Former Falcons Relate Experiences On Uncle Sam's Team; Send Greetings

With Homecoming just around the corner and football the main topic of conversation it seems fitting to hear what a few of the former football stars, now in the service of Uncle Sam, have to say. Football play. Senate was held last week and ers are one group who just nover fit variety of business was transacted. the saying, "Out of sight, out of

A last year's star, Orris Boettcher, now Cadet Boettcher located at the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station, writes, "How is everything at RFST-C? Ane they going to have a good team this year?" He goes on to say "I went out for the station football team today. They have some wellknown players such as Frank from from Minnesota, Green and Nile from Iowa, and lots of others," Boettcher also asks, "Are there many of the old gang back? If so, will you ask them to write a guy a line if they get time?" Evidently his opinion of Corpus Christi is high, because he adds, "This surely is a wonderful base! It's a lot better than I expected."

Another recent football star, "Kenny" Le Duc, reports, "At present I am studying the engine used in the U. S. P. 40F ships. The engine as well as the plane is really a beauty." In writing about a game which he saw, he said, "But I sure get nervous when I see a game. I feel like I should be in there somewhere." So football is still a big interest with "Kenny", too! "Kenny" is a member of the Packard Motor Corporation located at Detroit.

Orland Born, of the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve training Group at Groton, Connecticut, writes, "The food is grand and the fellows are Frinak grand so the only thing I miss is my freedom and calling time my own." Born is a football star of a few years

Lowell Frye who played football several years back says, "Right now about the only thing I'm concerned with is getting my commission. Then hard telling what I'll be doing-sea duty of some kind, most likely. Suits me fine though." Lowell is at the Reserve Officers Training School, Coast Guard Academy, New London, Connecticut.

Hob Mraz of last year fame is now a lieutenant at Dale Mahey Field. "I thought I'd get home to be around I read about Bud Manion taking over coaching a. R. F. If anyone deserve that position he did. He's a dar

Editor of Meletean-1942 Total Enrollment Shows Decrease

At the close of registration there were 409 students enrolled in the varied departments of our college,

The freshmen are making a good showing in numbers this year with 181 members. Sixty six different schools from all over the state of Wisconsin are represented.

The freshmen men out_number the women about two to one. However, the limited number of men bring the enrollment of the sophmores down to 94, juniors to 61 and seniors to 61.

Some of the more distant towns represented are New London. Phillips, Sparta, Hawkins, Wausau, Whitewater, Birchwood and White Butte, South Dakota.

River Falls, of course, has the largest group of freshmen, totaling twenty-eight. New Richmond is the runner_up with a total of eighteen. Ellsworth has two, Hudson five, Baldwin two and Amery six.

Hanna Slowly Recovers

Professor O. M. Hanna, head of the English department, is slowly recuperating at the city Hospital from an undetermined illness. Mr. Hanna is expected to return to his home in a few days although it is not probable that he will return to his work at RFSTC for some time Meanwhile. his classes have been readjusted and all of them are now being met by other members of the English department, Mrs. Pemmer Johnson, former Miss Haddow of the college faculty is assisting in these classes

DROOP

These seven days have seemed like a week so much has happened to keep Droopy Snoopin'. First of all, let us take the time and space to congratulate RUTH HOLT. . Her 'O'-BRIEN recently invested in a diamond for Ruth's left hand . . . We've heard of all kinds of contests, but apparently the women of this school are running off one of their own. The object of the thing is to see who can hook SHERMAN FRINAK first. Should prove interesting, 'specially for the winner. Another frosh to hit the news is JACK HENNEMAN, who was overheard saying "Senior women fascinate me". If you're interested he was referring to queen candidate EVIE PLOM. BON.

Were you surprised to see LOUELLA HOLLING without her ring last week? Here's the deal — it was at the jewelers being fitted for Louella's third finger. Looks as though NICOL is still in that league. We love the way JOHN (JUST-CALL-ME.RED) COLLIER has taken to winkin' at women. Guess we'll start eating at the caf. We have word through the devious grapeving that JOYCE MORTON saw JACK last weekend. Which reminds us — J. KING'S civilian clothes, remodeled for that MORTON figger, look plenty-plenty, don't you agree?

A couple of new romances are in bloom with Homecoming in view, no doubt. Some of those we noted included PAULINE OLSON and BOB VAN KEUREN Saturday-nighting it. Droopy snooped and spied RUTH FESKE and BOB THAYER, too. Well, we seen our duty and we done it. See you next week — and remember — we'll be watching you!

Spirit Shines Through Rain

The school spirit of the college was tested for the first tithe this year when a surprising tunder of students turned out for the River Halls Wiscona night game Friday evening September 25. Despite Irain and cold, the crowd was in a cheepful mood, expounded much energy and stayed for four long quarters. The team was certainly not lacking in support from the sidelines.

With such a wonderful display of levalty to the team and college, the year has begun with a bang. The freshmen are already participating in many activities and adding much to give the college some life. It is hoped that such spirit will be apprinted for the rest of the school year in hot only sports but in other activities as well. Let's give all the clubs and organizations some life, let's give the team all we've got and send them on to

Fun, Food Frolic at Churches

The Lutheran and Methodist cirurches of River Falls offer full programs of interest to college students.

The Sunday evening Fireside Hour is the main feature of the Lutheran Student Association. President Ruth Froiland announces that this program will start next Sunday evening, October 11, at 5:30 and will continue every Sunday thereafter unless otherwise specified. These meetings consist of a fafteencent supper, entertainment and a short program.

The L.S.A. is divided into four groups which include every Lutheran student attending college. The groups rotate each week in sponsoring the Rireside Hour in order to give everyone a chance to assist in this organization. Team B, under the direction of Carol Finstad and Elmer Hedlund, is planning this Sunday's program.

The Wesley League, headed by President Raymond Hoeft, started its year with a canning bee, and a renovation of the social room in the Methodist Church. The Sunday evening program starts at 5:30 and includes entertainment, a fifteen cent supper and a devotional service. The league also sponsors a dramatic society, the Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Wesley players.

virtory, and let's make this Homecoming better than ever before.

Gas Rationing Keeps Week Enders in School

about how fast the car will go, because thirty-five miles an hour is the national speed limit. But we can soon replace that worry with another one—how far will the car go on our allowances of gasoline. And just for good measure we'll have another worry, and that is how are we going to get home on week-ends!

According to present plans gas rationing is going to start on November 22. When this goes into effect, every car owner will be given a basic "A book", which will allow him to purchase enough gasoline to drive 2,880 miles a year, at fifteen miles per gallon of gasoline. However, a "C book", which has a flexible mileage limit, will be issued to those who absolutely need it. O.P.A. has also ordered that every car owner is to have his tires inspected every sixty days. Failure to comply with the speed law, or tire inspection regulations may result in the immediate cancellation of your gas rationing card!

In view of the fact that there is no shortage of gaseline in this part of the country, these regulations may seem a bit drastic. But these laws are for the purpose of conserving cars, tires, and lives, rather than gasoline.

This will undoubtedly be sad news for those students who have been in the habit of running around to the neighboring "hot spots" several nights a week. But it might help our grades if we settled down and studied a little more at night. It will also hit those of us who have been going home almost every week-end. However, if we can't stay away from home for a few weeks, we probably don't belong in college anyway.

Any Liszts, Ponses, Kreislers?

College students in general have a better-than average appreciation of the finer arts, especially music. R.F.S.T.C. has a very excellent department in this line, and urges everyone to participate in as many of the offered activities as he is capable of doing. Three teachers are provided who devote their time exclusively to the instruction of music.

Miss Cara Wharton specializes principally in piano. An accomplished pianist and organist herself, she is also a very adequate teacher of both. Either private or class lessons, including ensemble groups, may be taken from her. She also has charge of one of the campus choral groups, namely, the women's chorus. Any girl who enjoys singing will be welcomed into this organization. Miss Wharton's room on third floor of South Hall may be used by students at any time, when she is not giving a lesson, for the purpose of playing, singing or reading her music literature.

The director of our a capella choir is Mr. Geere. He has nearly completed try-outs for his choir, but would still be glad to add more tenor voices to the group. Besides directing this choir and giving voice lessons, he teaches several courses in music, including the history of music and music appreciation.

The best known musical organization on our campus are conducted by Mr. B. J. Rozehnal. His band and orchestra are heard several times throughout the year during assemblies and other special programs. These organizations have always been a great asset to our college because of their high standards of musicianship. One might mention, also, that Mr. Rozehnal is a very competent teacher of harmony and orchestration, besides giving individual instruction in instrument playing

Students, there is your list of musical organizations. If you have the ability to belong to any of them, see the specified instructor. It is the duty of every student to keep all of these organizations flourishing despite the noticeable absences of many of the former members.

Should it be necessary to keep room temperatures in school around, the only thing for us to do is "grin and bear it." Just how great the coal shortage will be in this part of the country this winter, no one seems to know, but some restriction of coal consumption is inevitable. Stout Institute is seriously considering shutting down for a while during the colder months because of a coal shortage.

Doesn't it seem a bit out of place to see so many faculty members using their cars for transportation to and from school during this period when the government requests that all non-essential driving be cut out because of the tire shortage? It could be easily stopped; for with most of them, riding is a habit, not a necessity.

TO THE PERSON OF The Party Committee faces more problems this year than ever before. The actual amount of money appropriated for social functions is smaller this year because of the decreased enrollment (This amount constitutes a fee and thus is determined by the size of the enrollment). The comparatively large number of students who will remain in town over the weekends this year means that more social activities will have to be provided for them. Although the social fund has decreased, the cost of entertainment has no.t Then, too, out- oftown dance bands will be hard to get because of tire and gasoline restrictions.

There is a tendency upon the part of some students to become over-familian with faculty members—even to the point of discourtesy. Remember that no matter how good a "sport" a professor may be, he can't help but rescrit twhen some "fresh" kid starts calling him by his first name.

Are you one of those innocent persons who believe that the absent-minded professor is a thing of the past? Brother don't be fooled When our own highly-respected Dr. Kettelkamp plans a duck-hunting trip for days in advance, readies his decoys and other equipment, and then forgets to take his gun, that's not only conservation.

FALCON Flashes Upset Eau Claire in First Conference Game of Season

A swift and offective acrial offensed midway in the third quarter paved the way for the 15-7 River Fails victory ovef Coach Zorn's boys from Eau Claire, At the short end of a 7-0 score the Falcons kicked to Fau Claire at the half. A fumble by the Zornmen on their own forty yard line with the recovery by River Falls started the boys in red and white on the move At this point they took to the air with a pass from Joe Ott to Lee Dosch netting 25 yards to put the ball on the Eau Claire 12 yard line. After two runs amounting to college here in River Falls. four yards Ott again passed to Dosch in the end zone for a touchdown. Ott converted to even the tally.

The second Falcon touchdown followed a virtual stalemate in the third quarter with neither' teath able to make yardage. A pass from Ott to Ubbelohde put the pigskin on the twenty-five yard line with an offside putting it back to the thirty, Ott's next, pass was intercepted by Peterson who was immediately tac kled. Horswill attmcpted a pass for Eau Claire, but Ott intercepted and carried it back to the Eau Claire 32. Dosch then carried it for a first down. On the next play Larson took it through tackle to the 11 where he lateraled to Storzer who scampered the remaining yards for a stouchdown. The extra point was blocked making the score at the and of the third River Falls 13-Eau Claire 7.

An unlucky pass at the beginning of the game gave the opponents their lone score. After the opening kick. off by Eau Claire Ott drove through for two first downs to the 33. A pass by Ott was intercepted by Horswill on his own 15 yard line from there he carried it to the River Falls 18. On three trys they brought it down to the 5 for a first down and on the next play Horswill went over for the first tally of the game. The ball split the uprights for the extra point.

The fourth quarter opened with River Falls kicking to Eau Claire who on the next play also took to the air but to no avail. The teams battled up and down the field when suddenly one of Linehan's great kicks put the ball on the Eau Claire 8 after it rolled out of bounds. Two attempted runs from punt formation failed to help the position of the Zornmen when on their third try Kramer (T) rushed through and made safety, making the score 15 to 7. A.L. ter an exchange of punts the game on the Falls eleven in 1928. ended with the first conference victory "in the bag" for River Falls.

River Falls had 11 first downs to Eau Claire's 5. Eau Claire completed 3 out of 7 passes attempted, 1 intercepted whereas River Falls completed 4 out of 8 with 2 intercepted.
