FFA Talent Show Highlights Carnival

Toby Garey Reigns Over Gala d' Hiver

North Hall Auditorium was filled to capacity Wednesday evening as the FFA Talent Show got underway. The enthusiastic crowd seemed to enjoy all the talent presented and waited patiently to find out who the new Winter Carnival King and Queen would be. When the talent show was over, Toby Garey and his date, Gloria Moncholovich, were crowned King and Queen to reign over the remainder of this year's activities.

The winner of this year's talent show was Kathy Kilbride with her serious interpretative reading of a Russian death row prison scene. Her portrayal had many in the audience in tears. Second place went to the Stowaways, a singing group and Chris Capun copped third place honors with a folk song medley. Most entertaining act honors went to the Three Brims, a contemporary singing group.

Thursday afternoon saw "R" Club defeat the Pinochlers 3-2 in one of the rougher activities of this year's celebration. That evening, Jim Schueller proved how hungry he was by eating 15 pancakes while his nearest competitor consumed 13. Friday saw the student body travel to Ski Mac to enjoy a day on the slopes after losing the basketball game Thursday evening to the Auggies.

Dave Cook and Ginny Apfelbeck set the pace Saturday morning by winning the Mixed Doubles Bowling Tourney. Second place went to Earl Finder and Anne Laue while Bob Olson and Sharon Kunsomer came through with third.

The beard contest winners were Jim Lukasiewicz (longest) Alex Romanowski (heaviest) and Don Engebretson (most unusual).

The Sitzmarkers fashioned a St. Bernhard dog to take first place in the snow sculpture contest. The Falcon Vulcans were identified as Tom Davee, Chuck Britson, Norbert Biss and John Neunfeldt. Both Linda Grogan and Larry Greenwold guessed three of four and Greenwold took the prize on the flip of a coin. No fish were caught at the Vet's Club fishing contest.

Book Store Has Tickets For Sale

Tickets are still on sale in the College Book Store for this weekend's production of "Arsenic and Old Lace" by the faculty. The production will be in North Hall Auditorium Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 o'clock. Proceeds from the production, directed by Dr. Blanche Davis, will go to the River Falls State College Foundation.

Intermission entertainment for the three act play will be "Music for a Farce" by Paul Bowles. The music will be provided by a faculty quartet consisting of Carolyn DeJong, piano; Conrad DeJong, trumpet; Dr. William Abbott, clarinet; and Daniel Lehman, percussion.

The cast in this play, according to a faculty spokesman, is "weird."

For example, there's Jonathan Brewster, a homicidal maniac with international achievements in murder. His striking resemblance to Boris Karloff is the work of his partner, "Dr." Einstein, a plastic surgeon who sometimes suffers from "bottle fatigue."

There are the two old-maid aunts, sweet, gracious ladies with the nasty habit of dropping arsenic in the home-made elderberry wine they serve to unsuspecting guests.

Then, there's Teddy Brewster who is convinced he's Theodore Roosevelt and is happily digging the Panama Canal in the base-

More nearly normal are the Rev. Dr. Harper, his knowledgeable daughter, Elaine, and her some-time fiance, Mortimer Brewster.

Debate Teams Tie For Second At Sioux Falls

Two Wisconsin State River Falls debate teams tied for second place in the annual Sioux Falls debate tournament Friday and Saturday, Jan. 26 and 27.

A senior team of John Rice, Ellsworth, and Anita Munson, Minneapolis, and a sophomore team of Kae Walker, River Falls and Tom Knutson, La Crosse, compiled identical 5-1 records. Miss Munson, Rice and Knutson were named Superior Debaters, while Walker and Sharon Collamore, a junior from Ellsworth and Judith Runkle, a junior from Dallas, were named Excellent Debaters.

Knutson also took second place in Men's Extemporaneous Speaking. Walker was fifth in Women's Extemporaneous Speaking. Rice was fifth in Men's Oratory and Runkle was sixth in Women's Oratory.

Fifty-eight debate teams from 26 colleges participated.

Annual Valentine Ball Scheduled for Feb. 9

Girls on campus now have their chance to invite their favorite fellow to the Annual AWS Valentine Ball. The dance is scheduled for Friday evening, Feb. 9 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Student Center.

"Play Me Hearts and Flowers" is the theme of this year's Ball. Music will be furnished by the Music Masters, a group of semi-pro band and choir directors from Northwestern Wisconsin.

The Valentine King and Queen of Hearts will be determined by drawing of tickets during an intermission. The coronation ceremonies will take place at 10:30 p.m.

Miss Hinson Will Counsel Swimming Club

by Leah Pitzer

The Physical Education Department of River Falls State College was recently supplemented by Miss Marilyn Hinson. She will be the advisor for Synchronized Swimming Club and is very much interested in scuba diving. Scuba diving, for those that aren't used to the term, is better known as skin diving.

When asked if she had any outside hobbies Miss Hinson stated, "We (physical education instructors) teach our hobbies."

Miss Hinson received her M.A. at Indiana University and her home is in El Paso, Texas. She is having a hard time getting used to the extremely cold weather this winter, as most other Wisconsinites are.

She taught for seven years at Beloit College. Miss Hinson stated that she will be teaching nothing special in the physical education department but will be just one of the faculty.

Last year's King and Queen of Hearts were Jim Beebe and Florence Newman.

According to tradition for the Valentine Ball, the girls pay for the dance tickets and food while the fellow is expected to buy flowers and furnish transportation. Tickets are $1.75 per couple.

Special permission has been granted by the AWS Governing Board to allow 2 a.m. hours for all girls from Hathorn Hall or Hathorn Cottage who are attending the Valentine Ball.

Co-chairmen for this annual affair are Diane Olson and Mary Hartwig. Others on the committee include: publicity, Marilyn Mellgren and Lu Ann Cipov; decorations, Carol Binkowski and Melody Sweeney; punch, Tessie Hughes and Linda Grogan; crowns, Pat Nichols and Shirley St. John; programs, Judy Harmon and tickets, Chris Laska.

2 Leaders Of YGOP At Capital

River Falls College will be represented for the first time this year at the fifth annual Young Republican National Leadership Conference in Washington D. C., January 29 through Feb. 3.

Robert J. Richardson, junior from Spring Valley, and Charles E. "Scotty" Smith, senior from Beloit, will travel to the nation's capital to participate in the conference as delegates from the College Young Republicans Club.

While in Washington the delegates will participate in a week of meetings and conferences, tour the capital city, and have the opportunity to meet and talk with leading national Republican statesmen.

Loudenback

Catalog Cover And Mural Done By Art Student

A River Falls art major has been making a quiet but substantial contribution of his artistic talents to the College during the past few weeks, though due to his modesty few people so far have realized it.

The student is Romayne Loudenback, sophomore from St. Croix Falls, who along with his art major is working on an English minor.

One of Loudenback's most obvious contributions to the College is the set of murals which since Christmas vacation has decorated the west wall of the Student Center upstairs dining area.

Loudenback was chosen from other art students to do the mural when he won an Art-Club sponsored contest to submit a design for the wall area.

A design created by Loudenback will also make up the front cover of the latest official River Falls College catalog, which is now in the printing stages and will be available soon.

Another Loudenback design was on the program of the Fine Arts Presentation, which opened in the Student Center on Monday, Jan. 15, and concluded today.

Psych Prof Once Singer In Hollywood

by Sandra Appleby
The new member of the psychology and counseling departments, Dr. Donald Lee Frye, was once known as Don Lee, nationally famed popular singer.

Dr. Frye, who grew up in Washington, Pennsylvania and graduated from high school there in 1946, began singing at U. S. O.'s and Officers Clubs while stationed with the United States Navy in San Diego.

He began his professional career, while still in the service, by performing at San Diego's "Green Elephant." Through its owner, he secured engagements at the "English Villages", five night clubs located in the Los Angeles area. Later, he was put under contract to Metro-Goldwin Mayer to make the vocal background music for screen tests. It was here that he met Judy Garland.

Miss Garland, who is described by Dr. Frye as "magnificent beyond belief", occasionally coached him, and others, for several months.

Although he was still in the service, his career skyrocketed rapidly. He made weekend appearances at such places as Earl Carroll's Theatre Restaurant, the Bel-Air Farm House, the Palladium, and Ciro's.

The most important single event of his show business career took place in May, 1948, when he performed with the Carmon Dragon Hollywood Bowl Symphony Orchestra, which was under the baton of guest conductor, Jose Iturbi. Others on the same bill included such celebrities as Fran Warren, Evelyn Knight, Patti Clayton, Monica Lewis, Doris Day and Vic Damone.

After leaving the Navy in June, 1948, he sang constantly until September 1 of that year. At that time he retired from the celebrity spotlight to become a student at Bucknell University. After receiving his Masters degree from there, he served as Assistant Dean of Admissions at Millikin University in Decatur, Illinois, for four years. Later he graduated magna cum laude from Garrett Seminary at Northwestern. He received his Ph. D., also from Northwestern, in June, 1961.

Dr. Frye likes particularly the direction of higher education at River Falls and its leadership. He also thinks the campus has a "naturalness that makes it quite unconcerned about sophistication." "The kids are honest, open-faced, and healthy-minded, and I like them," he said.

His singing career is not entirely inactive, however, for he manages to appear in public two or three times a year—usually at large benefits in Chicago. He was also invited to sing at the Hilton Hotel in Seattle during the World's Fair this summer, but has declined the invitation.

The student body will be able to hear Dr. Frye, either the last of April or the first of May, when he gives a concert here.

Dr. Frye believes he has a "just nice voice," but says it is nothing unusual and attributes his success to "pure luck."

Graham Receives Grant To Study Vote Trends

by Paul Arneson

A research grant has been awarded to Dr. Charles Graham, professor of political science, by the Wisconsin State Colleges' Regents Research Advisory Committee. The grant consists of $550.00 to be used for the completion of a project whose broad purpose is to learn more about the voting behavior of the American people.

The particular objective of the study, according to Dr. Graham, is to observe the reactions of voters to the religious affiliation of candidates: in this case candidates for the House of Representatives in the 1960 elections. Dr. Graham states that the 1960 elections gave an unusual opportunity to study the influence of the religious factor because of the differing religious affiliations of the presidential candidates. This project is designed to find out what voting patterns for congressional candidates were altered because one of the presidential candidates was a Roman Catholic.

The procedure being followed in this project is to compare statistically the 1960 voting patterns in districts of varying religious composition and varying candidate religious affiliation with each other and with past voting patterns. The early research for this project was done during 1960-61 when Dr. Graham worked for Senator William Proxmire in Washington, D. C. Research has continued at a rapid rate during the present school year with the help of students taking part in a political science seminar on this topic.

Dr. Graham hopes to finish this project by July 1 of this year, after which the results will be submitted to a political science review or professional journal for publication before the 1962 elections.

The grant which Dr. Graham received was one which the Research Advisory Committee awarded from a legislative allocation of $10,000 for the 1961-62 fiscal year. These are the first grants ever given out under this program as it was initiated by the legislature only last year, according to Dr. Philip Anderson, who is a member of the Regents Research Committee.

Dr. Anderson said that $40,000 has been appropriated for research and institutional studies for the 1962-63 fiscal year. Any members of the River Falls College staff who are interested in applying for research grants for the coming year must have their proposals in to Dr. Anderson by February 15.

Educational Department Releases Tentative List Of Practice Teachers

A tentative list of persons that will be practice teaching during Spring Quarter was released by the Department of Education last week. The department commented that some of the students that are listed have not passed the English writing proficiency test, have a grade point dangerously near the 2.0 required for student teaching or have not actually been admitted to senior division. According to the department, "it is the responsibility of the prospective student teacher to make sure that he fulfills these three requirements prior to enrollment in Education 180."

Following is tentative list of practice teachers for next quarter. If the list is incorrect in any way, Dr. Siemers is to be contacted.

Y-Dems

There will be a special Y-Dems meeting at 8 p.m. tonight in the Student Center.

Econ Club

There will be a special meeting of the Econ Club Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Room 201SC.

Testing Program

All students that entered College in Fall quarter that missed the 16PF testing program during that quarter and whose names are, therefore, listed on the bulletin board outside the Deans' office must report to North Hall Auditorium Wednesday at 1:25 p.m. to fulfill this requirement. Also, those that entered during Winter quarter and failed to take this test last week must take it at this time.

Newman Skating

Newman Club is having a "Skating Party" on Tuesday, Jan. 30, starting at 7:30 p.m. It will take place at the Hathorn Hall skating rink. Music will be furnished. Even if you can't skate, come down and join in the fun. Refreshments will be served at the Newman Center following the party.

Medical Corps

The Army Medical Specialist Corps is offering a three week's summer program for women students for the first time this year.

This program is open to women who will complete the junior year in college this spring. It is a work-experience program in the field of physical therapy.

Students who take part will be appointed temporary civil service employees and will have no military obligation for participation in the program.

Additional information may be obtained from Dean Nancy Knaak.

Latin-American Expert To Speak at College

Willard F. Barber, State Department Latin American expert and assistant to Presidential Assistant Chester Bowles, will speak to an all-school convocation Feb. 1 at Wisconsin State College at River Falls.

The address on "The Challenge of Latin America" will be at 10:40 a.m. in North Hall Auditorium.

Mr. Barber's background in diplomacy and Latin American affairs includes a period as deputy assistant Secretary for Inter-American Affairs.

He taught government and diplomacy at the College of the City of New York before joining the State Department in 1938. He worked on problems in Panama, Haiti, Dominican Republic and Cuba becoming assistant chief of the division of financial and monetary affairs in 1944.

The next year, Mr. Barber was named chief of the division of Central American and Caribbean affairs. After a period as deputy assistant Secretary of State for Inter-American Affairs, he served as counselor of embassy in Lima, Peru; Bogota, Columbia; and Warsaw, Poland.

Later, Mr. Barber was director of the department of political affairs at the National War College in Washington, and then co-ordinator of senior officer training at the Foreign Service Institute in Washington.

Mr. Barber also served as consultant to the Burmese government in Rangoon and as chairman of the Inter-Agency Mutual Security Evaluation Teams in Turkey, Iran and Pakistan. Last year he was named to a panel for examining foreign service officer candidates.

Born in Mitchell, S.D., Mr. Barber holds A.B. and M.A. degrees from Stanford University and has done further graduate study at Columbia University. He also is a graduate of the National War College.

Falcons Trip Cards 82-71

by Jim Norrish

The River Falls basketball squad continued its mastery on its home court as they downed the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee 82-71 Monday night. The wild and woolly affair was marred by bad passes, traveling, and numerous other basketball sins.

The Falcons are now 4-2 in conference play and 6-5 overall with all the wins coming in the familiar surroundings of Karges Gym. The Cardinals are fighting to stay out of the conference cellar with only one win and five losses.

Coach Don Page and his squad put on a final spurt in the waning minutes of the game after blowing a 23 point lead early in the second half at 54-31. With 4:22 left in the game the Cardinals cut the Falcon lead to two points, 65-63. The margin was 69-67 with about three minutes left in the game but the home team scored six straight free throws with Gary Scharfenberg coming through in the clutch sinking five to put the game on ice.

The Red and White had a well balanced scoring attack as the starting five hit in double figures. Forward Toby Garey led with 20 points followed by Scharfenberg with 18. The guards accounted for 29 points as Mike Rice hit 15 and Don Koepnick 14. Center George Wolf added 10 markers.

The Cards also had a balanced attack led by Roger Kriete with 18 points. Jerry Neitzel dumped in 16 points and Marty Harrison and Dennis Koehler added 12 and 10 points respectively. Harrison, a 5-8 guard, came off the bench in the second half and amazed the crowd with his accurate long shots.

Midway through the first half the Falcons scored 13 straight points to lead 27-11 and held the margin when the first half ended, 42-26.

The contest was marred by 45 fouls as River Falls shot 32-46 from the charity stripe and Milwaukee hit 13 of 20.

Pagemen Home, Away; Wrestlers Travel Twice

Only one athletic contest is scheduled in Karges Gymnasium this week as the hoopsters are at home against Mankato and travel to St. Cloud tonight. Wrestling Coach Bryon James and his matmen are on the road for two matches.

Tonight the basketball squad invades St. Cloud in a non-conference tilt. Last year the R. F. five met St. Cloud twice and was defeated both times, 86-74 and 76-74. St. Cloud finished the '60-61 season with a 7-3 conference record good for second place in the NSCC. Three of their returning lettermen are Bob Wolff, Gene Anfinson and Gerry Roepke. Captain Wolff, a 6-3, senior and sure starter averaged 14.7 points; while Gerry Roepke, a sophomore who took over No. 1 center position last year, averaged 12.7 points in eight games. The towering Gene Anfinson, 6-7, 185 pounds, played ten games averaging 6.1 points per game.

Wednesday night the hardcourt five will be at home to face the Mankato Indians. The Indians put the kill on the Falcons last year when they scalped them 103 to 57 in a non-conference massacre. Among the Mankato big-boys returning this year are: Norb Walter, a 6-2 forward, carrying most of the offensive punch and is a good rebounder; Leslie Sonnabend, 6-5, Sophomore starting at forward; Warren Schmidt, a 6-5 pivot-man at center. Starting at one guard position will be Joel Hagen, known for his good driving and excellent outside shot.

Mankato's over-all record for last year was 20 wins and six losses. Their conference record was 9 and 1, placed them as the conference champs.

Switching to the matmen, R. F. will meet Carlton mats on Feb. 1, and from here travel to U of M to wrestle the junior varsity.

Last week Carlton defeated Cornell College of Iowa, only to hand them Cornell's second conference loss in 22 years. Among the Carlton strongmen are Gary Osteraas, 130 lbs.; Dave Neal, 177 lbs.; Tom Rankin, 147 lbs.; Ed Young, 137 lbs.

Harry Wolfe, freshman guard, shoots a jump shot in the Oshkosh game.

Koepnick Leads RF Scorers In Mid-Season Statistics

The midway point of the basketball season finds the "hot and cold" Falcons battling to keep over the .500 mark. After winning four of the first five games, the Falcons dropped the next three games to St. Johns, Eau Claire, and a return engagement at Bethel. Last week they returned to the friendly confines of Karges Center and downed a strong Oshkosh five to extend their record to five and four. In conference play the Falcons are faring far better than last year, having a 3 and 1 record compared to the 0 and 4 record at this time last year.

Don Koepnick leads the scorers with 149 points for an average of 16.5 followed by Gary Scharfenberg with 134 points and a 14.9 average and Toby Garey with 127 points and a 14.1 average. Gary Scharfenberg leads the team in field goal percentage while Don Koepnick leads in free throw accuracy with an .833 percentage. The Falcons are hitting at a 72 point per game clip while their opponents are averaging 71.5.

Falcon Toby Garey hits for two points as two University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee players attempt to stop the scoring play. Moving in for the rebound is (34) George Wolf.

Tapping The Sports Line

by Jim Norrish

What seems to be wrong with the basketball teams in this area of the state or are the basketball teams through out the state weaker than last year? It is this writers feeling that this area is somewhat weaker this year as compared to last season. Not taking anything away from Hudson, Shell Lake, Durand, etc., that are on their way to a fine season, but it seems that many of the teams lack fundamentals. Everything is shoot-shoot-shoot and the emphasis on good passes, dribbling, and defense are lacking to a great extent.

Upon talking with a referee from my home town he mentioned a game in which each team went full length of the floor five times without taking a shot. That is ten times up and down the floor because someone does not know how to pass or dribble.

It is not only in high school that the play seems a little ragged. Last week when the Falcons played Oshkosh the game could have easily turned into a game of brute strength under the boards.

It could be Tapping the Sports Line is prejudiced but it seems our high school team (at Durand) of two years ago, which won only three or four games all year could battle the current team to the wire. They have a 10-1 record.

With all the emphasis on shooting it sure would prove to be interesting to watch a team that had some pride in their defense, a team that played man to man instead of a zone. It would add "zip" to the game and make it more spectator appealing. Nothing can beat the feeling of a player that has held a man that has averaged some 20 points per game to 10 or under. The crowd then, too, can see and realize the individual all around ability of a player and team instead of watching some 6-3 or taller player plant himself in a zone defense under the basket and pull down rebounds. That is probably all he can do because if he does not travel before passing the ball or tries to dribble he will probably kick the ball into the stands.

Bring back the spectator basketball with the wide open game of the fast break and the give-and-go. Bring back the team with ability instead of the team with height. Bring back a team that is strong on fundamentals and has pride in their defense. Bring back the good ol' basketball.

All-American

Dave Henderson's brother, Mike, from Colfax was named one of 44 members to the High School All-American Football team. He has the opportunity to play in a football game at the University of Oklahoma in May with the other All-Americans. Named to the team mostly on his defensive ability, Mike made a rugged offensive tackle that roamed from sideline-to-sideline from his middle line-backer position.

Sensational Shooting

Does a free throw shooting percentage of 91 per cent sound almost impossible? Well, La Crosse did the trick against Oshkosh when they sank 32 of 35 from the charity stripe.

Looking on as Toby Garey attempts to drive the baseline are (54) George Wolf and (24) Gary Scharfenberg. Guarding Garey is (33) Jerry Neitzel of UW-Milwaukee. The Falcons won 82-71 behind the scoring efforts of Garey and Scharfenberg who accounted for 38 points between them.

Auggies Hand Pagemen First Loss in Karges

Augsburg handed River Falls its first loss of the season in the friendly confines of Karges Center Thursday night in a non-conference tilt by the score of 80 to 71.

The first six minutes of the game were dominated by the Falcons as they jumped off to an early lead. Augsburg kept within close range until, with 11:13 left in the first half they finally tied the score at 20 all. The Auggies then put on a spurt and outscored the Falcons 21 to 8 in the last eight minutes of the half to leave the floor at intermission leading by the score of 41 to 28.

The Falcons, playing inspired ball in the second half, made a strong comeback late in the game. Aided by the sharpshooting of freshman Bob Pritchard and Gary Scharfenberg River Falls pulled within three points at 67-70 with less than two minutes left in the ball game. The Falcons then blew their chances as they could not cash in on their free throws.

Cold shooting from the foul line was the story of the game, as River Falls could manage only 9 of 26 for a poor .345 percentage while the visiting Auggies swished 22 of 25 for a blistering 88%.

River Falls outscored Augsburg from the floor, hitting 31 field goals to 29 for the visitors.

cons scorers with 21 points while Lloyd Raymond paced Augsburg with 25.

The Stout basketball game originally scheduled for Feb. 3 has been rescheduled for Monday, Feb. 19. The new date was set due to a conflict over the new high school gymnasium which was opened recently.

Matmen Tie Superior 14-14

The powerful River Falls wrestling team traveled to Superior Friday for a match with the '61 conference champs. The Falcons had to settle for a 14-14 tie, when, in the final match, Larry Julien was upset by Timm Stauffer in the heavyweight division.

The Yellow jackets got off to a fast start, winning the first two first matches. Bill Mc Creary pinned veteran Jerry Fehlen in the 123 lb. class with 1:33 remaining in the final period, and Tim Wilke squeaked by freshman Milton Peterson in the 130 lb. class 5-4, with a last period point for riding time.

Pat Mrotek finally got the Falcons on the scoreboard with a five to one decision over Bob Whitehead in the 137 lb. class.

Dick Culver and Loren Nordell followed Mrotek with decisions in the 147 and 157 lb. classes respectively. In the 167 lb. class Glen Getagen of Superior decided River Fall's Harold Christianson 7 to 3.

At this point the team score was 11 to 9 in favor of Superior. Jerry Halverson pinned Jim Rudstrom in the 177 lb. class to give the Falcons a lead of 14 to 11 with one match left. Timm Stauffer rallied to upset previously undefeated Larry Julien in the final match to give Superior a tie.

The La Crosse Indians proved that experience in pressure bowling is necessary to win. Maybe I'm using this as an alibi in explaining why the Falcons got beat by such a wide margin in their first face-to-face match at La Crosse last weekend, but it's true. We bowled our regular game, with a few exceptions, and they bowled a little bit better than average but that's what makes a team a winner. The Falcons put together games of 836, 960 and 861 against games for La Crosse of 985, 931 and 909. John Cook of River Falls had high game with a 254 and Corrough of La Crosse had high series of 606.

As of press time we are planning on a tough match against Mankato State. Mankato is one of the better teams in the area; it is leading the Tri-State conference and over the Christmas vacation took the holiday tournament at North Dakota by a large margin. With some experience under our belts now and being on our own lanes we should give them a fairly good match.

In the postal action the keggers knocked off a top dog but lost to what was supposed to be a little dog. River Falls recorded games of 855, 954 and 884 for a 2693 record series against Michigan Tech's 887, 892 and 859 which was good for three points for the Falcons. Norm Garlie of River Falls had both high game and series in that match, they were 213 and 576.

Against Ripon College, the Falcons lost 4 points by a close margin. River Falls rolled games of 895, 894 and 903 for a 2692 series against games of 899, 909 and 916 for Ripon. High individual bowler was Bob Zikmund of Ripon with a 210 game and a 587 series.

In the intramural bowling several records were set. There were ten 200 games, the Intellectuals set a new two game team series record of 1860, (5 man), the Minorgays set a new three game series record of 1639 (3 man league) and Les Anderson put together games of 228 and 222 for a record 450 individual series.

The standings remained the same for the first time in weeks as the IC's plus one took three from the Crewcuts, Minorgays took three from the Ding-Dong-Dons and Elmer's Boys took two from the Braduwa's. In the Regular league the same holds true as the Scraggs took three from the Alley Cats, the Intellectuals took three from the Pin Busters and the Gutter Duster took two from the Sleepers.

200 games in all leagues: Mike Lukowicz 231, 223 and 203, Ron Zirbel 231, Les Anderson 228, 222, John Cook 213 and 211, Robin Hoover 213, Lowell Roehl 212, Brad Goffin 205 and 200, Norm Garlie 204, Ed Gregorich 203, Roger Neitzel 203, Galen Pittman 203 and Vic Londo 202.
