RIVER FALLS WINS TOURNAMENT

RED AND WHITE

__ SPEAKERS LEAVE TODAY

Whitewater Contest Friday Night

Our representatives to the state oratorical and extemporanous speaking contests leave for Whitewater this afternoon, where the extemporaneous speaking contest will be held on Friday afternoon, March 21, and the oratorical contest on the evening of the same date.

The question for the extemporaneous speaking contest will be any phase of the prohibition amendment. Reynold Jenson, our representative for this contest will speak seventh, providing all schools send representatives. Catherine Chapman's oration, "The Role of American Women," will be third. The extemporaneous speaker and orator will be accompanied by Mr. Mitchell, Margaret Bailey, President of the Forensic League, and Everett Smith, who won second place

The school wishes them "Bon Voyage," and are sure they will win high honors.

METHODIST CONFERENCE PROPOSED

We have received an article announcing a conference to be held at Louisville, Ky., on April 18, 19, and 20. This conference, which, by the way, is arising directly out of an incident at the Indianapolis Student Volunteer Convention which two of our delegates attended, is for the purpose of bringing about a union of the north and south branches of the Methodist Church.

It is the desire of those behind the conference, that every college and university in the United States which possesses any considerable group of Methodist students be represented at Louisville by at least two delegates.

While it is probable that it will not be possible for River Falls to be represented, we are glad to be in touch with such a worthy movement.

CANTATA

"Queen Esther" Makes Hit.

The cantata which was held a week ago Tuesday evening March 11, was put on by the MacDowell Club with the aid of the men's and women's Glee Clubs. The entire cantata was under the direction of Mr. Geere.

The Glee clubs formed the choruses and the main characters were as follows:

Queen Esther, Mrs. Ames King Ahasuerus, Mr. Geere Mordecai, Mr. Smart Haman, Mr. Bird Zeresh, Mrs. Shepard Hegai, Mr. Chapman Beggar, Prophetess, Mrs. Sefton Scribe, Mr. Mitchell Persian Princess, Margaret Egdahl Median Princess, Avery Ames Mordecai's Sister, Mary Dittes Harold, Mr. Batho Page, Scott Davidson Electrician, Mr. George Hutchins The costumes were rented from Gisein of St. Paul.

The music was furnished by the Normal School Orchestra under the leadership of Miss Lemmer.

The auditorium was filled, and the remarks and criticisms heard afterwards bore witness to the appreciation by students and townspeople of one of the highest class entertainments which has been put on here for some time.

JUNIOR GIRLS WIN TOURNEY

The Girls' Basket Ball Tournament which ended the season for the girls was held in the South Hall Gym on March 4, 6, and 11. The lineup of the various teams was as follows:

STATE BOARD DECIDES FOR RIVER FALLS HIGH

Tournament is Close

The River Falls High School triumphed over Elmwood High 21 to 9 Friday night in the final game for first place in a tournament that surpassed all previous meets in point of attendance, interest, and brand of basketball.

The games of the series were clean and exciting, and most of them were exceptionally close, proving that the teams were evenly matched. The teams that survived for the finals had no walk-away in their preliminary wins. Crowds filled the gymnasium to capacity every afternoon and evening.

Elmwood-Roberts

In the first game, Wednesday after noon, the predicted champions from Elmwood had no trouble in vanquishing Roberts by the score of 33 to 12.

The winners started in with a dash and piled up a 15 to 2 lead at the end of the first quarter. Roberts showed their only signs of opposition in the first of the second quarter when they caged three successive long range shots. Their spurt was soon crushed (Continued on page 2)

INTER-SOCIETY EXTEMPO-RANEOUS CONTEST COMING

Five of the various organizations of the school are preparing for an inter-society extemporaneous speaking contest to be held soon. Each organization will be represented by two speakers. Elimination contests will be held to decide which two societies are entitled to have their speakers compete in the finals. The Lincolnian, the Aurelia and the Rural Life Club have been grouped together for one elimination contest and the Agrifallian and the Civic Club for the other. A silver loving cup goes to the society winning first honors. Any society winning the cup for three consecutive years is entitled to keep it permanently. The Agrifallian won the cup two years ago and it is now possessed by the Lincolnians who are determined to keep it. These two organizations will no doubt be the strongest contenders in the contest for the cup this year.

RIVER FALLS MEN MAKE GOOD SHOWING AS COACHES

In following the course of events in the high school debating leagues, we note that the teams coached by former River Falls debaters have made uniformly good showings.

Ed. Casy, who was a member of the R. F. N. State Championship debate team in 1922, and who debated again for us last year is coaching the debate teams at Hammond this year, and, although the school is but a small one, with not much material to pick from, so far his team has come through victorious. His first triangle was with River Falls High and Ellsworth High, and his team won both debates by a unanimous decision. Next, he went up against New Richmond and Chippewa Falls, and again came out victorious. We are waiting with interest the outcome of the next series.

Another member of our 1922 Championship team, Melvin Thomson, is coaching at Cumberland. His team won their district triangle, but, in going up against Ladysmith, and Superior Central in the second, they lost both debates.

We have not received any information from the teams coached by other of our former debaters, but if these two are a fair example, we see that the "Mitchell system" is going strong.

Roberts was held at a standstill in the second frame. Their defense was hopeless against the Elmwood offense centered around the Bucholtz brothers, who piled up a count of 17 tallies. W. Bucholtz, last year all tournament forward, was the individual star of the game, caging 9 field goals and scoring 21 of the 33 points made by his team.

Spring Valley-Menomonie

In the second game Spring Valley, outclassed in the first three quarters of the contest by Menomonie, rallied strongly in the last quarter and took the lead 19 to 18 in the last minute of play only to lose the game to Menomonie on a foul before the crack of the pistol.

At the end of the third quarter the score stood 17 to 5 in Menomonie's favor. The Valley five were held without a field goal until the middle of the last quarter when they amassed 10 points via the free throw route. The ousting of the Menomonie guards seriously crippled that team, and Spring Valley launched an attack that netted them three field goals which put them in the lead while Menomonie was held scoreless. Intense excitement prevailed as the struggle raged exceedingly rough during the final minutes of play.

Two free throws by a foul on Spring Valley won the game for Menomonie. Captain Radke came through with both of them, clean baskets, just before the time-keeper fired.

Baldwin-New Richmond

In the first evening meet New Richmond had no difficulty in outclassing Baldwin 24 to 4. The game was fast and clean. Baldwin put up a good defense and team work, but their inability to locate the net in their many close attempts caused the one sided score. New Richmond gave an exhibition of their usual speedy and snappy teamwork. Lynch, New Richmond's stellar forward, starred with his clever floor work and caging ability.

River Falls—Colfax HT

In the second contest River Falls trimmed Colfax 20 to 6. The Colfax aggregation was a light and fast team but the defense of the River Falls team proved too much of an obstacle to overcoe.

First Elimination Games

The first elimination games began Thursday afternoon when Spring Valley triumphed over Roberts in the high score game of the tournament 35 to 16. The Spring Valley five proved an effective squad. Their teamwork and signal system worked harmoniously, and their guards put up a real defense. The Roberts five carried off the honors in long range shots.

Excitement was intense in the Colfax- Baldwin game. The game was predicted to be a close contest, for the season's records of these teams were almost identical, therefore they played an elimination game at Baldwin, March 10 to determine which was to be present at the tournament. Baldwin won by a one point margin but the failure of Hudson to participate in the district meet enabled Colfax to be represented.

In the elimination game here the score never took over a two point margin and became tied in the final minute of play; however, Colfax managed to cage the necessary field goal by which they eliminated their vanquishers 13 to 11. This tilt was one of the closest and most exciting of the tourney.

Jagwood Ja Semi-Finals

Elmwood-Menomonie

In the first game Thursday evening the Elmwood warriors remained in the running by a win over Menomonie 30 to 19. The contest was an exhibition of the best basket ball tactics in the meet. Menomonie is a well coached team, and their floor work was spectacular in this contest. The work of Radke, right forward, was singular. His pivoting was unique and his speed and basket shooting well earned for him the deserved place as all Tournament forward. Radke caged 17 of the 19 points scored by his team.

The game at half time was 17 all, but the husky Elmwood bunch gradually widened the margin with their smashing offense in the last frame in which they lost no time in working the ball down the floor. W.Bucheltz was again a star with a count of 17 points to his credit. He was the high point man of the tournament, accumulating a total of 40 points in the first two games of the

River Falls-New Richmond

Excitement reached a fever height in the New Richmond-River Falls game. This contest was the heat of much discussion for days previous to the meeting of these, the greatest rivals of the series. Both quints came on the floor with a determination not to be outdone, and their efforts were urged on by the cheers of the enthusiastic crowd, which was about divided in its favoritism.

The teams struggled under such a nervous strain that the fracus was devoid of any keen plays, gainful teamwork, or any spectacular phase of basket ball except a pace that speed recshattered all Marathon ords. The free throws further indicated the high strung condition of the players. New Richmond caged only one out of seven free attempts and River Falls two out of 8 in the first half. The referees' whistles were of no avail in the ringing cheers of the anxious crowd, and the only effective means of calling the game were by grabbing the players and the ball.

The half ended 3 to 2 in New Richmond's favor; the score was deadlocked at 7 all at the end of the third quarter, but the Falls five came thru with three field goals in the last round by which they put the boys from the Cyclone City out of the running with a 14 to 9 win.

Second Eliminations

The second eliminations began on Friday afternoon between the four teams that had an even break with a defeat and a win apiece.

Spring Valley began sinking them in immediately after the tip-off and maintained a safe lead over Coach

New Richmond and Menomonie put up a real contest as the Menomonie five managed to keep a slight edge on the scoreboard through to the end and emerged victorious 15 to 13. The defense work of Dawes and the forward work of Radke of Menomonie with the performance of Halverson, New Richmond pivot man, featured the game.

Finals TERRESON OFF

Crowds packed the corridors and entrances to the gym for more than an hour before the doors opened for the finals on Friday night.

The Normal first team and a team composed of a combination of the N. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. squads gave the crowd a demonstration of Coach Eggebrecht's style of snappy teamwork. The boys of the Christian organizations held the score in their favor until the regulars got warmed up enough to put across some real plays and won the short session 30 to nomonie, met for the second time in in Hill Colfax, l. f. in homeling allege the tourney to decide the third and fourth places Both of these teams deserve mention of their appearance as a unit and their form.

This game ended 8 to 7 in favor of Spring Valley thereby giving them third place and Menomonie fourth.

Excitement again reached a high bitch in the final for the first place between Elmwood and River Falls.

Soon after the tip-off Lowell Dawson caged two screaming ringers from side center which gave his team the necessary sendoff on their way to victory. Manion soon followed with another long one. Only four shots had been made at the basket and three of these were successful. Elmwood, baffled by the early lead of their opponents, was unable to get in any of their offensive work. The defense work of Elmwood became a weak spot. The local High School displayed their real ability as a basket ball team and unquestionably proved their merits and rating to the place they won. The guarding of the Dawson brothers was the best exhibition of defense work of the whole tournament. They were the only means of shattering the offense of the Bucholtz combination. The first half ended 13 to 5; final 21 to 9.

Shortly before the close of the tournament Mr. Hunt announced that orders from the State athletic council prevented the presentation of any awards at this time. The personal of the New Richmond and River Falls squads had been protested, and the protests are now being investigated by the council. The outcome will not be known for a few days. In case these teams are found to be disqualified, Elmwood will receive the first place and awards and will represent this district at the state meet at Madison, and Spring Valley and Menomonie will automatically drop into second and third places respectively.

After the final game Mr. Eggebrecht announced the all-tournament teams. The decision was made by the vote of the eight coaches and the two officials, M. Basing of Appleton and Foster Claflin of Cornell.

The game on March 4th was played between the Junior and Senior teams, the Junior team winning by a score of 26 to 13. On March 6th the Seniors played the Third Year team and won this game by a score of 30 to 9. The final game which was between the Juniors and the Third Year team resulted in a victory for Juniors with a score of 26 to 7.

As the Juniors were not defeated, the championship was won by them. The outstanding features of the games were the fast floor work and accurate shooting of Ellen Lewis, the Junior forward, and the clever team work of both the Senior and Junior teams.

THE MASQUERADE DANCE

One of the annual events of this school is a masquerade dance. The one for this year is to be held on Friday night, March 28, 1924.

The announcement of this dance is being made in advance so that everyone will have an opportunity to get a costume for the occasion. Prizes are to be awarded for the best costumed people, and the funniest costumed people. Such dances afford everyone a good time and lots of fun, but they take the pep, interest, and cooperation of the entire school to make them a success. Everyone come and make this one of the best dances of the year.

The music will be furnished by the Kinnickinnic Originators.

G. O. P. INITIATION

The Klu Klux Klan had nothing on the secrecy surrounding the G. O. P. initiation held in South Hall Gym last Saturday. Since there were only seven victims, nine were neglected; in fact, most of them wished they had received less attention. When the "rough stuff" was over, the new members went down town to show everyone the latest usage of "Mazola which certainly beats "Stacomb" for making the hair glossy and greasy. Their sufferings did not end here, however; and throughout this week, their paths will not be those of peace or solitude. Aside from being most humble to all the old Gops, the pledgees must earn one dollar through the profession of bootblacking.

LA CROSSE'S CLAIM TO CHAM-PIONSHIP FALLS THROUGH

Some of our readers may have noticed that LaCrosse Normal School has been laying claim to the Skate Championship in the Normal School Conference, in spite of the fact that they only played seven games instead of the required eight. Their claim was based on their statement that they had a game scheduled with Stevens Point, and had defaulted it, giving them the required eight games, and still leaving their percentage higher than that of any of the other Normal Schools.

However, in the Oshkosh Daily Northwestern, we find an article exposing this flimsy foundation for the LaCrosse claim. The article carries the following heading, "LaCrosse' Trick to Claim Normal School State Championship Exposed" and then it goes on to quote the President and Athletic Director of Sevens Point as denying ever having scheduled These stategame with LaCrosse. ments, of course pull whatever foundation La Crosse may have had for her claim out from under her, and leaves Oshkosh the undisputed contender for the State Championship with a percentage of .666.

Have we had any "fun" in Junior High this year? Yes, We Have! Our first party was given on Hallowe'en. We dressed in costumes appropriate to the occasion, and danced, and played games.

At Christmas time we had another party. A fine program was followed by an exchange of presents around our Christmas tree. Then we had the "eats" which was a real surprise, given us by our teachers. Then we gathered in the hall and sang Christmas songs.

We have had two dancing parties in the girls' gym, and one afternoon we had a matinee dance in our hall. Don't you think we have had some good times? We want another party soon.

REBECCA'S SHIELD

"What's that hanging on the wall?"

"Oh, that's Rebecca's shield." "Rebecca's shield?"

"Yes, we're reading 'Ivanhoe.' Wednesday we dramatized the 'Tower Scene,' where Rebecca stands at the lattice, and describes the battle to Ivanhoe, the wounded prisoner. He tells Rebecca to protect herself with 'yonder ancient buckler.'"

"Who took part in the scene?"

"Nina Jorstad was Rebecca, Robert Davee, Ivanhoe, and Carrol Shepard, the reader."

"Sounds interesting. I wish we might have seen it."

General Science

The ninth grade General Science class is taking up the study of heating systems in public buildings and in homes. Thursday they went down to the furnace and boiler rooms, where they studied our new heating system in which both buildings are heated by the same plant. They learned that our new system, installed this year, is more economical than the old one.

Truman Powers Writes

A letter has been received from Truman Powers, a member of the Ninth Grade of 1923, in which he told us about his school work and activities in Binghamton, New York.

We all enjoyed reading the "Panorama," the Binghamton High School paper, which Truman sent to Mr. Johnston.

Charles also took part in the Senior Class play. We think he made a fine "Bobby." We liked the part best where he made a "bonnet" out of one of the beautiful wedding presents, and led his sister a lively chase around the room, while she tried to rescue her gift. The "bonnet" was very becoming, Charles!

Girls' Glee Club

This year, for the first time, the girls of the Junior High have been organized into a Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Lemmer. We have twenty-four members. We meet every Wednesday in the assembly room. We have been practicing on several different songs, which we plan to give in a program soon,

Social Science Society

This is one of the divisions of the Social Science class. Every Friday, in our class, we discuss current events. We are also trying to learn how to conduct meetings in the regular way. We had our first meeting February 29, 1924. Harriet Malberg wes elected President; Vincil Campbell, vice president; Raymond Penn, secretary.

CONDITIONAL EXAMINATIONS

Conditional examinations for conditions received during the past semester must be taken on or before Saturday, April 26th. Conditions not removed by that time will automatically become failures. Students having conditions to remove should make arrangements for the examination with the instuctor at an early date.
