3 CONFERENCE TILTS SCHEDULED; SUPERIOR AND FALLS DORMANT

By Winning From Milwaukee
Oshkosh Will Tie Us for Lead

While River Falls rests this week, Oshkosh will play their most important conference game. If Oshkosh plays the brand of football they have been displaying against conference opposition, there is no doubt that they will tie River Falls for the State lead. However, Milwaukee has been playing class A football in their latest games, despite their poor start, and as long as old rivalry prevails, Milwaukee will be desirous of obtaining Oshkosh's scalp. Oshkosh's showing against the strong Kalamazoo Normal team last Saturday establishes them as favorites over Milwaukee.

Eau Claire Will Tangle With Stout At Menomonie Saturday

Stout hopes to upset the fast Eau Claire team and make homecoming a success. Judging from both teams showing against River Falls, the game should be close. Stout has a slight edge in driving power, Lucas, whose punts averaged 50 yards in the game with Superior last Saturday, should be able to keep the ball out of the danger zone. Ade Olson of Eau Claire's delegation, who also educates his feet, will match his skill with Lucas. If football weather prevails, a fast and close game will be played.

A Mass Meeting Within A Mass Meeting

Some of the G. O. P. members apparently have been at our mass-meetings, not only in body and voice, but in mind. At any rate, they portrayed some "keen observing" in the ten minute take-off mass-meeting which they staged at assembly last Thursday.

The "take-off" was quite complete in that among the speakers were President Ames, Mr. Hunt, Coach Cox, Captain Matt, and of course John Burke, who gave the preliminaries. It was not at all difficult for the crowd to do some real yelling with such an efficient cheer leader. A real mass meeting would be no where near complete without singing—and that called for Mr. Geere. Too, it was just as necessary to get Miss Hatch's orchestra in tune. There is nothing quite so annoying as to have a base drum a little "flat."

In spite of the fact that all of the characters were "taken off" by girls, a few persons saw themselves as others see them. The entire assembly seemed to enjoy it.

8 ALUMNI AT GAME

Through the kindness of Winifred Bird, class of '23, now a student of Lawrence College, who made a report of the game play by play, we are able to offer a write-up of the game.

The following alumni were at the game: Bill Moore, Blake Phillips, Art Benke, Chet Anderson, Kenneth Preston, Herbert Kelm, and Jack Hoar.

FRESHMAN CLASS PARTY POORLY ATTENDED

The few that attended the Freshman party Friday evening enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The first part of the evening was spent in games and stunts, and other means of entertainment, while the latter part of the evening was devoted to dancing. The orchestra of school talent was of a very good quality.

For once in the history of this institution there were more men than women in attendance. Later in the evening, upper classmen who were returning from other scenes of gayety attempted to remedy this situation. All who attended can guarantee that the Freshmen are anything but stingy in the matter of refreshments, for they had enough ice cream and wafers to feed the entire student body.

Class parties are rather a departure from the accepted order of things here, but the idea of more

NEW I. C. U. R. NORSE CLUB HAS UNIQUE PURPOSE

A wee bit of the jealously guarded constitution of the newly organized association, which we understand is known as the I. C. U. R. Norse Club, has leaked out, and may throw some light on the underlying principles which instigated its origin. Although it is written in code, our assiduous reporter succeeded in deciphering a small portion: "Be it known by these precepts that this association is organized primarily for the purpose of protesting the virility of the students of Norse descent from the inveigling plots of the fair sex."

The Club has its headquarters at Mrs. Toby's residence, all but one of its members being of the aforementioned Norse descent.

G. O. P. TO HELP BAND

The G. O. P., acting on Mr. Ames' suggestion that some organization take over the band, will sponsor a campaign among the students to raise money for the purchase of uniforms for the musicians. The way in which the campaign is to be conducted has not yet been decided upon, but it is hoped that whatever plan is adopted will have the support of the entire student body and faculty.

PLATTEVILLE AND STOUT ARE ALSO WINNERS

La Crosse Normal lost their last game of the season to Platteville after a brave struggle. The La Crosse team was evidently caught off its guard, as Platteville Normal had been unsuccessful in the two games she had played previous to last Saturday. The Platteville warriors, though at times forced back under their own goal, fought bravely and well earned the score of 7 to 0.

Superior Normal acknowledged their second defeat of the season when they lost to Stout Institute, 6 to 0, in a hotly contested game at Menomonie. The touchdown came in the third quarter when Olson, Stout's dashing tackle, plunged over right guard with the ball. Stout outplayed Superior throughout the game, making eleven first downs to their opponents three.

Oshkosh Normal lost to Western State Normal, 7 to 6, in a non-conference game last week. In the second quarter Oshkosh started from their own 20-yard line and by a series of passes from Jerdee, passed the ball over their opponents' goal line for a touchdown. The Kalamazoo men made their score by recovering a fumble in the second half, and running 52 yards for a touchdown which they followed by a goal-kick. The Oshkosh players outwheeled the gridiron men from Michigan by 12 pounds to a man.

THE STUDENT CONFERENCE AT NORTHFIELD, MINN.

Do you believe that all men are created equal?

Do you believe that relationships between men and women on our college campuses are what they ought to be?

Is our industrial and economic system just?

What is wrong with modern education?

What shall we do about the World Court?

If you have settled all of these questions in your own mind, you probably will not wish to attend the State Student Conference which will be held at Northfield, November 19-22. This is the greatest gathering of its kind which has ever been held in the state of Minnesota. The theme chosen for the Conference is "Christian Personality and Group

RED & WHITE DEFEATS PLUCKY FIGHTERS OF STEVENS POINT 7-0

Touchdown Made Twice in 3rd Quarter; by Pass and Line Back

Playing on a slow dirt field and against a determined and fighting team, River Falls was forced to be contented with a 7 to 0 win over the Stevens Point warriors. The Falls line was playing a messed up brand of football on offensive plays, and was penalized many times for being off-side. However, the Point team could make no progress by line plunges or end runs.

The first quarter exhibited a kicking match between Craney and Lowell Dawson in the home team's territory. Neither team could make admirable progress. River Falls' possibilities were moved by penalties and stone wall defense by the Point boys whenever the visitors threatened. The boys found tough opposition at all times and were unable to make first down once.

In the second quarter River Falls began a varied attack that the Point boys could not stop until they were near the goal line. The admirable punting of Dawson and the defense playing of the Falls line kept the Orange & Blue team within their own ten yard

Debate Tryouts Ended Read The Results

The debate tryouts were held Tuesday afternoon. Two people dropped out, leaving a total of twenty-six people to try out for the eight vacancies on the teams, Frances Lethlean and Fred Wandrey, veteran members of squad, filled these vacancies. Five debates were held, the first one starting at two o'clock. Anyone who wished could attend the debates; so many of the students took in some of them. Miss Haddow, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hunt, Mr. Karges, and Mr. Junkman judged the debates. All of the contestants showed exceptional ability, and they deserve much credit for the attempts. The following people have been chosen to fill the vacancies on the squads:

- Thomas Barry
- Scott Canney
- James Casey
- John Davison
- Theodore Goble
- Hazel Heyer
- Bernard Morton
- Marshall Norseng
- Donald Olson
- Robert Smith
- Harold Walton

Because of the exceptional debating ability displayed in the tryouts, Mr. Mitchell has decided to increase the squad from twelve to fifteen members.

ON FOR THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Our team has surely shown us that it has the ability to again take first honors. There is no doubt but what every student of this school wants the team to come out on top. We have only one more game to play to decide our fate; so what can WE do to make our fate favorable? We have the team, we certainly have a capable coach, and we have the students. Now the question is, what kind of students are we? Dead? No! we are sure we also have a peppy student body with just as much fight and enthusiasm as anyone, but when it comes to a matter of State Championship it means we must have an over supply of "pep." We must show our team that we are back of them, ready to do everything in our power to help them and that we want them to be State Champions.

ON FOR THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP!! What do you say?

WHERE IS WISCONSIN?

What social forces are keeping Wisconsin hanging back in the rear in regard to the normal schools granting degrees? Surely this state of ours has not begun social decadence so early in its history. What is keeping us among the so-called "back numbers?" There must be some influential educators here who so love the old that they hate to give way to the new, or is that it?

Other neighboring states have had this power exercised in their schools for some time. Even North Dakota—young as she may seem, has not only taken steps, but action in this direction; Normal schools or teachers colleges at Minot, Valley City, and Mayville, are now giving courses granting degrees of bachelor of arts in education next spring. It's up to us to do our share, and to work for our state in advancing this educational movement. As teachers' training schools, we are entitled to this power, but if we don't get it can we still sing, "ON WISCONSIN?"

INTERESTING NEW BOOKS IN OUR LIBRARY

For some time reviews of the new books we have on our shelves will appear in this column.

The Adventure of Wrangel Island, by Vilhjalmr Stefansson.

Do you know where Wrangel Island is located? A very interesting way to find out is to read this new book on travel and adventure in the far north.

The narrative is based on the diary of one of the members of Mr. Stefansson's expedition of 1921. The purpose of the expedition was to colonize Wrangel Island for Canada but it ended disastrously in the death of the four men who undertook to carry out the plan. The sole survivor is Ada Blackjack, an Eskimo woman, who was engaged as seamstress for the expedition.

A rescue party was sent out in 1924 in charge of Harold Noice, who brought back the diary of Knight. The story is vividly written and as fascinating to read as fiction.

The Fabric of the Loom, by Mary S. Watts.

This new novel pictures modern American society as seen thru the eyes of a woman who returns after 10 years residence in Europe. Mrs. Stevens is a middle aged woman of what used to be called "a social position," brought up after Victorian ideas. She contrasts not only the physical comforts of American life with the higher social culture of Europe, but also the American civilization of the present generation as to that of her own time. The main differences between European life and standards, and our own, are interestingly brought out—of course there is the usual love story, but one must read the book to know whether everything ends rightly or not. There are different opinions as to what may be called a really "happy ending."

STUDENT CONFERENCE AT NORTHFIELD, MINN.

Life." Discussion groups and open forums will be emphasized in which the relation of Christian personality to social and economic groups will be discussed.

The students of Minnesota can be justly proud of the splendid group of leaders that has been obtained for our state gathering. These are some of them:

Henry Pitney Van Dusen, "the foremost open forum leader in the country," to quote Sherwood Eddy.

Milton Stauffer, national secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement.

"Dad" Elliott, known to nearly every college student in America.

Francis Williams, one of the foremost song leaders in the country and an authority on the race question.

Margaret Quavle, recently head of student relief work in Czechoslovakia.

Mr. Boothe, head of the largest industrial department of the Minneapolis Y. M. C. A. who knows industrial conditions from the inside.

Maude Fowler, national Y. W. C. A. secretary and an expert on rural community work.

If you have never before had the privilege of becoming acquainted with these leaders of student thinking, you should avail yourself of the present opportunity. Every college student as part of his education, should attend at least one large student assembly. In this conference at Northfield you will be able to attend a conference of this type that is usually possible only in national gatherings.

See Earl Brackin, your local student representative, for further details.

COACHES TRAINED IN R. F. N. S. MAKE NAMES FOR THEMSELVES

River Falls not only turns out championship teams, but it trains men to go out and coach championship teams in the surrounding high schools. The work that a few of our grads are doing has come to our notice this week.

Mike Smith, Captain '24, who is at Park Falls has his team plunging into foreign territory in the same way that he went through last year. The fact that they scored a 46-0 victory over "Pungy" Miles team from Shell Lake is a fair indicator of their ability as players.

Although "Pungy's" team lost to Park Falls, it is by no means an unsuccessful team. Many of the men are small, but what they lack in size they make up in fight. They attack all opponents with the same vigor, and, though sometimes outplayed, they are having a season that is above the average in the number of victories.

Perhaps the most sensational record of them all has been hung up by Mike Heebink at St. Croix Falls. His team has been held to one tie game, but in all of its other encounters it has emerged with a decisive victory to its credit.

The one team that has been able to cope with the St. Croix squad hails from Osceola, and is coached by Art Carlson. Art's team is rather lacking in the number of available reserves, and so is often handicapped, but the number of triumphs has far exceeded the number of defeats.

This and that

Leona Miller spent the week-end at home.

Bessie Darwin was in Durand for Saturday and Sunday.

Glen Gallup was home from Northfield over the week-end.

Mr. Davison and family drove to the Lakes Sunday afternoon.

Doris Frederickson and Violet Bates were at home in St. Paul this week-end.

President and Mrs. Ames drove to Milwaukee Tuesday, to attend the State Teachers' Convention.

Ed. Spriegel, '25, who teaches at Deer Park, was home for the week-end.

Helen Sutherland, who is teaching at Chaska, Minn., spent the week-end at home in River Falls.

Ted Whitenack, who is attending the "U" of Wisconsin, spent the week-end at his home in River Falls.

Elaine Christenson was visiting her brother and his wife at Hawkins, Minn., from Thursday until Sunday evening.

The Junior High party was very successful Friday night. Jimmie Larson at least thinks the ninth grade were successful in powdering.

The Hallowe'en party of the Junior High School was well attended by pupils, practice teachers, and teachers. The eats and good time were also present.

Adele Williamson wishes to thank the Four Horsemen for the anonymous box of chocolates delivered at her door on Sunday evening.

Richard Mooney certainly didn't waste any shoe leather at the Freshman party Friday night. He seemed deeply interested in "some-one."

Genevieve Stewart saw the Wisconsin-Minnesota game Saturday. She spent the week-end with her sister, Irene, who is attending the "U" of Minnesota.

The Woman's League will meet Monday evening, November 9, at the home of Mrs. Davison. Mrs. Davison, Miss Delander, and Miss Bradley are the hostesses.

After discussing dynes, etc., "Casco Burke" defines a gram centimeter as follows: "A gram centimeter is the force necessary to move a weight of one gram through a distance of one centimeter; to hell with the time."

The D. O. D. class of the M. E. Sunday School had a thrilling Hallowe'en party from five o'clock to eight o'clock last Wednesday evening, at Professor Malott's home. The "eats" were fine, the program "spooky," and the games exciting. Everyone there seemed to have an enjoyable time.

John Haash bought a magazine some four weeks ago, but has not read it as yet. John Burke asked him why he bought it, when he knew that he was too busy to read it. His answer was: "When I bought it, I figured that I would perhaps have time to read it on my way home Christmas vacation."

Blanche Van Berg spent Sunday in Red Wing.

President Ames will speak at the Congo church next Sunday.

Frances Squires, Ruth Bailey, and Edith Pritchett were in the cities Saturday.

Margaret Hannah attended a party in Hudson Saturday afternoon.

There are only five weeks left in this term. Better begin reviewing now for the finals.

Fern Gauvin and Wilmot Ab-leiderger spent the week-end at their respective homes in Eau Galle and Durand.

Jack Ulrick spent the week-end at home. Some how Jack doesn't care for "kid parties," wonder who's back home in Elk Mound?

Mr. Davison, Mr. Prucha, Mr. Junkman, and Mr. Karges drove to New Richmond Sunday morning to meet the champions on their way home from Stevens Point.

AG. NEWS

Mr. Earl Hildebrand, a graduate of this school, was given honorable mention in the last issue of Hoard's Dairyman. His picture also appears in this magazine. This honor was bestowed upon Mr. Hildebrand as the result of his work and the work of his judging team, at the National Dairy Show, held at Indianapolis. Mr. Hildebrand's team represented the State of Wisconsin at this show.

The Agrifallian meeting, held last Thursday night, was well attended and enjoyed more, perhaps, than any of the other meetings held this year. Mr. Cervana displayed ability in the line of giving jokes. The discussion of the debate, on the repeal of the 18th Amendment, was given to the affirmative team, which was supported by Vic. Peterson and Mr. Ridiger. The negative was supported by Mr. Biles and Mr. Hendrickson. Certainly, if Mr. Mitchell had heard this debate, he would have had these debaters on the tryout teams, yesterday.

Some real cooks were also discovered at this meeting, in the persons of Henry Knoll and Frank Janisch, as was manifested by the feed which followed the debate.

RURALITICS

A good entertainment will be given Thursday evening in the Society room for all rural students. Mr. Malott will tell of his trip to the Yellowstone National Park. Refreshments will be served. The Normal Ford has made reg-

The Mohawk bus line affords transportation for the practice teachers at the Glover Station School.

Dorothy Evans expects to be back to school soon.

We are glad to have Blanche Hurlburt with us again.

Miss Jorstad and Miss Greene plan to attend the rural group meeting at Glass Valley the later part of this week.

The Kinnickinnic School, with Elsie Fleming as teacher, is to be our third demonstration school. Practice teachers will be sent there next quarter.

MODERNISM AT THE CIVIC CLUB

The program at the civic club was enjoyed by nearly all who attended. The meeting was opened by community songs, led by Marshall Norseng, followed by a piano solo given by Vivian Vassau.

Then came the real part of the program. Mr. Davison introduced the topic of Modernism by applying an intensely interesting story to the topic. This was followed by a short, but well worked out lecture on the modernism in religion given by the president of the organization.

After the program the members made their way to the domestic science rooms, where they not only ate, but presented their meal tickets on which they wrote what they thought of the program. Here are a few of them: "It was fine, I liked it; Modernism is all right." This is only a portion of the commendable comments made concerning the topic.

The program committee has decided to make the next general meeting of the G. A. A. a stunt night. Stunts of all kinds, requiring proficiency and skill, will be demonstrated, and all will be given an opportunity to try their ability at any that they wish to attempt.

The girls should wear a gym suit if possible. A full skirt, with gym shoes is the next best combination. ALL members are expected to be present at this meeting.

line when they had the ball. When the visitors had worked their way within 19 yards of the goal line, and had added ten more on line plunges by Dawson and Nelson, the homecoming fans were in misery. However, the Point line held and forced Brooks to attempt to dropkick. The kick failed. River Falls again worked their way to their opponents 25-yard line. Line plunges by Nelson, Quandt, and Brooks put the ball on the 12-yard line, but again the Point line held. Brooks was forced to hurry his second attempt to dropkick, and he fumbled the ball.

In the fourth quarter the Point boys made an attempt to score. One dash netted them 12 yards, and a pass gave them 30 yards, but the pass receiver fumbled the ball when tackled. During the final minutes of play, the Falls boys intercepted a Point pass and was downed on the 30-yard line. Two plunges by Quandt and one by Nelson and Dawson were the outstanding events of the game. Heggen played a brilliant defense game on the line.
