McPhee Appoints Delorit Interim President

Dr. Richard Delorit, academic vice president and a 1942 graduate of Wisconsin State University - River Falls, became interim president of his alma mater Sept. 1, when the resignation of Dr. E. H. Kleinpell took effect.

The appointment of Delorit as acting president was announced by E. R. McPhee, Director of State Universities. The appointment of a permanent president is expected late this month.

After earning the B.S. degree at River Falls, Delorit served as vocational agriculture instructor at high schools in Abbotsford, Plymouth and River Falls, combining the latter position with his duties as instructor at the University, beginning in 1953. He became assistant professor of agriculture in 1956, dean of the College of Agriculture in 1957 and vice president of academic affairs in 1964.

Dr. Delorit holds the B.S. degree in agronomy and botany and the Ph. D. degree in agronomy, botany and agricultural education from the Uni-

He is co-author of the textbook "Crop Production," the third edition of which was released this year. He is also a contributing author of "Horse Science Handbook," published in 1966.

During his career in teaching and administration, Delorit has served as a member of the governor's task force on local government finance and organization, to which he was appointed this year, and as chairman of the state vocational agriculture curriculum committee. He has been vice president and president of the Wisconsin Association of Vocational Agriculture Instructors.

The Wisconsin FFA has awarded Dr. Delorit its honorary state farmer degree and the outstanding service award. As an undergraduate he earned the Wisconsin Farmer Degree and the American Farmer Degree.

Library Addition

To Cost $1,300,000

The new wing on the Chalmer Davee Library at River Falls will cost approximately $1,300,000 as the result of bids opened Tuesday in Madison.

Apparent low bids totaled $1,298,705. Low bids were submitted by Adolfson and Peterson, Minneapolis, $756,300 for general construction, including stacks; Healy Plumbing and Heating, St. Paul, $323,300 for plumbing, heating and ventilating; Peoples Electric Co., Inc., St. Paul, $193,780 for electrical work, and R and O Elevator Co. Inc., Minneapolis, $25,325 for the elevator.

The addition to the present library will be a two-story and basement area structure of 70,500 gross feet with brick and rough-formed concrete exterior.

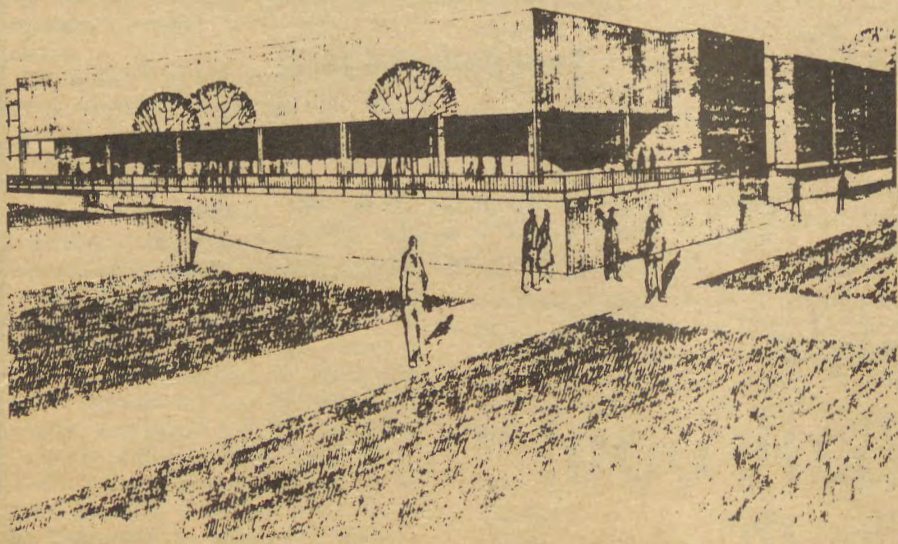

The planned construction and bids include remodeling, carpeting and air conditioning for the present structure.

Target date for completion of the project is Oct. 15, 1968 and it is likely that work will start in the next few weeks.

Dr. Richard Delorit, academic vice-president, was present at the bid openings and expressed satisfaction with the results of bidding.

"We were extremely fortunate in being able to get as many features as we wanted for the money," Dr. Delorit said.

Chalmer Davee Library was opened in 1954.

DRAWING OF NEW LIBRARY ADDITION

Opening Convocation Tomorrow Night

Suzanne Poole, Mezzo soprano, and Lois McLeod, piano accompanist, who will be the performers on a concert to be held at North Hall Auditorium on Sept. 6 at 7 p.m., believe that today's concert audiences prefer a wide variety of musical styles. Poole-McLeod team will provide their audience with a musical offering ranging from works of Handel and Brahms to several contemporary song cycles to selections from Broadway musical comedy. These two talented Albuquerque performers have become noted not only for their serious performances but also for their humorous appearances on the Albuquerque Pops Concerts.

Suzanne and Lois laughingly describe the performance as a musical "smorgasbord". "The first chorus before intermission is the meat and potatoes -- the second chorus after intermission is the hot fudge sundae."

This performance will introduce some unpublished music by three prominent American composers -- Peter Hurd, a Baroque music scholar, James Galloway, composer of a concert adaptation of Afro-Brazilian folk songs, and Lee Hoiby, now at work on an opera based on Tennessee Williams' "Summer and Smoke."

Coincidence has played a big part in shaping this program. Suzanne Poole and Lee Hoiby, students at Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, were both chosen to represent the school in an International symposium of student composers in Toronto. For this occasion, Hoiby composed "Three Songs To Poems of Wilfred Owen," a cycle to be performed on this program. This group, performed by Mrs. Poole at the symposium, was dedicated to her at that time. In planning the program, Mrs. Poole called Hoiby, asking permission to include the cycle, and received this response from the composer: "I was going to call you to tell you that Leontyne Pryce is going to sing the first song in the group ("Winter Song") on her Community Concert tour."

"Though we're doing a wider variety of musical styles than is customary," says Mrs. Poole, "we believe that each song has an important reason for being. It's either beautiful, or exciting, or just plain funny."

Coach Sees Rebuilding As Main Gridiron Task

Head football coach Gwynn Christensen stated that the loss of his outstanding seniors will leave some large holes to fill in the Falcon squad this fall.

The Falcons who finished second only to Whitewater last season, will face Augsburg in the Sixth Annual Shrine game, this Saturday, Sept. 9, at 8 p.m.

"Jim Baier, last year's leading ground gainer in the country, is our greatest loss," Christensen said. "Our defense has been riddled by the graduation of such outstanding players as Joe Jilek, Ted Ragatz, Doug Dube, Eddie Pohl, Dave Wirtala and Steve Rhiel. Offensively, he added, we are going to miss fellows like Dave Imrie, Charles Madson, Dick Hodgkins and Tom Roelke, all of whom played out their four years of eligibility and provided us with some exciting football."

The Falcons have 23 returning lettermen, most of whom are offensive line veterans. Christensen feels that the team will have a big job to mold into shape players at such positions as quarterback (Bob Dorn transferred to Whitewater) and fullbacks. The four year veteran added that the team suffered a big loss in ends also.

Christensen added that the prospects of new men are good, but untried material is something we will have to wait and see about. The Falcon mentor cited three transfer students which because of their experience seem to be outstanding prospects: Mike Danielson of River Falls, from the University of Minnesota, as fullback; Jim Kiesow of Waterloo, and Oshkosh Stat, as fullback and Jerry Trocein of St. Paul, from the University of Minnesota, as quarterback.

According to the Falcon head coach the conference is balanced again with Oshkosh, Stevens Point, Whitewater and Platteville the teams to beat.

The staff of assistants to head coach Christensen was increased by one with the addition of Jim Helminiak as an assistant coach. Helminiak comes from Ellettsville, Ind., where he served as head football coach. At Ellettsville he had an outstanding record. As a player he was an award winning half back for the University of Indiana.

American Nazi Predicts Own Death

George Lincoln Rockwell, leader of the American Nazi Party, and a visitor to WSU-RF last year, was shot and killed recently, an event which Rockwell predicted would occur when he visited the RF campus.

At the time of his visit Rockwell did not predict that the force which would bring about his downfall would be a member of his own group. The man charged with the murder of Rockwell is a former member of the American Nazi Party. The man, John Patler, was Rockwell's former minister of propaganda.

Rockwell spent a day on the WSU-RF campus preaching his doctrines of anti-Semitism and hatred for the Negro. Among Rockwell's other predictions during his visit to our campus was his belief that he would be elected president in 1972. After taking office Rockwell said last year, that he would then organize a Constitutional Convention, by states to pass an amendment to the Constitution to allow the deportation of all Negroes back to Africa.

The late Nazi leader recently changed the name of his party to the National Socialist White People's Party. He did this in order to attract extreme racists.

Editorial Comment-

According to a bill being discussed by the State Assembly Committee on Higher Education it will be illegal for a state university to have hostile speakers or teachers. The bill states that any teacher or speaker who is a member of an organization or conspiracy controlled by a government against which the United States has declared war will be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than two years or both.

Although we all love God, "Mother" and "Country," it seems just a little stupid to have a law like this on the books. First of all "declared war" is obsolete: Exhibit A, Vietnam. Secondly, how are we going to judge "hostile teachers." WSU-River Falls has several "hostile teachers." In fact, some are hostile to the Johnson administration or the legislature of the State of Wisconsin. It is truly a shame, that our legislators cannot spend more time being aware of the world around them and less time being afraid of a world that they do not understand.

The Student Voice would like to give Assemblymen Merkel and Klica, authors of this bill, first prize for the most "hostile bill of the year."
