College Band Visits High Schools On Publicity Tour

Also, Give Main Street Concert Saturday

Tuesday the entire River Falls State Teachers College band completed a trip that took in a number of the neighboring towns. The route followed took in Hudson, Roberts New Richmond, and Hammond where the band played for the students. At New Richmond the principal of the high school invited Mr. Schliep to present his band in a short program in the auditorium before the student assembly as a pre-pep meeting, which was followed by a school baseball game. At Hammond a few numbers were played at the baseball park where Hammond was playing a local game. These few numbers were repeated in a short concert on the main street for the benefit of the townspeople, and afterwards all the members of the party were given a treat by Mr. Ames. At the other two towns a short concert was played on the school lawn, for which the student body was given a short recess. The trip was started from the campus at 12:30 o'clock P. M. and was completed in the late afternoon.

The motive for the trip was undoubtedly one of publicity as part of the advertising plan of the college. It is not an entirely new project, but it has not been carried out during the past few years.

The cars providing the transportation were driven by Mr. Ames, Mr. Junkman, Bud Hawkins, Gordon Foss, Lyle Radcliffe, Albert Schultz and Mr. Schliep, the director of the band and professor of music in the college.

The band made a second tour this week visiting the towns of Durand, Elmwood and Spring Valley.

Art Class Students Make Colorful Designs

The Art department, under the direction of Miss Greene, has completed some very interesting as well as colorful projects during the last few weeks.

Marvin Pratt has recently completed an oil painting of the south view of South Hall, even including the tall chimneys which adorn the building. The picture is about eight by ten inches in size and those who have seen the painting say that it is a very artistic piece of work.

The design class has recently completed a series of designs which will be photographed by the local photographer and copies printed for those who may desire them. One of the most colorful projects in the art classes is a "tied and dyed" velvet jacket made by Marjorie Gallup.

Voice Review Book On Display Wednesday

A bound volume of all the copies of the Student Voice published during the 1930-31 school year will be on display during the last three days of this week.

As less than fifty copies remain un-ordered, students and faculty members who want a complete record of the year's activities are urged to place their order early. Arno Dittbrenner and Leonard Warner will be in charge of distribution.

Huge Crowd Hears Band At Concert

Hundreds of people from the surrounding neighborhood drove into River Falls to hear the band concert given in the main street park Saturday evening.

The college band played for more than an hour. According to comments expressed by the crowd, the concert was very well received.

Collegians to Partake In Memorial Service

The college will be well represented in the Memorial Day program sponsored by the Harvey Fletcher Post 121 of the American Legion at the local cemetery Saturday, May 30.

Music by the college band; Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address" given by Morris Buske; and "Logan's General Order No. II" by President J. H. Ames are some of the numbers on the program which will begin shortly after the march at 10:30 A. M.

Eat, Make Merry Collegians Motto At Final Outing

One Hundred Students Go To The Monument for Outing

A large group of students and faculty attended the all-school picnic at the Monument about six miles out of town last Tuesday at the supper hour. The affair was sponsored by the three religious organizations of the school: the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., and the N. C. A.

The students gathered in front of South Hall and were taken out in cars, some of which made several trips. Arriving at the picnic place, some began helping "Prof Jake" in the preparation of his famous squaw corn. After opening about two dozen cans of corn and breaking several dozen eggs, the chef's assistants joined the other members of the party who were already clambering up the huge sandstone pillar known as the Monument.

Much sport was had by the students in their climbing and perhaps still more in assisting the faculty children who also aspired to high places.

After a half hour or more of sport, the picnickers were summoned to the feast. Squaw corn, sandwiches, and coffee were served; and everyone rushed to a seat. Second helpings were in order and after that great dishes of ice cream.

Forensic Forum Group To Hold Picnic Friday

Preparations have been formulated for the Forensic Forum picnic which will be held at the lodge in the park on Friday afternoon at 5:30.

Music, recitations, talks, sports, and other novel events will feature the program. The election of officers will also be made at this time. Those members taking part in the program are Hawkins, Davee, Madison, and Evelyn Volla.

Immediately after the program a variety of eats will be served which will be in charge of Jean McIntyre. Others taking part are Edward Fisher, materials, Arno Dittbrenner, entertainment, and Leslie Libakken, activities. This will be the concluding meeting of the Forensic Forum this year and all members are urged to be on hand.

New Awnings Decorate Main Office Windows

New awnings were installed on the office windows Saturday. The material is made of a heavy canvas colored with stripes of green, red and orange.

It is said that several years ago these windows were covered with similar awnings, but were torn down and never replaced until this year.

They will serve in protecting the office force from the sweltering heat of the afternoon sun's rays during the summer months. It is a well worthwhile addition and will undoubtedly be appreciated by those who must spend the summer in the college office.

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We loved, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Lived and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch. Be yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

AMERICA'S ANSWER

Rest ye in peace, ye Flanders dead.
The fight that ye so bravely led We've taken up. And we will keep
True faith with you who lie asleep
With each a cross to mark his bed,
And poppies blowing overhead,
When once more his own life blood ran red.

So let your rest be sweet and deep
In Flanders fields.

Fear not that ye have died for naught
The torch ye threw to us we caught.
Ten million hands will hold it high,
And Freedom's light shall never die!
We've learned the lesson that ye taught
In Flanders fields.

Junior Class Plans Picnic for Today

Plans have been made for a Junior class picnic at the local golf course this afternoon, according to the members of the committee in charge of the affair.

According to reports, this will not be an ordinary picnic. "Tack" Hammer and Frank Vuchetich have made arrangements for a variety of games. They will choose teams to play "monkey" golf, in which everyone present will have a part in the frolic.

The eats committee under the direction of Mrs. Gallup has indicated that a real treat is in store for the group. It is rumored that the best part of the program is being kept a secret.

The local golf course is an ideal picnic spot, and every Junior anticipates something more than just a picnic. Those who plan to attend are requested to bring a cup, fork and spoon. Arrangements for transportation have been made and the group will assemble between the two main buildings at four o'clock.

New Meleteans To Be On Sale Latter Part of The Week

Many New Features Are Found In 1931 Publication

The 1931 edition of the Meletean is just off the press and is expected to be here for distribution during the last of this week, according to reports from the staff in charge of the publication.

The 1931 edition is larger than last year's annual and is bound in an unusually fine and beautiful cover. The arrangement is also different from that of the 1930 publication.

The designs on the cover and the pages of the book were taken from the designs of decorations in the auditorium. This makes the annual distinctly representative of our college.

All the copies will be distributed from the Meletean room on the third floor of South Hall. Those who signed a subscription blank, but did not pay their dollar down are asked to be ready to receive their copies and pay for them at the time, as there were only a few extra books ordered and the distributing staff does not guarantee to hold the copies that are not reserved with a down payment.

Announcement of their arrival will most likely be posted. Those who have ordered their copy are requested to have the final installment of $1.75 ready when they get the book.

Cafeteria Employees Picnic At Prescott

About twenty of the regular employees and substitutes of the college cafeteria were treated to a picnic at the Prescott tourist park Saturday afternoon.

The group was taxied to the picnic ground in Leonard Johnson's truck. The afternoon was spent in hiking, playing kittenball and horseshoe, and cards.

The picnic dinner served at five o'clock in the tourist kitchen proved to be more than enough for several present. Judging by the grunts and moaning heard shortly after the repast was over, no one went hungry. The homeward journey in the back of the big truck served to wear away the discomforts of over-indulgence and by the time the group arrived home they were forgotten.

The cafeteria picnic is an annual affair and is an event looked forward to by all who work in the institution.

Miss Wharton Prepares For Second Recital

Miss Wharton will present her pupils in recital in the auditorium on June first at 4 o'clock. The program will consist of piano solos, duets and two piano numbers. The harmony class has been working on some compositions, cornet solo, vocal and violin solos and a girl's quartet, which will be presented by the composers. It is right after school is dismissed and you will not have to make an extra trip. Please come.

Mary Alice Sherman, pupil of Mrs. Sherman will assist with readings.

President Bartosh Appoints Numerous Committees

Committees have been appointed and plans are complete for the class day exercises which are to be held on the South Hall campus on Tuesday, June 9, at 10 o'clock in the morning. The event is one of the many which will be held here during commencement week.

The graduates will gather in North Hall and march in a group to the South campus at which place the exercises are to be held.

A program consisting of music by the band, dances by a group of girls and the reading of the class history will be given. All senior awards will be given at that time. The handing down of the traditional ox yoke from the senior to the junior group will be another feature of the event.

Viking scenes and a Viking atmosphere to the program will be characteristic of the occasion.

William Turner is general chairman of class day affairs. Elmer Beran will be the master of ceremony. The members of the committees are as follows:

Senior Ag Men Are Guests of Prof. May

Senior Ag men and the agrarian faculty members gathered for a sixty-three dinner at Prof. J. M. May's home Thursday evening. Eighteen men were at the dining table.

Mr. May acted as toastmaster and in an informal way called on several members of the group. At the close of the meal the group tried their skill at various games of cards.

At an impromptu election, the following people were selected for the listed positions: secretary of agriculture, Carl Neitzke; best-looking man, Irwin Lotz; most dignified gentlemen, Earle Sanford; man with best disposition, Leonard Madison; biggest bluffer, Carl Neitzke; most versatile man, Prof. Johnson; man with biggest feet, James Hocking.

Score of Staff Members Attend Theatre Party

More than a score of writers, business staff members and other workers on the Student Voice staff attended a theatre party given by Miss Barr on Friday evening. The talking picture "Skippy" provided the entertainment.

Across the Editor's Desk

One more issue remains on the Student Voice publishing schedule. It is the ambition of the staff to make number thirty, one of the outstanding issues of the year. We hope to have full details of commencement week, the placement finals, and a word from Pres. Ames as our feature articles.

The writer wants to take this opportunity to comment on the fine way River Falls business men have cooperated in making the college paper possible. The advertising throughout the year has been as large as we could handle in a paper of this type. The merchants have, also, been very fine about having their ad copy in early.

The merchants of this town are willing to back the college to their limit. We shall always think of the people on the streets of River Falls as a group of real friends who are willing to cooperate in every possible way.

In making a few comments on the year's work, we would be rude, indeed, if we didn't mention the fine way in which the Meletean staff has cooperated with us throughout the entire year. The Meletean editor and Miss Latta have many, many times been called on to lend us cuts for our publication. They have always responded cheerfully.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank them for the splendid way in which they have cooperated.

Last of all we wish to comment on the fine way in which our publisher has cooperated. When we were behind schedule on our copy, it has necessitated the printer's working far into the night on Mondays in order to get the mechanical work accomplished and the paper out on time. This cooperation, no doubt, has been one of the greatest factors in making this year a success.

Exchanges

From an editorial "A Track Team! Bah" in the Royal Purple (White-water) comes this:

"At present a few sters are carrying the entire load. First's won't win a meet even though it does its part. Get out on the track you freshmen, sophomores and juniors. Help win second and third places, even if you can't take a first. It all counts and counts a lot faster than no points at all."

We wonder if this can't be applied to lots of things besides track teams.

The same exchange tells us about a "Club for Gum Chewers."

"There is a new organization here in school, namely, 'The Royal Order of Cows'. This order was organized for the students who chew gum. The meetings are going to start as soon as the next person is caught chewing gum. The initiation is to throw the gum away."

The Spectator (Eau Claire) carries a number of interesting items:

"Isaac Grey Earth, a Sioux Indian, will speak before the college assembly on Thursday, May 14, on the problems of the Indians in America."

"They call it barnyard golf altho it isn't played in a barnyard not it isn't golf. It's horseshoe pitchin'."

From an editorial in the "Echo" (Milwaukee).

"The faculty of the Milwaukee State Teachers college recently passed a ruling which will, in the future, forbid all students on probation from taking part in any extra-curricular activity."

The next task for the makers of this ruling is to define 'extra-curricular activity.'"

In the Stoutonia we find:
 "The fellows in Lynwood Hall have an uncanny way of telling who studied and who does not. They claim that the studious ones' pants are shiny from sitting so much."

"Lawrence Hoyt nearly drowned in his room the other night. The nearly fatal accident occurred when his pillow slipped, the bed spread, and he fell into the spring."

Ped Hikers Find New Thrills On Down-River Jaunt

Three college men desirous of spending a peaceful and quiet afternoon wended their way along the meandering South Fork unmindful of what fate had in store for them.

With blissful serenity, they wandered along the banks of the stream stepping amid the countless buttercups, and dandelions and casting a glance now and then at the sky where in slow grandeur, fleecy white clouds went sailing by.

What could have been more peaceful than a day in May when even the stream rippled by in silence only broken now and then by the song of the meadow lark, song sparrow and snipe. Then the effort of walking appeared to be too much at this time so they seated themselves on an inviting grassy knoll overlooking the river and far removed from earthly cares.

Suddenly a huge bull bounded from out of the woods, hellowing his rage at everything and nothing in particular. Awe stricken, the three men stood and watched him while he tore the sod asunder and enveloped himself with dust. Not being content with this form of gymnastics he descended rapidly toward where the men stood, forhoding anything but good will. Not willing to come to any extensive argument with him, they hastily departed for the fence, breaking all previous records for sprinting and reaching it none to soon.

These students, Robert Davee, Marvin Pratt, and Horace Morrill are fully convinced that while no day can be more serene than one in May, it may have unusual things in store.

Final Assembly Under Music Department

The final assembly meeting, which will be held Thursday, will be in charge of the music department. Mr. Geere will be in charge of the program.

A girls' quartette composed of Margaret Kelly, Dorothy Swenson, Arlene Finstad and Gretchen Grimm will sing several selections. Numbers will be rendered by the Woman's chorus under the direction of Miss Wharton. Christi Njos will play a piano solo.

The college chorus in making its final appearance before the student body will render the following numbers:

- "O Lord! Send the Fire"
- "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot"
- "Roll, Jordan, Roll"
- "Old Uncle Ned"

::: W. A. A. :::

The girls are practicing archery. Helen Harding, Portia Hill, and a few others have been known to hit the bull's-eye. They practice Tuesday at 3:10 and Thursday at 2:20.

The girls' tennis tournament is very exciting, some of the games being very close and hard fought. Lucile Garley and Bunny Smith have reached the semi-finals. Others still in the tournament are Adele Deans, Thelma Haga, Clarice Olson and Marie Johnson.

The girls are still practicing baseball. There are fourteen or fifteen out for this popular spring sport. They practice at four o'clock Tuesday and Thursday.

At the final meeting of the year, the W. A. A. elected the following officers:

- President, Alice Bartosh
- Vice-President, Leona Hill
- Secretary, Bernice Smith
- Treasurer, Ruth Reedal

Junior High Group Are Poppy Salesmen

Last Friday was Poppy Day on the campus. It has been a custom of this school to have our Poppy day on the Friday preceding National Poppy Day which is the Saturday before Memorial Day.

The children of the Elementary and Junior High Schools had charge of it as usual. They had the territory of campus and buildings so divided that no student or faculty member failed to receive an invitation to buy a poppy. The response to these requests was most generous. The children received over fifty dollars.

Before Poppy Day, the teachers in the Training School made use of it for reviewing the history of the World War. The children then learned that these poppies that we buy are made by the disabled veterans of the war, and that the money obtained by the Poppy Sale is used for relief work among these disabled veterans and their families.

The children feel that this is their own particular problem and enter the sale with great spirit. This is one of the very fine civic problems that the pupils of these two schools work out together.

Food for Thought

Alcohol directly caused 103 deaths in Wisconsin last year, and many more were caused by alcoholic liquor indirectly, according to statistics of the State Board of Health.

The figures show a decrease from the 1929 report which indicated the number as 113.

The state imprisons a man for taking one's life. Why shouldn't the state put the bootlegger behind the bars, when he is the cause of many more deaths per year than those convicted of murder?

Too many of us try to keep our good resolutions by putting them on ice and never using them.

NOW THAT VACATION IS NEAR

'Twas a cool moonlit night,
 The brook glimmered bright
 As serenly it flowed on alone.
 Myriad of stars up above
 Twinkled their good will and love
 Like jewels in God's heavenly throne.

The reeds softly swayed
 While pines in the glade
 Entertwined their gnarled arm o'er the stream
 The breeze gently blowed
 The brook onward flowed
 It was just like a scene from some dream.

While off near the brook
 In a low sheltered nook
 The campfire shed its warm light
 The campers were glad
 They'd no use for the sad
 So they filled with their songs the cool night.

Camping's the thing
 Happiness to bring Back to hearts that have lost all their cheer.
 Nature acts like a tonic
 For temporary and chronic,
 Diseases that add to man's care.

Learn from the trees
 And the whispering breeze.
 Come. Let nature be your teacher.
 Your musty books leave
 Next fall to retrieve
 Meanwhile, be a pupil to nature.

River Falls 12-Stout 0

In the last college game at home the River Falls baseball team jumped on the Stout pitchers to win by the score of 12 to 0.

Ray Helixon continued his heavy hitting by clouting out a home run in the first inning. Harry Kotleski came out of a bad batting slump with four hits out of five times at bat.

Ole Clafin pitched the game and had complete control at all times. Some sparkling fielding by his mates helped him out of some bad holes. The River Falls team played errorless ball for the second time this year. "Claf" gave only five well scattered hits. This was Ole's fifth victory of the season, and his second shut-out.

River Falls 5-Eau Claire 2

The River Falls baseball squad won its fifth straight victory when they triumphed over Eau Claire on the local field last Monday. The game was somewhat slow and uninteresting, the final score being 5 to 2 in favor of River Falls.

Ole Clafin did the pitching for River Falls. As usual Ole was effective and held the Eau Claire boys at all times.

Both teams did considerable bobbling of the ball, but did not permit many runs to cross the plate by this method.

Ray Helixon was unable to play because of sickness, so Ollie King played first base with Joe Braun taking Ollie's place behind the bat.

River Falls 6--Cretin 1

A scrappy team from Cretin High school were turned back yesterday by the baseball team. The game was called at the end of the eighth inning with the score 6 to 1 in favor of River Falls.

The Cretin pitcher kept the River Falls batters down until the third inning when two runs were pushed over. River Falls scored again in the fourth and fifth innings when some clever bunting demoralized the Cretin infield. Cretin scored their only run in the seventh inning when they got several hits.

Joe Braun started the game on the mound. Joe was somewhat wild, but held the high school boys in check. Vern Woodward pitched the last two innings.

Pat Mattson proved to be the most effective hitter during the course of this game. He got three hits out of four trips to the plate. Mattson has been hitting the ball at a great clip since he was inserted into the regular lineup several weeks ago.

Ray Helixon To Lead Cagers

At the basketball meeting today, Ray Helixon, star guard for the past two seasons was elected captain of next year's squad.

Helixon was placed on the state mythical team during his two years of college competition. Not only has he made a good record in basketball, but is a three letter man, having won letters in football, baseball and basketball.

Ray hails from Marshfield, Wisconsin where he took part in athletics under coach Klandrud when the latter was coaching there.

So They Say---

By David Johnston

Many students probably have not realized the extent of the sport program carried on by our school this spring. Those in charge of athletics have been endeavoring to give the students a varied program of sports which would not be only interesting to those participating in them, but would also be an attraction to the spectators. Especially has this been true of the baseball schedule.

Athletic competition between colleges has been carried on in three sports; baseball, swimming, and golf. The men's and women's tennis tournaments were organized to give students competition in this form of sports. An inter-house playground ball league was formed, and all the men participating in this have thoroughly enjoyed these twilight conflicts. Gymnasium classes have been held at least one period a week outdoors. One more thing which we can mention was the spring football practice, ending in a regulation game between two picked teams. We believe that this game was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

To cap the climax of this program of sports, River Falls has been very successful in its competition with its friendly enemies, the colleges in the surrounding territory. The baseball team has gone through the season thus far without a defeat by a college team. The golf team won first in two of the three triangular meets with Stout and Eau Claire. The third time they finished second. Only our swimming team is somewhat behind that of our rivals. However, it is plainly seen that we are improving in this branch of sport, and in a few years should take our place among the leaders. Those in charge of our athletics are to be congratulated on the showing our school has made this spring.

Keeler Drops Tennis Finals to Dawson

In the finals of the men's singles tournament Chuck Dawson defeated Louis Keeler in two straight sets, 6-4, 6-4. Dawson was doped to win, and he did so in a very convincing manner.

Keeler started off in fine style. In the first set he had a 4-2 game advantage before Dawson got started. Dawson's crooked serve and his speedy return began to function, and Keeler was unable to win a game over his first four.

During the second set Keeler again took an early lead. However, Chuck settled down and drove through to win by a 6-4 count.

Keeler and Dawson both are to be congratulated on their fine showing in this year's tournament. Keeler defeated last year's champion, and Chuck took "Boots" Christianson, last year's runner-up, into camp.

Students should be interested to see the cavalry troop which will be camped directly east of Ramer Field this evening and tomorrow. Tomorrow afternoon the baseball team will engage in a game with the troop crack team. The game will be called at four o'clock.

Vocational Guidance Man Visits College

Mr. B. J. Rohan of the Appleton schools visited here May 22. He has a national reputation as a promoter of club work and vocational guidance for Junior High School pupils. As evidence of the fact, it may be noted that the Appleton school system was the only one in Wisconsin outside of Milwaukee which was included in a national survey sponsored by the United States Bureau of education.

Special Classes May Be Organized

Will all those students who are interested in a class in harmony or form and composition during summer school see Miss Wharton some time this week? Also any interested in class piano lessons. Come in and ask about them.

Happiness is a perfume you cannot pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself.

The Spotlight

Illuminating the Higher Things in Life

It is to be regretted that certain individuals have difficulty setting up a standard of discipline in the training school while taking practice teaching there. The trouble is not necessarily with them, but rather with our student body. Perhaps the reason may be laid to the fact that the children do not consider us as mature teachers, but rather as just a group of young people going to college and taking practice for experience. Couldn't we, as a student body, help the situation along by watching our vocal relationships and our behavior about the college when in their presence?

One of the best rules for studying is "don't begin to begin, but begin." In other words, don't waste time, but collect your materials and get to work.

Have you noticed that all stairs in this institution are two-way traffic affairs. This is especially true between classes. Also, five minutes are allowed for people to get from one class to another. Therefore, considering the fact that some people have quite a distance to go, wouldn't it be a good idea if Johnny didn't talk to Tom for about two minutes every time they met on the stairs, while classes are passing. You see it is hardly possible to walk around the tete-a-tete as people are coming from the other direction and someone is going to be late for class.

Surely there are no objections for people to go to the Gospel Mission for curiosity sake, but remember, it is the religion of a group of people, so it should be treated as such.

The student body is to be complimented for two things especially. First, the splendid support given our winning baseball team. It isn't perhaps as good as that given at a football or basketball game, but at least a decided improvement over last year. Secondly, the fine manner in which everyone tries to keep our campus free of unbecoming materials.

Within a short time our Seniors will have graduated. Everyone wishes them success and in return ask them only to carry on as former graduates from this school have--which is something to be proud of. You will be missed, but we hope you come back to visit us often.

Colleges and prominent educators are asking for higher entrance standards. Have they a right to condemn a person just because they have not graduated from high school with honors. Perhaps they have and perhaps they have not. At any rate, it is a question for debate and by all means far from one-sided.

Boys Will Play--!

How a small, innocent looking round object caused much mirth as well as discomfort among the members of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet at their retreat on Lake St. Croix last week was the subject of much joking after their return.

The story begins with one of the boys finding a small round object on one of his wanderings far from camp. He brought it in and kept it from the prying eyes of the fellows by concealing it in a bed until dark. The one assigned to the bed aforesaid was the first victim. He was awakened from his slumbers when the creature, for it really was very much alive, began crawling about as if seeking a more suitable companion.

Several of the victims of the manoevers tired of the thing, and locked it in a room for the rest of the night. The next morning a prominent college professor was rudely awakened from his slumbers by the animal. If he would have been an instructor of zoology the turtle may have met its fate, but as luck would have it, the gentlemen was not interested in the anatomy of animals, and the innocent creature still is as lively as ever.

The Gossip Twins

We had hopes that the students in this school had enough good bringing up so that it wouldn't be necessary to have rules made to keep some inconsiderate tennis-enthusiastics from monopolizing the tennis courts.

There's always a bright side to everything-even to Christmas weather in May. At least there's not the temptation to play tennis or go out strolling all day long instead of slaving on that old notebook that's about seven weeks behind.

Of all the small tricks! How some people could deliberately set out for the all-school picnic with the back seat of their car empty, knowing that up on the campus the members of the transportation committee were tearing their hair trying to find cars.

It's too bad there isn't a regular baseball conference. The way the games are going now, we'd have a good chance for a championship.

Anyone who thinks that writing for the S. V. is all drudgery should have been in the theatre party Friday night. The club sure got a break that night!

Fair and Warmer

"The colored preacher was describing the 'bad place' to a congregation of awed listeners. 'Friends,' he said, 'you all done see dis melted iron running out of a furnace, ain't you? White-hot, hissing and sizzling. Well, brethern,' and he pointed a long lea brethern," and he pointed a long lea lean finger at the frightened crowd. "Well," he continued, "They use dat stuff for ice cream in de place Ah been talkin' 'bout!"
