Winter Carnival Activities To Begin at Jan. 19 Convo

The 1960 Winter Carnival will officially get underway at an all school kick-off convocation Thursday, Jan. 19, at 11 a.m.

The official carnival bulletin board has been placed in the Student Center by the north-east door. The chairwomen urge the students and organizations to check the bulletin board for announcements and to sign up for snow sculpture locations and midway booths. To avoid duplication each booth must also be approved by one of the chairwomen.

The Winter Carnival King presentation convocation will be Tuesday, Jan. 19, at 11 a.m. in the North Hall Auditorium. Campaigning for candidates will begin at this time. King candidates will again be sponsored by campus organizations. Nominations must be submitted to any of the chairwomen by Monday, Jan. 18. Each candidate must first be approved by the Dean's Office. Elections will be Thursday, Jan. 20, from 8 a. m. until 4 p.m. in the Student Center.

The Winter Carnival chairwomen have announced that after the success of Ski-Mac last year, plans have again been made to use the Ski Resort. Classes will be dismissed Friday afternoon to make it possible for all students to travel to Somerset for the outing. There will be skiing, tobogganing, and sliding, as well as activities in the Chalet for those desiring not to try the slopes. A cost supper is to be provided with a record dance scheduled for the evening.

Many of the traditional Winter Carnival activities will be scheduled again this year, beginning Thursday evening with the Talent Show. The show will be climaxed with the beard judging contest and the crowning of the 1960 Carnival King who will reign over the week-end events.

Saturday's activities include the treasure hunt, bowling tournament, chess tournament, the midway, ice skating, an Italian supper, the basketball game with Superior, and the dance sponsored by the College Veteran's Club. Plans for Sunday have not been completed.

Prizes in the beard contest will be awarded for the longest, heaviest, and most unusual beard. First, second and third prizes are to be awarded in the snow sculpture contest.

Nite Club Mood Will Prevail at Jan. 22 Cabaret

Something new in the line of entertainment will be brought to campus Friday evening, January 22, when a Cabaret Dance, a take-off on a night club, will be held in the Student Center.

Heading the entertainment bill for the event will be "The Tailgate Six", a dixie-land combo which plays music for both dancing and listening.

The Student Center will be decorated around the theme, "The Rainbow Room". There will be settings to give the full, gay air found only in prominent entertainment high-spots. Tables will be provided for the guests to relax, to enjoy the entertainment, and to sip their "drinks", which will actually be mixtures of soft beverages served upon order by white-jacketed waiters. An area will be provided for those who may wish to dance. The interior decorations, table centerpieces, top-notch entertainment, and the lighting will all contribute in creating a cabaret atmosphere.

RF DEAN EMERITUS DIES AT AGE OF 76

Dr. Charles G. Stratton, 76-year-old Dean Emeritus of Wisconsin State College at River Falls, died Saturday morning at his home at 328 North Fourth St.

Stratton

He had been in apparent good health but died of a heart attack shortly after shoveling snow from his sidewalks.

Mr. Stratton joined the faculty at the college here in 1915 and taught geography and geology until his retirement in the spring of 1950. He was named Dean of Men in 1930 and held that position until 1947.

The Editor Speaks . . .

The recent death of Dr. Charles G. Stratton, dean emeritus, ended a life of un-selfish devotion to making the lives of others happier.

To his many friends, "Strat" was a recognized expert in many subjects. In the classroom he taught geography and geology, often using equipment and supplies that he personally purchased.

Strat was especially interested in helping college students. During World War II, he personally mimeographed, mailed, and financed nearly 600 letters a month to college servicemen. The letters kept them informed of developments at home and at the college. Many of them contained personal comments from Strat.

After the war he edited a special edition of the Meletean dedicated to River Falls students and alumni who fought and died in the war effort.

As dean of men, Dr. Stratton was always ready to help and encourage a student. Often he personally lent students money to help them defray part of their college expenses. And at times he was even known to have bailed students out of jail.

Dr. Stratton's retirement in 1947 did not end his efforts to help others. An experienced gardener, he annually gave his bouquets of gladiolas to churches, hospitals and the sick.

When the Ground Observer Corps was established during the Korean War, Strat volunteered as the chief observer at River Falls. To this duty he devoted several hours a day and reportedly traveled several thousand miles in trips from his home to the observation post.

Much more could be said of Strat's concern for others. But nothing can describe his outstanding quality of neither wanting nor expecting anything in return from others. To Dr. Charles G. Stratton, personal advancement and glory were meaningless.

Dazed Fans See Oshkosh Bury RF 91-71 Avalanche

by Pat Higgins

River Falls college's sputtering basketball team combined ragged floor play with a porous defense to run their current losing streak to 5 games as they bowed to Oshkosh State 91-71 at St. Bridget's gymnasium last Friday night.

The loss left coach Don Page's crew with a 0-3 conference slate and a 1-7 overall season's record.

Statistically, the Page men didn't fare as bad as the score might indicate. The Falcons connected on 28 of 75 field goal attempts for a 37 per cent shooting average. The boys from Oshkosh enjoyed a little warmer night as they hit 34 of 83 attempts for a hot 42 per cent.

It was an evening of many frustrations for the 'red and white' as missed layups, sloppy ball handling and inability to hit the open man plagued the Falcons all night long.

One bright spot of the game was Mick Collins defensive job on the Wisconsin College conference leading scorer, Ron Dibelius, who had been averaging 25.4 points a game going into the contest, was held to 14 points by Collins.

As in the last previous games, River Falls got off to a slow start. The game was tied only once at 1-1 as Chuck Johnson and Oshkosh's Mike Grabner matched free throws in the opening seconds of the game. From there Oshkosh spurred to 9-3 and 11-5 leads in the first four minutes of play before the Falcons finally found the hoop.

The Lauber brothers, John and Mick, hitting on their pet jump shots, shaved Oshkosh's lead to 20-15 and 39-27 midway through the first half. But that's as close as the hosts could come as Ron Dibelius and forward Mike Grabner put on sudden scoring spurts to lead Oshkosh to the dressing room with a 44-29 half time lead.

The second half was a guessing game as to how many points the visitors would run up. River Falls did manage at one point to cut the deficit to 13 points at 58-45 but from that point on it was no contest.

FALCON HOCKEY TEAM GRABS SECOND WIN 9-8 OVER LAKE ELMO

River Falls' Fighting Falcons came storming from behind Wednesday night to post their second straight Senior Suburban Hockey League win edging Lake Elmo 9-7 on the Lake Elmo rink.

River Falls fell behind in the first period but caught fire in the final stanza to win going away. Dick Lindahl's solo shot after skating the full length of the ice in the third period was the turning point as it broke a 6-6 tie and gave the Falcons a lead they never relinquished.

Lake Elmo forged out to a 3-0 lead early in the first period and things looked bleak for the Falcons. But Larry Joyce fired home the first of his three goals at 11:10 and the Falcons were on their way.

Joyce, Rich Anderson, and Buzz Breed added second period scores and the Falcons trailed by only 5-4 going into the last period.

The Falcons completely outclassed the host team in the final period pouring in five goals in a hectic flourish of action. Breed and Joyce connected first before Lindahl's shot put the Falcons in front at 7-6. Dale Berglund and former RF baseballer Don Swanson then fired home two quick ones and the Falcons had an insurmountable 9-6 spread. Lake Elmo got one last score in the closing seconds which had little effect on the outcome.

Falcon goalie Rog Christianson had 23 saves for the night while Lake Elmo's netman Dale Brookman snared 21. Both goalies were bothered by the poor lighting thus accounting for the frequent scoring.

Joyce was the offensive star for the Falcons with three goals and three assists while Breed chipped in two goals and one assist.

Stellar defensive play was turned in by Gordie Roth, Tom Sackett, and Dave LeClaire for the Falcons.

The Falcons met North St. Paul last night with the results as yet unknown. Wednesday night they face St. Paul Park there at 8 p.m.

Platteville Rocks River Falls 92-66 In Rough 'Affair'

Platteville capitalized on some torrid shooting Saturday night to rout the Falcons 92-66. The Pioneers held a 49-30 half time lead and stretched it to 36 points with 11 minutes to play, 70-34. Milt Bakken and Tom Davis paced the southern invaders' scoring with 24 and 21 points respectively.

Sports Editor's Note: Rather than allow some member of the sports staff attempt to further describe the game, we have printed this letter to the editor. The opinions expressed therein are not necessarily those of the Student Voice sports staff.

Dear Sports Editor:
I have just witnessed the worst example of poor sportsmanship at this school that I have ever seen and feel compelled to express what I am sure is the opinion of more fans than myself. I am referring of course, to the disgraceful show put on Saturday night by certain members of the Falcon basketball team.

First of all, I want to point out that the game probably wouldn't have featured such display of poor sportsmanship had it not been for the lax job of officiating turned in by the referees. They let things get out of hand right from the start and thus the near free-for-all that found players, coaches, and fans mingling together on the floor in the fourth quarter of a game that had been decided before it was half over.

To me there is no dirtier play in basketball than to knock the feet out from under an opposing player as he drives in for a lay-up. I have seen players seriously injured as a result of such action and it's amazing that Platteville's forwards were not injured more than they appeared to be following plays that left them plastered against the wall under the basket.

After sitting through that pair of two-act comedies this weekend, I'm sure there are plenty of Falcon fans that are wondering just what the score is.

Before the season started, Mr. Sports Editor, you picked the Falcons for a fourth place finish in the conference. Many of us thought you were a little optimistic but none of us dreamed that our Falcons would look so pathetic as they did this past weekend.

It was really a treat to watch Platteville's team run through its various maneuvers for easy baskets in the second half to prove what a team can do that has some set pattern of plays. It may work in high school but I can't see where a "free lance" style of offense will ever produce results in college games. It's no wonder that our tall players are out of position.

Despite some of the players' inexperience I'm of the opinion that River Falls has the material to put on a better performance than they have been doing so far this season. River Falls basketball hasn't hit these depths in quite a few years. I hope it can rise to the heights it knew when Nate DeLong and Company carried the colors for the Falcons.
