Ukrainian Chorus Will Present Concert Here

On the evening of March 23 in the college auditorium the Faculty Women's Club will sponsor a program by the Ukrainian National Chorus of the Twin Cities.

The Ukrainian Folk Ballet was organized in 1933 at the St. Michael's Ukrainian Orthodox Autocephalic Church, Minneapolis. Since its foundation the members of the Ballet gave alone and in cooperation with the Ukrainian National chorus of the Twin Cities over 215 performances before a total audience of 60,000 people. The Ukrainian Folk Ballet has attracted much attention and admiration by the public not only in (Continued on Page 4)

REYNOLDS ADDED TO COLLEGE FACULTY

With the opening of the spring term, we find F. Leon Reynolds, new French and Spanish teacher, in our midst. Mr. Reynolds, hails from the state of Kansas. It was in Coffeyville, Kansas, that he attended Junior College, later to receive his B. A. and M. A. degrees at the University of Kansas. Mr. Reynolds, while working for his Doctor's Degree, taught at the University of Wisconsin in 1940-1941. In 1941-1942 he taught at Parsons, Kansas.

Mr. Reynolds was with the Counter - Military Intelligence Department during the war. This work took him to England, France, Germany, Belgium, Luxemburg, and Holland.

The Reynold's family, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and their two and one half year old son, were fortunate in finding an apartment in River Falls, and they can be found at 550 South Fourth Street.

Mr. Reynolds finds the state of Wisconsin very much to his liking. He prefers teaching in a smaller college like R.F.S.T.C. because of knowing the students better.

We extend a most hearty welcome to F. Leon Reynolds and his family.

Debaters Win More Honors

At the St. Thomas tournament, which was held March 11, 12, 13, thirty debate teams were present to represent their respective schools. All of the debate squads that were in Concordia and Eau Claire tournaments were entered in the St. Thomas meet; but River Falls was the only school of this group of smaller colleges to be represented in the finals.

In the finals Sioux Falls won eight debates; University of Indiana won seven debates; Marquette University won seven debates; River Falls State Teachers won six debates; Minot Teachers College won six debates; University of Minnesota won five debates; Morningside College won five debates; University of Indiana won five debates.

Norris Crist and Charles White were the River Falls team, attending all three days; and Miss Elsie Hoffman, the advisor, judged the semi-finals and the finals on Wednesday.

Entertainment, refreshments, dancing—enjoy all these things at the Gay Nineties Cabaret Thursday and Friday nights, March 21 and 22, in the North Hall Gymnasium. The Cabaret, produced by the Masquers, will feature the music everyone loves and solo ensemble numbers in a continuous floor show.

The men's quartet, consisting of Jack Russel, LeRoy Debois, Howard Hannon, and Carleton Ames, will provide some of the many good floor show numbers. The one-act old time burlesque melodrama will have Bill Crommet acting as the hard hearted villain; Pat Cox portraying the charming heroine, and Chuck White acting as the faithful darcy servant with a heart of gold.

During the course of the evening, you may stop for that "pause that refreshes". The Masquers have obtained a large supply of Coca Cola for the cabaret. Coney Islands, cherries, popcorn, pretzles and various kinds of pop are also on the refreshment menu.

"If it's a Masquers production, it's good", so you won't want to miss the Gay Nineties Cabaret March 21 and 22. The North Hall Gymnasium doors will open at 8:00 P.M. and the floor show will begin at 8:30. The general admission charge is 20 cents. Table reservations, including general admission charge, are 35 cents. For fun and entertainment the Masquers promise you the best in their Gay Nineties Cabaret.

MELETEANS TO BE GIVEN

The Meletean publishers with the help of the Student Senate have decided to send free copies of the 1946 "Memorial Meletean" to the parents of all the boys from this college who lost their lives in World War II.

In order to carry out this plan the Student Senate sponsored a St. Patrick's Day benefit dance to raise the necessary money.

Various organizations on the campus may be asked to contribute also to insure the carrying out of the project.

The Editor Says

The spring term hath begun—With only nine and a half weeks left of this school year, we can already begin to look back on the year 1945-1946 at RFSTC. Yes, it's been a year of change—change back to the status quo of college life which has been so shaken by war. The advent of each new term has meant a stride toward the pre-war campus atmosphere. With this term's increase in enrollment, we should see even more changes before the close of the year.

Because of popular demand, the library hours have been extended this term to include two hours every Tuesday evening. But now it is up to us to make use of it during that time. Let's show that we appreciate this service.

It would seem that spring has made an early entrance this year. Providing no more snow falls, it will not take many more weeks before the campus will take on its full beauty. RFSTC has one of the most beautiful campuses in the state. Let's appreciate the beauty of our environment.

From all reports, the St. Patrick's Benefit Dance was a real success—Parties such as that are a further indication of the return to those good old college days of prewar years.

NEW ADDITIONS MADE TO LIBRARY

Books added to the college library have recently been listed. Some of the new titles promising good reading this spring are: "Pattern of Soviet Power" by Snow; "Language in Action", by Hayakawa; Lillienthal's "TVA"; Nelson's "Tomorrow's House"; Chernev's "Invitation to Chess".

Freyre has written a travel book on Brazil and there is the new and timely "The German Talks Back" by Houser.

Our habits may be our worst enemies or they may be our best friends.

Another of Man's Great Conflicts

—Dedicated with all due respect to that dilapidated mechanical monstrosity gracing room 223, S. H.

Perhaps one of the greatest social conflicts of all time is the age long struggle for supremacy between the man, the pencil, and pencil sharpener. The man perspires freely as he pulls out a new pencil—he has sacrificed one bottle of 'varnish', also called "pepsi-cola" in the college vernacular, to buy this truly long-lasting pencil. He pushes this five-cent work of art into the little round hole and gently whirls the crank. His pulse tingles; his every sense is alive to the thrill of battle.

Then we have the pencil; its standing is one of life or death. After its tip has been inserted into the little round hole, it becomes an issue of the survival of the fittest. The pencil and its sharpener go to their neutral corners and come out fighting.

As the pencil is inserted into it, the pencil sharpener feels the handle turned; it feels its rusty joints creak into motion, (oil shortage), and begins the long grid. The sawdust flies.

Meanwhile, the man, having cranked vigorously for all of a minute, thus wasting precious seconds which could have been spent talking to "her", feels that the job must be done. He pulls out the pencil.

The poor pencil; it feels itself to be precisely what it is—an emaciated ruin, a tangled wreck. Its point, and I use the term loosely, is jagged and unsuitable for further use. The paint is chipped all the way up the side—the world can no longer see that this pencil was made by the Chew More Snuff Corporation.

The pencil sharpener settles down once more to the peace and quiet of inactivity—its struggle is over. It has earned its green pasture. "In pace requiescat."

But the man—has he succumbed to his heartbreak? No, man is made of sterner stuff. He gently takes his mangled pencil, pulls out a pocket knife, and proceeds to sharpen his pencil.

There is a man! He has encountered disappointment but has triumphed over adversity.

Droop Snoops Student Voice

As the atmosphere takes on that crispy March feeling with all indications of spring in the air and students are suffering from the first symptoms of spring fever, Droop takes pen in hand to give you the latest inside dope on the outside campus life.

To start the ball rolling, Droop finds a number of new "guy n' gal" situations. Bob Kinney and Lola Estensen, Christine Thompson and Eugene Shermer, Ned Hahn and Elaine Stucky are among those frequently spotted with that "come to the Casbar" look in their eyes. Oh! Yes. There are other new combinations such as Vera Finstad and Bud Erdman, Gen Peterson and Earl Picha, Howie Kuhn and Bonnie Carter, Kathleen Reid and Dick Berggren, Lorraine McCue and Gene Wirz; but Droop too, has to find time to study and stay healthy, so if you belong in this category and aren't mentioned, you will be caught in the near future.

If you have noticed that tired look in Lorraine Palan's eyes at her early morning classes its only because she is still getting used to her new position at the K. K., and remember that a roundhead characteristic doesn't indicate the lack of grey matter nor inefficiency.

Have you noticed that cozy little trailer house on the campus? Mr. and Mrs. Brown seem to live very happily with their eighteen month old daughter, Judy.

That hungry look you saw on the faces of a number of boys during the first week of the term was due to the fact that Mrs. Jerney's boarding club was forced to close. Although the fire itself was a tragedy, we find a humorous side to the story. It seems that Berggren and Copeland, clad in pajamas, were soaked with cold water in their attempt to quench the flame before help arrived.

Wedding bells rang for Bud Karnes last week; and Mary Paulson is now Mrs. Francis. C. V. or not C. V. is no longer the question.

Ned Hahn has become quite a popular member of the House of Collins. The reason for this sudden popularity is the fact that Ned has been receiving numerous boxes of food from home. From all reports Droop gathers that his mother is an excellent cook.

YES, WE'LL HAVE A JUNIOR PROM

Here is the news we have all been waiting for. There will be a Junior Prom this year on Saturday, May 11. It promises to be a gala affair with Bob Wells' orchestra, which is reported to be very good, and elaborate decorations. This will be the first prom held in college since '42. This is one of the big social events of the year, so don't miss it. Watch the paper for later announcements about the prom.

I should think that the water would be a bit cold for swimming yet. But Marvin Sather and Marion Jacobson don't think so. It seems they took a short dip last Friday night.

And so Droop leaves this sulphurated section of this, the students donation to campus life; our beloved paper, to retreat to his humble lair.

Spring Sports Will Commence Soon

Coach Schlagenhauf has issued a call for pitchers and catchers to work out in North hall gym every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in preparation for the coming baseball season.

He has also announced that spring football practice will get underway as soon as the weather permits.

Large turnouts are expected for both baseball and spring football.

VOLLEYBALL FILLS SPORTS CALENDAR

With the close of the basketball season, the sports calendar of the college is largely filled with intramural volleyball. 8 volleyball teams have been organized and play got underway this week.

The teams are as follows: Victory Six, Six Old Men, Rapid Rabbits, Quiz Kids, House of Nelson, Battle Babies, Varsity Five, and Faculty Five.

In play so far, the Faculty Five has shown the best form, although the other teams will furnish stiff competition throughout the remainder of the schedule.

WSSF DRIVE SET FOR APRIL

The World Student Service Fund Drive will begin officially in April. However, some activities have been started toward raising money. One of these has been the daily coffee hour, which due to complications became a donut sale on Wednesday.

The World Student Service Fund has been established as a means of assistance to students all over the world. The money is used to re-establish colleges in war torn Europe and Asia.

This is one kind of internationalism in which we can all participate as students. Let's really make this a successful drive by supporting whole heartedly the various activities which have been planned.

DR. WYMAN HAS WORK PUBLISHED

In the recent issue of the "California Historical Quarterly" there appears the last installment of "California Emigrant Letters", a collection of letters written originally by emigrants to California in 1849 and 1850. These were collected, edited, and arranged by Dr. Wyman a few years ago.

Red Cross Drive Held Last Week

On Monday morning, March 11, the National Red Cross drive began on the campus. This drive takes place each year and each student in school is asked to donate whatever he feels he can give to this worthy cause.

The National quota for this year is $100,000,000, somewhat less than the quota for the year 1945.

On the campus last year, the students donated $248. Even with the small enrollment, this year with the increase enrollment and the National quota somewhat decreased, the amount for this college should be at least the same as the amount donated the past year.

The 1946 drive ended Monday, March 18. As yet the final results have not been tabulated, so watch the next issue for the publication of the results of the Red Cross Drive.

OUTSTANDING SPEAKERS HEARD BY STUDENTS

In the last several weeks the assembly committee has brought several interesting speakers to the R.F.S.T.C. campus.

On March 7, Mr. Verhage of the Dept. of Political Science at Macalester College, St. Paul Minnesota, was the assembly speaker.

On March 11, Miss Alpengfels, an anthropologist who is on a years leave from the University of Chicago, spoke in assembly and gave two additional talks later in the day.

The purpose of Miss Alpengfels' talks is to help create better understanding among groups of people. Because prejudice is the foundation for so much misunderstanding, Miss Alpengfels is endeavoring to show people by scientific findings how erroneous are many of the points on which prejudice is based. Only when people base their evaluations of other groups of people on scientific fact rather than on prejudice can better understanding be achieved.

New Rules Govern College Women

Before Christmas, Miss Hathorn called a meeting of the junior and senior women to allow them to draw up some new rules suitable to them.

Dean Hathorn has been calling meetings of all the houses, discussing the rules with the women and house mothers, and the rules will be put on trial this term. If satisfactory, they will be carried over to next year; otherwise, some other plans will have to be made.

The new rules, in addition to the old rules, are: four 12 o'clock lates a term (provided for late shows); two 2 o'clock lates a term (provided for trips to the Cities).

These rules are not unreasonable and all women are expected to abide by them.

FIRE DAMAGES JERNEY CLUB

Don't worry, girls, if you don't see as many men eating downtown or at the college cafeteria as you did the first week of this term! They haven't quit school. The reason is that "Ma" Jerney has reopened her boarding club.

On March 3, the Jerney home was damaged by fire of unknown origin. Mrs. Jerney smelled smoke and immediately summoned the boys in the house. With the aid of the local fire department and several college students, the fire was extinguished before much damage could be done.

Most of the house was well smoked up and water-soaked. For this reason, and because the cooking utensils were all destroyed, the Club was forced to close for a week.

Nevertheless, with her customary skill to do the impossible, Mrs. Jerney was ready to reopen the following Sunday.

At present she is feeding approximately one hundred college men.

DAVISON ADDRESSES STUDENT GROUP

The Midgardians were hostesses, Wednesday, March 13, to the members of the Rural Life Club, A. C. E., Junior High, and their critic teachers.

Mr. John Davison, local attorney and former high school teacher, was the guest speaker. Mr. Davison told of his war experiences, which included his experiences teaching German prisoners. Everyone present enjoyed the meeting very much.

the Twin Cities but throughout the state. The members of the group give their services gratis and proceeds from the presentations go to the church and the recreational parlors for the young people.

The number of the dancers has been depleted during the war, because all the young men went into the military service. Two of the members of the Ukrainian Folk Ballet were killed in action. One has been posthumously awarded the silver star for exceptional bravery. At the present time the veterans are returning and the group is getting more active. Mr. Joseph Koshuba, a veteran of both Pacific and the European theaters of operation, is the instructor for the boys. Miss Olga Harasym takes charge of the girls dancing. The Ukrainian National chorus is under the direction of Mr. John Dennis, another veteran who just returned from overseas.

These young people of Ukrainian extraction are proud that they are able to contribute their share to the composite American culture. The Ukrainians are essentially an agricultural people, populating the richest prairie section of Europe. Much of their folklore is based on natural phenomena. Through centuries these people have developed dances and songs symbolizing events in their lives, such as harvests and other agricultural activities.

The program will consist of a number of the Ukrainian folk songs presented by the Ukrainian National Chorus of the Twin Cities, Ukrainian dances, and a short talk on the "Cultural Heritage of the Ukraine". There will be also an exhibit of Ukrainian embroidery, woodwork, pottery, and Ukrainian Easter Eggs.

ACE MAKE FAVORS FOR HOSPITAL

The girls of the A. C. E. recently finished approximately 350 tray favors for the Tuberculosis Wards of the Veteran's Hospital at Fort Snelling. They became interested in this project after visiting the Hospital with Mrs. Kemp of the Junior Red Cross, a few weeks ago. The favors which were used Sunday, March 3rd, were interesting novelty birds in varied colors.

DR. WILLIAMS REPORTS FROM TOKYO

Capt. Justin Willams, professor of history on leave, reports from Tokyo where he is with the Government Section of SCAP Headquarters that he is having a fascinating experience. The Government Section controls politics, political parties, the Diet, and local government. He is in the legislative branch. He reports that the food shortage is becoming more acute daily and they expect trouble before long. MacArthur still has the support of the masses, but if "he should lift the occupation tomorrow, the ultras would clamp the old lid back on by next Monday. It will really take years," he states, "to rid the country of the feudal oligarchy, to provide the multitude with a new outlook on Japanese society." Mrs. Williams and the two sons, Jud and Nick, are residing in Pacific Grove, California.

WHEN MY DREAM MAN COMES HOME

When I was young, I never liked boys,
Their faces were always dirty,
But now I'm old and my views have changed,
I like their faces — flirty!

Now please don't think I missed the boys,
When they went off to war,
Just cause on passing you'd see the sign,
"Man wanted" on my door.

So when that handsome hunk comes home,
I will not waste his time
But kiss 'im till the feature ends,
Hey, wait! Who says he's mine? ! !

This classic bit of poetic thought was one of several written on the subject of returning "dream men" by Sigma Chi Sigma pledges last fall.
