RED AND WHITE QUINT AT SUPERIOR

The River Falls basket ball team left for Superior this morning, and this evening will engage in a tilt with the Northerners. This is the last conference game this season and in order for River Falls to finish the conference season with a 500 percentage, it will be necessary to defeat the northern team.

On Saturday the team goes to Washburn where they will meet an independent team Saturday evening.

Miss Ruth Hinman visited with her parents at Greenwood Saturday and Sunday.

DEBATERS WIN TRIANGLE

Upon the home platform last Friday evening, the River Falls affirmative team carried off a unanimous decision in their clash with Eau Claire's destructive combination, composed of LaMarche, Hawkinson, and Losby. The defensive squad was represented by Howalt, Thomson and Liebenberg. From the offset our men showed their superiority in both ease and preparation. All of the speeches and rebuttals were excellent in both delivery and reasoning.

At Superior our negative group were downed by only a very narrow margin. The decision shows a stand of two to one against them. Casey, Allbee, and Chapman championed our negative case and we think they put forward the best offensive in the Northern League. Had these men been on the home rostrum, with the support of the school in plain evidence as it was for the affirmative, there remains barely a doubt that they would have reversed the decision, or even drawn a unanimous conclusion.

Curious as it may seem, only two negative teams, out of the nine schools represented, managed to destroy their opponents' case. These fortunate teams were from Steven's Point and Milwaukee schools, each of which won in its league. Due to our higher count of judges, we shall have the honor of contending with these schools for the state championship title. In these meets the affirmative team will travel; hence we shall be given a chance to observe our offensive team at work.

Coach Mitchell is putting a great amount of time on the preparation of this excellent bunch of talkers. No student, who presents himself at these meets, need to do so only in a sense of loyalty, but for the material benefit he is sure to get from it. Just a spark of school pride will be fanned into a goodly blaze by taking the opportunity of hearing these well trained men present their cases. Watch for the date of the championship meet; it is about three weeks away.

Lois Mitchell, Josephine McQuillian, Earl Luther and Walter Greve hiked to Beldenville last Saturday. Sa'd company is planning to take a hike to St. Paul soon.

THE NEWSPAPER

The newspaper is one of the greatest factors in deciding and developing future political campaigns. It is also the means of keeping everyone in touch with the outside world. Its value as an educator in the present day problems, both social and political is unestimatable. One may, through its frequent use, so acquaint himself with the outside world as to be able to talk in an intelligible manner on almost any topic of the day.

The school library has provided newspapers and magazines for the use of the students. They are available at all times, and should be used for a greater extent in everyday school work. This use should not be limited to looking over the "Funnies" as seems to be the case in a majority of instances.

Are you making the proper use of the school newspapers or are they allowed to hang idle on the rack as far as you are concerned? Some time, whether it be in the near future or further distant, you will be called upon to discuss some present day problem. If you have developed the habit of reading the paper, you will have, at least, what someone else thinks about the same topic, and then from that you may draw your own conclusions. Make use of the material here where it is handy and it will seem easier to obtain additional information when called upon.

AGRIFALLIAN HOLDS AN INTERESTING MEETING

On last Tuesday evening, March 7th, a regular meeting of the Agrifallian Society was held. Other interesting persons who were not members were invited to this meeting and a goodly number of students and other persons took advantage of the unusual opportunity and attended.

The first part of the program consisted of the showing of several motion picture reels. One dealt with Guernseys and the other with Ayrshire cattle. These two films brought to the view, of those who attended the meeting, many of the best animals, in this and other countries, of these two breeds. They showed plainly the best type of cows, of these two breeds, and the important points that must be looked for in securing good stock. Many of the prominent sires in this country were shown, and the important points in their conformation were brought out.

Following this, a very interesting and instructive talk was given to those present, by Mr. Bradley of Hudson. Just recently Mr. Bradley, who is one of the most prominent agriculturists in the state, made an extended trip to the central part of the New World. Among the places he visited are the West Indies, Central America and South America.

He cited many interesting incidents on his trip in the various countries, and told of the primitive conditions which prevail in some of these regions. Particularly interesting was his description of the life and customs of these people. He also gave a vivid description of the Panama Canal.

To Mr. Bradley, the Society extends a vote of thanks for the exceptionally good talk which he gave.

Avery Ames has returned to school after a week's illness.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING CONTEST

The finals of the extemporaneous speaking contest were held at the Thursday's assembly, when the Lincolnian and the Agrifallian contended for the first honors. Mr O'Brien and Mr. Leibenberg represented the Agrifallian while Mr. Thomson and Mr. Bird represented the Lincolnian. The Agrifallian won out in the contest, first place going to Mr. O'Brien. Mr. Leibenberg, Mr. Thomson and Mr. Bird tied for second place.

The speakers drew lots for the order in which they were to speak, Mr. Bird speaking first. He took for his topic, "Should men and women receive equal compensation for the same work. Mr. Bird took an affirmative stand on this question.

Mr. Thomson, being second speaker, took for his topic, "Should senate allow Mr. Newberry to retain his seat in the senate." Emphatically is Mr. Thomson's opinion because it is opposit and against the democratic principles of the American government.

The third speaker was Mr. Leibenberg of the Agrifallian, He proceeded to present his affirmative opinion of the subject, "Should senate allow Mr. Newberry to retain his seat in the senate." Claiming that it was the senate's best policy to do so under the circumstances.

And last, but not least, was Mr. O'Brien, who spoke on the subject, "Is the increasing tendency of women to run for political office to the best interest of the country." He claimed that it would be, because it would naturally lessen the chances for graft by men.

The judges of the contest were, Mr. Hunt, Mr. Hayward, Mr. Karges, Mr. Goble, and Miss Schlosser.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS
STATE BANK

ECONOMY AMONG STUDENTS

All the world loves a cheerful giver. When drives come along, we reverence the magnificent person who rises to pledge extravagantly; we have a warm feeling in our hearts toward the joly individual who sweeps all the soda checks into his hand and says, "Never mind, this is my treat." We admire good clothes, and although we speak in a friendly and democratic way to sweaters, we form our friends among fur-coats, if possible. If we attend all of the good theatrical performances, musical and student athletic events, entertain royally at dinners, and never turn away a friend who asks for a loan, we glow with conviviality and we have a large following among the student body.

The question is, is it our own money that we are so lavish with? Millionaires' sons and daughters have a right to scatter their dollars, but often an examination of facts will show that the young Croesus at school is being supported by the fruits of a boot-blacking establishment at home, where as the plain clothes man may have a background of yachts and ancestral banquet halls. If one makes his own money, it is his to spend until he runs through it, but when Father is clerking at the bank until all hours of the night, Mother is taking in roomers, and the children are wearing their old shoes and patched rompers to "send our boy to college," the thrift under such conditions, he is a merciless student and should remember that, if he is a spend-extortioner.

Rich or poor, economy is a laudable practice under any circumstances.—Daily Illini.

Last Tuesday night Oshkosh met defeat at LaCrosse at the hands of the Maroon and Grey to the tune of 37 to 20. "Hippo" LaCrosse's center and Vondrashek at forward, were high point men in the game. Tonight LaCrosse and Oshkosh play a second game at Oshkosh and judging from all dope, it looks as though a third game will be unnecessary.

STATE ORATORICAL CONTEST

One week from to-day there will be held at Stevens Point, the annual State Normal School Oratorical Contest. Most of the day will be given over to general demonstrations of the various school yells and songs, numbers by quartettes of other groups who may accompany the orators and their parties, and a response in form of a short address from some representative of each school.

The party to represent River Falls at this convention consists of Mr. Thomson, who has been chosen school orator, his running mate, Mr. Casey, Coach Mitchell, and the school quartette. Mr. Thomson has put some long hours of preparation on his speech, "The Spirit of Good Fellowship." As a result of his persistent work and last year's experiences, we predict for him a high place in the contest. The oration will be delivered in the evening, one week from to-night.

STATIONERY!

Surely everyone is interested in pretty stationery! In Miss Hathorne's office is a sample of very beautiful hand painted Japanese designs on each sheet. The painting was done by a student who is attending Stout Institute, and who, with the help of the Y. M. C. A., is working his way through school. Just think of the great pleasure it will give you to send this stationery to your parents and friends, and also of the good you will be doing for this student.

Miss Hathorne will be very glad to show you this paper and take your orders.

THURSDAY'S ASSEMBLY

Besides the finals of the extemporaneous speaking contest at the Thursday assembly, Miss Viola White gave the weekly Current Topic. She spoke on the subject, "Resurrection of Devastated France." Mr. Ames announced the Oratorical Contest to be held at Stevens Point, Friday, March 17, in which the River Falls Normal School will be represented by Mr. Thomson. With the other students going, Mr. Ames hopes to be able to send two more in order that this school may also be represented by a male quartette. For this purpose, a collection will be taken at next Thursday's assembly. Students are asked to contribute a dime and the faculty members, a quarter. This will be sufficient to pay expenses of the two additional students to be sent to make up the Normal quartette.
