Kickoff convo starts homecoming week

The 1968 Homecoming Committee has events planned for each day this week. Tonight at 7:30 in Karges Gym the activities will start with a Kick-Off Convocation. An introduction of the football team and the queen candidates will be combined with skits which follow the theme, "Squash LaCrosse."

Tuesday will be devoted entirely to the balloting for queen. Students may vote for their candidate from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in either the Cage or the Student Center. Votes may be cast at Rodli Commons at noon only.

Coronation ceremonies will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Student Center Ballroom. The "On Stage Review" will perform. The Homecoming Queen will be crowned during intermission. There will be no dancing at the coronation ceremonies as the "On Stage Review" is strictly on stage entertainment.

"Danny's Reasons" will highlight the dance at Das Spielhaus Thursday from 8 to 11 p.m. Admission will be $1 at the door. The dance will follow the "Eating Contest" at Rodli Commons at 5 p.m.

Window and lawn displays will be judged Friday afternoon at 3. At 7 p.m.

Plans announced for writing group

Ronald Neuhaus and James Lenfesty, instructors in the WSU-RF English department, have announced plans for the initiation of a campus writing group.

The group will deal with poetry, plays, fiction and essays and will be arranged with a workshop format. Members will submit works to the group for open critiques and constructive suggestions.

Neuhaus and Lenfesty invite persons interested in such a group to an organizational meeting at 4 p.m. Wednesday at the Gobel House.

the activities move to the amphitheater where the cheerleaders will hold a Pep Fest. The Freshman bonfire and a snake dance will follow the Pep Fest.

The parade, beginning at River Falls Junior High School and proceeding north on Main Street to Cascade and the Student Center, will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Game time for Saturday is 1:30 p.m. Between halves the Patrick Henry High School Marching Band from Minneapolis, Minn., will perform. Various Alumni functions will also highlight Saturday.

Two bands will provide music at the Homecoming dance Saturday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The "Underbeats" will be playing in the Student Center Ballroom while the "Southerland Quartet" will play in the old dining area. The cost of the tickets is $2 per couple.

Homecoming "Buttons" may be purchased this week in the Student Center at a cost of 25 cents. These buttons are required for each activity the student wishes to attend. The Homecoming Committee consists of Glen Denk, chairman, Barb Wilde, Jim Thompson, Judy O'Brien, and Bonnie Robertson.

Geology students travel to Wyoming

About 20 Geology students, under the direction of Dr. Charles Carson, associate professor of plant and earth science, traveled to the Big Horn Mountains in Wyoming on a field trip early this month.

In the five days the students were in the field, they covered about 2,300 miles. On the way to Wyoming, the group stopped to collect fossils in the Badlands of South Dakota and visited the School of Mines in Rapid City, S.D. and the Keystone mining district in the Black Hills.

Once in Wyoming, the group toured Devil's Tower, the oil fields at Gillette, the Sheridan coal fields and collected fossils from the dinosaur beds at Shell, Wyo.

The group collected many fossil leaves from the coal beds and is planning a display of its finds in the Ag-Science building.

Area focus of settlement in 1840's

Editor's Note--This is the first in a series of articles dealing with the history of Wisconsin State University--River Falls.

During the late 1840's the St. Croix valley became the focus of settlement in northwestern Wisconsin. By 1860, the western counties along the Mississippi and St. Croix were filling up. With the migration of people from the east coast, the settlement of Pierce County in the St. Croix valley became known as "the New England of the north-west."

From the beginning the thrifty Yankees were attracted to the valley of the Kinnickinnic because of the several falls, natural power sites for economic activity in a day and region which depended upon water power to turn the wheels of grist mills and the blades of saws.

In the fall of 1848, Joel Foster, a native of Illinois, made the first exploration into this area. Chas. B. Cox built the first saw and grist mill in the Kinnickinnic Valley in 1849. He built a mill on the river, in what is now River Falls, in 1854. N.N. and O.S. Powell named the Kinnickinnic River in 1854.

Once the land was cleared and the mills in operation, business and civic leaders of the community turned to the second aspect of the Puritan ethic--Education.

The first school building was erected in 1854 at what is now 116 N. Fourth St. The 20 by 30 foot, two-story building cost $500, the money being raised through subscription. The first teacher was Miss Helen Flint, her salary also paid by subscription.

In 1856, 63 of the town's founding fathers subscribed for $2,350 worth of stock in the River Falls Academy. On Aug. 28, 1856, S.S. Ferris of Hudson was given a contract to build a two story frame school house. The trustees of the River Falls Academy appointed Benjamin Wilcox principal on Oct. 28, 1856, and tendered him the use of the building rent free for a term of three years. Connecticut-born Wilcox was a graduate of an eastern university and had formerly taught at the Wilson Collegiate Institute in New York.

Classes began at the RF Academy in December of 1856. High purpose was evident from the first announcement of the academy's trustees: "We wish it distinctly understood that we want the patronage of no student of either sex, who may desire to attend to pass away the time. Unless they propose to engage in study EARNESTLY, they would be better to stay away. We intend to make it an uncomfortable place for IDLERS."

While the school did not succeed as a money-making venture, it did provide an education based in part on the traditional academy curriculum and served as a cross between a common school and a high school. The differences in educational level and ability between the students was wide, with no special courses of study. The students studied whatever they liked best, varying from the 'three R's'

FSA meeting set for Thursday night

A meeting of the Foreign Student Association is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 17 in Room 101 of the Student Center.

According to the Association's advisor, Richard Brynildson, the items to be discussed include the Association's participation in the inauguration ceremony for the University's new President, Dr. George R. Field and its sponsorship of the annual observance of the United Nations Day on Oct. 24.

Suggestions for future activities will be welcome.

Contemporary Man series begins

The First Amendment, sponsored by the Coffee House Association of River Falls, will present the first program in its Contemporary Man series at 8 p.m., Tuesday.

The program, titled "The Election--1968," will feature a discussion led by Dr. Richard Darr, professor in economics and Dr. Edward Peterson, chairman of the history department. The program will be presented at the First Amendment, located at 220 S. Second St.

On Wednesday, there will be coffee and discussion at 9 p.m. following the foreign film, Elvira Madigan. There will also be a discussion period Thursday, following the performance of the Concerts and Lectures sponsored Pro Arte Quartet. According to John Mercer, chairman of to Latin.

The River Falls Academy did not long meet the demands of the community. On Nov. 22, 1862 the stockholders of the Academy Association authorized the trustees to grant the use of the academy building to the school district. On July 17, 1865, they sold the building and grounds to the district for $1,500. The old academy building was destroyed by fire in the fall of 1879.

Historical records mention a River

Falls Institute and possibly a River Falls Military Academy, but there are no definite facts to substantiate the existence of these two institutions.

The founding fathers desired a higher level of educational institution at River Falls. In 1868 Professor Allen H. Weld, a resident of the St. Croix valley was appointed to the Board of Normal Schools Regents. This leads to another segment of the RF educational history.

The second article in this series will appear next week.

WSU-Oshkosh desolves student governing body

The Student Government Legislature, (SGL) the student governing body at Wisconsin State University Oshkosh, has abolished itself.

The executive board of SGL voted to terminate SGL on Oct. 1. David Frank, SGL president, presented the dissolution to the remainder of the Legislature on Oct. 3.

Frank said he old system of class representative did not lend itself to responsible representative. Numerous resignations have made government business impossible to conduct.

The executive board unanimously voted to dissolve the old system to set up a senate of district representatives which it hopes will be more representative.

These students formed the Committee of Students Interested in Government Now (COSIGN) to work out the new government system.

COSIGN will hold a referendum to get the students' opinions about how they want to be represented.

Frank asked the members of the defunct legislature "to continue in their service to the student body by remaining at their committee posts and by joining COSIGN to work for a truly representative and responsible legislature branch of the student government."

Sen. Knowles; challenger to debate here Thursday

Republican Robert Knowles, incumbent state senator from the Third District, which includes River Falls, and Carl Pemble, Democratic challenger to the senate seat will debate at the North Hall auditorium at 2 p.m. Thursday in a Free Spirit Forum presented by the Legislative Action Committee (LAC).

A future Free Spirit Forum will feature Don Peterson, chairman of the Wisconsin delegation to the Democratic convention in Chicago, at 2 p.m. October 30.

Also discussed at the October 8 meeting of the LAC was the sample survey on topics pertaining to student interest it will conduct in conjunction with the eight other state universities for United Council. All student contacted for this survey are asked to give their full cooperation.

Miss Barbara Stouffer was elected the new LAC treasurer.

The Pro Arte Quartet consists of Norman Paula, (violin), Richard Blum, (viola), Thomas Moore, (violin), Lowell Creitz, (cello). The Pro Arte Quartet, which was founded in Belgium in 1912, is the oldest musical organization of its kind in the world.

In 1940, the Quartet came to America and established residence at the University of Wisconsin. Since then the Quartet has undergone several changes and at present all members of the Quartet are American born.

Norman Paula comes to the Pro Arte Quartet from Oklahoma City where he was first violinist of the Lyric String Quartet and concert master of the Oklahoma City Symphony Orchestra. He has also been associated with the Rochester Philharmonic, the Seventh Army Symphony, Aspen Festival Orchestra and the Peninsula Festival Orchestra.

A native of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Thomas Moore received his Master's Degree and Performer's Certificate at the University of Alabama. He has been associated with the Rochester Philharmonic, the Bevard, Aspen, and the Peninsula Festival Orchestras, and the Eastman Philharmonic.

Richard Blum joined the Pro Arte Quartet in 1957. He has been a member of the Rochester Philharmonic, the San Antonio Symphony Orchestra, the Seventh Army Trio and Quartet, the St. Louis Symphony, the Grant Park Symphony and the Dallas Symphony.

Having begun his musical studies at the age of three under his father a conductor and a teacher, Lowell Creitz joined the Quartet in 1955. At 16, he played in the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Two years later he was invited to New York City by the New York Philharmonic and by CBS to conduct and solo with the CBS Symphony.

Opening of Rodli gameroom delayed

A delay in the arrival of glass for the partition in the new Rodli Commons game room is holding up the opening of the game room, according to James Schmidt, game room director.

"To put four pool tables in there now," Schmidt said would "be like setting them on Main Street."

Schmidt said he saw no reason why the pool tables and the color television, which will also be installed in the game room, should be subjected to possible misuse or ruin just so the game room could be opened on time. He said that a cigarette machine, installed in the room was smashed within three weeks after it had been put in.

Two pool tables are ready to go and the other two will be ready for use as soon as the glass arrives and is installed.

Food service plans special Japanese menu

The long lines at Rodli Commons seem to be diminishing, according to many University students.

This is not due to such things as line changes but increased efficiency, according to Donald George, food director at Rodli Commons. The lines are the same, but George says that the students and his own personnel are becoming familiar with the functioning of lines, checking, and seating. This all is making things run much smoother than at the beginning of the school year. "It was like world war three every meal," commented George, referring to the series of major crises that plagued the University's food service.

George expressed great optimism when discussing future developments of the food service at Rodli. "There's no more problem with bussing trays," he said.

Also, he suggested that students take notice that next Wednesday night a special Japanese dinner will be served at Rodli. This dinner will include such foods as: Lobster and cucumber soup; Suki Yaki (celery, bamboo shoots, onions, pork loin, etc.); fried egg plant; egg roll; and such things as Kamboko and Tempura.

The Elections Committee will be meeting Thursday night at 8 p.m. in Room 139 Rodli Commons to examine existing election procedures.

An amphitheatre decays

In the spring of 1965 students began a project behind Hathorn Hall which would eventually provide an open-air stage for any type of production. A project which was begun with funds collected by the Foundation Committee and continued with federal funds and labor.

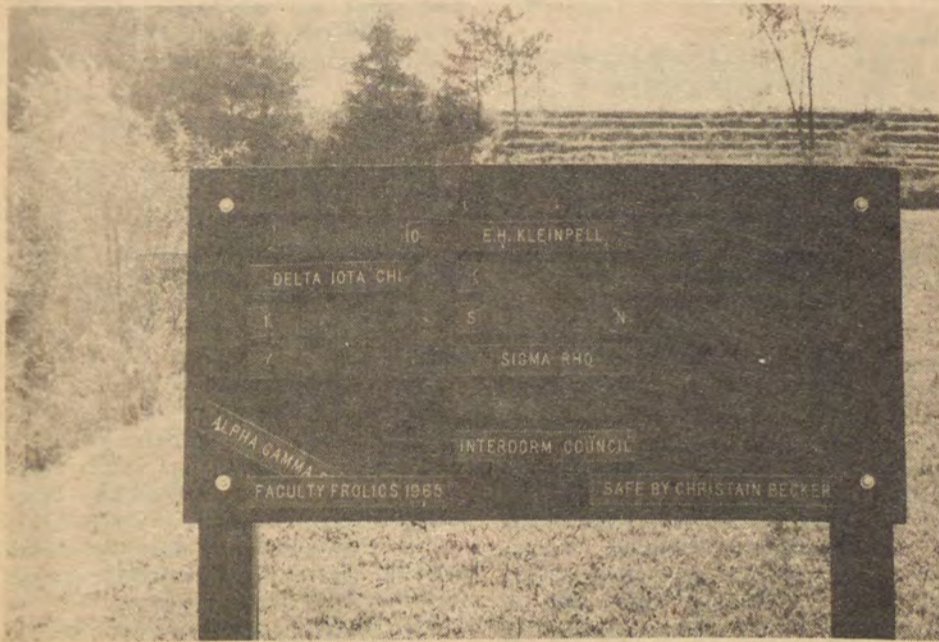

During the summer of that year, work-study students and a youth corp group cleared the land, and in general, laid the foundation for what became the school's amphitheatre.

As a tribute to his untiring efforts for this project, it was named after Dr. Melvin Wall, a late member of the Agriculture department.

During Foundation Week of 1966 students worked to raise money for a stage-shell which has been designed by an architecture student. To complete the entire project lighting and sound systems and dressing rooms must be installed. A $30,000 budget is needed before these facilities can be realized. The Foundation Committee can not raise the required revenue.

Weeds begin to cover the stonework on the stage.

The contributors sign indicates the condition of the amphitheatre

Had these small repairs been attended to as they appeared, the obvious and disgraceful condition which now presents itself would have been avoided. Since this is state property, state funds should be used for its upkeep. This means that the University's maintenance crews are responsible for its repair and, now, also, responsible for its present dire condition.

Every year the subject of the amphitheatre is broached and every year it is ignored. Every year The Student Voice requests that the condition of the area be improved and every year the Voice receives no satisfactory action concerning the problem. The maintenance department has shirked its responsibilities for three years. How much longer will this continue?

Maintenance contends that they don't have enough staff to keep the area in proper repair. It is state property and therefore should be considered when the maintenance budget is appropriated. Work-study students worked on the project in the spring of 1965. Why can't work-study students work on this project in the fall of 1968?

The Student Voice appeals to the administration to see that the problem is solved before alumni arrive for the 1969 Homecoming.

Dr. Wilbur Sperling, head of Alumni Development, has sought the help of numerous philanthropic organizations with little success. Former president, Dr. E. H. Kleinpell, submitted the project to the State Building Commission because it is now state property. At this time no action has been taken. The University has been notified that the commission will consider the project in the next biennium.

Until then it seems the amphitheatre is destined to disuse and an overgrowth of weeds.

Alumni who pause at the amphitheatre (if they can find it) will be dismayed at the general disrepair. Steps leading to the stage have collapsed and the stones which line the river bank have disappeared after months of neglect.

It is difficult to imagine that a terrace of stone exists for seating spectators. The two bridges leading to the outdoor auditorium are obscured among the same neglected tangle which hides the Wall Amphitheatre itself.

Foundation Committee has attempted time and again to insure maintenance of the grounds - to make certain the grass is cut, weeds are pulled, chipped and missing stones replaced and the stage kept in repair.

The stage is crumbling because of lack of care.

Twisted rods and broken stones are no tribute to Dr. Wall

"Deep End" open Oct. 31, with duet act

Miss Lorraine Bonito, program director for University Activity Board (UAB) at WSU-RF says the "Deep End", a coffeehouse on campus, will open Oct. 31.

The "Deep End" is located under the old May Hall cafeteria.

Miss Donna Sandell, chairman of the "Deep End" committee hopes that the coffeehouse will have an informal atmosphere. She said, "I don't know what it's going to be like. It will be what the students make of it." The other members of the committee are Sharon Meisner, vice-chairman, Dave Swagger and Sarah Marola. There is one opening on the committee to be filled.

Miss Sandell said there will be four semi-professional shows throughout the year, one fall quarter featuring "Shipley and Brewer", two winter quarter and one spring quarter. Other than this she said the coffeehouse would be closed, unless the students find supervision for it.

A special brew of coffee will be served. Other refreshments maybe sold later on.

Three students, Judie O'Brien and John and Jenny Pederson, painted the walls of the coffeehouse in an Art Nouveau style. This type of art is purely experimental. When the ceiling is done, the group hopes to have one unit perfectly merged.

Miss Sandell explained that there must be a certain amount of student participation and interest to make the "Deep End" a success.

Cheerleaders, and Apple Pie Enthusiasts (APE).

In further action the Senate allotted the Agronomy Club $50 to be used to send club members to a soil judging contest in Illinois. The money was allotted with the suggestion that the organization turn in a constitution and a list of officers for Senate approval.

The Budget Committee was instructed to study the Meletear's new policy of charging $1 per person for pictures of organizations in the '68-'69 yearbook. The fee was "condemned" by Greek Letter Council (GLC).

Senate will cooperate with Re-Con, a job-finding service, by writing letters to 100 companies in the area telling them about the service. Re-Con will pay the Senate $400 for writing the letters.

Duane Roen, Service Coordinator's, appointment of Mary Johnston as his assistant was approved. In further action the Senate approved funds to have the San Francisco Mime Group on campus during the first week in November.

Legislative Action Committee (LAC) was instructed to investigate action taken by the Academic Standards Committee in a case involving Diane Truitt. Miss Truitt, United Council secretary and LAC member, asked to have her study load reduced to ten credits to enable her to devote more time to United Council and LAC. Her study load was reduced with the stipulation that she give up her membership in the two organizations.

Thursday Night's Must Where The Action Is!

New English instructor former clothing model

A former clothing model, John Edward Sperry, joined the WSU-River Falls faculty this fall.

Sperry has worked as a clothing model for "Venture," a magazine published in New York and distributed primarily on the East and West Coasts. For one issue he modeled a series of bell bottom pants with one of the photographs taken in front of a stained-glass window with the afternoon sun shining through the glass. The photographer was experimenting with light and color effects.

Sperry, who is interested in the clothing business and mod fashions, and a friend, a clothing buyer for a store, are attempting to establish a men's boutique. Sperry said that his teaching position has slowed down progress on the boutique but that his friend is currently looking for fashions in this country and Europe.

Antique collecting is another of Sperry's interests. He is interested primarily in Victorian antiques and has several lamps and lampshades plus some furniture including tables and brass beds from this period.

Sperry is also interested in photography and is currently making a collection of photographs of various subjects.

Sperry, 24, received his BA in English from the University of Minnesota and his Masters degree, also in English, from the University of South Dakota. He is currently attending classes four days a week at the University of Minnesota. This is Sperry's first teaching position.

Sperry does not feel that he would give up his teaching career for his interest in the clothing business. He considers the latter "more of a hobby."

WSU-Eau Claire to have telephones in all dorm rooms

Telephone in every dorm room will soon be a reality at WSU-Eau Claire. The Centrex System will have the phone installed by the beginning of the 1969-70 academic year. Students will have direct in and out calling lines, eliminating the need to call the operator for an off-campus call. University students will be billed by mail for long-distance calls. There will be no problems with payments for long-distance calls, for if a student refuses to pay for one, a computer will automatically restrict the use of that telephone for further long-distance calls.

Field wants band marching by fall

The RF marching band is as yet still in the planning process, but it is hoped that it will be marching by next fall. Dr. James M. King, of the music department, reports that several uniform companies have been contacted, but nothing definite has been done yet.

President George Field said "I will meet with several members of the Music department and we will set up a tentative timetable for the band at that time to get it going by next September."

NSA programs outlined

Details of the service programs offered by the United States National Association (NSA) have been announced by Senator Duane Roen, coordinator of NSA services, and Mary Johnston, assistant coordinator. The specific programs outlined thus far include the International Student Affairs Club, Travel Services, and the job recruitment program.

The International Student Affairs Club (ISAC) exists in order to promote greater understanding of the issues and problems affecting students around the world. ISAC members may participate in regional conferences and seminars involving American and foreign students with current student issues in the U.S. and abroad. They may also partake in a government approved exchange-visitor program which offering opportunities to spend a summer working and travelling in Australia, Great Britain, Ireland or New Zealand. Students involved in the International Student Welcom Program, which hosts foreign student visitors to the United States, sponsors low cost charter flights to Europe for members of at least 6 months standing.

The complete travel services of NSA include winter and spring offerings that cover skiing in Canada and Switzerzland, swimming and sailing in the Caribbean, and travel publications. Overseas summer job programs covering Australia, Ireland, New Zealand and the United Kingdom, transatlantic reduced-rate transportation, student accident and baggage insurance, car rental leasing and purchasing plan, and any of three travel publications may also be obtained through the travel service.

The NSA has also established a job recruitment agency designed to help graduating students at all NSA schools complete the questionnaire which lists among other things, job choices, academic training, work experience, etc.

The questionnaires for the graduating class are then coded and fed into a computer data bank. A similar questionnaire is filled out by the company.

The form provides for the detailed specification of particular job requirements as well as the importance of each specification. After the job specification form has been completed, the student's qualifications and job preferences are run through the computer.

The computer then selects the optimum candidates for each job opening. These names are then sent to the companies who in turn contact the student.

History prof works on second book

James T. King, a professor of history at River Falls State University, has taken a vacation from the classroom this quarter and is working on his second book. Dr. King has been working on his biography of Civil War general and American Indian fighter George Crook since the completion of his first book, "War Eagle," in 1964.

The idea for his second book came when he was writing his book about General Eugene A. Carr. General Crook's name came up often in Dr. King's research and he decided to look into his life. Dr. King expects to complete his book in the spring and publication is expected to be in the spring of 1970.

This summer Dr. King took time off to visit Great Britain for six weeks. The purpose of his visit was to get to know England, Scotland, and Wales. He visited with professors from several of the universities there and toured the countries. From there he toured the continent, primarily France and Switzerland, for two weeks before returning to the States.

Besides writing a book, Dr. King is currently editing a book which covers the coverage of the Civil War by correspondents. He is also editing 10 articles for the Encyclopedia of the American West.

Dr. King graduated from Hastings College, Hastings, Nebraska, with his bachelor's degree in history. He received his Doctorate in history from the University of Nebraska.

RF debate teams score 5 wins in South Dakota

Four debaters returned victorious from the Sioux Falls, South Dakota State College Debate tournament and workshop. The affirmative team composed of Margaret Kitze and Pete Seguin had a record of 2 wins and 1 loss; and negative team, Kathleen Graham and Paulette Gergen won all three debates. Some of the schools encountered by the teams were Bethel College, St. Paul, Minn., Mount Mary College, Yankton, S. D. and Carney College of Nebraska. The debaters feel that the tournament was especially valuable because it was held early in the season and therefore provided the debaters the

and to learn other sides of the question.

The next tournament on the agenda is a Twin City Debate League tournament to be held at Macalaster College, St. Paul, Minn. The date of the tournament is October 22 and it will be held in the afternoon and evening. Schools participating besides River Falls include University of Minnesota, Hamline College, Macalaster College, Eau Claire State and Stout State.

The novice team will be attending this tournament along with the team that journeyed to Sioux Falls. It is composed of Marilyn Langowski, Carol Jo Sobviack, Steve Wilson and Pat Cassanova.

Actors hold workshop

Actor's Workshop, an educational and practical experience performance with the actors actually acting for perhaps the first time in a collegiate situation, was presented to an invitational audience October 10 and 11 in the Pit Theatre.

Scenes were presented from plays by Shaw, Housman, Ionesco, and Simon.

"Androcles and The Lion", written by George Bernard Shaw and directed by Dr. Blanche Davis, was enacted by Len Larson, playing Androcles; Darlene Poppe, playing Megaera (his wife); and Bruce Reynolds cast as the Lion. The scene played was the prologue based on an early fable. It establishes the low reputation for the then new religion, Christianity.

"Victoria Regina" is a biographical drama of Queen Victoria from the time she ascended the throne to her death. The scene showed the bride Victoria watching her husband shave for the first time. It was written by Laurence Housman and directed by William Martin. The cast consisted of Len Larson, the valet; Frank Blomgren as Prince Albert; and Susan Sloniker as Queen Victoria.

"The Chairs" by Eugene Ionesco is a satire on man's faith in his intellect and his ability to communicate. The play was directed by William Martin and the cast included Mike Houlistan as the Old Man; Marla Cole as the Old Woman; and Frank Blomgren as the Orator.

George Bernard Shaw's play "Pygmalion" featured Len Larson as Professor Higgins; Bruce Reynolds as Colonel Pickering; Carol Otto as Mrs. Pierce, the housekeeper; and Kathy Kutz as Liza Doolittle. The play is the same story as that of the musical "My Fair Lady" and the scene presented was directed by Marcia Magyar assisted by Jane Wood.

"The Odd Couple", by Neil Simon, is much like the recent movie by the same name. The scene portrayed Oscar and Felix, who are both recently divorced from their wives. The scene shows them welcome the Pigeon sisters to their apartment. Bruce Reynolds played Oscar, with Mike Houlistan portraying Felix, and Karen Rabsha and Debbie Wittwer as Cecily and Gwendolyn Pigeon. William Goetzelman directed assisted by Lyn Seethaler.

It is: Full of new features including bigger outlets for the Astro Ventilation, a 210-hp standard V8, and a lock for the steering column, ignition and transmission lever.

It is: Available with a little device that automatically washes

Bluegolts tie Falcons 21-21

By Rob Orcutt

The River Falls Falcons and the Eau Claire Bluegolts played 60 minutes of football Saturday night but neither team could come out the victor. The teams played to a 21-21 tie.

River Falls had the best chance of scoring the winning points but two late fourth quarter field goal attempts were pushed wide by a cross wind.

Eau Claire scored first when they took the opening kick-off and marched 71 yards in nine plays for the touchdown. The last nine yards were covered by a pass from quarterback Jim Bach to Terry Weinberger. Don Harer's kick was good and the Bluegolts led 7-0 with 10:47 remaining in the first quarter.

The Falcons had a big scoring opportunity late in the first quarter when Al Waschke fell on an enemy fumble. This put the Falcons on the Eau Claire 24 yard line. Four plays later however a Jerry Trooien pass was batted in the air and intercepted by an Eau Claire lineman to halt the River Falls scoring threat.

With the ball on their own 34 yard line Eau Claire started to drive again but not for long. After the Bluegold interception the tables were turned when Brian Kreibich picked off an option pass from Terry Weinberger and returned it to the Eau Claire 17 yard line. It took the Falcons six plays but this time they made sure they scored. Jerry Trooien got last yard on a quarterback sneak. John Cahalan's kick was good and the game was deadlocked 7-7 with 10:09 to play in the second quarter.

Eau Claire came right back after the Falcons scored to go ahead 14-7. The Bluegolts marched 58 yards in 10 plays to take the lead into the second half. The running or Weinberger sparked the enemy drive with quarterback Jim Bach rolling around the end for the last five yards.

The Falcons came out the second half ready to play. They took the second half kick-off and rolled in to score. Tim DeLawyer had the big play in which he caught a short pass and turned it into a 56 yard touchdown. In all the drive covered 70 yards. With less than two minutes gone in the third quarter the score was tied up again 14-14.

Eau Claire took the Falcon kick-off and march the ball deep into Falcon territory. With a first down on the Falcon five yard line Eau Claire halfback Terry Weinberger went up the middle into the end zone only to fumble the ball to Steve Sirianni of the Falcons. The ball was brought out to the 20 yard line and Eau Claire had been stopped.

Early in the fourth quarter Eau Claire took over on their own 45 yard line. Aided by two penalties, the Bluegolts marched the distance in nine plays with Jim Bach getting the last yard. This made the score 21-14 with 10:51 left in the game.

Led by Jerry Trooien the Falcons came back after Eau Claire kicked-off. From the River Falls 48 yard line Trooien hit Joe Rozak for 19 yards. Trooien went to the other side of the field and found Dave Rosga open for four more yards on a pass. Steve Vail then went up the middle for four yards. Cahalan could only get one, so on fourth and one Trooien kept the ball and got the first down. After an incomplete pass on first down Trooien went back to pass again. Finding the receivers covered he put on a great show running with the ball Fran Tarkenton style for 10 yards. After Gruenwald gained two Trooien again went back to pass and had to scramble. This time he threw to Gruenwald who lost one yard on the play. With 11 yards to go Trooien called DeLawyer's number and the two collaborated on an 11 yard touchdown pass. With Cahalan's kick the score stood 21-21 with 5:02 remaining.

Eau Claire started on the 20 yard line. It didn't take long for the Falcon defense to come up with a big play. Weinberger tried another option pass on the first play and Kreibich was right there to intercept and run it back to the Eau Claire 17 yard line. From here however the Falcons couldn't move the ball and Cahalan was called on to try a field goal which went wide to the left.

Eau Claire drove for one first down but then was forced to punt. The Falcons got a break when the punt went only 16 yards to the Falcon 43 yard line. Trooien wasted little time in eating up yardage by hitting DeLawyer for 21 yards. After Gruenwald gained five yards Trooien scrambled again this time for 10 yards. Gruenwald got eight more yards and Cahalan fumbled but recovered the ball for a one yard loss. This set the stage for the Falcons last chance to score. With the ball on the Eau Claire 14 Cahalan attempted a 31 yard field goal which again was of the left, with the cross wind being a big factor. Eau Claire could only get two plays off after the field goal and the score stood 21-21.

Students Beware:

Morale is intended to be at an all time high during Homecoming week. So belly up, so you can fire up.

The Dirty Dozen

By Sports Editor Harley O'Brion

I guess you might say "it was one of those games." The trouble is, it was the second "one of those games" in a row! River Falls was sure a different team in the second half.

The Falcons pounded out 240 of 297 total yards in the second half and played great ball in the catch-up game. Trooien passed for 136 of the 141 total passing yardage in the second half and Tim DeLawyer caught five passes for 114 yards in the final two quarters. DeLawyer caught two touchdown passes from Trooien with one going 56 yards. That will help his conference average!

Brian Kreibich played a fantastic game at defensive halfback. The junior from Alma made 13 tackles and was credited with six assists but his performance doesn't end here. He intercepted two Bluegold passes bringing his conference total to six, one short of tying the conference record. He has four games to accomplish the feat. Brian also recovered a fumble in the end zone after a Bluegold crossed the goal on a pass play.

Tim DeLawyer came through in the second half. The sophomore tight end caught the only pass in the first half for the Falcons; a five yarder seconds before Trooien sneaked in from the one. Tim was the second ranked receiver in the state and his performance Saturday night brought encouraging results.

I feel Ed Gruenwald has really found himself at halfback. When he irons out a few mistakes due to inexperience, he may develop into a top notch rusher. Gruenwald was last week's Overall Player-of-the-Week against Oshkosh. In conference play, the Random Lake sophomore, is averaging 4.0 yards per carry.

My Fearless Forecast was really hurting last week. The only score I came close to was the Superior-Stevens Point game. I predicted Point to win 21-13 and they played to a 14-14 tie.

There were three ties in the conference last week. Besides our 21-21 tie with Eau Claire, Whitewater and St. Norberts battled to a 21-21 tie and Superior and Stevens Point deadlocked at 14-14.

Get this! Platteville travelled to Oshkosh in the top WSUC game. With five minutes left in the third quarter, and Platteville leading 12-0, the lights went out and the game was discontinued until a later date. Yes, that's right! The game was called because of darkness.

Rumors are out that the hockey team will have their own cheerleaders---on skates. Now if RF can schedule 15 or 20 games, it could be an exciting season. Remember the pucksters were 9-1 last year.

The bucketball season looks encouraging with seven returning lettermen. You can bet Benson's Boys will be battling for top spot in the conference.

The cross country team, coached by Rial Smith seems to improve with each meet and intramural football seems to get rougher.

I hear that they have a catsup on the market called BIG RED. LaCrosse beware! Blood makes the grass grow!

Harv's Fearless Forecast this week sees:

St. Norberts	28	Oshkosh	13

Harriers "improving"

by

Pete Holmlund

"They're improving." This was cross country coach Rial Smith's comment, after the Falcon harriers placed second in a triangular meet at Winona. The River Falls runners, who have not been up to par lately, revenged an earlier loss to Eau Claire State.

Field hockey team blanks Bethel 2-0

The Women's Recreation Association (WRA) Extramural field hockey team blanked out Bethel College 2-0, Thursday, October 10. Barb Wickman slapped in both goals for the River Falls squad. The win brings the team's record to a 2-2 mark. Earlier in the season the WRA squad fell victim to an Oshkosh onslaught. On that same day the WRA team lost to Stevens Point.

The first victory arrived in the form of a 3-0 triumph over St. Catherine's team. Jean Marx was high scorer with two goals while Barb Wickman contributed the third.

The early defeats were due to the inexperience of the WRA team. Only four out of the starting lineup have played before while the remaining seven have a limited background in field hockey.

On Tuesday, October 15, the WRA will sponsor a field hockey clinic, featuring Brenda Reed, a member of the touring English hockey team. Representatives from Stout are also expected to attend.

The meet results were as follows: Winona State 20-River Falls 39, Winona State 20-Eau Claire 39, and River Falls 25-Eau Claire 30. Gilman from Winona covered the 4 mile course in 21:41, with Eau Claire's Jean Alm a close second at 21:43. Alm incidentally, never ran cross country before this year.

Larry Rud again paced RF with a 5th in the time of 22:20, with Ron Radies two seconds behind him for 6th. Junior Greg Zwadlo earned a 9th, Darrel Anderson 11th, freshman Tom Cooke 16th, Gary Sperl 19th, and Brian Gorzalski 20th.

The first WSU Cross Country Standings find LaCrosse and Oshkosh deadlocked in first, and River Falls hanging in there in 5th. The first place tie will not be for long, as the top three teams meet in a triangular at La Crosse soon.

Rain hampers intramural football action

By Tom Alex

There were only two days of intramural football action last week due to heavy rain on Wednesday and Thursday.

The Southern league standings look about the same with AGR, Sig Tau, and the PHI NU CHI Gremlins still in a three way tie for first place. The Scorpions are the only other winning team in the Southern league with a 2-1 record. The Haulers are 1-2 while D.T.S., Prucha #2, and the Bluedevils own winless 0-3 records.

The Record Breakers sneaked past the CH's in the Northern League by a 8-7 score to narrow first place competition.

Phi Sigma Epsilon, also sharing the number one spot remains not only undefeated, but unscored upon after three games. They defeated the T.C.'s last week by a 15-0 score.

Todd Voss intercepted a T.C. pass and scored for the first touchdown. Pete Palmer caught a short aerial from Greg Miller later in the game to cushion the score. A safety favoring the Phi Sigs put the score at 15-0.

Sinclair House, CH's, and Theta Chi are deadlocked in the second spot with 2-1 records. The T.C.'s sit alone in the third place position and Newman Club holds fourth place by itself.

Third Johnson lost another big one last week to Theta Chi by a 33-0 tally to give them a winless 0-3 record. Sharing the cellar with third Johnson is Prucha #1 who lost a close 10-6 game with Sinclair House.

Radio staff plans test run

Delays! The FCC has still delayed the debut of the campus radio station, WRFW-RF. Lorin Robinson, faculty director of the station, said that the latest delay is the result of having to fill out more FCC forms that only recently were brought to his attention. He said he didn't know why he hadn't been informed of them earlier.

This week the station's staff plans to "go through all the motions" of operating the radio station, including broadcasting. The transmitter, however, will not be turned on.

Robinson's Broadcast Journalism class will be compiling the news and the announcing staff will be practicing their deliveries.

Robinson still refuses to set a new date for the station to begin its broadcasts, but hopes it will be soon.
