

F.F.A. Rural Fair Set October 26

Plans are underway for the annual rural fair to be held at the local State College Friday, October 26. Sponsored by the college F.F.A., the fair will have from 25 to 30 schools from the area participating.

Ten schools already have indicated that they will have individual booths. General booths will be set up for exhibits from the remaining schools.

Included in the program for the day will be a special presentation of "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp" for school children attending the fair. The performance will be at 12:30 Friday. A tour of the campus for schools attending the fair is planned also.

A judging contest will be held for teams from the rural schools with potatoes and corn to be judged.

Among schools planning to have individual booths are Clifton Hollow, South Rush River, Morton Corner, Forestville, Fargo, Gertrude, Sunny Lawn, Glover Station, Mann Valley and Oak Knoll.

General chairman of the fair is Pete Wallendal. Other members of the committee are Eugene Carlson, Ed Minot and Don Jenson.

Chief farm crops to be displayed are corn, oats and barley. Others will include wheat, rye, soybeans, clover, flaxseed, potatoes, pumpkins and squash.

M.E.N.C. Awards Two Music Scholarships

Kathie Miller, Clayton, and Robert Strain, Baldwin have been chosen as recipients of the MENC scholarships for 1951-52. The scholarship is granted to freshmen who have done outstanding work in music during their high school career, who plan to continue their music work during college, and whose vocational aim is teaching. Both students are members of the College Chorus and the College Band. Both received high ratings at music festivals while in high school.

These students were chosen from a list of 16 applicants for the scholarships from high schools within a hundred mile radius of River Falls. Three students received honorable mention but were not eligible to receive the music scholarship due to the fact that they had previously been granted regents scholarships. They are Louise Thompson, Hammond; Marjorie Lundgren, Bruce, and Janet Wenstad, New Richmond.

The MENC is a local chapter of the Music Educators National Conference composed of students who plan to teach music.

Many Departments Aid in Making Magic for 'Aladdin'

It'll seem like magic when this Genie of the Lamp appears in a cloud of smoke and a burst of flame at the forthcoming performance of "Aladdin and the Magic Lamp."

Actually, it's taking the combined work of the chemistry, visual aids and art departments to produce the unusual stage effects. The chemistry department has been experimenting with flash powders and smoke producing chemicals. The visual aids department is supplying projectors and technicians to help produce the scenery which appears and disappears. The art department has been working on the magic fruit, the gleaming jewels, the treasure chest and grotesque tree which figure in the story from The Arabian Nights.

All this magic will take place Friday, October 26, and Saturday, October 27, on the stage of the auditorium in North Hall. A performance for adults and children over 12 years old is to be presented Friday evening at 8 o'clock. A special children's performance is scheduled for Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Children's tickets are being sold at the local schools and adult tickets are being sold at Dewey's and Freeman's Drug Stores.

In connection with the performance, children of the 6th, 7th and 8th grades of the campus school

Students Plan Smoker, Dinner to Honor Dads

by Maggie Anderson

Something new has been added to the annual Dad's Day celebration this year. Instead of honoring just the fathers of the team, all fathers are invited to attend.

Work Underway on 1952 Year Book

Work is progressing on the 40th Meletean to be published in River Falls but the first one by The Wisconsin State College!

How much does the Meletean cost each purchaser? Just $3.25! "I wonder," mused Dr. Carleton C. Ames, faculty advisor for the book, "if each student knows that despite rising costs, the Meletean cost $6.37 per copy to print in 1949; in 1950, $5.34; in 1951, $5.85. Yet we sell it for $3.25."

"The engraving bill alone is $1200," Dr. Ames said. "We have 500 Meleteans printed. In addition, there are pictures, covers, printing, and supply expenses. The greater the volume of sales, the lower the cost."

With the help of the staff, work is moving forward in the engraving department and in selecting a theme for the 1952 Meletean.

Negotiations for printing and cover contracts have neared completion; they are expected to close in a week or two. "In fact," commented Dr. Ames, "we are ahead of former years in regard to the time element."

With the arrival of May 25, 1952, each purchaser will receive a copy of the Meletean with color spread in the opening and divisional pages. Cost prohibits further use of color.

The editor of the Meletean, Arlene Pechacek, said, "I am happy that the entire staff seems to be interested and determined to make this a Meletean of which to be proud."

All freshman, sophomore, and junior pictures have been taken. Seniors make their appointments at the desk in South Hall for picture taking all day October 25 and the afternoon of October 26. Re-takes for freshmen, sophomores, and juniors should be arranged the afternoon of the 30th.

A.C.E.I. Will Discuss Needs of Children

The A. C. E. I. will meet Monday, October 22, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Social Room.

The topic will be: Discovering and meeting the needs of the children in our community. Group interest projects will be started. All men and women in Elementary Education are asked to be present.

The program will begin Saturday afternoon, October 27, at 4 o'clock in the auditorium. It will be an informal get-together with Benny Kettelkamp as the main speaker. Coach Phil Belfiori will introduce the football team.

At 5:30 a smoker and dinner will be held in the college cafeteria. Gordon Anderson, senior, will act as MC. By the way, this dinner is strictly stag! President Kleinpell will speak at the dinner and Joe Hoy will give pre-game information and discuss the team. A barbershop quartet will furnish music.

The main event of the evening will be the game between Stout and River Falls at Ramer Field at 8:30. The fathers of the players will be admitted to the game free of admission and will sit on the bench with the players.

Invitations are available on the first floor of South Hall. Tickets for the dinner will be $1.00 and will be on sale in South Hall this week.

'Voice of the Falcon' Resumes Broadcasting

River Falls is on the air again this year.

Under direction of a student committee, broadcasts are being made twice weekly over radio station WSHB, Stillwater. "The Voice of the Falcon" is heard at 1 o'clock Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

All the shows are done by tape recordings made here on campus. The first broadcast was aired October 9. Broadcasts will continue throughout the school year. Next week's programs are a "Dad's Day" broadcast and an agricultural program.

'Tutors' to Toot Oct. 27

The "Toonful Tutors" will play for an all-school dance after the game Saturday night, October 27. This will be the "Tutors" first appearance this school-year sponsored by the CWA. Pop is welcome, too — especially since it's Dad's Day.

College Participates in U.N. Festival

College students will have a large part in the community observance of the United Nations Festival this week.

Sponsored by the American Association of University Women, the festival is being directed by Miss Adele Bloom. Included in the program are exhibits, assemblies and the showing of a large number of films.

For college students, a convocation featuring Dr. William C. Rogers, Director of the Minnesota World Affairs Center, will be held at 10 o'clock. Dr. Rogers, an assistant professor at the University of Minnesota, will speak on "Six Ways of Looking at the U.N." He is head of the official bureau for U.N. speakers and spent the latter part of September in New York and Washington where he was a delegate to the Round Table on World Affairs in Extension Education.

During the convocation, a U.N. flag, purchased by the Student Senate will be presented to the college. Presentation will be made by Senate President Jack W. Hanson. Dean B. J. Rozehnal will accept the flag on behalf of the college.

Eight freshmen girls, wearing authentic national costumes, will appear on the stage during the

Official Notices

All those who won Homecoming prizes should collect them from Ernie Mosbaek. This includes winners in the slogan, beard growing, floats and skit contests.

The college freshmen will play the St. Olaf freshmen at Ramer Field, Tuesday, October 23, at 4 p.m.

Senior class meeting Wednesday, October 24, at 11 a.m. in the auditorium.

The River Falls "R" Club asks all students to discontinue wearing high school letter sweaters on campus.

Senior class pictures for the Meletean will be taken Thursday and Friday, October 25 and 26. New faculty members will also be taken on the same days. Make appointments in South Hall now.

From Our Notes . .

4 Years Ago

Janie Prescott won the queen election and was crowned at a mass meeting in front of North Hall. River Falls won their Homecoming game 21 to 13 from Eau Claire.

6 Years Ago

Professor John Mosher returns to faculty after three years of Uncle Sam and the Navy. Campus Mardi Gras set for Friday night.

8 Years Ago

Junior prom was dedicated to victory in the Armed Forces. College Masquers' production was cancelled because of loss of men to the armed services.

10 Years Ago

In a survey of college men, 76.5 per cent said they would rather wait for the draft than enlist. The Falcons lost their first basketball game to St. Olaf, 30 to 19.

12 Years Ago

Two productions were given by the faculty: "Old Soaks at Home," starring Mr. Ames, Miss Moss and Mr. Thoreson, and "The Villain Still Pursued Her," with Mrs. Junkman, Miss Fuller and Mr. Rozehnal. Thirteen new courses in history, education, botany and French will be offered at spring term.

13 Years Ago

Carleton Ames narrowly missed being named the best looking male teacher by 25 YW girls. Ben Kettelkamp was credited with the best disposition. Kettelkamp's oration won first place in an amateur contest at the Bean Soup Stag Party. Ames brought down the house when he strummed his banjo and sang, "Frankie and Johnny," and "The Wreck of the Old 97."

16 Years Ago

Forty-five men answered Ozzie Cowles' call for basketball. Miss Irma Hathorn told of the YW trip to Quebec. This is the 25th year of modern football at River Falls.

Fifteen goldfish have been added to the Biology laboratory.

What do you mean "What's it for?" The girls' dorm will be ready any day now.

The Inside Dope On Success Or His Best Friend Wouldn't Tell

by Bob Doolittle

Hush now. Stop crying. I can't stand to see a freshman cry. Have a hanky. If you'll stop sniveling for a moment I'll tell you how to be a success.

Yes, even you, despite your nauseating smile. YOU can be admired, sought after, the envy of your classmates. The road to success is paved with campus activities.

You don't believe me. You clutch at your hair and shout that all the top jobs are taken. You throw yourself under the brass rail and beat your heels on the floor. You curse me for a fool and a blackguard. Naughty boy.

My answer to this outburst is a wan, knowing smile. You show your good breeding by silence and asking for forgiveness. Granted.

Now then. The way to success is through campus activities.

Not just any campus activities, however. It would be asinine, for instance, for you to consider running for a position in one of the academic groups or student senate. I doubt if you could assume the responsibility. I doubt if you have the vast experience. I doubt if you have the understanding. As a matter of fact, I wouldn't be a damn bit surprised if they didn't blackball you. Cheer up. The competition is much too keen. Sometimes as many as 57 students file for 53 positions. Silly boy.

No, what you want is something that will give you a thrill of belonging. The right activity. I present some of them for your consideration.

Bob Mitchum Fan Club

Oodles of opportunities for sharp fellows and livewire girls who know how to inhale. Many of the top positions are open in this outfit, including the Grand Keeper of the Ashtrays. First smoker of the season will be held at 8:41 p.m. Tuesday in the Calico Room.

Falcon Football Team

Several openings here for male students weighing 250 pounds who can pass, kick, run, block, tackle or own their own football. Informal get-togethers are held every Saturday afternoon, usually at Ramer Field, 2 p.m. or in the evening at 8:30 p.m. Apply to P. Belfiori or J. Hoy, faculty advisers, North Hall.

College Convertible Society

Anyone can enter this devil-may-care bunch provided he owns a convertible and drives it up Cascade during lunch hour. Rank in this society is determined by the number of cylinders in your automobile and proportion of blondes per square foot of leather upholstery.

The club will start off with a bang at 5:00 p.m. Wednesday, under the slogan, "Let's Mesh Gears." Tea and chrome mud guards will be served the survivors.

Falcon Suicide Club

If you find that no student activities fit your peculiar talents, no doubt you will want to commit suicide, for what meaning does life have without student activities? Don't fret. You will find your niche in this outfit.

Members of the FSC sign pacts agreeing to commit suicide at scheduled intervals throughout the year. The club is hoping to hold a regular Saturday night death throughout the year. A warmup meeting will be announced at a later date.

A special prize is also awarded the nearest of kin of the most imaginative suicide case of the year. Last year's winner was a morose chap who curled himself up in a Salvation Army drum and expired on the final flourish of "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight."

He was a freshman, too. Think of it! Maybe this year it can be you.

Letter to the Editor

Does the word Falcon give you a sense of pride, a feeling of school spirit. When River Falls State College is mentioned do you think of it as "my school," "the best school," "the machine that I'm a part of?"

This college probably has more school spirit than any other college in the state. Still, we can make the best better.

Recently eleven students, with the help of a very willing committee of seven faculty, proposed about ten good ideas for improving Wisconsin State College at River Falls. An honest effort will be made in the near future to put those ideas to work. We must give cooperation when those ideas appear.

If eleven students have ten ideas, 600 students will have 554 ideas. The student government after this recent meeting is in a mood to hear them. The administration has pledged its full support in trying to promote ideas and fulfill the wishes of the student body.

A poll will be taken within a couple of weeks. A letter will be sent to approximately one-third of the students. If you are one of those questioned, take a little time out and give the most helpful information you can. And from everyone of the 609 students let's hear your COMPLAINTS, IDEAS, and SUGGESTIONS. The sooner we have them, the sooner we can do something about them.

College Enrollment Trend Down

by Associated Collegiate Press

College enrollment this year will be down about 275,000, according to the United States Office of Education. It's estimated there will be about 2.3 million college students in 1951-52.

The decrease is far less than educators feared last spring. It is caused by the diminishing number of veterans and the increasing number of college-age draftees.

But the New York Times points out that many reservists and draftees returning to civilian life may be expected to enroll in colleges sometime this year.

And if a new G.I. educational bill is passed (it's now up before congress), college enrollments will show a marked increase. The Times feels the enrollment drop will not seriously affect the overall college picture.

"But," says the Times, "it will add greatly to the financial strain that so many of the colleges—particularly the small, independent liberal arts institutions—are now undergoing. Large numbers of these colleges will be forced to operate on a deficit, and they may also be forced to lower their academic standards."

(Last February it was reported in the Collegiate Press Review that 750 small colleges are on the financial "sick list.")

The Critic's Corner

by John Reque

"Stories in Song" were presented Thursday evening in North Hall auditorium by Earle Spicer, baritone. Mr. Spicer's program of English and American ballads was the second evening convocation of the school year.

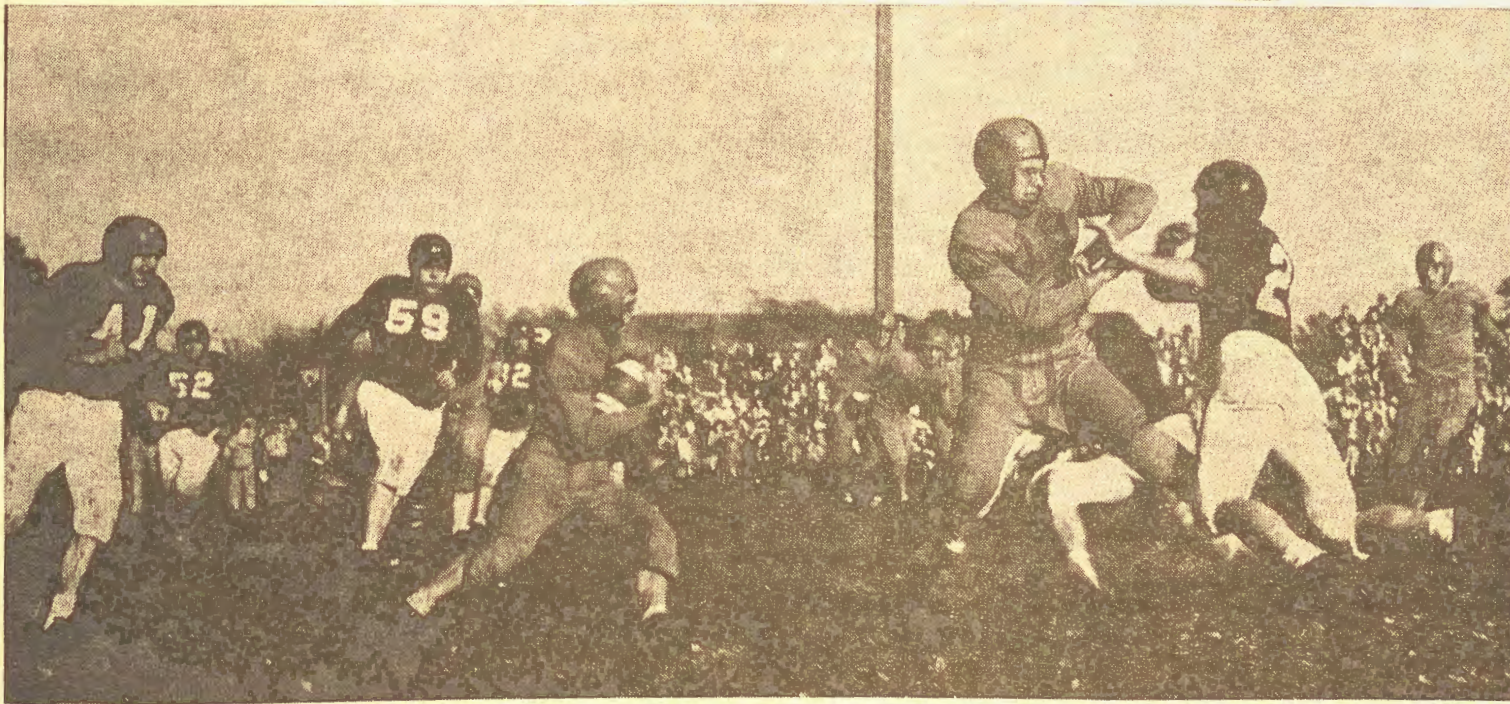

His selections were divided into three parts: Traditional English ballads, Shakespeare and Gilbert and Sullivan, and American Ballads and Folk Songs. Best among the first group was the opening number, "The Rich Old Woman," and the humorous "The Ardent Fisherman." Mrs. Olive Mulhollam accompanied Mr. Spicer in the last song of the group, "The Bashful Lover."

The second group of songs was opened with an amusing "Shakespeare quiz." A parody on "When I Was a Lad" by Sullivan which stated the methods used by college students to secure a Phi Beta Kappa key, and its encore, "I Am The Very Model of a College President," were the most popular songs on the program. Mr. Spicer was assisted in these two songs by a chorus recruited from the a cappella choir: Bernard Llum, Delmar Polzin, Bob Engebretson, and Chuck Connelly.

"The Quaker's Courtship" and the last encore, "Frankie and Johnnie" were notable among the last group of songs.

Some people sing—some people play the piano—some people give speeches. Mr. Spicer did all three—often at the same time. He didn't do any of them very well, but perhaps it is not necessary for a ballad singer to have a rich voice and be an accomplished pianist. Mr. Spicer did, however, have the requirement most necessary for the ballad singer—friendliness with his audience. If he had left the white tie and tails at home and got down to the Burl Ives level, he would have been even more enjoyable.

Homecoming Ends Deadlocked 7-7

Pointers - Falls Battle To Draw At Ramer Field

The River Falls Falcons were back in business last week-end and operating from the same old stand at Ramer Field, battling under-rated Stevens Point to a seven all deadlock before a capacity Homecoming audience.

Scoring Stanza

All the scoring fell in the second quarter as the Pointers counted first with the clock four minutes gone, marching 55 yards from the Falcon 21-yard stripe.

Norb Miller punched through to pay territory on a dazzling end sweep, visiting the end zone from his own 26. Extra point by placement, good.

Then, on the kick-off following the Stevens Point tally, two River Falls backs collided outside the end zone and the ball was downed on the two-yard line. Stabbing around end on a reverse and a short plunge through center, the Falcons carried the ball to the 14-yard mark and a first down. Harley Harkness grabbed the stage and flipped an aerial to Bob Onstad who gathered the ball in on the 25, racing 75 yards along the sidelines for the touchdown.

Half-time found Don Trewartha, Homecoming chairman, and Gen Olson, Queen over festivities, back in the spotlight for the ceremonial crowning. The River Falls high school band, directed by John Sabaka, stepped through some intricate maneuvers up to the whistle for the third period.

Homecoming Parade

The homecoming parade in the morning was up to the usual standard of such affairs, and was featured by at least five very fine floats, and two of the finest musical organizations in the western section of the state—the River Falls Drum & Bugle Corps and the River Falls high school band.

Penalties and fumbles blew scoring opportunities in the second half for both clubs, neither team asserting a superiority either on the ground or in the air.

The Pointers steam-rolled River Falls from scrimmage yards rushing to the tune of 276 yards to 71, but took a back seat on passes where the Falcons massed 137 yards to a microscopic 29 for Stevens Point. River Falls fell second best on first downs with 11, Stevens Point marching to 18.

Pleasant surprise to the Falcon football machine was Bobby Wood, freshman scabbard from Spring Valley. Wood took the knocks as well as dished out some fine tackles and hard running after Onstad was sidelined with a back injury.

Onstad Out

Onstad will be out of the local grid picture for possibly two weeks, nurturing several choice ribs Pointer Bob Dehlinger massaged in a wee bit of foul play. Coach Belfiori expects to be able to use the speedy Menomonie half for the Stout tilt if the injury has healed by then.

And then, of course, hats off to Vern Steinmetz for an extra point, the one that meant the difference between a tie and defeat.

The next home game will be October 27th, back at the Ramer Field touchdown market, when the Falcons entertain Stout before a Dad's Day audience.

FOOTLOOSE AND FANCY FREE — Norm Miller, Stevens Point back, picks up 12 yards in the Homecoming game last week at Ramer Field. Carver Foukes (41), Manning LeClair (52), and Vern Steinmetz (32) come up to give Chuck Wood a hand with the tackle. Miller also scored the Pointers touchdown on an end run in the second stanza to push Stevens Point into an early 7 to 0 lead. After the touchdown Harley Harkness and Bob Onstad combined on a pass play that covered 85 yards for the Falcons tying margin.

Falcons Squash Eau Claire 13-0

By Don Siebold

Clair Murphy got his Irish up and Jerry Route routed Eau Claire Saturday 13 to 0, sending the Falcons back in the winner's ledger. The contest was staged in the Blue Gold's sloppy swampland after a mid-afternoon downpour had turned the field into a pasty quagmire.

Eau Claire lost the ball on downs on River Falls' 33-yard line early in the first quarter, and the Falcons took over, driving 67 yards for the initial counter. Murphy toted the ball six times, Route three and Harley Harkness passed for 12 yards to advance it into scoring territory where Murphy slid over from the four. Vern Steinmetz converted.

Route, subbing for injured Bob Onstad, gave a sneak performance of things to come, ripping the Blue Gold line to shreds as the Falcons stayed on the ground to control the ball at the Eau Claire mud-emporium. But when passes were needed, and the stage cleared for an aerial, it was Route again who pulled the curtain.

After a 55-yard march to their own 27, Route went back to pass on fourth down, the clock running out; Larry Miller and Harkness went up in the end zone and Miller sank into the brine with the completion, good for another touchdown, the game's final. Steinmetz shot wide on the extra point by placement and the score fell at 13 to 0, River Falls.

Three times River Falls drove into scoring position in the second half, the drizzle continuing as Murphy and Route seeped through the line by the process of osmosis. And three times the door to the end zone was slammed shut on the threshold, once by penalty, once on a 12-yard setback, and finally on downs.

The deadly freshman waded to the 23-yard marker to begin with, but a 15-yard penalty nullified their efforts. Minutes later they picked up the ball on downs and drove again, this time to the 28-yard stripe only to be pushed back on a 12-yard loss.

Harkness intercepted an Eau Claire pass on the River Falls 40 and stopped 20 yards before being brought down on the Blue Gold 40-yard mark. Bobby Wood and Route carried the ball to the 14 and River Falls gave up the ball on downs as the Falcons took to the air in search of another

Larry Miller

Eau Claire posted 71. In the air the picture was just the same, the Falcons hitting 89 yards and the Blue Golds flipping to 30. Hoy-Belfiori and Company amassed 19 first downs to 6 for Eau Claire.

Earle Spicer Opens College Concert Series

The first program in the college concert series was presented on Thursday, October 18, at 8 p.m. by Earle Spicer, baritone. The program consisted of traditional English ballads, selections from Shakespeare, Gilbert and Sullivan, and American ballads and folk songs.

Mr. Spicer talked briefly on the background of several of the numbers on the program. The college choir assisted him on such numbers as "When I Was a Lad" from Gilbert and Sullivan's H. M. S. Pinafore.

The ballad singer has gained wide recognition and has sung with leading symphony orchestras and oratorio societies both in the United States and England.

Selective Service Tests Scheduled

Applications for the December 13, 1951 and the April 24, 1952 administrations of the College Qualification Test are now available at Selective Service System local boards throughout the country. The two tests are to be given at the local college for area residents.

Eligible students who intend to take this test on either date should apply at once to the nearest Selective Service local board for an application and a bulletin of information.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately in the envelope provided. Applications for the December 13 test must be post-marked no later than midnight, November 5, 1951.

According to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test for the Selective Service System, it will be greatly to the student's advantage to file his application at once, regardless of the testing date he selects. The results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student.

BB Outlook Brightens; Barlow, Czech Deferred

The pre-season outlook of the Falcon basketball team took a sharp dip a couple of weeks ago, when it was learned that Don Barlow and Ray Czech, veteran members of last year's team, were due to be inducted into the army sometime within the immediate future.

Both, however, have been granted a year's deferment, and will be available for this year's campaign, much to the satisfaction of head mentor, Joe Hoy. Hoy has a rigorous 18 game schedule lined up, with the first game on December 4 at St. Olaf. Opening drills are tentatively set for November 5.

Industrial Arts Gets $15,000 Appropriation

An appropriation of $15,000 will go to purchase new equipment for the Industrial Arts building.

Members of the Industrial Arts staff have just completed an order which included a new, applied electricity laboratory and new furniture for the mechanical drawing room.

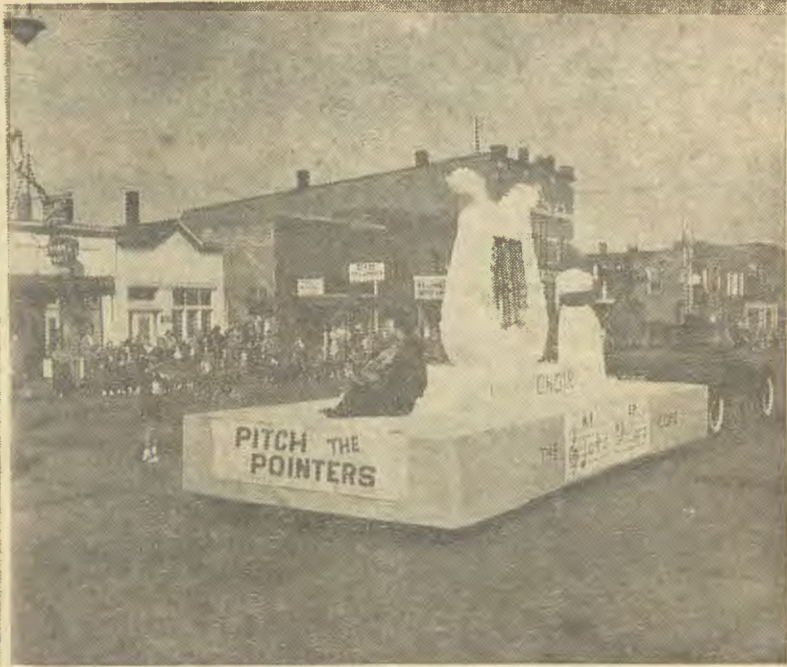

In addition, all machinery in the general shop and the power and machinery laboratory will be replaced.

Fund for Television Progresses Slowly

Progress on fund raising for the cafeteria television set is slowing down according to Norm Erickson. Acting chairman of the group of solicitors, Mr. Erickson says contributions have reached a low point after a good start which netted approximately $170. To purchase the 17-inch set now in the cafeteria on a trial basis will require at least $80 more.

To the original committee, Norm Erickson, Ronnie Backes, Hubert Smith, and James Kierstyn, four others have been added. They are Roger Knieff, Ernest Wallin, Robert Carlson, and Dave Johnson. All are calling on rooming houses to reach more students.

The committee is hoping to make next week the deadline for the final amount and urges everyone to contribute as soon as possible.

Winner of the float contest in the Homecoming Parade was the college choir. The float depicts a lyre while slogans, punning musical terms, decorate the sides.

Choir, FFA Winners In Homecoming Events

Many were on hand to watch the annual Homecoming parade down Main Street Saturday morning. The choir took first place for having the best float.

Friday night students gathered in North Hall auditorium for the pep rally. The F. F. A. came out first in the skit contest. Trailing them was the Freshman Class in second place.

Ivan Kittle won the beard growing contest which was judged during the pep rally. The prize for having the most novel beard was won by Walter Grabon.

Aladdin Magic

Children from surrounding communities have been invited to attend the play since for many it will be their first opportunity to see a production written and directed especially for them.

The costumes are being loaned by the Festival of Nations of St. Paul, now planning its festival for May. Miss Cara Wharton, William Ramey, and Charles Connelly will furnish piano and organ music during the assembly.

A number of films will be shown from noon until 5 o'clock Wednesday with other films, repeat showings, and special class showings scheduled for Tuesday and Thursday.

Wednesday evening the combined High School and Campus School PTA's will meet in North Hall auditorium to hear Charles H. McLaughlin discuss "Power Politics Within the United Nations." This will include some reference to the relations be-trained personnel needed to produce children's theatre has made it extremely difficult for small communities to establish such an organization.

Wholehearted community response and interest in the production of "Aladdin and the Magic Lamp" is reported by Director Blanche Davis and Assistant Director Carrie Dorsey.

"The response of students, faculty members, and townspeople as evidenced by the many contributions in work and time and the advance sale of tickets has been very encouraging. It helps to conform our belief that establishing a children's theatre at River Falls does fulfill a local need," said Miss Dorsey.

Rev. Haehlen to Speak At Convocation Nov. 7

Reverend Maurice L. Haehlen of Eau Claire will be guest speaker at an all-college assembly on Wednesday, November 7, at 2 p.m. He will talk about his experiences in Germany. Having toured Europe last summer, he is well informed about problems and conditions there.

between national interest and the division of powers within the U.N. and also the contest between the Assembly and the Security Council to get control of the international security function.

An all-day exhibit will be shown in the Social Room of South Hall. Classes from the high school, the campus school, and the parochial school have scheduled times to see the exhibit. People of other communities have been invited to the exhibit and convocations.

Mrs. C. B. King is festival director and Miss Irma Hathorn will be chief hostess at the tea.
