Falcon Cagers Slide 24 New Students by Gustavus, 59-56 Enrolled This Term

Most and Healy Cinch Game With Baskets in Last Minute

Reserves played a major role in one of the most exciting games of RFSTC basketball history last Friday night as the Falcons barely came through with a 59-56 victory over a powerful Gustavus Adolphus quintet.

Charley Most was the hero of the local five as he sank two quick baskets to tie the game up in the last minute and a half and then added a free throw to put River Falls into a 57-56 lead with less than a minute to play. Jerry Healy added a basket to clinch the victory.

CHARLEY MOST

The locals were again slow in starting and mid-way in the first half they were behind 16-13, but a basket and a gift toss by De-Long and a basket by Fossen gave the Red and White a 27-22 halftime margin.

The Gusties managed to tie the game up 38-38 in the second half and from this point on the score was tied five times. Stu Skoglund counted two set shots and Paul Rodine added a charity toss to give the visitors a 56-52 advantage with a minute and a half left to play and it was at this point that Most proceeded to make himself the toast of the town.

The Falcon cagers are still not the team they were last year, but it was evident that some of the regulars had better start working because it is impossible to keep men as impressive as Charley Most, Wally Lindholm and Bud Fossen warming a bench.

The box score is on page 6.

All-School Dance Thursday

The Music Club will sponsor an all-college dance Thursday night at 8:30 in the Goldenrod Room. Several famous "name" bands will furnish the dance rhythms.

Membership in the Music club is composed of A Cappella choir, Men's Glee club, band and orchestra members.

Miss Mohrdeick and Mr. King will chaperone.

STUDENT PICTURES DUE FOR MELETEAN

The sudden flashes and snapping of shutters around the campus which may have surprised you are all a part of the preparations for this year's Meletean. "The college annual is well underway," Miss Latta reported this week.

The staff has been busy all fall; however, now is the time for student co-operation, for every student wants his picture in the Meletean this year. Arrangements must be made now for class pictures, so be ready to arrange your appointment with one of the staff.

FIVE ENTER ON TRANSFER FROM OTHER SCHOOLS

Enrollment was boosted to 748 for the winter term by the addition last week of 24 new students.

Transferring from other colleges and universities are: Theodore Clymer and Joan Ryan, Hudson; Marshall Shanks, Merrimack; Rose Marie Thorsbakken, Barron; and Willard Geidel, Fredonia.

Freshmen starting are: Robert Brunstad, Chippewa Falls; Gail Davis, Hayward; Wayne Eaton, Ellsworth; Lloyd Finstad, Gordon; James Fleming, Frederic; Ferdinand Fosmo, Ellsworth; Harley Hatch, Rock Elm; Milton Hovde, River Falls; John Leikvoll, Hawkins; Elmer Mabry, Centuria; John Mann, Hudson; Wilford Orcutt, River Falls; John Peterson, Baldwin; Robert Reitz, Elmwood; Clarence Seipel, Plum City; Donald Swanson, Ellsworth, and Ralph Zabel, Stillwater, Minn.

From Liberty, Mo., transferring to River Falls, came Mr. and Mrs. William Vick.

Vets All-School Dance Dec. 12th

The veterans organization is putting on a dance in the gym for the student body Friday, December 12.

During the intermission, a large mock wedding will be presented by Dick Yde and his "do-or-die" assistants. The "dirty dozen" will also play a big role in the evening's program. Harold Shay is in charge of the arrangements.

Admission of 15 and 25 cents will be charged, but no one will be admitted unless he is dressed in old clothes. Prizes will be awarded to the best dressed couple and to the best dressed individual.

Everyone is welcome.

Forensic Squad Wins Honors At Meet!

The RFSTC Forensic squad attended the Pi Kappa Delta Provincial Tournament December 5 and 6, at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., and returned with a tie for first place in debate, first place in Discussion, and third place ranking in both Oratory and Radio speaking.

The tournament was the first one of the year and included entries from eight colleges from three states. The schools represented were: River Falls, Concordia, Moorhead, Minn., St. Thomas, St. Paul, Luther, Decorah, Iowa, Gustavus, St. Peter, Minn., Macalester, St. Paul and Hamline, St. Paul.

The affirmative debate team from River Falls, Concordia, Luther, and Gustavus tied for first place. The winner was decided Construction has begun on a $36,000 addition to the Manual Arts building as the latest step in a program of expansion of the 72 year-old college plant.

It is expected that the 40x100 feet brick addition will be ready for use next fall. Material and labor shortages have delayed construction for three years.

The structure will house a workshop, office, tool room and a demonstration room. The latter will have platformed circular seating around a turntable demonstrator for large machines. Classes in machine repair, welding, machine lathes and electrical work will be held there.

Other points in the building and improvement program include erection of a $15,000 War Assets Administration surplus building (already being used by manual arts classes), conversion of two college-owned houses into women's dormitories and plans for decorating and refurbishing the Men's Union. A new nursery-kindergarten in North hall is part of the plan.

A surplus building was obtained from Camp McCoy this summer. Placed on a permanent foundation, it now is used for farm machinery and welding classes by both college and high school students.

Women's housing may be alleviated somewhat next year following the remodeling of two college-owned houses. Recently purchased was the Brown house located directly south of the tennis courts. This and the Barron house, 518 Sycamore, also owned by the college, fall under the proposed expansion and conversion plans of the school.

Remodeling and furnishing the Men's Union will take place as soon as proper materials are available.

The college nursery-kindergarten will open February 1 at the latest. Phyllis Simon, graduate of Superior Teachers, will supervise the classes. The nursery school, held in the mornings, will admit children who were four years old before December 1 of this year. Kindergarten will meet in the afternoon for children who were five years old before the above date. New equipment has been featured in the creating of this department.

Dec. 19th Deadline For Veterans Supplies

Veterans must draw supplies for the quarter on or before December 19. Order forms may be secured in the Registrar's office from 11:00 to 4:00 daily. Bills for supplies will be returned to Mr. Prucha's office. Failure to comply means forfeit of privilege of government paid supplies. Veterans who withdraw are expected to pay for their supplies.

The registrar and veterans' secretary must be notified of withdrawal from school. Student veterans dropping from school are cautioned that they must have a VA certificate of eligibility to re-enter training under the GI bill. Interruption of training requires that one must show good cause to retain eligibility.

SENATOR KNOWLES GUEST AT RFSTC

Members of Pi Kappa Delta, as guests of the Tuesday club, heard Senator Warren Knowles II speak on the organization and operation of the Wisconsin Legislature. He stressed that the bill is made law before it has had at least two public hearings. This gives everyone who is interested in the bill an opportunity to air his views before it is debated on the floor of the senate or assembly. Senator Knowles illustrated this procedure by telling how recent bills affecting this institution became law.

Senator Knowles also explained the functions of the much publicized Legislative Council created by the last session. It consists of six committees—Judiciary, Education and Public Welfare, Budget and Finance, Agriculture and Conservation, Veteran Affairs, and Industry, Labor and Management. These committees will investigate the various fields of endeavor and put into laws suggestions that would increase the effectiveness and efficiency of the various branches of the state government.

NOTICE TO VETS

Mr. Johnson, senior contact representative of the Eau Claire Veteran's Administration Office will be at the college on Thursday, December 11, from 9 to 4.

Vets are urged to talk over reinstatement of their National Service Life Insurance with Mr. Johnson. He will also discuss disability claims, requests for dental treatment, out-patient medical treatment, hospitalization, terminal leave pay and other veterans' benefits at this time.

45 Students Make Honor Roll

Examination of the Fall term honor roll shows that 15 of the 45 students listed are sophomores. The freshmen placed 12 of their number, while the senior class was a close third with 11 member-honor students are juniors.

A student must carry at least 14 hours, and must maintain an average of 2.5 honor points per credit hour in order to win honors.

Figures are computed on this basis: a mark of "A" rates three points per credit hour, a "B", two points, and a "C", one point. Thus a student carrying five three-credit courses (15 hours) must have 37.5 honor points and could make the honor roll with three "A's" and two "B's".

All students on the list are automatically eligible for membership in the honor society.

The following students are on the honor roll for the fall quarters honored. Only seven of the ter:

Hints to the Homebreaker - orSlaving Over A Hot Stove¹

WHAT? No Cheerleaders!

On the last day before Thanksgiving vacation this writer called the professor in charge of selling reserved basketball tickets and asked when they were going on sale to the students of RFSTC. The professor said as far as he knew the remaining tickets would be sold on Monday, December 1. I informed him that no school was scheduled for that day. He replied, "I can not say at this time when they will go on sale."

The tickets were sold on Monday. Approximately 75% of the students did not return until Tuesday and were not here for the sale. Result: The tickets were sold to the few who happened to return early or to those who live in River Falls. The student body at large did not have an opportunity to purchase a ticket.

No one is suggesting that those who live in River Falls should not have a chance to buy tickets. But, they should not be the only ones! It was very easy for the professor. However, the easy way is so often not the fair way!

It would be quite easy to get mad over the seating situation in the gym. We won't get mad. We will just look at things and see how they might be improved.

Reserved seats were offered to the citizens of River Falls in an open sale before they were offered to students of RFSTC. This is recognized as necessary for good will and financial reasons. But, in the Augsburg game last Tuesday it was estimated by interested students that over half of the unreserved seats were occupied by outsiders, grade school and high school students.

Is it fair that RFSTC should also relinquish the unreserved seats to a sixth grader? Does he support the college? Does he pay for a budget ticket?

The budget ticket should give some preference or why should the student buy it? If he must view the game over the shoulder of a high school student of what worth is a budget ticket?

This is not merely destructive criticism. Something can be done to give the RFSTC students the chance they deserve to get a seat. The following plan is proposed:

The available unreserved seats should be reserved by sections for the students and outsiders individually. The student sections should comprise at least 75% of the total number of seats available. Admission to these sections would be by budget ticket. No outsiders should be allowed to enter the sections reserved for students and no students should be allowed in the 25% allotted to the outsiders.

Certainly, there are not enough seats for all. But, if sections are reserved for the RFSTC students they will know that they are getting the consideration they have paid for.

This plan is fair and easily put into effect. The students expect the athletic council to examine it and consider its installation.

With one holiday season just past and another coming up, I, with visions of sugar plums in my head, have a few hints to the homemaker. For pressed ham, do not have iron too hot and always press on wrong side. Stuffed chicken should be served to big eaters and let them stuff themselves. In basting the fowl always use strong linen thread, being careful not to drop a stitch. In scalloped dishes use a sharp scissors and lobe the edges. Beets are pickled most readily with Three Feathers. (2) Stuffed dates are the overweight type and will be found most often after the meal. If in making a two layer cake, you find you haven't any hens that lay twice a day, they must be lazy, so it is advisable to make a loaf cake instead. Let the children make the cocktail, as they would probably get a kick out of it. If a recipe calls for a dash of something it probably means you won't have any, and will have to dash down to the store for it. On the last minute if you find you don't have enough meat for everyone, just take it down to one of the department stores, and through the revolving door—that should make it go around. Hot tongue and cold shoulder, you will find, is a nagging wife's specialty. Then sometime it might be chili today and hot tamale. (3)

Have you ever wondered how to cook a husband? I heard somewhere that it can be done, though there have been some differences of opinion. Some wives keep their husbands constantly in hot water. Others let them freeze by their carelessness and indifference. Some keep them in a stew (4) by irritating words and ways. It cannot be supposed that any good husband will be tender and sweet in this way, but they are really appealing when properly treated. Be sure and select him yourself, as tastes differ. Do not go to the store for him, as the best are always brought to your door. They are apt to fly out of the kettle (5) and get all burned up and crusty on the edges. Make a clear, steady fire out of love. Expose him to as much of this as seems to agree with him. If he sputters occasionally, don't be alarmed. Add a little sugar in the form of what confectioners call kisses, but no vinegar or pepper on any account. A little spice improves them, but must be used with judgment. He may be stirred gently, but not too often. If thus treated you will find him quite pleasing and agreeable; he will keep as long as you want.

However, the dish most acclaimed at this time of year is one championship football season, served all wrapped up and in the bag, with the opposing teams whipped, beaten and all done in. A promise of more of the same is in order and will be received with relish.

1. Or Home is Where the Range Is.
2. That's to "tickle them pink", you know!
3. At least, that's a fair report.
4. "Stewed" husbands are not recommended, however.
5. or is it "off the handle"?

Economics Prof. Is New Yorker

We have now a native of New York in our faculty, Miss Adela Bloom, who is the new economics professor.

Miss Bloom is a graduate of Hunter College in New York City, and has taken her Master's and Doctor's degrees at the University of Chicago. She has completed both degrees in two years. (Somewhat of a record I would say.) Miss Bloom will receive her doctorate December 19 at a convocation at the University of Chicago; however she will miss the event, as her duties here are keeping her busy.

This egregious woman has had a busy life so far. She is a member of many organizations which have aided in securing better conditions for the group. In the American Association for Old Age Security (headed by Abraham Epstein) she helped Dr. Epstein write the book Social Security in the United States. This book is found in our library. She is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Scholastic Honor Society.

During the war, Miss Bloom added hostess duties in the United Service Organization to her busy schedule. She found this work of arranging lectures and other types of entertainment for service personnel very interesting.

Our Midwest is Miss Bloom's favorite place to live. She has found through her travels in the United States that the groups in this sector seem more friendly. She also prefers the small town to the community over 500,000.

You are certain to meet Miss Bloom around the campus, as her charming personality and smile can be seen almost anywhere.

Some Like It Hot - River Falls' Own Falconaires

Most of you are probably familiar by now with the dance band we have on the campus. It is not a school organization but consists of students who are experienced musicians. They are working hard to make their organization a success and are gaining the popularity so necessary for an organization of this type.

Perhaps the most outstanding member of the group is "sax man", Jack Pratt. Jack is also the arranger. He had his own band in 1942, and since then has played in a Navy dance band, Don Strickland's orchestra, and "Fata" Carlson's orchestra.

Dick Phillips plays the alto sax, and also "rides a sizzling clarinet." Tom Wilkinson's position is at the piano, but doubles on sax. Diz Wilcox plucks the string bass while Ray Henry sets the pace on the drums. Diz was a member of Pratt's orchestra in 1942. Ray is from New Jersey, where he was active in many bands. Jerry Wallen and Roy Brede furnish the brass. Both play the trumpet. Jerry was formerly with Pratt's orchestra and is manager of the "Falconaires." Roy comes from Medford, and contrary to the belief of many who have heard him sing "The Shiek", was never in burlesque.

You'll be seeing and hearing more of the "Falconaires." The red and white posters seen around school signify an evening of entertainment.

A lovely bridesmaid dress which can be used as your good date dress is shown above as pictured in the October issue of Junior Bazaar. It is made of grey taffeta—one piece dress with a tiny jacket. Dress has square neckline, narrow shoulder straps, very full skirt of soft all around unpressed pleats, but gives a flat stomach look. The short jacket fits snugly. It has small round collar, self buttons. At the bottom of the skirt are three large ruffles. Underneath the ruffles horsehair gives it a new look.

Men Favor Daring Dresses
On Other Girls—Not Theirs

Confidential tip to the girls — men like daring dresses only on the other fellow's girl — not theirs.

That was the essence of opinion expressed by a group of collegians, including Eugene Rossides of Columbia football fame, who served on Cosmopolitan magazine's male-tested fashion jury at New York's Stork Club.

"Believe it or not they voted consistently for gowns with some covering over shoulder or upper arm or with narrow shoulder straps," Kay Wister, fashion editor of the magazine declared. "The completely bare shoulder decolletage was something delightful—to them—only on the other fellow's girl."

Typical of college men throughout the country, many of them having returned from overseas service, they represented a cross-section of male opinion as to how they like their women to dress. They represented Yale, Princeton, Cornell, Amherst, Columbia, Dartmouth, the University of Missouri and the University of Nebraska.

"Generally the boys approved of dresses that had a sophisticated but not too exposed look," Mrs. Wister said. "In fact it's a look the boys pronounced 'dreamy.'"

Rossides was particularly impressed with the slit hemline of one of the winning dresses which embodied all the fashion points that had been emphasized.

"It was a royal blue crepe gown that bared the shoulders but covered the arms completely," Mrs. Wister said. "The skirt, with sophisticated hip-line drape, tapered to a narrow hemline, but the slit allowed plenty of freedom for dancing."

"Sophisticated and relaxing" was the way Paul Stessel of the University of Missouri described one of the winning dresses in the groups shown.

Bob Folan, Yale hockey player, and Bob Slocum, who pitches for the Princeton baseball team were inclined to "make haste slowly" in appraising some of the newer length dresses.

"We had better take our time and thrash this thing over," was the way Folan expressed it, while Slocum said "The length is too sudden a departure."

When a colorful group of floor-length gowns was danced into the room, Seth Baker, vice chairman of the yearbook and member of the student council at Amherst, became a bit confused in his articulation;

"These are a great improvement on gownless evening straps—I mean strapless evening gowns," he said.

Other members of the jury who decided daring gowns were for other girls—not theirs—included Dick Littauer of Cornell, Dean Graunke, University of Nebraska and Gene Bokor of Dartmouth.

NEWMAN CLUB NOTES

The Newman club held communion breakfast Sunday morning, November 23, in the basement of St. Brigid's Catholic church. Francis Fogerty was chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements. Bill Hayes, who is the club's president, acted as master of ceremonies. The guest speaker was Father Joly, who's topic was "Problems of College Students." Alice McJilton gave an entertaining reading written by Cornelia Otis Skinner.

On December 17 the initiation will be held for all who have joined this year. Anyone who is not a member, but would like to join is urged to attend. After the initiation a Christmas party will be held in the cafeteria.

GRAD DIRECTS PLAY

Millicent Skone, graduate of 1947, directed the junior class play presented Friday night, December 5 at Frederic where she teaches. The play "The Sunshine Twins" is a three-act comedy.

Milly was active in dramatics at River Falls, too, having the feminine lead in last year's Masquers production "Birds Have Nests."

POSTPONE BAND CONCERT TO JANUARY 20th

Postponement of the December college band concert to January 20 was announced last week. The change was necessary because of the turn-over of band personnel at the end of the term.

The concert consists mainly of popular and semi-popular band numbers often requested by student audiences. Violins from the orchestra will play with the band in some numbers.

The concert is a free evening program instead of the usual assembly program.

There are still openings in the band, and positions can be filled any time before the concert. Anyone who wishes to play will be given the opportunity.

DIRECTORY OUT SOON

The Student Directories will be ready for distribution early next week.

The Directory contains the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the faculty, students, and everyone connected with the school. It also contains information concerning school regulations, standard student programs, requirements for graduation, library regulations, officers of all organizations, and school songs. The price is 30c.

COE GIVES STUDENTS CHANCE TO THINK

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—(ACP)—Something new has been added at Coe College—students in the future will be given "time to think."

A day off now and then will be granted so students can study, talk to their teachers or "just sit and think through" some of their academic problems. Faculty members will stick around the campus for informal conferences, "preferably over a cup of coffee in the grill." Library and reference rooms will remain open.

"It's impossible," said Byron Hollingshead, president of the college, "to get an education in the modern colleges because the colleges make it impossible by rushing the student through the curriculum."

The average college, he insisted, is cursed by "entirely too much teaching and too little learning. It's about time we gave our students a chance to sit back and think about what they are told."

Falcon Champs Geared To Repeat

Falcons Blast Auggies By 78-51 In Opener

The RFSTC basketball team opened the season last Tuesday night against a none too powerful Augsburg quintet by posting a 78-51 triumph. As usual, it was Nate DeLong who provided the spark for the locals as the big center poured 32 points through the nets. Harry Gibbs and "Boots" Deiss garnered 14 and 12 points, respectively, while Cupka and Lindgren shared honors for the "Auggies" with 11 apiece.

After a slow start, the Falcons proved to the many fans that they were still the same high-scoring outfit that they were last year as they spurted to a 49-26 halftime lead. During this first half they made over 70 per cent of all shots from the floor and at one point had sunk 17 straight free throws without a miss.

The floor game of the Red and White cagers was definitely not very good, but the team is much farther along now than they were last year at this time. There are many reserves pushing the regulars for their jobs and one will undoubtedly see changes in the lineup from time to time throughout the season.

Schock Elected Honorary Captain

Gordon Schock, fancy-stepping Falcon halfback, was elected honorary captain of the 1947 conference football champions.

Falcon opponents have felt Schock's power for three seasons. The football lettermen honored him by unanimously electing him captain.

Gordy has another year of competition, so he will be back next fall to worry River Falls gridiron foes.

Sport Highlights and Predictions by Bob Gavic

After getting off to a rather ragged start against Augsburg Tuesday night, the Falcons came back to ring up a neat total of 49 points by half time to prove they were the bunch of dead-eye champs everyone thought they were. Although Augsburg was not exactly the best team River Falls will meet all year, the victory was a pretty impressive start for the season and the team showed they could score just about whenever and from wherever they chose.

Big Nate racked up 32 points and everyone that saw the game came away with the impression he could have had 50 if he would have wanted them. There isn't a reason in the world why Nate shouldn't be high collegiate scorer in the nation this year if a little cooperation is shown along the sidelines by leaving him in the game long enough to get warmed up.

Harry Gibbs proved he's still the best long shot artist around the countryside by dumping in seven buckets. This ability of Harry's to sink them from the middle of the floor is a great asset to the team, not only in points but it also brings the defensive forwards out far enough to open up the center spot, and keeping them from dropping back and covering the offensive center.

Benson looked like he was playing under wraps the other night but he's bound to roll the rest of the year. He is without a doubt the cleverest ball handler and best shot I've ever seen in college basketball.

The Falcons were the only ones in the college conference to come through with victories in their openers. Stout was dropped by Carleton, Eau Claire by St. Cloud, and LaCrosse by Winona. Superior is yet to be tried but it is rather doubtful if they will be capable of giving River Falls much of a ball game. Carleton, Winona, and St. Cloud are no better than average teams so the other three conference foes shouldn't be too tough to ride over either. The only thing the Falcons have to worry about now is how tough the opposition is going to be at Kansas City next year.

The reserves looked very impressive the other night also. Most and Lindholm were probably the most sensational in the way they handled the ball, took rebounds and scored. Coach Schlagenhauf shouldn't have to worry about weakening the team by sending reserves in this year

I was surprised to see nobody got killed going into the gym after the doors were finally opened the other night. The only casualties I know of are a few bruises, eight sprained arms, four black eyes, and three people trampled but still able to come in and watch the game standing up, pinned against the balcony walls. Not much damage was done to the building either, only a couple of broken windows, and about eight badly weakened hinges. They sure have a good system worked out for letting the crowd in.

I looked down into the reserve section also the other night and was surprised to see that all the seats were occupied by town people. One would almost think the reserve tickets were put on sale during Thanksgiving vacation when none of the students could get at them, but, then, we know the school wouldn't pull anything like that on its students.

Well there are no predictions to make this time so guess I will have to end this rather abruptly. I probably should apologize for the Wisconsin football team on the behalf of myself and all the rest of the Wisconsin fans. They really stunk in that Minnesota game.

25 TEAMS ENTERED IN INTRAMURAL LEAGUE

With 25 teams entered and over 175 men competing in league play, the intramural basketball league will be one of the most active winter programs at RFSTC.

Practice games have been played the last two weeks. The regular season will begin next week with each team playing at least one game every week. Because so many teams are entered, a few games each week will have to be scheduled for Saturday afternoon unless other arrangements can be made.

Last year's regular season winners (Coach Stratton's Fourth Street Gang) and the "S" club, tournament champions, are not entered this season. A few teams are back intact from last year. The Six Old Men are back for the fourth straight year (or is it the fifth), and the Brewers look strong this year.

It has been rumored that some teams are subsidizing players. The 5 Aces and the House of McCardle are trying to outbid each other for the services of a few players. They both are offering big salaries. Anyone interested in refereeing some of the games and who has some experience, can leave his name with Mr. Sjowall in the athletic office.

SIX FALLS GRIDDERS MAKE ALL-CONFERENCE FIRST SQUAD

The 1947 championship River Falls football team placed six gridgers on the All-Conference first squad. Five other Falcons were given honorable mention.

River Falls, Superior, and La Crosse players dominated the team picked by the conference coaches.

First team berths were won by Falcon lineman Bill Vanderhoof, Lyle Levenick, and Ernst Glauner and backs Gordon Schock, Arnie Feiler and Clair Tobias. Honorable mention went to linemen Al Werndli, Butch McCardle, Bob Wilson, and Nate DeLong and backs Gordon Grilley and Gene Cardinal.

We are justly proud of these gridgers and the entire football team for the great record they made this fall. Head Coach George Schlagenhauf and his assistants Berger Kolberg, Ted Setterquist and Oscar Sjowall should be commended for the fine job they turned in while leading the team to a successful season.

College, High School Teams Guests at Banquet

RFSTC and River Falls high school football teams attended a banquet held in their honor at the Masonic lodge here in November.

The coaches of the two teams addressed them briefly on the highlights of the season. Both teams were champions in their respective conferences and played undefeated conference seasons.

Ed Phalen of Menomonie high school, served as toastmaster for the evening. Other speakers were Pres. E. H. Kleinpell and Lawrence Dawson, Superintendent of the River Falls high school.

After putting away 210 pounds of turkey the River Falls football heroes were entertained by "Wizard" White, a Minneapolis magician.

A first prize of $1,000, with 13 additional awards amounting to $2,000, will be distributed to college students by the Tamiment Social and Economic Institute, 7 East 15th Street, New York 3, N. Y. for the best 5000 to 6000 word essay on "An American Program for World Peace in the Present Crisis," submitted to its second annual contest. Closing date of the contest is April 23, 1948.

Briefly, the rules of the contest are:

to essay. The manuscript will be coded by the Institute to insure anonymity.

4. RIGHT OF PUBLICATION: The rights and title to the prize-winning essays, including the right of publication, will be retained by the Institute.

According to Louis Waldman, Chairman of the Institute's Essay committee, the purpose of the award is "to stimulate college students to constructive thought on matters of social and economic importance. College students must realize the necessity of having a point of view, and of making that point of view a vital force as alert members of the public. The response to the initial contest is proof that today's student is strongly concerned with social and economic questions, and has a valuable contribution to make to the study of current trends and events."

The prizes for the contest are: 1st prize $1,000 cash; 2nd prize $500 cash; two 3rd prizes, each $250 cash; 10 4th prizes, each $100 cash.

"The Institute is certain," Mr. Waldman concluded, "that students will find 'An American Program for World Peace in the Present Crisis' as provocative of thought as they did the topic assigned in last year's contest."

WORLD PEACE BY HYPNOTISM

The November 28 Minneapolis Morning Tribune carried a picture of Dr. Franz Polgar. Dr. Polgar held a demonstration on hypnotism here, before the student body, earlier this fall.
