FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1950 RIVER FALLS, WISCONSIN

VOL. XXXVIII NUMBER 3

Pep Rally Opens 1950 Homecoming Celebrations With Queen Coronation

Beards, beanies, skits, cheers, music, and snake dances were rampant on the campus of RFSTC today as Homecoming activities exploded into action.

Janice Jacobson Wins Queen Vote

Highlight of this evening's pep rally in the auditorium was the coronation of the Homecoming Queen Janice Jacobson who will reign over this week-end's Homecoming festivities.

The Queen, a sophomore in rural education, was elected by the student body in an election last Friday in the Social Room over Mary Lou Binkowski and Kathy Haessly. Other queen attendants will be Ellen Morrow, Jean McLaughlin, and Edith Olson.

Janice was born near Woodville, where she was graduated third highest in her senior class. She is an active member of C.W.A., L.S.A., and is employed in the college library.

Mary Lou Binkowski was graduated from Elmwood High and is also a sophomore at River Falls. A junior from Ellsworth, Kathy Haessly is majoring in lower elementary teaching. She was Winter Carnival attendant during her freshman year.

Queen Janice and her attendants, in the Queen's float, will lend the finishing touch to tomorrow's parade. The Queen's float is to be placed near the end of the parade this year, Ed Schweitzer of the Homecoming committee announced. The YMCA is in charge of making the Queen's float.

Dr. Neal Will Show Film On Hybrid Varieties

Dr. N. P. Neal, of the Univ. of Wis., will conduct a meeting in the auditorium on hybrid corn varieties next Tuesday evening at 8:00 p.m.

There will be a film entitled, "Wisconsin Corn Hybrids," shown and a general discussion on the Wisconsin corn breeding program.

Climaxing the day's excitement was the pep rally held this evening in the auditorium when the student body learned the name of the Homecoming Queen and judged both skits and beard contests.

Sparking the pep rally with an early start tonight, Lyal Bestul then continued with approximately two hours of program.

The session opened with selections by the band and greetings from the master of ceremonies and President E. H. Klempell. School yells, led by the cheer leaders, preceded presentation of the first skit.

R. A. Karges welcomed the alumni. Principal speaker of the evening was Superintendent Farrell of the Red Wing Training School.

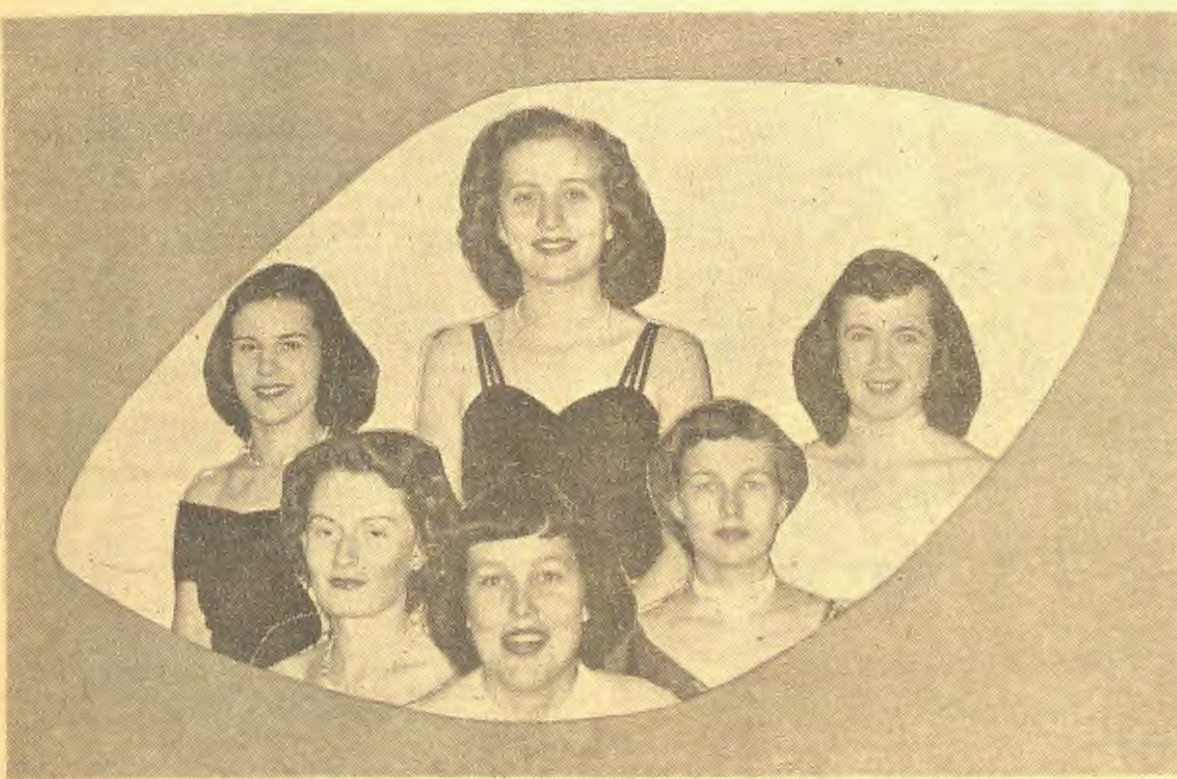

Coach George Schlagenhaut introduced team members who remarked on prospects for tomorrow's game. Music by the Skyriders followed.

Lyal Bestul, Homecoming chairman, crowned the queen, Janice Jacobson, and presented her with a dozen roses. Each of the other candidates was given a corsage. The queen had two page boys in attendance and announced the winners of the skits at the close of the program.

From the pep rally students meet in front of North Hall and proceed to the bonfire.

Social Group Will Show Sunday Movies

The Social Committee announced this week that it will start showing movies Sunday evenings at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. The first movie will be shown November 5. The title is "Flight Lieutenant" and stars Pat O'Brien and Glen Ford. There will be a charge of 15c to help defray expenses.

Pi Kappa Deltas Plan Annual Lodge Homecoming Luncheon At Park Sat.

Pi Kappa Delta members, past and present, and their guests will be entertained at the Glen Park Lodge tomorrow noon to observe the traditional Pi Kappa Delta Homecoming luncheon.

Attorney Lawrence Gherty, Hudson, will be guest speaker. His topic will deal with the investigation of Communism in the United States.

"Mr. Gherty's points on the subject should prove very interesting," said Miss Marion Hawkins, "as he has been in the FBI for approximately five years." Mr. Gherty was an active Pi Kappa Delta member while on the River Falls campus.

Next week the annual Speech Rally for students will be held at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, October 24, in the Calico Room.

Plans for the forthcoming academic year in forensic work and corollary activities will be explained by Miss Hawkins, forensic instructor. Jack Hanson, Pi Kappa Delta president, will preside at the meeting.

This annual get-together is to encourage students interested in discussion, debate, oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and other types of speech to learn the values offered by these activities.

CWA To Sponsor Hardtime Dance

A hardtime dance will be sponsored by the CWA Saturday, November 4. The Skyriders will furnish music for congo-lines, elephant-walks, and square dances. Come dressed in your worst—prizes will be awarded for the most appropriate costumes. Dated or dateless, everyone is invited.

Voice of the Falcon Aired on KAAA & WSHB

Heard over radio stations WS HB at Stillwater and KAAA at Red Wing, "The Voice of the Falcon," RFSTC's own radio program made its debut this week. The first introductory broadcast was made over WSHB on Monday, October 16, at 1:00 p.m. and over KAAA on Friday, October 20, at 11:15 a.m.

The first was an introductory program presenting a survey of the broadcasts to follow. The second broadcast featured the theme of Homecoming with an interview of Coach George Schlagenhaut and eleven members of the Falcon team. A description of the festival at River Falls this week-end was presented in a discussion by Lyal Bestul, Homecoming chairman, Willys Gjermondson and Ed Schweitzer of the Homecoming committee. Appearing on the program also were the three queen candidates, Mary Binkowski, Kathy Haessly and Janice Jacobson.

Programs are being prepared now by the professional, agricultural, speech, music and athletic departments. Other organizations are surveying the possibility of preparing broadcasts.

Programs are scheduled for 1 p.m. over WSHB (1200) Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and over KAAA (1250) at 11:15 a.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Largest Parade On Record Expected

Everybody is talking about it! Everybody is going! It will be the biggest parade that ever hit River Falls.

These superlatives were used by Ed Schweitzer and the Homecoming Committee to describe Saturday's parade. It will be something to tell your grandchildren about, they say.

The parade will begin promptly at 10 a.m. Saturday. Floats will be sent by the Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, Sigmas, A.E.E., C.W.A., the Dirty Dozen, Masquers, and the F.F.A. The Queen's float will be furnished by the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A.

The River Falls Drum and Bugle Corps will lead the parade and also participating will be bands from River Falls and Spring Valley High Schools. The campus will be the starting point for the parade which will move down Cascade to Main street and pass the reviewing stand in front of the theatre.

All units taking part in the parade must be at the college at 9:30 a.m. sharp.

Committee Cries 'Help!'

Scanning the horizon for ideas to help the Falcon Fieldhouse Fund are members of a committee appointed for the purpose recently by the Student Senate.

Norman Noah, chairman, is asking that any student who has an idea for meeting the problem see one of the committee members.

Serving on the committee are Harley Harkness, John Foss, Mary Boardman and Elaine Flick.

Students Are Eligible For Draft Delay

College students subject to the draft are entitled to a postponement of induction.

This announcement was made by General Lewis B. Hershey in a notice to all State Directors of Selective Service. Postponement of induction until the end of the academic year is based solely upon actual enrollment in the school at the time the call for induction comes, and satisfactory progress in the course. Rank in the upper half of the class is not a requirement.

Ralston Crawford To Speak Here On The Visual Arts Friday October 27

2nd Lecture Series

Ralston Crawford, who has established a national reputation as an artist of first rank, will discuss "The Visual Arts" at 10 a.m. Friday, October 27, in the auditorium. His lecture constitutes the second in the series "The Arts In Our Industrial World," arranged for RFSTC by the University of Minnesota Concert and Lecture Service.

Mr. Crawford studied at the Otis Art Institute in Los Angeles and worked in Walt Disney's early garage studio in 1926-27. During 1927 to 1930 he studied at Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. He also studied extensively in Rome, Madrid, Naples, and Paris.

He has taught and lectured at many art schools and universities throughout the United States and Hawaii.

He spent a period as a visiting artist at the University of Minnesota campus during 1949.

His paintings and drawings hang in museums, private collections, and galleries from coast to coast. He has exhibits at the Downtown Museum, New York; Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York; Library of Congress, Washington, D. C.; Albright Art Gallery, Buffalo, New York, and many others.

Mr. Crawford has been accorded many awards and honors during his career. Among them are a Louis Comfort Tiffany Foundation Fellowship, a fellowship to the Research Studio, Florida, and an Army Commendation Ribbon for duties relative to General H. H. Arnold's Report to the Secretary of War, 1949. He served as the only artist press representative on the trip to Bikini, Operation Crossroads, in 1946.

Welcome Back, Alumni

The Editor Speaks

With the coming of Fall there also comes the school's big event of the year—Homecoming. Many of the old grads come back to see the changes in their old alma mater, see many of their friends and classmates and chew over the good old times they had at RF. To you, grads, on behalf of THE STUDENT VOICE I wish to welcome you to another glorious Homecoming at River Falls.

I noticed there was the same morgue-like expression on many of the faces at the assembly last Wednesday. Many of them seemed in great pain when asked to give out a little more on a yell. I'm sure none of them were worrying about rupturing a blood vessel or straining their vocal chords. At every Pep assembly the same thing happens; everyone waits for everybody else to yell first with the result that no one is really doing his best.

I think the student body needs a lesson on yelling from the grads, so how about it, why don't you grads show these present day students how you used to do it.

With the movie situation the way it is in River Falls, mostly cowboy and other cheapies with few good pictures, I believe the Social Committee has started a good project by showing better movies in the auditorium Sunday evenings. If the students are interested in seeing good grade pictures this idea shouldn't fall through. There have also been some good movies shown in the Projection room on England.

I'll end this column by wishing everyone a good, sociable Homecoming with few hangovers. Have fun.

Notice

A carton of Chesterfields will be given to the student writing the best editorial for publication in the Voice. It must be at least 50 typewritten lines double spaced. It will be judged by the editorial staff of the Voice and their decision will be final. Editorials with school connections are especially adaptable.

I Wonder . . . .

by Helen Peterson

What would Homecoming be:

1. If a snake dance didn't break up classes until 3:00 Friday afternoon?
  2. If we didn't have a beautiful queen?
  3. If "Romeo" Trewartha didn't "unintentionally" break a stack of cafeteria dishes by Friday noon?
  4. If none of the townspeople lent cars, hayracks, garages, etc?
  5. If every organization had their float finished by Friday evening?
  6. If every girl in school had a date?
  7. If the Dirty Dozen presented a skit with only one "slap-stick" story?
  8. If none of the alumni attended?
  9. If every girl was in on time after the dance? (2:00)
  10. If John Augsburg was wearing his letter sweater?
  11. If Coach Schlagenhauf had a team without injuries?
- What do you think? Aren't you glad Homecoming is as it is?

From Our Files---

1 Year Ago

Queen Mary Carlson was crowned at the pep fest. Thirteen floats competed for prizes in the Homecoming parade. "B" squad topped Olies 20-7. The Falcons tied the Blugolds 7-7 at Eau Claire's Homecoming game. Colonel Larson, former College All-Star and RFSTC Alumnus spoke at the pep fest. Some Freshmen were painted for not wearing their beanies.

3 Years Ago

Janie Prescott won the queen election and was crowned at a mass meeting in front of North Hall. Miss Gibson attended a librarians convention. River Falls won the Homecoming game 21-13 from Eau Claire. Thirteen floats were in the Homecoming parade. Languages romance in Robbins class.

11 Years Ago

"The good witch of Frederic," Ester Jensen, was Homecoming queen. Teachers met at Eau Claire for a convention. Falcons tipped Stout 18-14. October was doughnut month. The 1929 gridmen were honored at the Pep assembly. YWCA installation held. Stout and River Falls bands marched at Homecoming.

19 Years Ago

River Falls defeated La Crosse 14-6 to win their Homecoming tilt. "Macbeth" presented by a New York actors company. Westerns were showing at the River Falls Theatre. Biggest class was the juniors. YMCA won first place in the float contest. Aspirin sold to the "after Homecoming" crowd. RFSTC band played at the pep fest. Classes of '21 and '26 held a reunion during Homecoming.

Watch for a pass, men!"

Don't Whisper - Tell Your Senate Why Your Social Life Is Slowly Dying

by Jack Hanson

It would seem, to paraphrase Lincoln, "That you can please some of the people most of the time, most of the people some of the time, but you can't please all the people anytime."

In any democratic society it is the duty of every member to do his best, as a leader or as a follower. If at any time enough of the followers are dissatisfied with their leaders it is their duty to investigate and to try to remedy the situation. If any of the followers have a gripe, legitimate or otherwise, it is their duty to see that it comes to the attention of the leaders and that something is done about it.

Whispering behind another's back is certainly not only the way of the coward, but it is also a very inefficient way of having your opinions heard.

I am speaking of the few dissatisfied members of the student body who evidently are dissatisfied with the social events on campus.

We must not condemn anyone for holding opinions contrary to those held by the majority.

But, if criticism is in order, get to the root of the problem. If you have a complaint tell the person or persons whom you feel are to blame. You can accomplish very little by intermittent beefing to your buddy, who has nothing to do with the matter and probably isn't interested.

You hear students complain that there is nothing to do week-ends. When there is something to do week-ends, there are complaints that it isn't what they wanted. If they went home the week-end that there was a dance, the question is, why wasn't the dance some other week-end.

If by chance a prophet of an description, preferably one of those fellows with all the hindsight who says a week after a dance, "I could have told 'em there wouldn't be a crowd that week-end," could have one of his visions a week or so ahead of time and would publish their findings we would all benefit—providing, of course, the prophecy held true.

The Student Senate and the Social Committee are spending your money. If you want it spent differently or at a different time, go to their meetings. The people on those committees are your delegates, tell 'em. If you haven't got time to tell 'em, Mac, SHUT UP.

Once Upon A Time There Was An Egg And That's How The Trouble Started

By Bob Doolittle

Dear Editor:

For relaxation, after an exhausting season of Russian roulette, and with the 1950 River Falls Homecoming snake dances and communions again a reality, fellow students and cocaine addicts flutter a roguish eye at the snake pits that lie before us.

As necessary background, Homecoming, taken from the Sanskrit noun, Homecoming, means Homecoming; thus by the process of osmosis we conclude that your understanding of this word is just as pathetic as when you ignorantly stumbled into this paragraph. Read on if you are a live-wire boy or girl who has nothing better to do than inhale literary subterfuge.

The story of this word, and its beginning, is a lurid caper that is read by most drifting mentalities instead of Dicken's Christmas Carol. But I digress; here is the story according to history's verbiage:

Once upon a time, in the year of 9,765,332 B.C., in the distant land of Pht, there lived in the kingdom of Tqw, two distinct groups: the people of Mdx and the people of xdm. Both groups contributed much to each other's culture, namely a spiritus furmenti that is much quaffed today in the environs of the nineteenth hole.

Each year the two teams from Pht, the people of Mdx and the people of xdm, gathered to drink each other under the roundtable. Wits rattled rapier sharp, lobbing verbal harpoons at every encounter. And then it happened. Quite by accident someone decided to try a Pteradactyl's egg in the nation's most popular drink, a Dinosaur Milk Mint Julep. Overnight it became the rage and spread like poison ivy at a Nudist ball. Tragedy had struck like a Monday morning exam.

The Pteradactyl's, realizing they would never receive any government subsidy for their efforts, struck for higher wages, shorter hours and more pay. Before you could say John L. Lewis the country of Pht was faced with an acute Pteradactyl egg shortage.

At the next meeting of the two royal teams there was much sadness of heart for there was only one egg left and the people of xdm had it. Meanwhile the people of Mdx were toying with the idea of Angostura bitters.

Suddenly one gay Mdx stuck his picker in an xdm's Dinosaur Milk Mint Julep and before you could say rumpelstiltskin, the fight was on. At last an Mdx speed merchant snatched the shellskin and exploded off tackle in a naked reverse. (He had lost his loincloth earlier in the tussle.) With blinding speed he sped through the door of the cave into open territory.

The xdm's all went home sobbing absently that they would return like MacArthur and Joe Louis. Only 1,000 decades later they did return, and this time recaptured the egg, which by now was soggy and illegible. Thus discovering a bully fine sport they decided to meet each year afterwards to engage in mass mayhem for the possession of the egg. Thus was the evolution of football and the first Homecoming.

Please excuse me for writing this with a crayon. They won't let me have anything sharp in here.

Sincerely,
Justin Misery

The Droop... ...Snoops

Photographer: "Please smile and watch for the little birdie."
Modern Youngster: "Oh, drop that 'little birdie' stuff! Get out your light meter and make some tests, adjust your lighting properly, and set your lens correctly so you won't ruin a sensitized plate."

Instructor: "So you really think your memory is improving under treatment. You remember things now?"
Freshman: "Well, not exactly, but I have progressed so far that I can frequently remember I have forgotten something, if I could only remember what it is."

Faculty wife: "I think married men should wear something to show they're married."
Husband: "I do—this shiny suit."

Instructor: "I won't begin today's lecture until the room settles down."
Voice from the rear: "Go home and sleep it off, old man."

Brooklyn Teacher: "What is a stoic?"
Brooklyn Youth: "De boid that brings de babies."

Instructor: "Here you see the skull of a chimpanzee, a very rare specimen. There are only two in the country—one is in the national museum and I have the other."

Father: "Young man, how in the world do you expect to support my daughter when I can hardly manage it myself?"
Boy Friend: "Well, what would be the matter with our going fifty-fifty on it?"

Droop wonders why there wasn't a very good attendance at the assembly program last Wednesday night? The students spend their money for these programs so why don't they come around and see where it's going.

House Mother: "Who broke that chair in the parlor last night?"
Coed: "It just collapsed all of a sudden, Ma'm. But neither of us was hurt."

History Prof: "What's the Mason-Dixon line?"
Student: "It's the division between 'you all' and 'youse guys!'"

Dean: "What is density?"
Hanson: "I can't define it, but I can give an illustration."
Dean: "The illustration is good. Sit down."

There will be a meeting of all the college students that study over Homecoming in the telephone booth at the Hotel Gladstone next Tuesday.

School is the place where you come to sleep when your housemother is making the beds.

Pointers Bump Falcons At CSTC Homecoming

Falcon gridmen failed to hold a fast first quarter pace and lost to Central State Teachers 21-7 before a Homecoming crowd at Stevens Point, Saturday, October 14.

The Pointers were "up" for their Homecoming tilt after losing to La Crosse 29-13 and giving Whitewater a 26-12 game.

River Falls tired quickly after the first quarter in which they gained 101 yards rushing and held Central State to a sickly 5.

Midway in the first quarter Pat Christie received a punt on River Falls' 35 and carried it up to the 50. The Falcons were charged with clipping so it was set down on the 35.

Morgan Gets Fumble
In the next play a fumble was picked up by Falcon end, Bill Morgan, who carried the ball to Point's 42. After four carries by Christie, Howie Matthias, and Bob Vogel, the ball was on the Pointer's 19.

Matthias then made the Falcons' only touchdown when he broke around the left side of the line to run 19 yards into the end zone. Tom Linehan made the score 7-0 with his usual accurate drop-kick.

Central State made their first touchdown midway in the second quarter after a costly fumble by Bill Wisdom, Falcon fullback, was recovered by David Specht, Point tackle, on the Falcon 29.

A pass from Walt Samelstadt to Dave Bliese was good for 21 yards and two running plays put the ball on the River Falls 11. Two passes, one to Bill Sanks, and one to John Potter, put them on the Falcon 6. Norbert Miller tried the right side of the line for six yards and a touchdown.

Miller, who can boot the ball as well as he can carry it, made the point after touchdown to knot the score at 7-7.

The Pointer's second touchdown came with one minute remaining in the third quarter.

Roger English, Pointer back, intercepted a pass which Christie had meant for Morgan on the Stevens Point 37.

Three runs by Miller and Potter totaling 28 yards and a 10 yard pass from Samelstadt to Bill Koch brought the ball to the Falcon 14.

Miller Scores
Miller then squeezed past the Falcon defense to score on a 14 yard run over the left side of the line. His kick from placement was good and put Central State in the lead 14-7.

River Falls threatened a comeback in the opening minutes of the last period.

"Fumble-itis"
Eight yards from the Stevens Point goal line they lost the ball on downs. Here "fumble-itis" set in on both teams. River Falls recovered a Point fumble on the 5 yard line only to lose it on the next play.

From here the Pointers marched 95 yards without stopping before Samelstadt tasted pay dirt on a quarterback sneak from the 2.

Potter added the point after touchdown on a run into the end-zone around right end.

The last four minutes of the contest passed with no changes in score. The game closed with Central State Teachers on the long end of a decisive 21-7.

British Film To Be Shown At School

Another evening of British films is scheduled here for October 25 at 7:45 p.m. in the visual aids room.

Along with the films there will be an exhibition of pictures and travel folders from Britain. Documentary films to be shown include "Instruments of the Orchestra," featuring the London Philharmonic Symphony; "Beethoven Sonata," with Dame Myra Hess, world-renowned pianist; "English Gardens," and "Children on Trial." Following showing of the films coffee will be served in the cafeteria.

Falcons vs Bluegolds Tomorrow at Ramer

Eau Claire's Bluegolds will provide the Homecoming opposition for the Falcons tomorrow afternoon at Ramer Field.

Back in '48 was the last time Eau Claire provided the Homecoming opposition. That year found the two teams battling for conference honors with Eau Claire coming out on top with a 13-7 victory. Last year the two teams played to a 7-7 tie at Eau Claire.

Eau Claire will bring a strong team to match the Falcon grid-ders on their home field. Eau Claire can point with pride at its record of three wins, one loss, and one tie.

Their first two wins were over non-conference foes, 14-6 over Moorhead Teachers, and 13-0 over Winona. Conference play proved to be much harder as they bowed to an outstanding Stout eleven 21-0.

The loss to the Bluedevils did not discourage the Bluegold and they came back the following week with a 28-0 triumph over Oshkosh. This was Eau Claire's Homecoming and a very successful one at that. Last week Eau Claire battled Superior to a 7-7 tie, the same score the Falcons emerged with when they tangled with Superior.

If this is any indication of the strength of the two teams it should be quite a battle tomorrow afternoon.

Rural Fair at RF Friday, October 27

Plans are complete for the annual rural fair to be held October 27 at River Falls State Teachers College.

Sponsored by the college F.F.A. chapter, the fair will be attended by children from approximately 20 area schools.

Six or seven schools will have individual booths while general booths will be set up for exhibits from other schools. Each school will enter a three member judging team. Prizes will be awarded to worthy exhibits and events.

An afternoon program in the college auditorium will consist of a play by the fourth grade of the campus training school, a few selections by the college band, awarding of prizes, a speaker from Madison, and a short movie.

General chairman for the fair is Paul Sylla, senior. Other committee chairmen are: Don Tribensee, individual booths committee; Don Rogness, general booths committee; Bob Potosnak, set-up committee; Don Euclide, entertainment committee; Cletus Mac-coux, publicity committee; and George Breska, clean-up committee.

Benson, Former Falcon, Scoring For Lakers Now

Newman Benson, former Falcon star of the past four years, is making a valiant bid to secure a position with the Minneapolis Lakers.

Benson made his first start of the season Tuesday night in an exhibition game at Hibbing, Minnesota, against the Indianapolis team. In a thrilling burst of offensive play Benny dropped in three quick baskets for six points in his evening's play.

Dr. Gordon Stone Elected President Of Student Teaching Association

River Falls State Teachers College will be host next year at the third annual conference of the Wisconsin Association for Student Teaching.

Dr. L. Gordon Stone, elected as president of the association for the coming year, extended the invitation for the group to meet at the local school in 1951. Dr. Stone was selected to head the organization at the second annual conference held at Central State Teachers College, Stevens Point, last Saturday.

Also participating in the meeting was Robert Fiesler who was a member of a panel discussion on "School and Community Laboratory Experience of Student Teach-

Communist Issue Discussed At RFSTC

"Communism" was the issue at the meeting Wednesday, October 11, of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors. Separate phases of the subject were discussed by Dr. Blanche Davis of the speech department and Dr. Walker Wyman of the history department.

Dr. Davis spoke and led a discussion on "Civil Rights for Teachers." Dr. Wyman's topics were "The Loyalty Oath" and "Shall Communists Teach?" The program was introduced by Catharine Lieneman, A.A.U.P. president.

Jadinak Warms The Orchestra's Air

Women of the college orchestra weren't quite sure how to take a remark of their conductor the other evening.

Sitting listening to a recording they had just completed, the girls in the group complained of being cold near an open window. Said Conductor Nick Jadinak, "Are you cold, girls? Come over here and sit by me." Then, blushing, he added lamely, "I mean, it's warmer on this side of the room."

STEVENS POINT SURPRISE

The person that said freshmen are underclassmen lied in his teeth and he'd better not let Norm Miller, 178 pound back of Stevens Point, hear him. Saturday he was in a class by himself.

River Falls, favored to walk away with last week's meet, scored the first time they had their hands on the ball. Then with Miller painting the rest of the picture, the scenery did a quick re-take into Falcon territory. Twisting over tackle from the six yard line, the plebe hurricane stormed into the end zone for their first counter. Point after touchdown he made by placement.

With frustrating repetition Miller played a repeat performance for his second tally, via an end run and added the placement again for a 14 point evening. The Pointers wound up with 310 yards from rushing after the Falcons held them to a miserable 5 yard profit at the end of the first stanza while marching uninterrupted to 101 yards. Of the Pointmen's total yardage the frosh twinkle toe accounted for 181, without noticing punt returns, for an average of 9 yards a try, 19 times confirming his authority in the backfield department.

But now, interpret. It wasn't a story of Stevens Point power and the game wasn't lost because of bad breaks. Injuries spelled in capital letters a bandaged and tired Falcon eleven that was thinking further ahead than last week's game—to the one that means the most to the school and the spectators, to the coach and certainly the players—our Homecoming with Eau Claire tomorrow.

FALCONS WIN PERCENTAGE NOD

The Falcon football preachers will be standing solidly in their pigskin-pulpit Saturday, delivering an inspiring sermon. It will be directed to the Eau Claire Blugolds and taken directly from the text "thou shalt not score."

Since the birth of the Eau Claire-River Falls classic back in 1898 the Falcons have sent the Blugolds shuffling home fourteen times to chalk up losses in the loser's ledger. While winning by this margin, River Falls lost six games and counted in two ties.

Operating from the T-formation, Eau Claire depends a good deal on speed for their scoring punch. Their passing has been on the weak list but they have been outstanding in pass defense this season.

A squad of 17 returning lettermen sparked their roster at the start of the grid schedule this year but two first string ends, Rog Steen with a broken ankle, and Gene Johnson called into service, have been lost for the rest of the season.

The backfield centers around vets Dick Olson, Warren Buckli, and Bob Funk. Ready replacements are Bill Thorpe, Jerry Fisher, Skip Wick, Don Annis, and Don Schomish. Schomish is a freshman quarter from Chilton who flips the aerial chores left-handed. Annis plays either at quarterback or full.

Thus we deduce if River Falls were to play Eau Claire on paper Saturday, according to percentage and performances, it's in the Falcon bag. Due, however, to an ancient precedent of playing football on appropriate fields and the present critical shortage of paper, this will be impossible. The next best way is on Ramer Field. And that's just how Coach Schlagenhauf and Co. propose to do it.

UNDER THE SHOULDER PADS

Petrillo's ban on records didn't seem to affect Tom Linehan, local left end. He kept right on making, or rather breaking records, while Harry James and Woody Herman tooted glumly, and in private. His records were athletic—it was legal the books say.

Tom went to River Falls High School, graduating in 1946, but not before the record books were changed a few times. The 205 pound wingman for the 1950 Falcons, lettered two years in football, four years of basketball, four seasons of boxing and threw in a couple seasons of track just for good measure. The high school educational emporium gained trophies for conference crowns in basketball, where he was captain, in 1946, and in '44 and '43, plus football in 1945.

He swapped corduroys for Marine Corps khaki after graduation and served until 1948 when he was discharged and enrolled at RFSTC. A 60 minute man, Tom was voted "outstanding player" by his grid mates at the end of the football schedule.

St. Croix Valley baseball bugs saw him in action this summer playing with Hudson. Bating around .350 on one of his better nights he led the Raider stick brigade with two out-of-the-park homers and wrote his name on a single at four trips to the plate.

But the chances of writing a feature or getting an interview on Tom are monotonously low, unless you don't mind browsing through record books. He just won't talk; yet his records speak for him.

SPORT SNORTS

Viewing the recent beard growing contest here last week, the college mustache evidently inspired the installment plan. You know, a little down and a little more each week.

College football teams may soon have to divide their team into three groups. One offensive, one defensive and one to attend classes.

Indoor sports are all right. If they go home at a reasonable hour.

Stout Is Final Conference Tilt For R. F.

Saturday, October 28, will mark the final conference game for Coach George Schlagenhauf's Falcons when they take on the highly rated Bluedevils at Menomonie.

Unofficially we beat Stout last year 12-7 although the game was later declared a forfeit when the conference ruled Pat Christy as ineligible. This enabled Stout to claim a tie for conference honors along with La Crosse and Stevens Point.

This year's Stout gridmen are even tougher than last and feature a squad backed by at least two able reserves at every position.

Stout Ties Milwaukee

Milwaukee's Greengulls startled the conference ranks two weeks ago when they played the Bluedevils to a 6-6 tie. Milwaukee narrowly missed victory, having drives stopped on the one and four yard lines in the second half.

Stout opened their conference season with an impressive 21-0 whitewash job over Eau Claire. This was followed by the 6-6 tie with Milwaukee. Last week they regained their previous scoring punch with an impressive 27-6 Homecoming win over seventh place at Platteville.

The Bluedevils are probably the only team, with the exception of La Crosse, in the conference that has enough men that they can send in separate defensive and offensive teams.

Starting Lineup

Probable starting offensive lineup for the Bluedevils will find Vaughn Stai and Russ Pollock at ends, Ted Hein and Sam Basile at tackles, Carl Turk and Tiny Norman at the guard positions and Dale Digerness at center. The backfield will find Gale Woelffer at quarterback, Bill Kieffer and George Krall at half and Harter Peterson at full.

The defensive lineup will probably find Herb Markley and John Debrauske at ends, John Widmar and Ken Arndt at tackles, Joe Stebly and Al Hoppe at guard, with Richard Schmidt at center. The backfield will include Bill Kieffer, George Krall, Verne Christenson and Red Walker.

Gale Woelffer and Bill Kieffer are two men who will bear plenty of watching. They handle the passing duties and can pitch a football with uncanny accuracy. Last year Woelffer kept the Falcons in hot water during the entire game with his remarkable marksmanship continually finding the target area.

Falls Keglers Start Schedule

The irregular pulse of bowling balls on maple alleys is again a common occurrence. River Falls State Teachers college intramural department has organized two leagues which will begin competitive bowling next week.

This year there is a men's league and a mixed league. Men will bowl Friday nights and the mixed (men and women) will bowl in the afternoon on some regular day, probably Thursdays.

Six teams have signed with Oscar Sjowall, head of the intramural department, for entrance in the men's league. Three teams are listed in the mixed league.

The following teams have entered the men's league: Strikers, Sainly Sinners, House of Tobey, "100" Club, F.F.A., and Strikes and Spares. The Newman Club has entered two teams in the mixed league and the W.A.A. has listed one.

Each team or prospective team is asked to send representatives to room 121, North Hall, Tuesday, October 24 at 4:00 p.m.

"Three Men on a Horse" Scheduled For November 1 and 2 by Masquers

"I wonder if the old church stands
Where we trudged our way on Sundays;
I recall how we sat with folded hands
So now I don't ever get drunk no more on Tuesdays or Mondays."

As a tender sentiment for a Mother's Day greeting card, that verse inspires explosive comments from the cast of "Three Men On a Horse." In the production scheduled November 1 and 2 by the Masquers, Charlie (Pete Russ) defends his own literary inspiration, maintaining, "It's the right idea, ain't it. He's thinkin' of his mother, see--"

Staying sober two days a week out of respect for mother still fails to impress Erwin (Joe Trentor), mild and prosaic greeting card poet, who has been thrust suddenly into the limelight by a peculiar ability. Somewhat like Pappy Yocum in "Li'l Abner," Erwin turns out to be a "gold-sniffer" for horse races.

Grabbing greedily at Erwin's horse-doping genius are Patsy (Dick Armstrong) and his girl friend Mabel (Pat Stevens and Marilyn Fiedler) who don't like having to pawn their clothes periodically.

Equally eager are Patsy's pals, Frankie ("Scooter" Kallien); Harry, the bartender (Norman Noah) who would like to retire from the bar; Clarence (Earl Enge) who wouldn't mind making a killing with his brother-in-law's talent. Moses (Clyde Weber), the colored elevator boy, really has more faith in numbers, but he'll settle for a sure horse.

The redoubtable Mr. Carver (Alan Peabody), Erwin's blustering boss, just wants to protect his poetical prowess and keep any rival companies out.

Audrey (Betty Wiskerchen) doesn't care about Erwin's ability—she just wants Erwin.

Also in the cast in supporting roles are Jerry Donley, Francis Andrus, Alice Luck, Nancy Behrens, Don Culver, and Paul Radtke.

One member of the cast gave the recipe used for hilarity. "Combine 'Three Men On a Horse' with one chorus girl, spiced with an irate business man, and a suspicious brother-in-law. Add a timid poetic soul thoroughly confused by his wife, plaster him with Scotch and put the mixture on to boil. Stand back while the lid blows off."

Vets Hold Annual Election Of Officers

The College Veterans Organization resumed activity recently by holding its first meeting of the year. An election of officers took place. Dick Armstrong, junior, will head the organization. Other officers are Bud Davis, senior, vice-president; Shorty Zabel, senior, secretary; and Carl Kocker, junior, treasurer. Mr. McCarthy has been asked to serve as faculty advisor.

Led by Joe Trentor, the steed bearing "Scooter" Kallien, Dick Armstrong and Pete Russ is not the usual mode of transportation at River Falls State Teachers College. As a matter of fact the boys really aren't going anywhere. They're just driving home a plug for "Three Men On a Horse" to be presented by the Masquers at the auditorium November 1 and 2.
