

Four-Member Committee Heads Debate

In a radical departure from previous years, a four-member Forensic Faculty Committee will prepare River Falls debaters for this season's tournaments. Members of the committee are Miss Marion E. Hawkins of the English department, chairman, and Dr. George R. Gilkey, Virgil Kroeger and Dr. Gilbert Smith, all of the social science department. Miss Hawkins has been invited by R. D. Mahaffey, National President of Pi Kappa Delta, to head the Women's Debate Committee at the National Debate convention this year.

Squad Already Busy

Anticipating a busy season, the debate squad already has begun research on this year's national debate topic: Resolved, that the Congress of the United States should enact a compulsory Fair Employment Practices Law.

Returning debaters Heather Dopkins, Margaret Helmer, Jean Allie, Louise Thompson, Royal Fraedrich, Halbert Belt, Dick Granum, Eugene Isaacson, Earl Johnson, Tom Ingham, Herbert Tauchen, and Jim Cerello are working on the topic, which is an important issue in this year's presidential election and should prove an interesting subject.

The companion activity to debate, discussion, has as its question, "How can we most effectively combat the threat of communism?"

Six Debates Scheduled

Debates scheduled thus far for the coming school year include: Sixth Annual Bradley Speech Tournament at Peoria, Illinois, November 21 and 22; River Falls "B" Invitational Tournament, tentatively set for January 17; Ninth Annual Eau Claire Speech Meet on February 20 and 21; Twenty-first Annual Northwest Debate Tournament at St. Thomas College in St. Paul on March 5, 6 and 7; Madison Delta Sigma Rho Speech Tournament at Madison, Wisconsin, sometime in March; and the Eighteenth Biennial National Convention at Kalamazoo, Michigan, on April 5-9.

A cordial invitation is extended to all those interested in joining the debate squad to attend Forensic Night, October 28, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. The Forensic program at River Falls will be discussed and refreshments will be served.

LaCrosse Indians Meet Falcons At Homecoming

Homecoming season's here! Nomination of five campus lovelies for queen has officially inaugurated River Falls' most exciting season—two weeks of spirited campaigns and preparations, and two days and nights of Homecoming hilarity, October 24 and 25.

Organizations Back Coeds

Coeds nominated for the royal throne are Marilyn Haglund, Ilabelle Hanson, Jean Herald, Elayne Meyer, and Margaret Remund. Marilyn, sponsored by the "R" club, is a sophomore in rural education from Plum City; Ilabelle, backed by the sophomores, is a Deer Park sophomore in rural; Jean, choice of the senior class, is a senior from Baldwin majoring in elementary education; Elayne, the Newman Club's candidate, is a River Falls junior in elementary; Margaret, an Amery senior in elementary, is sponsored by the FFA.

Homecoming festivities have been scheduled to begin on Friday morning, October 24, according to Chairman John Mills. The snake dance around the campus has been tentatively set for 10 that morning. During the rest of Friday the students will be free to work on house and float decorations.

Pepfest Friday Night

Then comes the pepfest at 7 p.m. in the Auditorium, Friday. Skits, guest speakers (whose names have not yet been released), the choosing of the beard contest winners, and the announcement and presentation of the queen will be included on the evening's program. A snake dance will follow the assembly, leading to the bonfire downtown by the railroad tracks.

Twenty-Two Schools To Take Part in Fair

Twenty-two schools will participate in the annual rural fair here on October 31. The fair is sponsored by the college chapter of the Future Farmers of America. General chairman of the affair is Conrad Olsen. Serving on the committee are Ed Droemueller, Jim Chaffee, Jerry Easton, Gene Hartman, Ardell Linnerude, Don Labarge, and Lloyd Feltes.

COLLEGE SCHEDULES

'VANITY FAIR' FILM

William Makepeace Thackeray's "Vanity Fair" starring Myrna Loy as Becky Sharp will be shown Tuesday evening, October 21, at 8 p.m. in the North Hall Auditorium. Students will be admitted on their activity tickets. The film will last for eighty minutes.

The central figure of the picture is the chef-d'oeuvre, the immortal Becky Sharp, the transcendent type of social struggler, the cleverest, most amoral woman in the entire range of fiction. From the hour when she tosses Johnson's dictionary out of the window of the Sedley coach to her final appearance on the stage of the movie, she never falters in the bluff game she is playing with society. Her victims are numerous; her success, with slight exceptions, is unimpeachable.

The environment in which she is placed—fashionable England at the beginning of the 19th century—offered a great field for the genius of Thackeray.

'Student Voice' Wins Excellent Rating

Last year's "Student Voice" rated "excellent" according to the All-American Critical Service of the Associated Collegiate Press, results of which have just been announced.

College newspapers were judged by Gareth Hiebert, assistant city editor of the "St. Paul Pioneer Press." Judging was in the general areas of "News Values and Sources," "News Writing and Editing," "Headlines, Topography and Makeup," and "Department Pages and Special Features." Highest rating came for "Headlines, Topography and Makeup," while lowest rating came in the area of "Department Pages and Special Features."

The "First Class" rating for the "Student Voice" has been attained almost without break for the past four years.

Senate at Dedication

Nine members of the Student Senate were guests Wednesday at dedication ceremonies for the new building on the campus of Wisconsin State College at Eau Claire.

The Senate members were guests at an evening banquet and then saw the play, "The Royal Family", presented in the college's new Little Theatre.

Those making the trip were Ken Nehmer, Marge Deans, Jean Allie, Bryant Wyman, Jim Vandenberg, Jerry Easton, Don Schoedel, Bob Strain and Bob Richardson.

Opera Company Offers Reduced Student Rates

St. Paul's Civic Opera company will present three operas this season: "La Traviata" on November 13, 14, and 15; "Tosca" on January 15, 16, and 17; and "Carousel" on April 16, 17, and 18.

Prices at half the regular ticket rates will be charged students if season tickets are obtained in lots of ten or more. Students interested in season tickets are asked to contact Joan Grandinetti or Kathie Miller for more information.

University president Burnett poses between his two daughters while Mrs. Burnett and the local politician smile behind. The five are cast in "Good Housekeeping."

Love, Politics, Psychiatry Flavor First Play of College Season

Love, politics, and parlour psychiatry mingle in the Masquers production this week of William McCleery's "Good Housekeeping." Featuring all-freshman participants from cast to stage crew and rated by critics as a "thoroughly delightful comedy... lively, bright, and full of surprises," the play will be presented in the college auditorium Thursday and Friday, October 16 and 17, at 8 p.m.

Making her debut on the collegiate stage as Marian Burnett, a midwestern university president's wife, Betty Kastka of Ladysmith complains, "We can't go to bed because Katy doesn't want to be alone with Nate. Last year we went to bed before we wanted so Chris could be alone with Eddie." This is the role played by Helen Hayes in the Broadway production.

Co-starring with Betty is Kaye-Don Tibbetts of Frederic as the patient President Charles Burnett, whose family and local political boss try to push him into the Governorship. Like one of the present presidential aspirants, Burnett insists that he likes his job now and has no political ambitions.

The president's two young daughters, Katy and Chris, who even in their teens present bedtime problems, are played by Mae Wiskerchen of Pepin and Marilyn Murphy of Ellsworth.

Eagerly involved with the private lives of this family are a reporter, Eddie West (Orlan Larson of Spring Valley) and camera fan Nat Kahn (Bernard Decker of Greenwood).

Jim O'Neal, party boss, is played by Jules Shern of Hammond, and the maid, Mrs. Benson, by Ann Nygard of Hudson.

Sandra Betzel of Prescott, Marjorie Hanson of Baldwin, and Annabelle Eitland of Spring Valley appear as university cheerleaders.

Artist Arrives on Campus Today For Exhibit, Demonstration, Talk

Grant Reynard, outstanding painter and etcher, is now on the River Falls campus for a week of lectures and informal talks with college students.

Tomorrow at 1:00 Mr. Reynard is scheduled to give an illustrated lecture in the auditorium. Wednesday evening, at 8:00, he will give a demonstration in the Social Room to which the public is invited. Throughout his stay at River Falls, he will be painting in South Hall where all students are invited to watch his demonstrations and view an exhibition of his works. A number of his works are of scenes from this area.

The artist has a reputation for a knowledge of the great masters in art and an inspiring lecturer.

He is a member of the American Water Color Society, American Society of Etchers, Prairie Print Makers, American Artists Group, and Associate of the National Academy.

The work of Mr. Reynard is represented in collections of the Metropolitan Museum, Fogg Museum at Harvard University, Addison Gallery of American Art at Andover, the New York Public Library, DeYoung Memorial Museum in San Francisco, Newark Art Museum and the Library of Congress in Washington.

The Editor Speaks —

We Like 'um All

With the national election only a few weeks off, the editors of The Student Voice have been bewitched, bothered and bewildered by scores of curious partisans. They want to know if we plan to throw our editorial weight behind one of the presidential candidates; if so, which one; if not, why not?

We feel it is our obligation to print a positive declaration of intentions which will explain our somewhat erratic behavior pattern over the coming weeks.

To begin with, the editorial policy of The Student Voice lies exclusively in the Editor and those with whom he chooses to consult. Here we are confronted with a paradox, because the minute this newspaper reaches its point of destination, the editorial pundits are interpreted as those representative of the entire school.

It seems imprudent and unethical for us then to super-impose our partisan prejudices into the left-hand column of this page and sluff them off as the political echo and sanctified voice of River Falls State College.

To be absurdly frank, some of us like Ike, some like Adlai, some like both, and some like neither. On campus we have both a Young Democrats and Young Republicans organization. Well, we are members of both.

But regardless of how much we might like to usurp space to further our choice of candidates, we feel that the boards should be erased to allow maximum individual freedom of expression for every and all political points of view. We do not wish to make you conscious of our strategic position.

Thus, for those who wish to be heard, we act in these final moments of political passion, as a referee, rather than as a high-handed thought leader.

Notices

All organizations planning to take charge of activities on one week-end must notify the social committee as to which week-end they would prefer.

You can get in touch with the Social committee any Tuesday night at 6:15 in the Calico Room or see the president of the Social committee, Mary Shannon.

Students may get application blanks in the deans' office immediately for the selective service college qualification test which will be given December 4 and April 23.

Students and faculty members are asked to please observe parking regulations. Please do not park in restricted zones.

All students who intend to graduate at the end of the first quarter, December 3, 1952, should report to the Registrar's Office and make official application for graduation. Please comply with this regulation as soon as possible.

Critic's Corner

by Bill Gotz

Probably one of the most dynamic speakers River Falls has heard in a long while, Gerard Willem Van Loon lashed out last Tuesday at the product of the so-called miracle—television.

"A machine is only as good as the man behind it," said Van Loon, pointing out that he had no dislike for the technical aspect of television but only for the hash poured out over the channels by profit-hungry advertisers.

Instead of a great public service, advertising is a loop hole in the tax laws, according to Van Loon. Consequently, everyone pays for what comes over television and radio and the advertiser has a responsibility to offer programs acceptable to intelligent people.

The ordinary program now is aimed at "the immature and the neurotic" because the advertiser has found these people are easier to "sell," said Van Loon. It is time the audience realizes that "hashed up horse operas, soap operas, opera stars who pretend they can't sing, and the like, are an insult to our intellect," Van Loon added.

Van Loon combined a sense of the dramatic and an excellent speaking technique with a message and a fearlessness which makes his one of the outstanding convocations to come to the campus.

Senate Minutes

Tuesday, October 7, 1952
 The meeting was called to order by President Ken Nehmer. The secretary's minutes were read and approved.

An invitation to attend the Dedication Ceremonies of the new Laboratory School at Eau Claire State College was read. The Student Senate accepted the invitation to be the guests of the Student Governing body at this event.

It was decided that those organizations wanting to sponsor a week-end's activities should contact the Social committee about the specific week-end that they want.

Jerry Easton reported that the buttons for Homecoming are ordered.

A recommendation was received from the Social Committee that only one chaperone was needed at a dance which was held during the week.

Due to the small number of queen candidates entered by various organizations, the deadline was extended until Friday, October 10, at 5:00 o'clock.

The meeting was adjourned.

Kailu Reunion Held Here

by John Reque

The Kailu brothers and two ladies came to our campus on October 1 and performed for us in the North Hall auditorium. A large crowd was present.

The Kailu brothers are from Hawaii, and they brought with them several instruments which are played in the Hawaiian Islands. The brothers and the ladies who came with them all wore leis around their necks. Leis are also from Hawaii and added to the mood.

Among the instruments the Kailu brothers and the ladies played for us were the guitar, the ukelele, the banjo, and the violin. They also sang, especially the taller lady, who sang "Mexicali Rose" or something like that.

The Kailu brother who had the white hair was clever. He could play a tune on a saw, using a violin bow. It was just a plain ordinary carpenter's saw that he used, he said. And he also played some tin cans on a string, and a balloon. And then he played an inner tube which the tallest lady pumped up with a tire pump and kept full of air while he played it.

Also they played a guitar together, with one doing the plucking and another the twanging. Then one brother and one lady played the guitar and the banjo at the same time, the lady plucking the banjo and twanging the guitar and the brother plucking the guitar and twanging the banjo.

One of the Kailu brothers then played a tune on the electric violin, holding the violin in various positions, such as between his knees, on his head, and so forth. He also did magic tricks, passing a ball all over himself, and then he explained in full view of the audience just how he did the tricks.

For their closing numbers the brothers and the ladies who were with them played and sang "Auf Wiedersehen" and "Aloha Oe," receiving much applause from the audience. We can indeed be grateful to the administration or whoever it was that brought this group to us. Now we all have an excellent understanding of Hawaiian instruments and perhaps we shall all get to visit the islands some day.

Dr. Kent Pillsbury, Eau Claire, and Mike Motley, Alma attorney, addressed the Young Democrats organization on campus Thursday, October 9. Dr. Pillsbury, candidate on the Democratic ticket for Congress, and Mr. Motley, who is the Democratic candidate for the state senate, replaced Thomas Fairchild, who had been scheduled to speak to the group but was unable to appear because of a special meeting in Superior.

Mr. Fairchild is running against Joe McCarthy in Wisconsin's 1952 senatorial election. He is expected to speak in River Falls later in October and the Young Democrats have invited everyone to hear him.

A newly organized group on campus, the Young Republicans are inviting students sympathetic to their program to join.

Who Pulled the Social Room Curtain?

By Bo Peep

Reports from the bowels of North Hall have it that the local constable has been called on campus to investigate the theft of an irreplaceable objet d'art from the newly-decorated den of cultural activity.

Sometime during the summer months, thieves absconded with the priceless article, a magnificently hand-woven tapestry which came straight from the banks of the Brahmaputra.

Just when this treasure was acquired is not known, although a fifth-year senior of high repute has reported that it appeared on the east wall of the Social Room at about the same time a refugee professor from the University of Calcutta joined the faculty.

And there it remained, subject of connoisseurial conversation among the once-a-week visitors who know and appreciate the finer things of life. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

But tragedy struck this summer when the exquisite cloth disappeared. Of course, there are a few pseudo-aesthetics who say it isn't missed. After all, hasn't there been an improvement in the Social Room's appearance? Have you looked at it lately—or couldn't you get inside? Let me describe it for you—delicious avocado green walls inset with paper panels of virgin-white nosegays, inset with small circular mirrors to reflect the room's gracious atmosphere. Steel venetian blinds have been hung at the windows to keep the nasty sunlight from fading the newly cleaned pea-green carpeting.

However, this joyful news is no solace to those who miss the old tapestry. They want to know what has become of it. Anonymous phone calls have put forth the following tips as to the fate of the heavenly Hindu masterpiece:

1. It was torn up for paint rags.
2. They wallpapered over it.
3. Some faculty member has a new bedspread.
4. The occupant of 116S filched it for use in a theatrical production.

Oh, well, whatever the solution be to the crime, the thief should be pleased to know that his dastardly deed was responsible for the new paint job on the Social Room walls—for something had to be done to cover the faded spot on the wall where the tapestry had hung.

Falcons Spoil Superior Homecoming 20-14

Eau Claire - Falcons Tie 13-13 As Linehan and Murphy Score

Coming from behind, River Falls batted to a 13-13 deadlock with highly rated Eau Claire in the Dad's Day game here last week-end.

Eau Claire started things rolling early in the first quarter. Southpaw quarterback John Schemisch pitched three long passes to end Don Galuska. He caught the third one in the end zone for a touchdown. Schemisch also kicked the extra point and the Bears went out in front, 7-0.

A little later a poor lateral by a Falcon halfback almost resulted in another touchdown for Eau Claire, but an alert lineman fell on the ball for River Falls.

The second quarter began with defensive back Snell intercepting a River Falls pass. The Bears drove for the goal line but failed to make it. This time the Falcons came up with good defensive power and halted the drive.

River Falls took over only to have another bad break. A fumble was recovered by Eau Claire on the Falcon 14-yard line. Casey, the speedy back who has scored half a dozen touchdowns this season, ran to the one yard line. Schemisch on a quarterback sneak pushed over for the score. The try for the extra point was no good and the score now stood at 13-0.

Bob Wood picked up a first down for River Falls on a reverse. Then this speedster right half fired a long pass to Tom Linehan on the Bear 13.

Three more tries for the touchdown failed and Eau Claire's defense dug in for one more Falcon try. Joe Burgoyne faded back and threw to Linehan on a fine catch for the touchdown. The extra point try was no good and the score stood at 13-6. The rest of the half saw no further scoring by either team.

Tough defense by River Falls forced Eau Claire to punt as the second half got under way. Wood returned to the 40 and then Don Hubers and Clair Murphy picked up a first down on the 29-yard line. After a couple of no yardage plays, Wood took the ball on a reverse and with Eau Claire men hanging onto him threw a complete pass to Burgoyne on the fourteen for another first down. Hubers then raced to the one-yard line. The Bears' defense stopped two line bucks, but finally Murphy plowed across to make the score 13-12. An all-important extra point was made by Linehan to tie the score. The third period ended with the score 13-13.

Both teams fought hard for another score in the last quarter. Eau Claire recovered a fumble and battled down to the 38-yard line but was stopped cold. Later, as the time was running out, the Falcons drove for another touchdown. Hard running by left half Hubers and a pass to Wood moved the ball down deep inside Eau Claire territory. A final blast at the Bears' line failed and the threat ended. Minutes later the cold and weary Falcons and Bears called it quits for this year, with a 13-13 tie.

The Spectator

If those of us who sat in on the game between Eau Claire and River Falls wanted football at its roughest, we got it.

During the first half of the game the team seemed to have a "St. Cloud relapse" but really came to life in the later stages of the game. The outstanding offensive play of the evening was the Burgoyne to "Big T" touchdown pass. John Oedsma turned in a solid performance in the line as did Bill Gotz and Tom Linehan at ends. The back field of River Falls will be without the services of Jerry Route who will be out for two weeks with a shoulder separation. As a whole the team really started to click in the second half—but they needed to after the first period.

An injury riddled Winona eleven may provide the opportunity for the Falcons here Saturday night to even itself with Minnesota College competition.

Report has it that the Winonians are a vastly improved club compared to the one which was trounced last year by the Falls. The score of that game was 26 to 0. In their first three contests this year the "Peds" tied Stout 6 to 6, lost to Mankato by 8 to 6, and were beaten by Bemidji Teachers by 12 to 0.

If a comparison were to be made on the basis of both teams' showing against Stout, River Falls would be a definite favorite. However, the game against Stout Institute was the first contest of the year for this greatly improved club.

According to a report from "Ped" coach Gene Broadhagen, his squad is suffering badly from the injury bug. At the present five regulars are sidelined—the majority of their backs.

Winona works from a T-formation, while on occasion they use the single wing for power plays. This battle between the Winona "T" and the Falls single wing should prove to be mighty tough.

It was the first time in 19 years that the Yellowjackets have lost a Homecoming game.

River Falls marched to their first touchdown the first time they laid their hands on the ball. Bob Wood and Don Huber, Falcon scatbacks, darted around the ends for sizeable gains to move the ball into scoring territory. Joe Burgoyne mixed up the attack with two completed passes to Tom Linehan and the Falls pushed to the three-yard line where Murphy hammered over for the score. Linehan converted the extra point by placement.

Playing a repeat performance, Wood and Huber continued to pick up yardage around Superior's ends and Burgoyne connected on two more aerials to Linehan that placed the ball on the six-yard line. Huber scored off tackle and Linehan added the extra point. Score 14 to 0.

Huber grabbed the spotlight again in the second quarter, passing from the Superior 45 to our 35-yard line to Joe Burgoyne. Bobby Wood gave support to the cause with a downfield block eliminating the last Yellowjacket in position and Burgoyne carried the ball into the end zone. Linehan's try for extra point failed and the half ended, River Falls 20, Superior 0.

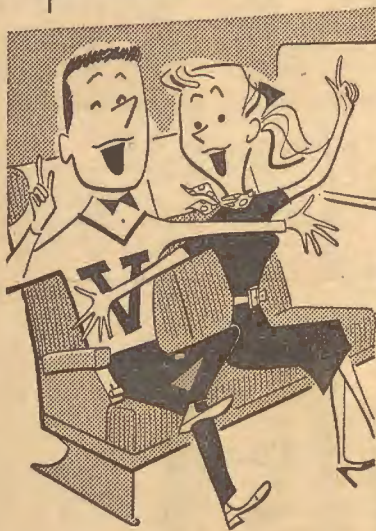

But someone juggled the scripts in the third quarter and Superior concentrated on passes, moving the ball up and down the field through a baffled Falcon secondary. Their first touchdown was produced by just such an exhibition, a long pass that balanced the scoring with a sneak preview of what was yet to come.

Superior kept pounding through the air and set up their second counter, a one-yard plunge, after completing 5 out of 9 passes.

The Falls seemed to lose a small degree of luster the last half as their attack floundered and their backs were constantly frustrated by Superior passing.

In the first periods, River Falls' line play reached a new superlative but sputtered, doggedly in the last half to keep stride with the rest of the ball club.

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
