'Universe of Palomar' Film-Lecture Topic for April 16 Convocation

Dr. Ruroy Sibley will present a film-lecture, "The Universe of Palomar," at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, April 16, in the RFSC Auditorium.

Sibley's experience as a Dr. Dr. Sibley's experience as a public lecturer extends over a period of more than 40 years. During the past 18 years he has directed his efforts particularly to the interpretation of astronomy for general audiences.

"The Universe of Palomar" is something entirely different and unusual in the film-lecture field. It will give the audience the first glimpse of what can actually be seen through the "Big Eye" of Palomar.

Audiences will visit, through this film, the major observatories of Lowell, Mount Wilson, and Yerkes, as well as Mount Palomar. They will see the first great close-ups of Mars, Jupiter, Saclose-ups of Mars, Supiter, Sa-turn, the Sun, the Moon and stars. Also seen will be an island universe two billion, five hundred million light years from the earth in one of the most spec-teredee accuracy of the most spectacular sequences ever made.

Dr. Sibley's lecture was ar-ranged by the University of Min-nesota Concert and Lecture Series.

Red Cross Sending Bloodmobile April 17

The Red Cross takes over South Hall gym on April 17, when stu-dents will donate blood for civil-ian and military needs. The Bloodmobile will be ready to go Thursday morning at 10, and do-nations will continue until 5 p.m.

Les Newville has been named general chairman of the drive, while JoAnn Bjornstad, Ruth Davis, and Royal Fraedrich are assisting him. Recruiting is to take place on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday just prior to Eas-ter vacation (7, 8, 9 of April).

Students between the ages of 18 and 21 who wish to donate blood must first receive permis-sion from their parents. Forms sion from their parents. Forms may be obtained from the table in South Hall during recruiting, which can be taken home during vacation for parental signing. Pierce County's normal blood quota is 750 pints; this year, be-cause of the Korean War, the quota is 1500 pints. The blood is used not only for the armed forces however Any person who is a however. Any person who is a resident of a participating coun-ty can get free blood when he needs it.

Modern American Drama Choice For Masquers' Next Production

Bob Easton and Joan Binkowski play the leading roles in the Masquers production of "Winterset," a three act play, to be presented on Thursday, April 17, at 8 p.m. in the college auditorium.

"Winterset" is the only modern American drama to be presented in River Falls this year. Most critics agree it is Maxwell Anderson's masterpiece and some believe it to be the best American tragedy.

The play is a story of love in | the slums. Before the scene opens (Bob Easton), the outcast son of an agitator has been railroaded the man who paid the penalty to death by a court determined for the crime, and the presiding to fix the guilt of murder upon judge (Al Usack), now driven out a man whom society had other of his wits by his attempts to do reasons to hate. A college profes- what he did. sor, reopening the case, has pointed the finger of suspicion at a released from prison. This role is played by Bob Anderson. The key to the mystery is held by Garth Esdios (Gerald Mott), a young witness lost in obscurity. During the play all those most deeply concerned converge on him: the murderer, determined to prevent the truth from coming out; Mio Thursday night.

With few exceptions the cast is made up of new faces. In the concluding forensic competition of the 1951-52 vear at Macalester College, St. Paul, on March 21 and 22, River Falls State College debaters ranked high among the twelve colleges and universities taking part. The local squad returned with additional honors of a superior rating in men's debate and a superior in oratory.

"The Provincial Meet at Macalester will be outstanding in our reminiscenses," said Miss Marion Hawkins, debate teacher, "be-cause of the fine work shown by the teams and the memorable snowbound phase of the trip." More than 100 students repre-senting 12 colleges from Iowa, Minnesota, and Wisconsin vied for honors in debate, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking in the men's and women's divisions. The schools were: Concordia of Moorhead, Dubuque University, Eau Claire State, Hamline, Luther, Macalester, River Falls State, St. Catherine's, St. Mary's, St. Olaf, St. Thomas, and Upper Iowa University.

Two instructors from the local toollege acted as judges: Miss Hawkins and Dr. Walter Engler. The former also acted as cochairman of women's debate. Top honors for River Falls included a rating of superior for de-bate with five wms out of six for the team of Ambrose Murphy good. Marian Aebly and Jean Aland Jack Hanson. Being seniors, this is their last tournament. They received a Pi Kappa Delta certificate. Out of the 20 teams entered three earned superior ratings: Eau Claire, River Falls, and St. Olaf. River Falls defeated the former and lost to the undefeated St. Olaf team.

In men's oratory Richard Au-kema won superior rating, a record for a freshman.

Ambrose Murphy and Roval Fraedrich, a freshman, took part in extemporaneous speaking. Am-brose received a certificate of excellent

Poll Reveals Juniors Study More Than Other River Falls Students

All across the country, and at River Falls, students were re-cently asked, "Aside from mid-term week, and final exam week, how

- From 20 to 30 hours ____16%
- 4. 30 hours or more _____ 5% 5. Don't know _____ 6%

The poll taken at River Falls indicates almost identical results:

- 1. 10 hours or less _____ 26%
- 2. 10 to 20 hours _____54% 3. From 20 to 30 hours ____12%
- 4. 30 hours or more _____ 6%
- 5. Don't know -----___ 2%

Locally, the juniors do more studying than the other three classes, which correlates with their having more members on the honor roll this quarter than the rest.

At the universities and other colleges, the graduate students seem to study most. Thirty-five per cent of them put in more than 20 hours a week, as opposed to 19 per cent for freshmen and 23 per cent for seniors.

"Most of the time you don't know what you're supposed to study for," complains a pre-law sophomore at the University of Akron. He studies less than 10 hours a mode Fut a combarrow hours a week. But a sophomore in music says she studies "whenever I get a chance," about 15 hours a week.

Here are a few of the other comments: Says a business senior at Bay-lor: "My courses overlap too much to require extensive study.

Says a senior in social work: "I work 52 hours a week and squeeze my studies in wherever I can."

Says a boy attending a teach-ers college: "I study 10 hours or less-much less."

Jeanne Bailey To Vacation Here

Miss Jeanne Bailey, former director of women's physical edu-cation at River Falls State College, arrives here Friday, April 4, for a spring vacation. She is em-ployed by Formfit of Chicago as a salesman in Arkansas and southern Missouri.

Many will be inteersted to hear that she missed the tornado that swept Arkansas and five other southern states. If she had not been crowded for time she would have been in Dircks, Arkansas, during the storm. As it was she had headed for Dallas and thus ran into the torrential rains that accompanied the hurricane

V.A. Explains Rules On Continued Study

According to an announcement by the Veterans Administration, students who will graduate in June or July and desire to go on for graduate study must apply to the VA before the end of this quarter or semester in order to be eligible for graduate work. If they expect to be teachers dur-ing the 1952-53 school year they must attend a 1952 summer ses-sion, to have further eligibility. A teacher during the 1951-52 school year who now desires to discontinue teaching and attend school full time to complete his degree work, may do so but must attend the 1952 summer session. He will then be eligible to con-tinue in school during the next regular school year. Once he reverts to regular student status from a teacher status, he may never revert back to teacher status (attending only summer sessions) again.
