

Cast Rehearsing 'Goodby My Fancy'

CASTING has been completed and rehearsals are well under way for the Masquers' production of Fay Kanin's three-act comedy, "Goodby My Fancy," to be presented April 12 and 13 in the College auditorium.

An unusually large cast of women is included in the drama of an exclusive, eastern women's college involving a dash of romance and political intrigue. Dr. Blanche Davis, director, says the light, colorful comedy is planned for the springtime mood of the campus.

College Deans to Attend Chicago Convention

THE college Deans will represent RFSTC at a national convention to be held March 26-29 at Stevens Hotel in Chicago, Illinois. The theme is "Personnel Resources for Improving Human Relations."

The convention is composed of five branches of personnel work found in American colleges and universities. Mildred Mitchell will attend the meeting as a member of the National Association of Deans of Women, and B. J. Rozehnal as a member of the American College Personnel Association.

Easter Vacation Begins Thursday, March 22

Easter vacation will begin at noon on Thursday, March 22, enabling students to have time to reach their respective homes. Classes will resume their course on Wednesday, March 28, at 8 a.m.

This year's Easter vacation is longer than in the past.

College Choir Will Present Music Of Three Eras in Spring Concert

MEMBERS of the College Choir will present their annual spring concert in North Hall auditorium Tuesday, April 3, at 8 p.m.

Directed by Chauncey B. King, the program consists of three parts. The first brings music of the classical period, the second music of the romantic period, and the third music of the modern period.

Both sacred and secular music of these periods will be heard. Many of the numbers will be those presented on the recent choir tour of northern Wisconsin.

Soloists with the choir are Doreen Buck, Jim Jacobson, Eric Von Schweinitz, Donna Lowater, Gayle Jacobson and Jerry Donley.

Tickets for the concert may be purchased from any choir member. The price is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The annual spring concert has become a tradition at River Falls and is always well attended.

The program follows:

PART ONE

- Rise, Arise—Arranged from the German by Peter Norman
- O Come, O Come, Emanuel—Adopted from plainsong by Paul Christiansen
- Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones—17th Century German Melody
- Ave Verum Corpus—William Byrd
- Wake, Awake—Philipp Nicolai

PART TWO

- Oh, Blest Are They—Peter Dlich Tschalkowsky
- Bread of Tears—Paul Christiansen
- Glory to God in the Highest—G. B. Pergolesi
- This Is My Father's World—Traditional English Melody
- Benedictus—E. Paladilhe

PART THREE

- Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor—Irving Berlin
- Blow, Blow, Thou Winter Wind—Joseph W. Clokey
- I Won't Kiss Katy—Yugoslav Folk Song
- The Woodchuck Song—Paul Mann and Stephan Weiss
- The Music of Life—Noble Cain.

Basketball Squad Feted At Banquet Tuesday

MEMBERS of the 1950-51 basketball squad were guests of honor Tuesday, March 13, at a steak banquet in the college cafeteria. Players were guests of John Gage, cafeteria manager.

At the banquet, Coach Schlagenhaut announced the awarding of letters to ten of the players. They included Roger Kuss, Carver Foukes, Norman Dahl, Jack Shields, Sammy Erickson, Ray Czech, Don Barlow, Harley Harkness, Dale Kannel and Bud Fossen.

All individual honors in the Wisconsin Teachers College Conference were copied by Kuss, the Falcon center, save for the somewhat dubious distinction of "most personal fouls." Kuss netted 384 points in the 12 games. In addition he had the most points in one game, most field goals for the season, most free throws for the season, most free throws in one game, and most field goals in one game. Reisch, of Whitewater, had the most fouls for the season.

Toastmaster at the banquet was Dr. Ray Garnett.

McCarthy Writes Review

Bernard J. McCarthy of the River Falls history department is the author of a book review in the March issue of "The Social Studies." He reviews the book "Sociology" by T. C. McCormick and published in 1950 by Ronald Press.

Foundation Workers Will Hold Final Meeting Wednesday

Student workers in the River Falls Foundation Drive will have their final meeting Wednesday preceding the Easter vacation Fieldhouse Drive.

The student workers have held two previous meetings on Wednesday, March 7, and Wednesday, March 14. At the final meeting students will be given the list of names of alumni and friends whom they will visit in their home towns on behalf of the Foundation.

At the first meeting, students heard C. G. Stratton, Miss Elaine Pick, Bonnie Green, Dr. E. H. Kleinpell, Norman Noah, chairman of the student committee, and Miss Marion Hawkins, chairman of the faculty committee. At the second meeting, students held a panel discussion concerning the Foundation. All details of the drive will be outlined at the Wednesday meeting.

College Choir Back From Northern Tour

Thursday the college welcomed back the Choir members from their concert tour. The four day trip took them north to Amery and Frederic where they sang on Sunday. Monday found them in Barron and Rice Lake. Spooner, New Richmond and Glenwood City headed their list for concerts on Tuesday. It looked as if they were doomed to stay in Glenwood City because snow had made traveling hazardous, but Wednesday found them in Eau Claire and Mondovi. They sang the last concert in Spring Valley Wednesday night. Even though the weather was bad the concerts were well attended. It is estimated they sang to 3,000 people.

High School Bands Here

Thomas Nee, Hamline University, Frances White, Barron, and B. J. Rozehnal, head of the River Falls music department, served as critics at the annual high school band clinic held on the River Falls State Teacher College campus, Friday, March 16.

The nine bands participating were: Baldwin, Ellsworth, Glenwood City, Hudson, Hammond, New Richmond, Roberts, Spring Valley, and River Falls. From these the 76-member "All-Star Clinic Band" was chosen.

RFSTC Debaters Leave Friday To Attend National Convention

Five members of the River Falls forensic squad will leave for Stillwater, Oklahoma, March 23 to compete in the National Pi Kappa Delta Speech Convention.

Debate, extempore speaking, oratory and discussion will outline the four day event March 26 through 29 at Oklahoma A. and M.

Faculty Turns Tables; Four Cut Classes

The tables were turned last week when four teachers pulled a stunt that is common among the students—that of taking "cuts" from classes. Unlike the students, however, they had a reason for their cuts—the flu.

Taking the cuts were Miss Virginia Akins, Dr. Constantin Ap-souri, Miss Marguerite Little, and Coach George Schlagenhaut.

200 Students Plan Forensic Meet Here

River Falls will be host April 7 to the Wisconsin High School Forensic Association for the district meet. The meeting will be held all day Saturday. College students are invited to attend the affair which will bring approximately 200 high school students to the campus.

Events in the meet will include original oratory, oratorical declamation, extemporaneous speech, extemporaneous reading, serious declamation, and humorous declamation.

In charge of the meeting will be Dr. Blanche Davis and Miss Marion Hawkins.

Easter Vespers Tuesday

The YM and YW are jointly sponsoring Easter Vespers at the Congregational Church, Tuesday, March 20, at 7 o'clock. The Rev. John Fritzmeier will speak on "The Great Choice." Bob Weber will lead the service and the men's quartet will sing a special number. All students are invited to attend.

Official Notice

Miss Mildred Mitchell asks that all two and three year students who have not paid their cap and gown fees, please pay her at once. The price is $1.85.

Accompanied by their coach, Miss Marion Hawkins, Heather Dopkins, Ernie Gay, Jack Hanson, Jim Van Tatenhove and Richard Vilstrup will leave River Falls by car on Good Friday morning and return the Saturday after Easter.

Vilstrup and Hanson will take the affirmative for four rounds of debate on the proposition, Resolved: That The Non-Communist Nations Should Form a New International Organization.

Debate National Topic

Van Tatenhove and Vilstrup will debate negatively for four rounds on the same proposition, which is the national topic for collegiate debate.

Gay will compete in four rounds of discussion on the question: "What should be the responsibility of the Federal Government for the welfare of the people of the United States?", which again is a national topic.

Both Gay and Miss Dopkins will enter extempore speaking to compete in four rounds on the "welfare state."

Original Orations

Vilstrup will deliver his original oration titled, "Can We Let Him Down", in four rounds of competition.

Miss Dopkins will deliver her original oration titled, "Land of Flood and Promise", in the women's division for four rounds of competition.

The National Pi Kappa Delta tournament is a semi-annual affair held at different colleges over the years. The last National tournament was held in 1949 at Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois.

School Plans Programs

The Oklahoma Aggies have made plans for entertainment for the visiting speakers which range from a square dance to a banquet.

Pi Kappa Delta schools throughout the nation will wind up their tournament debating this year at the Nationals and as Miss Hawkins points out, "It is a fitting climax of a spirited season. Our squad will meet keen competition and friendly rivalry on problems of today at the National Convention."
