Special Convocation to Comemorate Good Book Week

Season's Stage Hit to be Here Friday Evening

"Three Wise Fools" to be Given
With Star Collegian Cast
Directed by Schlosser

"Pearp", Davison, Olson, Malott,
Burke, Fox, and Others Are Featured Among Cast

The Three Wise Fools with their many problems escapades and complications will make their debut on the "boards" of the college auditorium Friday evening, supported by an all star cast of collegian actors.

This popular stage hit, which treats of the doings of a trio of bachelors who are suddenly brought from their ironclad ways of living by a charming miss whose custody they inherit is presented under the direction of Miss Nellie Schlosser.

The play was secured for presentation at the college only through the payment of large royalty fees, and according to the coach, is of a timbre seldom attempted by college actors.

A considerable amount of special equipment will be used to attain the scenic effects, while the careful costuming of the cast requires extensive rental of regalia for this one performance de-luxe.

The popular comedian "Pearp" headlines the maculine list of characters among whom are such notables as "Don" Olson, John Davison, John Burke, Bob Smith and other notables, while "Peg" Fox and Lucile Malott uphold the feminine end of things.

The complete personell is as follows:

Mr. Theo. Findley.....Walter Pearson
Dr. Richard Gaunt.....Donald Olson
Hon. James Trumbull.....Jack Davison

Miss Fairchild Margaret Fox
Mrs. Saunders Lucile Malott
Gordon Schulyer Robert Smith
Benjamin Suratt, the crook.....John Burke

John Crawshan Lyle Thompson
Poole Carl Briggson
Gray Benjamin West
Clancy James Fenton
Douglas Fred Briggson
Policeman George White

The advance sale of seats which began at the close of to-day's assembly is expected to "fill the house" to capacity for the show Friday evening. Seat reservations are handled by the Freeman Drug Company down town.

The proceeds of this dramatic venture are to be contributed toward the forensic fund necessary in the year's program which is exceptionally large this season.

Orpheus Club Songs Win Much Applause

A delightful program of classical music and old familiar songs was given in the Normal auditorium Monday evening, by the Orpheus Club of St. Paul. Some charming numbers were also played by Jota Mundy, well known St. Paul violinist.

The Orpheus club is composed of St. Paul business men who are interested in singing. They have developed a club which rates far above the average glee club, being acknowledged one of the finest in the northwest. Nearly forty members of the club appeared in the concert.

Avery Ames, '26, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in River Falls. Miss Ames is attending the University of Minnesota this year.

Rolf Lium Lecture Pleases Audience

Carleton Student Pastor Tells of Summer in Black Hills
With Nation's Leader

A small but appreciative audience enjoyed the intimate glimpses of America's leading public officials given by Rolf Lium, known throughout the nation as the "Coolidge pastor", who lectured at the college auditorium Friday evening.

Mr. Lium, whose pleasing personality immediately captured the admiration of his audience, proceeded in a delightfully straightforward manner to picture to his listeners the sterling qualities of the nation's leader and the "first lady of the land."

The straightforward simplicity of President Coolidge, he said, was the man's outstanding characteristic. To Mrs. Coolidge, he paid the highest tribute any woman could receive. Amusing to his audience was Mr. Lium's account of the inconveniences of being president.

In showing how cameramen, newspaper men, and curious tourists made life miserable for a notable he revealed the darker side of a public officials' life.

Mr. Lium's appearance at the college was through the courtesy of the staff of the 1928 Meletean.

Swimming Pool to be Open to Public Soon

The long delay in the opening of the new swimming pool in the new building at River Falls State Teachers College will come to an end this week according to statements from those in charge. The delay was caused by a jammed gate valve on the water line leading to the pool. In order to remedy this it was necessary to dig a large manhole and replace the jammed valve with a new one.

The new pool, which is sixty feet long, 22 feet wide and eight and one-half feet deep at the deepest end has a capacity of 60,000 gallons. The water is heated direct from the heating main from the main building. The plausibility of heating by this method was questioned by some of the experts by the method has proved very satisfactory.

When the pool was filled the water was warmed to a temperature of 65 degrees. The heat was then cut off and five days later the temperature registered 62 degrees, loss of only 3 degrees in five days.

As soon as the inspector has O. K.'d the tank and poolroom etc., the pool will be open to the students and faculty. A few restrictions and rules are being drawn up and will be posted to inform the students of the regulations regarding the pool.

Students Hear Judge Thompson's Armistice Convocation Address

Townpeople and College Join Together to Commemorate
Ritual of November 11

An impressive Armistice Day program was given Friday morning in the college auditorium. The convocation was opened by "Taps", played by Hoyt Johnson. This was followed by "America". Mr. Geere then sang an appropriate number, "The Americans Come".

Judge Thompson of Hudson, delivered the address of the morning, his subject being "What True Citizenship Involves." "The alien, wishing to become a citizen is required to make certain promises to his adopted country," said Judge Thompson, "but we that are born citizens have the same obligations to fulfil. It is our privilege then, in return for the protection we receive, to be the finest citizens possible. We must believe in American principles and stand ready to serve them and sacrifice, if need be, our lives, for them. It is the duty of every citizen," continued Judge Thompson, "to measure up to the highest standard he can set for himself."

Judge Thompson, with his wide experience in dealing with criminals has found that there are certain practices which lead to crime. He said that he would like to mark the highway of life, stretching before each boy and girl, with the following sign posts:

Beware of intoxicating liquor.
Beware of gambling.
Beware of bad company.
Beware of idleness.
Beware of disrespect for law.
Beware of encouraging criminals by giving them maudlin sympathy.
Beware of extravagance.
Beware of pool halls.
Beware of unrestricted public dances.
Beware of poy rides.

"The amount of crimes, especially among young people is appalling, Mr. Thompson went on, "and yet I believe that the forces for good, counteracting the above mentioned forces for evil will triumph. Right must triumph over wrong. Truth must triumph over falsehood.

Judge Thompson closed with the plea that the young people make the most of their opportunities, for "we have the power to change our environment. We are the architects who shape our future. We make ourselves what we are."

The program was closed with a song from the Girls' Quartet and a solo by Mr. Geere.

The conference theme, "In Quest of the Best" was emphasized through addresses such as "The Christian Quest," "In Quest for Right Living," "In Quest for Service" and "God's Quest."

Co-ed Charm School Proves Very Popular Y. W. Girls Acclaim

Prominent Women Tell Girls
How to Become Charming
In Dress and Manners

The courses offered by "The Charm School" have interested a hundred odd co-eds who attend the Y. W. C. A. meetings regularly. "The Charm school" stresses the charms and culture which add so much to a refined character.

Miss Greene gave a very interesting talk on the "Charm in Dress" in which she defined charm as an abstract characteristic that is fascinating, and altogether pleasing to those with whom one associates.

She also pointed out five essential factors that one should consider in selecting a pleasing dress; these factors are: suitability, which includes usefulness, material, and price; style, under which was demonstrated the effect of extreme dress; the importance of analyzing one's form to find both weak and strong points. Then emphasize the strong points to conceal the weak points, and if possible, to overcome weakness form. The importance of the shape of the face in selecting the neck-line; and lastly, color which is very important. It is generally known that certain colors are more becoming to some types than others.

Mrs. A. N. Johnson talked to the girls about "Charm in Manners" in which she suggested that charm of manners be made part of oneself.

"Not only must we have charming manners when we are among strangers and other people; but, also in our homes," said Mrs. Johnson.

On our campus we have the chance to prove ourselves charming by greeting the new girls and boys and making them feel that the school is interested in them.

Tonight "The Charm School" meets again. Mrs. Prucha will speak on "Charm in the Home."

The Girls' Glee Club was entertained at the Vassau home last evening at a mixer party. The evening was spent in playing bunco and getting acquainted. Later in the evening, refreshments were served.

As the girls are now better acquainted, it is expected that a busy and successful year is in store for them, under the direction of Miss Arnold.

Peppy School Hop To Be Held Sat.

The social committee has prepared a treat for the school in the form of an all-college dance to be given Saturday evening, November 19. Al Hawkinson's orchestra has been secured by the committee to officiate during the evening, and the committee assures everyone good music and a good time.

National "Good Book" Week, November 13 to November 18 is being especially impressive to the students of the River Falls Teacher's College by the addition of several new books to the Fleming Memorial collection, and the presentation of a play at a special assembly Thursday morning.

The library itself is "all dressed up" for the occasion with picture posters and special groups of good books on the various reading tables.

Students in the Junior High School department of the training school will offer the feature of the Thursday convocation for the observance of "Good Book" week by the presentation of a play called "Friends in Bookland."

This play, coached and directed by Miss Delander, treats of many colorful characters who come to us from the books in which they were created.

BREAKS OF THE GAME

Late Friday afternoon a rumor was broadcasted and it spread dismay into the hearts of hundreds of students and townspeople here. "Stevens Point", it said had stopped the Falls gridiron machine and beaten them 6 to 0.

Unbelievably the frantic students called the telephone centrals and operators, Prexy and all other possible people where reliable information was obtainable, but still the report persisted.

Bit by bit the details of the game drifted back, how the boys had fought gamely and gloriously and losing not because they were not a real football team but because it seemed impossible to "get going". Some of the greatest grid teams in history have gone down to defeat due to this lack of something that may creep in.

Thursday when the buss rolled away from the campus carrying the boys to Stevens Point the whole college turned out to give them a rousing and inspiring farewell and to wish them luck.

Even though they came back in defeat they found the old school still loyally back of them. They will appreciate the faith of the college that inspires them on through defeats as well as victories.

Thanksgiving day at La Crosse the boys will face the final test.

We are all back of them and win or lose we believe that we have a great football team. They have that one bad game out of their systems now, and when Thanksgiving Day rolls around it will find the Falls machine hammering and pounding La Crosse back, back to defeat while the Falls thunders on redoming for the past defeat fight, inspired by the college spirit which is so loyal to them.

ON TO VICTORY

We believe the keynote of our spirit has just been sounded. We are behind the team whether they win or lose, and having lost a game, we're all the more eager to help them win the next one and tie La Crosse for the Championship.

A lot of the fellows came back from the Stevens Point game feeling mighty blue. They didn't lose anything, however. A team playing as straight and clean and hard as they did never loses.

Some of the fellows didn't fare so well on the Point field, however, and as a result of the punishment they unflinchingly took, have broken bones and other serious injuries.

And so it behooves us in the last two weeks of the football season to give the gang the best we've got to show them that athletics belong no only to the team but to the school.

Members of the team and folks who saw the game say that our gang never fought harder than they did at Stevens Point. The thing they lacked according to the report, was backing from the side lines. Without that, the team was unable to work with the ardor that has made them famous.

All of us can't attend the game at La Crosse on Thanksgiving day. Maybe some of us who can, won't. But at any rate, there are other ways of helping the team win, some of them obvious, some we'll think of from time to time. Telegrams to the fellows on the field are about as fine a manifestation of spirit that absentees can make.

REMEMBER

Three weeks! We're not putting on a free advertising campaign for any of our popular authors of fiction; we're simply reminding you that the first term will be over very, very soon. Now is a good time for us to get a final check on ourselves and see just how we "stack up".

Of course if we haven't done anything at all this term so far, we might just as well not try to salvage the wreckage at all, but on the other hand, if there's loose ends to be gathered up before the final whistle, let's not neglect them any longer.

The folks will be mighty glad to see you Thanksgiving, and if they're not too far away you'd better go. And if you've taken care of your work, you'll be glad to see them, too.

Judging the Shows

The college auditorium claims the spotlight this week with the presentation of the nation-wide comedy success, "Three Wise Fools", by an all-star cast of collegian actors Friday evening.

The engrossing tale, which has been carried through two successive presentations by three different Twin City companies in the past two years treats of three "old school" bachelors whose solidified mannerisms are suddenly shattered when they inherit the custody and care of a charming young lady. Their rejuvenation and many complicating problems finishes the spirit of the play.

La Grande's Shows Good

The La Grande sisters stock company appearing at the Falls Theatre downtown this week is rated by eminent critics, among them Carleton Miles, as one of the finest in the northwest. Their appearances in surrounding cities have been lauded and praised to a high degree. Their plays which are spiced with musical interpretations and vaudeville acts, are Broadway success by such celebrities as George M. Cohan.

"The O'Brien Girl," the first of their offerings, was enthusiastically praised by last night's theatre goers, who seem to be of the opinion that the company's visit to River Falls will be very successful.

"Big Time" Still Slow

Outside of Nick Lucas, "The Crooning Trubodour" of Brunswick record record fame, who appears at the Hennepin Orpheum in Minneapolis, vaudeville hasn't given us much to talk about as yet. Futurities of promise seem to materialize very, very slowly.

Twin City stock companies have fairly good offerings for the current week. The President is showing "The Cradle Snatchers", while the Lyceum is registering quite a hit with "Getting Gerti's Garter."

For movies, Richard Dix in "Shanghai Bound" at the Capitol in St. Paul is the best bet.

THE BREAKS OF A GAME

It is not always the best team that wins a football game as it is played today. All good teams have days which are "off" days. This may be the time when their opponents are playing better than usual. Stevens Point had one of these last Friday when they were near unbeatable.

When two evenly matched teams are playing, oftentimes a fumble, delayed pass or maybe a blocked punt will decide an important contest. Fans like these breaks, and were it not for them football would indeed be a very dull game. It is the unexpected that makes the crowd thrill, and yell for the good of the game.

So let's go down to La Crosse Thanksgiving Day and beat this team that are already calling themselves State Champions. Now is the time, school and fans to get back of the team.

Just received a shipment of the New College Striped Ties, & Scarfs.

Falls Bows to Pointers; Prepares to Down La Crosse

Point Onslaughts Wins Battle 6-0 From Stanleyman

Stevens Point Proves "Dark Horse" When They Set Aside Tradition and Win Game From River Falls. Blocked Punt in 2nd Period Spells Defeat, Fumbles Hurt Falls, Battle is Tensely Fought.

The Stevens Point gridgers, inspired by the continued upsets of the "dope bucket", turned the tables on the Crimson Tide last Friday by a score of 6-0.

Pointers Score on Blocked Punt

After the second period got under way, the Easterners worked the ball into the Red and White territory. But the Red and White line held them for downs.

This was the critical moment. As the Falls attempted to punt out of danger, an aggressive Pointer blocked the kick. Not only this, but with catlike speed he recovered the pigskin on the Falls four yard line. Desperately the Red and White fought, but it was inevitable, the winning touchdown went over.

Fumbles Hurt the Falls

During the third quarter the Red and White rallied. They carried the ball to the 10 yard line, however, the slippery pigskin was treacherous, and two fumbles proved costly.

The boys seemd to have trouble most of the time. Often the pigskin was in Pointer territory, but the final dash and drive was lacking.

Game Furiously Fought

Furiously the game was fought. The Pointers were set for this game and not even the fighting of the Red and White could stop them. They were hard to stop, "we have no alibi," said members of the team, Stevens Point was the better team Friday.

Some conception of the furiousness of the battle may be gained when we look over the casualty list. Nor Manion will be out for the rest of the season with a broken color bone. Farrell is in the hospital due to an infection in his foot. But this is not all, Jenson, Weber, Altenberg and Mc Donald are nursing injuries.

The victory was a sensational one from a Stevens Point angle ever since these school have met on the gridiron, the Pointers have bowed in defeat. This year is the first time that they have enjoyed the spoils of victory.

May Still be "Champs"

Although the game was a set back to the championship aspirations of the Red and White, it did not put them out of the race. A victory over La Crosse, and the crimson tide is determined to score it, will give the River Falls warriors a fourth Football Championship.

And prospects are bright. Bud Manion will be able to resume his station at quarterback. Those who are injured will recuperate during the two weeks that remain before the game. Besides this every man on the team has that do or die spirit which has carried River Falls to many a championship in the past.

Co-Ed Teams Battle In Volley-Ball Meet

The G. A. A. volley ball tournament opened Tuesday after several weeks of severe practice by the participants. In the first game, the second year class under the able captain, Ruby Solum, easily defeated the third year class by a score of 21 to 8.

The freshmen, having a large number of players, divided their squad up into two teams, Norma Anderson acting as captain of one and Helen Nelson as captain of the other. These two teams fought a hard battle Thursday for Freshman supremacy, and the Nelson team emerged victors by a score of 21 to 19. The second year team will meet this freshman team to decide the championship of the school Thursday afternoon at four o'clock.

The election of officers took place Friday night. The conference plan is to have the state geographically represented on the staff of officers. With this aim in view the following officers were elected:

- President Wilbur McDaniels, Oshkosh
- 1st Vice-pres. Richard Mooney,

- River Falls
- 2nd Vice-pres. Agnes Gowdy, Waukesha
- Secretary Donald Stannard, Sheboygan

Last year the State Young People's Conference met at Sheboygan for its 1926 convention at which Northern Wisconsin was represented only by two River Falls delegates—Gertrude Potter and Richard Mooney.

Winter Sports Scheduled to Open In Near Future with the Finish of Skating Rink on West Campus

Lovers of outdoor sports are enthused to learn of the completion of the bed for the new skating rink which will be flooded as soon as the weather permits.

The rink, which occupies the same location as the one of last year, has been increased in size and graded two feet to form a new level.

Members of the social committee under whose direction the work has been personally conducted, have contributed much of the actual labor needed for its completion.

The president of the social committee showed a marked proficiency in the handling of the power grader used in changing the "grade" of the plot, while a senior member of the committee, while not an "Ag." man, showed fine ability at handling the tractor which furnished the motive power for the grader.

The proportions of the skating rink promise a far larger surface area than any rink heretofore maintained by the college. The approximate dimensions are 100 yards by 80 yards, and the new grade permits the entire plot to be flooded with six inches of water.

A caretaker will be engaged, according to the committee, to keep the rink in shape throughout the winter. Sweeping apparatus and "scrapers" are being provided also.

Funds for the construction of the rink have come partly from popular subscription, and the rest from committee funds.

On this page are scenes from last year's skating rink which was one of the most successful ventures of the social committee.

G. A. A.

The regular G. A. A. meeting was held in Miss Smith's office last Thursday evening.

After the report of the Committee working on the bidding of the furnishing of the Girls' Club Room, plans were discussed as to just what the organizations should do. It was agreed that at the next meeting of the G. A. A., which will be December 1, that work would be begun on the dish towels for the kitchenette.

Some rather gratifying reports were given by the Chairman of the Ways and Means committee and the treasurer. Arrangements were made to sell candy at the play Friday evening. We also heard a report from the G. A. A. stand which sold hot dogs at the Superior game. Norma Haunschild, the chairman and her helpers are certainly to be commended on the results.

After the business meeting a short social meeting was indulged in which was spent in dancing. After some rather unique refreshments, the girls departed for the more enjoyable tasks of writing Thursday night themes or other things in the same class.

RURAL LIFE

The Rural Life Club meeting was held in the Rural rooms on the third floor of the South Hall last Thursday evening.

The features of the evening's program were five pantomimes that were given by the members of the organization. The pantomimes and the people taking part in them are as follows.

"Bridging the Rhine". The cast was Millicent Daniels, Edna Goff, Lottie Peters, Agnes Parnell, Flora Wigge, and Florence Christenson.

"I Never See Maggie Alone" was given by the following people: Vel-ma Anderson, Alma Bundy, Mabel Fiddler, Frances McGinley, Gerald Belisle, Arlyne Cornelson, and Irma Guiser.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin" was portrayed with several humorous sketches. Those taking part were: Jessie Scott Alva Curtis, Sidney Laughman, Dorthea Swartz, Evelyn Burnt, Catherine Schmidt, and Nina Jorstad.

"The Courtship of Miles Standish" was given by Ruth Christenson, Nioma Beckmark, Elvera Reick, Leila Newel, Nellie Claud, and Gertrude Englehart.

"Rip Van Winkle" and his tyrannical wife were portrayed by Anita Reick, Charlotte Taylor, Amy Johnson, Elizabeth Millar, Gladys Lundberg, Nora Johnson and Norma Tubman.

The pantomimes were judged by Miss Jorstad, Mr. Malott, Peter Vig and Russell Christenson. "Bridging the Rhine" was given the first place and "I Never See Maggie Alone" the second place.

The idea in mind in giving these pantomimes was to furnish something that the members of the club might take with them and use in their schools next year.

AGRIFALLIAN

The Agrifallian organization met for one of the biggest gatherings of the year Thursday when over 35 members attended the meeting.

Mr. Abrahamson conducted the program which consisted of a very fine talk by himself on the topic "The Leaving of the Farmer for the Town and City". A one act play was put on by Case, Abrahamson and Anderson. Mr. Campbell, the Smith-Hughes teacher at the high school gave the fellows a talk on "Cooperative Marketing."

The organization voted to cooperate with the Lincolnians in making the play "Three Wise Fools" a success.

Who's Who

If a vote were taken to determine who is the best all-around man on the campus, "Bong" Luberg would, without a doubt, stand very near the top. There seems to be nothing he cannot do, and do well. He came to us from the River Falls High School and from the very first he has been a worthy addition to the school.

He was elected president of the freshman class. He sang in the men's glee club and in the male quartet. He played noteworthy football on the varsity team. He made the debate squad and was an active member of the Lincolnian society. He belonged to the Y. M. C. A. and participated in dramatics.

At every school dance Leroy could be seen tripping the "light fantastic" and helping to make the party go.

Yes, Bong, is a jack-of-all-trades but unlike the Jack in the old adage, he does all things well.

The Lincolnians are looking forward to an unusually successful year under Luberger's competent leadership.

On the gridiron, on the platform, on the campus, he wins the admiration and acclaim of all his fellow students.
