Hutchins and Pinter Make Hit as Chauffeurs

The lonesome little Juniors were given their first opportunity to forget they were in a strange land at the annual "mixture" last Friday evening.

A contest of ludicrous races between five sections started the party off with a rush. The Pinks won and "Buck" White gratefully accepted for his group, a bi-funnel loving cup.

A program followed in which Miss Ethel Lemmer, our new violin teacher, played "Andante" by Gluck and "Orientals" by Cesare Cui; Catherine Chapman, Anna O'Malley, and Reynold Jensen presented the Y. W. C. A., the N. C. A., and the Y. M. C. A., respectively; Rev. G. A. Bird gave "The Bells of St. Mary's" and "A Wee House 'Mong the Heather." President Ames extended a welcome to all in the name of the school and of the three Christian organizations.

A baby carriage race with two sweet infants, Bessie Needham and Orma Erickson, driven by the chauffeurs George Hutchins and Winfred Pinter finished the evening with a flourish.

ENROLLMENT REACHES FIVE HUNDRED MARK

Students continue to arrive on the campus bringing the enrollment to about five hundred. It is expected that this mark will be passed during the present week.

The enrollment by departments is as follows:

Grammar Grade Teachers,	43
Intermediate Teachers	39
Primary Teachers	75
Principals	48
High school Teachers	106
Junior H. S. Teachers	26
Rural Teachers	68
Agriculture Teachers	70
First Three Years of Five Year Course	25
Special	2

Donald Boardman, editor-in-chief of the 1923-24 Meletean, and Carroll Brown, business manager, went to St. Paul Saturday, on Meletean business.

NEW JUNIORS TAKE HOLD WELL, SAYS DAVISON

Too Early to Pick Out Gems of Class

To me this year's Juniors appear not only possible but probable. I like the way they are taking hold, and the way they are attempting to clearly define what to them is the new situation. There are always gems to be uncovered in every class, but 'tis too early in the digging and polishing process for one to know how many Junior gems there are.

Capt. Reinke Will Not Return

Several New Stars Join Squad.

Eau Claire and Stout Get Early Start.

Coach Eggebrecht reports that football practice is progressing rapidly toward the development of a promising team. "Poge" Moline has returned and will no doubt hold down the pivot position. Ziebell and Heffron are now out for practice. We regret the Capt. Reinke will not be back.

Forty men are now out regularly. There are available twenty line men, nine ends, and eleven backfield men. The first real scrimmage will be next Saturday afternoon. Turn out and see the men in action.

Stuot and Eau Claire have the edge on River Falls in begining practice a week earlier on their local gridirons. Both of these instutions have a large number of men out and are predicting championship teams this year. Stout had a squad practicing at Chetek during August. Coach Simpson of Eau Claire had fifteen of his men in training at Camp Custer, Michigan. Six of these men played on the Wisconsin team there all summer and are given much credit in helping Wisconsin defeat Illinois and Michigan.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

President and Mrs. Ames will entertain the members of the Normal School faculty at their annual reception. This reception will take place Thursday night in the society room of South Hall. The program is to be an excellent one; Miss Lemmer and Mr. Geere will furnish the music, and Miss Schlosser and Mr. Davison will speak. Refreshments are to be served. With these numbers assured, the entertainment is a certain success.

The following mailing subscriptions have been received since the last issue:

GET ACQUAINTED WITH THE FACULTY

In a school like this we often find it to be the case that students regard members of the faculty as heartless, unapproachable beings, to whom only the older, more "intellectual" students can have access. They seem to think that a faculty member's aim in life is to ask questions that cannot be answered, and to flunk as many students as possible. On this account they miss many of the richest associations to be derived from schol life.

Think of your teachers as your friends, with the benefit of a little more training and experience, it is true, but using this training and experience to help guide you along the same paths. They are always ready to help you, with advice or information. If you get stuck with a lesson, go to the teacher for help, don't give it up as a bad job.

Most of the members of the faculty are men and women whose friendship will be a benefit to anyone.

Try it, and convince yourself that your teachers are human beings like yourself, ready to congratulate you in good fortune, or to help you in trouble.

Last year it became nearly impossible to get any work done in the Student Voice office, owing to the number of visitors always around, with nothing to do.

The room is turned over to the Student Voice staff, as a place in which to work, not in which to entertain friends, and if it is used otherwise, faculty members cannot be blamed for objecting.

We don't wish to seem ungracious or rude, but we should like to make the request that you will refrain from hanging around the Student Voice room, unless on business. If you come on business, however, you are perfectly welcome.

Y. M. DRIVE TO START

The annual drive for members of the Y. M. C. A. will be on tomorrow and Friday. A number of fellows with lists and pledges will be around and every Protestant man in school will have his name on someone's list.

Think it over seriously, men, and see if you don't really believe that it will be to your advantage to sign up with the "Y." Here are a few reasons why you should join:

You become associated with the best, most seriously-purposed group of men in school.

You are connected with the greatest movement for the betterment of students in the world at the present time, and through it, with the greatest religion the world has ever known, the one founded by Jesus Christ.

As an active member, you receive a privilege card which entitles you to the privileges of any Y. M. C. A. building.

These are only a few good reasons why you should affiliate with the Y. M. C. A. Think it over, men, and be ready to say "Yes" to the "Y." representative when he approaches you tomorrow or Friday.

HORSESHOE GOOD LUCK

A hurrying business man stopped abruptly at the sight of a horseshoe in the street, smiled and said genially to the chauffeur of a nearby taxicab, "Good luck for me today, eh?" And when he had passed on the chauffeur observed to me with disdain, "Good luck, nothin', that's the fifth guy that's spotted it and thought it was lucky for 'm and not one o' them had the nerve to pick it up."

There will be a mixer Friday night in the basement of the Congregational church, at 7:30. There will be games, stunts, and refreshments. Everyone who cares to come is invited to be present. A good time assured.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold its meeting Tuesday night at the usual time and place, but with an unusual meeting. President Reynold Jensen will speak, and no old member or prospective member can afford to miss it. There will also be some special music.

PRES. AMES MAKES GOOD TALK

You men, who missed President Ames' speech at the Y. M. C. A. last night, have something to regret.

Mr. Ames prefaced his talk on school traditions with congratulations to the society on the good turnout for the first meeting, and expressed the hope that the good start would be kept up.

After a short sketch of school history, he introduced his first tradition, an undercurrent of "serious, Christian purpose." This purpose, according to Mr. Ames, may not make as much noise, or be as conspicuous as some other of the school traditions, but he places it first in his list.

He touched on several other traditions, such as unswerving loyalty in victory or defeat, high scholarship, and a spirit of good sportsmanship.

In closing he stressed the spirit of friendliness and democracy which has prevailed at River Falls since the time of Pres. Crabtree, to whom Mr. Ames gives most of the credit for the inauguration of this spirit.

We have heard rumors of a dance being planned for a week from Friday night. This will be welcome news to the followers of the terpsichorean art here, as well as those who like to dance. Let's go.

Eleven of the seventeen students of the Normal who graduated from New Richmond High School had a reunion in the form of a wienie-roast at the Lodge, Monday evening. They were Helen and Jeanette Anderson, Anna O'Malley, Helen Lotz, Harriet Sakrison, Romola Cheney, Philip and Fred Neary, Ray Heffron, Aloysius Williams, and Clarence Casey. The others from N. R. H. S. are William Wichelman, Catherine Stevens, Margaret McDermott, George Williams, Laura McNamara, and Miss Torgeson.

MATRIMONIAL

Benson-Bergh

Mr. Elmer Benson, '17, and Miss Della Bergh, '17, were married last Monday at the bride's home in Clayton, the Rev. G. A. Bird of this city officiating. Both bride and groom are River Falls graduates, and will probably make their home here, as Mr. Benson is employed here as manager of the A. W. Lund Co.

We extend the couple our congratulations and good wishes, in the name of their many friends, both among the faculty and the student body.

Van Heuklom-Bergh

Mr. George Van Heuklom, '20, and Miss Esther Bergh, '19, were united in marriage on the 29th of last May in Clayton, the home of the bride's parents. Both are well known here, since they are both graduates of the River Falls Normal school, and their many friends extend them the heartiest of good wishes.

Genevieve Stewart and Sigrid Rasmussen hiked to Hudson last Saturday afternoon. Because of the lack of money they were forced to "hook" rides returning home that night.

A MESSAGE TO GARCIA

My heart goes out to the man who does his work when the "boss" is away, as well as when he is at home. And the man who, when given a letter to Garcia, quietly takes the missive, without asking any idiotic questions, and with no lurking intention of chucking it into the nearest sewer, or of doing aught else but deliver it, never gets "laid off", nor has to go on a strike for higher wages. Civilization is one long, anxious search for just such individuals. Anything such a man asks shall be granted. He is wanted in every city, town and village—in every office, shop, store and factory. The world cries out for such; he is needed and needed badly—the man who can "Carry a Message to Garcia."

—Ellbert Hubbard.

"The Store of Personal Service"

We recommend that the girls who can change their bobbed locks to puffs and rolls over night sell their "hair grower" to the Newborough's Heppicide Co., or some other manufacturer of hair tonics.

Vidle Tubbs, Alpha Younggren, and Pauline Norseng, members of the class of '23, who teach at Hudson, Spring Valley, and Hammond, respectively, visited at their homes in River Falls over the week-end.

The first G. O. P. meeting will be held Wednesday. All of last year's members should turn out to elect their new officers.

Kathryn Montieth spent the week-end at her home in Roberts.

The first meeting of the Meletean staff was held last Tuesday.

Your Satisfaction Our Success

Members of the Student Voice staff are laying enthusiastic plans to transform their office from the barren, uninviting room which it now is, to a pleasant, business-like place in which to put out the paper.

A couple of the cubs are making curtains; pictures, pennants, etc., are being looked up, and when we get through, you won't know the old Student Voice office.

Students will have charge of the largest part of Thursday's assembly, in presenting the work and aims of the various organizations of the school. This is the best opportunity that new students will have to find out about the various organizations and to decide which one or ones they wish to affiliate themselves with.

If you ever want to see a fellow as nearly crazy as is possible, come down to the office of The Times publishing Company some Tuesday afternoon, and watch the editor of the Student Voice trying to think of something to fill up the paper with. Honest, folks, it's a man-size job. Help by using the contribution box, won't you?

Friday night is reserved for the receptions given to the new students by the various churches. If your particular church is not represented in River Falls, or if you have no preference, you will be welcome at any of the churches.

All students are invited to attend the Lutheran Y. P. S. reception to be held Friday night, at eight o'clock, in the Forester Hall. There will be a short program, refreshments, and a general good time is guaranteed by the committee in charge.

Evidently the fellows that sit at the table reserved for the girls in the library methods class, do not believe in signs.

Miss Lemmer reports that the number of candidates trying out for orchestra work is very encouraging. The first regular practice will be held tomorrow (Thursday) night at four o'clock, and it looks as though the school is going to have a real orchestra this year.

The Lincolnian Debating society will hold its first meeting of the year, tonight at four o'clock in Mr. Mitchell's room. As this meeting is for the purpose of reorganizing the society and starting it off on another successful year, all the members are urged to let nothing keep them away.

The position of assistant editor, and assistant business manager on the Student Voice staff are still open. If you want to try out for one of them, see the editor at once.

Yesterday's assembly period, except for a song and some announcements, was given over to preliminary class meetings for election of temporary chairmen, and nominating committees.

A card was received from Miss Robinson yesterday by Romola Cheney. Miss Robinson is improving, but rather slowly at her home in Cedar Falls, Iowa.

If you have wondered why Don Boardman looks so despairing these days, just say "storm windows" and you'll find out.

First Ag. Man: "What's the noise upstairs?"

Second Ag. Man: "That's Virgil Volla draggin' his heavy underwear across the floor."

Sumner Roberts: "The other night as I was reading ghost stories, a female shape suddenly appeared before me!"

Don McKinnon: "Specter?"

S. R. "Lord, no! Wouldn't have been scared if I had."

Don Boardman: "When one is sitting by a pretty girl (as I am) and when one loves her very, very dearly (as I do) and when one is very, very good, (as I try to be) isn't one allowed to ask for just one kiss?"

Kate Chapman (in alarm): "Oh, but one never does."

D. B.: "Well, I wouldn't object to two."
