Last - Minute Comeback Beats Stout !

Art Exhibit Draws Large Attendance

The art exhibit put on under the auspices of the Art Appreciation class created such interest that besides keeping the Society Room open Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoons, it was also open Friday evening.

From 9:00 to 12:00 p. m. and 1:00 to 3:00 p. m., certain members of the Art Appreciation class were in the Society room to answer any questions about the pictures. The general public as well as students was given the benefit of the exhibition since it was open to the public Thursday and Friday afternoons and Friday evening. Each afternoon at four o'clock Miss Greene gave a short talk explaining the pictures.

The exhibition consisted of about thirty pictures from the Beard's Art Gallery and Dayton's Art Department of Minneapolis. The collection included representative copies from old masters as well as modern painters; works of both American

G. A. A. BENEFIT MOVIE TO BE SHOWN FRIDAY

Students will be interested in seeing the G. A. A. benefit movie, "Richard, the Lion-Hearted," which will be shown in the Normal Auditorium Friday evening. Wallace Beery plays the role of "King Richard," the character he depicted so successfully in "Robin Hood." The movie is based on Sir Walter Scott's novel, "The Talisman."

Admission will be 25c, an exceptionally low price for an offering of this high quality.

All old members of the Lincolnian are asked to meet in Mr. Mitchell's room tonight at 7:15 to discuss and perfect our plans for the initiation to be held tomorrow night.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE GAME

Gains from scrimmage:

R. F. 238 yds. Stout 97 yds.

First downs:

R. F. 10. Stout 5

Passes tried:

R. F. 7; completed 5 for 68 yards. Intercepted 4 passes.

Stout 20; completed 9 for 93 yards. Intercepted 2 passes

Penalties:

R. F. 40 yards.

Stout 40 yards.

HUGE CROWD FOLLOWS TEAM TO MENOMONIE

"Falls" Lights Victory Bonfire

One of the biggest and most enthusiastic crowds that ever followed a River Falls team accompanied the boys over to Menomonie last Saturday. Besides the mob of students which went over in automobiles and trucks, there was a fine representation of alumni who came over from the teachers' convention at Eau Claire. In addition, the team and a number of rooters from the local high school stayed over from their game with Menomonie High the previous day. Altho the rooting done by the crowd can still be improved on, it was considerable better than that at the Hamline game right here at home.

After the game, one of the River Falls fellows (rumor has it that it was our cheer leader) slipped away and lit Stout's "Victory" bonfire for them. As can be imagined, this pleased the Stout fans, but as far as we know, no casualties resulted from it.

All who expect to try-out for the debate squad this year are requested to meet without fail in my room Thursday, Oct. 25, at 11:35.

Rexford S. Mitchell,
Coach.

Red and White Win First Conference Game 13 to 10

In a most thrilling game of football, Coach Eggebrecht's warriors broke into the Normal Conference Saturday with a 13 to 10 win over Stout, and incidentally brushed Stout out of first place in the Conference running. To say it was a thrilling game is putting it mildly, as only those who saw the game can testify. There were thrills galore, thrills for Stout as she saw her purple and white do the seemingly impossible task of tying the score with River Falls; but the big thrill our men reserved until the last two minutes of play, when Brookes sent the pigskin thru the bars for the winning count. Incidentally he kicked dismay into the roaring Stout fans, and joy into the hearts of hundreds of Normal followers, who after seeing their team outplay their opponents, saw the possibility of only a tie game.

River Falls started the first quarter with a rush that soon put the ball in a position for a dropkick, which Ingle sent over. A penalty later put the ball on our 40 yard line, from which Stout attempted a dropkick which, however, went wide. The rest of the quarter the fellows amused themselves by making 20 and 30 yard runs.

Budget Calls For $320.00

The Y. M. C. A. is putting on its annual financial drive this week. Everyone will be given a chance to subscribe, and it is hoped that the response will be generous. The organization feels that in order to properly carry on the work of this school, and in order to meet its outside obligations as well, it will be

WE NEED A BAND

There are a couple of dozen students around school who have an enviable opportunity to help our team go through this season with an unbroken chain of victories. As yet, however, most of them have failed to take advantage of this chance. We refer to the students who can play band instruments, but who have failed to join the local band.

There is nothing which compares with a brass band when it comes to putting pep into the team and into the rooters; no big mass-meeting or torch-light parade is a real success without the stimulus of band music. A big band this year might prove just the extra amount of push that is needed to put our team through to a State Championship, if the competition is as close as it was last year. With this fact in mind, you students who can play band instruments will do well to consider very seriously if you even have a right to withhold your support from the band.

You must remember that a true River Falls student will always do everything in his power to help that team win the Championship. Most of us are limited to rooting when we want to show the team that we are back of it, but you have the extra ability of expressing yourself through band music—the rest of us would give a lot for your chance. If you want the team to win, don't fail to join the band right away.

"They say that our Normal, she ain't got no pep." Sure they do, but they don't know what they are talking about. It is safe to say that seldom in the history of this school has a strong school spirit begun to show itself so early in the year. Of course, we don't show as much life yet as we will later in the season, but we are a long way from being dead. You just watch some of these folks that go around bewailing the fact that our pep "isn't what it was a few years ago." Nine times out of ten you will find that they are showing about the least pep in the whole bunch. One thing is certain, they are showing the least school spirit.

THE HOMECOMING PARADE

We read of council committees from one town going on tours to inspect certain phases of civic development in other towns. Those students who saw Stout's homecoming parade last Saturday should serve this school in a similar capacity, for one of the best ways to check up on ourselves is to compare our activities with those in other schools.

For instance, the Menomonie parade certainly had much more variety than ours; too many of our floats are built with army trucks as a foundation. Again, more of their organizations were represented—their school paper, their annual, their glee clubs, etc. Finally, they had lots of clowns and comic floats. All of these things should give us valuable suggestions for our own parade.

We do not wish to be understood as advocating that our parade should be a replica of Stout's, but we do feel that by taking suggestions from that parade, as well as retaining the better parts of our parades of the past, we can this year put on a parade that will exceed anything that we or any other normal schools have ever done.

THE DEBATE TRYOUT

A box on our front page this issue carries Coach Mitchell's call for aspirants to positions on the debate squad. Perhaps a little additional information along this line might be of value. In the first place, all people who were members of last year's team retain their places on the squad without trying out. This means that there will probably be five places open on the squad of twelve. The try-out for these places will be held a few weeks from now. At the meeting Thursday, the question for the tryout will be announced, and you will be assigned to one side of the topic. It is imperative that you come to this meeting if you are going to try out, as all are expected to draw for sides at the same time. If you are still undecided as to whether or not you wish to try out, why not talk it over with Mr. Mitchell today?

HOMECOMING

(Note.—The editor of the "Stoutonia" expresses the spirit of Homecoming Day so well in his last issue that we are copying his editorial for the benefit of students here who have never experienced a Homecoming Day.)

"Tomorrow Stout celebrates her Homecoming. Old grads will again be seen on the campus strolling between the buildings, cherishing the site which for them holds such a host of pleasant memories. Classmates and friends will be afforded the opportunity of peacefully chatting over the past. Alumni will find themselves placed in environment productive of the thought of the bygone days spent in classrooms, clubrooms, on the gridiron, and at social gatherings. Pranks and interesting incidents, harbored in the mind are again renovated, spoken of, and laughed over by the participants.

"To the present students the day is also full of enjoyment and thrills which are experienced at any celebration. Strong interest is centered on the gridiron battle which practically decides whether Stout is again going to be the proud possessor of another State championship.

"From the standpoint of the individual this spirit of celebrating is entirely commendable. To a group of alumni and students, however, should Grace Preper visited in St. Paul last week-end.

"Byke" Cleberg and Jack Price spent Sunday in Durand.

Why the reign of Terror? G. O. P. initiation Thursday night.

"Jake" Fogo and Cyril Kaney went to Portage for the week-end.

Linea Freberg and Evelyn Nelson visited in the cities Saturday.

Bernitta Sprague and Lucy Cotter spent the week-end in Minneapolis.

Theresa Kerg of Elmwood, a student here last year, visited school Friday.

Mr. Davison and Mr. Hunt attended the Teachers' Convention in Eau Claire.

Ann O'Malley's dad spent last Friday in River Falls, visiting "Miss O'Malley."

A boy's idea of a "waster" is a girl who wears silk stockings without crossing her legs.

Mr. Merle Ames of Sheboygan, visited his brother, President Ames, a few days last week.

Helen and Jeanette Anderson went to their home in Deer Park Friday for the week-end.

Irene and Irma Berkold and Norma Young attended the County Fair at Lake City last week-end.

Markham Morton attended the Convention of the Izaak Walton League in Janesville last week.

Ursula Gauvin and Gladys Mason, Genevieve Stewart and Helen Sutherland visited in the cities Saturday.

Dutch Zimdars was lamed up with a sore foot at her home in New Richmond the latter part of last week.

Some of the girls report that Sid Holden is out for "track." Quite early, but the early bird gets the worm.

President and Mrs. Ames drove to Eau Claire Thursday. President Ames attended the Teachers' Convention.

Don Boardman's folks visited him last Saturday. They brought along his brother Gordon, who is one of our grads.

Connie Miller, Harold Heggen, and Edward Follansbee stayed at Annette Lanckton's home while in Menomonie last week-end.

Evelyn Peck hastened to her home in Menomonie Friday. Yes, for the game, but also to assume her duties of "aunt" for the first time.

Miss Weberg and Miss Haddow did not meet their classes last Thursday due to the fact that they attended the Eau Claire Convention.

Neal Bartholomew, a former student, visited River Falls over the week-end. Neal is now taking engineering at the U. of Minnesota.

If you see a student leisurely walking around school looking like the last check from home you can be sure he is just about to have his picture taken for the Meletean.

After the Stout game, Angelina Werrell, Catherine Gabriel, Joe Freestone, and George Van Brunt "flivered" to Colfax, where the former were guests of the latter's parents.

Evelyn Elliott and Fern Davis, both grads of last year, visited old friends in R. F. Sunday. Evelyn is teaching at Cumberland. Carl Miller got "off duty" for the occasion.

River Falls was almost a deserted village last Saturday. Although the large part of the student body went to Stout, quite a few girls went to St. Paul to buy some vanity cases, etc.

Roy Segerstrom took Cora Younggren and Bessie Newell to Bessie's home in Durand last Sunday. They had a wonderful trip with the exception of a few blow-outs and punctures.

Wanted to know: Miss Hazel Goff would like to know who left the mysterious box of candy at her house. Will the young man who left it please call at her house some convenient night at about eight o'clock? Miss Goff is greatly excited.

Fred Kellar out for rides in his Hudson coach. Last Friday afternoon Ped McDermott and Alice Hagen had the pleasure of riding to Prescott with him.

This bit of advice may be too late; but if any of the girls invited to the G. O. P. initiation have appointments with the marcellor, they are advised to break them before tonight by Lois and S. P., Bessie N., Gertrude M., and Ange W., last year's midseason initiates.

At the general meeting of the Third Year Senior Homecoming Committees last Thursday evening, Mr. Hayward outlined the work of the various committees. Since that date, there have been separate committee meetings, and all work calling for an early start has commenced.

If you know some interesting item about alumni bring it down to the Student Voice office or hand it to some member of the staff. We want the old graduates who come back for Homecoming to read about themselves and their friends in the "Homecoming Edition" of the Student Voice.

Organizations

N. C. A.

The program for N. C. A. last Thursday evening consisted of:

- Business Meeting
- Piano solo—Helen O'Brien
- Talk on his trip to Pike's Peak—Father Beaudette of Somerset.

AGRIFALLIAN

Six new members were received into the organizations with appropriate ceremony. John Burke acted as initiation master and he certainly kept the applicants on their toes. The meeting proper included:

- Music -----Four piece orchestra
- Report on "National Dairy Show"—Henry Pederson
- Talk, "Democracy"—John Burke.

There are still a few men who are eligible to membership in our organization. Come out and make yourself a factor in its success.

LAST-MINUTE COMEBACK BEATS STOUT

At the start of the second quarter the fellows again marched down the field, and made first down on Stout's 6 yard line. Three line plays failed to put the ball over, so Mike shot a pass to Maeir, who went over the line unmolested. The rest of the quarter was a repetition of the first. During the first half, we made seven first downs to Stout's none, and 125 yards from scrimmage to Stout's 20. Stout started strong in the third quarter, but our fellows soon got under way, and continued making brilliant runs. They were, however, unable to score during this period.

The last quarter Stout pushed the ball down the field and into position for another kick. This one was successful, making the score 10-3. Getting the ball again, they again marched down the field, this time making first down on our one yard line. Two plunges then put it over, tying the score at 10 all. However, with their characteristic River Falls fight, our team got going again and rushed the ball down right in front of the Stout goal posts. Brookes was sent in at this point and put over the winning dropkick. Score 13-10.

MORE OF "THIS AND THAT"

Helen Anderson went to Deer Park over Saturday and Sunday.

Ursula Gauvin and Gladys Mason visited in St. Paul Saturday.

Marie Schmidt visited Annarose, her sister, last Saturday and Sunday.

Evelyn Nelson and Linea Friberg were in the Twin Cities Saturday and Sunday.

Lucile Johnson and Helen Lotz were at home in New Richmond during the week-end.

Saturday Ryda Morgan visited her sister in Minneapolis. Her sister attends Macalester College.

The girls invited to the Grand Old Party tomorrow night should wear their worst looking clothes.

Jennie Golden of Hudson, a summer school student last session, visited Merle Smith over the week-end.

Lucile Mallott claims the reward offered by Helen Sutherland for taking the cat off the school premises.

The moving pictures that Professor Malott shows us for Psychology give us "Galloping Nerves." Not a comedy.

Charlotte Younggren, '23, visited Cora Younggren last Sunday. Charlotte teaches at the Van Buron school in St. Paul.

Professors Mitchell, Jacobson, Malott and Segerstrom attended the Sunday school convention at Prescott Saturday.

Helen Wilen, ex'24 motored down from New Richmond Thursday to visit friends and subscribe for the Student Voice.

Kendall Wentz, '23, came up to school Thursday afternoon to look for people he knew. A few of the old gang are still left.

Ruth Holden, '24, stopped here Thursday morning on her way from New Richmond to the Eau Claire Teachers' Convention.

Some of Mr. Goble's students wrote literary masterpieces on the beauty of nature last week. Standings (?) are proof of it.

When Lester Jacobson asks you, "Have you seen Donna Brown?" He does not mean Donna at all; he is referring to her satellite, Marie Lundy.

We read in the paper that a marriage license has been issued to Ole Pederson, Boyceville, and Helen Lovell, River Falls. Helen graduated in the class of '24.

Lois and Lila, the Slausons, and Helen Lynn all spent the week-end at their homes in Hudson. They all go to Hudson, but refuse to say how long they stay there.

The Stout game appeared to be a River Falls homecoming as well as a Stout Homecoming. A few of our former students at the game were: Connie Miller, '24, Eleva; Bessie Moe; '24, Hammond; Pungie Miles, '24, Kendall Wentz, '23, Raymond Hefron, '24, Hammond; Vidle Tubbs, '23, Hudson; Ed. Murphy, '22, Ellsworth; Ed. Casy, '23, New Richmond; Vi White, '23, Cumberland.

A letter was received from Roy Kees, '24, telling of his splendid success with his football team at Rochester, Mich. His team has won all of its games so far with the following scores: 40-0, 15-14, 19-0, and 77-0. He has five games left, of which is the only questionable one is with Detroit High School. Thus his chances for corraling the State Championship seem mighty bright. His Alma Mater is certainly behind him with the best of wishes.

NEW MUSIC INSTRUCTOR

Students of music, and particularly of the piano, will be glad to know that Mr. Geere has obtained the services of Miss Cara Wharton, teacher of piano and organ in the MacPhail School of Music. Miss Wharton will give us one or two days a week, depending on the amount of interest shown in her courses. Besides her regular work as teacher of piano, Miss Wharton will form a class in Normal Methods if there are enough who teach piano music who are interested in the formation of such a class. Students who would like to take the instruction in piano, but who are unable to find a place to practice, see Mr. Geere about it.

We certainly are indebted to Miss Green and the Art Appreciation class for giving the students and townspeople an opportunity to see such an excellent art exhibit.

POETRY?

It would be hard to convince anyone who saw the Stout game last Saturday that any of our football "maulers" have any poetic temperament. However, this is a sample of what one of them does in his spare time:

I've got a tattered pair of shoes
The soles are worn through
They've been companions to my feet
Since they were young and new.

They're comely in appearance
And far from being neat,
But two friends n'er were closer
Than those shoes to my feet.

They've weathered rocks and shed
the rain
And things I cannot see
Like little prisons to the feet
Which are so dear to me.

I've never known them to fail
Or have I heard them fret
Because I left them in the dark
When they were cold and wet

They seem to bear affection
With a stately sort of grace
In the way they gripped my bottoms
With a firm and close embrace.

But now through age and lapse of time

Their working days are past
The soles are worn and weary
And they've weakened at the last.

But ah! how stately was the end
"Twas like the "One Hoss Shay"
They stuck together to the last
And fell apart today.

But ever in the passing years
My weary feet will pine
For the comfort and affection
Of those "tattered shoes of mine."

Does not the homecoming celebration bear a deeper significance? It is not our duty to review silently in our minds the altruism, labor, and leadership it has required to make our Alma Mater capable of offering the privileges and opportunities we have or are at the present enjoying. The foresight of the founders is indeed to be praised, and the sacrifices which they have made in the interest of our institution are indeed worthy of appreciation.

"Let us then co-operate and in a united body display a genuine Stout spirit, not one of the haphazard kind but one of an appreciative nature recognizing the greatness of the day."

FOOLISHNESS

"Is my daughter forward?" asked the woman on the "night flyer."

"If she was, I never noticed it," answered the conductor.

"So your are leaving Normal. Well, going to college for a M. D.?"

"Nope, not exactly, but for a M. A. N."

"Fadder, I am awful varm. Puy me some ice cream."

"No, no, but I tell you some ghost stories vat'll make your blood run cold."

"There was a panic at the movies last night."

"What, a fire?"

"No, the place was suddenly plunged into complete light."

An Englishman writes to his wife from Rome: "I have visited the Forum and the Coliseum. Ah, if you only knew, my dear, how I thought of you as I gazed at the old ruins!"

She—I'm sorry Fido bit you, sir. What can I do to make amends?

He—Well, when I was a small boy a kiss would make any injury well.

She—Why certainly that's it. Fido kiss the gentleman.

Editor: Where did you get this joke?

Reporter: It just ran across my mind.

Editor: You better elevate the crossing.—Royal Purple.

"I tell you, gentlemen," exclaimed the open-air orator, "and the experience of a lifetime confirms my statement—that if you want a thing well done you must do it yourself."

"How about getting your hair cut?" asked a man in the crowd.

Landlady to new student: "You are sure you have no pets, no portable victrola, no ukelele, banjo or any other instruments or noise makers. If this is the case you're the roomer I'm looking for."

Student: "I don't want to hide anything from you, but I might say right now that I have a fountain pen that squeaks a bit."
