Jay Bergstrand Dons Crown During Carnival Weekend

The highlight of the 1959 Talent Show Thursday evening was the crowning of the Winter Carnival King, Jay Bergstrand, senior from Amery. King Jay, who was sponsored by the Vet's Club and Sitzmarkers, chose Dorothy Braun, sophomore from Hastings to be his queen.

The royal couple was crowned by Al Suezaki, the 1958 Winter Carnival King. Members of the court were Gary Rohde of Greenwood and Kay Holmes of Nekoosa, Tom Shield of River Falls and Alice Kroeze of St. Paul, and Al Wienke of Emerald and his date.

The nine-act variety show was emceed by Tony Koss of Deerpark.

Picked as the most entertaining act was the "Six O.K.'s," a tap dance and vocal group composed of the Owens family of River Falls. They sang and danced to "Anchor's Away."

The first place prize of $15 went to Dick Meuleman's vocal solo of "Because." Second prize, $10, was awarded to Marlin Feld, Bernie Feld, Ed Thompson, and Joe Alms for their vocal quartet of "Lida Rose." Roger Doty received $5 as third place prize for his baton solo.

In the beard contest, Jerry Mertens was picked to have the most unusual beard, Chuck Swan had the longest, and Lloyd Danke the heaviest. Each of the winners won shaving soap and razor blades. Judges of the beard contest were Norry Larson, a local barber, Dr. Robert Berg of the political science department, Miss Vera Moss of the English department, and student Shelby Ludwig.

Other performers were Al Phillips, Mary Long, Peggy Mueller, Pat Grant, Jitter Anderson, and Leila Johnson, who did vocal acts, and the Tanner Brothers and Ed Cunningham who did guitar numbers.

The Talent Show was produced by Gary Dado, Al Scrough, Ed Cunningham, and Glen Samuelson.

Atom Specialist To Be Feature of '59 Science Fair

The third annual Science Fair will open Tuesday, March 17, with a speech by Thomas Ritzinger, a science teacher trained in atomic energy. He will speak at 10 a.m. in North Hall Auditorium.

Mr. Ritzinger, who teaches at Rice Lake, received instruction at Oak Ridge, Tenn., on training methods to be used by him as he travels around the country lecturing on atomic energy. Mr. Ritzinger's appearance is being sponsored by the Concert and Lecture Committee in cooperation with the Science Fair co-chairmen, Peter Muto and Martin Laakso.

Science and mathematics students and their teachers from approximately 40 area high schools have been asked to bring in self-constructed exhibits relating to the physical and biological fields. Exhibits will be (Continued on Page 2)

Bergquist Wins First in Narrative Reading

Kenneth Bergquist won the narrative reading contest at the 15th annual Eau Claire State College Speech Festival held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Feb. 19-21.

Mr. Bergquist, a junior from Amery, read a selection taken from a short story written by William Faulkner entitled "The Tall Men."

Three River Falls debate teams were rated excellent by the judges. They are the teams of Tom Hinke and John Rice, Anita Munson and Judith Harmon, and Mr. Bergquist and Judith Gilbertson. In addition, the Bergquist-Gilbertson team tied for eighth place in the second division.

Tom Hinke and John Rice were both rated excellent by judges in the discussion division.

A total of 38 schools entered the Eau Claire tournament.

Shankland Begins Two-Day Visit On R F Campus

Lectures, informal discussions, and assistance to faculty members concerning curriculum and research problems in physics, feature the visit of Dr. R. S. Shankland, physicist, on campus today and tomorrow.

The Swasey Professor and head of the physics department at the Case Institute of Technology, Cleveland, Ohio, will lecture in the Little Theatre at 8 p.m. this evening. Covering "The Experimental Bases of Relativity," he will use slides to illustrate his speech.

He conferred with students majoring or minoring in physics this afternoon, and a coffee hour was held in the Social Room for interested students and members of the faculty.

Dr. Shankland will discuss "Nuclear Energy Sources" at an all-school convocation scheduled for 10 a.m. tomorrow morning. His lecture will be illustrated with slides.

A noon luncheon will be held tomorrow for Dr. Shankland and juniors and seniors majoring in physics and the faculty members of the physics department.

Bob Smith will interview him over radio station WAVN from 1:15 to 2 o'clock Tuesday. The physicist will visit the general physics lab, 216N, between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.

Dr. Shankland comes to the campus as a part of the program of Visiting Scientists in Physics, sponsored jointly by the American Association of Physics Teachers and the American Institute of Physics under grants from the National Science Foundation. Now in its second year, the program aims to stimulate interest in physics.

Nash Will Highlight Political Conference

Highlighting the second annual "Grassroots Political Conference" on the campus this week will be the closing address at 8 p.m. Thursday evening by Lieutenant Governor Phileo Nash. He will be introduced by President E. H. Kleinpell.

Wisconsin's Liberalism Opening Topic

Opening speaker at the Second Grassroots Conference on Politics will be Professor William B. Hessestine, of the history department at the University of Wisconsin.

Professor Hessestine will speak at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 25, in the Little Theatre. His topic will be "The Liberal Tradition in Wisconsin Politics."

The Thursday evening address will climax a full day's program which will include an all-school convocation at 10 a.m. by John Wyngaard, political columnist and manager of the Madison News Bureau of the Green Bay Press Gazette and Appleton Post Crescent. Mr. Wyngaard will discuss "Wisconsin's Party Politics Today."

Prof. Ralph K. Huitt, director of the Wisconsin Citizenship Clearing House, co-sponsor of the conference, will speak briefly at a noon luncheon.

At 2 p.m., Claude J. Jasper, chairman of the Republican Party of Wisconsin, and Patrick J. Lucey, chairman of the Democratic Party of Wisconsin, will discuss "The Future of Wisconsin's Political Parties."

After their presentation, the two party chairmen will answer questions from a panel made up of Prof. William B. Hessestine (See story in adjoining column) of the University of Wisconsin, Prof. James R. Brown of Marquette University, Mr. Wyngaard, James Laue, senior from River Falls and Kenneth Bergquist, junior from Amery.

The conference gets underway Wednesday evening with a banquet by the Young Democrats and Young Republicans in the college cafeteria. Prof. Hessestine will make the major address, discussing "The Liberal Tradition in Wisconsin Politics."

Last year's "Grassroots Conference" featured addresses by Gov. Vernon Thomson and by Gaylord Nelson, Democratic candidate for governor, who was elected last fall.

Eight Students Are Candidates For Senate Seats; Vote Thursday

Eight students are running for seats in the Student Senate, with the election scheduled for Thursday, Feb. 26. Two vacancies are open, due to Michael O'Conner's graduation at the end of this quarter and Alma Bents' resignation.

The students were nominated by the petition method. The candidates are:

Duch

Gatten

Carl Duch, a junior from Shell Lake, is active in the Chemistry Club, president; Young Democrats, vice president; SNEA; and is chairman of the Social Committee. He is a chemistry major with a minor in math.

Karen Gatten, an elementary education major and speech minor, is from Chippewa Falls. She is active in AWS, treasurer; Psychology Club; Sigma Chi Sigma; the Social Committee; and was treasurer of her freshman class.

Buchholz

POLITICAL CONFERENCE

The political spotlight will be aimed at River Falls this week, as the second annual "Conference on Grassroots Politics gets underway.

The topic of the conference, "Political Parties in Wisconsin," should be of interest to every student on the River Falls campus. Although this is a busy time of year, and finals are approaching, we urge all students to attend at least one of the events offered.

Opening the two-day session will be William B. Hesseltine, noted historian and member of the University of Wisconsin faculty. He will discuss the "Liberal Tradition in Wisconsin." John Wyngaard, Madison columnist, will give his views on the present political parties in Wisconsin Thursday morning at an all-school convocation.

Students who remember the Philip Kuehn-Patrick Lucey debate at last year's conference will certainly want to be present when the chairman of the Wisconsin Republican Party, Claude J. Jasper, meets Wisconsin Democratic Party Chairman, Mr. Lucey, in North Hall Auditorium Thursday afternoon. Last year's debate was by far the most informative and entertaining feature of the program. This year the two chairmen will discuss "The Future of Wisconsin's Political Parties." Students should be especially interested in this, for the "future" they are speaking of will be our "present."

Climaxing the conference will be a speech by the Honorable Phileo Nash, Lt. Governor of Wisconsin. The Lt. Governor will present "a Grassroots Program for Wisconsin."

WINTER CARNIVAL

The staff of the Student Voice wishes to congratulate the Winter Carnival chairwomen and the Sitzmarkers for the fine organization of this year's Winter Carnival. Every function, especially the trip to Ski-Mac, was a success and we hope that these successes will be repeated next year.

Information on Jobs From A to Z Available in Deans' Office File

Jobs from A to Z — from anesthetists and architects to wildlife managers and X-ray technicians — can be found listed in the vocational file in the Dean's office.

The vocational information covers outdoor, mechanical, scientific, persuasive, social service, government, business and industry, and fine and applied arts interest area. Over 250 jobs are listed.

Pamphlets dealing with the wise selection of a career, as well as occupational handbooks from the armed services can be found in the file.

Occupational Briefs on American's Major Job Fields, published by Science Research Associates and other booklets and pamphlets give detailed information on the nature of the work, qualifications, earnings, advantages and disadvantages, and the possibilities of advancement. Additional information concerning the job and related fields can be obtained by writing to given address.

Job opportunities in rapidly growing industry can be discovered in the file. An example of this would be the frozen foods industry, which needs young people with mechanical aptitude skills and technical training for research work.

Highly specialized fields such as oceanography, which covers the study of the ocean, and the expanding field of employment, call for training and skill.

Work as an actuary, who gathers and analyzes statistical data, is another growing business, especially in the science field.

Those who enjoy working with people might be interested in saleswork, television advertising, law enforcement, or reporting. Students with a flair for art work can find unusual careers in cartography — the preparation of maps — or perhaps cartooning or interior decorating.

Engineering is a well-covered topic, with information on civil chemical, industrial, metallurgical, mining, and other types of engineering.

Stimulating government jobs in the diplomatic service and foreign language fields are available; other government jobs include work as court reporters, city planners, and postal workers.

A miscellaneous section covers information for future bakers, barbers, cooks and chefs, even painters and paper hangers.

There is something for everyone — future milliners, museum workers, medical librarians, geologists, entomologists, foreign correspondents, or tree surgeons.

The file can be used anytime during office hours.

SHANKLAND—

He has been Head of the Department of Physics at Case for eighteen years. From 1942 - 1945 he served as Director of Underwater Sound Reference Laboratories with the National Defense Research Committee. His field of research is the scattering of gamma rays, acoustics, underwater sound, atomic structure and nuclear physics.

Dr. Shankland received B.S. and M.S. degrees from Case and his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago.

While on campus, he is the guest of Professor Earl Albert, chairman of the college physics department.

Grad Receives Fulbright To Teach in Australia

Daniel J. Dykstra, a graduate of River Falls State College in 1938, will leave early next month for a six-month teaching assignment at the University of Melbourne, Australia, under a Fulbright grant.

Mr. Dykstra was granted a leave of absence from the University of Utah where he is Dean and Professor in the College of Law.

After his graduation from River Falls, Mr. Dykstra continued his education at the University of Wisconsin where he obtained his LL.B in 1943 and his S.J.D. in 1950. He was Rockefeller Research Fellow at the Wisconsin Law School in 1947-48. Previously, he had taught in the high school at Frederic and served three years during World War II in the U.S. Navy supply Corps. Mr. Dykstra was assistant professor of law at Drake University Law School in 1948-49, then joined the University of Utah law faculty as associate professor in 1949.

A member of both the Wisconsin and Utah Bar Associations, Dean Dykstra is active in The Academy of Political Science and the American Association of University Professors.

Last Thursday he gave the Twenty-third Annual Reynolds Lecture at the University of Utah discussing "The Right Most Valued by Civilized Man." The title of his paper was taken from an opinion by Justice Louis B. Brandeis in which he stated that the right to be let alone is "the right most valued by civilized man."

EX-FACULTY MEMBER PUBLISHES TEXTBOOK

A former student and faculty member at River Falls, John Jarolimek, has recently published a colleg textbook on social science entitled Social Studies in Elementary Education.

The book is to be used by college seniors studying techniques of social science and deals with instructional practices in teaching social studies at the elementary school level.

Dr. Jarolimek, a graduate of 1943, after a term in the U.S. Marines, returned to River Falls as an instructor in the campus school and techniques of social science. Following this, Dr. Jarolimek was principle of the campus school at the University of Minnesota. He is now holding a Ph.D and is with the division of Education at San Diego State College.

Barbara Haslow, 'Alice in Dairyland' To Visit River Falls in Late March

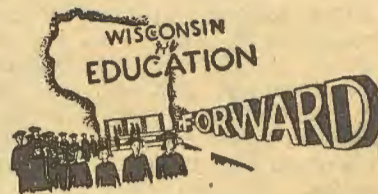

"Alice in Dairyland," Barbara Haslow, will visit the River Falls campus on Tuesday, March 31. She will speak at an assembly at 10 a.m. in the Little Theatre.

Each year the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture conducts a program to select a new "Alice in Dairyland" to serve her state for a year as a department employee. The state is divided into 10 regions, and two girls will be selected in each region. These 20 girls will compete at the state level for the four "Alice in Dairyland" princess positions. The four girls will be employed by the department for the summer months. One of the princesses will be chosen the 1959 "Alice" at the State Fair in August.

The salary for the princesses is $262 a month plus traveling expenses. "Alice" receives a salary of approximately $367 a month plus traveling expenses.

Selection of the girls is based primarily on individual and group interviews, during which time the applicants are judged on their appearance, training, experience, personality, natural beauty, health and photogenic qualities.

Attending school in Wisconsin in 1870 is described as uncomfortable at best and dangerous and worthless at worst in the latest issue of the NEA Journal.

The national teachers' magazine quotes a school superintendent in the '70's who insisted that schoolhouse roofs leaked rats came up through open cracks in the floor, and one out of four windows was broken. Inside, children were packed on benches "like 300 mackerel in a two-gallon cask."

The little rural school, nestled among hills and pines was seldom red and not often white. It was a "dirty montage of gray, brown, and black," mostly of log construction. School - planning was done by farmers, blacksmiths, "anybody except a school teacher."

And what did children learn back then? History of the United States was taught without mention of its social, cultural, religious, or literary implications. Geography was one of the local county. Science was practical in nature, such as the study of the "behavior" of oil lamps.

One county superintendent complained that in Wisconsin correct learning was being feebly presented and in many cases there was the "positive teaching of things utterly untrue."

Nowhere should the joy be greater than the old days are over than among parents, educators, and school children, according to the NEA article. The title—"Who Wants to Go Back?"

Two Ag Students Take Position in Industry, Job With Soil Service

The Placement Bureau announced last week that two more students have signed for jobs in industry.

Mork Shong

DeWayne Mork from Cameron will work with the Gamble- Robinson Company in Sioux Falls, S. D. Mr. Mork has a major in agriculture.

Managing the Soil Service Center at Marathon, Wis., will be Kenneth Shong. From Augusta, Mr. Shong also has a major in agriculture.

Alumni to See Movie

River Falls alumni in the Hudson area will get together for their annual alumni dinner in the Hudson High School cafeteria Thursday evening, Feb. 25.

Tentatively scheduled for the program is the premiere showing of "Your College at River Falls," an 18-minute color film depicting the local campus.

'Go to College Day' Set For High School Students

Students from area high schools will visit the River Falls campus Saturday, Mar. 14, to attend the annual "Go to College Day."

Beginning at 9:30 a.m., the program will open with musical selections and welcome addresses by President E. H. Kleinpell, Student Senate President Clarence Dulek, and George Kind, president of River Falls Chamber of Commerce. The speeches will be followed by a discussion on aspects of college life.

From 10:55 a.m. to noon, the students will attend classes in various fields set up especially for "Go to College Day." Parents will meet to discuss scholarships and loans, housing, job opportunities, placement of graduates, and special problems.

Following a luncheon and tours of the campus, students and parents will attend meetings of specific interest.

At 2:15 p.m., a student panel will discuss "Freshmen Want To Know." Panel members are Jim Lau, chairman; Judy Johnson, Sue Gaynor, Curt Larson, Larry Julien, John Flentje, and Rae Buchholz.

A coffee and coke hour for parents and students will conclude the day's activities.

MOCK UN COUNCIL TO RESUME SESSION AT NOON TUESDAY

The United Nations Mock Security Council session will resume its second session in the Little Theatre on Tuesday, Feb. 24, at noon.

The session will take up the remaining resolutions on the agenda which were unfinished at the Tuesday, Feb. 17, session. It will continue until all the resolutions are discussed and acted upon, and it is open to the public.

The resolutions discussed at the last session were all-German elections, which were voted down by the U.S.S.R.; independence of Algerian and Arab refugees, both decided to be postponed until further notice; and the suspension of nuclear tests which was rejected by the council.

The remaining resolutions to be discussed in the coming session are the admission of Red China to the UN, Quemoy and Matsu Islands, and disarmament.

Dixie-Land Band Of Chris Barber To Give Concert

The "top dixie-land band" in Europe, Chris Barber's, will present a two-hour concert on the River Falls campus Tuesday, Mar. 3. The program will begin at 8 p.m. in North Hall Auditorium and is sponsored by the Social Committee.

The seven piece dixie-land combo is coming to the U.S. for a limited tour, and in return the Woody Herman band is going to England for a series of concerts.

Critics have said that "Chris Barber is to Europe what Louis Armstrong is to this country." At present, the group is doing the background music for a picture, Look Back in Anger, being made in London.

Driver Training Course

Because of new requirements by the State Department of Public Instruction for certification to teach driver education, the College is offering an advanced driver education course, 117, in the spring quarter instead of the basic course, Education 115, originally scheduled.

Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. To Lecture Here March 20

"One of the most vigorous social thinkers of this generation," Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., will lecture at River Falls on Friday, Mar. 20. The program will be at 2 p.m. in North Hall Auditorium.

Harvard professor of history, Mr. Schlesinger was recently featured in Esquire and the Saturday Review. He was graduated summa cum laude from Harvard in 1938 and the following year his honors essay was published under the title of Orestes A. Brownson: A Pilgrim's Progress. It received high praise from the critics and was a selection of the Catholic Book Club.

During the war, Mr. Schlesinger served in the Office of War Information and in the Office of Strategic Services in London, Paris, and Germany. In 1946, at the age of 28, he was the youngest historian to win the Pulitzer Prize when he received it for the Age of Jackson.

Mr. Schlesinger's third book, The Vital Center, a discussion of contemporary political and social problems, came out in 1949. He has contributed articles to Life, Fortune, Atlantic Monthly, Harper's, Saturday Evening Post, and other periodicals.

The Crisis of the Old Order, the first volume of Mr. Schlesinger's The Age of Roosevelt, a portrait of America during the years 1932-45, was published in 1957.

New England Monthly To Print Darr Article

An article written by Dr. Richard K. Darr of the social science department will appear in a summer edition of the monthly magazine, New Hampshire Profiles.

The article, entitled "Travel for the Tired Traveler's Trunk," involves the frustrations encountered on early New England railroads and was adopted from an 1846 diary which recorded the events.

WINTER PROLOGUE TO APPEAR MARCH 2

The winter issue of The Prologue will be available Monday, March 2. A column covering events in the field of fine arts is an addition to the magazine this time. Other features included are a look at the "beat generation," a point of view regarding smaller cars, a congratulation to Charles Darwin, and many others.

The editor appreciates any constructive criticism received on the magazine, and reminds students that contributions for spring quarter can be brought to the Student Voice office any time between now and May 1.

I-M Basketball Teams Schedule Playoffs

Monday night is "it" for four intramural basketball teams, with two play-off games scheduled. In "A" League competition the vastly improved Emma's Boys with Jack Delahunt and Jim Landry will play the Court Martials for a tournament spot.

The other play-off game will determine the second entry from the "B" League and finds the Gluek Boys and the Rebels tangling. The Scholars (7-0) and the Sam's Saps (6-2) have clinched tourney slots for the "C" League.

For their tournament berth, the Sam's Saps defeated the Goop's 43-39 in a play-off game last week.

In other intramural action last week Tom Traynor sank 35 of 40 gift shots to become the 1958-1959 free throw champ.

ALUMS TOP VARSITY IN BENEFIT CONTEST

A star-studded crew of former RFSTC basketball players returned to old North Hall gym last Monday to prove to the current varsity squad that they still have plenty of the old zip and fire on the hardwoods. Led by Newman Benson and Nate DeLong, the Alumni eked out an 85-83 decision, reversing last year's 76-74 count against them.

DeLong poured in 26 and Benson drilled 22 in a show that left younger fans wondering how great this duo must have been back when they led the Falcons to four straight WSCC titles. DeLong, visibly out of shape since his nine-year layoff, still had the moves under the boards and faked 6'8" Manley Olson out several times. He had 16 at the half despite repeated trips to the bench for breathers. Benson on the other hand, has continued playing basketball since graduation in 1950, and was right at home once the action picked up momentum. His beautiful long jump shots and dazzling passes brought "oohs" and "ahs" time and time again.

The game was tied 11 times as the lead switched back and forth on countless occasions. The Alumni, with DeLong hitting six of the first 10, shot into an early 14-5 lead but began to tire. A torrid varsity surge knotted it at 16-16 and it was nip and tuck until halftime when the clock showed the varsity in front by a scant 50-47.

Few thought that the alumni could last another half but Coach Ted Setterquist substituted freely with his 10-man squad and achieved amazing results. Late in the fourth period things looked pretty dismal for the grads however, as Mike Rice scored on a driving layup to give the varsity their biggest spread at 81-73.

But the grads put on an amazing display of basketball in the waning minutes outscoring the varsity 12-2 to win 85-83. Benson seemed to be just getting warm when the horn sounded.

Falcons Play Final Games On the Road

In their final two games of the season the Falcons' cage team will travel to St. Cloud and La Crosse to meet two of the strongest fives in this area.

Tuesday night the Pagemen will face Vern Baggenstoss and Co. on their home court. Earlier in the season at River Falls the Huskies stopped the Falcons 79-24 points.

La Crosse is Saturday night's opponent and will be the final outing for the Falcons. The Indians at the present time are riding in third place in the WSC standings, being stopped in their bid for second and possibly first place last week, losing to Platteville 80-73.

The Indians will be out to erase the memory of the first encounter between the two teams. The Falcons took a victory in the "Cow Palace" 83-77 with Manley Olson's 37 points overshadowing a outstanding performance by Gar Ammermann, who dumped in 29 from his guard position.

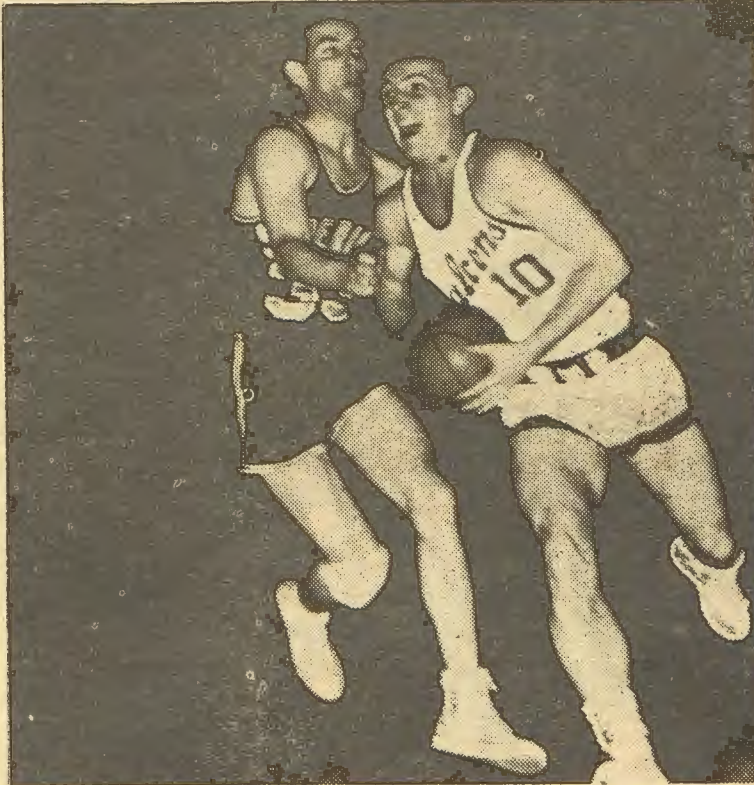

Game time for the two games will be 8:00.

Kingpins, 'Jacks Continue to Lead College Bowlers

The "A" League keglers really made the maple sing last week, racking up seven 800 series. The league-leading Kingpins lead the pin parade hitting games of 874 and 812. Jim Landry paced the league leaders with a 398 series to raise his fine average to 185.

The Happy-Jacks maintained their slim two-game leadership in the "B" League on the margin of a single pin. The 'Jacks (Continued on Page 6)

Pagemen Surprise Superior 82-78; Play Last Game in North Hall Gym

The Falcons Saturday night came through with a sweet upset victory over the Superior Yellowjackets 82-78 and put a very fitting finale on the 45-year history of North Hall Gym.

This was the last game which will be played in River Falls' diminutive "Cow Palace." Next year's cage contests will be played in the St. Bridget's Parochial Gymnasium until the field house is completed.

John Lauber and Manley Olson directed the Falcons' attack, collecting 26 and 23 points respectively. Olson also grabbed 20 rebounds off the boards. The Northern quintet placed four men in double figures with Gene Evens topping the list with 19 points. Al Anderson added 17, Jack Evens 16 and Dale Westerbak 13.

River Falls threatened to walk away with the contest in the first half as they grabbed a 51-39 lead after the first 20-minute session. Superior, with the Evens brothers netting 17 points between them, fought back and took the lead at 70-69 with nine minutes left.

Lauber hit from the outside twice, Mick Collins added a bucket and Olson two free throws to knot the score 77-77 with 3:10 showing of the clock. Don Mid-bon dropped a gifter for a 78-77 lead for the Yellowjackets. Collins put the "red and white in front to stay with a bell ringer from the side with a minute and a half left. Darrell Hart tossed in two free throws and Lauber added another point from the foul line to finish the scoring.

VOLLEYBALL NOTICE

Immediately following the intramural basketball tournament, the intramural volleyball leagues will be organized. All interested participants are requested to turn in team rosters to Mr. Bergsrud.

Matmen Drop Two Matches

The Falcon's wrestling team dropped both ends of the Winter Carnival doubleheader last weekend, losing to Stout Friday night 23-10 and to Stevens Point Saturday 28-6.

The Stout Bluedevils gained revenge on an earlier defeat by the 'Falls matmen, losing only two matches River Falls gained five points on a forfeit in the 123 lb. class and Larry Julien picked up five more points on a fall.

Ed Schlumpf, Ron La Gander and Arvid Flanum all lost one-point decisions. Schlumpf, wrestling in the 137 lb. class against Phil Stephens, scored four points on a reversal and two escapes, while his Stout opponent scored on two take downs. Stephens was awarded the match, as he piled up two more minutes of riding time.

Saturday night the Falcons grapplers had to go down to the last few seconds to salvage two matches from the tough Central State squad. The Pointers put together five pins and a decision for their winning point total.

In the 167 lb. division Arvid Flanum scored five points on a reversal and a near fall in the final seconds to defeat Kip Pangel 15-10. Heavy-weight Larry Julien was also forced to pick up points in the closing minutes for his 10-9 victory.

Do You Think for Yourself? (ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS AND FIND OUT!*)

1. If you were about to buy an automobile, would you (A) study the road-test reports in the magazines, or (B) select the car that looks best to you? A  B

5. In buying a radio, would you be influenced more by (A) low price, or (B) product features despite a slightly higher price? A  B

2. When confronted with a menu with lots of foreign terms, do you (A) ask what is in each dish, or (B) accept the waiter's recommendation? A  B

6. When deciding on what movie to see, do you usually prefer films that (A) are gay and diverting, or (B) have a social message? A  B

3. When invited to play an unfamiliar game, do you (A) refuse to play until you fully understand the rules, or (B) pick up the rules as you go along? A  B

7. When you run into a foreign phrase in a textbook, do you first (A) head for a dictionary to find the meaning, or (B) try to dope out the meaning yourself? A  B

If you're the kind of person who thinks for yourself . . . you use judgment in your choice of cigarettes, as in everything else. Men and women who think for themselves usually smoke VICEROY. Their reason? Best in the world. They know that only VICEROY has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.

Faculty, Led by Coaches, Topples WRA Girls 23-10

Led by two former college basketball stars Don Page and Fran Polsfoot, the RFSC Faculty All-Stars romped over the WRA girls team with relative ease in last Monday's preliminary event. The final score read 23-10 but it could have been more had the faculty chosen to pour it on.

The first and third quarter were played according to men's rules and the remaining periods were played with girls' rules in effect. Neither side had too much trouble adjusting to the rules of the other, however.

The "Moose" was loose for the faculty and teamed with deadeye Ted Setterquist in spoiling the girls' bid for victory. Wearing football uniform number 85

(without peds but you couldn't tell it) Polsfoot scored at will and Setterquist hit on several long bank-in shots that may or may not have been planned that way.

Gwen Schlough put on a one-man (woman?) show for the WRA but to no avail. She even played the role of goalie using a long pole from the balcony to ward off all faculty shots. Rae Buchholz and Sue Dorgan looked nice in basketball uniforms but failed to score very consistently from the floor.

Others who appeared for the faculty included Dick Swenson, Bob Krueger, Phil Anderson (he fouled out again), Gerald Bisbey, Robert Berg, and Craig Sides.

Out On A Limb

by Dick Enstad

Another family feud among our sports-minded friends in the Deep South now appears to be brewing due to the recent success of Mississippi State's basketball Maroons. The gentlemen from State College, Miss., recently bumped off Kentucky's defending NCAA champions and now appear to be headed for a Conference title and a berth in the post-season playoffs.

Here however is where the trouble starts. Participation in tournament play would undoubtedly mean competing against teams having Negroes who of course occupy a second-class status in the minds of the men in magnolia land. The student body at State, like any spirited student body, is wholeheartedly in favor of cheering their team to the national crown regardless of the competition. Yet there still remain those individuals who would rather see the "dignity" and "sovereignty" of Mississippi maintained than to see their state represented in a leading athletic event.

Certainly the basketball strength of the Southeastern Conference cannot be compared with other loops around the nation. Scores from the area have definitely shown an unbalance in the league. Yet the best team of the bunch can compete admirably with the best leagues around the country. The recent success of the Kentucky Wildcats has shown this. It's time the officials of the state of Mississippi came out of the "dark ages" and put their state on the same level as the other 48 instead of trying to maintain a lonely fortress of bigotry.
