King Hayes And Queen Carter Will Reign Over Carnival Festivities

TERRY
HAYES

4:15 P.M. Thursday was the deadline; the thousands of votes were counted by the King - Queen Committee, and the titanic results were tabulated. Enthusiasm ran high, and inquisitive spectators lured the committee with attractive bait for the revelation of the tremendous secret.

But the secret has been saved for this special Winter Carnival issue of the Voice. Their majesties are: BONNIE CARTER, Queen, and TERRY HAYES, King. Congratulations to our Winter Carnival King and Queen of '46. To-night between the halves of the game they are to be crowned. May they be honored at every event of the Carnival after their coronation!

Her Majesty the Queen, Bonnie Carter, resides in River Falls. She is a sophomore at R. F. S. T. C., unclassified in course. A great participant in sports, which are almost a hobby with her, she presides over W. A. A., our campus women's athletic association.

She intensely dislikes cowboy shows. Her pet peeve: people who rattle candy wrappers during a movie.

Though not definite, her plans for the summer and the coming year are employment at the First National Bank of River Falls.

BONNIE CARTER

Cumberland claims the honor of being the home-town of His Majesty the King, Terry Hayes. A sophomore at R.F.S.T.C., he is enrolled in a pre-business course.

"Charles Condomine" in the very successful Masquers' production of BLITHE SPIRIT, baritone in the Boys' Quartet, and treasurer of the Y. M., besides being a member of the Language Club, A Capella and Masquers all have kept Terry plenty entertained.

During his recreational hours, he enjoys jitterbugging and listening to good orchestras, particularly Tommy Dorsey and records of Glenn Miller. Maybe that accounts for the smooth dancer on the floor at our campus hops.

His pet peeve rallies about the person who invariably takes to heart a slam-in-fun. In contrast he likes subtle but not too subtle people.

Next year, Terry may return to R. F. S. T. C. or venture to the U. of M.

Hats off to Bonnie Carter and Terry Hayes, when they become officially in name, King and Queen of the 1946 WINTER CARNIVAL between the halves of the game tonight.

Feb. 22 La Crosse, here.

Carnival Opens Tonite

Opportunity knocks but once:

Tonight is your opportunity — Yell at the top of your lungs! Make the floors shake and the walls ring as you cheer the Falcons to victory.

It's the opening night of our '46 Winter Carnival. Following tradition, it begins with a basketball game. Once again Superior is our rival. We "sleighed" them last year, so let's carry that tradition through too!

The high light of the night will be between the halves, when the Coronation of the King and Queen takes place. Let's all be there to see their big smiles, and show them we're with them, heart and soul, to make this winter carnival a big success.

THOUGHTS ON THE WINTER CARNIVAL

To "Snoball Superior" is our goal tonight;
Tomorrow our aim is to play;
We'll beat the 'Jackets' for sure, and then
Be ready for the sports next day.

Our Winter Carnival is in full swing;
It's cold and there's plenty of snow;
Ice skates have been sharpened, skis are waxed;
And toboggans are ready to go.

The voting is over, and I'm flat broke;
I've bought my little tag.
The Carnival will be a success, I know,
And the game is in the bag.

So 'Snoball Superior'; win that game!
Toboggan, dance and do skating tricks.
You'll have the best time of all the year,
At the Winter Carnival of '46.
