DiSalvo Reigns Over Snowless Carnival

CROWNING "BUCKY" DISALVO as King of the 1957 Winter Carnival is Chairwoman Sally Hallenberger. Mr. DiSalvo's choice for Queen was Marie Foreman. Identity of the King, named in an all-school election Friday, Feb. 8, was kept secret until the coronation.

Vocal Solo, Comedians, Piano Number Win Top Prizes in FFA Talent Show

RFSC students switched from ski outfits to swim suits as the 1957 Winter Carnival got underway Thursday with only one thing missing—snow. Anthony "Bucky" DiSalvo was crowned King of the "Snowless" Carnival at the FFA Talent Show, Thursday night. Mr. DiSalvo, a senior from Cumberland, chose Marie Foreman, a sophomore from Cadott, as his Queen.

The Carnival started officially with an assembly Thursday morning when Chairwoman Sally Hallenberger outlined the four-day activity schedule. Hathorn Hall and the Vets Club presented skits at the convocation.

First prize of $15 in the talent show went to Audrey Kane, singing "Granada." Marlin Huppert and Bill Dougherty took second prize, $10, with a comedy routine. The third prize of $5 went to Dixie Prine for her piano solo version of "Hungarian."

In the beard-judging contest at the talent show, Bernie Feld won a prize of $5 for having the longest beard on campus. Bob Murphy was judged to have the most unusual trim. His prize was $3.

FRIDAY'S CARNIVAL events got into high gear with the dismissal of classes at 2 p. m. Games on the midway, a card and chess tournament, and a hockey game filled out the afternoon's schedule.

After a pancake supper by candlelight in the caf, students saw River Falls beat Oshkosh 100-88, in the first of two basketball games during the carnival week-end.

A sleigh ride and warm-up dance following at the dorm topped off the day.

A MIXED DOUBLES bowling tournament was the first thing on Saturday's Carnival schedule. Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson rolled high score for a prize of $8. Rae Buchholz and John Steffen were second high, winning $4. The $2 prize for low game went to Joanne Crownheart and Bruce Harrison.

Revolutionary War Era Comes to Life In 'The Devil's Disciple' Feb. 18, 19, 20

Scheduled the week of Washington's birthday, "The Devil's Disciple," will recall the era of George III and the American Revolution to the campus Feb. 18, 19 and 20 at 8 p. m. in the Little Theatre.

Despite the historical setting of George Bernard Shaw's play, the author is more interested in commenting on the weaknesses of mankind (and womankind) than in bringing the past to life.

"The Devil's Disciple," which Shaw termed a melodrama, is the story of the village ne'er-do-well, Richard Dudgeon (Douglas Krug), who, on impulse, allows himself to be arrested to save the life of the Rev. Anderson (Thomas Holter).

Characters in the play see different facets of the personality of Dudgeon, the smuggler who enjoys shocking his pious and self-righteous family. The Rev. Anderson sees Dudgeon's noble and self-sacrificing nature. Judith Anderson (Honey Berg) sees his romantic side and falls in love with him. General Burgoyne (Mike Fleming) sees Dudgeon as his rebel counterpart—a witty, sophisticated gentleman.

Shaw focuses on Dick's recognition of these qualities within himself and the shallowness of his role as the "devil's disciple."

Staging of the production is one of the most ambitious ever attempted in the Little Theatre. With four scene changes in all, the stage must be completely cleared before the final outdoor setting can be erected.

The play is directed by Dr. Blanche Davis of the speech department. A list of the cast follows:

RIVER FALLS TEAMS WIN 12 DEBATES AT EAU CLAIRE MEET

With a squad record of 12 wins and eight losses, River Falls finished last weekend's debate tournament at Eau Claire with two teams placing approximately third in total team points in their respective divisions.

Since there were several undefeated teams at the meet, River Falls did not figure in final top tournament placings.

The team of Judy Simonson and Mike Dodge, competing in the second division, was one of the RFSC teams finishing third in team points. They had a win-loss record of 4-1.

Also placing about third highest in team points was the team of Arlen Christenson and Dick Waak. The two debated in the first division with a record of three wins and two losses.

MAN IN DORM! Elvis Gets Room In Hathorn Hall

by Barbara Brickner

Elvis Presley has been in Hathorn Hall for nearly a month. He went there Jan. 22 as the prize of Louise Berkseth, a junior from Baldwin.

Complete with sideburns and guitar, the life-size cardboard facsimile of Elvis was awarded at a drawing in the local theatre.

Louise and two girlfriends attended the movie "Love Me Tender" and, just as a joke, signed up for the drawing. They said they didn't expect to win, but thought it would be nice to have Elvis in the dorm.

Not a Presley fan, Louise is still glad she won the replica. In fact, she's turned down several offers to buy it. Although her roommate didn't think much of the idea at first, she's now reconciled to Elvis.

Louise says that girls are always coming in to see the prize and that he's been the source of much amusement.

When she was notified she'd won the drawing, Louise went immediately to take him from the drafty lobby of the theatre to his snug new home.

The Editor Speaks . . .

Although we're a little skeptical about how well it will work, we feel that the Student Senate's new plan for receiving and investigating student criticisms of the various activities at RFSC is a good one. Waiting to "see it before we believe it," the probability of campus "gripes" ever being aired and corrected by students seems slight to us. It's not that no one complains, or that there is nothing to complain about, but the whole thing usually boils down to "Who's going to bell the cat?"

In order for the Senate's program to work it will be necessary first, that students actually bring suggestions to the group, and second, that a serious effort be made to do something about the proposals. Although we have no opinion in either direction on the second criterion, it seems to us, regarding the first, that students automatically turn away from any controversial issue that involves taking a definite stand.

It's one thing to complain over a cup of coffee and another, entirely different thing to voice the complaint officially, even if it is to another student. There have been only two persons this year who have been willing to voice negative criticisms on campus issues in the Voice's "Letters to the Editor" column.

Granted that there are some RFSC students who will take advantage of the Senate's plan, the next step of this process might possibly necessitate that popularity be disregarded for a time, too often an unlikely possibility. Carrying out suggested "improvements" might mean paying the price of making some groups unhappy. It's our hope that this project doesn't get bogged down because of rising costs.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"I UNDERSTAND HE'S UP FOR RETIREMENT NEXT YEAR."

Student Senate Minutes

The last Student Senate meeting was called to order by President Dick Schultz Monday, Feb. 11. The treasurer reported a total of $1,601.26 in the Senate treasury.

FUND-RAISING CAMPAIGN
The Senate decided that the fund-raising campaign for the March of Dimes will be called off because of the late date.

STAGE TO BE CLEANED
Dean B. J. Rozehnal presented a request that some provision be made for the stage in the North Hall auditorium to be cleaned by organizations and individuals using it.

The Senate approved the following motion by Arlen Christenson:

"The Student Senate will formulate a committee and a set of rules fixing the responsibility for removal of material used in Student presentations that make use of school facilities.

The committee appointed by the Senate will consist of Dick Schultz, Arlen Christenson, and Louie Johnson.

SPOTLIGHTS
The four spotlights purchased by the Senate have arrived and are now available to groups in charge of all-school functions.

STUDENT PROBLEMS
Beginning Tuesday, Feb. 12, the Senate decided to station one of its members in the group's office from 10 to 11 a.m. each weekday. The Senate member's job will be to receive student criticisms on campus life. The suggestions will then be brought before the Senate for action.

PRESENT: L. Johnson, D. Johnson, Larson, Jensen, Martell, Schultz, Christenson, Laue, and Hanson.

ABSENT: Kinney and Fleming. Secretary M. L. Jensen

Campus News From Other Colleges

Students attending Whitewater State's summer school this year have a chance to earn five semester credits in geography by taking a field trip to Alaska. The cost is $575, plus food expenses.

Students taking the 28-day trip will get a chance to see Fairbanks, Whitehorse, Fort Nelson, and other points of interest, including the sights between Chicago and Alaska.

An instructor in speech at Oshkosh recently became convinced that the proper setting would give his students more confidence in their speaking abilities. Speeches in the class are now given from an appropriately-decorated platform with a trimmed backdrop and table.

The opera has been introduced on the Stevens Point campus. Directed and produced by students and faculty members, three presentations were made "in the round."

Included on the program were: "Bastien and Bastienne," a pastorate in the classic style; "Baseball Opera," a contemporary farce about the Brooklyn Dodgers; and "The Secret of Suzanne," a nineteenth-century comedy.

GAD BOOKS!

HAGESTAD

There is a controversy currently raging on the pages of the Saturday Review that I feel warrants the attention of this column's readers. This controversy is an interesting one and quite unique, for not only are people involved, but principles as well—principles for which one of the persons in the controversy stands. This last phenomenon is what makes the controversy unique, I believe, for I do not note such a thing very often.

This person, standing as he is for his principles, is not, as I shall try to point out, blindly flailing away at people attacking religion, etc. This person is, rather, defending a set of beliefs upon which he makes his critical judgements. These judgements happen to fly in the collective face of a large group of people. This group has no principles though, so I am for the man who has them.

—DRAMATIS PERSONAE—

Anne Morrow Lindbergh - is the author of a book called, The Unicorn and Other Poems. These poems, the man with principles says, are "... offensively bad, inept, jingling, slovenly, illiterate even, and puffed up with the foolish afflatus of a stereotyped high-seriousness, that species of esthetic and human failure that will accept any shriek as a true high-C (SR, Jan. 12, 1957)."

John Ciardi - the man with principles, wrote the above. He is also Poetry Editor for SR. In his review of Mrs. Lindbergh's poems, he applied the principles which he holds in an admittedly close often (word-by-word) criticism of that lady's poems. This application of principles resulted in the conclusion, "... that Mrs. Lindbergh not only writes bad poetry, but contemptibly bad poetry (SR, Feb. 16, 1957)."

An Avalanche - is the group without principles, which has descended upon Mr. Ciardi, chastising him for his condemnation of Mrs. Lindbergh's Unicorn. The Avalanche, as I mentioned, has no principles—it has tradition, the Genteel Tradition—the tradition of Navaho blankets draped over piano, stuffed nightingales-under-glass, books like Mrs. Lindbergh's Unicorn, etc. One would not guess that they are Unicorn-Genteel from their letters (q.v., SR, Feb. 9, 1957, ff.)

Mr. Ciardi's principles (and they will be evident from the following considerations) move him to heavily criticize and condemn that poetry which avoids "difficulty"—poetry which, like Mrs. Lindbergh's, is supposed to defy and refute "anatomization," i.e., taking apart. This poetry is supposed to simply exude beauty—grammatical considerations, simple syllogisms, etc., are to be ignored, to be gone by in this poetry's attempt... to breathe forth BEAUTY!"

Yet, as Mr. Ciardi points out, beauty itself is gone by in these attempts to capture it; "... while lunging for a rhyme," and hunting for bizarre analogies, poetry goes foolish, Mrs. Lindbergh's poetry goes foolish, Mrs. Lindbergh's poetry goes foolish.

LOUIE, THE LOUSE

He strolled through a keyhole into my house,
A dignified, well-bred upper-class louse;
He smiled in a most superior way
And said, "Man has just about seen his day.
If you'll take my advice for what it's worth
Treat insects nice, they'll inherit the earth!
Try to be beyond reproach
In your dealings with the roach...
Bedbugs, ants and spiders, too.
Don't forget... WE'RE WATCHING YOU!"

Winter Carnival Features Sculptures, Beards, Games, Midway

The USF won first prize of $4 in the snow sculpture contest, judged Saturday afternoon. The group's snow-replica of a seal was made from snow hauled to campus on a pickup truck. Other prize-winners in the contest were the FFA, second, and the House of Hanley, third. Their respective prizes were $3 and $2.

A warm-up supper in the dorm, sponsored by Sigma Chi Sigma, rounded out the afternoon's activities.

THE RIVER FALLS basketball team continued on its winning way Saturday night as they beat Milwaukee, 105-89, before an enthusiastic carnival crowd.

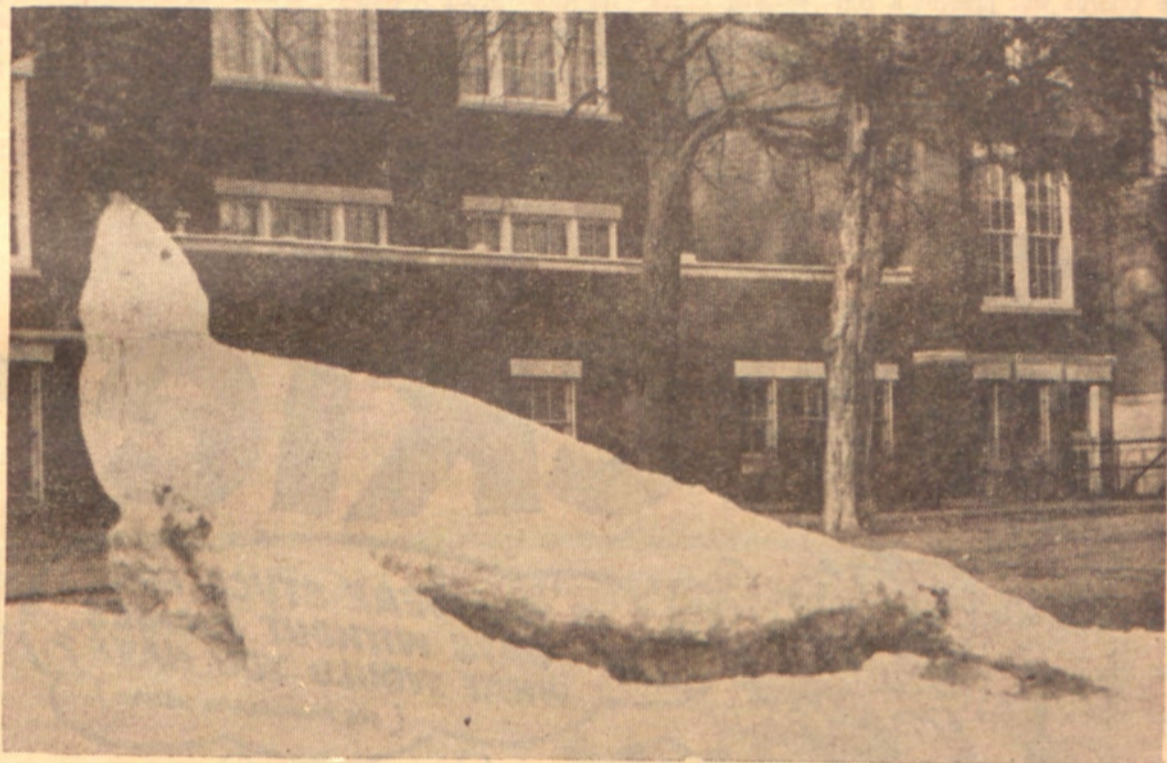

Following the game, about 300 students attended the Winter Carnival dance in North Hall gym.

The WRA basketball team lost, 60-35, to a Land O'Lakes squad from the Twin Cities Sunday afternoon in North Hall gym. Following the game, the Winter Carnival came to a close with the showing of this year's Homecoming movies in North Hall aud.

LOOKING MOURNFULLY at the bucketful of snow he's been able to scrape up on campus, Mark Wyman, River Falls freshman wonders what he'll do for the snow-sculpture contest. His problem was solved when snow was brought in by pickup truck.

AN IMPORTED SEAL won first prize in the Carnival snow sculpture contest. Although it wasn't brought from Alaska, snow for the seal was imported from the country with a pickup truck by the statue's builders, the United Student Fellowship.

A PORTION of the enthusiastic crowd that watched River Falls roll over Milwaukee Saturday night, 105-89, is shown here. North Hall gym was filled to capacity for both Carnival basketball games.

"FRIENDS" OF JIM LAUE had fun at the U. S. F. booth at the Midway Friday afternoon when he was the victim in a sponge-throwing game. Players and spectators apparently enjoyed it more than the target.

PERFORMING A piano duet are two members of the St. John's Concert Group appearing here Thursday evening. The concert will feature solo and ensemble numbers.

Male Chorus to Sing Feb. 21

Featuring individual and duet numbers, as well as selections by the entire group, the St. John's Male Chorus will present a concert Thursday at 8 p.m. in the North Hall aud.

The chorus, under the direction of Rev. James Kelly, is noted for arranging programs to fit all tastes in music by stressing a great variety of selections for its concerts.

Co-sponsors for the group's trip to RFSC are the Newman Club and St. Bridget's Guild of River Falls. Tickets are available in advance from members of the organizations.

RECORDS TO BE SOLD; ALL PROFITS SLATED FOR HUNGARIAN FUND

With all profits scheduled for the Hungarian Refugee Scholarship Fund, the Sophomore Class is planning to sell phonograph records featuring the college Choir and Concert Band.

Included on the record will be the school Alma Mater and pep song, sung by the choir, and two selections by the band.

According to class President Mike Fleming, the sophomores plan to continue the project until the class is graduated or the goal of $4,000 for the scholarship is reached.

St. Paul YMCA Secretary to Speak At Brotherhood Convocation Tuesday

Brotherhood Week, that period each year set apart to reaffirm one of our greatest truths: "that all men are created equal," was officially opened yesterday and will continue through next Sunday.

Highlight of the week, sponsored at RFSC by the YM-YWCA, is an all-school convocation Tuesday at 10 a.m. in the North Hall aud. Paul Bremicker, general secretary of the St. Paul YMCA, will speak on the general topic of Brotherhood. A question and answer period is scheduled to follow his address.

YM-YW are co-sponsoring the assembly with the Concert and Lecture Committee.

Mr. Bremicker has been with the YMCA in St. Paul for 15 years. Previously, he had worked as an executive member of the Minneapolis chapter. In addition to his experience of working for Brotherhood through the YMCA in the U. S., he has been active in the field abroad.

During the past summer, he spent several weeks counseling YMCA groups in Europe.

Campus YM-YW members hope that by listening to Mr. Bremicker's talk, students will dedicate themselves toward making every week throughout the year a week of Brotherhood.

MODERN DANCERS TO PRESENT PROGRAM

The Munt-Brooks touring dance company will present a varied program of Modern Dance at an all-school convocation Wednesday, Feb. 27, in North Hall aud.

The assembly will start at 10 a.m.

During the performance, the dancers will give their audience a "behind the scenes" glimpse of how their routines are evolved. Before performing each number, they will demonstrate the movement themes to make it easier to follow the intricate weaving of these themes into a finished dance.

Tryouts Set Thursday For 'The Little Foxes'

Tryouts for the year's second student drama production, The Little Foxes, are scheduled for next Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m. in 210S.

Student-Director, Laura Gardner, urges all students interested to read for a part in the Lillian Hehman play.

The presentation is planned for April 15.

Playwright Hellman's "Little Foxes" are members of a southern family who let nothing stand in the way of material gain. The setting is around the turn of the century.

GAD BOOKS—

bergh, Ciardi points out, is guilty of these. She is constantly presenting preposterous situations, which could hardly take place even in the most exalted and ethereal of poets; for instance (Mr. Ciardi calls this the neatest trick of the literary season):

"Down at my feet

A Weed has pressed

Its scarlet knife

Against my breast."

Mr. Ciardi says it is his duty to damn such stuff as this. And he does it by applying, (1) several, at best, grammatical principles and, (2) a few very liberal esthetic principles. These he points out, are none of his own making, but completely arbitrary ideas—he has innocently picked up, found sound and is now applying. Yet Mr. Ciardi is attacked, chastised, condemned—but apparently not for the principles involved, for not a single letter mentions them.

Why is Mr. Ciardi being attacked? Is he being attacked because he has insulted a gracious lady by telling her she cannot write poetry? (He has, incidentally, proven this to my satisfaction).

I believe Mr. Ciardi is being attacked by the Avalanche because the people comprising it say: "Mrs. Lindbergh's poetry is not like Auden's or Cummings' or Elliot's—you should treat her as if she were not a real, serious poet!"

Poetry is serious business, says Mr. Ciardi; he will fight this double standard for an art harder than he has fought Mrs. Lindbergh's large deflection from that art's standards.

"By the act of publication and promotion, the citizen-human-being forfeits his privileges as a non-competitor. Having willingly subjected himself to judgement he must accept either blame or praise as it follows."

With these not brilliant, but reasonable words, Mr. Ciardi takes leave of the furor he has created among the Genteel by his review of Unicorn. It is for we who consider ourselves somewhat serious students of poetry to support this position of Mr. Ciardi. We must remember that a double standard in anything, poetry included, is somewhat perilous, for it is at bottom a false thing.

River Falls Takes Pair to Raise Season's Mark to 9-7

RF-100, OSHKOSH-88

by Ed Schlumpf

An inspired Falcon five out-shot, out-rebounded, and out-fought the Oshkosh Titans Friday night to roll up an impressive 100-88 win before an overflow Winter Carnival crowd at the North Hall gym.

After Dick Fischer swished a jump shot at 15:50 in the first half to give River Falls a 11-10 spread, the Falcons never lost the lead, holding a 55-40 margin at halftime, their largest of the period.

The second half got off to a torrid start as both teams continued to shoot at a fast pace. Midway in the period, however, River Falls slowed down. The long set shots of Titan guards Don Kroll, Jack Wippich, and Freddy Schmidt brought the visitors storming back. With the clock showing 3:10 left in the game, Jim Lettenberger dropped in a set shot to narrow the Falcon margin to 88-83. But John Steffen paced a River Falls rally that produced eight straight points to break the game wide open at 96-83. The game marked the first time this season that the Falcons have hit the century mark.

All five starters hit double figures for River Falls. John Steffen paced the attack with 25, while Herum and Lauber hit for 24 and 20 points respectively. Fischer added 12 and Griff Howell tallied 11 to round a well-balanced attack.

Sharpshooting guard Jack Wippich of the visitors took scoring honors for the game with 28.

The Falcons had one of their better shooting nights as they hit on 35 of 78 attempts for a sparkling 45 percent. The Titans dropped 31 fielders in 80 attempts for 39 percent.

I-M Bowling Review

by Ed Schlumpf

Team 5 continued to hold down its first place position in A league bowling last week. However, their lead was cut to five points as runner-up team 2 gained three points while the league leaders picked up only two.

High individual game of the week was recorded by Jerry Anderson who bowled a 182. Jim Saugestad was close behind with a 181 and Don Jelen registered a 178.

In B league action, team 2 won all three points in its match with team 7 and moved into an undisputed first place. Team 7 dropped into a second place tie with team 5. Both have 19 points while the front-runners sport a total of 22.

Don Sundt and Dennis Briggs tied for the high score last week with games of 178. Earl Adams turned in a 171 while Gerald Artz and Gene Kempf both had 170's.

CONTROLLING a rebound in the second half of the UW-Milwaukee vs. River Falls game Saturday evening is Falcon forward Griff Howell, partially hidden by Milwaukee forward Tom Hanrahan (dark 53). Tom Shield (light 53) moves into give Howell some help, while Milwaukee's Tom Knuesel is coming up behind. River Falls won, 105-89.

FALCON FANFARE

by Rog Gundlach

One of the big reasons for the recent comeback of the Falcons has been the play of 6-3 forward Tom Shield, a sophomore from River Falls. Tom stepped nicely into front-line play at Stevens Point, January 18, and has shown his basketball talents particularly well at rebounding and "feeding."

In the games with Point, Platteville, Superior, and St. Cloud he gathered in a total of 36 rebounds and helped his teammates work the ball in to center Dave Herum. Tom's best night thus far was at Superior when he snared 14 rebounds and scored 11 points. He tallied for 10 points and got nine rebounds in the losing effort against St. Cloud at Amery January 30.

In the last three games with La Crosse, Bethel, and Stout, Tom has snared the sum of 18 rebounds while netting 20 points.

Also well known for his feats on the football field, Shield has lettered in football for the past two years and last fall was the in basketball (forward - center) and track (discus - shotput) last year. He plans to go out for track again this spring.

The 205-pounder earned a total of 10 letters while a student at the River Falls high school. Among the total are two in basketball, three in football, four in baseball, and one in track. The two cage numerals came in his junior and senior years. His last year in high school was the most outstanding. He averaged 20 points per game to tally the highest total in one season, since the days of Rog Kuss, while leading his team to a 17-0 season record.

Since Tom is enrolled in pre-engineering and is a sophomore, this will probably be his last year at RFSC. He plans to continue his education at the University of Minnesota next fall.

FALCONS TO MEET EAU CLAIRE FEB. 23

River Falls hits the road again next week-end to battle the Eau Claire Bluegolds in a big "opportunity game" for the Falcons. If RF continues on its winning ways—they've won five in a row—they could move up into third place.

The Falcons are currently deadlocked with Superior in fifth place, both teams carrying 5-4 conference records, while Milwaukee, Platteville, and Eau Claire are all knotted up in second place with identical 6-4 marks. Next week-end UMW meets Platteville, while Superior takes on La Crosse.

Leon Etten has taken over the top position on the Bluegold offensive front-line force, replacing the early-season menace, Carl Glocke. In the RF-EC home game Jan. 12 you'll recall, the Falcon defense continually harrassed Glocke, finally forcing him to draw his fifth foul with 5:35 gone in the second half while holding him to just six points. RF-105, UWM-89

by Rog Gundlach

The River Falls basketball squad rose to its offensive high-point of the season Saturday night and completely overwhelmed a University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee team, 105-89, in the second half of a weekend doubleheader.

The Falcon point total represents a new high for the 1956-57 squad, erasing the previous night's mark of 100 points. Together, the two-game average was 102.5!

The win was RF's fifth straight to bring their season's mark to 9-7, with a 5-4 record in conference play. Milwaukee's league record stands at 6-4, after losing three in a row.

THE FALCON FIVE combined for a spectacular shooting percentage of 53 percent for the game—40 field goals in 75 attempts—compared to the opponents' mark of 32.5 percent—37 of 113 shots.

Leading the RF offense was center Dave Herum, shooting 15 of 21 for 71.4 percent, while netting 36 points. His league average now stands at 25.9 points per game for nine games. Dave enjoyed a 25-point first half and rested for 6:35 of the second half. After missing his first field goal attempt, the 6.5 center came back with 10 consecutive completions in the next 13:30 minutes before missing again. Dave also hauled in 10 rebounds.

TWO OTHER "big guns" throughout the game were Falcon forward John Steffen and guard Mick Lauber. Steffen tallied for 21 points, while Mick hit for 19. A large share of their shooting came outside the 15-foot free throw area.

Lauber and Tom Shield both pulled down eight rebounds, while Griff Howell snared seven and Steffen got six.

UMW JUMPED OFF to a four-point lead on field goals by forward Tom Hanrahan and Netzel before Herum netted his first shot. Hanrahan connected again and the score stood at 6-2 with 1:40 gone. Lauber and Herum each hit in rapid succession to knot the score, and the home club went ahead on a pair of free throws by Howell at 16:40 left in the half.

RF was never headed from there on, building up a 10-point lead halfway through the period and gradually increasing it to 53-37 (16 points) with 4:37 left. At halftime, the score read 55-37, River Falls.

In the second half, the Falcons added more wood to the fire to finally lead by 96-70 with 6:55 left in the game to mark their widest margin. Coach Poltfoot began to substitute for his starters and with 1:25 left, an entire new RF five was on the floor. Phil Kuss put the Falcons over the century mark for the second night in a row on a 15-footer with 2:12 left, after being stuck at 99 points since 3:55.

SENATE TO RECEIVE SUGGESTIONS

Dick Schultz, president of the Student Senate, has announced a plan that will give RFSC students an official outlet for suggestions and complaints about campus life.

The Senate has voted to have one of its members in the Senate office each day at 10 a.m. to receive any criticisms that students might have on general or specific college activities.

The new program will begin tomorrow.

Mr. Schultz feels that the plan will give students a chance to air new ideas and make suggestions that would "ordinarily go no farther than across a table in the cafeteria." Students often have complaints about campus functions, he said, but lack the opportunity to voice their opinions.

With the Senate as a sounding board, he continued, action can be taken on constructive suggestions.

Faculty, Students To Meet With Hudson Alumni

A number of faculty members and members of the Student Foundation Committee will attend a meeting of the Hudson Chapter of the River Falls State College Alumni Association Thursday, Feb. 21, at the Hudson High School.

College personnel appearing on the program will be Richard Swensen, physics department; Dr. Walter Engler, English department; Wayne Wolfe, public relations director; and Duanne Johnson, chairman of the Student Foundation Committee.

IN AN AFFECTIONATE domestic scene before British soldiers have disturbed the community are Judith and Anthony Anderson (Honey Berg and Thomas Holter) in a scene from "The Devil's Disciple."

Prize-Winners Named In 'Time' Magazine Test

Prize-winners for the top score on a Time magazine test given to all Social Science 12 and American History classes have been announced. Listed with their scores, they include:

- Shirley Luebker, 92,
- Ronald Hayden, 90,
- Bob Murphy, 90,
- Oren Barker, 89,
- Rance Giesecker, 89, and
- Elmer Lau, 89.

Total possible score on the test was 105.

The top-scorers had a choice of: a dictionary, an atlas, Life's Picture History of the World, a 10" globe, or a copy of Roget's Thesaurus.

DEBATE—

Schoenwetter also finished the tourney with a 3-2 record.

Rounding out the RFSC squad at Eau Claire was the team of Jerry Anderson and Carl Sharp. They won two debates and lost three.

The River Falls participants in discussion, Waak, Christenson, and Schoenwetter, all placed in the top ten percent of the approximately 120 students entered.

Dartmouth was rated as top team of the 35 schools competing in the meet. The tournament sweepstakes were won by Northwestern University.

LOOK AHEAD—

Etten carried on in the pivot and tallied for 15 points, coupled with little guard Jim Bollinger's 21, for the victory, 92-83. Forwards Bob Morgan and Dick Green both netted 12.

Barring any serious injuries or accidents in the past two games Coach Fran Polsfoot will probably continue with his new policy of sacrificing height for ball-handling ability and start with Dave Herum at center, John Steffen and Griff Howell at forwards, and Dick Fischer and Mick Lauber at guards.

Neurer, Wright, Sundt Lead Greens to Win In Carnival Hockey

by Ed Schlumpf

Jack Neurer, Paul Wright, and Don Sundt provided the scoring punch and Ron Wunrow played a bruising defensive game to lead the Greens to a 8-3 win over the Whites in the Winter Carnival hockey game played at the high school rink Friday.

An estimated crowd of 100 persons saw the fast-skating Neurer fire the puck past Goalie Jerry Moore at 4:15 of the first period to get the Green team off to a quick lead which they never relinquished. After Wright and Sundt added additional first period goals, Neurer tallied three times in the second stanza. Don Swanson scored the White's first goal at 2:15 of the second period.

After Sundt registered his second score of the afternoon, Bruce Foster and Don Swan added the final two goals for the White team. Then with only 30 seconds remaining in the contest, Wright pushed the puck past goalie John Rutter for the last tally for the Greens.

FROSH CAGERS SPLIT IN WEEKEND GAMES

The freshman team's basketball fortunes ran hot and cold this weekend as the Frosh won one game and lost the other to bring their season's record to 7-4.

In Friday night's encounter with the Bayport J. C.'s, the Frosh cut loose with a torrid third quarter scoring barrage to register an impressive 72-40 win. Darrell Hart with 12 points, and Jim Landry with 10, headed a well-balanced attack that saw all 11 River Falls players break into the scoring column. Rugged Tom Juhl was high for the visitors with 10.

Things looked different on Saturday night however, when the River Falls city team employed a terrific defense in downing the Frosh for the second time this season 47-38. The winners' Al Forsythe took scoring honors for the game with 23 points. Hart again led the Frosh with 14.
