Presidential Hopeful Set To Visit Campus Thursday

John F. Kennedy, Democratic Senator from Massachusetts, will speak in River Falls at North Hall Auditorium on Thursday, November 12 at 10 a.m.

Sen. Kennedy was born in 1917, the second eldest of nine children. He attended public school at Brookline, Massachusetts; the Choate School; and Harvard University, graduated in 1940 with honors. He also attended the London School of Economics in 1935-1936; and did graduate work at Stanford University in 1940.

Entering the Navy in 1941, Senator Kennedy served as a PT boat commander in the South Pacific during World War II. He was decorated twice by the Navy for the serious injuries he suffered when his PT boat was rammed in two while attacking a Japanese destroyer during a night action in the Solomons, and for "his courage, endurance and excellent leadership" in towing injured members of his crew to safety, and bringing them through Japanese lines after nine days. In March of 1945, he was retired for injuries by the Navy.

Kennedy has been victorious in the five elections he has entered during his political career.

He was elected to the House of Representatives in 1946 and served in this capacity until 1952. In 1952 the Massachusetts lawmaker became the third Democrat ever to be elected to the

Kennedy

Senate from Massachusetts, when he defeated incumbent Senator Henry Cabot Lodge.

Carrying in with him the entire Democratic ticket and the state's first Democratic Legislature in history, Senator Kennedy in 1958 became the first candidate in Massachusetts to carry every city and county, regardless of its political, religious or economic complexion.

At the Democratic National Convention in 1956 in Chicago, Senator Kennedy came within 20½ votes of capturing his party's nomination for Vice President of the United States.

The Senator is a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, the Joint Economic Committee, and the Select Committee to Investigate Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field; he is chairman of the Subcommittee on Labor.

His River Falls visit is the first in a series of appearances during his two day Wisconsin tour. Plans for his speech here are being made by the Young Democratic Club of River Falls.

Ingelhart

Robert Ingelhart, professor of art and chairman of the Department of Art at the University of Michigan will address an all-school convocation Tuesday, Nov. 10, (tomorrow) at 10 a.m. He has chosen "The Head of the Class" as his topic.

Mr. Ingelhart received his bachelor of science in education from Columbia in 1942 and received a diploma from the Maryland Institute of Art in 1934.

During World War II he served as a personnel psychologist with the War Department and as a correspondent for Stars and Stripes. After military service, he joined the faculty of New York University in 1946 as professor of education and chairman of the Art Education Department.

He was a visiting lecturer at the University of Michigan College of Architecture and Design in the summers of 1952 and 1953. Mr. Ingelhart joined the University of Michigan faculty in 1955 as chairman of the Department of the Department of Art and began his administrative duties in the fall of that year. He is at the present assistant chairman of the Committee of Art Education of the Museum of Modern Art, associate editor of School Arts Magazine, and president of the Midwest College Art Conference.

The Convocation which is an Education Week Feature is sponsored by the Concerts and Lectures Committee.

LAB SCHOOL PLANS OPEN HOUSE TUESDAY

The College Campus School will hold open house Tuesday, Nov. 10, as part of the annual American Education Week, Nov. 8-14.

The activities will begin at 8 a.m. with coffee in the Student Center. Classroom visitations in the Campus School are scheduled to start at 8:45 a.m. Visitors will have an opportunity to observe two thirty-minute class periods in different grades.

The theme of Education Week this year is "Praise and Appraise Your Schools", and each day in the week is set aside for a particular segment of this theme.

The Division of Education at the college extends an invitation to all parents and interested persons to visit the Campus School during American Education Week.

Newman Dance Tonight

A record dance is scheduled for tonight at the St. Bridget's Gymnasium at 8:30 p.m. The dance is sponsored by the Newman Club and everyone is welcome to attend. Admission is by donation.

Schaffer Wins UMOC Crown In Foundation Week Event

John Schaffer, freshman from Clayton, was crowned Wednesday night as the 1959 Foundation Week's "Ugly Man on Campus". The crowning took place during the Auction Barn and Midway in the North Hall Gymnasium.

The sixth annual Foundation Week, began Monday with an all-school convocation. Rae Buchholz, chairwoman for Foundation Week, introduced the speakers, Mr. Seimers, Lois Bowman, and Thorwald Thoreson.

Spike Hoffman, River Falls Mayor, Ed Schlumpf, and Bill Dougherty were the auctioneers for the Auction Barn. Donated by students, faculty, and local merchants were some very unusual gifts.

A new item(s) this year were ten girls shoes from Hathorn Hall. Other items were Hathorn College's "Integrity" for $2, Miss Bowman's pie party, $6.25; Dr. Knaak's book of poems, $5.25; and a blind date with Gene Miller, $6. $159 was taken in at the auction.

The booths on the midway added $50.38 to the "Trim the Gym" fund. Other money makers were buttons, $11.45 and the U.M.O.C. contest sponsored by YM-YWCA, $13.76.

The money raised this year will go toward purchasing bleachers for the new Field House.

PTA Seeks Items For Nov. 17 Sale

Used toys, children's footwear, and other useful items are needed for the Campus School PTA Fund Raising Night on Tuesday, Nov. 17, in North Hall Gym. Persons who wish to donate items should bring them to the Campus School office as soon as possible.

PTA fathers will work in the college shop Nov. 9 and 16 repairing toys for the sale. A price tag may be attached to articles or the committee will assign the price. The sale is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. and School of Education staff members will serve as clerks until 8:30 p.m.

A Basket Social will follow the sale, with the identity of the donor to be kept secret. PTA room mothers are to provide coffee with lunch.

The evening activities are scheduled to end with a brief auction of items not sold during the 7 to 8:30 p.m. period.

The PTA hopes to raise money to provide a scholarship to Wisconsin State College, River Falls. The entire community is welcome to participate in all phases of the evening program.

Quarterback Club To Hear O'Neil Tomorrow Night

Marty O'Neil, sports announcer for Channel 9 TV, will be the guest speaker for the annual Quarterback Club Banquet for the high school and college football squads. The dinner will be in the Methodist Church tomorrow night at 6:30 p.m.

Special recognition will be given to the nine senior college players who played their last game against Mankato Saturday night. They are Jim Hallen, Rog Piehl, Dick Shimel, Ed Olund, Jim Carlew, Frank Sprenger, Jack Omer, Jack Neurer, and Jon Hillstead.

Tickets priced at $4 are available at the First National Bank and The River Falls State Bank. John Murry is serving as banquet chairman.

DISPATCH COLUMNIST

Oliver Towne to Address Publications Conference

Gareth Hiebert, author of the "Oliver Towne" column in the St. Paul Dispatch will be the principal speaker at the annual Publications Conference on campus Saturday, Nov. 14.

The one-day conference is designed for high school pupils working on yearbooks and newspapers. In addition to the luncheon at which "Oliver Towne" will speak, the conference includes morning and afternoon sessions with River Falls faculty members, college students from the staff of The Student Voice and the Meletean, Jerry Brown from Greene Engraving Co. of St. Paul and John Roberts from the Taylor Yearbook Co.

Mr. Hiebert has been the Oliver Towne columnist for the Dispatch since Nov. 1, 1954. He has been with the St. Paul newspapers for 20 years, starting as campus correspondent while attending the University of Minnesota in 1939. Prior to his work as a columnist, he was assistant city editor of the Pioneer Press. He was graduated from the Journalism School at the U. of M. in 1943 after which he served in the U. S.

Army Infantry in Europe until 1946.

As a newspaperman he has traveled twice to Europe, once to North Africa and to Hawaii and numerous places in the United States. He is the author of a book published this year, "St. Paul Is My Beat." The work is a collection of his best columns about the city and its interesting and unusual people and neighborhoods.

Mr. Hiebert says he first became interested in the city's neighborhoods as he would walk home after work in the wee hours of the morning. He still does a lot of walking through the city and says this is one of the best ways to get raw material from which he composes his colorful "Towne Poems."

With an early interest in newspapering, Mr. Hiebert began work on the New Ulm Daily Journal while he was still in high school.

The Editor Speaks . .

PRACTICE TEACHING

In 1925 the four-year curricula in elementary and secondary education were authorized, leading to the Bachelor of Education degree at River Falls. Since then the college has made strides in the liberal arts program and recently in a graduate study program. However, there is evidence that we must retract and take stock of the educational program which began long before these later developments were made.

At River Falls, a period of practice teaching is a requirement for all students enrolled in the education curriculum. During this time one is evaluated in his ability to enter the teaching profession. A person in secondary education usually does not practice teach until his senior year. By this time he has conditioned himself to believe that his chosen field is appealing enough to pursue as a lifetime career. Yet, every year students in their fourth year of study are asked the appalling question, "Do you actually think you would be happy in teaching?"

This prolongment of the verdict lends itself to several disadvantages on the part of the student.

1. The student is forced to change his major field of study to a non-teaching curriculum.
2. Finances are depleted for many students.
3. The anticipated satisfaction of finally entering your chosen profession is shattered.

Of course, some persons are definitely not suited to the teaching field, but why wait until their senior year to tell them so? Might not students be evaluated in their sophomore year or early part of their junior year as to their teaching ability?

WHAT? I DIDN'T HEAR YOU

In recent months River Falls has received the distinction of being referred to as a "Political College". This stems from the annual Grassroots Political Conference sponsored by the Social Science Department and the many political speakers to appear on the campus.

If our school is to be looked upon with respect and admiration by these speakers the student body's etiquette will have to be reformed.

At last Thursday's address by Norman Thomas many students were very inconsiderate upon leaving the Auditorium. Many of the questions asked Mr. Thomas and his replies to the queries were inaudible to the audience due to the frequent slamming of doors.

To curb these ill discourtesies students are reminded that the correct time to leave is when the bell rings for the next class, at the end of the address, after a question has been answered or after the question and answer session.

Student Senate Minutes

President Curtiss Larson called the meeting to order. The secretary's minutes were approved as read. Treasurer Ron Skone reported a balance of $967.85 in the Student Senate Account.

Dave Skoug requested that the meeting room for Math Club be changed from 201 Student Center to the Social Room. It was so moved; motion carried.

Edith Walker, freshman from Edgerton, has been appointed to the Social Committee.

Carl Duch, after checking into the possibility of using the student mailboxes, reports the mailboxes will be available to the presidents of all campus organizations.

It was moved the meeting be adjourned; motion carried.

Present: Duch, Hanson, Kaluzny, Keefer, Larson, Norelius, Schlumpf, Ross, Schmid, Skone and Smith.

Letters to the Editor...

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone, students, faculty, and businessmen, for helping to make this year's Foundation Week the huge success it was.

The Foundation Committee

As a Senior, I am interested in the future of my alma mater and shall do all that is possible to encourage my future students to consider this college in furthering their higher education.

As student teachers, we are rated on personal appearance on the school grounds and in the classroom regarding such things as, appropriate dress, grooming (clothes pressed, haircut, nails, etc.), and posture.

All student teachers recognize the necessity of the above but wonder whose example we are to emulate. During return visits to the campus, we are dismayed at some of the professors' unpressed and soiled suits, grease and gravy stained ties and woe begone socks that literally fall over unpolished shoes. Some of the clothes look as though they hadn't seen a clothes hanger in months but had been tossed over a chair every night. Many are guilty of no planning of color combinations.

Most of us agree that "it takes more than clothes to make the man", and it isn't necessary to look like one stepped out of Esquire in order to impress present or future students. But in order to be proud to send students to Wisconsin State, is it too much to ask that some of our examples take another long look at themselves?

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"WHEN MY STUDENTS EXTEND THESE EXTRA LITTLE COURTESIES YOU CAN BET WE'RE GETTING PRETTY CLOSE TO FINALS."

Wesley, USF Switch Time To Avoid YM-YW Conflict

The Wesley Foundation (Methodist) and the United Student Fellowship (Congregational, Presbyterian, Evangelical and Reformed) officially changed their meeting time from every Tuesday evening to the second and fourth Tuesdays and the first and third Sundays. All meetings are at 7:30.

The Student Senate, a spokesman for the group said, did not look with favor upon the church student groups meeting every mid-week and reserved the first and third Tuesdays for the YMCA-YWCA as the only religious organization to meet then.

"Last year Wesley experimented with Tuesday meetings and found that many weekend commuting students were reached that could not come on Sundays," said the Pastor-director of Wesley, Rev. John Mecartney. "We thought that we had worked out a compromise time with the YM-YW meeting early Tuesday evenings and Wesley later. But the calendar and the Student Senate have made clear this fall that we will not now be scheduled on the first and third Tuesdays as long as the YM-YW wants those evenings."

Both Rev. Mecartney and Rev. John Merner, Pastor-director of the United Student Fellowship, indicated that this change of time to alternate Tuesdays probably would seriously cut the number of students able to come to Wesley and USF. "However," they said, "our organizations believe in abiding by the Student Senate rules even when it hurts us. We believe in the principle of a calendar to minimize conflicting times for organizations to meet."

Both pastor-directors have been active in YMCA work in the past with the Rev. Mecartney having been an officer at Ohio State University's YMCA and the Rev. Merner having been an executive secretary of a university YMCA in Oregon for 7 years. They said they believe there is an important place for the YMCA-YWCA on the campuses and mentioned co-ordination of student religious activity, sponsoring of ecumenical studies, working with overseas students, sponsoring (in cooperation with Newman Club) all-school social activities, spearheading the fund and clothing drive for the colleges in underdeveloped countries through World University Service sponsoring the discussion of religious topics and other similar programs which would enlist the cooperation of students active in the denominational student groups.

The pastor-directors said, "We believe that if the YM-YW carries on the same type of program as the denominational student groups, a number of students will be attracted to the YM-YW who will not be active in both the YM-YW and their church student groups. This will deprive these students of the opportunity for training in churchmanship and the experiences of student-led worship which cannot be functions of the YM-YW when meeting on state college property."

Falcons Lose Final Game to Mankato 12-6

By Jim McGann

Coach Fran Polsfoot's River Falls football team lost a thrilling 12-6 first half duel to a strong and powerful Mankato outfit in the final grid outing for both schools. The non-conference battle was played on a snow capped Ramer Field last Saturday night.

The Red and White wound-up their season with a 2-6-1 record and a seventh place finish in the Wisconsin State College Conference.

Mankato, the second largest school in Minnesota, took advantage of a fumble to score early in the first quarter. The Indians went 24 yards in two plays. The big blow came on a 10 yard run by halfback Terry Falk. The fiery little Mankato back smashed through the left side of the line and scooted into the endzone. The extra point attempt was missed. A couple minutes later the Purple and Gold added their second touchdown. Larry Whitmore scored what proved to be the deciding six pointer on a one yard plunge. The conversion was missed and the Indians were in front 12-0.

River Falls hit paydirt late in the second quarter. Quarterback Bob Dawson took the pigskin in from the one yard line accounting for the Falcons lone score. The kick was missed and River Falls trailed at the half 12 to 6.

The second half turned into quite a defensive battle. Neither team could move the ball with consistence. The game ended with Mankato in command of a hard fought 12-6 victory.

Frank Sprenger played himself a whale of a defensive ball game. The senior letterman from Hayward made eleven tackles and assisted on many more.

Helping to form the nucleus of Fran Polsfoot's line is Tom Sackett, junior from Rhinelander. Sackett or "Sackie" as he is called by his teammates has held down a starting position on the Falcon football team for the last three years. Tipping the scales at a respectable 190 pounds, Tom is known for his rock 'em—sock 'em type of football on offense and defense.

In three years of competition at Rhinelander, Sackett earned letters in football and hockey. Here at River Falls, Tom is taking a sociology major and psychology minor. When asked what was the roughest game he played in this year, Tom said, "There is no doubt about it that the Stevens Point game was the roughest and the toughest."

Says Falcon Coach Fran Polsfoot, "Sackett is a great blocker and aggressive defensive lineman. He is a good man to rely on for a jarring tackle when it is needed most."

When not occupied with football, Tom keeps himself busy with the outdoor sports such as deer hunting and fishing.

Last week found the Pinbusters and Foulers moving a game closer to the league leader, the Yard Birds.

The Pinbusters won three points from the Fountains giving them a tie for second place with the Foulers. Both teams have identical 13-2 records. The Foulers have the two league leaders with Ron Williams and Jim Filkins maintaining 175 and 169 season averages respectively.

The fall term of Intramural Bowling will end on Tuesday, Nov. 17. Teams will reorganize after final tests for Winter and Spring bowling. Notice of meetings will be posted and new teams are urged to submit entries.

Out on a Limb —

By Philip Thurston

This week we take a look at the Western Division.

The St. Louis Hawks, who grabbed the Division title easily last season, only to lose to the Minneapolis cinderella team in the playoffs, should have little trouble in snaring the title again. Their main handicap will be age as six men are in their thirties.

St. Louis Hawks — The Hawks, appear ready to capture their fourth championship in as many years. Coach "Easy Ed" Macduley has his "Big Three" up front in Bob Pettit, Cliff Hagen and Clyde Lovellette. Pettit, who has a list of records as long as your arm, is one of the greatest all-around players of all time. Last year he grabbed individual scoring honors with 2,105 points and had a 29.2 scoring average. Pettit teams with Hagen to provide the Hawks with the best one-two punch in the league. Big Clyde Lovellette will attempt to play full time at center, a feat he has never been able to do. Owner Ben Kerner acquired John McCarthy from Cincinnati to play the backcourt with Slater "Dugie" Martin, the shortest man in the N.B.A. Another back court man is Si Green.

Minneapolis Lakers — Elgin Baylor brought the Minneapolis team out of financial submission with his brilliant play last year. If the Lakers are going anywhere this season under new coach Johnny Castellani, they must build their scoring punch around Baylor. Veteran Larry Foust and Jim Krebs will share the center duties. The post was left vacant by the retirement of Vern Mikkelson. Dick Garmaker and Bob Leonard are leading back court candidates.

Cincinnati Royals — Although the Royals still have one more year to wait for Oscar Robertson they will be slightly improved over last year's dismal season. Jack Tyman is the main spring of the team. Last season he finished second in scoring to Bob Pettit.

Detroit Pistons — The Pistons may have to go without the services of their ace Walt Dukes, unless he comes to salary terms. The frontlinemen for Detroit will include Archie Dees, a disappointment at Cincinnati last year, Earl Lloyd, and rookie Bailey Howell. Veterans Gene Shue, Dick McGuire and Billy Kenville will share backcourt duties.

STATE GROUP HEARS ADDRESS BY CRANE

Protestants are unaware of much of the rich heritage of Christian art, James Crane, chairman of the River Falls art department told delegates attending the State Conference of the Methodist Student Movement at Oshkosh.

Mr. Crane, speaking on "Images of Christ," said, "Typical church art has little to say to people in the present day."

Much of it he termed "trite, sentimental, and of little value."

"There are many good artists painting religious themes," he said, "but their work is found more often in the museums than in the churches."

Varsity Basketball Squad Begins Practice Sessions

by Ken Wolters

Now that the gridiron is covered with snow, avid sports fans have turned to the basketball court for excitement.

Basketball seems to be a growing sport here at River Falls, for this year we have one of the largest group of newcomers we have had in a long time. In fact, the squad is so large that after one week of practice a cut was necessary.

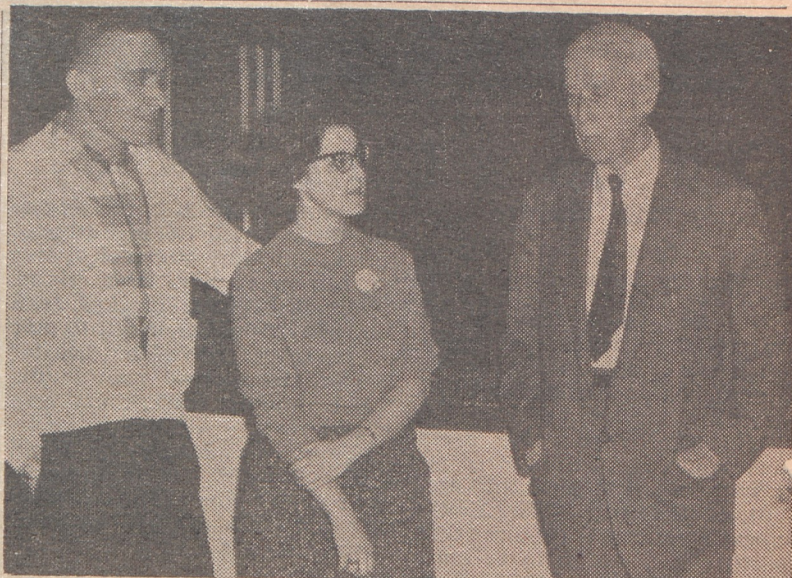

Those remaining on the squad are as follows: In the forward positions are Wayne Kuss, Newton Buchner, Vic Strobush, Dave Engler, Toby Garey, Gary Sharfenberg, Norman Hanson, Carroll Lehman, and Mick Collins. Guard positions are held by Murray Grevious, Don Koepnick, Gordon Olson, Jack Jensen, Dwight Schult, Tom Sempf, Barry Lindsay, and Gene Kirk. At the center spot we have Charlie Johnson, Billy Schwartz, Vince Chelstrom and John Lehman.

All of these men are freshmen, except Carroll Lehman, Kirk, Johnson, and Collins. Collins is the only letterman. Coach Don Page states that this is only a tentative list.

Page also stated that all boys out for football who would like to try out for basketball should report Nov. 9.

The Falcons' first game of the season is less than a month away. The first game is Dec. 3, against Augsburg, at Minneapolis. Our first home game is December 5 against Bethel.

Hope of Disarmament Lies In 'Will to Live'-Thomas

by Eddie Fisk

"Nikita Khrushchev is serious about total disarmament for he desires to continue living," said Socialist leader Norman Thomas in an all-school convocation Thursday. "If the people of the world keep their present ideas on total disarmament, the chances of today's college students living to my age (75) are infinitesimal."

In his introduction of Mr. Thomas, Dr. Walker D. Wyman, chairman of the social science department said, "The name of Norman Thomas is a household word in America."

Then, turning to Mr. Thomas, he read a poem of Emily Dickenson, "I Died for Beauty" and a reply he had written for the Socialist leader. The concluding lines were, "For I see what Whitman saw: the enslaved, the overthrown, the hurt, the oppressed of the whole earth, I feel the measureless shame and humiliation of my race, it becomes all mine. Mine too the revenges of humanity, the wrongs of ages, baffled feuds and hatreds. Utter defeat upon me weighs — all lost — the foe victorious."

"As I have lived for truth and beauty, and served as a conscience for my people, so shall I die."

"And when the little children pass my grave, and ask 'Who lies here, Mama?' They shall be told simply this: 'Norman Thomas, Friend of Man.'"

Speaking before an overflow crowd, Thomas claimed we have not eagerly sought disarmament like we have readied for war. He pointed out that Russia accounts for only 28 per cent of the atomic fallout which Christians are responsible for the other 72 per cent.

Thomas believes it is fantastic to request peace when we outlaw the world's largest nation. "Chiang represents the American Seventh Fleet and not China," he said.

Thomas, a six-time unsuccessful presidential candidate, said this is a "very important time in history" for we have achieved things never before possible. Because of the easy life in America, he says it is heard for Americans to realize how rough life can be.

"The one thing that can't survive into the next century is the present feeling between the rich and poor. Seventy per cent of the world population are on the borderline of starvation. We are an island surrounded by unnecessary poverty."

Omar Khayyám writes a new jingle

A jug of Wine,
A loaf of Bread and Winston's
Filter-Blend!

Old Omar has come up with another corker of a couplet. Freely translated from the Persian:

It's what's up front that counts
If it hasn't got it there it hasn't got it

True, the lines don't scan. But what do you expect from a tent-maker—the perfect rhyme of "Winston tastes good like a cigarette should"? We'll admit that something may have been lost in the translation. But when it comes to Winston, nothing is lost in the translation of rich, good tobacco taste. That's because up front of a pure white filter Winston has Filter-Blend—a special selection of mild flavorful tobaccos specially processed for filter smoking. Winston is designed to taste good. Or, as Omar puts it: The Moving Lighter lights; and having lit, Flicks off. Then you draw on IT, And bit by bit smoking pleasure mounts; With Filter-Blend up front, Winston's got what counts!
