Five Per Cent of Enrollment on Honor Roll

Figures Show Standards of Scholarship Raised at the Local Teachers College

7 Have Straight "As"

Thirty-one students have received grades that give them two and one-half honor points per credit-hour for the term just completed. This scholastic achievement entitles them to a membership in the college's scholastic organization, the Honor Roll society.

Seven of this group have attained additional honors in securing an "A" for every credit-hour carried.

Five Per Cent on Roll

This group of thirty-one students represents five and two-tenths per cent of the school enrollment. This is one per cent less than those attaining the Honor Roll last term. In this group there are four and four-tenths per cent less "straight As" than were on the Honor Roll of last quarter. These figures show that standards of scholarship have recently been raised in this institution.

It is interesting to note that of the thirty-one, sixteen are men and fifteen are women, whereas, last term, twenty-one men and sixteen women composed the group. Last year, however, twenty-two women and fourteen men made the Honor Roll.

Juniors Lead Roll

More of the members of this quarter's Honor Roll are members of the Junior class than of any of the other three classes. The distribution among the classes is as follows: seven freshmen, six sophomores, ten juniors, and eight seniors.

The following is a list of those making the Honor Roll, and their home address:

Girls at College Hall Enjoy St. Patrick Party

College Hall celebrated with a St. Patrick's party last Saturday night. Written invitations from the Hall were issued. The party was as much in honor of the new radio, as in honor of St. Patrick, and dancing and progressive bunco served as chief diversions during the evening, college students say.

Powdered wax made up for the long-vanished varnish which the girls have been diligently wearing off in nightly after-dinner dances, and several stunt dances—dress up, hold-up, ring, and shoe dances—provoked a good deal of hilarity. "You should see our fair swains in the Empress Eugenie hats!" they laughed.

The house was decorated in approved shamrock motif, in green and white. The refreshment committee, in cooperation with our house-mother, Miss Ethel Morgan, served a delightful supper, which had been kept as a surprise not only for the guests, but for the rest of the hostesses as well.

Garley Wins at State Contest

Falcons to be Represented in Inter State Contest at Stevens Point

Lucile Garley, '33, won the state extemporaneous speaking contest at Milwaukee last week Friday.

Speaking on the topic "The Expediency of an Economic Boycott Against Japan," she took first place in the contest with representatives from the other teachers colleges. Judges awarded her two firsts and one second, thus placing her very high in the contest. In winning the contest, she has brought back the silver loving cup to River Falls once more.

She will represent Wisconsin at the Inter-State contest, composed of delegates from Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin. The contest will be held at Stevens Point in three weeks.

River Falls was not represented in the oratorical contest, which was won by Stevens Point, Superior taking second. Eau Claire won second in the extemporaneous contest.

Lucile Garley, Robert Smith, Horace Merrill, Leslie Libakken, and debate coach Justin Williams will leave for Tulsa, Oklahoma, the last of this week. There they will participate in debate, oratorical, and extemporaneous speaking contests.

Citizens Hear LaFollette Talk

Governor Says the Nation Should Lead in National Emergency Relief

It is the function of the nation, not local communities, to meet national emergencies Governor Philip LaFollette told 1,000 Pierce and St. Croix voters and students who packed the college auditorium to overflow here Friday night.

If the government can spend millions for war, why can it not utilize every power to save lives in times of crisis, he asked? One reason for the government deficit is the cost of war the Governor said.

Morgan's Debt Paid

The government gave 11 billion to the allies during the war. Now stalwarts talk of cancellation. The allies did not dare ask for cancellation of Morgan's debt. He got every penny and all the interest.

In 1925 England spent five times as much as she owes us on war budgets, France spent nine times as much, and Italy 23 times as much.

Wisconsin's share in such a debt cancellation, the Governor estimated, would equal the cost of Wisconsin's government from 1849 to 1925.

Approves Hoarding Campaign

Laughing at the anti-hoarding campaign, the speaker told the crowd that the way to get money out of hiding was by income, inheritance and gift taxes.

There is no difference between a reactionary Republican and Democrat, for both are leading a contest to make you and me pay the deficit the speaker said.

Talk on Insulation to be Given at Agrifallian

A representative of an insulation company will speak at the next meeting of the Agrifallian society to be held April 7 in the Men's Union.

The speaker will talk on the value of insulating and how it is made. This should be a very educational talk and every agriculture student should take advantage of this opportunity and attend the meeting.

Lofgren Speaks on Byrd Journey

Speaker is Personnel Officer of Antarctic Expedition; Gives Interesting Data

Charles E. Lofgren, personnel officer of the Byrd Expedition, will give a lecture on the human side of this adventure at the assembly on March 31. He was Admiral Byrd's personal aide not only during the time spent in the Antarctic, but during eight months of strenuous preparation when the foundation for the success of the expedition was laid. Charles Lofgren probably knows Admiral Byrd better than any other man, for he has acted as personal secretary to the admiral for the past three years. They say that no man is a hero to his secretary, but this is not the case with Mr. Lofgren whose intimate and colorful anecdotes throw fresh glamour around the distinguished figure of the hero of the poles, according to the advance agent.

As a faint idea of the enormous problems presented by food alone, the expedition took to the Antarctic, among other things, two tons of ham, three tons of bacon, five tons of beef, two tons of tinned butter, 500 cases of eggs, one ton of powdered milk and one thousand two hundred pounds of cookies. Then there were such little incidentals as 250 pounds of baking powder, 1200 packets of razor blades, thirty dozen tooth brushes and 60,000 sheets of writing paper, which must not be overlooked.

The business of building the tiny city on the Ross Ice Barrier; of maintaining a state of civilization in Little America; of keeping the men well fed, warm and clean, in good health and in good spirits, after arriving in the Antarctic, makes as fascinating and absorbingly interesting a story as could ever be told. It is to this particular angle of the expedition that Charles Lofgren devotes his lecture.

Mr. Lofgren is carrying with him on his tour an American flag which has been carried over the North Pole, South Pole, and broad Atlantic.

Former Voice Editor Sponsors Paper

Y. M. C. A. Wins First in Second Annual Stunt Nite

The second annual Stunt Night was held in the North Hall auditorium March 16. The program was sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. Most of the school organizations presented stunts.

The Y. M. C. A. was awarded the silver loving cup for the best stunt. They portrayed a scene from physiology. Omar Simpson's stomach was the victim in the stunt.

The program was concluded with tap dancing by Kenneth Ames. His number met with great approval, according to several reports.

The proceeds will be used by the Y. W. C. A. to send delegates to the Geneva conference to be held soon.

J. M. May, head of the agricultural department, delivered the main address. The banquet was put over in fine style, according to Mr. May.

Sacred Music Program to be Presented at Assembly

A program of sacred music will be presented under the direction of Marvin D. Geere at the assembly hour tomorrow, March 24.

The program will be as follows: Piano solo "Liebestraum" Liszt, Miss Ardele Hamlett; "He's Watching Over Israel" (from Elijah) by Mendelssohn; "Spirit Divine" by Hornblen; "Hear My Prayer" by Hamblin-O'Hare "Great Is Jehovah" Schubert—all by the choir.

Y. M. C. A. Quartette Leads Peace Discussion

Last Thursday night they took part in the community club program at the Kinnickinnic school by singing several songs in addition to their talks on the peace movement.

On the next evening they journeyed to a school near Hudson where they furnished the whole evening's entertainment at a community club meeting there.

Dorr Snoyenbos, John Thompson and John Dzubay did the speaking, appearing in the order named. James P. Jacobson took the part of chaffeur both evenings, assuming, in addition, the role of chairman of the second evening. William H. Edwards was chairman and authority on general questions on Thursday evening.

Cafeteria Team Victors in Intra-Mural Contest

Game Decides Champions of Organization Quints; Many Students Take Part

The Cafeteria team defeated the Ag Frosh in the intra-mural championship game last Friday by a score of 44 to 14.

Norveson started the scoring for the Ag Frosh but the Cafeterias came back by a flock of baskets with Heiting and Kotleski dropping them in from all angles. The half ended 21 to 10 with the Cafeteria boys out in front.

The second half was a repetition of the first with the defensive play of the Cafeterias tightened so that the Ag Frosh scored only two more baskets. Meanwhile Claflin, Nolde and secured 23 additional points.

This game decided the best team in the American and National divisions of the intra-mural basketball league. The winners in each group played for the championship.

Many students took advantage of the opportunity to get training in basketball and played on some team. Two large divisions were made and the winners played for the championship.

In the inter-class tournament the

Baseball Season Opens at River Falls State Teachers College

With the approach of spring weather, the baseball men will soon be at practice on the diamond.

Prospects look quite promising for many veterans are returning. They have already arranged several games with opposing teams.

Kotleski, Helixon, Mattson, Kuss, Krueger, Claflin, Terpstra, Woodward, Belisle, and Braun are some of the men returning to the college baseball squad.

They will meet Stout, Eau Claire, St. Thomas, and the Stillwater prison nine. Other games will be scheduled also.

Freshmen Tie Seniors in Class Aquatic Meet

Hammer and Rasmussen Lead in Scoring; Records Tied in Two Events

The Freshman and Senior classes tied in a swimming meet held between the classes recently.

The 160 yard relay and the 80 yard relay records were tied. No records were broken. John "Tack" Hammer, Colfax, and Harold Rasmussen, Danbury, led the scoring for the Seniors and Freshmen.

Baseball Prospects Look Favorable

With the weather threatening to turn to spring any day now the baseball fans are beginning to come out of their hibernation. Prospects for a snappy Falcon nine this year is better than ever. Or at least better than can be hoped for. The pitchers have been loosening up their arms in the gym preparing for a bigger and better season.

Since many lettermen are returning the chances for a winning nine are on a solid basis. King and Alphonse who graduated last year leave open two positions that may be filled readily by men who have been on the squad in former years. It is expected Braun will step into Kings position as catcher which leaves the shortstop position vacant. This may be filled by either Larson or Vuchetich.

The players returning are Kotleski, Helixon, Kuss, Mattson, Krueger, Claflin, Terpstra, Belisle and Woodward.

seniors play the juniors for the title tonight. The sophomores play the freshmen for consolation honors.

The games will be some real bang-up affairs judging from last night's games. Both games are expected to be close and so far the favorites have not been selected. For a real hour of exciting play these games bid to have it all over anything seen here this season, according to sport fans.

Long Shots

By ZEKE

Well the boys from the Cafe sure grabbed the intra-mural basketball championship.

Besides sinking in a good number of baskets, Kotleski also gave a number of classy exhibitions of fancy tripping with the ball.

Van Loo of the Ag Frosh seemed to practice sliding to second. Probably he's an up-and-coming Max Carey of the ball nine.

Contrary to general belief, the plum pudding didn't hold down Simpson in the game, or any other time either.

All athletics seem to be at a standstill now. Some of the boys don't know whether to start a little putting practice, or repair to the gym where the hurlers are beginning their antics. Basketball is not in the mode any more, but one can always slip on a two piece bathing suit and take a plunge in the pool.

I heard we were going to have a golf team? Is that so?

I never knew there were so many people in northern Wisconsin as those who turned out to hear LaFollette. It is too bad they didn't come to the tournament finals besides the "Stalwarts" who already had their seats.

I perceived that our star athletes were ushers at the LaFollette meeting. Ah-ha!

Sports Writer Reviews Season in Basketball

Morrow and Warwick are High Scorers in College Conference Race

River Falls tied for second place in the State Teachers College basketball conference. La Crosse placed first by their victory over Milwaukee.

Although the Falcons' possibilities looked dismal at the start of the season, Coach Klandrud was able to form a strong team. Coach Klandrud was handicapped not only by a scarcity of material but football injuries also held back the development of his team. Early season reverses did not injure the morale of the team and with the season once under way the team found itself, and scored to win their games. A matter of two games lost but by a single point each separated the Falcons from highest honors in the conference.

Captain Helixon, the main stay of the team, completed his first season successfully. Suffering from a bad ankle all season, Helixon saw action in all games. Edwin Warwick, Klandrud's man in the pinch, finished his career as a Red and White forward. As the man who could get points when needed, he will be missed by Falcon fans. La Dsire, who was held back early in the season by a football injury, played his consistent game rounded out his years as a varsity player this season. The team this year was supplied with men who held their own. Scoring ability was fairly well distributed and Coach Klandrud always had another man to throw the defense off. Morrow, with 75 and Warwick with 73 points, were with the conference high scorers. Aided by Kuss and Mattson, the opponents had a difficult time getting set for any one man. At times they did but usually they were crossed up by another Falcon player running loose on them.

Although the Falcons will lose three of their leading players. Coach Klandrud will have three able men returning. These three, Kuss, Mattson and Morrow, will form the basis for next year's team. Of the remainder of the squad there are many to choose from to replace those graduating. Leaders of this group are Ernest Mack, Lawrence Junchen, Syvester Nolde, Emil Schisser, Vern Woodward, Lorin McChesney and Friend Terpstra.

Professor Karges attended the meeting of the Minnesota Division of the American Chemical Society. Anthony F. Runte, Vernon Geiger, and Russel Ettiker accompanied him to Minneapolis.
