HOSPITAL BENEFIT

The work on the hospital benefit is progressing nicely and will be presented Friday and Saturday evenings, November 26 and 27.

Part I. Will consist of a merry melodious minstrel performance. In this scene you are promised a continuous performance of mirth and merriment.

Part II. Is patriotic and will portray scenes from the late war, featuring our boys at home "Over There." This scene will be particularly appropriate for Armistice and Thanksgiving season.

Part III. This part is dramatic and spectacular, and introduces the following scenes from Romeo and Juliet:

The Balcony scene
The Wedding scene
The Potion scene

The Death of Romeo and Juliet.

The admission, 50 cents with 5c for war tax, is very reasonable for the amount of work necessary to present this entertainment, so that everyone may attend. It is to be a program of Pep, Patriotism and Pathos.

Attention! Thirty-six posters were numbered and placed in the downtown show windows. These posters are silhouettes of people taking part in the minstrel show. To the one first guessing all of the pictures a free ticket will be given.

THANKSGIVING

VESPER SERVICE

A Thanksgiving Vesper service, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A., was held at the Normal auditorium on Sunday afternoon.

Prof. R. A. Karkes, spoke on "The Pilgrim Voyage." He called attention to the fact that this year is the Three Hundredth anniversary of the Pilgrims landing. His message dealt with the hardships of the immigrants as compared with the present favorable conditions of their descendants. He said we should show our gratitude for the blessings we have received by lending a helping hand to the starving millions in China and parts of Europe.

Miss Mildred Will gave an excellent Thanksgiving reading, and the Y. M. C. A. sextet gave a very pleasing selection.

The audience was quite large in spite of the inclement weather. Everybody enjoyed the service immensely.

John Williams, who represented this school in the oratorical contest at La Crosse last year, has resumed his studies here.

G. O. P. DANCE

Members of the G. O. P. gave their first social function of the year in the form of a leap year dance, which was held in the gym of North Hall, Friday evening from 8:00 until 11:30. The chaperons were President and Mrs. Ames, Misses McKenzie, Wirt and Plenie.

The fun began when one or two girls timidly knocked at the house of a gentleman friend, in order to escort him to the dance. Soon the girls were seen approaching the campus from all directions, each with a young man upon her arm. The leap year idea prevailed in the choice of dances for the evening. Before the evening was over men were heard to exclaim, "I don't blame the girl now for getting her program jumbled." In spite of such difficulties the men seemed to have enjoyed the whole affair.

GIRLS' VOLLEY BALL TOURNAMENT IS ON

The girls' volley ball tournament, which opened Monday afternoon, reached the semi-final stage in the evening when the juniors and seniors clashed. In this contest the juniors emerged on the long end of the count.

The afternoon contests began with the rural course and third year teams as opponents. The rurals proved their superiority by copping the opening game. The second contest saw the sophomores and freshmen battling for first honors. This contest resulted in a triumph for the sophomores.

The third game, which was an elimination contest between the two winners, terminated in a victory for the rurals.

The championship game will be fought out Tuesday afternoon between the rurals and the juniors. Excitement will no doubt prevail.

TEAM BANQUETED AT HOTEL GLADSTONE

Members of the first team, Coach Hayward, Mr. Chandler and Mr. Whitenack, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Merton at the Hotel Gladstone at 7:30 Monday evening.

Rev. Bird acted as toast-master. Speeches were made by Coach Hayward, Mr. Chandler, Mr. Whitenack, Captain Bliss and Mr. Merton.

After the speeches the men "fell to," and enjoyed a banquet, that all proclaim was one of the very best that they had partaken of in a long time. Every man present expressed his appreciation of the hospitality of the Mertons.

OSHKOSH STATE CHAMPIONS

Pass Over Goal In Final Quarter Beats River Falls

Fighting to the final whistle and game to the very end, our valient grid team took its first local defeat, in two years, when Oshkosh won Saturday's game and the state championship by a 6-0 score. Favored by ideal weather which was welcome by about fifteen hundred football enthusiasts, the tilt contained all of the great snap and thrill that is usually prevalent in a state championship game.

The teams played great football which on several occasions set the pigskin in a very threatening position but only to be carried out again. Though outweighed about fifteen pounds to the man, the red jerseyed warriors performed brilliantly by off-setting this avoirdupois edge by great shiftiness and speed which kept the big boys on the jump throughout. Both lines displayed big form by their ability to check smashing attacks at critical times. Much credit is due the Red and White defense that held the varied attacks of the southern huskies which after an advance that looked good for a touchdown, they held for four downs. Several times Captain Bliss and his line associates broke through and downed the bewildered runner before he could get started. The Oshkosh also evidenced great defensive strength when in the first half with their backs to the wall they held the Falls plungers and forced Gurnoe to attempt a drop-kick.

The southerners possessed an aerial attack that was far superior to any that we have encountered this season. In this line of play they exhibited great tact by uncorking several passes that were shot with great accuracy and generally found an orange jersey on the receiving end. Their passes were short but direct and well perfected. Exclusive of this manner of advance they found hard going and were well met on other tactics. Their attempts to circle our wings were almost invariably futile and until in the last few minutes of play they found some stiff opposition in the Falls line.

River Falls displayed her greatest strength in the initial half. During this period our carriers pulled in a total of ninety-one yards to their opponent's seventy-three. With the exception of a six yard pass to Johnson, end runs and off tackle smashes were responsible for most of the River Falls gains. Oshkosh completed three passes in the first half for a total of thirty-five yards. Each team advanced to their opponents' fifteen yard line in this half.

The second half went big for the champions. They showed great power on their line smashes which contained much more drive than they did earlier in the game. Their passing system was still playing a big role by netting gains when carrying failed. No great threat to score was made in the third quarter. During the last and big quarter Oshkosh did their scoring. About the middle of the quarter after they had advanced from midfield on two passes and a series of line plunges, Webster received a twenty yard heave on the Falls goal line. It was a perfect pass and just good enough to carry with it the state championship. Following the scoring River Falls staged what appeared to be a winning comeback. By a thirty-yard pass from Chinnoek to Gurnoe they advanced the oval to Oshkosh's twenty yard line. At this point McAndrews upset all hopes for a touchdown when he intercepted a pass and returned the ball seventy yards. With this run the southerners held a safe margin as the whistle sounded promptly.

Our team was finally scored on for the first time this year and the championship won by Oshkosh. It was far from being loose football that lost the game Saturday. Instead, it was big going by Oshkosh and a win by them over a team that played the game in a manner over a team very worthy of a win.

The champions put up a wonderful fight and we congratulate the Oshkosh team and hail them as worthy state champions. We willingly concede that we were defeated by a clan of gridders that represent a clean brand of football and that is not only a winner but a team that will keep the standard of the game where it belongs.

In reviewing the game Saturday we find Webster and McAndrews playing the starring game for Oshkosh. Out of our gridders, even though each member of the team showed up in big form, there is one who during all of the thrills and featuring plays of the game stands out prominently above any others. This one is none other than Ed. Murphy, who, by his playing in Saturday's game, has entered our hall of fame as one of the greatest gridder, that ever donned Red and White togs. When it comes to real football we have to hand it to Ed. for his showing Saturday. The big boy played in three positions and went big in all. He was in every play not only in a playing manner, but featuring. Captain Webster of the Oshkosh team made the statement that Murphy is the best all around football man that he has ever hit. Possibly he ought to have said the greatest that ever hit him. Do we agree with Captain Webster? Certainly, we have to. Take note, Murphy may be back next season. Where could we find a man more deserving of being captain elect?

MASS MEETING SHOWS

GREAT SPIRIT

The Normal rooters assembled Friday night, the eve of the championship game, in the auditorium for the last mass meeting of the football season. The meeting was a fine exhibition of our school spirit. With the football squad and the coaches on the rostrum, the enthusiasm of the students ran high.

A splendid program, which consisted of music by the orchestra, several speeches, songs and some real yells had been arranged. Among the speakers were Prof. Prucha, an alumni of the Oshkosh Normal, and Prof. Mitchell, who conceded that Oshkosh had the best team in the conference "Sept. 1." Captain Bliss expressed the squad's appreciation for the loyal support given the team this year.

Most of the men on the team were called upon for speeches. They proved themselves capable of performing on the stage in good style. Coach Hayward gave some "pre-game dope" and paid a fine tribute to the team. He said it was the best football team he has ever coached. The last speaker was President Ames, who was confident that our team would be victorious on Saturday. He also gave much credit to the team and coach for the clean sportsmanship they have displayed during the season. We are all proud of the football team of 1920.

FORMER NORMAL STARS

SPRING INTO LIMELIGHT

Otto Eggebrecht, in the game between Chicago and Wisconsin last Saturday, intercepted a long forward pass, giving Wisconsin the ball and their chance to put over the winning drop-kick. The Milwaukee Sentinel in commenting on the game states, "Wisconsin's hard luck started in the second quarter, when Weston and Elliott were sent to the side lines on account of injuries, but the subs who appeared stood the test like All-Western men. Eggebrecht and Holmes are two of them, whose work in the last game of the season earns for them all the honors that Wisconsin can bestow.

Lombard College, coached by Carl Eggebrecht, has won the Illinois state college championship, by defeating Knox College, the leading contender for state honors. Lombard has won seven out of eight games.

ASSEMBLY THURSDAY

Mr. Davee, chairman of the good school committee, gave a talk in assembly Thursday on the improvement of our public school system. He pointed out the weaknesses of the present system, showing how the school tax method could be improved in order that all pupils living in rural communities would have an equal opportunity to secure an education. He stated that the system of having a number of trustees to care for the schools should be abolished and that one competent person be elected to administer to the needs of an entire county. In this way greater efficiency could be obtained. The good school movement is one worthy of the aid of everyone in bringing about these much needed changes in our public school system.

NEW EDITOR OF ATHLETICS

Because of the great stress of work, Mr. Jas. Luther, who has been connected with the Student Voice as athletic editor, has found it necessary to resign. We feel certain that every reader of the Voice is in accord with members of the staff in expressing the regret at having Mr. Luther resign, and will want to wish him much luck as editor-in-chief of the Meletean, to which publication he is now to devote his entire time.

Mr. E. C. Thoner has been selected to succeed Mr. Luther as athletic editor. We are positive that our readers, and especially the sport fans, will agree that we have been fortunate in securing Mr. Thoner's assistance. Although not an athlete himself, he is one of the most enthusiastic sport followers and dopesters in school. He knows basketball, and baseball, the leading sports of the winter and spring months, as perhaps, few other students on the campus.

LINCOLNIAN

The members of the Lincolnian society were very agreeably entertained at a supper and program given in the Cafeteria dining room last Wednesday evening. After the dishes had been cleared away by the three new members of the society, the program of toasts was given under the direction of Toast-master Luther. Mr. Davison, the guest of honor, spoke very highly of the activity of the society this year. Toasts were also responded to by Sorenson, Shannon and Kelm.

On December 1 a joint meeting of the Lincolnian and Aurelia societies will be held in the society room. A good program is assured. All members be there.

WITH THE AG. MEN

The exams in the animal husbandry class cleared up for Mr. Johnson some points which he was not clear about. That is, just how much the different students knew about the subject. But the reasons for their thoughts on different matters were very un-clear to him. But he must remember that no philosopher can give a reason for half he thinks.

A. A. agrees with those who say that "on the sea of matrimony there are many sick voyagers."

The Crop and Poultry show was held last Thursday and Friday and was a success in exhibitors and educational exhibits. For the want of space the picture of the room and the complete writeup will be held until the next issue of the paper.

The corn and stock judging teams were with us during the week-end.

In the stock judging contest they ranked as follows:

- Normal High, first
- New Richmond, second
- Ellsworth, third
- River Falls High and Roberts tied on fourth place.

The Normal High team was coached by Glen Hutchinson.

In the Corn judging contest: River Falls High, first

Roberts High, second
Ellsworth, third
New Richmond, fourth
The River Falls High was coached by Robert Parker.

The Agrifallian society is financing the Crop and Poultry show, and is planning on a play in the nearfuture to meet the needs.

Mr. Prucha's class was talking about the value of silage, when this argument came up: Girl Student—"Silage rots the teeth of cattle."

Mr. Prucha, endeavored to prove to the class that such a statement was not right, but he found it very hard to do until he gave them an illustration. This was the illustration—"Just think of the German people, they have been eating sauer kraut all their lives and their teeth aren't rotten yet." The student grasped the point knowing that Mr. Prucha was a good judge of the matter.

In Ag. Ped. the class was talking about the advantages of today on the from compared with years ago. The students all thought the Ford was the greatest advantage for the farmer. Mr. May differed. He said the greatest advantage means also the greatest pleasure, and to please the women the most was the telephone. The class agreed to let Mr. May be judge of the matter for he has had the experience.

N. C. A.

The regular meeting of the N. C. A. was held last Thursday evening. The following program was given:

- Piano Solo, Alice Brown
- Talk, Mr. Hayes,
- of the Agr. Dept. of University Extension Dept.

After the program a practice in parliamentary rules, with Archie Anderson as chairman, was held.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. W. meeting last Thursday evening was a missionary meeting. The missionary chart is now up in the girls' rest room. If your name is not there, put it there. The program consisted of the following numbers:

- Talk on Hawaii, Miss Vanderhoof
- Song, Margaret Fox and Ethel Morgan

The meeting adjourned after the usual songs and benediction.

Helen McDonald, one of our last year's graduates, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. May, in this city.

Anina Howalt, reporter-in chief of the Student Voice last year, was here over the week-end.

Helen McNally's sister, Honor, visited over the week-end in River Falls.

Nell Stoiber, who is teaching at Prescott, attended the Oshkosh-River Falls game.

Mrs. Anne Hocking Smith interviewed all the funny men of the school last Monday evening. It has been rumored that we are to be entertained by a minstrel show sometime in the near future.
