VOLUME XXII RIVER FALLS, WISCONSIN, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1938 NUMBER 21

Members of the Masquers Will ### Participate in the Annual One-Act Play Series to be Presented in the North Hall auditorium on the evening of April 7.

The three best plays of the four which are to be coached by members of the organization will be selected for the evening performance.

Betty Larson and Ruth Phillips will be co-directors of one of the plays. Their play has not as yet been definitely chosen. John Bradley will also coach a play which he has as yet to choose and cast.

Robert Knowles has chosen his cast and started working on the comedy. Those who will take part in this play are Ruth Phillips, Betty Larson, Doris Nystrom, Muriel Taylor, and Vern Dahl. Mr. Knowles, in addition to coaching the play, will be included in the cast.

Robert Platte, the fourth student coach, has his play nearly ready for presentation. He is coaching the comedy "Big Game Hunter." Grandpa Kenmore cleans up the old shotgun to do a little rabbit huntin', and ends up by surprising even himself with the "big game" he gets. The cast for the play includes Howard Wert, Norman Soderstrom, Audrey Doolittle, Marguerite Rottier, Cyril Lyons, and Fred Whitemarsh.

Karl Korting, Senior in the Agriculture Department, has obtained a teaching position in the junior high school, at Rice Lake, Wisconsin, for the remainder of the school year. He will teach science and mathematics, taking the place of Norman Matson, graduate of La-Crosse Teachers College, who has received an appointment to the U. S. Weather Bureau. Mr. Korting completed his work here at the end of the winter term.

Of the Twelve New Students Who entered school this term only three are really new students, since nine have attended school here before.

Reynold Pedersen from Frederic, John Brackey from Burkhardt and Warren Gates from Turtle Lake, Wisconsin, have attended college here in 1935-37. Mrs. Olive Wilkinson who is from Hudson and Eva Davison who has been teaching in Red Granite, Wisconsin, also have attended school here before. William Stiles from Wells, Minnesota, and Eugene Gossen from River Falls attended school here last year. Donald W. Johnson from Pepin and Robert Teeple from Black River Falls are two members of the Falcon baseball squad.

The three new students who are attending this college for the first time are Gerald L. McConnell of Danville, Illinois, who has been attending the University of Illinois, Lydia Wenger of Deer Park and Janet Tentz of Menomonie.

Advanced Students in the chemistry department, under the direction of Dr. R. A. Karges, will have charge of the Science Club meeting Tuesday, March 22, at 7 p. m.

An hour's program of spectacular demonstrations will be presented. The exhibitions will not be highly complicated and will be understandable to students who do not have a technical knowledge of chemistry.

This program is the last of the series conducted by the various scientific departments.

Dismissal for Easter Vacation Will Be Made

Tuesday afternoon, April 12 according to an announcement received from the office this week. Classes will be resumed on Tuesday morning, April 19, at 8 o'clock.

This vacation will allow faculty members to attend a convention of teachers college faculties at Madison on Wednesday and Thursday, April 13 and 14. This convention is held every two years and is attended by all teachers college faculty members in the state.

W.P.A. Funds Have Been

making extensive improvements at the college during the next ten months.

The projects to be carried out include a heating tunnel, installation of new floors, improvement of buildings and grounds, building and moving partitions, and the construction of an underground passage between the buildings for the students' use.

Another project provides for demolition of an old farm house and the use of salvaged material for construction of two houses to be used as dwellings for the farm superintendent and the chief fireman. A previous project converted the chief fireman's former residence into the present college infirmary.

These projects, which started in February, will provide employment for an average of 20 WPA workers.

Dr. Walker D. Wyman

judged a debate between St. Olaf college and the University of Florida held at St. Olaf Friday, March 11. The decision was in favor of St. Olaf.

Revision of the Local Election System of Members to the Student Senate was discussed at the meeting of that body on Tuesday evening. Setting qualification standards for membership was also discussed. Upon motion of one of the members, the matter was referred to a committee for more careful study. The committee appointed consists of four senate members and three chosen from the student body at large. They are Marion Hawkins, Willard Lane, Tom Rendler, Joseph Hyde, Paul Prucha, Eunice Manske, and Stuart Larson.

Matinee Dancing In

the North Hall gymnasium Monday afternoon, March 14, opened the social events of the new term.

Bud Wilcox and his Buddies furnished the music. An enjoyable time was had by all, according to reports. The dance was sponsored by the Social Committee.

Marion Hawkins, Senior

in the English department, has accepted a teaching position for next year at New Richmond where she will teach English and coach debate.

Takes Over New Duties

Niles Grunke

Niles Grunke, junior in the science department, this week assumes the executive editorship of The Student Voice. Under the revolving system of junior editors inaugurated last year, each of the three executive editors has an opportunity to edit the Voice for one term under the supervision of the editor-in-chief. Franklin Elliott acted in this capacity the first term of the year, and Ivon Greene assumed the duties during the second term. Selection of the 1938-39 editor-in-chief will be made from the junior editors on the basis of the editing ability shown during his apprenticeship.

Entertainers for the College Assembly Program to be given Thursday morning, March 17, will be the Johnson brothers with their educational feature, "Your Friends, the Snakes."

Lew and Elmer Johnson, well-known naturalists, lecturers, and writers will present a demonstration of their snake friends and give an accompanying lecture. Their attempt is to lend charm to a difficult subject by making it simple and easily understood. They wish to create a new conception regarding snakes - contrary to the old terror of these reptiles.

Their popularity is still remembered by those who saw them at an appearance before the college assembly some years ago.

Erin's Green Will Reign for a Day

*Oh Paddy, dear, and did you hear
The news that's going round?
The green of dear old Ulster
Is floating round the town.*

Green ties, blouses, shirts, dresses, and suits will be in vogue Thursday. Men with lady-friends and women with gentleman-friends will show their respects by doing the Irish honor.

The "Sons of Erin" will be strutting their stuff on St. Patrick's day, again. Since they hold their own in the membership of the school, the rest of the students will have to be rather cautious when meeting anyone of that reputedly pugnacious race. Figuratively speaking, the shamrock flag will be flying at full-mast.

Not to be outdone however, by the Murphys, Kellys, Finnigans, and O'Briens, the Larsons, Johnsons, Ezicksons, and Petersons will wear their color of the day in its variety of shades.

Six Gradations of Opinion on the Problem of pacifism versus militarism will be upheld in a panel discussion scheduled for the YMCA meeting Monday, March 21 in the Men's Union.

Extreme, moderate, and mild positions on both sides of the question will each be held by a member of the organization. The men taking part in the discussion will include Glenn Benson, Willard Downing, Clifford Hermanson, Jack Osborne, and Loyal Joos.

Falcon Debaters Competed in

held at the colleges of St. Thomas and St. Catherine March 7, 8, and 9. Entered were the Hawkins-Leonard team in the women's division and the Sirianni-Gherty and Dykstra-Larson teams in the men's division.

This tournament is the culmination of the active inter-collegiate debate season in this region and is the largest debate tournament in the nation. Debate teams from the entire Northwest were entered.

A NOTEWORTHY RECORD was accomplished by the Hawkins-Leonard team who remained in the tournament after 31 of the 35 women's teams entered had been eliminated. They were put out in the quarter-finals by a South Dakota State University team.

In the earlier rounds they met Nebraska Wesleyan, Macalester, Concordia, Stevens Point, and Moorhead Teachers. The Sirianni-Gherty and Dykstra-Larson teams were eliminated after the sixth round of debating.

Tuesday, March 1, the Hawkins-Leonard and Dykstra-Larson teams established precedent by debating the University of Minnesota as a practice before the Northwest tournament.

COACH W. D. WYMAN has launched the Hawkins-Leonard team upon a program of exhibition debates as the final polishing prior to the National Pi Kappa Delta tournament to be held in Topeka, Kansas, the week of April 18. This will include a debate against a college of St. Catherine's team before the assembly on Thursday, March 24.

First in the series was a debate last Monday evening before a capacity crowd of 600 at the Ellsworth PTA. At that time the women met a men's team from Hamline University.

HUDSON HIGH SCHOOL will be host at a debate between the Hawkins-Leonard team and a North Dakota State University team in the Hudson high school auditorium next Tuesday at 8 p. m. The North Dakota team is on a tour, part of which includes debates with the University of Minnesota, the college of St. Thomas and River Falls State Teachers College in the St. Paul district.

Dr. Wyman is planning other community debates as well which may include an exhibition tour of the high schools by a River Falls men's team and the Hawkins-Leonard team.

River Falls Will Play Host to the ### Fifth Annual Invitational Debate Tournament for "B" Teams Saturday,

sponsored by the local chapter of Pi Kappa Delta. The tournament is provided for those debaters from the various colleges who did not compete at the Northwestern debate tournament held at St. Thomas on March 7, 8, and 9. It is the only recognized tournament of its kind and is a part of the program which Dr. W. D. Wyman, Falcon debate coach, has pioneered. That program is to give inexperienced debaters as much debating and training as possible. The idea of "B" team competition has been pushed vigorously by Dr. Wyman and as a result each year finds this tournament at River Falls growing in size and influence. This year teams from Moorhead State Teachers College and Iowa State Teachers College of Cedar Rapids, Iowa are entered. Schools closer to River Falls entering are Bethel, St. Marys and Hamline from Minnesota and Eau Claire and River Falls.

The judging will be done by varsity debaters from the schools entered thus providing experience for them as well.

There will be seven River Falls teams entered all of whom have been debating since the first of the year and most of whom have engaged in inter-collegiate debating. Those entered will be the Moline-Baker, Wurtz-Aldrich, Martin-Harris, Ronningen-Deetz, Osborne-Webert, Wert-Chapman, and Thompson-Downing teams.

There will be four rounds of debating beginning at 11 a. m. and ending at 5 p. m. The school with the highest percentage of victories will be declared the winner.

At 6 p. m. the debaters, judges, and coaches will retire to the cafeteria where the tournament will be concluded with a banquet at which Daniel Dykstra, Pi Kappa Delta president, will preside as toastmaster.

Pupils in the Junior High Department of the training school will present "The Band Wagon," an operetta, in the college auditorium Thursday evening, March 24.

The leading role, Betty Lu, will be sung by Mary Louise Jacobson. John Prucha will play the part of a professor and Robert Dopkins that of Betty Lu's father.

Other leading members of the cast will include: Lloyd Sherman, Selma Manuel, Evelyn Smith, Robert Knapp, Harold Edkins, Norman Johnson, Betty Alton, and Carolyn Goble.

Leone Timmerman and Jean Sherman will play the parts of two negroes.

The plot concerns a group of band boys who have come for a band tournament and meet a girl's chorus which has come for a concert.

Under the Direction of Professor B. J. Rozehnal, the college concert band will present its sixth annual Spring Concert on Tuesday evening, March 29, at eight o'clock.

This, the first formal concert of the school year, will be the first of a series of appearances to be made this spring by the band, numbering forty-five pieces.

New Games Constructed

by Professor J. P. Jacobson were used by guests at the party sponsored by the YMCA last Monday evening.

About 25 men attended. Apples were served for refreshments.

The Absent-Minded Professor Is

no longer the world's conception of an educator. The day of the sequestered, eremitic teacher is vanished; in place of the traditional absent-minded antiquity we find a versatile genius who knows what's going on in the world. He's ready, too, to defend the opinions he's formed about national and international policies.

This change is fortunate, because, in contentious times such as this, the owner of extraordinary mental powers has a real duty to perform. The average person is not always capable of recognizing propaganda: it is the duty of modern professors to disclose and evaluate the real issues. Why isn't the educator well-fitted for such a responsibility? He has nothing to gain by misrepresentation, so he can be trusted; he has a good mind and he has been educated, so he can be relied on. His work cannot be accomplished in the classroom; he must mingle with the workers, the industrialists, the greatest part of our population.

Many professors have exchanged their academic positions for some form of government service. Glenn Frank is Wisconsin's example of such an exchange; he sacrificed his college prestige to take an active part in the Republican party. Yale lost its President Angell to a broadcasting system in quest of an educational adviser.

As molders of youthful judgment, these teachers had great force. In an extended domain of world affairs their influence is even greater. The effects will show in American progress. As one writer has put it: "The world needs leaders whose motives are not suspected. The world needs men with the ability to see through sham, to think clearly, and to act unselfishly. The world needs cool, detached, reasoning, reliable advice. The world would like to see more educators picking up gavels typewriters, and microphones, and permitting their influence to extend beyond classrooms."

The Japanese Military Party Has Been forced to conduct campaigns on two fronts, one in China, the other at home. A very significant battle last week was fought, not on the good earth of China, but between the Fascist militarists and the commercial interests of Nippon.

A censored conflict is going on amid the chambers and halls of Tokyo's new Diet building. The legislators are hurling a verbal barrage at the proposed National Mobilization Bill which would kill the last vestige of a parliamentary system of government. This is in reality a law that would place all industry, finance, and labor under the thumb of the army and navy general staff.

So far Hirohito has stood by the parliament-

Slants on World Affairs

Indicate That

After following the events in Europe last week, one wonders just exactly how much time will elapse before Adolf Hitler will dominate all of Central Europe. The resignation of Austria's president Miklas virtually made Austria a province of Germany. Measures calling for complete unionization economically and politically, have been decreed.

No power in Europe will try to undo this act; that appears quite evident. But the democracies, England and France, will endeavor to make this Hitler's last seizure. Will France's new People's Front cabinet formed by Socialist Blum be able to support Great Britain? How long will Mussolini maintain an air of indifference?

England and France have been placed in an undesirable position because though they fear Hitler's "peaceful acquisitions" they are powerless to prevent them.

With the death of Clarence Darrow America loses one of her greatest lawyers. His fame as a defense attorney began when he defended Debs and later in the Tennessee monkey trial when he defended John T. Scopes.

Clarence Darrow, as a lawyer, had a definite philosophy. He wanted to defend the "unfortunates." To that cause he brought one of the keenest legal minds in America. His long career was featured by hard work and also some spectacular successes. With his power and appeal he saved the lives of many unfortunate criminals. There is no doubt that America will long remember Clarence Darrow.

ary system founded by his grandfather. He has not been afraid to discipline the military party, but the extent of the discord between the ruler and the higher circles is something the censorship does not permit to be told. As long as the Emperor is commander-in-chief of the armed forces, the people will still have a voice in their destiny.

According to the dispatches, the Japanese were told there would be a complete clearing-up of the Chinese situation by Christmas. Yet two months have gone by and the end is not in sight. Dissatisfaction and unrest have progressed to the point where they can no longer be ignored.

The recent arrest of liberals as well as Communists are indications of the fear that the authorities have for the masses. There is, however, no clear-cut conflict between democracy and fascism, but perhaps the future will tell a different story.

Hope is at its lowest ebb, and nothing can ever replace the sacrifices the people have made to achieve that which is now so far away - peace. The quiet stream of resistance may run slow, but in the Land of the Rising Sun it runs deep.

Rhapsodies

IN BLACK AND WHITE

All our humble apologies for misspelling the name of Mr. Sopkin in last week's column. We knew the correct spelling, but since we had to write last week's copy in long-hand, the linotypist evidently couldn't decipher our system of hieroglyphics. Therefore, we are making a belated New Year's resolution to use a typewriter hereafter.

Although you are reading this right now, at the time when we are writing this, "now" is just one week in the future - if you get what we mean. And with our brain so overworked thinking about our tests and how to pass them with the minimum of study, we feel extremely disinclined to do any rhapsodizing.

We have noticed that during test week the freshies all look like old hands at the game. The flutter and bustle, the worried looks and the sleepless eyes seem conspicuous by their absence. Therefore - one big bouquet of columnistic orchids to the freshman class for becoming inured to finals in such a short time.

Did everyone profit by the announcement made by one of the librarians: "Pass the word to your friends that the library will not be open next Monday"? In other words, she meant: make your dates during the day, and don't expect to get them at the Monday-night Matrimonial Bureau - known more formally as "the library."

Suggestion to the rest of the senior class: As our class gift why not replace the chunks of stained glass from the windows in the library? We personally cannot remember when those historic holes were not there.

Climaxing the Basketball Season

Coach Lowery Recently Named the Lettermen of This Year's Squad, Ten

were picked to receive letters as follows:

Harold "Nook" Blank, Falcon high scorer and a strong candidate for all-conference honors. He was placed on the Eau Claire sports editor's all-conference five.

Charley Cudney, senior, led the team to victory over La Crosse as he netted 19 points. Started the season as a forward and ended up in a guard position.

Jack King, freshman from Watertown, Wis. Saw action as a reserve. Has a nifty one handed shot.

Leon Larson, center. Colonel played consistent ball all season. Will be a real star next year.

Lee Martin, reserve, from Chippewa Falls. Martin will be all set to step into a starting position next year.

Marcel Nelson, guard, played a smashing offensive and brilliant defensive game. His timely shots pulled the Falcons out of a lot of tough places. Another candidate for all-conference honors.

John O'Brien, senior reserve, fast, capable, dependable, and hard working.

Ward Randles, forward and spark plug of this year's squad. The most aggressive man on the team.

Donald Schwartz, freshman center, who earned his spurs in his first year of competition; a rangy boy that will be a real asset next year.

John Tarpey, another freshman. John went into a slump mid-way in the season. Early in the year he proved his worth and big things will be expected of him another season.

River Falls Badminton Players

made a creditable showing last weekend at the Minnesota District tournaments held at the University of Minnesota armory. In the mixed doubles Dr. Owens and Miss Eunice Manske were runners-up, losing in the finals to Mr. "Bud" Henry and Miss Florence Haas of the Turtle Lake badminton club by scores of 15 to 12, and 15 to 8. Mr. Henry won the championship in the men's singles.

Mr. Elmer Henke won first place in the men's singles consolation tournament defeating Mr. Simms of the YMCA two games out of three. Mr. Robert Platte lost in the consolation quarter finals.

Miss Eunice Manske and Dr. Owens were defeated in the second round of singles competition, while the Dr. J. Williams-Miss M. L. Branstad team lost in the second round of mixed doubles play. Miss Branstad was defeated in the first round of singles play by Miss Melva McCready of Minneapolis.

Dan's Dope

The Stout Blue Devils came through with the biggest surprise of the recent basketball season when they took Coach Johnson's LaCrosse Indians into camp by a one-point margin. The Institute celebrated this first victory in four years by calling out the band and parading about the streets of the city for the greater part of the night.

Pep Hanson, the local sport sage, reports another sport oddity, and this one concerns the Falcon's hardcourt artists. The boys rang up exactly as many points as their opponents did during the recent campaign; 562 for the Falcons and 562 for their opponents.

With this year's squad remaining practically intact, providing all return, the boys should go to town in their 1938-39 season. While this is a long-range prediction, too long for good judgment, they will all be veterans and should be able to give a good account of themselves. There were times during the recent season when they worked together like a well-gearred machine, and it is only logical to look for more frequent periods of this type during another season of play.

Undoubtedly, the best team seen in action on the local court this winter was the Eau Claire squad. Zorn's

Completion of the First Round of the intra-mural league play resulted in a tie for first place between the Torgerson and Bartz teams. The Torgerson five, in their last game, downed Marquardt 29-15 to give them a share of top honors for the round. Dean Johnson paced the winners with 11 points, while Crowley garnered 8 points for the losers. The Hylkema quint won undisputed third position by coming from behind to defeat Marquardt 24-20. Froker with 8 points starred for the winners.

Bruce Erickson's outfit finished well up in the standings by defeating Rundell 26-18 in their last game. Dale Johnson dropped in 14 points for the winners, while Kunny made 10 for the defeated team. Henke's five won its last game by drubbing Cass 32-22 with Stene and Wesenberg leading the way by scoring 22 points between them. Healy scored 20 points for the losers.

Lloyd Frank went on a scoring spree and hit the net for 19 points, as his outfit swamped Roberts 35-16. Frank's scoring fell just three points short of the league's individual title held by Blaisdell at 115. Larson's team shoved the Staley five from the fifth position with a defeat 26-20.

THE STUDENT VOICE

Published every Wednesday of the school year by the students of the River Falls State Teachers College. Accepted as second-class matter at the post office at River Falls, Wisconsin, under the act of Congress, March 3, 1889.

FALCON basketball men set the pace in the free throw shooting contest. Seven out of the ten high men were members of the varsity squad. The ten who will participate in the final contest and their scores are as follows: M. Lindahl and J. O'Brien 22; W. Randles 21; H. Blank, C. Cudney, and G. Thoeney 20; G. Skoy 19; and C. Osborne 19; M. Nelson and L. Martin 18. Over 101 men entered this contest with the number made out of 25 chances ranging from 3 to 22.

ADVANCE dope on next fall's football prospects will soon be available. Football men will start workouts indoors this week, and the boys will journey to Northfield on April 12 to play a spring practice game with St. Olaf.

LA CROSSE was the victim of our season's prediction when they took it on the chin from the Stout Blue Devils. Now that the Stoutonians have a smell of a conference victory they will probably be much stronger. The prospects for next year look much more favorable at the Menomonie school.

CONCORDIA, St. Cloud, and Mankato have been scheduled to play tennis matches with the Falcon net men. There will be more scheduled in the future. Golf has also been added to the athletic program. River Falls will play a golf match with La-Crosse and other teams as soon as the schedule is completed.

OUR nomination for the Northern Teachers College Conference All-Star Basketball team includes seven men picked from five teams. Eau Claire's star center wins that position all alone and the forward and guard positions go to three men. Here they are: guards: Engdahl, Superior Nelson, River Falls, and Pedersen, Eau-Claire. Forwards: Becker, La Crosse; Blank, River Falls, and Solberg, Stout.

NOW that we've gone out on the limb don't take us to task for the above picks. Pedersen won a guard position because of his versatility. Lehman is our pick for the outstanding man in the conference this year.

SETTERQUIST will handle the baseball squad this spring. This will give Coach Lowery more time to devote to other spring sports such as tennis, golf, and spring football.

In Four Basketball Games Played by

W.A.A. teams last week Henning's quint won two contests. Rhodey's and Hawn's cagers each won a game apiece.

Henning's won a thriller from Hawn's on Tuesday night by the score of 35-34. With the score tied at 33 all, the game ended. In the overtime period, Henning's popped in a basket to take the lead. Just as the whistle was blowing, Parrish of Hawn's team was fouled while shooting. Given two free throws, she missed the first, made the second, losing a heartbreaker that would have given them a tie for first place. Parrish led the scoring with 21 points; Jorgenson was close behind with 19. In their second game of the week, Henning's won over Griffith's 40-35. Holding a 26-14 lead at half-time seemed to indicate an easy victory, but Griffith's team pepped up in the last half and gave Henning's a bad scare before the game finally ended.

Rhodey's team came out on top in their tangle with Griffith's 26-20 in their game on Tuesday. Trailing 11-10 honors - as the result of a tie - the Torgerson team defeated the hard-driving Bartz outfit in an overtime period by the score of 28-25. This was a thrilling game throughout, and it was anyone's game up to the final gun. The score in the first period was 5-4 in favor of Torgerson and was tied at half time 7 all. The splendid floor work and scoring of Dean Johnson of the winners was the outstanding feature of the game. He rang the net for 14 points, and also played good defensive ball. The deciding factor was the better passing of the Torgerson outfit, otherwise the two teams were even on all aspects, except the final score. This win gives the Torgerson team the right to play the winner of the tournament for the intra-mural basketball championship.

(Continued from page three) at the end of the half, they put on a spurt in the third quarter that gave them a lead which Griffith's could not overtake. Manske led the scoring with 20 while Jensen collected 13 to pace the losers.

Rhodey's lost a close game to Hawn's on Thursday by a 17-16 count. Tied at the end of the regular playing period at 15 all, Rhodey's scored a free shot in the overtime to gain a one point lead. Just before the final whistle blew ending the overtime period, Pedersen dropped in a field goal to give Hawn's the game 17-16.

DAN'S DOPE

(Continued from page three) boys had everything expected of conference champions and the tough part of it is, as far as other conference teams are concerned, that most of his men have a year or two left to play. It looks as though the Zornadoe's lean days are over for a period and now watch them play ball.

The Manion boys, Bud and Nor, both River Falls grads, saw their basketball squads come through in great style last week in their fight to get to the state tournaments. Nor Manion's boys at Luverne, Minnesota, have been district champions for the past few years and quite frequently have been threats in the state tournament. Bud Manion's boys at the local high school, continued a successful season by taking the district class B tourney at St. Croix Falls, and now head for the sectional tourney at Eau-Claire.

The enrollment of Don Johnson and Bob Teeples, both veteran baseball men, for the spring term has strengthened the Falcon's chances of having a successful season. Dan Johnson, a product of the Pepin sand lots, has held down the short stop post for the past two years, and Bob Teeples, a Black River Falls baseballer, successfully took care of the third base position as well as a regular turn on the pitching mound during the 1936 season.
