River Falls High School Wins Top Forensic Honors at Contest Held Here

For the third consecutive year the River Falls high school won the sweep stakes trophy of the high school forensic district contest Saturday, April 19, held at the River Falls State Teachers College.

The local school had a total of 17 points. There was a tie for second place between Frederic high school, New Richmond high school, and the Dunn County Agriculture Consolidated school, each having 8 points.

River Falls had 5 "A" rating and one "B" rating speeches. River Falls students taking part in the contest were Bob Lovell, Alberta Quandt, Patricia Milbrath, Audrey Hanson, Ignatius Baird, and Dean Gordon. All "A" contestants of this district contest are qualified to enter the state contest at Madison on April 26.

Other contestants going to the state contest are Lila Danielson from Spring Valley, Kenneth Rachkman of Frederic, Sylvia Jensen of Milltown, Pat Besau and Tom Ryan both of New Richmond, and James Behling of Amery.

The judges of the contest were: Harold LeVander, a practicing attorney at South St. Paul; Bernhard LeVander, research assistant of Governor Stassen; and Anne Simley of Hamline University.

Paul Prucha acted as general manager of the contest.

Peg Monteith Chooses YWCA Cabinet Members for 1941-42

The newly elected president of the YWCA, Margaret Monteith, has chosen the following girls to work on the cabinet: Esther Solheim, social service chairman; Evelyn Rydeen, music chairman; Mildred Fleming, finance chairman; Carol Whitaker, publicity chairman; Marjorie Thompson, social room and worship service chairman; Alma Sumner, program chairman; Irene Hophan, project chairman, and Helen Rustin, bulletin board chairman. Other officers, vice president Jeanne Treadwell; treasurer Vonnie Fellrath; and secretary Anita Setter, were elected at the regular election meeting.

The new cabinet works jointly with the old cabinet until the end of the third term. Installation of new members will be Monday night. A tea will be given soon in honor of the new cabinet.

The girls who attended Camp Iduhapi last week were Carol Whitaker, Marjorie Thompson, Lorree Helgeson, Jeanne Treadwell, and Mildred Fleming.

Math Club To Meet April 30

Several topics of interest to the Math Club members will be discussed Wednesday, April 30, Mildred Hillestad shall relate her knowledge on Numerology and Numbers. Abacus and Number Systems are subjects on which Norman Larson will lecture. Last but not least, Stanley Palm will clear up all mysteries concerning Circulating Prodigies.

16 High Schools To Participate in Annual Music Festival April 25-26

Senate Names Committee To Nominate Candidates

The Student Senate held an important meeting Tuesday night at which nominating committees were chosen to select candidates for next year's Senate. The names of the candidates chosen will be published and later voted upon by the student body.

River Falls Students To Enter Speech Tourney

River Falls will send five contestants to the speech contest at Eau Claire, April 26. Dolores Kramschuster will enter the newscasting contest which is being introduced for the first time. Other entries are Katherine Lynch in original oratory, Virginia Griffith and Georgia Hopkins memorize dramatic poetry, and Irene Raawe extempore speaking and discussion. There are no separate groups for men and women.

Schlosser Selects "Our Town" For Senior Class Play

Our Town, a three act play written by Thornton Wilder, has been selected by Miss Nellie L. Schlosser, adviser of the college Masquers, as the senior class play to be given in the college auditorium, May 22.

The play depicts the life of common people in the small town of Glover's Corners, New Hampshire. The first act takes the audience into the privacy of the Gibbs and Webb homes. The love affair of George Gibbs and Emily Webb is the theme of the second act. The third act takes place in a cemetery.

The cast includes almost forty, and the play is presented without scenery, the stage manager calling for the scenes to be portrayed.

During 1939 the play was awarded the Pulitzer prize as the best play of the year and critics have praised it highly.

Rural Life Club To Plan Spring Banquet

At the Rural Life club meeting on Thursday evening plans were made for the annual banquet and the spring picnic. The program consisted of numbers by the rural double quartet, a quiz contest won by the sophomores, and community singing.

Mr. John R. Barton, of the department of Rural Sociology, University of Wisconsin, talked to the club members Friday morning. He discussed the plans for the ninth annual Rural Life conference, which will be held in Madison on May 2-3. The theme of the conference is "The Role of the Rural Community in Strengthening Democracy." At present 24 members of the club are planning to attend the conference at Madison.

Three members of the rural graduating class have recently signed contracts to teach in St. Croix county. Bertha Wilhelm will teach the Lincoln school, Mildred Wink will teach at Hillcrest, and Kathleen Ryan will teach the Oak Hill School. In Pierce county Olive Spriggle will teach the Drake school, Anita Peterson will teach the Kay school, and Veta Rieken will teach the River Road school.

No Voice Next Week

There will be no Student Voice published next week. The next paper will be published May 7.

Hophan, Pearson Plan Annual Mothers' Day

Plans are at present getting under way for the second annual Mothers' Day celebration scheduled to be held on Friday, May 9, on the college campus. Arrangements for the event are in charge of Miss Irma Hathorn, adviser, and co-chairmen Irene Hophan and Muriel Pearson.

Invitations, which have been prepared by Meta Wright, Lois Hatch, and Audrey Graves, will be distributed to the students in assembly Thursday, April 24. Students are asked to send these invitations home and to urge their mothers to make definite plans to attend.

A tour of the school premises with guides to point out special points of interest will introduce mothers to campus atmosphere. Following the tour a luncheon will be given in the cafeteria for anyone wishing to attend. Tickets will be placed on sale in advance for this luncheon. In the afternoon a band concert will be presented by the college band from 1:30 to 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Arthur S. Stewart, experienced play-reader from St. Paul, has been secured to feature the afternoon program. Mrs. Stewart will read the play, Life with Father.

Following the program, a coffee hour will be held. If weather permits, this event will take place on the college lawn and will give mothers and faculty an opportunity to become acquainted.

Eau Claire Band Will Play Assembly Concert

The Eau Claire Teachers college band will play at assembly Thursday. This is an exchange program, as our band will play for their student body also. In the past we have always enjoyed these exchange programs since we are given an opportunity to see what is being done in other colleges in the state.

The Eau Claire college band is directed by Mr. Charles F. Harris.

Voice Sponsors School Dance

The gaiety of the week end reached a climax at the all-school dance held Friday night in the North Hall gym, one of the activities sponsored by the Student Voice as part of the twenty-fifth anniversary.

The absence of many of our huskier "R" club members left a fairly uncrowded dance floor for the more daring to practice and then perform a rumba to the music of Paul Leland and his Northern Gentlemen, always a student favorite. Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Wyman were chaperones.

YM-YW Attend Spring Meet At Iduhapi on April 19-20

Miss Irma Hathorn, Prof. E. P. Jacobson, and 13 students from River Falls attended the North Central YW and YM conference at Lake Independence, Minnesota, last Saturday and Sunday.

There were students and advisers from Stout, Eau Claire, Carleton, Macalester, Hamline, and the University of Minnesota campuses present to help in the program.

The River Falls delegation put on the vesper service on Saturday afternoon and also the Sunday morning worship service, having Kirby Page as their main speaker. Rev. Henry Lewis, a Methodist minister from Minneapolis, who spoke on "Has Christianity Any Answer for Today's Problems," was their speaker at the Saturday evening meeting.

Bands Will March Saturday Afternoon

Thirteen hundred music-minded students representing seventeen high schools in this district of Wisconsin, will stream into River Falls Friday and Saturday to vie for superiority in the annual two-day music festival.

The colorful band marching contest, the event which has yearly drawn interest from outsiders, will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The procession which is expected to feature twelve high school bands, will assemble on Cascade Avenue and then march through Main Street. Mr. B. J. Rozehnal has announced that his RFSTC marching band will lead the procession.

Following the band marching event, a maneuvering contest is scheduled to be held on the high school athletic field. All of the twelve bands are expected to participate in this event. Trophies will be awarded to the winners in B, C, and D divisions for the marching and maneuvering contests.

Soloists will be judged at the Methodist church, Lutheran church, and the Masonic Temple. On Friday evening a massed chorus, to be composed of approximately seven high school choruses, will present a concert in the college auditorium. This is being introduced this year as a new event on the two-day festival program.

The special contest program, open to the public, will be held on Saturday evening in the college auditorium. It will feature various groups and individuals who have distinguished themselves during the contest.

The seventeen schools which have signed up for participation in the festival are Baldwin, Clayton, Clear Lake, Ellsworth, Glenwood City, Hudson, Hammond, Maiden Rock, Milltown, New Richmond, Osceola, Roberts, River Falls, Somerset, Spring Valley, St. Croix Falls, and Woodville.

Four judges have been secured for the festival activities. E. L. Gadbois, director of the Education Department of Victor Publishing Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, will judge brass solos and ensembles on Friday and the bands on Saturday. William Schliep, Superior State Teachers College, in addition to aiding in the band event on Saturday, will judge string and woodwind solos and ensembles. In the vocal department, C. O. Thompson, Bemidji State Teachers College, will judge vocal ensembles and choruses, and M. D. Geere, RFSTC vocal director, will judge the vocal solos.

Superintendent L. H. Dawson of the River Falls high school has this year resumed his position as director of the two-day music festival. The organizations which are aiding in putting on the event are the Lions and Booster clubs and the RFSTC music department.

Dr. Bollinger Will Install Wesley League Cabinet

Dr. Bollinger, national secretary of student work, will be the guest of the Wesley League Sunday evening, April 27. He will address the group and install the league cabinet members for next year. President-elect is Stanley Atkinson; secretary, Genevieve James; treasurer, Roger Winans.

Physical Examinations

Physical examinations for four-year seniors will be held Friday afternoon, April 25 at the Health Cottage.

Men will be examined from 1 to 3 p. m., women from 3 to 4:30 p. m. Senior men who have had their draft examination here recently need not report.

Future Looks Indefinite For 1941 College Graduates

Within the next two months throughout the American nation several hundred thousand youth will graduate from the many colleges. This year, for the first time in the history of the present generation, the American college graduate faces an uncertain world made unstable by a war-torn Europe.

While sorority girls knit for the British, college men look forward with no anticipation to the future. Registrations, physical examinations, draft numbers, and exemptions are the talk of the campus. Fifteen per cent of U. S. college men will be in government service next year.

Jobs, once eagerly sought, are now forgotten; for there is the awful uncertainty. Men think of machines and power and some think of draft evasion. It was reported here on our campus, that certain individuals were attempting physical harm to themselves to "flunk" the examination. Positive plans for the future can never be made.

This is fatalism — a tragic fatalism — deep-seated in our age by previous war experience. It is noticeable on our campus and every other American campus. It is a philosophy of "don't care" and "what's the use."

The youth of the nation has again had fatalistic philosophy brought upon it. It is an immaterial result of war and perhaps another reason why college students insist that this nation must not enter war.

Enemy Aircraft Notification Newest Defense Measure

The most recent gesture toward home defense of our country is the enemy aircraft notification unit. This new system divides the United States into four zones with about 150,000 persons in each zone.

Any enemy aircraft seen over our land is reported immediately to the proper military headquarters from which army pursuit ships will attempt to drive the enemy ships to the ground or from our shores. In reporting these events, the observer also reports their position, and number of foreign ships. The army will speed up the plan and with the cooperation of the telephone systems, our land will become a virtual network of preparedness.

The high altitude of the large type bombers makes anti-aircraft fire useless, so it is the duty of the pursuit ships to force them down to within range. The defense air fields will be strategically located throughout the states and it by this method that they expect to make our shores impregnable.

Persons will be enlisted in this new plan as part of the home defense measure. The entire system is based upon complete cooperation between the army and the people. The system was completely dramatized recently over a national radio network and officials expressed the need for this cooperation. It is essential to the protection of our large industrial areas.

"A democratic education is an education which helps human persons to shape themselves, judge by themselves, discipline themselves, to love and to prize the high truths which are the very root and safeguard of their dignity, to respect in themselves and in others human nature and conscience and to conquer themselves in order to win their liberty." Dr. Jacques Maritain, noted French educator, visiting professor of philosophy at Columbia university, emphasizes discipline in defining democratic education. ACP.

Wilson college girls have organized 35 different types of campus "services" to raise money for their share of the seventieth anniversary fund to be used to construct a $250,000 student-alumnae building.

Spurning offers of parental aid, the girls are doing everything from manufacturing costume jewelry to serving Sunday morning breakfasts in bed to reluctant risers.

One intrepid sophomore has established a mouse-catching agency for timid housewives.

Other ventures include shining shoes, running errands, manicuring, waving hair, teaching knitting, closing dormitory windows on cold mornings and typing term papers. ACP.

English Defeat in Balkans May Bring U. S. Closer to War

Apparently the English are being defeated in Greece. All the high hopes which they may have had of forcing Germany to fight on two fronts seem to be disappearing as the German army scrambles through steep mountain passes with the same rapidity with which it rolled over the plains of Poland. Again we believe English troops are facing another Dunkirk. Also, the English seem to have lost through German advances of the last ten days in Libya what it took them six weeks to gain.

There are some material gains. First of all, the Germans were forced to fight for Yugoslavia instead of gaining it through diplomatic warfare. Undoubtedly, that wasn't part of their plan, as can be seen from the three days that lapsed between repudiation of the treaty by the Yugoslav government and the actual attack. The Germans didn't want to bomb Yugoslavia and kill off the people. They wanted to keep the industries of the country producing for them. Most of the bauxite used in making aluminum comes from Yugoslavia, as well as agricultural products. Now after they were forced to destroy roads and communication centers, without a doubt Yugoslavia's contributions to Germany's economic system will be curtailed.

Even if the Yugoslavs weren't able to give much military resistance, the Greeks and English are able to resist; otherwise the Germans would have complete control by now. The Germans had to use some of their best troops as well as their best equipment and large amounts of gasoline out of their carefully hoarded stocks in order to win. Undoubtedly, many German soldiers have been killed and much equipment lost.

We can believe that this campaign has stopped German penetration into Turkey, or, at least put it off schedule. Now the whole military machine will have to be reorganized. While this is being done, American ships, under the protection of American convoys will be carrying supplies to England by way of the Red Sea.

There are also gains for England in immaterial things. By deciding to aid the Balkans, her prestige among Balkan nations has risen. Yugoslavia was the first Balkan nation to defy Germany. Already another revolt is brewing in Rumania. Russian troops are going on new excursions. Turkey is openly talking of defying Hitler. Also, Yugoslav defiance came just when the Japanese foreign minister was in Berlin to be impressed. However, in the long run, the greatest gain for England will be that this move of hers has helped to bring the United States closer to a declaration of war. For, now that we have decided to convoy ships, incidents which will lead to open warfare with Germany will come. If we declare war, German morale will fall just as rapidly as English moral will rise.

A Story from 1981 A.D.

It is quite quiet now, this early in the morning. A few brazen little birds are piping thinly.

Those old bricks? Yes, they were probably a building once. University buildings? Most probably. There's no one now who quite remembers.

The quiet grey moss inches its way through the mortar and plans gradually to engulf the area. Nearby stands the shattered stump of an old fir tree. The atmosphere is eating away its fibers.

Were there lots of buildings then? Were there lawns and walks and roses in the sunshine? See, here is a bit of an old cement pathway. It crumbles if you step on it.

There is a certain softness about the day yet. The mists are lifting, the air is cooling to the cheek. But everywhere it is so quiet.

Were there many people here then? Didn't they laugh and talk to one another? Didn't they care about the lovely old buildings?

The water in the mill stream chortles as you slap it with a little stone. It is muddy green and flows passively on its way. It is used to being left alone. There are no boats floating on its back.

Why aren't there any boats? What happen-

Names Make New 'Erish Accented Lowe Is Popular RF Co-ed

Befreckled Marlys Lowe is the recipient of this week's hall of fame honor. Although she is short in stature, a world of vim and vigor compensate in full. Now that Sol is out in full glory Marlys ought to reap a good harvest in freckles.

Little Miss Lowe is the life of the dance floor. Her repertoire of dances range from the hot swing to a dreamy waltz. Never a dull moment is had by Miss Lowe. Her brilliant red hair makes for quick identification. She has even had the name "Red" attached to her on many occasions.

Marlys is a junior in the elementary department. Her trend is decidedly toward the finer arts. One of her best-known achievements is the sponsoring of an annual sleigh ride party.

Every time you see a green Chevrolet and a red haired girl at the controls you can bet your bottom dollar its Marlys. Miss Lowe came from the local high school and followed in the footsteps of her brother. She is an ardent supporter of every contest at the college - a member of the Masquers and the college choir.

A special talent includes her novel rendition of Mabel and Maisie and her 'Erish accent now is the common lingo of every wag in college.

Popularity is her specialty - another of these interesting personalities that makes RFSTC a grand place to be.

Sleuthing with Dopey Joe

A grand reunion took place this week end. The "R" club sponsored a delightful dinner dance at the Hotel Lowery in St. Paul. Miss GRACIE LARSON looked simply stunning in her new outfit. ESTER JENSEN attended the affair in the company of DONALD. It goes that as the balloons were loosed from the ceiling, ARNO WESENBERG let a couple of dollars slip right through his hands. He also escorted an outsider. HANK HENRY surprised everybody by showing MARGY SKAGEN a real time - a budding romance of some sort. All the steadies were together so we can't report any mishaps.

It seems that ROGER HERMANSON is having a difficult time going steady. He ought to try an outsider as does ORV THOMPSON. That little feller ART NELSON is falling for that high school gal. She sells tickets, you know, at the local cinema. He can never find her at the right time but they still have every dance together.

That popular hit The Wise Old Owl doesn't seem to offer much advice to our forlorns. Some of our better knows have been out way after ten o'clock. Ain't it awful! The Gone with the Winders are again prominent. Mr. SKEATS LUNDMARK spent a buck ten on it. ESSIE SOLHEIM had some pretty classy feminine callers from Hudson last week. A nice big Oldsmobile, too.

SWEDE NELSON, CHUCK PHILLIPS, and FRED DUBBE took in the prom at Owens on Friday night. I wonder who ED JACOBSEN is going to bring to the Prom? I also wonder if BOB NICOLS will be there with MARY LOWE? I hope I can make it but business may not permit it.

To a local gal, Miss Marie Ensign went a diamond this week. It's donor, blonde, Ag man Frank Swanson.

ed to all the people and buildings? Why did they simply leave? Didn't they have any air raid shelters at all?

The sun is coming out now. Listen, the little birds are singing louder.—ACP

Behind the Eight Ball with the editor

An interesting conversation with last week's assembly speaker, Gideon Seymour, brought to light even more the tremendous world that this ace correspondent has seen. One highlight, which to the outsider seems particularly thrilling, is his casual discussion of days spent with Earnest Hemingway, No. 1 American novelist. Mr. Seymour has an understanding of Hemingway that perhaps few Americans have.

The Student Voice schedule for the remainder of the year will be quite broken. This week's front page carries a notice that there will be no issue next week. Reasons for this are many, the main one being lack of funds.

The struggle for continuity of publication has long been the goal of Student Voice editors. In the first days of publication, it was popular for staff members to dig into their own pockets to meet expenses. Now, however, the cost of publication runs beyond what even all 56 staff members could collectively "shell out" for expenses. The only exit is to cancel some of the original schedule.

We ask one thing — that no one think that the cancellation of two issues of the paper yet this year is the fault of any of the staff members. RFSTC has almost 150 less students than last year; and, this year, because of increased tuition, the activity fund, from which much of our money comes, was reduced.

Because of the continued effort of business manager Loren Thompson and the generosity of the Student Senate we have survived the third term.

Organizations wishing publicity are asked to keep in mind, however, that there will be just two more issues of the 1940-41 Voice. These will be published May 7 and May 21.

I had the pleasure last week to meet Stoutonia's editor Betty Arnuist and a few of her staff members. It is a fine paper, well-edited, and a credit to Stout Institute. Stout has its own shop, an unusually well equipped plant giving students actual experience in printing the weekly paper.

Stout Blue Devils Oppose Falcon Nine With Veteran Team Saturday

The baseball diamond at Ramer Field will be invaded Friday, April 25, by the Stout Blue Devils in the first game of the season for River Falls.

Last year the Falcons lost both encounters to the Blue Devils, 6-0 and 4-0. Six veterans form the nucleus of the River Falls nine which is out to avenge last year's defeats.

The following men will don suits for the Falcons: Mraz, Peloquin, Olson, Hermanson, Kelly, Kliszcz, Horn, Hageseth, Trecker, Riley, Noyes, Poppy, Bratberg, Greschner, Schulenberg, Miller, and Drehmel.

Coach Murphy, a former athlete at Stout, boasts that their 1941 team of veterans is the strongest in years. Although Worman, star pitcher for the Blue Devils last year has graduated, they still have Roen on the mound. He starred in the second game of the two last year between these teams.

Twenty-one candidates reported for Murphy. Besides veterans Plad, Pittman, Roen, Schwartz, Wutti, and Young, Becker, Brown, Confer, Kobin, Kropnak, Landrum, North, Ingwell, Perry, Rafferty, Shultis, Sinz, Weber, Walker, and Wegner reported to complete their roster.

Yankee Infield To Keep Team on Top in League

New York Yankees—With the best hitting outfield in either league and one of the best defensive infields, the Yanks can't miss. Pitching is a little shaky, but does it matter much when they have a DiMaggio, Keller, Dickey, Gordon, and Henrich on deck?

Cleveland Indians—A batting punch which is needed to represent a league in the World Series, is not to be found in the batting of the Cleveland boys. Feller and company will make the Indians powerful in the pitching department, and will keep them close on the heels of the pennant winners.

Detroit Tigers—The old age is finally catching up with a few Detroit veterans. The Tigers should get wise like the Yankees, and revamp their infield with new and young talent. Del Baker's hard hitting outfield will give them those needed tallies, that is, if the draft does not catch Greenberg.

Boston Red Sox—Give Cronin's Red Sox a little better pitching and things may start to happen in the 1941 campaign. They have everything else a winning team could ask for.

St. Louis Browns—Better pitching and all around tighter baseball will make the Browns the top team of the second division. Manager Haney has a few good prospective infielders who may step into the line-up and check those numerous St. Louis errors.

Chicago White Sox—Unless a few veteran powerhouse hitters pull out of their slumps, the Sox may drop even lower in the league standings. Utility fielding is a big question facing them this season.

Philadelphia Athletics—With the heavy hitting of Sam Chapman and

ALTHOUGH the golf course is still unprepared for summer activity, Prucha, Schmidt, Wayne Thompson, and Jacobson will play a match with Stout Friday.

ANKY Irish Kelly at first base will be one of Juedes' mainstays with the stick Friday. Horn and Trecker are two more consistent batters.

OF the Big Ten track stars, many are football heroes also. Paskvan and McFadzean of Wisconsin, Rankin of Purdue and Franck of Minnesota are all gridders.

NEXT Wednesday the River Falls nine plays host to Concordia and the following Saturday to Eau Claire.

T. Olaf cancelled their spring grid clash with River Falls. Before closing for the year Coach Lowery had an inter-squad game which ended 13-12. Schmidt on Boettcher's team kicked the goal.

WAA

About twenty women have signed up for softball teams which play at 6:30 on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. Anyone interested in playing is urged to come out and join in the fun.

Instruction in archery is given at 4:15 every Tuesday and Thursday for everyone interested. A tournament will be held in the next few weeks.

At the regular meeting of the WAA last Monday night, the week end of May 16-18 was chosen as the time for the annual camping trip to be held at the YMCA camp near Hudson. A banquet and a picnic are also to be held in May but as yet no definite dates have been set. An invitation to a play day at the Hudson high school on May 3 has been accepted. Five girls will be sent as representatives of the WAA.

a few other recruits, the Athletics will drive themselves out of the cellar position. The spectacular play of Pete Suder at third base has reduced the weak spots.

Washington Senators—Bucky Harris is having trouble in finding a suitable first baseman to strengthen his wavering infield. The pitching situation of the Senators is little improved over last year's failures.

Intramural Sports

The last call for intramural softball clubs has been issued and soon the umpire will call "Play Ball." Ken Rasmussen's team of Wolves will be strong contenders with Setterquist again showing his form on the mound. A star-bedecked team with such athletes as Schmidt, Kroeger, Deirmeier, and Trecker is this squad.

The Norskes captained by Ralph Peterson is composed of the sophomore ag flashes on the campus, especially Brooke, Collier, Thayer, and Dempsey. Wessels is captain of the Soaks which is mainly Webster House men including Palm, Hoeft, Willink, and Ringstad. Frank Reynolds has a team by the name of Flagenheimers which will cause trouble for the winners of the league.

The House of Andersen is ably captained by Dobberstein, air corp man, and have adopted the name of Crawlers. Lastly the Fryes under the helm of Heebink have a team, listing no athletes but they do have a mascot, Beth Feldman, of Kurtz House. Some wonder whether she will be an inspiration or a help!

The tennis tourney is also about to get under way with Gleiter, Kroeger, Nicol, Trecker, O. Thompson, Arnie Wesenberg, Clark, and Willink as tops in racket playing.

Dreads "Gaposis" Exposure "Sis" Tromm All-Around Athlete

Now that attention is again being turned to the activities of our girl athletes and their frolicking on the South Hall lawn and tennis courts, it is proper to introduce another of the outstanding women athletes at RF, Marie Tromm. Marie is a senior, completing four years of membership in the WAA.

in women's athletics, enough for the letter award. She will receive this letter later on in the spring for points awarded for her ability in basketball, hit-pin ball, baseball, bowling and hockey.

Marie is a native of Hawkins, Wisconsin, and will graduate in June with a major in elementary education. She has been active in many organizations beside the WAA. Her extra-curricular activities include membership in the A capella choir, the Mid-guardians, the women's chous, and the YWCA. This year Marie is president of the Mid-guardians.

This senior athlete has a special hatred for jazz music. However, she "thinks jiving is O. K." Right now, she is living in dread of the day that the Meletean comes out. It seems that one of her athlete's garments which she was wearing the day the WAA pictures were taken developed a case of "gaposis." Hence, her most embarrassing moment is yet to come.

Miss Tromm expects to teach directly upon graduation.

Training School Faculty Attends Oshkosh Meeting

All members of the RFSTC Training School faculty attended the biennial conference of training school teachers held at Oshkosh State Teachers College last Friday, April 18. Leaving on Thursday afternoon, the River Falls delegation motored to Eau Claire, and joined with the Eau Claire faculty in hiring a bus.

Faculty members from here who were at the meeting were President J. H. Ames, training school director Russell Johnston, Miss Gladys Zak, Miss Lois Mintener, Mrs. Adeline Patton, Miss Louise Hilder, Miss Augusta Thomas, Miss Vera Moss, Miss Nathalie Delander, Mrs. Piechowski, and Mr. Junkman.

Latin Club Celebrates Founding of Rome

The celebration of the birthday of the founding of Rome more than 700 years B. C. was the theme of the Latin club program Wednesday evening. Dolores Kramschuster acted as reader, with several members of the group taking part in the pantomime of the story concerning Romulus and Remus and the founding of the "Eternal City."

The feature of the program was the cutting of the birthday cake, which was decorated with seven candles representing the seven hills upon which Rome was built. The organization of a regular club was discussed and officers for the remainder of this year and next year were elected.

Midgardians Hear Forsythe

The Midgardians held their monthly meeting in the Social Room Tuesday evening, April 22. Mr. Forsythe, furniture dealer of River Falls was the guest speaker. He gave a talk on the history and development of tapestries.

The Midgardian election of officers was held at this meeting. The officers for the year 1941-42 will be Margaret Stronks, president; Wilma Borowski, secretary-treasurer, and Vonnie Fell-rath, program chairman.

Plans were made to have the annual picnic, May 13 at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Profs Attend Historical Meet

Dr. Justin Williams and Dr. W. D. Wyman of the RFSTC history department will attend the Mississippi Valley Historical Association convention in Milwaukee on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, April 24, 25, and 26.

Faculty Attends Musicale

A big social event of the season took place in the flower bedecked social room Monday evening, April 21. The occasion was a musicale under the direction of Miss Cara Wharton.

Refreshment were served following a program of vocal, and instrumental selections.
