RIVER FALLS BATTLES EAU CLAIRE THERE SAT. IN HOMECOMING GAME

EAU CLAIRE LOSES TO
ST. CLOUD 7-3

Stout Shows Improvement

The Wisconsin Teachers found more opposition last Friday in the St. Cloud Normal team than they expected. The Gopher boys won the closely played game by the score of 7-3. A well placed drop-kick by Ade Olson in the third quarter saved the Normal boys from a shut out. Olson's stellar toe work saved the game with the Soldiers the week before. Close competition is expected in the Eau Claire-River Falls game this week.

Although Stout out played the Winona Normalites, they could not outscore them. Their passing attack bewildered the Minnesota team throughout the game, but with one exception, they failed to score. Winona recovered a fumble which gave them a touchdown, and a perfect goal kick gave them a 7-6 victory.

The same team that smothered Stout last week was completely outplayed at every angle by the Marquette University team. An aerial attack by the Milwaukee team gave them a 14-6 win. St. Mary's tried every attack known in football, but they found a stone wall in front of them most of the time. However, Coach Skemp's boys should be given credit for the spirit and valor displayed against the strong "Beertown" team.

Burke Has Ability As Mass Meeting Leader

The short, live pep meeting that was held in the Gym last Friday evening was a rouser. Mat Nelson, Mr. Herschberger, and Mr. Hunt were the speakers, each giving his version of the way the struggle of the morrow would result. Scoyil, Morton, Jennings, and Burke led yells until even the newest Freshman was well acquainted with them. Mr. Geore took charge of the singing, and "Victory" rang out with its usual gusto. If snap and rapidity of speech are what make the mass meetings a success, we challenge any school in the country to produce a better man than Burke for making the meeting hum.

Homecoming is fast slipping up on us. Plan your work this week so you will be at liberty to help any committee that might ask you to help. We will needs lots of it.

THIRD YEAR'S ENTERTAIN IN ROYAL MANNER

Now that the Third Year Senior Class has entertained the school, we can all look back to the event with mingled feelings of having enjoyed ourselves, and added respect for the third year class.

Capability was certainly shown in every phase of the evening's program. An invoice of the talent to be found among the faculty members brought to light Mr. Whitenack's ability to play the violin and Mr. Junkman's ability in playing the cornet. However, the fact that Elaine's bow could be seen above the screen, and the fact that Ted made a rather hasty appearance from behind that same screen planted a faint suspicion in the minds of members of the audience.

A solo dance by Sylvia Hunt, and two piano numbers by Vivian Vassau were greatly enjoyed. Variety was one of the outstanding characteristics of the evening, making this party one of the big social events of the year.

An invitation was extended to the Luther men, and a number of them stayed. By all appearances and reports they enjoyed themselves as much as we enjoyed having them as our guests.

One of the largest crowds that has ever been present at this type of a social event was there last Saturday evening, and students and faculty agree that the third year's are royal entertainers.

HOMECOMING

Our success at making 1925 homecoming worth while depends upon YOU. Throughout the coming ten days or so, there will be great need for cooperation from the entire student body. Perhaps you are talented along the artistic lines. If you are, help on some committee to decorate windows or floats. Maybe you think you are too busy to help. There isn't anyone in this institution that has any time to do any studying for anyone else that's certain and we are all busy.

It is part of the River Falls spirit to be able to do things—be efficient. Not only do we want you to help, but also to show the old grads that we are still on the job, full of life and pep. Never too busy to smile or pass the "friendly words" along.

It's your homecoming. Make it worth while.

Please remember that all contributions that go into print must have the contributors name signed when they are turned in at the office. The name need not be printed, but it has always been our policy to print only signed articles, and we will continue to adhere to it.

"Y" MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN MEETS EXPECTATIONS

Perhaps, no campaign for officers in this school ever aroused as much enthusiasm, as did the membership drive of the Christian organizations last week.

The various cabinet members were given lists of the names of students whom they were to consult in regard to membership. Thursday and Friday of this week this campaign was at its height. Nearly every student on the campus was reached by some means or other.

The students in turn responded in a delightful manner. They had decided that without possessing a certain amount of faith, and hope, and courage from some greater force, life itself would soon be at a stand still.

The entire drive went off with a "bang." The "campaigners" knew their stuff and the students in return wasted no time in making important decisions.

At present there are several pages of names listed below this heading. "I desire to become a member of——thus making my purpose a true follower of the Lord Jesus Christ," on file in the hands of the presidents of the

GRADING SYSTEM; HONOR POINTS EXPLAINED

The following is an explanation of the grading and honor point system used in this school:

A 100-93 3 for each term hour
B 92-85 2 for each term hour
C 84-77 1 for each term hour
D 76-70 No honor points.
Lowest passing grade

Con. 69-65
Fail 65-0
Inc.

An Incomplete will be reported only when failure to complete the required work of the course is through no fault of the student.

A Condition will be reported when the final grade falls between 69-65, or when the student's work is incomplete due to lack of effort.

Incompletes and Conditions must be removed within the next term of attendance. At the expiration of this period all Incompletes and Conditions not removed, automatically become failures.

The minimum number of honor points acquired by any student cannot be fewer than the total number of term hours required for graduation by any of the courses.

Regular attendance at assembly exercises is necessary to avoid reduction of honor points. Each unexcused absence from assembly above two per term will reduce the honor points by five.

Registrar.

LUTHER IS SHUT - OUT IN SATURDAY'S GAME ON WET RAMER FIELD

THEIR GAME FIGHTING
SPIRIT WINS PRAISE
FROM SIDE LINES

Beautiful drop-kick by Brooks and 50-yard run by Quandt are wonderful signs of what the team can do.

Behind one of the strongest fighting lines River Falls has ever turned out, the Red & White backfield last Saturday dashed through one of the gamest elevens that has ever invaded Ramer field. A wet ball and a muddy field caused many fumbles, and held the Normal boys from scoring touchdowns in the first half.

In the first quarter the River Falls linemen drove big holes in the Luther defense until the ball was about 20 yards from the goal line. The St. Paul boys tighten-up and forced Brooks, the flashy Normal quarterback to put over the bars one of the most beautifully placed dropkicks ever seen on the local field. The second quarter proved to be a bitter contest. Neither team could make headway toward the goal posts. The Normal linemen continually broke through and messed up the Luther plays. During the last minutes of the half, Paulson, the River Falls center, was hurt and was replaced by Collins.

In the third quarter Coach Cox sent out his first stringers, who immediately made a mess of the score. The new line tore immense holes in the Luther line, and Quandt dashed through for the first touchdown. Ingi missed the goal kick.

The Luther line weakened in the fourth quarter, and the Falls scored two touchdowns and one goal kick. All the gains were made on straight football, Lawrence Dawson making the second and Lowell the final touchdown. Toward the last of the game

Rain or no rain, our team played a game of football last Saturday and piled up a score large enough to suit the most fastidious of the stay-at-homes. Not so much can be said in commendation of the spectators. The crowd was small and quiet, only opening up when some unusually fine play was made.

We won that game, pep or no pep, but this Saturday we are up against a different type of team. Eau Claire has a strong, fighting eleven, and is out after our scalp with the same determination with which we are after theirs. The team will have to give all it has, and it cannot do this unless we let them know that we want them to win. It isn't so far up to Eau Claire so why not go? It is Eau Claire's homecoming game, and we can't let them say that River Falls doesn't have pep enough to even support its teams when they go away from home.

We can get a bus if a large enough number want to go; so if you have always wished that you had gone over to see Stout get beaten last year, or that you had been there to see the triumphant finish with Eau Claire the year before, don't wait until it is too late. Get in touch with one of the promoters of the idea, and sign up. You won't regret it, and the team will appreciate your support.

HOW ABOUT THE FOURTH YEAR?

Toward the end of last year, we heard great rumors of the prospects which awaited us during the coming school year. We were having all assurances of an additional year being added to the already well organized three year courses, and upon the completion of this fourth year degrees were to be granted. We even heard of Student self government and also a new training school in the near future. Are we doing anything along these lines?

We won the approval of the board of regents last year. Now let us get that curriculum in such a manner that the students of this year's class will know whether it will be three or four years—Degrees or no Degrees?

Y. M. C. A. GOSPEL TEAM

Sunday evening the Y. M. C. A. made adventure on a new project in its history at the River Falls Normal School. A group composed of Theodore Jensen, Earl Brakken, Earl Kuhn, and Donald Brownson formed a Y. M. C. A. Gospel Team, and conducted their first service in the Congregational church at Spring Valley last Sunday evening. It was an entirely new experience to all members.

The trip was made in Professor Jacobson's car, with Professor Jacobson as advisor and chaperon. Going down the boys were very quiet and dignified, but the trip home was barely started before their tongues had been loosened, and their spirits lightened. Ted Jensen kept the bunch warm by cracking some of his huge jokes, and clapping the other fellows on the knees. His only complaint was that there wasn't room for his feet.

These conditions may seem a surprise to some, and rather a reverse to the ordinary, but the trip on the whole was enjoyable. A good audience came out to hear the amateurs and all gave the fellows a very hearty welcome. This trip was the beginning; there are hopes that several more meetings and trips will be scheduled. Possibly another team will be organized.

Y. M. C. A. BOOKSHELF

Perhaps you can't tell a man by the clothes he wears, but you can tell how he is thinking by the books he reads. Perhaps there are some who think that there are no books written without a love story. They are right. However, there are some written that contain the love element in an entirely unique manner. So many books have only a shallow surface meaning, but there are books that require some thought and leave a fine remembrance that grows with that thought.

Some of the Y. M. C. A. members have been buying books of this latter type. They have acquired a taste for books that are written by some leaders of today such as: Stitt Wilson, Bruce Cury, Stanley High, Sherwood Eddy, and John R. Mott. About sixty books have been purchased by various members. These books are being pooled, and placed at the disposal of the student body under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Bookshelf.

A few of the books are: "The Revolt of Youth," by Stanley High; "Facing the Crisis," by Sherwood Eddy; "Lies," by Staudert Kennedy; "The Modern use of the Bible," by Fosdick; "The Meaning of Service," by Fosdick; "Men Like Gods," by H. G. Wells; also "Religious Perplexities," by Jacks.

These books will be under the care of Dean Goodrich, and can be secured on Tuesday evenings at the close of the regular "Y" service.

CIVIC CLUB

ELECTS OFFICERS

Last Thursday night quite a number of prospective Civic Club members, as well as old members, and their advisor, Mr. Davison, gathered to elect the officers of the club. The meeting was called to order by Lorene Brackin, the temporary chairman. After the votes were counted, it was found that places for president and vice-president were tied. Mr. Olson conceded the presidency to Mr. Scoville, and Mr. Barry conceded the Vice-Presidency to Miss Brackin. Stella Pederson was elected Sec.-Treas. The program and Homecoming committees were appointed by the new president.

The Civic Club was asked to act as publicity committee for Homecoming, so after the meeting they adjourned to the Physics laboratory where they made good use of pen and ink. Some folded the letters and placed them in envelopes, some addressed the envelopes, while others sealed them. The whole job was completed in about an hour which shows what fast and capable workers the Civic Club members are.

N. C. A.

Let's go to the N. C. A. mixer tonight at the Catholic church basement; a good time is assured everyone. Let's make it a 100% turnout.

A good program was given at the last meeting of the N. C. A. in which the new students took an active part. We want more student participation in this line. This organization needs you and you need this organization. Join up and make it a success.

The following officers were elected:

Pres.—Rollie Williams
Vice-Pres.—James Casey
Sec.—Fred Nary
Treas.—Ella Cotone.

THE HUMBUG

Some of Darwin's boy friends once plotted a surprise for the naturalist. They killed a centipede, glued a beedle's head on it, and also added to its body the wings of a butterfly, and the long legs of a grasshopper. Then they put the new insect in a box and knocked at the great man's door.

"We found this in the fields," they cried with eager voices. "Do tell us what it can be."

Darwin looked at the strange creature, and then at the boys' innocent faces.

"Did it hum when you caught it?" he asked.

"Ah, yes sir," they answered quickly, nudging one another, "it hummed like anything."

"Then," said Darwin with a twinkle in his eye, "it is a humbug."

Taken from "English Essentials for Junior High Schools."

Mr. Ames: "And sports have their proper place in our curriculum, of course."

Skin's Dad: "Glad to hear it—glad to know my boy will have some chance to study, you know."

The Origin of The "He-Shes"

We hear alot about evolution
And the origin of man
This I've made a resolution
To enlighten all I can.

I hold that man was made as man
In every line and feature,
He sprang not from the lowly ape
Nor any other creature.

But so created, with his name,
With all his strength of limb
Into his life the woman came
And made a monkey out of him.

You see, when Mr. Adam came,
He was quite all alone,
So he found things rather dull
and tame
With no effeminate tone.

They cast about for ways and means
A snake-charmer to produce,
This school had none, as yet it seems,
So they chose another ruse.

They took old Adam's extra rib,
And called it a wo-man,
(Unless someone has told a fib)
Thus all the fun began.

The orchard Eve did hang about,
(The critter was quite vain)
Thus 'twas they both were soon kicked out
Then they took to raising Cain.

So down unto the present age
The so-called weaker sex
As sayeth Solomon, the sage,
Have made men of us wrecks.

Now I don't want to pain the ladies, folks,
Or give them all the blame,
But nature has her little jokes,
So we must have the same.
Ye Town Crier.

DEER MERRY

Dear Mary:

How are you and my dear little kittens? I am getting well acquainted now. I know all of my teachers and six boys counting the four who room where I do. I'm going to be real popular soon because when I was studying in the library two girls smiled at me. One girl winked at me one day, but I did not look at her again. Have you been to town lately?

They had a pep meeting here last Friday night. Of course I didn't go because it was dark already and I might have caught cold. They went down in the cellar of the North building and hollered for the football team. (Do you miss me much, Mary?) I am glad I didn't go because I might have strained my voice and the doctor said I must be careful of my nerves. (Say, I think of you a lot.) One of the boys who went came back hoarse, but he said he had a good time. Maybe I'll go some time and see what they do so I can write to you about it, but I wouldn't holler and get excited. I think that isn't nice, don't you?

I like to write to you, Mary. Please don't forget me, write to me soon.

Your Johnny.

This and that

Ed. Spriegel attended the party held Saturday evening.

Miss Birdsell spent the week-end at her home in Minneapolis.

Kate Ronyak, '25, is back in River Falls working.

"Gea" Slauson was in Hudson over the week-end.

Mildred Paulson spent the week-end at her home in Clear Lake.

Thea and Robert Heggen were at home in Hudson over Sunday.

Ethel Peterson was at her home in Maiden Rock for the week-end.

Grace Robinson, of New Richmond, spent Saturday and Sunday with Alise Jensen.

Ruby Audette, '25, goes to the city this week to accept a position in Social Welfare Work.

Claudia Vassau and Earl Aurelious of St. Paul, visited at Hunt's Saturday and Sunday.

Helen Mooney, '25, was home most of this week. Helen is teaching at Alma Center.

Grace Cotts, '25, who is teaching in Woodville, was here for the game Saturday.

Viola Bailey and "Shrimp" Brown were here Saturday and Sunday, and attended "the party" Saturday evening.

Stanley Davidson was among the "strangers" we haven't seen very often this year at the party Saturday night.

Sid Scoville, Pat Ingli, and Laton Jackson spent Sunday in the cities. They made the trip in Sid's car on schedule time.

Marian Van Marter, '25, was home for the week-end. Marian is teaching at Hector, Minn., and likes her work very much.

Jack Lightfoot spent the week-end in Somerset and Glenwood City. There is a persistent rumor that there was an attraction other than the folks at home.

We know of at least one first year man who had a good time at the dance Saturday evening. We will not mention any names, but his first initials are Make Wahl.

The decorating committee is proud to announce that they returned all borrowed goods before Monday morning. That's not saying when it was returned.

Charles McNabb had urgent business in Hudson immediately after the game Saturday. The business engagement lasted until the last bus returned Sunday evening.

The Aurelia will initiate about twenty new members into their society Thursday evening. The old members are on the job looking up ancient forms of "torture." We will know more about it after we find out what really did happen.

"Successful parties," such as was given Saturday evening, have only one fault—everyone stays here over the week-end and the "Voice" reporters have to hunt for news. If you know of any interesting incidents that occur don't keep them to yourself. They will make an addition to this column.

Jack Jennings spent Sunday at his home near Ellsworth.

Bessie Klein spent the week-end at home in Ellsworth.

Miss Hathorne was out driving Sunday afternoon. Alone??

Bernitta Sprague of Lake City is spending a week or so here with Cecil Kelly.

Alvin Amundson's brother, Carl, was seen in the Falls during the week-end.

Evelyn Johnson and Lucy Demulling visited school Monday afternoon.

Sig Rasmussen attended the party Saturday night. Sig had a week's vacation—due to the closing of school at Boyceville.

Thelma Best must have been out of town for the week-end, for Ted Kexel looked rather lonesome at the party Saturday night.

The Freshman class dues, which are seventy-five cents, will be collected by Victor Peterson Thursday before noon and after school, in South Hall.

An invitation was issued to the Luther-Phalen men to attend "our party." Some of them accepted the invitation and stayed to enjoy themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Davison accompanied by a group of friends spent the week-end in Sawyer county hunting partridge. Mr. Davison reports a dandy time; each man having shot the limit.

Laura Pederson, '24, who is teaching at Tony, Wis., spent the week-end at her home in River Falls. She tells us a large number of '24 and '25 "grads," who are teaching in the towns surrounding Tony, are coming here for Homecoming.

AGRICULTURE NEWS

The first Ag. meeting of the year was held last Thursday night. The turn out fulfilled all expectations, although we would have been more pleased if more new students would have attended this meeting.

The program was as follows:
Talk by Mr. May.
Talk by John Burke.
Homecoming planned for.
Election of officers. The following were elected:
President—Ted Kexel

Men's 16-inch Hiking Boots at ALLARD'S

Vice-Pres.—Clifford Olson
Sec.—Henry Knoll
Treas.—Martin Anderson.
George Wilson returned Sunday to take up his studies in this department.

Mr. Smith, who is teaching in Mr. Anderson's place, spent the week-end in the cities. He says, "It was a business trip."

G. A. A.

The G. A. A. held their first meeting Thursday evening in the usual haunt, Miss Roherty's office. A quorum of the members now in school was present, and all things that came up for consideration were dispatched with business like rapidity. Officers were elected, initiation, float and decoration committees appointed, and the reorganization plans completed. The organization is now ready to go, and we guarantee that any girl who joins will find that she has gotten into one of the live organizations of school. New girls will be given an opportunity to sign up for membership the early part of next week.

The officers for this semester are:

Pres.—Doris Tyvol
Vice-Pres.—Margaret Prosser
Recording Sec.—May Fuller
Secretary—Adelede Keating
Treasurer—Lois Beers

LUTHER IS SHUT-OUT IN SATURDAY'S GAME ON WET RAMER FIELD

(Continued from page one) Quandt let loose, and made a 50 yard dash. He lost his interference after running 25 yards, and was downed less than ten yards from the goal line.

Much credit should be given to the linesmen, for they opened holes for the flashy backfield to tear through. Feske, the left guard, played the entire game, as did Wennerberg, fullback. Both boys did great defensive and offensive work.
