ST. MARY'S QUINT HUMBLIED BY RED AND WHITE FIVE

Coming up with a defeat from the previous week, the Red and White five handed the Minnesota college team a decisive defeat of 20 to 9.

The early part of the game neither team seemed to be hitting a very good stride and possibilities for a good game seemed to fade away. The visitors were kept on the defense most of the time and after about five minutes of play the local's offense proved effective and remained that way for the remainder of the period. Booty scored two ringers in rapid succession and immediately after Betzel intercepted a pass and dribbled in for a ringer and a count of two. The visitors had very little chance to show their skill in basket-shooting and when they did try, resorted to long shots. Booty would not be held down and put two more through the hoop, followed by Betzel and Captain Carolan. At this time the visitors got a close in shot and scored their first field basket and a little later the first period was over with the Red and White having a comfortable lead of 15 to 4.

The second half was almost a different kind of game than the first half and River Falls did not come up to their effective offensive playing. The game was considerably slowed up, due to numerous fouls by both teams. Both teams used several substitutes, Melvin going in for Carolan, and about five minutes later Jim went back in the game and Hyatt replaced Field. The locals scored five points before the visitors had scored at all. The visitors started with a free throw and immediately after a luck over-hand attempt from the center scored a field goal, and just before the final whistle got a ringer from the side line. The visitors scored only three field goals during the game, showing very effective guarding. Butenhoff easily out-jumped his opponent and figured strong in the scoring by caging four field goals. Betzel was instrumental in breaking up St. Mary's offense before it got any headway and also

"THE SHEIK"

Dramatic Story of the Desert, With Great Cast.

Sheik Ahmed Hassan, leader of an Arab tribe, determines to conquer the pride of a haughty but beautiful English tourist, Diana Mayo, by capturing her and making her one of his slaves. By disguising herself, Diana gains admittance to the gambling Casino at Briska, where Shiek Ahmad is holding a fete. The Shiek discovers her, however, and declares she shall pay for her rash act. Diana escapes by plunging the room into darkness and firing her pistol.

The Shiek learns she is to start for the desert next day and makes his plans accordingly. After Diana's brother leaves her at her desert camp and returns to Briska, the Shiek attacks the caravan and Diana is captured and carried to his oasis camp.

He orders her to obey his commands and despite her haughty refusals, tears and prayers, he bends her to his will, but desists in his unwelcome attentions, when she holds before him a crucifix and falls to her knees in prayer. She is reduced to the level of a slave. After a week of obedience to this stern but attractive master, she begins to feel a certain sense of happiness but is piqued when Shiek Ahmed informs of the coming of Raoul de Saint Hubert, the author of a book she has been reading and an intimate Parisian friend of his, she not wishing to be humiliated before one from her own fashionable world.

Shiek Ahmed leaves to meet his author friend, giving Diana the privilege of riding outside the camp. Seizing an opportune moment, she stampedes the horse which her escort is riding and dashes for freedom, but the horse falls and breaks his leg. She sights a distant caravan and makes for it, not knowing that this is the hated Omir, the desert bandit and his band of marauders. Omair sights the girl and immediately desires her, only to see

SECOND CONFERENCE

GAME TONIGHT!

Tonight the Red and White basket-tossers will meet the Eau Claire Normal quintet in the second conference game of the season. Eau Claire has been after the Red and White basketball scalp for the past two seasons. The Eau Claire Normal is represented by a strong five, having defeated Superior 24 to 14, Stevens Point 30 to 13, and will probably prove to be one of our strongest opponents.

SKATING CLUB FORMED

An organization known as the River Falls Skating Association has been formed by some of the town people. Its object is to maintain a skating rink on the upper pond, near the trestle, so that those who are interested in this sport can enjoy themselves during the winter months. Membership buttons are being sold by the G. A. A.

PLAY COMING

The Agrifallian benefit play, "Clarence," will be given Feb. 2. This play written by Booth Tarkington, author of "Seventeen," is full of action from start to finish.

Pauline Severson will leave Sunday for Superior, where she will attend school.

John Reno, a member of last year's graduating class, has returned to school for more work.

The finish next Monday evening at the Normal Auditorium. Two shows in the evening, the first commencing at 7:30 and the second at 9:00 O'clock P. M. There will also be a matinee at 3:30 P. M. on Monday.

The proceeds of this picture will go towards getting sweaters for the football and basket ball fellows.

Come and see Rudolph Valentine, the man who starred in the Four Horsemen of the APOCALYPSE.

HABITS

That period in one's life which is spent in high school and Normal school is undoubtedly one of the greatest periods of habit formation in the life of a person. It seems that our habit-forming machinery is running at full speed then and the chances of retaining the habits are very great. It is certainly evident, then, that we cannot over-emphasize the importance of acquiring only those habits which will be helpful to us in our life work and of parting company with those which will be detrimental to us. Too many people are unmindful of the seriousness of their future work, and hence they do not guide themselves properly now. The time to get rid of the objectionable kind of habits and to form the right kind is now while in school where the chances are good.

It is hardly necessary to mention any of the good habits which should be cultivated. They are all familiar to us. A typical one of this kind is punctuality. The ability to be on hand at the time set, to hand in work at the specified time, or to make appointments on time is a decided asset and one which will prove valuable in later life. The business world will not tolerate those whose watchword is "just a minute, please," for time is money and there is no place for the laggard. This is but one example of a habit which may be one of the determining factors in your own career.

There are many bad habits which seem so easy to acquire. The ability to resist them lies within the individual himself. Outward influences may help, but the real line of offense is within the person. School life means more than going to classes every day.

It should help us to form the right kind of habits. Which way are you going? Are you drifting down stream, or are you holding your own and making good?

NORMAL HIGH MEETS DEFEAT

Coach Paff's young hopefuls met defeat at the hands of the Hammond high five, in the curtain-raiser to the River Falls-St. Mary's game.

Although trailing, the Normal high put up a game fight to the end and afforded the spectators with considerable amusement while waiting for the big game to start.

NORMAL SECONDS BREAK EVEN

Last week the Normal seconds made two trips, one to New Richmond last Friday night and met defeat at the hands of the New Richmond city team. Last Tuesday night they visited Ellsworth and handed a defeat to the boys representing the hub.

CIVIC CLUB

The Civic club will hold its election of officers next Tuesday. Every member is urged to be present.

AURELIA-LINCOLNIAN DANCE

Despite the low temperature Saturday night, about twenty couples attended the Aurelia-Lincolnian dance. Good music was furnished by a four-piece orchestra. The dancing was ended at 11:30.

STYLE SHOW

Many costumes for the Style Show have been collected. Old-fashioned costumes, such as a wedding gown of 1860, hoop skirts, and others will be shown.

WITH THE AG. MEN

Mr. May, with a committee of three, has been planning on a Field Day to be held some time during the latter part of May. This will consist of exhibits of grains, corn, and potatoes. There will also be dairy exhibits and demonstrations by judging teams concerning the fitting of cattle. There will be prizes worth trying for, to say nothing of the practical experience which the Ag. men will get out of the work.

***

Don't forget the big Ag. play "Clarence" which will be put on February 6 in the Normal auditorium. The proceeds of the play will go towards financing the Grain and Poultry show which was given last fall.

***

At the Agrifallian meeting Tuesday night two very good speeches were given. The first was by Mr. Hunt.

He talked on "Experience". He showed how confidence and ability to put across the "dope" would help us.

He also showed how the co-operation of the farmers in the community would tend to help in the Ag. man's work

Mr. Hawn, vice president of the American Society of Equity talked on the value of organization, co-operative work, and the duty of a farmer in belonging to some farm organization.

***

Go look at the program board just outside the office?? Since when has Mr. May been teaching cooking? We thot he was an ag. teacher.

***

Who saw Art Gordon carry a lunch basket to school Tuesday? Oh he was just going up to take a test in College Physics at 11:15 and his delicate appetite would not wait until 12:45 for dinner.

Wilson: "Bill I hear that you're going to talk at the mass meeting Thursday night."

Johnson: "I can't talk. I get fussed so easily that I'm not going to."

Wilson: "Since when have you started fibbing?"

Johnson: "Oh, I've been rooming with Davis for two years."

Mrs. Hollister will visit the Stevens Point Normal this week.

Mr. Davee and Chalmer went to the city Monday, to see Southern and Marlowe in "The Merchant of Venice."

MRS. R. A. KARGES PASSES AWAY

The students and faculty of the Normal school were saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. R. A. Karges, which occurred last Monday, Jan. 23.

In the death of Mrs. Karges, River Falls loses one whose life was rich in Christian grace and unselfish devotion. Her interest was strong in all that pertained to the welfare of the community and the school. All those whose good fortune it was to know her will, for her gracious influence, long cherish her memory. A host of friends extend to the husband and son and other near relatives their deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

CARD OF THANKS

To the students and faculty members, whose kindness, sympathy and aid have helped to make bearable a great sorrow, we wish to express our appreciation and gratitude.

R. A. Karges and Burton.

PAY YOUR DUES

Junior and Senior class dues will be collected Monday in South Hall. There will be a table on the second floor for this purpose. The treasurer of each class will be there and everyone is requested to be prepared to pay up at that time.

ATTENTION, JUNIORS!

The time limit for taking Junior pictures will be January 31. Juniors are advised to heed this regulation if they expect to have their pictures included in the 1922 Meletean.

Snap-shots of individuals or groups will be gratefully accepted by the Meletean photographer. Do not delay your action on these matters.

NOTICE!

Every student should see that his text book record is clear by Friday Night, when the last examination is over.

Return books as soon as each examination is finished.

Where the same text is to be used the next semester it may be presented and re-charged at any time this week.

Your record must be approved at the text library before books can be issued for the new semester.

TO THOSE GALOSHES

Oh gosh, galosh! How can you have the face

Milady's shapely ankle to disgrace? Where beauty was so artlessly displayed,

There you, an ugly flap, flop undis-mayed.

You homely hound of hades, 'reft of shame.

You'd rob milady of her well-earned fame;

Your wrinkled body, like a rhino's hide,

Disporting tops that flop from side to side,

Insulting, deforming lines of grace, Oh gosh, galosh! How can you have the face?—Ex.

LINCOLNIAN

A meeting of the Lincolnian will be called next Wednesday evening at seven o'clock in North Hall. Election of officers for the second semester will take place. Several other important motions will be brought up for immediate action; among them a provision for taking into the society, the people on the waiting list.

Ruth Curry was ill Wednesday.

Don't forget the dance tomorrow night.

Miss Tilton is expected back the last of this week.

Nellie Van Wyk was ill and out of school this week.

Mary Carroll went to St. Paul Tuesday to see Southern and Marlowe in Hamlet.

Ruth Hinman was absent from school Wednesday because of illness.

Ethel Scott spent Saturday and Sunday in River Falls.

Members of the debate squad enjoyed a bounteous repast at the Hotel Gladstone last Saturday at six o'clock. After it was over Casey and Garretson entertained the crowd with a few witty stories.

Misses Weinzirl, Sadler, Hosford, Kyle, Dickerson and Cosgriff hiked to Hudson Saturday. Though they were caught in the bilzzard they did not stop anywhere except for a few minutes at Prescott Roads.

No one would want to pay the librarians either by the hour or for piece-work for the amount of work they do at the end of the semester.

Miss Schlosser, Miss Fleming, Miss Latta and Miss Fobes are planning to attend the Southern and Marlowes Shakespearean plays in the city this week-end.
