

NWTA to Meet At Eau Claire October 13-14

The Northwestern Wisconsin Teachers Association will hold its 64th annual convention October 13 and 14 at Eau Claire. Several members of the River Falls faculty will attend, especially members of the education department.

Chairmen of more than 30 sectionals and roundtables have made plans for a variety of programs in many special areas. Faculty members participating in these roundtables are Dr. Walker Wyman, and Dr. James McLaughlin.

Thursday evening, October 13, former students and graduates of Wisconsin State College at River Falls will attend the annual Alumni banquet, held at 6 p.m. in the Eau Claire hotel. The purpose of this banquet is to renew contact between the college faculty and former students.

Master of ceremonies at the banquet this year is Carl Wichman, a 1949 graduate of the college, who is superintendent of schools at Somerset. A get-together is planned for 5 o'clock at the hotel preceding the banquet.

General program speakers are Bill Costello, CBS Radio White House correspondent; Betty Broadman, actress — authoress; Judge J. M. Braude, and author Richard Morenus.

Senate Picks Homecoming Slogan

Organizations Must Register Parade Entries

"Suppress Superior" will be the slogan for Homecoming this year. The winning entry of Ronnie Jensen, senior from Amery, was chosen by the Student Senate Friday afternoon.

Meanwhile members of the Homecoming committee last week decided:

1. To establish official registration for participation in four events.
2. To encourage downtown and house decorations at an earlier period in order to promote the Homecoming spirit, and
3. To limit participation in certain events to certain campus organizations.

The committee includes Chairman Jim Anderson, assistants Tom Haugen and Duanne Johnson, and students and faculty members.

Queen Candidates

Homecoming queen candidates will be presented to the student body at a 10 o'clock assembly, Wednesday, October 12. The election will be held from 9 to 3 on Monday, October 17 in the cafeteria. The results of the election will be kept secret until the moment of coronation at the pep fest on Friday night. Queen candidates this year are Shirley Engleman, Audrey Windal, Dorothy Frederickson and Natalie Vanderhoof.

Class Responsibility

According to tradition, each class is responsible for some activity at Homecoming. The freshmen lime the "R", decorate Rammer field and collect wood, paper, etc., for the bonfire Friday night; sophomores decorate the gym for the dance, sell tickets and make punch; the junior class devotes its artistic talent to decorating the campus while the seniors string downtown River Falls with crepe paper and whatever else they can find.

All organizations planning to sponsor a float, decorate a store window downtown or present a skit are asked to sign up on the bulletin board in the Student Voice office. (Office is located on the first floor of South hall, top of stairs, first door to the left.) All entries must be made by Friday, October 14 and include the name of the individual responsible for the project. No late entries will be accepted and only those entries that have been signed will be judged.

Only officially recognized organizations will be allowed to participate in float and skit competition. However, any individual or group of students may decorate a window and try for the attractive prizes that are offered. Downtown merchants will furnish the materials needed for the window and students need only do the work.

Store windows should be decorated on or before Wednesday, October 19.

Prizes are also being offered for the best house decorations. If you are interested, please sign up in the Voice office—once again we must have the name of the individual who will be in charge. House decorations will be judged Friday afternoon, October 21. In charge of this phase of Homecoming plans is Tom Haugen.

Other Homecoming plans include a buffet luncheon at Hathorn hall at noon; a coffee hour following the game—this will be held in the student activities center in South hall, and a smorgasbord dinner in the cafeteria at 6 p.m.

Activities Saturday

The street parade will begin at 10:30 and will include not only floats and bands from the college but also high school bands and units. The game with Superior starts at 1:30 and the Homecoming dance starts at 9 p.m. Music will be furnished by Dave Hurley and his 13 piece orchestra from Stillwater, Minn.

A complete Homecoming program will be published next week.

Students To Get 'Last Chance'

Hear ye! Hear ye! This is your last chance! You will not have another opportunity! Don't goof it! This is it!

No, we don't mean this is your last chance to win a million dollars, but we do mean that this is the last chance you will have to dance at the college until the big Homecoming shindig October 22. So come one, come all, to the gym in North hall (whoops, I'm a poet and don't know it!) and dance, dance, dance to the music by the one and only "Falconsaires"! They play the sweetest music this side of Guy Lombardo and they will play from 9 to 12, Friday night, October 14.

Guys and dolls come and practice for the coming event—and who knows—boys—this is your chance to ask some sweet chick to the biggest social event of the year—Homecoming 1955!! Honey, put on those dancin' shoes and I'll meet you at the door! Don't forget—circle Friday, October 14 for this one.

Sponsors To Present Queen Candidates

Homecoming, 1955, will undoubtedly be a high spot in the life of the four girls selected as candidates for Homecoming queen. Presentation of the candidates will be at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday in North hall auditorium. Election of the queen will take place October 17.

Candidates are Shirley Engleman, Dorothy Frederickson, Audrey Windal, and Natalie Vanderhoof.

The election campaign has already begun and between now and the election the campus will be adorned with beautiful portraits of the candidates, plus all other forms of publicity that a campaign of this type features.

The four candidates have been selected by members of various organizations on campus for their popularity, charm and most of all because they are attractive.

Shirley Engleman, sponsored by the Vet's club, is from Woodville. The pretty English and Spanish major, has light brown hair and hazel eyes, she is a junior. Shirley's campus activities include being secretary of the Student Senate, participation in debate, she is a member of Pi Kappa Delta, LSA, Sigma Chi Sigma, National Council for Teachers of English, and the Student Foundation committee.

Dorothy "Dot" Frederickson, from Deronda, is sponsored by the sophomore class. Dorothy is an attractive blonde majoring in two year elementary and taking an active part in campus activities. She is secretary of the sophomore class, treasurer of Masquers and a member of LSA, Alpha Si Omega and the Rural Life club.

The choice of the FFA is Audrey Windal, senior from Centuria. The small, pretty brunette is an English major. Very active on campus, Audrey is president of the AWS, secretary of the senior class and an active member of Sigma Chi Sigma, Masquers, FTA, and choir. Cheerleading is another of Audrey's activities.

Sparkling, brown-eyed Natalie Vanderhoof, junior from Clear Lake has been selected by the Newman club as their candidate for queen. The brunette cheerleader is an English major with minors in speech and physical education. Activity-wise, Natalie is a member of the WRA, Newman club, National Council for Teachers of English and is secretary of the social committee.

One of these four girls will be selected to reign as queen of the 1955 Homecoming. The election will be held Monday, October 17 between the hours of 9 and 3 in the college cafeteria. Results will be kept secret until the moment of coronation.

PROFS TAUGHT FROM GROUND UP

When you get a chance, ask your prof about the Cambrian sandstone layer or the Kewatin glacier.

If you're not prepared for class you may be able to kill a little time that way. In addition, you can check on whether or not he attended the first A.A.U.P. meeting this fall when Robert Polk of the geology department discussed "A Layman's View of Wisconsin's Geology."

Faculty members had dinner in the Calico room and then adjourned to the library lounge where Mr. Polk, using a map, chart and rock samples discussed the geology of the state.

The next meeting of the A.A.U.P. will be November 8 in a joint session with the Faculty Women's Club. Miss Marion Hawkins will discuss her trip to Europe at 8 p.m. in the Little Theatre.

Russ To Present 'Lord's Will'

"The Lord's Will," a one act tragedy by Paul Green, will be presented in the Little Theatre Thursday, October 13, at 8 p.m. The play is directed by Peter Russ, a senior from River Falls.

The Lord's Will is the story of a southern minister, Lem, who puts all his faith in God, but does no work. Mrs. Jones comes to visit Lem's wife and tries to convince her that she should get the doctor for their little daughter. Mrs. Jones goes for the doctor as Lem comes home. Lem believes his faith will heal the girl, but he fails and his daughter dies.

Carl Sharp, a junior from Rice Lake, plays Lem; Sara Garnett, a freshman from River Falls, plays his wife and Helen Glesnes, a freshman from River Falls, plays Mrs. Jones.

There is no admission charge.

Duet Wins First Place In Contest

Carlene Parrent of Amery and Joe Alms, music major from Spring Valley won first place by audience ballot in the MENC freshman talent contest held last Thursday evening in North hall auditorium. Their duet version of "Why Do I Love You" received the highest number of audience votes.

Placing second was Dixie Prime of Ellsworth with her piano interpretation of Chopin's "Polonaise". Margie Olson of Amery won third prize with her vocal presentation of "Dream".

Nine acts were included on the all freshman program which included five vocal solos, a vocal duet, a piano solo and an Al Jolson pantomime. The pantomime was performed by Sharon Todd of Shell Lake. Others on the program were: Sharon Ritchey of River Falls who sang "O Mio Bambino", Alan Voelker who sang "Bless This House", Dale Pearson singing "The Desert Song", Dorie Streichen from Amery who sang "I Heard a Forest Praying", and Ellen Diller of Boyceville singing "Unchained Melody". Each of the acts received a substantial number of votes.

The Editor Speaks . . . Still Need Pep Song

The music department is still looking for a pep song—a song that is strictly "ours"—to play immediately following touchdowns. Rumors have drifted into this office that several people have written lyrics but have been too shy to turn them in. If you have lyrics please turn them in to Dean Rozehnal as soon as possible. We would very much like to have a pep song by Homecoming. Come on, you talented people, get with it, the five dollar prize is still offered for the best song.

Organizations are hard at work on floats and skits for the 1955 Homecoming celebration. We would like to stress again, that if you want your unit judged, you must sign up for this judging on or before Friday, October 14. These sign-up sheets are located on the bulletin board in the Student Voice office.

Support our advertisers! We are asking that organizations patronize downtown business places in regard to Homecoming supplies—paper, pins, napkins, paint, etc. These people support many of the affairs of the college, use college advertising and many buy season tickets to our athletic events. Let's show them our appreciation!

Student Senate Minutes

October 3, 1955
The president called the meeting to order. The secretary's report was read and approved. The treasurer reported $775.27 on hand.

The Sigma Chi Sigma request for a stand on campus for Homecoming was withdrawn and a request to sell popcorn and pom poms submitted. The request for popcorn was turned down as the "R" Club has the concession at Ramer Field. The matter of the Pom poms was tabled until the next meeting.

Larry Heneman reported that the Social Committee would like to be kept informed on the calendar of events for at least two weeks ahead. Don Laue was appointed to take care of this matter. A weekly calendar of events was also suggested by the Social Committee. However, it was pointed out that any organization can publish their meeting time in the Student Voice.

The motion was made and passed that we send a letter to the La Crosse State Letterman's Club thanking them for their consideration of Bob Wood while he was in the hospital in La Crosse.

It was reported that the all-school election for Homecoming Chairman was a success with 714 out of 914 students voting. Jim Anderson was elected.

Homecoming plans were discussed with Jim Anderson and Duanne Johnson. Each class will be responsible for these activities at Homecoming:

Freshman—lime "R", decorate Ramer Field, bonfire Friday night.

Seniors—decorate downtown.

The following girls were presented as queen candidates:

Shirley Engleman, Vets Club.

Natalie Vanderhoof, Newman club.

The motion was made and passed that the campaigns for queen candidates begin as soon as they wished.

Jerry Murphy was appointed to buy additional pingpong equipment for the Student Activity Center.

Marilyn Carlson will consult the television repairman in regard to adjusting the set in the Student Activity Center.

Shirley Engleman, Secretary

Present: Meyer, Murphy, Johnson, Carlson, Engleman, Laue, Kinney, Pace, Weiss, Henneman.

Letters to the Editor...

Dear Editor:
Since the Eau Claire game I have heard a few remarks about "time out stealing" at football games. It seems cheerleaders and band are often found in full force aggressive competition when a breather in the game occurs. We might suggest that, since both are situated on the same side of the field representatives from each competing group get together and work something out. If necessary a truce ground might be marked off on the track for said conference. An alternating system may work out. Actually this new burst of enthusiasm may be a good thing—a little better system of control is what is needed.

Gallager

(Editor's note—the following letter is a copy of the one sent thanking the La Crosse Letterman's club for their consideration of Bob Wood while he was in the hospital at La Crosse.)

October 4, 1955

Letterman's Club
La Crosse State College
La Crosse, Wisconsin
Dear President:

We hope that you will convey the following message to your club and the student body at La Crosse State College.

The Student Senate, on behalf of the entire student body at River Falls State, would like to take this opportunity to express their thanks and appreciation to the La Crosse State Letterman's Club and State's entire student body for the wonderful way in which you treated Bob Wood while he was confined in the hospital in your city.

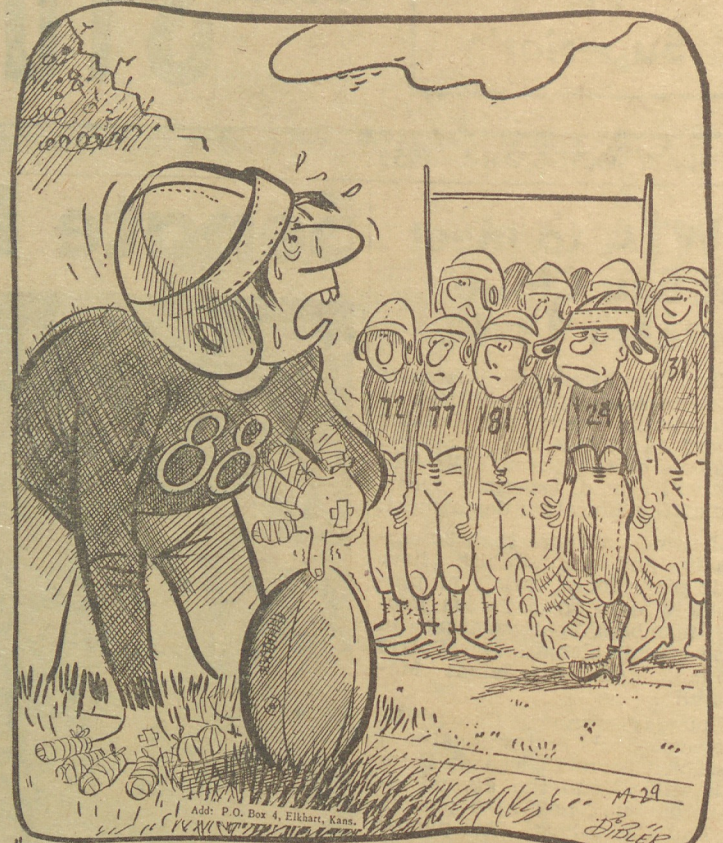

Upon his return, "Woodie" had nothing but praise for the fine way in which your club and student body treated him. The television set and many visitors were a real lift to him.

The students at River Falls feel that this type of thoughtfulness exemplifies the friendly relations that exist between the two schools. So once again we say, thank you La Crosse State, for the wonderful way in which you treated "Woodie".

Sincerely yours,
Student Senate

If Names Are Double They Cause Trouble

by Salamanca Galapagos

Names are fascinating. Having just completed the typing of the entire list of students enrolled at the college I have come up with the following interesting facts and figures:

Anyone who calls "Hey, Johnson" on the campus is likely to be mobbed as there are 24 students by that name plus two faculty members. To confuse matters further, there are two Dale Johnsons, two Don Johnsons, two James Johnsons, two Gerald Johnsons and a Jerome Johnson (all known as "Jerry").

There are 13 Olsons, five Olsens, nine Larsons, eight Jensens and only seven Petersons. Only 10 Andersons are enrolled, but don't forget the two on the faculty.

People with the common name of Smith just don't rank in this land of the "son's" as only five students plus a member of the faculty are found on campus.

On campus this year we find Alms but no charity; an Anding but no beginning; Anger but no joy; Aide but no help.

There are two Dodges, a Ford, a Crisler, a Kaiser but no Buick; we have two Laatsch's, no hooks but we do have a Halls.

Enrolled are a Baker, a Barber, four Millers, a Potter, a Fisher, a Gardner and two Taylors but no retailer. We have a Hemm, but no skirt; a Parrent with no children. There's Heck, Dahm, Helmueller, Sexe and a Wolfe on campus but Mumm's the word. There is a Diller but not a dollar.

Music-wise we have two Sharps, no flats but a Sparks. Fait has it that there is a Drumm, a Shield, two Stones and a Drier on campus.

We have a Greenhill, two Mountains, two Marshes, two Woods but no forest, a Hytry but no low tree.

There is a Hoover, Buchanan, Koehler, Luther, two Mayers, an Earl, King and a Wiseman. There is a Plahn but no purpose. A Sandberg but no Shakespeare; a Parker and a Roffler; a Goodrich but no bad rich. There are two Guests, a Foreman but no crew. We have a Safe but no money, a Patin but no invention.

To end this may I say in Pence—give a Loose Moan and Turner West as we Pace to the West Camp. Give me Liberty or give me death—after this it is probably desired!

Chit-Chat—

—The Morning After

In the sky hangs a blue moon dripping with blood. One drop alights on the woods and turns the green into burnt-black. A suffocating veil of vapor presses along the plain like a demonic spirit. With the sound of purple velvet . . . the mist landscape dissolves into a flat path leading to eternity . . . a single dark spectral figure floats forward and the bluegreen raging countenance opens and issues purple blood which flattens out into a pool . . . and lays suspended in midair. . . in the flat purple pool is seen the reflection of the immense universe . . . known and unknown. The appointed Time has come . . . in the pool stars and galaxies disappear into nothingness . . . now even the purple pool is disappearing . . .

It is morning. A bird sings in the tree outside. Man wakes himself and arises. Man must go to work. Work and humdrum and work is Man's life. Man thinks. Man remembers. Man remembers nightmares . . . heavy food and rich drink . . . resolves to be more temperate . . . and goes back to work. Moral: To avoid that run-down feeling in the morning, cross streets carefully.

Intellectual question of our times: The essential meaning of the word "Freshman"—fresh from the farm or fresh into adolescence??

Falcons Edge Titans 7-6 In Dads Day Tilt

Gain 362 Yards To OSC's 45

Last Saturday evening at Ramer Field a Dad's Day crowd of nearly 2,000 watched the Falcons roll up a tremendous edge in yardage while managing a 7-6 win over Oshkosh State. Coach Bob Kolf's Oshkosh Titans fought a purely defensive battle, advancing past midfield just once. The Titans' score came on Erwin Winarski's 45-yard return of an intercepted pass.

Winarski punted six times in the first half in an attempt to keep the Falcons in their own territory. River Falls punched out a total of 177 yards in the first 30 minutes, racked up 10 first downs, yet failed to score.

Oshkosh executed six running plays in the first half for a net of -11 yards. Three completed pass brought the Titans 11 yards and a first down. So, at halftime the Falcons held a 177-0 edge in yardage and led in first downs 10-1 with the score deadlocked 0-0.

Johnny Steffen, "Bucky" Di Salvo, and Jim Finstad accounted for most of the Falcon yardage in the first half. River Falls advanced to the Oshkosh three, 15, and 20 on three drives, but fumbles and tough defensive play by the Titans prevented a tally.

River Falls blocking, which lacked crispness in the first half, really tuned up in the third quarter as Bob Margotto, Gene Luebker, and Ron Wunrow led the way to a touchdown with 5:30 gone after halftime. The Falcons took the kickoff and marched to a score without giving up the ball.

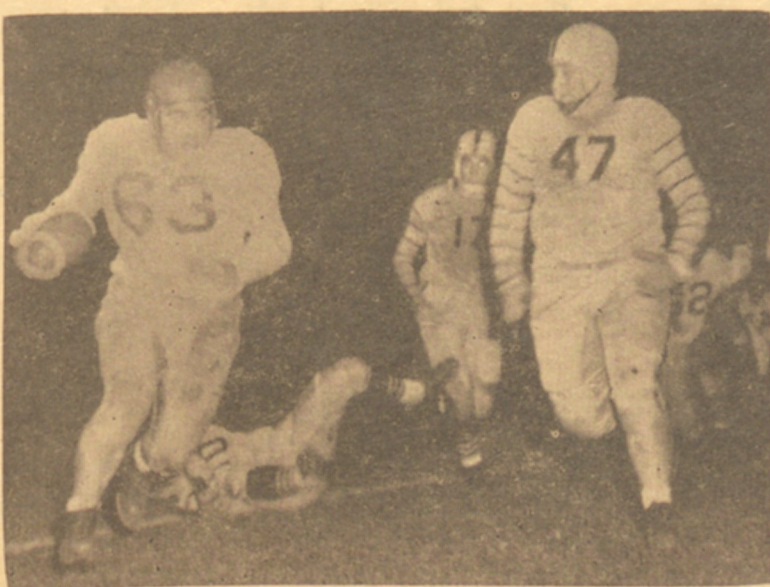

Left end Bill Kraft set up the tally for the Belfiori men. Bill Werbeckes punted to the Oshkosh 21 on a fourth down and four situation, Kraft smacked the receiver on the spot, and recovered his fumble. DiSalvo carried to the 16, then Steffen made it a first down on the four. Two running plays failed to gain, so Werbeckes took to the air and pitched to right end Tom Shield in the end zone for the score. Vern Steinmetz booted the game winning point to boost the Falcons to a 7-0 margin.

Bob Hubert, Merlin Sletten, and Bob Koplin spearheaded the River Falls forward wall in stopping a third period Oshkosh drive on the Titan 49. The Falcons took over on the 20 when Winarski's fourth down punt went into the end zone. Steffen and Di Salvo racked up two first downs in three plays, but a 15 yard penalty set the Falcons back to the 34. Two plays later Winarski picked off Steffen's aerial and rambled 45 yards down the east sideline to score. Vern Kusilek and Ron Wunrow cleared the way as the entire Falcon line crashed through to block the try for point.

River Falls continued to roll up yardage in the final period, but failed to score again. A last quarter break moved Oshkosh to River Falls' 47 as fullback Tom Manley intercepted a pass on the Titans' 24 and returned it 29 yards before Gene Luebker rolled him out of bounds. Bill Werbeckes hauled down a long Titan aerial on the Falcon 15 to erase the threat.

With about two minutes to go Bill Brandt, who suffered a slight concussion in the Eau Claire tilt, entered the game for one play and punted to the Oshkosh 12. Three plays later the Falcons were back threatening to score when Steffen's 22-yard jaunt gave them a first down on the Titan 18. Time ran out with the ball on the 10.

River Falls held a tremendous statistical edge with a total of 362 yards to 45. The Falcons gained 310 on the ground and 52 in the air, while Oshkosh compiled 34 rushing and passed for 11 more. Belfiori's crew led in first downs, 21-4. While the entire defense turned in an effective job, tackle Gene Luebker was a major factor in holding the Titans' yardage down.

Johnny Steffen turned in his finest offensive performance of the season as he ran and passed for a total of 198 yards. Johnny turned 33 rushes into 168 yards for a 5.1 average, and hit 4 of 10 passes for 30 yards. Saturday's performance gives him a total offense of 647 yards in four contests—an average of nearly 162 yards a game! This mark should rank him near the top in the nation's small colleges. The NAIA releases statistics on nation-wide leaders later this week.

"Bucky" DiSalvo sparkled as Brandt's replacement at fullback. He bucked for 85 yards in 17 plays for an average of 5 yards per carry.

Falcon Fanfare

by Jim Laue

Bill has earned the nickname "Sleepy", but is really wide awake on the football field. He was a three-letter griddier at Elcho high school, and has already won two Rs at WSC. Coach Phil Belfiori rates him as the Falcons' best all around flanker. He's caught key passes in nearly every football contest this fall, and has consistently dropped opposing backs for long losses.

"Sleepy" is active in other activities on the RFSC campus as well. He's a member of the R Club, Newman Club, and is treasurer of the Palette Club. Bill shows great interest in art, and enjoys drawing and clay sculpturing.

Two sporting experiences stand out in Bill's athletic activities. First, he says he vividly remembers racing 30 yards on an end-around play to score his first touchdown in high school football. The Falcons' 21-13 win over La Crosse also rates tops with our "sleepy" left flanker who is one of the finest ends in the conference.

John Rutter, a 5'10", 180 pound transfer student from Virginia, Minnesota, Junior College, has nailed down the starting quarterback spot on this year's squad. He's a junior from Kinney, Minn.,

and is majoring in biology.

John comes to RFSC with quite an athletic record. He won 12 letters in high school athletics, was an all-conference selection in football, and received honorable mention on the all-state squad his senior year. Following graduation John was chosen to represent the North in the annual Minnesota North - South high school all star game. It was quite an experience to pilot the cream of the crop in Minnesota high school athletics, and John rates it his top thrill in high school or inter-college sports.

At Virginia JC he quarterbacked the varsity gridders for two years and also was a two year regular on the basketball squad. Last summer he played with Chisholm in the Minnesota amateur baseball league.

In Coach Belfiori's system, which is basically single wing, the quarterback serves primarily as a blocking back. John also operates smoothly directing a T attack, calls plays, and is an accurate passer.

The Kinney crew-cut enjoys campus life at WSC and helps to finance his college education by working every week-day morning from 6 to 8 a.m. in the cafeteria. In his few spare moments he likes to hunt and fish, thus rounding out a schedule which makes him an active part of his favorite topic—the world of sports.

SPORTS IN A NUTSHELL

by Rog

For those of you who slept last week, we will briefly recap the 1955 World Series.

The whole affair began in Yankee stadium, where the Yankees won the first two games. The scene then shifted to Ebbets field in Brooklyn and the Dodgers proceeded to take three in a row—an unheard of thing—against the customary champion Yankees. Back to the stadium, the Yanks took the next game to square the series, and the stage was set for the grand finale. It was do or die for both clubs.

As you know, the comeback Bums downed the New Yorkers to win their first world series flag and thereby created a major sensation in the sports world.

To mention a few outstanding performances, we head the list with Johnny Podres, the 23-year-old lefty whose potent hurling accounted for half of Brooklyn's victories. Duke Snider set a new series total games record for home runs with nine. The topmost fielding play may have been Sandy Amoros' catch of Yogi Berra's certain double in the final contest. We can't forget Whitey Ford, the Yanks' southpaw who stopped the Dodgers twice, or the clutch hitting of Berra. Yogi collected ten hits to top all regular hitters with a .417 average.

When the gate receipts melon was sliced up, the winning Dodgers received $9,684 per individual full share, while the Yanks' losing shares were $5,739. That's pretty fair income for seven afternoons of work.

Also in the baseball vein, news broke last week that Frank Lane, the ousted general manager of the Chicago White Sox, was signed to a three-year contract for a similar position with the St. Louis Cardinals' front office.

Frantic Frankie boosted the Chisox from eighth place to a pennant contender, making approximately 200 trades during his tenure of office in Chicago. So you might say he was partially responsible for the fact that the White Sox attracted over six million fans in the past five years.

Although the Cards finished well down in the standings this year, a mountain of hope appears on the immediate horizon. The Cards are in the process of building a young, aggressive team and their farm system should provide Mr. Lane with enough material to enable him to repeat in his familiar role of master pennant sculptor.

It sure was nice to know that Alan Ameche has successfully broken into the pro-football ranks with the Baltimore Colts. He was no minor factor in the Colts' early season showing, combining with another rookie, George Shaw, the teammate's quarterback to score all the touchdowns in the first two league games.

ATTEND MEETING

River Falls is represented this afternoon at a meeting of college sports writers and publicists at the Pioneer Press in St. Paul. Attending are Jim Laue, freshman; Tom Benson, junior; and Wayne Wolfe, director of public relations.

Team Meets Stout Next

Coach Belfiori's Falcons travel to Menomonie this Saturday to face an improving Stout 11. Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Neelson Field. Both squads are entering the fourth contest of a five game league schedule.

Stout coach Jack Wink, a University of Wisconsin graduate, was not over-optimistic in a pre-season interview. "This year's team has greater depth and speed than teams of the past years, but has much less experience," he said.

Wink's 53 man squad is headed by 14 lettermen and several promising newcomers. Quarterback Don Woelfer and fullback Leo Janis, both seniors, give the starting backfield needed experience. Marv "Curly" Hanson, freshman left half, has the necessary speed to give the Blue Devils an explosive ground attack. Woelfer supplies the aerial punch.

Stout opened the season with a 13-0 non-conference win over Winona, tied a tough Superior team, 6-6, then took a 46-6 drubbing at the hands of La Crosse. Last Saturday the Blue Devils bowed to league leading Eau Claire 26-19.

'Pigskin Poetry'

by Mary Ullman

Since '48, they'd held the gate,
But justice will be done.
And in our gang big bedlam rang;
The bacon had been won.
Full half the town went down to drown
The fears that Phil had laid.
And so 'twas grand to see the stand
The better team had made.
Oh, some there were who could not but Condemn the world at large.
But some there were who hoped the world
Would always be at large.
And some there were who cringed and cried
The blocks they had to go.
But some there were who laughed and loved
A hundred miles or so.
And then there came that other game.
And oh! How sad it seems That dreams should die and hopes so high
Should lose to lesser teams.
And some there stood who never should,
And never will again.
And dreams so grand—(another stand)—
And none to say Amen.
Oh, somewhere in this wicked world
Dark clouds still hide the sun.
And somewhere Stone is prone to groan,
And teachers have no fun.
But somewhere there is still a hope
That there will come a day
When River Falls will beat them
all,
And start just any day.

Homecoming —

October 21-22

SINBAD SAYS:

I received the insult of my career yesterday. Someone came to me and asked if I was Sinbad. Blushing prettily, I replied, "Why, yes, but how did you know?" Whereupon the foul fellow beat me to within 1.07283 inches of my life. (Note accuracy of statement. Good, huh?) For a reason, he said that someone had accused him of writing this column, and he considered it an incalculable blow to his reputation. I, too, was insulted! Who else would be capable, witty, intelligent, and versatile enough,—in other words, crazy enough,—to write this? I defy any River Falls student to show a greater degree of insanity and irrationalism than myself.

Now, to prevent further mistakes of this woeful type, I feel that I must divulge my identity. Most of you have seen me at one time or another. Have you ever had that feeling that you were being followed, and upon turning around, seen a lonesome pair of eyeballs wink slowly and vanish? Well, that's my brother, George. He works days. However, nights, in the wee small hours, have you awakened to see a small green creature with three heads and 17 legs at the foot of your bed? If so, I suggest that you see a psychiatrist or drink a different brand of liquor. Those cuddly little green creatures only have 16 legs. And here is where you'll find me—the fourth leg from the left hand side.

So there I am; my identity is known. Now let's hope that this expose has the desired effect and that no other innocent person is given the praise for my gem-like achievements.

Now that my task is completed, I must go to meet one of my own kind. Your world and the nether regions wherein I reside have something in common, for tonight I shall meet my "hepat doll of seventeen" . . . LEGS, that is, not years . . .

Music Notes

by Glenn Gill

The concert band, which excludes no student with interest in concert playing and some former band experience, often has to do a little shuffling between sections to obtain as near satisfactory instrumentation as possible. Last year with a surplus of trumpet and cornet players three were shifted from that section to the French horn section. One of those (Glenn Sandve) is playing first horn this year also. In this year's concert band Mr. Rozehnal has had to fill some gaps in the trumpet-cornet section and in the French horn section. Dave Zerahn has been moved from clarinet to first cornet and Carlene Parrent from trombone to French horn. Both are doing a good job on their new instruments.

M E N C may soon have some season tickets for Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra concerts. They will be made available to two or more members each week for a nominal fee.

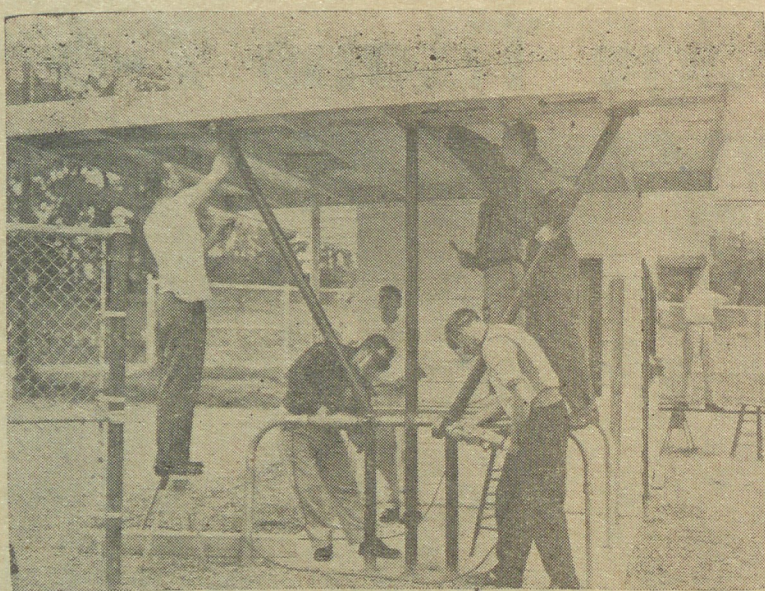

According to recently announced plans the band will most likely be going to Menomonie for the Stout football game. This will give the Falconettes a chance to perform a halftime show away from home.

FOR SALE: LIFE, TIME, SPORTS Illustrated by your other Time, Inc., representative. Special student rates. See Joe Pietrek at 509 S. Sycamore or phone 2924.

LOST: GYM DECORATIONS (leaves, streamers, etc.) from last year's Homecoming dance. If anyone knows where these things are stored, please contact Dianne Shay either on campus or at the dorm.

Mrs. Mary Plourde is acting as director for "Operation Story Hour."

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE STUDENT BODY are shown at work on the new ticket booth at Ramer Field. The booth will house four ticket sellers and the six gates will furnish more room for the fans to depart after a game. The color scheme is red and white. Members of the industrial arts classes and Faculty Athletic board members have been doing the work.

STORY TELLING NEW PROJECT OF LIT CLASS

A new technique has been introduced in the children's literature class taught by Miss Marion Hawkins. Each of the 34 students is taking part in story-telling hours in the Children's Library on campus and in the Public Library down town.

Each student is required to tell two stories, each of which is of a different nature and for a different age group.

The Story Hour at the Public Library will begin Saturday, October 15, from 9:30 to 10:30 o'clock. The first 12 registrants between the ages of five and seven years will compose the first story group. Classes from the Campus School will participate in Story Hour at the Children's Library during the school week.

Mrs. Mary Plourde is acting as director for "Operation Story Hour."

Intramurals—

The intramural program continues to progress rapidly as the touch football teams move into their fifth week of action with the following contests scheduled:

October 11, A league: Team 1 vs. team 4, team 3 vs. team 5 and team 2 vs. team 6.

October 13, B league: Team 7 vs. team 10 and team 9 vs. team 11.

A makeup game will be played Monday, October 10, between team 9 and team 10 of the B league. They had previously been scheduled for September 29.

Rain partially obliterated action last week as only two of the five regularly scheduled contests were held. All A league contests, which were scheduled for Tuesday, were postponed.

The results of the contests that managed to elude the dismal weather were as follows:

B league: Team 11 downed team 7, 11-6, and team 9 defeated team 2, 27-2.

DEBATE GROUP MEET WITH NEW STUDENTS

Twenty-five new students attended the speech meeting which was held Wednesday, October 5 in the Social room.

Larry Henneman, president of Pi Kappa Delta and co-debate manager, presided at the meeting. Last year's debaters were introduced along with the committee that will help with this year's debate work. Members of this committee are: Dr. Gilbert Smith, Dr. Edward Peterson, Dr. Harold Hodges, and Dr. Charles Graham. Miss Hawkins was introduced as the official debate coach.

Dr. Peterson discussed debate and its function in the life of a student. He pointed out that through debate one would have a greater opportunity to sharpen one's mind, make friends and bring honor to their school.

The debate program for the year was discussed and an outline of the debate and discussion questions was presented to the group.

Anyone who was unable to attend this speech meeting, may meet with the group, Wednesday, October 12 in 121S.

IVADELL LETCH HEADS RURAL LIFE CLUB

The first meeting of the Rural Life club was held Monday, October 3. The following officers have been elected for the 1955-56 school year: president, Ivadell Letch; vice president, Sandra Skoglund; secretary, Carol Omtvedt; treasurer, Ardyce Westberg, and reporter, Ilene Larson.

Homecoming plans were discussed and it was decided to decorate a window downtown. Appointed to this committee were Sandra Skoglund, Carol Omtvedt, Susy Sorenson, Dorothy Frederickson, Shirley Shoedahl, Cherie Larson and Ilene Larson.
