All-American Music Featured in Concert

The concert band, under the direction of Mr. B.J. Rozehnal, presented their first concert at the assembly Thursday morning, January 30. The program, consisting of all-American numbers, was a representative type of music from the last half century.

The variety of numbers played proved to the audience that the band does not necessarily always play marches and classical pieces, but also plays swing and novelty numbers. This varied type of program taxes the players' minds to a greater extent than does the straight classical program.

Because of the many contemporary composers during this period, many great pieces of music had to be left out. The time allotted did not allow time for pieces by Stephen Foster, Victor Herbert, and many other great American composers.

The program played by the college concert band was presented in the following order.

- Strike Up the Band ..... George Gershwin
- March of the Steel Men ..... C. S. Beilsterling
- Deep South Rhapsody ..... Isaac - Lillya
- Pavanne ..... Morton Gould
- Excerpts from the Rhapsody in Blue ..... George Gershwin
- Military Escort Five Ways ..... Henry Fillmore
- The Legend of Sleepy Hollow ..... David Bennett
- Swinging the Ingots ..... De Loyce Moffitt
- Indian Love Call ..... Rudolf Friml
- Mardigras ..... Ferde Grofe
- El Capitan ..... John Philip Sousa

COLLECTION TAKEN FOR TRAILER FIRE VICTIMS

Through the efforts of the College Veterans Association a collection was taken at the assembly on January 16, for the benefit of the boys in Trailer III who lost all their personal possessions in the fire on January 13.

The student body and faculty gave generously and the sum of $236.36 was collected and turned over to the boys.

The occupants of the trailer, William Forsblom, Donald Techlaw and Thomas Schullo wish to thank the students and faculty for their help.

THANKS!

The VOICE has received an appreciation card addressed to the student body and signed by the three men who lost their personal belongings in the trailer fire on January 13.

The card reads:
Just a tiny greeting,
Intended to express
Sincere appreciation
Of all your thoughtfulness.
- - - Bill Forsblom, Tom Schullo and Don Teclaw.

PREDICTION RESULTS

Winners of the first five basketball score-predicting contests thus far are Allen Wernkli, Don Bauer Ione Engen, Mary Jo Murry and Don Polzin.

Pick Sub-Committees For Curricula Study

The steering committee in charge of plans for the revision of the college curricula have appointed three sub-committees to study various aspects of the curricula.

Mrs. Margaret Eide is chairman of the committee to study junior college needs. Other members are Professors Wyman, Wall, Kettelkamp, Gibson and Hathorn.

The sub-committee on professional education on the secondary level includes Miss Delander, Mr. Albert, Mr. May, Mr. Johnston and Mr. Setterquist. Miss Vera Moss is the chairman.

Miss Gladys Zak is chairman of the sub-committee on professional education on the elementary level. Her committee members are Mr. Jurgens, and the Misses Jorstad, Carrithers, Howard and Walter.

Dr. L.G. Stone is general chairman of the steering committee and working with him are Professors Lieneman, Chisholm and Rozehnal.

SIGMAS HEAR HEIFETZ AT MINNEAPOLIS BOWL

Several members of Sigma Chi Sigma attended the Jascha Heifetz violin recital at the Minneapolis concert bowl last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Heifetz began his program with a rendition of "Partita in E Major" by Bach. Other numbers of his program included selections by Catoire, Rachmaninoff and Debussy.

Sunday's concert was the first solo appearance of Mr. Heifetz in Minneapolis in four years. The program was presented under the auspices of Mrs. Carlyle Scott.

ROZEHNAL AT ST. CROIX BAND CLINIC TODAY

Director of the concert band, Mr. Rozehnal, will be guest conductor at a band clinic to be held today, January 31 in St. Croix Falls. The program will start with the individual rehearsing of the seven bands present and will be climaxed with a mass band rehearsal in the afternoon.

LIBRARY OPEN AGAIN

The college library began keeping open from seven until nine o'clock, Monday through Thursday except when there are college functions. The new hours went into effect Monday, January 27. A petition signed by students and faculty members urged this action.

MacMurray, I. U. Grad is Phy-Ed Instructor

Miss Bailey, an ex-Army officer, has replaced Miss Branstad on the faculty as women's physical education instructor. Originally from Martinsville, Ill. Miss Bailey attended MacMurray College, Ill., where she received her B.A. degree, Indiana University where she obtained her M.S., and has done graduate work at Mills College.

Miss Jeanne Bailey

She taught at Centre College, Kentucky, before her teaching career was interrupted by 40 months service in the Army. Life in the Army appealed to Miss Bailey. She was engaged in recruiting work which carried her on travel throughout four states, and prior to her discharge she worked for a time in a psychiatric ward.

Her main interest is travel. Previous to her arrival at River Falls she worked as a confidential agent for the Pullman Company inspecting their services. This job which took her all over the United States offered plenty of opportunity to fulfill her interests. As a pastime she makes a hobby of collecting sports figures. Her interests cover a wide range and as far as she can tell by her short stay here, she likes it very much, the only drawback being that she has to stay put.

NOTICE

Students graduating at the end of the second, third or summer terms are asked to report to the registrar's office as soon as possible.

CARNIVAL PLANS SET; ELECTION UNDER WAY

YM, YW TO SPONSOR ITALIAN SPEAKER

At its January 22nd meeting, a joint session of the YM-YWCA announced that it would sponsor the appearance here of an Italian girl who will speak in conjunction with the YM-YW's drive to raise money for the "World Student Service Fund."

The speaker, a native and a student of Italy, is touring the nation under the auspices of the National YMCA. All proceeds will go to the "World Student Service Fund."

The YM-YW will conduct joint sessions through the month of February. Future events include the "Puff-pant Prom" and the annual "Bean Soup Stag."

The YM, in a concentrated effort to expand its membership, has been featuring excellent speakers at its meetings. Speakers in the past have included Dr. Wyman, Dr. Stone, Rev. Keenan Sheldon, and Dr. Chisholm. Recently Dean Stratton addressed the group on the subject "Why Students Fail." Students that date heavily and students that do their own cooking, said Dean Stratton, have the best records; scholastic, that is.

Augusta Thomas Fund Initiated by Family

Members of the Thomas family, Sue Katherine, Lucy and Edward are presenting to the State Teachers College at River Falls a $500.00 award in memory of their sister, the late Augusta M. Thomas, a teacher in the Training School here since 1927. The interest of this fund shall be presented as an annual award to a worthy student in the field of Elementary Education at the close of the junior year. It shall be the purpose of this award to encourage an interest in teaching in the elementary school.

An invitation is extended to friends and alumni of the college to contribute to this fund so generously initiated by the Thomas family. Contributions may be addressed to: The Augusta M. Thomas Memorial Award, State Teachers College, River Falls, Wisconsin, c/o Miss Nathalie Delander.

WALLACE, DANIEL MAKE 'A' SQUAD

Jack Wallace and Louis Daniel have been selected as RFSTC's "A" team to debate at the Red River Valley tournament at Moorehead, Minn., February 7 through 9. The "B" team is composed of Melvin Steinbron and Lester Gaylord.

The members of the debate squad and the extemporaneous speakers with the faculty advisers, Miss Marion Hawkins and Mr. Walter Engler, spent Saturday, January 25, at the Hill Reference Library in St. Paul.

The debaters gathered material on the labor-management problem, and the extemporaneous speakers worked on U.S. foreign policy and world peace.

"JOE COLLEGE" WILL REIGN FOR A DAY

Plans for RFSTC's gala Winter Carnival are being worked out by Eddie McCollow, carnival chairman, and his general committee.

The election committee chaired by Cal Hopman and assisted by Bud Erdmann and Rudy Meehan, has the election schedule all mapped out. Thursday, January 30th, voting started for "Joe College of 1947" with each vote costing one cent. Eight candidates, two from each class, have been chosen to run in the primary election the first week, January 30 - February 6. The four highest candidates from the first week will compete for the title of "Joe College" the second week, February 6 - 13. The candidates from each class are John Storzer and Harry Frokjer, seniors; Walt Weihrouch and Gordon Vine, juniors; Wayne Sinhen and Dean Fenner, sophomores; and Merrill Johnson and Jerry Mc Gill, freshmen.

The 'R' Club is in charge of all sporting events. The committee in charge is co-chaired by Bob Olson and Dave Ruhsam and consists of John Storzer, Fred Uebelohde, and John Berggren. They have scheduled such events as a mass skating party at the high school rink on Friday night; ski jumping, cross-country races and tobogganing on the mound on Saturday afternoon. Music will be provided at the rink to get you into the 'swing' of things. To climax Friday night's activities, "Joe College" will be officially crowned so he can reign over the week end's events.

Saturday night the Falcons will meet the La Crosse State Teachers in a basketball game. Immediately following the game the Blask Hawk Aces will provide the "swing and sway" for an all school dance.

Summer Term Fate in Solon's Hands

The question of an eleven-week summer session here at River Falls hinges directly on the action to be taken by the state legislature within the next few weeks.

Pres. Kleinpell told the VOICE that River Falls will have the long session if solons appropriate the necessary funds by March 1. The money must be available by that date so that new instructors may be hired and courses planned. The funds would be authorized by a deficiency bill now pending in the legislature.

Students are assured of the six-week session. However, no new or special courses will be offered unless the administration gets the money needed to schedule the eleven-week term.

Of the 173 students asking for a summer session in the poll taken January 16, 124 of them were in favor of the long term. Vet students voting for the long term numbered 96, while 28 civilian students joined them.

G.I. FAMILIES

Although most of the students in school are only vaguely aware of it, there exists within a one block distance of South Hall a small community of students and their families. With the remodeling of the old barracks completed, twenty new families moved in. It is of these barracks and trailer families that you will be seeing and hearing much within the next few years, and in order to formally introduce them to the remainder of the students we are going to run a special column for the next few months.

Erling Hansen and his wife, the former Ruth Froiland of Dallas, Wisconsin, have resided in Apt. 2 in the barracks since school began last fall. Both are graduates of Chetek High School, class of '41 and were married on June 23, 1946. Ruth attended school here at River Falls for two years and received her degree in music from St. Olaf's. Since then she has taught music at Chetek and is at present commuting back and forth from Spring Valley where she is teaching in the high school.

Erling is, by the way, the possessor of that tenor voice which has helped to make successful the men's quartet, men's glee club and mixed choir this year. If present plans are carried out he expects to end up with a major in history and a minor in music and a teaching position. A sophomore now, he spent several terms here in 1941 before going into the army for three years. His one suggestion for improving the school curriculum was the addition of more music courses.

It might be added that he is a confirmed chess player and was straining on the leash to get back to his game by the time the interview was finished.

In one of the trailers on the campus live a couple who have gone far to make themselves popular with the student body. Carl Penno is that funky guy with a quiet but ready grin whom you will occasionally meet when going from class to class. Claiming Athens, Wis., as his home, he was married on June 29, 1946, to Margaret Mueller of Wausau.

Carl is an Ag major and has been in school since last spring. Margaret spends her time making paper files for Smeads Mfg Co. According to Margaret, the author of 'The Egg and I' has nothing on her. Relating the tale of the time when their abode fell off its blocks, she says, "just as I was cleaning the wood-work before I had time to think I was sitting on the floor surrounded by soap and water, pots and pans - plus the contents of our medicine cabinet." It seems that Willard and Mrs. Hamm had a similar experience, only their house jumped its blocks while they were in the middle of a sound sleep.

The principal disadvantages of living in a trailer are these, say the Pennos. We must carry water from a distance, shelving and closet space is limited, heating is difficult to regulate especially on cold nights, toilet facilities are bad, and when the rains come - O my poor muddy floor! On the credit side of the ledger are the advantage of being able to take your home along with you, the cost of heating is less, and in the final analysis "it is a home and in these days that's something."

The philosophy of Carl and Margaret Penno seems to be this: plenty of hard work with a lot of fun mixed in.

Among the brother combinations here at school you will find Philip Hansen, a brother of Erling, whom we have mentioned previously. Philip is a graduate of Chetek High School, class of '38 and put in four years in the army before he finally received his liberty. Immediately, however, he found himself bound with new chains when he married Eleanor Skoug, also from the vicinity of Chetek. Phil is a sophomore and plans on teaching Ag when he finishes here.

Phil and Eleanor's apartment (No. 15) is typical of the others in the barracks and I'll give you a description of what I found when I entered for an interview. In the middle of the floor sat Erling and Phil

G-Eye Views

The fight for G.I. benefits is on. Primary on the list of desired benefits is houses, houses and more houses. R.E. McLaughlin, former Navy man and lobbyist for the new vets organization, Amvets, is pushing for a bill that will give all amputees a free car. Amvets is definitely against a bonus but favors a high national veterans' budget and national defense budget.

Speaking of benefits, the last payment to the widow of a veteran of the war of 1812 has been made. Mrs. Esther Ann Hill Morgan died March 12, 1946, roughly 132 years after the close of the war in which her husband served as a private in the New York militia.

The special unemployment grant to veterans totaled more than a billion dollars last year.

Sen. Pepper (D., Fla.) has introduced legislation pertaining to the G.I. Bill of Rights. The Floridian would raise from $175 to $350 monthly the salary limit for single vets participating in on-the-job training. Married vets would be allowed $375 instead of the present $200.

Educational subsistence for single men would be raised to $100 and that for married men to $125. The bill also would abolish the four-year limit on government subsidized education and provide that veterans shall be entitled to one year plus the total time of their military service. Looks like we can get our doctorates after all.

An atomic bomb casualty commission has been set up to study the Japanese injured by the two atomic bombs and is planning a long-range survey to determine long-range effects. It has been proven that doses of X-ray affect the genes in human beings. These are the tiny cell factors that transmit hereditary characteristics from generation to generation. The results of this study are not expected to be felt for fifty years.

According to a poll of the University of Minnesota veterans a state bonus is to be highly desired. Fifty-six percent of the student veterans voted in favor of a bonus and 48 percent of the non-veterans backed the idea.

Drop Snoops

Greetings, fair friends. You asked for it. I'm back again dishing out the dirt at the old stand.

Bud Thompson is singing "Margie" these days. Laverne Kolba got engaged over the holidays. Check him off, girls. Marv Satterlund and Alene Schorn hit it off pretty well. Go down to the cafeteria some day and watch Thome moon over Audrey Janz.

Check off George Foss, too, girls - he's hooked. Gladys Briesmeister and Dale Van-something or other - do very well, too. Verda Swenson and Harold Lampson are still going strong. Midge Nelson and Jerry Siverling have been keeping company for THREE nights. John Gaustad is a woman-hater. "I manage," says John - Harry Wilson's engaged. don't check him off, though. See ya 'round.

with a table between them, concentrating on a game of Chess. The walls were of a creamy white and there were bright curtains at the windows. At one end of the room stood a refrigerator (our prize possession, says the Mrs.) and an electric hot-plate. Off the other end of the room was a bedroom. Some of the apartments, such as this one, contain two rooms and rent for $35 per month while the rest contain only one room and rent for $30.

On the ground floor is located the community laundry where the ladies do their weekly washings. A schedule has been set up so that each family has a chance to use the facilities there, each getting a period of about three hours.

About the only criticism which the Hansons had to offer was that the heat was difficult to regulate and that when the wind blew from the West the atmosphere grew rather cool. Eleanor stated that the high food prices were her principal grievance and added as I went out the door that Phil was a prospective father. I don't believe, however, that this last was meant as a grievance.

On the Lee Side . . .

with the editor

As this is written hopes for some snow for the Winter Carnival seem dim indeed! The plans have been laid, but the ski race courses cannot be laid out and other details must wait for the coming of the snows. Chairman Eddie McCollow said that we would have real winter weather. Let's hope that the weatherman doesn't make a liar out of him!

The proposal for the decentralization of higher educational opportunities in Wisconsin was discussed at the meeting of the state board of teachers college regents at Oshkosh last week.

Under the proposed plan the nine teachers colleges could expand their functions to include a liberal arts course culminating in the Bachelor of Arts degree. Dr. Chalmer Davee, regent of River Falls, was among those arguing for the new plan.

It would seem that the proposal is a sound one. It would not only give the teachers college student the opportunity for the B.A. degree (a River Falls student can get only a B.S. or B.E. degree now), but it would take some of the load from the state university.

The show must go on - it's going on again down in Dixie. This time it's the brawl going on over the Georgia governorship. Herman Talmadge, son of "Old Gene", has forcibly taken over the office with the help of his goon squad of beefy bouncers. Lt. Governor Thompson says that he will throw young Talmadge out of office. Such goings-on give one cause to wonder if the South has really reached political maturity.

Here's a bright spot on the labor-management horizon. The CIO - United Steel Workers and the United States Steel Corporation recently signed an hourly wage standardization agreement. The agreement covers most of 175,000 employees of five U. S. Steel subsidiaries and will mean more than 30 million dollars in back pay. Earlier, the management and the union had mutually agreed to extend the life of the present contract for 30 days so that they might have more time to discuss proposals and come to a peaceable settlement of their differences.

The hopeful aspect in this bit of news is the fact that USW - U.S. Steel contracts have traditionally set the pattern for the industry. There is reason to predict that other steel contracts will be signed without strikes.

The situation in the auto industry looks promising, too. The Chrysler Corporation and the UAW-CIO jointly announced extension of their contract for 30 days to enable them to negotiate unhurriedly. Perhaps labor and management have finally concluded that negotiation is the best way to settle differences.

THE LISTENING EAR

Dear Mr. Ear,

Y'know Mr. Ear, Sir, I been doing some figurin' and it looks to me as if you must get kind of lonesome sitting down there in that VOICE room all week waiting for someone to write you letters so I figured that I'd better write to you again this week even if nobody else does. If my talk begins to bore you why just think about something else while you read this. Anyhow I see that my last letter or perhaps it was the petition that was circulated around that did it, but I see that they have begun to open the library four nights a week again. Ain't that swell? I'm pretty happy about it all 'cause now I can sit there and look at that cute Williams boy all night. Gee, I wish he'd look my way once in-a-while. He's always too busy studying, though, I bet he'll really be somebody some day, might even get to be a school teacher or somethin'. He doesn't seem to be interested in women, tho, darn it, and what he doesn't do with those big mournful eyes if he wanted to. Hold me down, Donna.

Did I tell you that I finally passed a Chemistry test? It's a fact and without using my crib only I could have if I'd needed it but I didn't. Gosh, it must be wonderful to be one of those brains who can go to a show or dance all night and

LET'S THROW BUTTS-IN BUTT CANS

Several weeks ago Dr. Kleinpell addressed the male element in school and dropped the friendly hint that there was too much smoking going on in the school buildings in the wrong places. Apparently a few persons have failed to recognize that a hint was even given, for cigarette butts are still appearing in portions of the buildings where smoking is forbidden.

There have been rooms set aside in both North and South Halls where one can smoke to his heart's content and where one can throw his butts on the floor if he so wishes. The statement has been made that these rooms are inadequate and we must concede the point. In turn, however, we can offer this argument: It is within the power and within the purses of students or of organizations on the campus to provide these rooms with furniture and other facilities to make these lounging rooms more agreeable. All it would take to turn these rooms into places where one could relax is the expenditure of a little time and energy. Unfortunately, those who would benefit most by such a change are those who are least willing to do anything but bellyache about it. Those who would like to make such an improvement already have their hands full of other activities.

If no other argument will suffice to persuade you to put your butts in their proper place, consider this: the janitors here are doing an excellent job. They work hard at their regular tasks and are always willing to cooperate whenever their help is desired by individuals or organizations. Don't give them the extra work of having to bend over every few feet to pick up your discarded cigarettes.

THE 'DUKE' TOPS ESKY JAZZ POLL AGAIN

It was Duke Ellington again as a double winner, having the best band of the year and being classed as best arranger, as Esquire announced its All-American Jazz award winners recently. Four of America's greatest jazz-men won Gold Eskey Awards for the fourth consecutive year - Benny Goodman on the clarinet, Red Norvo on the vibraharp, Coleman Hawkins on the tenor sax and Louis Armstrong as male vocalist.

In the best band field Woody Herman moved up to place second to Ellington as the best band of 1946, while the controversial Boyd Raeburn organization placed as the best new band of 1946. Louis Armstrong also pushed through to capture two first place awards, as the best trumpet in addition to being best male vocalist.

The Esquire Jazz Book, which officially announced the 1946 awards, includes among its authors three of the Jazz winners - Benny Goodman, Louis Armstrong and King Cole, as well as features by such top musical men as Johnny Mercer, Gene Krupa, Frank Sinatra, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, Jimmy Lunceford and Count Basie. "Man Here Plays Fine Piano", a jump tune written especially for the Jazz Book by Joe Bushkin and Johnny De Vries, is included as a separate section in the Jazz Book.

ATTEND WINTER CARNIVAL!

still come out with straight A's and stuff and did I tell you that I was invited to the Masquer's Ball Saturday night? Yep, of course Harold said we'd have to leave before they unmasked cause he didn't want anyone to see the wreck he was with, but I don't care cause even if I did take my mask off everybody would still think I had it on anyhow, so what the heck.

Well, Ear, I guess that's all for this time and if you get lonesome just let me know and I'll keep on writing to you and if the rest of your readers like to hear me I wish they'd let me know and I'd be only to glad to keep on writing and did I tell you about . . . . .

Yers truly,
Josie

FALLSMEN DROP ONE TO IMPROVED OLES

A much improved St. Olaf quintet handed the River Falls Falcons their fourth defeat of the last five games in a slow uninteresting game played at St. Olaf January 20th. Harry Gibbs was the high scorer for the Falcons and also played some fine defensive ball.

Coach Schlagenhaut is using the rest of his non-conference games trying to find a suitable winning combination to carry his red clad cagers through the undefeated season in conference games. Falcon supporters should

River Falls Dumps Northland 57-46

The Falcons returned to River Falls last Sunday from a most successful three day road trip into far northern Wisconsin where they tripped Superior Friday night by a score of 51 - 47 and measured Northland College of Ashland Saturday night 57 - 46. River Falls encountered little difficulty with the Ashland boys as they tripled their total score three times during the game. Nate De Long was high man for the Redmen with 20 points and Benson was close behind with 15. Tomorrow night the Falcons will play Stout at Menomonie and Saturday night they will be at St. Cloud, Minnesota to meet the St. Cloud teachers.

CONTRIBUTION MADE BY ANTHONY RUNTE

Anthony Runte, graduate of 1933, has recently contributed $20 for the promotion of excellence in dramatics on the campus. This is not the first contribution made by Mr. Runte. Last year he gave $40 for the Memorial Fund, library and dramatics. Mr. Runte is now on the library staff of New York University and is the author of numerous articles. He served in the capacity of business manager of the STUDENT VOICE when in school here.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL TEAMS COMPETE

The three women's physical education classes have been divided into seven volleyball teams which will compete against each other during their daily class periods. By the process of elimination, the remaining two victorious teams will play the deciding game. In that way one team will win its way to volleyball champion of the freshman class.

Seldom Inn Trips George's Trainers

Bulletin: In the stellar clash of the 5th round competition, previously unbeaten George's Trainers were dumped from their first place tie in the heated intramural championship race by a rapidly improving Seldom Inn quintet. This game proved to be one of the best played thus far this season.

The end of the 4th round competition saw the list of unbeaten teams dwindle to three. As 5th round play begins the ranking favorites to keep on their winning ways are the Five Aces, led by such rugged performers as Vanderhoof, Schock, Wernli and the 4th Street Gang headed by the McCollow boys, Berggren and a host of other capable performers.

While these two teams rank as current favorites, the odds seem to predict a tough road ahead. Seldom Inn, with the addition of John "Ed" Winn to their roster, has been playing great ball and must be given serious consideration. Georges Trainers, (Wilson, Sydow, Sinnen, Mc Cardle and Co.) is another rugged outfit, one which will not taste defeat very often. The House of Jerney, despite an earlier licking by the Aces has been coming though for several close wins and may make trouble for the leaders of Qualman, Nugent, Ubbelohde and gang can locate the basket with more regularity.

There are other teams which have shown promise and have as yet suffered only a single defeat, such as the Six Old Men, "S" Club and the Forgotten Five. Any of these clubs are capable of making a disturbance among the upper crust.

FALCONS BEATEN IN OVERTIME, 71 - 66

Playing most of the game without the services of Nate DeLong the Falcons went down to defeat at the hands of Winona teachers in a high scoring game that ended 71 - 66.

The Falcons were definitely not "up" for this game and Winona was out for vengeance of an earlier defeat. Jerry Healy led the local scorers with nineteen points while Jim Sauer was the game's high point man dumping in twenty-four for the down river boys.
