MUSICAL CLUBS PRESENT QUALITY PROGRAM

MacPhail Cornetist Assists.

The fourth annual concert by the musical organizations, given Friday evening, was a great treat for the music lovers of the school and the community. The program consisted of selections by the Girls' Glee Club, violin solo by Robert Davee, cornet solo by Mr. Larusson, two numbers by the violin sextet, and the cantata "King Rene's Daughter."

A special treat was ours in the cornet music by Mr. Larusson of the MacPhail School of Music. His playing was excellent in technique and interpretation. The Girls' Glee Club did exceptionally good work in both the separate songs and in the cantata. Virginia Hoerer, Lillian Brosi, Mildred Heidbrink, and Catherine Chapman sang very well the solo parts in the last number.

This concert was an excellent ending of another year of Miss Wind's and Mr. Powers' good work as musical directors. The Girls' Glee Club has worked almost the entire year on the preparation of this program. Their efforts took form in the best school entertainment of the year, considering it from an artistic standpoint.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB AND SEMI-CHORUS

The cantata, "King Rene's Daughter," will be repeated in the special assembly program Friday afternoon at 1:40. Every member is expected to be present for the last practice of the season, Wednesday afternoon. Matters concerning the finances of the Glee Club and the credits for the year's work are to be presented at this meeting.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO START

If you are interested in tennis read the notice on Mr. Eggebrecht's bulletin boards. Efforts are being made to organize a tournament. Students and members of the faculty are eligible to compete. The games will run during the final weeks of the year.

SENIORS WIN TRACK AND FIELD MEET

Both Boys and Girls Triumph.

Had the men of the Junior class the same amount of spirit the girls lay claim to, the class track and field meet would have been a very close affair. The Senior girls were hard pushed during the entire meet and led only by one point at the end of the meet, winning 35 to 34.

The men of the Junior class found other things to occupy their time and allowed the Seniors to romp home with a long lead of 103 to 31.

Gerretson was high man, winning four firsts, one second and one third, a total of 25 points. Lipke followed with three firsts and one second, giving a total of 18 points.

CLASS OF '23 VOTE UNIT MEMBERSHIP IN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Senior and third year seniors voted to join the Alumni Association 100% as a unit at a joint class meeting held in the Assembly room last Tuesday. The motion passed instructed the treasurer to collect $1.00 from each member to cover payment to be made to the Alumni treasurer.

Mr. Luther, class treasurer, is being assisted by Miss Mary Carroll, '22, vice-president of the Alumni Association, in the collection of the assessment which is payable immediately and payments already being collected.

The action of the graduates of '23 in voting 100% for the Association is particularly fitting in view of the many activities this class has handled this year and last. It is emblematic of the spirit of the class members, and the high regard they will always have for their Alma Mater. We can safely prophesy a large representation of '23 when the Alumni meet in River Falls.

NO FLOWERS

The Junior Prom Committee requests that no flowers be worn at Junior Ball Friday, May 11th.

FALLS DROPS FIRST HOME GAME

Errors Feature Playing.

Through loose support given to the Red and White moundsman, coupled with the timely and effective hitting of the cadets, the Falls went down to its second defeat. Erratic fielding proved to be a sore spot in the working of the Normal team as is shown by the costly number of errors made. The locals scored in the sixth frame when Hyatt singled with two on, driving in two runs.

Houle led the St. Thomas offensive with a homer, triple, double, and single. Keyes ended the game with more strike-outs to his credit than his southpaw opponent.

The visitors are an exceptionally strong team, having practically the same line-up as they had last year when they won the Minnesota conference championship, and, furthermore, they shut-out the University of Minnesota.

Two-base hits—Donahue, 3; McGregor, 2; Houle, Riley, Schmidt. Three-base hits—Houle. Strike-outs—Keyes, 9; Glenning, 6. Hit by pitcher—Riley, Shannon.

Y. M. MEETING

Don't forget the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. next Tuesday night. Prof. Johnston will speak. Special music. Let's have a big meeting.

The Civic Club holds its annual party this evening at 7 o'clock in the Society room. Each member is asked to bring a partner.

A LITTLE CO-OPERATION

At a recent assembly a request was made of the students to refrain from cutting "across lots" on the campus and from littering the grounds with paper and other refuse. The grass is just beginning to grow, and the sod is still soft. If we make a practice of saving a few steps at the expense of the lawn, it will be impossible to have a smooth green campus, unblemished by patches of naked earth. We are fortunate in having beautiful grounds about the school buildings and we can certainly afford to "keep off the grass" a few weeks for the sake of the later beauty.

In the same spirit refuse boxes have been placed before both buildings. It may take an extra step or two to put our pieces of waste paper in these boxes, but it certainly is worth the effort to keep from detracting from the natural loveliness of the campus. Nothing looks more untidy than a lawn littered with bits of paper, and it is so little trouble, for each of us, to keep the campus free from such blemishes.

Let's "keep off the grass" for a while, and make it unnecessary to have any clean-up week.

HIGH SCHOOL CONTESTS

The district oratorical and declamatory contests will be held here on Friday afternoon and evening of this week. This is an annual affair, bringing together the best speakers from surrounding high schools to compete for the honor of representing this district at the state contest. The speakers will be here as our guests, so it is our duty to show our hospitality by being present at both the contests.

The Lincolnian is planning to entertain the speakers and coaches at a banquet Friday evening at six o'clock.

The high schools to be represented in the oratorical contest are, Hammond, New Richmond, St. Croix Falls, Baldwin, Hayward, Hudson, Prescott, Cumberland, and Webster. This contest will begin at 2:30 Friday afternoon.

The declamatory contestants will represent the schools at Hammond, New Richmond, Ellsworth, Hayward, Clayton, Cumberland, Glenwood City, Milltown, and Maiden Rock. This contest starts at 8:15 in the evening. Mr. John Seaman Garns of the MacPhail school will judge both contests.

Admission for one individual contest will be 25c, but 35c will buy a ticket for both contests.

GET THIS

A free movie for students, "The Lost Trail," by Zane Grey, will be shown in the auditorium Saturday, at eight o'clock p. m.

Burton Karges has started a new contest. He broke, Saturday, not the dancing record, but the gum-chewing record. He chewed 17 sticks of gum at the same time. Later: Carroll Brown, however, maintains that he still holds the world's championship in this favorite American sport. In 1920 he set the record at 30 sticks at one mouthful.

The students are pestering the Meletean staff in their endeavor to find out who are the ones to be in the three feature pictures in the Meletean, the most popular man and woman, and the best looking woman.

Who do you suppose the Class Queen is? That mean committee that won't tell us!

SENIORS GATHER SOME REAL DOPE

Some good things were said by speakers at the educational council Saturday forenoon. Among the talks heard by Student Voice reporters were those by Mr. Davison, Mr. Stratton, and Mr. Dyer of the University of Minnesota.

Mr. Davison brought out the need in revision of some of the old history courses now in vogue in our high schools. The great foundation requirement of a knowledge of geography, as set forth by Mr. Stratton, is the marshalling of a group of common geographical facts, or what he calls place "geography."

Mr. Dyer's address closed the meeting. It consisted of discussions of the future education. He says we should first determine how and what should be taught; then proceed in the right manner to put our findings into use. Mr. Dyer well states that we are but on the "threshold of education, and what teachers need at present is the true professional spirit of which, as a group, they are woefully lacking."

IF YOU LIKE IT

Lenore knows quite a lot about "fielding" of late.

A diplomat is a man, who, when he gets home late at night, sneaks into bed backwards so if his wife should happen to wake he could tell her he was just getting up.

Women's minds are much cleaner than man's; they change them so much oftener.

Frankie: "You make me think of Venus de Milo at times."

Jimmie: "But I have arms."
Frankie: "Oh, have you?"

Duly Smith said he wished he was a goldfish so he could go swimming every day.

Stan B.: "I haven't always been poor. I used to ride in my own carriage."

Charlotte McC.: "When was that?"
Stan: "Oh, when I was a baby."

Many cultured people wish they could grow wild.

Wayne T.: "I think kissing is a horrible habit."

Winfred B.: "Don't believe all you read old thing."

The hardest of hard luck is to be taking a bath when your nose catches on fire.

They call the world "she" because they don't know how old it is.

It is difficult for a woman to keep a secret; some know more than one man who is a woman.

Ask Lenore and Don if they were tired before they got home Sunday night.

What will those who loudly cry that our normal schools devote too much time to to academic subjects say to this:

Mr. May: "Where is the University of New York located?"
Seyforth: "Philadelphia."

School Notes

Al. Hyatt visited at Downing Saturday and Sunday.

Gretchen Zimdars visited school friends the first of the week.

Miss Wirt and Miss West visited Mrs. Davis in Hudson Sunday.

Ask "Ally" MacAndrews why he thinks the Juniors are "tacky".

Harriet Liedman went over to the cities for Saturday and Sunday.

Arthur Gordon, '22, who is teaching at Menomonie, visited River Falls the past week-end.

Miss Edith Olson had as her guest Miss Ruth Benson, who has been teaching in Montana.

Miss Hathorn came to school yesterday for the first time since her long and serious illness.

Irene Luberg and Charlotte Younggren spent their time and money in St. Paul last Saturday.

Lila Simpson accompanied Martha Day to her home near River Falls over Saturday and Sunday.

On the fourteenth, fifteenth and sixteenth of this month, Chet Hartlett will be back. Hold those dates open.

Lynn Topliss, of Stout Institute, visited Virginia Hooser last week-end. She will return the call next Friday!

Elvira Thomson has left school because of her rundown condition. She hopes to finish her course in summer school.

Everyone has a cold since the weather has been nice enough to go strolling. Yes, colds are rather contagious.

Gladys Herum and Esther Chronquist, with the "other two", spent Sunday at the farm home of Mrs. Harry Miller.

Mrs. Wadsworth entertained Jean and Helen Scott, Elva Clubb, and Lila Fleming at a six o'clock dinner Wednesday evening.

Bessie Needham, Agnes Vennes, Victor Erickson, Dave Needham, and Lorin Strong went to Valley View Farm Saturday evening for a marsh-mallow roast.

The students will be very much surprised to learn of the resignation of Miss Mosher, who has been our most efficient librarian for a number of years. She will live with her brother, O. W. Mosher, of New Richmond.

The following students have accepted positions for next year: Lucy Demulling and Doris Condie, New Richmond; Vidle Tubbs, Hudson; Viola White, Cumberland; George O'Brien, Fish Creek; Louise Bradley and Neil Martin, Eleva; Nellie Roesse, Pepin.

SHANK'S HORSES

Who knows the joys of an evening ride

In a Ford when it's pitchy dark,
And the lights go out and you sit in doubt

As to what's become of the sparks.

You're sure to be miles from the nearest place

With roads just a mess of clay.
And you sit in your seat and gnash your teeth

As you long for the light of day.

Oh, it's life at its worst but it teaches a man

Not to put any faith in a Ford;
That to travel by day is the safer way
If you want to get just reward.

But better than all to avoid a stall
Let your feet be the means to convey,

And I'm telling you now if you only know how,

You'll never get stuck on the way.
