RIVER FALLS DEFEATS LA CROSSE 3 to 0

MELETEAN BENEFIT
WEDNESDAY EVE.
DECEMBER 7, 1921

IF YOU LOVE "BETTER MOVIES,"
HERE IS YOUR CHANCE TO SHOW IT.

Thousands upon thousands of persons have been thrilled by the gripping story of Jimmy Valentine, gentleman and master-cracksmar. This celebrated stage drama by Paul Armstrong, has swept to triumph in every theatre in the world, and now in its screen version has caused to live again as fascinating a hero as any author ever conceived. Handsome and reckless Jimmy—tender with women and altogether splendid, save for his penchant for safe-breaking. With nerves of chilled steel, his finger-tips sandpapered until the raw, bleeding nerves fairly throb with the silent fall of tumblers in vault doors, he opens safes without tools or dynamite. Freed from Sing Sing and in love with a wonderful girl, he "goes straight." But ever in his wake stalks Doyle, the detective, who has sworn to "get" him and put him back behind prison bars. Comes the moment when Jimmy has to make his great decision: Shall he force open a bank safe and betray himself, or shall he leave his sweetheart's little sister, who has locked herself behind the ponderous door, to perish? How he meets this crisis, and what comes of it are developed in "Alias Jimmy Valentine" with suspense that is electric and a climax that leaves the beholder of this superb drama breathless. The play provides

JUNIOR-SENIOR DANCE TONIGHT

Friday evening, December 2, at eight o'clock, the Senior class will give the annual dance in honor of the Juniors. All Graduate Seniors and faculty members, as well as all Juniors, are invited to be present.

Bill Johnson to Pilot 1922 Red and White Grid Squad

Last night the 1921 letter men were guests, at a banquet, given by Pres. and Mrs. Ames and Mr. and Mrs. Hayward at the home of the latter.

Bill Johnson was elected captain for the 1922 squad. Bill has had two years' experience on a Red and White team and will surely be able to fill the position bestowed upon him.

Speeches were given by several of the guests and the hosts. Mr. Karges showed his superiority by winning first prize as an animal maker, and first prize was awarded Turner Standish for being the best singer.

Jap Talks at Assembly Letter Men Named

A week ago Tuesday, the assembly period was taken up by a Japanese statesman, Mr. Icheto, who is traveling in this country giving lectures at the high schools and normals. The idea is probably to promote good-feelings between the American people and the Japanese.

The lecture dealt with the country of Japan, its people, their ways and customs and comparing it as a whole to the United States and its people and customs. The lectures were very interesting and gave much food for thought.

The statesman illustrated three ways in which the United States had the advantage over Japan and three ways in which that country had the advantage over the United States. He also brought out that the students of Japan seemed to be more intent upon their work than the students of American schools. This, he believed to be caused by the fact that the American students have the entire language formed from the basis of 26 letters while in Japan there are thirty-two thousand characters that go together to form the basic element of their language.

The 1921 Red and White football team had an off season, but, as Coach Hayward named his battling grid-ders, "The Team that Came Back," turned the tables and finished the season in a blaze of glory. This season is the first time in seven years that the Red and White team has not played in the finals.

The following men will receive letters and sweaters:

Ed. Murphy (Capt.)	T-FB—3	years.
Clair Morgan, E,		2 years.
Perle Clanton, T,		1 year.
Melvin Lipke, T,		1 year.
Ed. Casey, G,		1 year.
Herman Moline, C,		1 year.
Sam Paynter, G,		1 year.
Percy Clapp, C, G, T,		3 years.
Albert Butenhoff, E,		1 year.
Bill Johnson, QB, HB,		2 years.
John Raab, QB,		1 year.
Roy Melvin, QB,		2 years.
John Gerretson, HB,		2 years.
Turner Standish, HB,		1 year.
Ted Whitenack, G, FB,		1 year.

The following men will receive the athletic award and jersey:

Ernest Bakke, Wallace Cole, Dan Field, Robert Swenson, Arthur Paff, Donald Moran, Albert Pease, Edmund Wetzel, William McLaughlin, Arnold Falkofske, Louis See felt, Edwin Egger, Roland Stetzer, Merrill Halron, and Athol Moynihan.

VESPER SERVICE

Despite the heavy snowstorm, the Thanksgiving vesper service held by the Christian organizations Sunday, November 20, was well attended by students and townspeople. After the song service and devotions, Mr. Mitchell gave a Thanksgiving address.

RED AND WHITE "COME BACK"
AT END OF A DISCOURAGING SEASON

After losing three conference games, which was enough to discourage any team, the Red and White came back and held the strong Orange and Black to a tie and to cap the climax invaded the Maroon and Grey field and handed them a defeat. Both of these teams are near the head in the conference standings, which shows that the old Red and White is as good as the best of them.

The Falls got a bad start on their southern journey and traveled most of the fore-part of the night. With all the dope in La Crosse's favor the Red and White went out on a frozen field and completely upset all predictions. Due to injuries Morgan and Raab were out of the game. Bill Johnson, the hard luck man of the year, worked at quarter, and according to reports, played a whale of a game. Capt. Murphy generated the team and his line plunging was better than any previous game this season. Gerretson probably played as good a game as he has ever played in a Red and White uniform. The line deserves mention on their splendid work in holding out the opposing line and stopping the plunging backs of the Maroon and Grey.

La Crosse kicked to River Falls and for the first part of the first period the ball exchanged hands several times in midfield but most of the time in La-Crosse territory. The latter part of the first period Whitenack replaced Casey at guard and dropped back and attempted a drop-kick which went wide. The Maroon and Grey kicked out of danger only to have the north-erners bring the pigskin back in position for another drop-kick which the

ARE YOU DOING YOUR PART?

We have one of the best equipped libraries of any Normal School in the state. Visitors very frequently congratulate the school on the large number of high class books and bound periodicals which it contains. The value of such a library to the student is beyond estimation. It is a place where he can go to study and acquaint himself with the world's greatest writers both past and present, a place where he can enlarge his sphere of learning and add greatly to his education.

In any well managed library it is necessary to have a few rules and regulations concerning the use of books and magazines in order that everyone may have an equal opportunity to get the maximum amount of use out of them.

Books should not be taken out of the library until properly charged at the librarian's desk. A few students are in the habit of taking books out without having them charged and then sneaking them back to the shelf in the hope of not being seen. This is certainly an objectionable practice and any one with even a slight sense of fair play will not do it. The number of reference books is limited and where a large number of people are using them it is advisable for students to think a little bit about the other people who are waiting to use the books. Don't take a book off the shelf and deliberately hold it in order that you may draw it out at the close of school. There may be other people waiting to make use of that book while you are simply holding it without using it.

There is another objectionable practice which some thoughtless people do. That is the disfiguring of books and magazines and the clipping of articles from them. Articles may be clipped from certain newspapers if permission is secured from the librarian but under no circumstances should any one clip pictures or articles out of current magazines or the books from the reference library. The magazines are sent away at the end of the year to be bound and if articles have been clipped from them it means that a certain volume will be incomplete and students desiring the use of it for future reference work will be handicapped. It seems strange that people will do these things. They evidently do not realize that it is the money that their parents pay to the state in the form of taxes that goes to pay for the magazines and books that are in our library.

Managing a library is no easy task. We can all help the librarian a great deal if we will only be a little more considerate and bear in mind that the library is a place to study, and not a place to go and gossip with friends. A little co-operation and fair play will go a long way toward making life easier and better for every one.

OUR COURTESY

Although our school already has several mottos there is one more which we need very badly. We should inaugurate this, or its equivalent, as a watchword: "Look well to your courtesy." No one among us would care custom that is not exercised soon to see courtesy become extinct; nevertheless that may be the result if we neglect the mannerisms which are proper when meeting other people. A ceases entirely. Our habit of courtesy is in danger of becoming more or less a thing of the past. There is but one way to save it and that is to observe it, refusing to be swerved from doing so by any foolish apprehension. The fact that the next fellow omits certain acts of courtesy is no reasonable motive for his attitude being copied. Be individual.

pigskin within their opponents' 15 yard line. Once they lost the ball on downs and another drop-kick was attempted. About the middle of the last period Johnson was taken out on account of injuries; Melvin taking his wind carried a little to the right of the goal post. The last five minutes of the first half was the only time during the game that the home team had any advantage. From the middle of the field they made three successive first downs to the Falls 15 yard line, where they attempted a drop-kick which hit their own men, giving the Red and White the oval. This was the only time the Falls goal was threatened and at no other time during the game did the Maroon and Grey get withing the Red and White 30 yard line.

Twice during the third and fourth periods the Red and White carried the place. About five minutes before the final whistle Whitenack dropped back to the 40 yard line and booted a drop-kick between the La Crosse goal posts for a 3 to 0 victory. Just as the final whistle blew the Red and White were in position to attempt another drop-kick.

River Falls made 14 first downs to La Crosse's 10, and gained 202 yards compared with 104 by La Crosse. The Falls completed 3 out of 8 passes, La Crosse 1 out of 14. The home team was penalized 5 yards, compared with the visitors' 25. River Falls made 1 drop-kick out of 4, La Crosse missing one.

LINCOLNIAN

The Lincolnian society assembled in Mr. Mitchell's room Wednesday for a period of business and instruction. Mr. Mitchell explained the principle points in making after dinner speeches and giving toasts. Business concerning the annual Lincolnian dinner party was discussed; as a result a banquet, not of the stag type was decided upon, and referred to the program committee for arrangement.

Provisions will be made for the admittance of several more members; thus the society will be enabled to take care of those who are at present on the waiting list.

ASSEMBLY TALKS

In lieu of the absence of Mr. Ames, Mr. Karges took charge of the Tuesday Assembly. After necessary announcements were made, Mr. Karges talked on the disarmament conference. The conference is now confronted by a new problem, that of whether or not to grant China her demands. These deals mainly with the policy of foreigners toward that country and it is to be hoped that China's people will soon wake up to the responsibility of forming a wiser government so that they might, of themselves, regulate the policy and attitude of the foreigners toward their country.

THURSDAY'S ASSEMBLY

The program presented at the assembly Thursday was especially interesting and intertaining this week. The orchestra presented some very good selections after which the necessary announcements were made. Mr. Allbee presented in a very diplomatic manner, the qualifications of the U. S. representatives at the disarmament conference at Washington.

The program was now taken over by the members of the Agrifallian society and gave numbers that held the attention of the assembly for the rest of the period. The first number was a selection by the male quartet, followed by the discussion of Agricultural Education by Mr. Arthur Gordon. Then, last but not least, was a comical sketch illustrated by Messrs. G. Anderson, O'Brien, Paff and Hallin, illustrating Dad's visit to his son away at school.

Mr. Powers has been absent for some time on account of illness.

Because of her illness, Miss Feeney went to her home in Madison until she can return to school.

HOOP ARTISTS BEGIN WORK

With the coming of cold weather and snow the athletes turn their activities to the indoor hoop and net past-time and every afternoon you will find Coach Eggebrecht working out his material to pick out the best combination for a winning team. This year the fans will probably witness as fast a quintet as ever played in Red and White uniform.

Of last year's letter men we find Capt. Jim (Dubre) Carolan, the shifty forward, with two years' experience on River Falls teams. Dubre is, showing his usual shiftiness and still shoots baskets with either paw. Roy Melvin is also a letter man of last year's team and is showing up well. Chas. Betzel (Butch) captain of the 1916 championship team reported for practice Tuesday and should prove to be a valuable addition to the squad. Of last year's second team we find Don Field and Albert Hyatt.

In the new material looking for berths on the squad we find Albert Butenhoff, who has had two years' experience on the Ripon College team. One year he held a permanent berth on the 1920 1000% championship team. Three husky football men, Murphy, Lipke and Clanton are out determined to make candidates work to get ahead of them. Bergman, Donavon, and several other men from various high school teams are making a good showing. Bill Johnson and Cloffin are kept away from practice due to injuries.

Basketball fans will be able to see the hoop and net artists perform against Dunwoody Institute on Saturday, Dec. 10, which will be the first tilt of the season.

Bert Lytell, Metro's greatest actor, with a vehicle that calls for a display of his greatest powers of characterization.

The Meletean staff wishes to announce that they have taken considerable pains in their choice of a "movie" and feel extremely fortunate in being able to secure this world-famous crook play of "Alias Jimmy Valentine" for next Wednesday evening, December 7. With the idea that we are going to have you leave the auditorium more than satisfied, so that we may call on you again if needs be, we are charging only 25 cents. Remember the date, Wednesday evening, Dec. 7. Two shows, the first beginning at 7:30 and the second at nine o'clock. No reserved seats. First there first served. No extra charge for war tax.

Genevieve Stewart went to Hudson for Thanksgiving.

DEBATE TRY-OUT SOON

The try-out for debaters will be held next Wednesday afternoon, November 7, in Mr. Hunt's room. The speeches will start at three o'clock. The following members of the faculty have been asked to act as judges: Mr. Goble, Mr. Karges, Pres. Ames, Mr. Hunt, and Mr. Hayward.

A squad of nine will be selected from the eighteen contestants, who are to deliver five-minute speeches including a short rebuttal. From this squad the negative and affirmative teams will be chosen later.

Students will be admitted to the room, where the try-out is held, only between speeches; providing they assume a serious attitude toward the event.

ABSENCES

Miss Hathorne wishes the attendance record for the girls of the student body to be published. The average number of absences for the five days preceding Wednesday, Nov. 23, was 17. On that day it jumped to 64. On the Monday following vacation the absences reported were 101. It is the class of people who know when to play and when to work that take the number of days given to them and go more. These people in later life will find success first because they are honest with the time they are expected to work. Let us remember the importance of prompt return after Christmas vacation.

Y. M. C. A.

The regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night in North Hall. Songs were sung and a short program given which consisted of:

Saxophone Solo, Carl Bradford

Talk on the Negro Problem, Melvin Thomson

Open discussion of the above topic. These discussions are educational and interesting and every member should be present and take part. Not only do these discussions help to keep one posted as to outside happenings but gives one a chance to hear what the other fellow has to say and also develops one's ability to think and speak on these subjects.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club met last Monday night. Mr. Seefeldt had charge of the developing. Mr. Smith had a fine bunch of football pictures which excited the interest of everyone present. Two girls used the enlarging machine alone which gave Mr. Jacobson his first rest from overseeing. All members are urged to be there at seven p. m. sharp next Monday so that work can be started and finished promptly.

Y. W. C. A.

At the Y. W. C. A. meeting last night Mildred Anderson gave a reading; Harriet Olson, a vocal solo; Joyce Taylor, a piano solo, and Miss Hathorne, a reading. Members are urged to redeem their pledges as soon as possible.

"Help, Help!" screamed the terrified young man who has just fallen off the wharf, "I can't swim."

"Wot of it?" asked the stevedore mildly, taking his pipe out of his mouth and glancing carelessly over the edge of the wharf. "I can't neither but I ain't hollern' my head off about it."

"Did the doctor know what you had?"

"He seemed to have a pretty accurate idea. He asked me for ten dollars and I had eleven."

"No, he is going to be the left end on the Glee Club."

CROP AND POULTRY

EXHIBIT NOW ON

The crop and poultry exhibit, which is an annual affair, is now on and is attracting considerable attention. A larger number of exhibits are being shown this year than ever before. If you want to see some nice chickens and some fine samples of farm products step into the North Hall gymnasium some time today. A detailed account of the entries and the prizes awarded will be given in next week's Student Voice.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

The annual banquet given by the men of the faculty for the football squad, was held Tuesday night, November 22. Fifty-three were served by Miss Weberg's Freshmen Cooking class. Mr. Davison was toast master. The following toasts were of an unusually high level:

- Capt. Murphy—"Tis a Man's Game."
- Coach Hayward—"Beef, Brains, and Bacon."
- Paff—"The Season with All-Americans."
- Stratton—"The Camp of the Bolsheviks."
- Ames—"So, That's the Way We Feel About It."

Mr. Karges read a letter from Mr. Hunt, one of the school's most enthusiastic fans, who was unable to be present. The toasts were all worthy of credit to any occasion since they showed the character back of them. The affair was considered the most successful one of its kind in the history of the school.

VICTORY CELEBRATED

The dance in honor of the River Falls victory over LaCrosse on Saturday, November 19, came as a surprise to ever one. By telephoning and announcing it at the movies, a crowd was gathered to greet the team when they arrived at ten o'clock in the evening. The boys were given an oyster stew for which a collection was taken up. Music was furnished through the courtesy of Pauline Norseng, Elva Clubb, Clarence Bradford, and Florence Parsons. After dancing until eleven-thirty, every one declared the impromptu dance a big success.

PLAY COMING

Miss Schosser's English 10 class is preparing a play to be given next Thursday in assembly. The cast of characters are:

- Peggy—(Mrs. John Burton)—Alice Mackin
- Mabel—(Mrs. Charles Dover)—Helen Churchill
- Mrs. Hereford Carr—Ruth Heebink
- Miss Freda Dixon—Esther Johnson
- Mary Clark—(a detective)—Pauline Severson
- Evelyn Evans—(a reporter)—Lois Mitchell
- Katie—(a maid)—Ruth Curry

STATE HEALTH OFFICER TO SPEAK

Miss Martha Riley of the State Health Department will talk to the Normal school girls Friday. She will show films and talk to the young women of the town at the Princess Theatre Saturday morning. Announcements of the exact hours will be made later. Miss Riley is an unusual woman, a good speaker, with a message for every girl.

CIVIC CLUB

The Civic Club held its regular meeting Nov. 22 in the society room. These meetings are becoming very interesting, and the student that does not take this advantage of hearing these good line discussions on current topics, are missing something. Every one is invited to attend our meeting whether they want to become members or not. The disarmament conference was discussed at this meeting, and many original ideas were expressed. The following program was given:

- Duet, Winnifred and Lowell Bird
- The Disarmament Conference, Ida Canfield
- Events this far at the disarmament conference, Mr. Nuberg
- What it Means to us, Miss McMullin
- Open discussion
- Song, by Club

MATINEE DANCE

An innovation in the form of a girls' matinee dance was made by the "Just Girls" Friday, November 18. The South Hall gymnasium was filled to its capacity. A three-piece orchestra furnished the music. The girls danced until five o'clock when they adjourned to see the team off for La Crosse.

Mr. Ames was in St. Paul on business Tuesday.

Miss Tilton is recovering from tonsilectomy.

Mr. Goble and Mr. Davee went to Minneapolis Saturday to see Marshal Foch.

Because of the death of her mother, Cloteal Gibson has left school to stay at her home in Knapp.
