RIVER FALLS STATE COLLEGE VOLUME XLV

NO. 10

THE ORIGINAL SPANISH version of Otra Primavera is examined by Bill Clark and Taloa Starr during a break in rehearsing for the play which will have its first performance in English tonight at the Little Theatre.

'Another Springtime' Opens On Campus This Evening

When the curtain rises at 8 o'clock tonight in the Little Theatre, it will mark a unique theatrical event at River Falls with the first United State performance of Another Springtime.

Directed by Dr. Blanche Davis, the play is a psychological drama dealing with a wealthy Mexican family. It was written by Rodolfo Usigli, one of Mexico's leading playwrights, and had its first performance in Mexico City in 1945 with the Spanish title, Otra Primavera.

The author, who is now Mexican minister to Lebanon, has approved the production at River Falls of the translation by Wayne Wolfe of the journalism department and extended best wishes for a successful performance here.

None of the stereotypes which often appear in the American mind when Mexico is mentioned will be seen in tonight's play. It has no wide-brimmed sombreros, sleepy peons, gay fiestas nor throbbing guitars. The story deals with people and their efforts to solve problems, and the Mexican setting is incidental to the play except as Mexican attitudes and patterns of thought are revealed.

The play, which will be presented Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, takes place in the present time at a home in Mexico City.

Mondovi Artist Wins First Prize In Rural Life Painting Exhibit

First prize winner in the painting exhibit at the College during the Rural Life Conference went to Mrs. Marion Whitworth of Mondovi. The purchase prize for the painting was awarded by Jeff Smith, First National Bank of River Falls. The work will be donated to the college.

Mrs. Whitworth's work was entitled "Wisconsin Hills," and was a guache type of painting in which the paint has the consistency of oil paint, but is water soluble.

Certificates of merit were awarded to five other artists who entered pictures in the contest. They are: Mrs. Violet Bohn of River Falls for her oil painting of "Memories," Mary Fuller, student at River Falls, for her oil painting of "Contemporary Enigma," Lyda B. Haskins of River Falls for her still life painting, George Nelson of River Falls for his oil painting of "Abandoned," and Sally Relander of New Richmond for her guache painting of "Boardman Mound in Winter."

In the photography display in connection with the conference, entries were made in spot news pictures, feature pictures, picture stories and sports photos. Prize winners included Clifton Harman of Algoma News, Vern Arendt of Ozaukee News at Port Washington, Arlin Albrecht of the River Falls Journal and Bob Burns of the Ladysmith News. In the polaroid division, prizes went to Walter Bunbe of the Elkhorn Independent, and Luther Englund of the Wittenburg Independent.

Prizes in the photography display were awarded by the River Falls State Bank and the Jay H. Grim Insurance Agency, Inc.

Winter Term Registration Starts Monday

Winter quarter registration for students in residence will begin Monday, Nov. 17. These students should obtain their Plan of Studies forms from the Registrar's Office and complete the form for the current year, if they have not already done so.

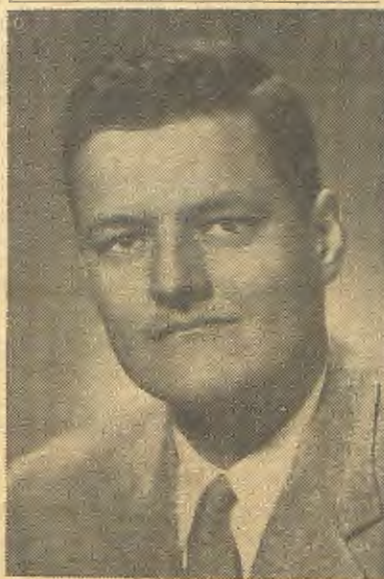

Registration materials, including a Permit to Register, should be obtained from advisors during the week of Nov. 17. Permits will not be issued by advisors to upperclassmen who have not met conditions in their admission to Senior Division before Friday, Nov. 14.

Classes will be dismissed on Monday, Nov. 17, from 9-11 a.m. and 2 to 5 p.m. for students to meet with their advisers. At this time the trial study card listing winter quarter class should be filled out and approved by the adviser.

Students may pay fees from 8:15 to 12 noon on November 20, 21, 24 and 25, and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 3. Students who obtain class cards but fail to pay before Dec. 4, must have the cards re-validated by the Registrar. Class cards for classes that have been limited in enrollment by the Registrar will not be re-validated.

Any student in residence registering for winter quarter will be required to complete his registration, including the payment of fees, before the opening of the new quarter or will have his load reduced to not more than 14 hours. All students will be expected to attend each class or laboratory during the first week of class or will have their loads reduced to not more than 14 hours. No exceptions will be made unless authorized by the Registrar.

'Focus on Future' Topic Of AWS Meet Saturday

DONALD DAVIES, Director of Student Teaching at the University of Minnesota, will address the American Education Week convocation tomorrow morning. (See story on page four.)

"Focus on the Future: Serendipity, 1984" is the theme of the second annual AWS State Meet to be held here Saturday, Nov. 15. Approximately 100 Associated Women Students from 17 Wisconsin colleges are expected at the meet.

Guest speaker for the opening session is Mrs. Lawrence Steefel, civic leader in the Twin Cities. Mrs. Steefel served on a committee which found foster homes in the midwest for Nisei girls during World War II.

A fried chicken luncheon will be held in the Activity Center at 12:30 p.m. Three River Falls alumnae will speak. They are Mrs. Kathy Miller Wells, an elementary teacher; Miss Nancy Murry, personal secretary of Senator Proxmire; and Miss Marion Hawkins, of the English department. Beatrice DeGideo, junior from Cumberland, will act as mistress of ceremonies.

Discussion groups and workshops will be led by AWS representatives from the various schools in attendance. The group meetings are concerned with: contributions of women's governing organizations to the intellectual purposes of the college; AWS orientation programs for new students; legislative and judicial policies of AWS; means of evaluating the effectiveness of AWS on the campus; and the relationship between AWS and the Deans' Office.

Some of the schools to be represented are the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, Ripon College, Viterbo, Milwaukee-Downer, Northland, Lawrence, Beloit, and Marquette. Two Minnesota schools, St. Cloud and St. Olaf, are sending representatives as special guests.

The workshops and luncheon are open to all River Falls women students, and the AWS Board urges all to attend. Banquet tickets may be obtained from Sandy Kins for $1.50.

Quarterback Club To Honor Players At Grid Banquet

Halsey Hall, WCCO sportscaster is to be guest speaker at this year's downtown quarterback club banquet next Monday, Nov. 10, at 6:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

DeWayne Meyer will be emcee at the banquet which is given annually in honor of the football players on the high school and college teams.

Tickets purchased by members of the Quarterback Club admit the buyer and one player to the dinner.

Bucky DiSalvo and Fran Polsfoot will give the highlights of their respective seasons at the high school and the college. Coach Polsfoot also is expected to make the annual "Emmy" award to the most-injured player for his dramatic talent.

Tickets may be obtained through Dr. Gordon Stone in the Placement Bureau in North Hall at a cost of $4.00.

Jack Davison, president of the organization, said, "Anyone interested in football is cordially invited to attend. The Quarterbacks feel that this is one way in which all fans may express their thanks for a highly interesting and successful football season."

Thanksgiving Banquet Set for November 20

The AWS traditional Thanksgiving Turkey Banquet has been scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 20 in the Glen Park Lodge.

A River Falls graduate, Mrs. Lucille Blank, who is running for the Minnesota State Legislature will speak at the banquet. Mrs. Blank is the only woman elected Commissioner in Ramsey County.

Tickets for $1.50 will be sold in the cafeteria at a later date.

The Editor Speaks . . .

There is an old saying, "The grass is always greener on the other side of the fence," that seems to be quite appropriate in this writing.

Students at River Falls have grumbled and groaned off and on in past years about the social life here at the college—the lack of it. We've called it a "suitcase college" a bit laughingly, but with tongue in cheek. We've always held up other state colleges as having more social activity. But perhaps we do have some green grass around.

In the last issue (Nov. 6) of The Spectator, student newspaper at Wisconsin State College at Eau Claire, there appeared a student poll on social life. People were selected at random, in the class room or out in the hall.

The poll revealed that Eau Claire has a weekend problem, just as we do. In fact, some students who were polled suggested that dorm residents only be allowed to go home with good reason, or limiting them to three weekends a semester. The Social Committee at Eau Claire is now trying to set up activities for the weekend and not during the middle of the week, as they seem to have done in the past.

We would like to quote one of the opinions raised in the poll. "There is very little social activity (at Eau Claire) compared with La Crosse and River Falls."

This statement, to us, seems to throw some of our groans to the winds, for students at other colleges seem to be a bit envious of our social life.

The poll also mentioned the fact that Eau Claire is trying to encourage "big weekends" every other week so that they can get "suitcases" to stay at least twice a month. We think River Falls is doing a pretty good job at this, without really seeming to make the effort. We've had nine weeks of school and we've had four "big" weekends—freshman week, Dad's Day, the Rural Life Conference, and Homecoming.

Although there is nothing scheduled for the remainder of the quarter, we think that students who participated in the above weekends will agree with us when we say that we need the time to "catch up."

AROUND THE CAMPUS

CHEMISTRY CLUB

There will be a Chemistry Club meeting Thursday, Nov. 13, in Room 318N. This will be the last possible date that anyone will be able to join or renew membership in the organization. Refreshments will be served.

Letters to the Editor . . .

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Members of the Homecoming Committee wish to express their sincere appreciation to the faculty and student body for their enthusiasm and cooperation in the 1958 Homecoming. The willingness to participate and carry out ideas made the job of the Committee very pleasant.

Special thanks go to Pres. E. H. Kleinpell for his "kickoff assembly" speech, to the class presidents and their committees, to William Abbott, M. Wayne Wolfe, Russ Fleischauer and Dick Thorbus for their special assistance and ideas.

Most important of all, a note of thanks and congratulations to Coach Fran Polsfoot and the football team for clinaxing Homecoming in appropriate fashion by winning the conference title.

Sincerely,
Curt Larson
Jim Laue
Jerry Moore
The Homecoming Committee

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Homecoming Committee:
I want to express my appreciation to the three of you for the fine job you did as Homecoming co-chairmen. This has been the finest Homecoming celebration we have had for many years and many of the faculty and alumni have expressed the same opinion. Many of the innovations have been a considerable improvement. The entertainment was excellent and on a mature level and you evidenced ability to control any undesirable elements that might have crept in.

I hope your activities this year will be a model for future Homecoming chairmen. Orchids to you for a job well done.

B. J. Rozehnal
Dean of Students

Dear Editor:

Thanks for showing us this Homecoming that the intimate, personal feeling of belonging is still present, as always, at River Falls State College. Special credit must certainly be due to Curt Larson, Jim Laue and Jerry Moore, who must have worked hard to carry out each event with such clock-like precision.

I'll remember this Homecoming for many things: the very professional job done by Jerry Moore in exceeing the pep fest, the football team for winning their game, thus giving River Falls the conference championship, and most of all for hearing not a single person refer to us as "old queens," but rather "former queens." That was exercising admirable restraint, I think.

Harriet Campbell Christianson
1937 Homecoming Queen

Dear Editor:

I believe that the entire student body should be congratulated for the tone and quality of this year's Homecoming activities. The co-chairmen in particular deserve special recognition for having so many alumni feel so welcome in their return to the campus. Few things are as satisfying to an "old grad" as the thought that he has not been completely forgotten on his home campus.

The program on Friday evening was particularly well done, being both entertaining and interesting, and the floats in Saturday's parade showed much work and originality. The entire weekend was a most enjoyable event for all concerned: students, faculty, and alumni.

Nancy K. Knaak,
Associate Dean of Students

Student Senate Minutes

November 3, 1958

The meeting was called to order by President Clarence Dulek. After the secretary's report was approved as read, the treasurer reported $9869.00 in the Student Senate account, $593.52 in the vending machine account and $76.06 in the River Falls account.

Bob Nelson reported that a total of 421 tickets were issued for the Homecoming dance, 65 of them complimentary.

Carol Korsmo, Gwen Schlough and Phyllis Anderson were chosen as candidates for Winter Carnival Chairwoman.

The Senate officially congratulated the Homecoming Committee on the celebration, and President Dulek read a letter from Dean B. J. Rozehnal on the same subject. Suggestions for future Homecomings were heard. Any Homecoming material from floats, campus decorations, etc., can be stored for future use by contacting the Committee.

The Senate congratulated the football team and coaching staff for winning the conference championship, and instructed the secretary to draft a letter to the coaches conveying congratulations.

It was voted unanimously to construct another speaker for the music apparatus in the cafeteria.

A representative from Intercollegiate Press will be on campus Nov. 11 to meet with the seniors concerning a school ring.

In reply to several questions, Mike O'Connell reported that students can no longer purchase insurance for this year. Following suggestions that the school institute a "dress up for dinner" night during the week when the new cafeteria is in operation next year, the meeting was adjourned.

Secretary, Jim Laue

All present.

Faculty Members Speak To Psychology Class

Dr. S. J. Saden of the college education department has been inviting other members of the faculty to speak to his students in Differential Psychology (70) as part of a class project.

Dr. Saden said that by bringing instructors of other fields in to discuss individual differences the students will be enlightened on how other fields of study apply to their work in Differential Psychology.

Dr. Clarence A. Stora of the sociology department spoke to the class on "Individual Differences in Cultural Living." He told the class that many individual attitudes are derived from factors other than hereditary factors which also tend to form individual personalities. He cited the fact that the effects of society, of peers and especially of the mother and father have great influence on what individual differences one may acquire.

Gerald Bisbey of the mathematics department also visited the class and gave his views on how mathematics are used in learning validities of tests which try to measure individual differences.

Masquers, Alpha Psi Vote to Sever Ties

Alpha Psi Omega and Masquers, dramatic organizations, voted in favor of separating at a recent meeting.

The Masquers held their first separate meeting to elect officers on Monday, Oct. 27. The officers are: president, Jim Hay; vice president and secretary, Polly Knieff, treasurer, Alan Case, and publicity chairman, Don Negard.

As Masquers is usually considered a stepping stone to Alpha Psi Omega, the new system will give students new to dramatics at the college a more active part in planning the year's course for Masquers.

Sigma Chi Sigma Holds Initiation for 14

Sigma Chi Sigma, honorary society for women on campus, initiated 14 new members at the Thursday, Oct. 23, meeting.

Social Committee Helps Organize School Functions

Provided on campus to eliminate confusion in the scheduling and executing of all-school activities is an 11-member committee called the "Social Committee."

Duch Chairman
The Social Committee, whose members are appointed by the Student Senate, consist of two representatives from each class and a number of other students. Its function is to co-ordinate social functions on campus and to provide information on using school facilities.

Members of this year's Social Committee are: Carl Duch, James Bastian, Muriel Peterson, Carol Nalberg, Dave Johnson, James Murphy, Carol Jennings, Chuck Norelius, Dean Loree, Delores Anderson and Karen Gatten.

The revised constitution of the committee is listed below:

Social Committee Constitution

I. Definition:

The Social Committee is a group of nine or eleven members. There are two representatives (man & woman) from each class plus any others. They are appointed by the Student Senate.

II. Meetings:

The meetings are to be regularly scheduled. The members are to be under the same rules regarding absences as the Student Senate.

III. Functions:

A. It is the purpose of this committee to co-ordinate all-school social functions.

1. Each organization's social activities that are open to the entire student body must be planned with the approval and/or aid of the committee.

B. The Committee may initiate and encourage organizations to initiate all-school social events.

1. Organizations may agree to sponsor events initiated by the Social Committee.

2. The sponsoring organization and the committee will decide upon the responsibilities of each (financial and promotional).

3. It is the business of this committee to apportion the money designated to the use of social functions by the Student Senate Budget Committee.

IV. Procedures:

A. A representative from the organization should make the request for a function at one of the regular meetings of the Social Committee.

1. The committee must be informed of the date of the social function as far in advance as possible—not less than two weeks in advance—to promote better continuity in the school calendar.

B. The following forms must be secured from the Deans' Office or Committee and be completed.

1. Application for a date on the calendar, which must be signed by Social Committee Chairman or representative before the date can be placed on the school calendar.

2. Application for a social function, including signatures of two chaperones, persons for giving permission for use of buildings or rooms, and chairman of the committee in charge. This form is to be turned in to the Deans' Office at least five days before the event.

3. Report of social function, to be turned into the Deans' Office within two days after the social function.

4. If an organization sponsors an event it will assume all responsibilities in promoting said event.

C. The Social Committee may co-finance an all-school event, at which admission is charged, with an organization.

1. The committee will split the cost of the event (50/50) with the organization and advise the organization.

2. The function of the committee is not to physically assist the organizations in the production of a function, but to assist them in arranging the event.

3. The organization will receive all profit from the event.

D. The Committee may completely finance an event sponsored by an organization if no admission is charged.

1. The Social Committee will determine the maximum amount of money that is to be spent.

2. For each expenditure a bill must be turned in to the committee chairman within two days after the social function.

V. Common courtesies as listed in old Constitution.

Debaters Enter Meet

Nine students from River Falls will enter the second Twin City Debate League conference Tuesday, Nov. 11. The conference will be held at Macalester College.

Students making the trip will be John Rice, Roger Schaller, Kenneth Berquist, Tom Hinke, Anita Munson, Jean McMillan, Judith Harmon, Judith Gilbertson and Helen Glesnes.

WAC Recruiter to Discuss Women's Reserve Program

First Lieutenant Martha J. Thompson of the Women's Army Corps will be at River Falls on Wednesday, Nov. 12, to discuss with interested students the opportunities the United States Army direct program offers women college graduates.

The Army now offers qualified women graduates direct reserve commissions as lieutenants and the opportunity to start their career as junior executives, according to Lieutenant Thompson. During her visit to River Falls, Lieutenant Thompson may be contacted in the college cafeteria. At 10 a.m. she will show a film on careers for women in the WAC in the Visual Aids room.

BETTER LATE Than Never to Celebrate at All

In somewhat "delayed reaction," students at the college Friday noon broke up classes and organized a celebration of the college's first championship of the Wisconsin State College Conference since 1947.

The championship had been gained on the previous Saturday by defeating Platteville in a Homecoming game, 28-26. The "break-up" of classes met with little resistance except in a few cases where examinations were being given. Only one or two classes met during the afternoon.

Dr. Donald Davies To Speak Tomorrow

Dr. Donald Davies, Director of Student Teaching at the University of Minnesota, will speak tomorrow at 10 a.m. in North Hall Auditorium as part of American Education Week.

As part of the week's observance, business and professional people have been invited to visit the campus school and observe instruction methods. The campus school will also have a window display on Main Street, showing samples of students' work and the objectives of different subject areas.

RF Alumnus to Be U of W Delegate

Larry Henneman, a former student at River Falls, will represent the University of Wisconsin at the Chicago Law Mart Nov. 13, 14, 15. The Law Mart will be the scene of moot court sessions for the central United States and will deal with the Corrupt Practices Act.

Mr. Henneman was selected to be one of two representing the university by a series of eliminations before the Wisconsin Supreme Court.

As a student and a graduate (he transferred his University credits to RF to receive his BA here) Mr. Henneman was Sophomore class President, student debate manager, member of the student senate for two years and a member and secretary of Pi Kappa Delta. As a freshman Mr. Henneman won the state original oratorical contest.

RF Editors to Attend Journalism Conference

Several students representing campus publications will attend the 34th Annual Conference of the Associated Collegiate Press in Chicago Nov. 13-15.

Among those making the trip will be Pat Lind, editor of The Student Voice, and Sue Christenson and Harriet Kettelkamp, co-editors of the 1959 Meletean.

They will be accompanied by Wayne Wolfe, who will attend the special sessions for faculty advisors at the conference.

Luncheon speaker at the Saturday program will be Al Capp, creator of the Li'l Abner comic strip. Students will also hear Clark Mollenhoff, Pulitzer Prize winning reporter of the Washington Bureau of the Des Moines Register and Tribune.

River Falls Graduate Gets $500 Scholarship

Don R. Laue, a second-year student in the Yale University Divinity School, New Haven, Conn., has been awarded a $500 Henry B. Wright scholarship. This sum is in recognition of service to the YMCA at the present time, and for encouragement of trained leadership YMCA college student secretaries after graduation.

Mr. Laue is a 1957 graduate of Wisconsin State College at River Falls, and is currently enrolled in the three-year Bachelor of Divinity program leading to the ordained ministry.

Applications Now Open For Danforth Fellowship

The Danforth Foundation is accepting applications from college senior men and recent graduates who are planning to begin graduate work in September, 1959, in preparation for a career in college teaching.

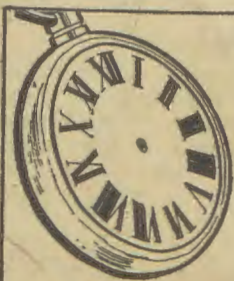

President E. H. Kleinpell has named B. J. Rozehnal as the River Falls liaison officer to nominate to the Danforth Foundation two or three candidates for these 1959 fellowships. The maximum annual grant for single Fellows is $1400 plus tuition and fees charged to all graduate students; for married Fellows, $1900 plus tuition and fees charged to all graduate students with an additional stipend of $350 for each child.

A Danforth Fellow is allowed to carry other scholarship appointments such as Rhodes, Fullbright, Woodrow Wilson, or Marshall, concurrently with his Danforth Fellowship. If a man receives the Danforth appointment, together with other fellowships, he becomes a Danforth Fellow without stipend, until these other relationships are completed.

The qualifications of the candidates as listed in the announcement from the foundation are: men of outstanding academic ability, personality congenial to the classroom, and integrity and character, including serious inquiry within the Christian tradition.

All applications, including the recommendations, must be completed by Jan. 31, 1959.

Falcon Fanfare

Dick Shimel might well be labeled the "Iron Horse" of the River Falls State football squad. As only an inexperienced freshman two years ago, Dick broke into the starting lineup against La Crosse. Since that time the husky Merrill junior has seen action in 24 consecutive ball games.

"Shim is one of these boys who can do everything well," commented coach Fran Polsfoot, "and in my estimation is one of the most under-rated ball players in the league."

Polsfoot need only point to Dick's sophomore year when he led the team in tackles with an average of eight a game to prove his point.

Shim started his high school football career as a fullback at Merrill High. Last year he showed some of that same old backfield form when he blocked a Stevens Point punt and raced 27 yards to score.

Outside the gridiron, Dick likes to hunt and fish and also keeps in shape in the springtime as a hurdler on the Falcon cinder squad. He is an agriculture major with a biology minor.

Out On A Limb

by Ed Schlumpf

On November 21, the coaches of the Wisconsin State College Conference will meet at Madison to choose an all-conference team. Having watched this year's race with more than passing interest we feel qualified to go "out on a limb" and list our nominees for the all-star cast.

As is customary, the coaches will select two teams, one for the northern half of the 10-team league and one for the southern half. Last year there was a total of 26 players chosen, 13 for each squad. There is no runner-up team noted nor is there any honorable mention category listed. Either you make it or you don't.

Fran Polsfoot's title-winning Falcons have at least four good bets for the squad in our estimation. Two of them, Mick Lauber and Jim Carew, should be virtual shoo-ins. The other pair, Jack Neurer and Dick Shimel rank almost as high.

Lauber, of course was one of the most pleasant surprises of the current campaign. When Frank Sprenger was knocked out with injuries, Lauber took over the bulk of the running chores with amazing results. He scored a total of 55 points which was second high in the league and was far more than teammate Jack Omer's figure of 36 which led the loop last year. His long break-away runs which highlighted so many Falcon games this season, left plenty of rooters breathless. No halfback in the league can match his record.

Jim Carew, the 220 lb. tackle from Elcho is our choice to succeed Bob Koplín on this year's

Falcons Lose Finale 20-14

by Jim Laue

It was the old story of "too little too late" for the Falcons at Mankato Saturday afternoon as Coach Fran Polsfoot's team fell behind the Northern States conference champs 20-0 at half-time and couldn't make it up, losing 20-14 to close out the season.

The battle of title-holders left both squads with records of 7-2 for the season. Mankato won the Northern crown with a 5-0 mark, and River Falls copped the Wisconsin State College title with a 6-0 record.

The story of the game is most graphically told by a breakdown of statistics by halves:

FIRST HALF
	RF	Man.
Yards rushing	31	125
Yards passing	45	102
First downs	5	8
SECOND HALF
	RF	Man.
Yards rushing	62	14
Yards passing	149	0
First downs	12	1

The host team Indians ran almost at will through the Falcon line in the first half, scoring twice in the first period and adding another in the second stanza. River Falls looked the champion part in the second half, though, limiting Mankato to 14 total yards in 22 rushes. The one first down garnered by the Indians in the second half was gained not from scrimmage, but by a disputed roughing the kicker penalty call.

THE OFFICIALS had a field day, tooting 85 yards against Mankato and 45 yards on the Falcons.

Mankato scored on the third play of the game after Bernie McNamara recovered a fumble on the RF 10 on the Falcons' initial play. Fullback Jerry Hasset went over from the four.

Later in the quarter, the Indians went 76 yards in 12 plays with the help of a first down on a bouncing blocked punt. Southpaw quarterback Dick Seliga found Terry Falk all alone in the Falcon secondary for 28 yards and the score. Falk hit the line for the point to make it 14-0.

Midway in the second period Seliga hit Tom Neiderkorn for 53 yards and a first down on the three, then carried over from the one on a sneak. Two intercepted passes and a fumble halted Falcon first half attempts.

THAT THE complexion of the game had changed was evident early in the third quarter when the Falcons recovered a fumble and moved to the 'Kato seven before being stopped. In the fourth quarter Bob Dawson unleashed his air arm and pitched the Polsfooters to a pair of scores. He completed four of five for 52 yards including a 15-yard pass-lateral scoring play to Bob Brunette and Jack Delahunt, then hit five of seven for 39 yards and a seven-yard scoring shot to Jack Omer. Mick Lauber passed to Brunette for the point after the second score to make the final 20-14.

Playing their final game for the Falcons were center Gordie Hoff and guards Al Wienke and Phil Lindemann. Senior Tom Shield, injured in the La Crosse game, did not play.

Falcon Cage Hopes Soar As 10 Lettermen Return

The sound of bouncing basketballs could be heard throughout North Hall Monday afternoon as Coach Don Page's whistle ushered in the first practice of the 1958-59 cage season. Not all of the players being counted for this season's success were there, however as football practice still has another week to go because of the game added to the grid schedule this year.

Hopes are running high around the campus for improvement on last year's overall mark of 9-12. Page, in his first year at the helm of the college crew, guided the team to a 6-6 record in conference play last season which was good for a tie for fifth place in the ten-team circuit. Ten lettermen are returning—enough to make any basketball coach at least slightly optimistic.

Returning from last year's squad are Manley Olson, Mick Lauber, Griff Howell, Jack Omer, Darrell Hart, Mick Collins, Mike Rice, and Em Crowley. Two other key men are Tom Shield and Larry "Rock" Hanson, both lettermen who didn't play last season. Hanson was the third highest scorer on the 1955-56 team while Shield played that year and the following season before dropping out last winter.

Two promising newcomers that looked good in the early drills are John Lauber, and Carroll Lehman. Bob Brunette, a 6'2" forward from Madison will be out for cage practice at the close of the football season. Lauber, a crack shot from Glenwood City, and Lehman, a bruising forward from Mondovi, both played on the Falcon freshman team last winter.

First game of the season will be Nov. 29 when the Falcons travel to St. Paul to meet St. Thomas in a non-conference tilt.

BOB DAWSON

BOB DAWSON, sophomore quarterback from River Falls, completed 11 of 24 pass attempts for 106 yards and both Falcon touchdowns at Mankato Saturday.

RF Matmen Meet For First Drills Of '58-59 Season

More than 30 eager candidates turned out Monday afternoon for the first wrestling workout of the season at the college. Coach Ben Bergsrud greeted several returnees from last year's squad plus a fine crop of promising newcomers. Most of the period was spent issuing equipment however, and earnest drills didn't actually begin until Tuesday.

Bergsrud has a tentative 11-match schedule arranged in this the first full season of inter-scholastic wrestling offered at River Falls. Last year a small group of interested men participated in three matches including the national meet held in Mankato, Minn., last spring. This season's schedule involves matches with North Dakota State, Stevens Point, Stout, Carleton, and other area schools.

Returning from last year's squad are Bob Nelson, Gary Rhode, Ed Schlumpf, Dick Shimel, Jim Gropp and Hank Smith. Two of the outstanding newcomers are Larry Julian and Dick O'Mara from Eau Claire.

Bergsrud said that workouts will be held every day from now until December 4 in preparation for the first meet to be held on that date at Winona.

Jokers Roll 1697 Series To Cinch Kegler Top Spot

Probably the finest bowling performance in the intramural bowling program was put together by the Jokers Tuesday night. Bowling against the second-place Blackballers, Frank Peichel's 202 game and Sherwin Gronlund's 200 led the Jokers to a fine 882 game. Bob McGarvey took honors in the second game with a 196 and the team hit an 815 game in an astonishing 1697 series. This sweep ran the Jokers winning streak to 15 games and a top-notch 16-2 record. The Blackballers, victims of the Jokers' hot streak, dropped into a tie for second place with the Free-Loafers, each with 14-7 records.

This will be the last week of will be divided into separate leagues beginning November 17. There will be room for two more teams. Any teams interested should sign the list located on the bulletin board in North Hall. It will be on a first-come basis.

all-conference team. After playing in the Red Wing bruisers shadow for two years, Carew has finally come into his own. His bone-crushing tackles could be heard all over the field and in the stands as well. The Falcon forward wall wouldn't have been the same without him.

Neurer made the all-conference list last season and there's no reason why he shouldn't make it again this year. He's undoubtedly the hardest worker for a player of his size (175 lbs.) of any we've seen. Fresh in everyone's mind, of course, are the two terrific plays turned in by Neurer in the Homecoming tussle with Platteville. He broke through to block an extra point attempt in the third quarter and then blocked a Platteville punt five minutes later which he picked up and raced for 35 yards for a spectacular TD. Falcon fans will share our sentiments when we say "Neurer is Neurer. What more is there to say?"

Shimel is one of the most rugged linemen to don a River Falls uniform in a long time. A key linebacker on defense, Dick consistently "red-dogged" through opponents' lines this year to spill unsuspecting quarterbacks before a play could materialize. Equally as efficient on offense, the Merrill lad was one of the line stalwarts of last year's team and maintained that position this fall. Whenever we think of "Shim" we think of the Mankato game last year when the tough Falcon guard played with a broken finger on his right hand. Prior to the game we queried as to how it felt.

"It sure hurts, but I guess I'll be playing," replied "Shim." And play he did. He wound up the day's activities with 15 tackles—the most made by a Falcon in any game all year!

So there are our picks. And here's a heartening note. They're all juniors which means you fans will be seeing all-star caliber football again next fall. The conference coaches may not agree but we think you will. Lauber, Carew, Neurer, and Shimel are good bets to make that all-conference squad come November 21.

Ibsen's 'Ghosts' to depict Drama of Woman in Dilemma

FACULTY, STUDENTS ATTEND WEA MEETING

Five faculty members and four students attended the Wisconsin Education Association convention in Milwaukee Nov. 6 through 8.

Representing River Falls at the meeting were Dr. Phillip Anderson, of the education department; Dr. Nancy Knaak, associate dean of students; Dr. James McLaughlin, Registrar; James Murphy of the Campus School, and Dr. Gordon Stone, Director of the Division of Teacher Education.

A woman torn between duty and what she truly feels is right is depicted by Ora Fast in Henrik Ibsen's play Ghosts. The play will be presented under the direction of Al Phillips, senior from Milwaukee, on Monday, Nov. 17, at 8 p.m. in the Little Theatre.

As the leading character, Miss Fast portrays Mrs. Alving, who tries to be a thinking individual in a society that forces her to conform. Other members of the cast are: Paul Kelly, Oswald; Georgeann Younggren, Regina; Don Negard, Manders; Jerome Rodewald, Regina's father.

Henrik Ibsen, a Scandinavian playwright, is called the father of modern drama. Written in 1881, Ghosts is considered one of his greatest works.

The modern concept of the individual versus society is introduced in the play. He also works ideas concerning arsenic, mercy killing, incest and religious hypocrisy into the plot.

Aunt Emma's Boys Win Championship

The intramural touch football season came to a close with the championship game between the Moonshiners, winners of the "F" league, and the Aunt Emma's Boys, winners of the "R" league.

Early in the first half, quarterback Russ Titel throw a 20-yard touchdown pass to Don Swanson for a T.D. and a pass for the extra point to Bill Halvorson was completed but beyond the end zone, which left the score at halftime 6-0. With two minutes to go in the second half, Titel threw a pass from the 10-yard line which Don Swanson gathered in on the 40 and ran 60 yards for the touchdown which gave Emma's Boys a 12-0 lead. A "Sleeper-Pass-Play" from Titel to Duane Teska for the extra point made it 13-0 which was the final score.

Intra-mural football was composed of eight teams divided into two leagues, "R" and "F". A double round-robin started on Wednesday, Oct. 1, and was completed on Friday, Oct. 31. Five games were played each week. During the entire season there were only two postponed games and only one forfeit. 118 boys participated in the actual play of the games with 30 boys from Don Page's Team Sports and Games class officiating the contests.
