THE COLLEGE STAFF members surprised many persons, and even themselves, Friday night by showing remarkable talent in "the Unteachables," the 1961 version of the Faculty Frolics. An estimated 1,200 spectators filled Karges Center for the show. According to Miss Marian Hawkins and Dr. Walter Engler of the Frolics finance committee, the performance grossed about $1,000. Since expenses are estimated at about $150, the College Foundation will receive approximately $850. The Toonful Tutors and the Sweet Sour Krauts provided music for the affair and Dr. Richard Delorit was master of ceremonies. (Frolics photos by Blegen)

Senate Presents New Constitution For Ratification

Students will go to the polls in another all-school election this Wednesday, April 19, to vote on ratification of proposed changes in the Student Senate Constitution.

The principal change in the Constitution is the removal of several clauses from the body of the Constitution and organizing them into by-laws.

Senate members pointed out that the purpose for institution of the bylaws, which would be amendable by the Senate at their regular meetings, is to provide a more workable constitution. The (Continued on page 6)

Senate Elections Draw Big Vote, Name 3 Incumbents, 4 Newcomers

A record number of 772 voters elected four first-term Senators and re-elected only three incumbents to the Student Senate last Wednesday in an all-school election which was marred with hard feelings, name-calling, and protest.

Carol Jennings Hanson, junior from Mondovi; Wayne Hendrickson, sophomore from Spring Valley; and Jim Norrish, freshman from Durand were the Senate incumbents re-elected to serve on next year's organization.

What several people took not as a surprise but a reflection of an unintelligent vote was the defeat of two-term Senator Charles E. "Scotty" Smith, junior from Beloit who was considered a natural for the Senate chairmanship next year.

Interesting also was the defeat of Karl Lillienwald, junior from New York City, who polled 397 write-in ballots.

Lillienwald's name was stricken from the ballot only two days before the election when the Student Senate at its regular Monday meeting upheld a protest that he had broken election rules by starting his campaign a week early.

Smith missed a Senate seat by only 13 votes, while Lillienwald fell short of seventh-place candidate Bob Richardson by 42 votes.

Election Results
Linda Berg	478
Tom Brickner	310
Carol Jennings Hanson	500
Wayne Hendrickson	500
Paul Kelly	447
Jim Norrish	479
Patrick O'Connell	520
Robert Richardson	439
Charles E. "Scotty" Smith	426

Karl Lillienwald	397*

'Eggheads' Compete Thursday Night

A little brown bowl that will probably resemble a common bean jug will hold the spotlight on the River Falls campus Wednesday evening as Eau Claire and River Falls "eggheads" compete in the College Bowl to win the coveted prize.

The first-prize "Little Brown Bowl" will, of course, be a token of the prestige and recognition earned by the college which presents the winning team of brain students slated to answer general-knowledge questions to be fired at them by Master of Ceremonies James Murphy, school of education.

The River Falls contestants, John Hanson, Wayne Hendrickson, Richard Moe, and Wayne Handlos, with their coach Dr. Allen Love, will have dinner with the Eau Claire opponents in the Student Center cafeteria at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday evening.

All proceeds of the inter-school competition will go to the River Falls Foundation Association, which is currently working on a fund drive for the proposed Falcon sculpture on the Karges Physical Building.

Richard Cooklock, River Falls librarian, will be parliamentarian and will rule on any discrepancies in answering questions. Each school will submit 100 questions to College Bowl officials Wednesday evening, from which 100 questions will be selected for competition.

Questions to be submitted by River Falls will be composed by a committee consisting of Dr. Floyd Overly, English department; Mrs. Ruth Odenburg, physics; Dr. Robert Bailey, sociology; Dr. Catherine Lieneman, biology; and Dr. Leland Wittwer, agriculture.

Free Coffee for Freddy

The Hagstad Student Center Food Service will give its coffee customers a choice tomorrow — pay the regular 7 cents for a cup of coffee or donate 10 cents to Freddy the Falcon and get a cup of coffee free.

The offer will be in effect from 8:30 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. at the Snack Bar.

The procedure is simple. If you pay 7 cents for your coffee, the money goes to the food service, as it normally does. But if you choose to pay 10 cents, the entire dime goes to the fund to finance sculptured bronze falcon for Karges Center.

In effect, the customer will be donating 3 cents to Freddy while the food service will contribute 7 cents.

River Falls Graduate Gets First Fulbright Scholarship

Miss Patricia Lind, 1960 River Falls State College graduate and now a faculty assistant in the English department, has been awarded a Fulbright Scholarship for graduate study in France. Miss Lind is the first River Falls graduate to receive the coveted grant.

With majors in French and English and a minor in journalism, Miss Lind will study French literature and language at the University of Besancon, southeast of Paris.

The Editor Speaks...

It has recently been drawn to my attention that the use of observation, it becomes obvious that something is definitely wrong, nature when it is considered that they are located on a college the television sets located about this campus is of a truly peculiar campus.

What programs are generally viewed on these sets? Upon "Bugs Bunny" during the 6 o'clock news? "Kartoon Time" during the noon news? Any one of a number of quiz shows during the excellent programing offered by the University of Minnesota's Channel Two.

Channel Two. This raises another question. When is Channel Two on the sets? Seldom, if ever, can be the only answer. It seems our TV watching students prefer to view "The Young Dr. Malone", "Day in Court" or a movie to a good science lecture, a class in astronomy or an analysis of current news.

What does this indicate of our standards in an institution that is supposed to contain people searching for an education?

Student Senate Minutes

President Ron Skone called the April 10 meeting of the Student Senate to order at 6:30 p.m. in Room 200 of the Student Center. The secretary's minutes of March 27 were approved as read. Treasurer Smith reported a balance of $1785.82 in the Student Senate Account.

Fred Froelich represented the Social Committee in requesting that the Senate designate a method of choosing prom royalty.

Linda Berg, Tom Brickner, Pat O'Connell, and Bob Richardson lodged a formal protest against the campaign procedure employed by candidate for Senate Karl Lilienwald, stating that his campaign began several days prior to the regulation date. Lilienwald was present to state his case, stating that he was not fully aware of his violation of campaign procedure, but that when said infraction of the rules was brought to his attention, he, to the best of his knowledge, removed his campaign material and, thereafter, complied with the regulations. Discussion followed.

Wagenbach moved and Miller seconded that Lilienwald's plea for leniency be accepted. Motion defeated.

Rogers moved and Schmid seconded that in accordance with evidence presented indicating that Lilienwald did willfully disregard the campaign regulations after said regulations had been called to his attention, Lilienwald's name be stricken from the ballot. Discussion followed.

A roll call vote read: Bergstrom, aye; Hanson, aye; Hendrickson, aye; Miller, nay; Norrish, nay; Rogers, aye; Schmid, aye; Smith, nay; Wagenbach, nay. The motion was carried.

Smith moved and Hanson seconded that there should be prom royalty this year. Motion carried.

Rogers moved, Bergstrom seconded, that the four class presidents make up the prom royalty. Motion carried.

Smith moved, Schmid seconded, that the representation of royalty be limited to the office of the presidency. Motion carried.

Wagenbach was excused at 8:30 p.m.

The recommendations of the Constitution Committee on the revising of the Senate Constitution were presented. Schmid moved and Rogers seconded that the Constitution and bylaws as proposed by the Constitution Committee be accepted. Motion carried.

Henrickson moved and Norrish seconded that the revised Constitution of the United Student Government be accepted. Motion carried.

Bob Agranoff presented his protest of the decision made by the Senate to strike Lilienwald's name from the ballot.

At approximately 9:45 p.m. Hendrickson moved that the meeting be adjourned at 9:55 p.m. Motion carried. At that time the meeting was adjourned.

Carol Hanson,
Secretary

Absent: Seefeldt.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Thanking each one individually for his support in making "The Faculty Frolics exceed our highest hopes is an obvious impossibility. A beginning might be made with the performers whose talent was much greater than they would admit when asked to participate. The ticket sales and food service went off with a precision that was truly professional. A special word of thanks to students Jim Hay, Tom Fuzer, and Tom Brucks for their contribution and to the maintenance staff, particularly of the Karges Center, to whom the show meant hours of extra work. Finally, a word of appreciation to the marvelously receptive audience and to the large number of students who backed the production by attending. The enthusiasm of the audience, noticeable from the time the arly comers arrived an hour before the show began gave us all the extra encouragement we needed.

Ed Peterson and Wayne Wolfe,
Co-chairmen

Dear Editor:

The A. W. S. Board, often called "Kangaroo Kourt," tried to clarify a few points, but they all concerned the Board, which was only one-third of my letter. The Board certainly is not being very objective.

Concerning the second paragraph—I am fully aware that the A.W.S. Board has a constitution; well, so have I, and that one is the Constitution of the United States of America. Apparently there is no room for democracy here; Democracy is a wonderful thing, but please don't apply it here!

Incidentally, I can cite individual cases where members of the Board have broken "rules," were reported, and did not receive punishment.

I am very much surprised that the Board has never heard the term "Kangaroo Kourt," or as Mr. Hawkes called it, "... committee of twelve good girls ..."

If meetings are open to everyone, why is it that a young lady, who is being judged, is sent out of the room while the decision is being made about her, which concerns her??

If the A.W.S. Board represents the young ladies, who represents them when they have to face you for punishment??

How can one view the Board meetings objectively when the Board is subjective??? In the fourth paragraph, the words, "We honestly feel . . ." are in themselves subjective. Please clarify them. You must take notice that I also feel!

In conclusion, I would like to ask a question and make a correction. What makes you so sure that all young ladies agree with you??? I do not agree with you because I regard it as a "Kangaroo Kourt," therefore, my dear girls, there are 364 Kangaroos hopping around campus.

I remain,
Virginia Lee White

Dear Editor:

At this time I would like to thank the supporters in my campaign, and I would also like to thank the faculty involved for their tremendous moral support.

Last, but not least, I would like to thank all those hundreds of students who wrote my name on the ballots.

It is said that all you people will not be represented, but I am sure that many are indeed happy with my defeat, as this is true of any election.

I think that the whole campaign was a fair and square one, depending upon how you interpret it, because so far as the Cubans were concerned, the executives were also fair and square.

I think, and I do accept my defeat as a glorious one, and I feel wonderful, just as the Germans felt after the Treaty of Versailles was signed.

I remain as ever,
Karl H. Lilienwald

For Senior Class President

Sportniks

by Swami Schlumpf

The National League pennant chase got under way last week, but its still not too late for the Swami to give you a sneak preview on what is really going to happen in the senior circuit before the summer's over.

The limb snapped off abruptly last season when the Pirates (we picked them sixth) came through to win the title and defeat the Yankees in the World Series.

Barring unforeseen circumstances, we shall be a little more accurate this year. (The above clause includes injuries, trades, and tornadoes.)

I hear cries of "Here we go again," but never-the-less the final standings next fall should look very similar to these:

1. Milwaukee Braves
2. Los Angeles Dodgers
3. Pittsburgh Pirates
4. San Francisco Giants
5. St. Louis Cardinals
6. Cincinnati Redlegs
7. Philadelphia Phillies
8. Chicago Cubs

BRVES—There's a big "if" surrounding the Teepe this season and if the front office doesn't remedy it, the Suds City Sluggers may find themselves in second place or lower. That question mark concerns their secondary pitching corps. They need another hurler that can win 12 games and/or a strong relief hurler. We're confident that the authorities will trade some of that strong reserve infield personnel for the needed hurling.

Meanwhile Charley Dressen's squad still boasts the strongest one-two slugging punch in either league in Hank Aaron (.292-40-126) and Eddie Mathews (.277-39-124). They also have the shrewdest two-pronged pitching duo in either circuit in ageless Warren Spahn (21-10-3.49) and lanky Lew Burdette (19-13-3.36). With the addition of Frank Bolling and Roy McMillian, the Milwaukeeans can now field the tightest infield in baseball.

Add Del Crandall, the best catcher in the majors; Joe Adcock, (.298-25-91), a strong link in a fearsome Murderer's Row; and Bob Buhl, the best number three pitcher in the loop; and you can forget the so-called outfield problem that Brave-haters claim Milwaukee has. By two-platooning Al Spangler and John DeMerit, the Braves can let Lee Maye hit .300 for a whole season this year.

DODGERS—Walter O'Malley ("Go West, young man, go West") has one of the finest young teams ever assembled but may find inexperienced keeping the kids out of first place this year. A tremendous pitching staff, several bright faces in the garden, and the potentially great Frank Howard have pushed the Bums into the pennant limelight. If the Braves don't solve their pitching problem, the Fuzz Kids might take it all.

Don Drysdale (15-14-2.84), Johnny Podres (14-12-3.08), Larry Sherry (14-10-3.80), Stan Williams (14-10-3.00), Sandy Koufax (8-13-3.91), and rookie Jim Golden (20-9-2.32 at St. Paul) will wilt many a would-be N.L. hitter. If Drysdale wears ear-muffs, he could improve on his league-leading mark of 246 strikeouts.

Tommy Davis and newcomer Willie Davis (no relation) may move batting star Norm Larker (.323) to the bench if Howard nails down the first-base position.

But the Bums need some hitting from a slick-fielding infield and a replacement for Johnny Roseboro behind the dish. Otherwise the flag looks a year away for Lippy Leo Duroucher and his boss, Walt Alstron.

PIRATES—It seems unlikely that Pirates can all do as well as as they did in '60. Still, they'll be tough right down to the wire. Names like Vernon Law (20-9-3.08), Bob Friend (18-12-3.00), Dick Groat (.325), Dick Stuart (.260-23-83), and Roberto Clemente (.314-18-94) will continue to grace the sports pages this summer. But it seems improbable that the Pirates can catch the Braves and Dodgers again this year.

Roy Face (10-8-2.90) is still a top-notch short-inning man and Bob Skinner (.273-15-86) adds punch to the Buccaneer's attack. Throw in inspirational Don Hoak (.282-16-79), reliable catchers Smokey Burgess and Hal Smith, Bill Mazerowski (the best key-stoner in the loop), and Vinegar Bend Mizell (14-8) and you find yourself wondering how the Pirates can miss. Before the statistics sway our thinking we'll move on to the Giants.

GIANTS—Harvey Kuenn (a U. of Wisconsin grad) has broken into the N.L. in fine style. Now, if his hitting proves as robust, the Giants could be tough. We doubt if he'll lead the league but his bat will give San Francisco those needed singles in wind-blown Candlestick Park.

Returning off course, to haunt senior loop pitchers, will be the invincible Willie Mays (.319-29-103), Orlando Cepeda (.297-24-96), and the up again-down again Willie McCovey.

Sam Jones (18-14-3.19), Mike McCormick (15-12-2.70), Jack Sanford (12-14-3.82), and Stu Miller (3.88) will get mound help from Juan Marichal (6-2-2.67), hard-luck Billy O'Dell (8-13-3.19) and an improved Billy Loes.

Swami says keep your eyes on Matty Alou, Felipe's younger brother who comes to the Giants with more credentials than a Wells-Fargo agent.

CARDINALS—Due to the tremendous influence of Anheuser-Busch, Joe Garagiola, Harry Carey, and Gar Lenander, the Cards squeezed into third place last year. But they won't be as fortunate this season.

Ernie Broglio (21-9-2.95), Larry Jackson (18-13-3.48) and Lindy McDaniel (12-4-2.09) form a solid core on the hill but where do you go from there?

Ken Boyer (.304-32-97) ranks right behind Mathews as a stellar third-sacker and Stan Musial may inject a parting shot in the arm but the Cards are on the table and the floor is ever-beckoning.

Unless shock troops are rushed in to aid punchless Carl Sawatski and Hal Smith, the Birds may have trouble holding on to fifth.

REDLEGS—Freddie Hutchinson's Rhinelanders finished a comfortable sixth last year and unless his spring training tactics of night classes, vigorous sprinting exercises, and all out whoop-dee-doo produce some results, the Red will again finish a comfortable sixth.

Frank Robinson (.297-31-83), Vada Pinson (.287-20-61), Gus Bell (.262-12-62), Wally Post (.284-19-50), Jerry Lynch (.289), and Ed Bailey (.261-13-67) will carry the brunt of the attack.

A young pitching staff will feature Jim O'Toole (12-12-3.81), Jay Hook (11-18-4.50), and Bob Purkey (17-11-3.59). Jim Brosnan (7-2-2.36) can be counted on for steady relief chores.

But lack of outstanding performers at all positions and a general "don't give a damn" attitude will relegate the Redlegs to the second-division again.

PHILLIES—The Phillies are on the way up but their youth movement won't produce too many startling developments this year. Front office big wheel John Quinn and hustling field general Gene Mauch are going all out to produce a winner in the City of Brotherly Love but N.L. opponents will be anything but amorous when facing the Phils.

In closing, we'll nominate Aaron for the batting title (.332 should do it this year), Banks for the homerun crown (44), Spahn, McCormick, Broglio, and Law as 20-game winners, and Duroucher as Assistant Manager of the Year.

Hardballers Sweep Doubleheader By Dumping Macs In Home Opener

by Phil Thurston

The River Falls baseball team opened its 1961 campaign with two victories over visiting Macalester last Tuesday on a rainsoaked diamond at Ramer Field.

Coach Don Page got surprisingly good pitching out of his two starters John Boertz and Ed Gregorich. Boertz tossed a nifty three-hitter in the lidlifter to pace his teammates to a 3-2 victory over the Scots. In the nightcap Gregorich held Macalester to four hits as the Falcon nine scampered to a 13-4 win.

First Game

Starting pitcher Boertz opened the game by retiring the side in order in the first inning. He struck out Zimmer, the lead off man. Cartwright then grounded out short to first and centerfielder Shaughnessy went down on strikes to retire the side.

Jim Tickner opened the bottom of the first for the Falcons with a walk. Jim Norrish then singled. Right-fielder Frank Gombold doubled to score both Ticknor and Norrish. Vern Wanish struck out and Norm Behn grounded out pitcher to first. Tom Strasser followed with a single to send Gombold across the plate with the Falcon's third and final run of the game. Bob Nielsen struck out to end the inning.

Macalester scored their two runs in the sixth inning. Cartwright singled to open the inning. He went to second on a passed ball and scored on a triple by Shaughnessy. Bjeken hit a sacrifice fly to centerfield driving across Shaughnessy for the final scoring in the game. Boertz, winning his first collegiate game, struck out six and walked five in his seven inning stint.

Macalester hurler, Baumgartner struck out nine Falcons in six innings, but also had eight bases on balls.

Second Game

The Scots opened the second game with three runs on two hits in the first inning. Zimmer led off the inning with a triple. Olson worked Falcon hurler Gregorich for a walk. An error by third baseman Wanish on a drive by Bjerken allowed Zimmer to score Macalester's first run. Hanson then singled to drive across the second and third runs of the inning. Hanson was cut down trying to go to second on the throw to the plate for the first out. Shaughnessy grounded out to first and Cartwright popped out to Gregorich to end the inning.

The Falcons knotted the score at three all in the second. Strasser led off with a single and went on to second on an error by the first baseman. Behn got on on an error by the Mac's third-baseman. Shortstop Harry Kahl walked to lead the bases. Kermit Summers was safe on a fielders choice with Strasser scoring. With men on first and third Tickner clouted a triple to score two runs but was out trying to stretch it into a home run.

River Falls broke the game wide open in the fourth, scoring ten runs on four hits. A double, three single, four consecutive walks and three errors gave the Falcons their biggest inning of the year.

With a ten-run lead Gregorich pitched the rest of the ball game allowing only one run. He struck out four and walked four in the game.

Macalester pitchers combined for five strike outs and six bases on balls.

Cool Spring Temps Usher In Baseball, Track, Golf, Tennis

The spring sports squads swing into action this week as the baseball, track golf, and tennis teams play at least one game or match. Friday is the busy day as all four will be in action.

The River Falls hardballers, after winning a twin bill from Macalester, will travel to Carleton Thursday, April 20 and to Bethel Friday, April 21. Coach Don Page may go with his winning pitching combination of last week in John Boertz and Ed Gregorich or he may call on Ken Mouw, Frank Gombold, Jim Chinander, or Dick Quast for the mound duties.

Hosting Winona on Wednesday, April 19 and Stout on Friday, April 21, the Thinclads hope to get back on the winning track after being defeated by Carleton in the season opener. Coach Fran Polsfoot, who is optimistic about the coming season, has six lettermen returning for the nucleus of the squad.

The Falcon linksters open the season Tuesday April 18 at home against Carleton and on Friday April 21 will travel to Bethel. Coach Bergsrud has Pat Higgins, Barry Lindsay, Valmer Barrows, Jerry Stern, and Chuck Wall returning from last year.

The Falcon netmen also play Bethel on Friday but the match will be played at River Falls. Jim Roy, Larry Greenwald, Dick Jensen, Don Koepnick, Al Rosenthal, Paul Anderson, Verne Comstock, Ray Christianson, and Jim Lindquist are the candidates that coach Byron James has to pick from.

WRA SPORTS

At the Monday evening business meeting many plans were made for spring activities.

Sue Driscoll was elected softball sports head. Sign up on a team now in Karges Center and watch for notices of starting date.

A canoe trip has been planned for the wet-end of May 18 and 19. This will be a weekend excursion down the St. Croix River. A simple swimming test will be required of those who wish to attend. Any WRA member interested should sign in Karges Center.

Plans are being made for an outing with the Eau Claire WRA. This will include a picnic and softball game.

Carls Win Indoor Meet

Forced inside because of bad weather, Carleton dumped the River Falls Thinclads 69 2/3-43 1/3 Saturday afternoon at Northfield, Minn. The discus was the only event to be held outside of the javelin throw was eliminated. Also eliminated was the 220 yard event.

Some of the distances were changed because of the track. The 440 yard run was increased to 500 yards so the runners could finish on the straight part of the track. The 100 yard dash, the 120 high hurdles, and the 220 yard low hurdles were shortened to 60 yard events.

The Falcon cindermen placed three firsts, seven seconds, and six thirds. There was a three way tie for second in the high jump.

River Falls' Glen Anderson tossed the shot 40 ft. 6 in. to take first place. Bob Radatz had a throw of 35 ft. 4 in. for third place.

Ken Smelcer gave the Falcons three points by placing second in the pole vault with an effort of 10 feet.

The three way tie for second place in the high jump involved Dennis Louks and Carleton's Allen and Driscoll.

Martin Haider and Jerry Halverson of River Falls battled it out at the distance events. Carleton's Wilson won the mile but Haider and Halverson finished second and third. In the two mile event Haider and Halverson fought for the lead in the last lap but Haider finished first by an eyelash.

Tom Pride finished second in the extended quarter mile and Duane Jensen finished third in the half mile.

Falcon hurdler Louie Moore finished second in the high hurdles and Gordon Olson finished third in the high and low.

River Falls placed second and third in the broad jump as Newton

Buckner jumped 20 ft. 6 in. and Smelcer jumped 18 ft. 10 in.

Falcon Leon Headleg won the 60 yard dash in the fine time of 6.5 seconds.

In the only event to be held outside, Radatz placed second in the discus.

With one week of "A" division action left and the "B" Division already completed the teams winning berths in the final roll-off series have been decided. The Alley Cats will meet the Sleepers, the Splitters will meet the Scraggs, the Tequila Kids will meet the King Pins and the Elmer's Boys will meet the Pin Boys.

Only two teams are returns from last year. These being the Tequila Kids and the Alley Cats, then named the "509 Boys". The Tequila Kids beat out the 509 Boys in last years tourney only to lose to the Gutter Dusters in the Championship game. The Dusters finished sixth in this year's competition and fail to return to the tournament field.

Leading up to the final standings in the "B" division the first place Sleepers won three points from the Maple Splitters who forfeited their last match. The Scraggs moved from fourth place to a tie for second place by taking two points from the King Pins who share that tie. The Pin Boys and Dog Faces both forfeited their last match and both received three points in the lost column.

In the "A" Division the Tequila Kids ran into trouble in the last two weeks of action and dropped matches, one to the first place Alley Cats and one to the new second place Splitters. The Splitters have proven to be the miracle team. Since dropping the famous "fifth frame breaks" they have put together 19 consecutive wins. The last team to hand them a defeat was the Tequila Kids. In the first round next week the Splitters take on the first place Alley Cats, who have a 9 game winning streak going, in a fight that should prove interesting. The Alley Playboys in an effort to pull themselves out of the cellar took three points from the Nine Pinners and then ran into the Elmer's Boys and will settle for a last place finish. Next week's action and the final week of "A" action finds the Splitters trying to keep their string alive against the Alley Cats. The Tequila Kids, trying to get back on the winning trail, will be going against the Alley Playboys. The Elmer's Boys will clash with the Gutter Dusters. The Nine Pinners will draw a bye.

The tournament starts Monday, April 24 at 4:00 p.m. and run through Wednesday, April 26th. The winners on Monday will meet on Tuesday night and these winners will meet Wednesday night for the Championship. Handicap will be used, but will not change throughout the tournament.

Student Senate Sets Precedent On Campaigns

The Student Senate set a precedent at their regular meeting last Monday evening by dropping the name of Karl Lillienwald from the Senate election ballot for an infraction of campaign rules. It was the first time a candidate was dropped from the ballot for similar reasons.

The 5-4 decision, however, sparked several fires around campus which included considerable mud-slinging, the resignation of Bob Agranoff as chairman of the Student Center Governing Board, and a wave of write-in votes for Lillienwald in the Wednesday elections.

In making the decision, Senate members pointed out that election rules are made to be obeyed, and that it logically follows that the infraction of any one rule should be regarded as serious as the infraction of any other.

The controversy began when four Senate candidates, Linda Berg, Tom Brickner, Pat O'Connell, and Bob Richardson, appeared before the Senate Monday evening to protest campaigning by Lillienwald before the April 10 date when campaigning for the regular election was to begin.

Lillienwald had campaign slogans on blackboards in North and South Halls and posters in various places on campus and in one of the bars down town, the group protested.

Lillienwald claimed that he did not know the election rules regarding Senate elections as printed in the Student Voice of March 20, and that he removed all posters as soon as possible after learning at 3 a.m. Friday morning, April 7, that he was breaking the rules. He challenged the Senate to prove that he was aware of who was writing his name on the blackboards, saying "anybody" could be doing it.

It was pointed out, however, that one of his campaign signs was in Osen's Bar as late as Saturday noon, and that his name remained on several blackboards all weekend. When asked point blank if he knew who was writing his name on the blackboards, he admitted that he did.

Bob Agranoff stormed into the meeting later in the evening after learning of the Senate's decision, charging that the Senators were playing personalities in trying to get rid of Lillienwald.

The Senate tried to explain the situation, but Agranoff declared that he was tendering his resignation from the Student Center Governing Board in protest. The Senate had voted to adjourn before Agranoff's statement was made, however, and did not act upon his resignation at the moment.

Inaccuracies of Film Shown At Wesley Foundation Meet

A committee aimed at making available information concerning alleged inaccuracies in the controversial film, "Operation Abolition," was formed Tuesday night at River Falls State College. Heading the new group are Pauline Knief, Star Prairie, Wis.; and George Beestman, Clear Lake, Wis.

The committee grew out of a meeting sponsored by the Wesley Foundation to analyze and discuss the film. More than 100 students and faculty members from the college attended the meeting at the Methodist Church here.

The Rev. John Mecartney, the church's minister, charged that the House Un-American Activities Committee, sponsors of the film, "may be helping the Communists more than it hinders them." He cited a list of those criticizing the movie, including the St. Paul Catholic Bulletin, the Jesuit weekly America, the General Board of the National Council of Churches, and the Lutheran youth publication One.

Major criticism of the film by students centered on the narrator's discussion of alleged rioting by students at the San Francisco hearings of the committee, although students charged that this was not shown in the film.

Six Graduates Sign For Jobs

by Keith Olson

The placement list continued to grow this past week as six more seniors signed their names on the dotted line. Those that signed for work after graduation this spring include:

Ed Schlumpf of Durand who has inked a contract with Mondovi high school to be head wrestling coach, assistant football coach, teach American History and Citizenship. He will also be advisor for the school paper.

Bob Vermillion will make his home in Janesville teaching eighth and ninth grade English. Bob is from Elkhorn.

Eighth grade and elementary phy. ed. along with high school coaching will be Mike Collin's employment upon graduation. He will be teaching at Marsh, Wisconsin.

Gerald Carlson of River Falls, will be teaching American History and Social Science at Frederick, Wisconsin.

Betty Hanson with an elementary ed. major will teach third and fourth grade at Alman, Wisconsin, which is part of the Barron School system.

Gerald Mertens of Racine will work at Wilmar State Hospital, Wilmar, Minnesota, as a psychologist.

charged that no Communist "agitators" were shown leading the protesting students, as the narrator in the film stated. The group also learned during the discussion that 67 of the 68 students arrested in the San Francisco incident were freed by the judge, which would not have happened if among them were Communists who incited to riot.

Mecartney, who led a similar discussion April 9 at the First Methodist Church in Minneapolis, argued that "Anti-Communists should insist that the film be prefaced by a presentation of its inaccuracies, or else we will be attempting to fight Communism with falsehoods." He said that this is essentially the position taken by the General Board of the National Council of Churches.

WESLEY TO PRESENT FILM, 'ALTERNATIVES'

"Alternatives" is the title of color film produced by 40 religious and peace organizations including the Methodist Church showing the alternatives to military service which United States laws provide for those who cannot in good conscience kill. The film will be shown at a public meeting sponsored by the Wesley Foundation this Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Methodist Church.

The film is narrated by Hollywood Actor Don Murray, himself a conscientious objector, who did his alternative service in Italy. Among the types of alternative service for conscientious objectors illustrated in the film are the following: teaching classes in a migrant work camp, draining a malaria swamp in Pakistan, teaching a new trade to Communist refugees in Hong Kong, being a "guinea pig" for U.S. medical research, doing slum clearance in the U.S. and working with agricultural development in India.
