paul, placed first in impromptu speaking with Virginia Stay College of St. Catherine, second.

The after-dinner speaking contest was won by Norbert Tlachak, Eau Claire, with Tellekson second.

YMCA Reorganizing; Names New Officers

A very important meeting of the YMCA will be held Tuesday February 3, in the social room. Officers are hoping all members will attend, as the organization is being reorganized and a great deal of co-operation is needed.

Philip Schmidt was moved up from vice president to president of the YMCA at a meeting of the cabinet, January 27 at Mr. Naeseth's home. A vice president is to be elected Tuesday.

Also at the meeting a new cabinet was picked. They include besides the YMCA officers: Carl Sharp, Tom Benson, Roger Hammer, Berkley Larson and Troy Rudesill.

Rozehnal at Music Clinic

Dean B. J. Rozehnal will be guest conductor at the "Upper St. Croix Valley Music Clinic" at Milltown, February 6. He will conduct the clinic's "All-Star Band." The all-star band is composed of the best musicians of each school participating in the clinic.

DANCE THEATER CLUB OFFERS MEMBERSHIP

The Dance-Theater Club is offering membership until January 31 to any girl, or fellow, who finds dancing to his liking.

"Manhattan Tower" was selected as a part of the Spring concert. Right now the girls are working on the street scene.

The group practices every Tuesday evening in Hathorn Hall from 5-6:30.

Winter Carnival

(Continued from page one) Louis Koilmeyer, of the art department will be the judge. At 1:30 tomorrow afternoon winter sports enthusiasts will gather at the "Mound," at the north end of Fourth Street, for an afternoon of winter sports. Clair Richardson, president of the Sitzmarker Ski Club, has announced that three ski races, cross country, slalom, and downhill, will be conducted. Prizes will be given. Anyone is eligible to enter. Tobogganing and skiing will highlight activities at the "Mound" and there will be skating at the high school rink, with music furnished.

A warm-up at the girls' dorm will wind up tomorrow afternoon's fun. Clif Harmann, Student Voice photographer, will show movies of the 1952 River Falls Homecoming events. The warm-up will start at about 3:30.

Basketball takes over the spotlight on Winter Carnival activities Saturday evening when River Falls meets the Eau Claire State College Blugolds at 8:00 in the North Hall gym. A preliminary game between the River Falls freshmen and the Spring Valley city team will begin at 7:00 p.m.

The final event of 1953's Winter Carnival will be the dance in the North Hall gym, which follows the game. Dick Kast and his orchestra will provide the music, and dancing will be until 1:00 a. m.

Chairman June Clark will crown the Winter Carnival King and Queen at about 11:00 p.m. at the dance. King Jim Belisle is a junior from Menomonie and a member of the basketball squad. Queen Margery Deans is a junior from Hammond and secretary of the Student Senate. They were elected Monday.

On Sunday afternoon, in case anyone is out of bed by then, there will be swimming in the North Hall pool from 2:00 to 4:00.

John Cage, cafeteria manager, has announced that the cafeteria will be open for meals through Saturday noon.

Our Slips're Showing

Five River Falls students were inadvertently omitted from last term's honor roll as published in the last issue of the Student Voice. They are: Roger Kuss, Vilas Henderson, James J. Hicks, Arvin Lovvaas, and Genevieve Olson. All received 44 honor points.

The story in the January 12 Student Voice concerning the engagement of Helen Peterson and Merle Jarchow is incorrect. They are not engaged. The Voice regrets the error.

Dr. Ames Visits Campus

Dr. Carleton C. Ames, on leave of absence from the Faculty at River Falls State College visited the campus this week. His family accompanied him. Dr. Ames has been living in Washington, D. C., since June, where he has been working for the United States Foreign Service. He expects to be sent abroad sometime this year.

Dr. Ames has been a member of the social science department at River Falls since 1938.
