An Appreciation of 1922 Home-Coming

(By an Alumnus)

The first R. F. N. S. Homecoming as viewed by the alumni, was a highly successful affair. They saw 600 students molded together as one taking an active part in the school's first Homecoming; they saw a royal welcome accorded them by the whole city; they mingled with friends everywhere.

First, they were greeted by the welcome sign which was conspicuously placed on the Standard Filling Station. From there on, every window and lamppost was beautifully decorated in River Falls and Oshkosh colors. This scheme of decoration was carried all the way to Ramer Field. Red and White and gold and white streamers placed on trees and on a number of private homes carried the spirit to the gridiron. The spirit of Homecoming was admirably well shown by the merchants and business men, who contributed valuable time and effort to show their respect to the school and visiting alumni. River Falls has never seen such a grand display of coloring as was carried out under the able leadership of Miss Nellie Roese, Chairman of city decorations. Too much credit cannot be given Nellie for her part in making this Homecoming a wonderful success.

They saw the auditorium crowded with old timers and students; they saw their old cheer leaders and former football stars; they saw a parade far beyond anything River Falls has ever had; they saw a band leading every event. In the afternoon they witnessed one of the most spectacular games ever played on Ramer field, a typical River Falls-Oshkosh struggle filled with thrills from start to finish. Between halves they viewed stunts of vaudeville character; they saw novel harvest decorations that evening in the gym. Mingling with the grads of many years no alumnus could help but be thrilled with the River Falls spirit, and look forward to next years' gathering.

The combination of students and others who made the first Homecoming possible and whom the alumni will long remember were: Arthur Eckley, Publicity; Kendall Wentz,

AGRIFALLIAN PLAY

The cast of "Officer 666" played to a crowded Auditorium last Friday evening. An unusual number of students, faculty, townspeople, and visitors were in attendance and helped to make the first play of the school year a marked success.

Much credit is due to Miss Alle Robinson who directed the production. Careful training made a star of every member of the cast in acting the part and interpreting the character which he represented.

There was fun, suspense, and excitement of high calibre. Let us look for more of this type.

THANKSGIVING RECESS

The annual Thanksgiving recess begins today at 3:00 p. m. and continues until Tuesday, Dec. 5, when classes resume at 7:50 a. m.

OSHKOSH WINS MIL- KEE GAME 19 TO 0

Oshkosh played their final game at Milwaukee, Friday, Nov. 24. Milwaukee lost by a score of 19-0. MacAndrews, H. Jensen, and G. Jensen scoring the touchdowns. This game places Oshkosh in second place with a standing of .750. Three teams are tied for third, Milwaukee, River Falls, and Superior, leaving Whitewater and Eau Claire the two undefeated teams of the conference.

Stunts; Vidle Tubbs, Program and megaphone sales; Nellie Roese, City decorations; Viola White, Gym decorations; A. D. Johnson, Band leader; Miss Wirt, Homecoming song and yells; Foster Claflin, Parade.

Foot Ball Men

Entertained

Reeincke To Pilot 1923 Squad

Last Wednesday, at the home of Mr. Hayward, the annual football banquet was given in honor of the football team. The table was trimmed in red and white, while in the center was a small model of a gridiron upon which were placed figures representing the teams of Oshkosh and River Falls in action.

Mr. Hayward served as toastmaster. The program included talks by Mr. Ames, Mr. Karges, Mr. Hunt, and Coach Eggebrecht in behalf of the school and the Athletic Council.

Mike Smith, Murphy, and Reincke spoke in behalf of the squad. The tackles, Clanton and Lipke, not to be outdone by the other members of the team rendered a dialogue, which included a resume of talks at the mass meetings.

MacAndrews won the prize for ability to recite and interpret Mother Goose rhymes. Mr. Whitenack received honorable mention and personally requested that he be accorded due recognition.

Other important events taking place were the choosing of a captain and the awarding of letters. Walter Reincke, half-back, was chosen to head the team next year. Moline was a close contestant. The letter men were the only members of the squad eligible to vote. Reincke has been with us but one season. Coming from Wausau High School, where he was their main asset in this sport, he early fought his way to a position in the backfield. During the season past, injuries kept him from playing through the entire games with St. Thomas and Dunwoody. He played in every conference game and proved a consistent ground gainer. We extend congratulations to our captain and to the letter men for their choice.

Seventeen men were awarded the letter for playing during the season. The men receiving letters are: Capt. Lipke, Murphy, Clanton, Gerretson, Heffron, Cole, Moline, Hohman, Gurnoe, Ziebell, Reincke, MacAndrews, Morgan, Casey, Chinnock, Mike Smith and "Doug" Smith.

Of the above there will be only five men back around which to build

WHY IS IT?

We often wonder why it is that students who attend this Normal school, and especially those who intend to be teachers, are so inconsiderate of the rights of others that they congregate in front of the library and make so much noise that it is almost impossible for those students in the library to concentrate on their lessons. Regard for the rights and feelings of others is one of the characteristics of a gentleman and a lady.

MR. AND MRS. JACOBSON

ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson entertained the winning team of the Y. M. C. A. finance campaign, at supper, Tuesday evening of last week. Carroll Brown was the captain of this team and with the help of his team-mates made a good success of the campaign. Those who know Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson intimately can appreciate what it means to be entertained by them.

AURELIA-LINCOLNIAN PARTY

The first joint meeting of the Lincolnian and Aurelia societies was held last Saturday evening in the Society room. Only about one-half of the members of each organization were present to enjoy the excellent program and social part of the evening.

Roll call was answered by stating some reason for "Why I am Thankful." The following is a copy of the program given:

Piano Solo	Ardus Thompson
Reading	Ray Gross
Duet	Winfred Bird, Virginia Hoese
Reading	Margery Fay
Stunt	Mr. Seaman and W. Bird

The rest of the evening was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by Mr. Hawkinson, Mildred Smith, and Carl Bradford.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Assembly: The Junior High put on an excellent Thanksgiving program at the Thursday assembly. The boys and girls who took part are to be complimented on the good work they did; the selections, of good material, were delivered in a pleasing voice and one that could be heard easily; and the singing was of unusual quality. The program was as follows:

Class Games

Practice for the Junior and Senior basket-ball teams will begin the Tuesday following Thanksgiving vacation. Each class will be represented by three teams, and each team will play one game each month. Standings will be rated on percentage of games won.

To give teams an equal chance for practice the gymnasium of the North Hall will be open to these teams whenever the first team is not using it. This will be two or three times a week for each team. Third year Seniors will play with the Senior team.

School Notes

Glen Morgan appears to have disappeared.

Mrs. Feeney of Madison is visiting her daughters here.

Miss Robinson was visited by her sister of Minneapolis this week-end.

"Fat" Hohman makes second attempt to cross creek.—Nov. 22, 1922.

Miss Hathorne attended, Saturday evening in Minneapolis, a reunion of twenty-four former faculty members and students of the Agricultural School of Morris, Minn. Miss Hathorne is an ex-faculty member of this school.

To Whom It May Concern: Anyone wishing parking space on the community davenport, lately established at a certain girls' rooming house, will kindly put in his application early, as there is a long waiting list now. References required. (How about it L. K. N. G.?)

On December 14 will occur the next program of the Rural Life Club, the main features of which will be concerned with matters connected with "Good Education Week." This will be followed by an hour of social entertainment. Everybody come and have a good time.

"Fat" Hohman has very "pressing" business that takes him across the river about five times a week. "Red" Clanton is bewailing his misfortune in that his injured knee prevents him from making as frequent visits in the interest of his likewise important matters as does Hohman.

The students of this school can not be accused of not taking their work seriously. In proof of this statement we offer this: Larson of the Poultry Demonstration was so worried about his part that, when he was fast asleep, he even gave an account of the correct way to kill a chicken.

The G. O. P.'s had a jolly good time Thursday night. Seated on the floor of the Domestic Science room, they feasted on baked spuds and weiners. After this, they danced, having gained access to the girl's gym in a manner that does credit to their ingenuity. It was voted to have the annual G. O. P. dance about January 13.

Alpha believes in killing two birds with one stone. One day not long ago she had occasion to take a pound of butter home in time for the noon-day meal. In pursuance of the policy stated above she took a certain noted football man with her. After a pleasant ride to her home, imagine her discomfiture when she discovered that she had forgotten to bring the butter with her.

"RIVER FALLS PEP"

It has only three letters, this little word, pep.

But it's this word of our that makes other schools step.

Our display of true sportsmanship, gives them a hunch.

That old R. F. N. has a real peppy bunch.

When we're up against others, we give them a deal

That is honest and fair, and a game that is real

'Tis because we are square, and they see, you can bet

 The real explanation of River Falls pep.

Tho' the score is againts us, we ne'er have a doubt,

For when we play square we never lose out.

Others know, as they look at our courage and "rep,"

That they never can beat the old River Falls pep.

Now our River Falls spirit steps forth with a name

That will always be crowned with the laurels of fame.

As for other Normals, they'll go some to keep step

With the River Falls Spirit and River Falls Pep.

Do It Better!

This is the thought and the spirit which actuates every one actively engaged in the conduct of this store.

To do each task, to execute every duty and perform every service with greater proficiency and thoroughness than it ever has been done before, so that those whom we serve may receive the maximum benefits of our undivided and collective efforts.

We declare ourselves deadly enemies, of the high cost of living and are doing everything in our power to reduce it.

If You Like It

Prof: "What do you think of political parties?"

Student: "I don't know; I never attended any."

Do You?

According to the majority of grades handed out, students must be working under a supposition that looks like this:

- A—Awful
- B—Bum
- C—Comprehensive
- D—Dandy
- E—Elegant
- F—First Rate.

We always find something to give an alarm,
Sometimes the something is a door-bell pushed by one's arm.

'Tis a sad, sad story to tell
When first Jack and then Poge push the bell,

Bringing the appearance of the landlay, and well—
'Tis a sad, sad story to tell.

Miss Latta (in Modern History class:) "Name something characteristically Finnish."

Dorothy Baird: "Why, fish."

"Farm Gossip."

Ezra: "How long yu say the son 'o your'n been to Normal school?"

Cyrus: "Wall, 'bout sixteen head 'o cattle 'n' twenty acres 'o corn."

Marg. B.: "I read someplace that the Chinese are the mose honest people in the world."

Winfred B.: "Yes, and they are starving to death."

The Agricultural College Physics class were given an exam in the work covered thus far. If Mr. Jacobson knew how many Thanksgiving dinners he spoiled he would have deferred the exam to next week.

At 3 p. m. Geography Class.
Prof. Stratton, "Why do trees grow up in Northern Canada?"
F. Major, "Because they irrigate."

Vet. Science Class.
Walquist, "I wonder just how a sidebone feels?"

Prof. Johnson, "I don't know either, I never had one."

Walquist, "Phychology is a study of the head isn't it?"

O'Brien, "No. It is a study of what you have inside the head."

AG. NEWS

The most common comment regarding the Crop and Poultry Show is that it was the best poultry and crop show ever held in this part of the state. The corn exhibition is the best ever held here. Many of the samples are exceptional for this community both from selection and breed type. This is an evidence of interest by our enterprising farmers of the community. The community is rather extended when we consider that exhibits came from Menomonie, New Richmond, Somerset, Baldwin, Ellsworth and others.

The poultry exhibit was slightly over 300 birds. Prof. Hunt, assisted by Prof. Prucha, did the judging. The birds were as a whole of better quality than at any of the previous shows, many of the classes being close.

George H. Briggs, in charge of University Extension work in crops, judged the crops exhibit. He also gave an excellent talk at the Thursday afternoon program.

The special features of the show this year were the Educational Exhibits and Demonstrations. The exhibits were well arranged and brought out in an impressive manner the methods of feeding, selecting layers, housing of poultry, marketing of poultry products, seed selection in potatoes, their marketing and other important problems.

This event is a considerable achievement in view of the fact that the show is financed without the aid of subscription. Each year a play is given for this benefit. The caste of characters are composed of a select group of the student body who can be depended upon to render the goods. This year the play, "Officer 666" was a great success. The Agrifallian extends a vote of thanks to Miss Robinson and to the caste which took part.
